SHELTON TO OLYMPIA

PROJECTED ROAD ON P. T. S. SURVEY.

When Completed It Will Leave Only Fifty Miles to Make Continuous Line From Tenino to Townsend.

Another link in the railroad from the sound to Olympia is in good shape, according to the Shelton Tribune. This is from Shelton to Olympia, a distance of about 35 miles on the line of the old Port Townsend Southern survey. This leaves about 50 miles from Quilcene to Shelton to complete the P. T. S. from Port Townsend to Tenino. The Tribune says:

"Shelton can have a railroad. There is nothing remarkable in that, because it was always possible, if not probable, but it is now probable and possible, and the only feature which will deprive Shelton direct connection with the Northern Pacific railway is the failure on the part of its citizens to raise a paltry $8,000!

"W. H. Kneeland has been working for a zealously for a long time, and the Tribune is pleased to announce that Mr. Kneeland's efforts have been crowned with success, conditionally.

"One of these conditions is the raising of $8,000 in Shelton, one-half to be paid when the first Northern Pacific car comes into Shelton, and the balance to be paid when the road is completed into Olympia.

"The object is to construct the Shelton Southwestern railway on toward Olympia on the Kneeland survey, which crosses the Blakely road at the Forbes place, near Kamilche. When this piece of track is completed, interchange of traffic will take place, and Shelton will have an outlet pending the completion of the railroad to Olympia direct.

"This is the best piece of news this paper has ever been able to present to the community. It is not problematical, neither is it mythical, but it is a straightforward proposition, based on what is believed to be a very reasonable rexuest for a bonus. The matter must be taken up at once and pushed until the required amount is subscribed, as the amount must be pledged before November 7, and active coustruction will begin at once."

Not To Be Operated.

HOQUIAM, Nov. 8—The Northern Pacific Railroad has decided not to operate the fourteen miles of new road built during the summer between Hoquiam and the Humptulips river.

Although the track is completed, the transfer has not been made, and will not be until the discontinuance of the rains.

Assistant General Superintendent Law states that the operating department has not been advised of the approaching operation of the new piece of line, and it will not be turned over to the company until next year.

WILL STRIKE OIL.

The Lapush Oil Co. has shut down for the present, and it is impossible to go much deeper with the present rig as the casing cannot be got any deeper on account of the caving formation they have encountered. The company has now ordered a hydraulic rotary, as they are used successfully in such formation as the Lapush Oil Co. has struck. They have reached a depth of 516 feet and the indications cannot be beat anywhere. Manager Scott feels certain that oil will be struck in the present well, as the indications continue to get better the deeper they go. The rotary will be here on the ground as quick as possible, when the work will be rushed night and day until the well is down and oil struck.—Record.

NOTCE TO ELECTORS.

Notice is hereby given that the books for the registration of voters in the city of Port Angeles will be closed at four o'clock, p. m., Saturday, November, 22nd, 1902, and will remain closed until after the municipal election to be held in this city on Tresday, December the 22nd, 1902.

All quahified electors who have not registered this year, and desire to vote at the coming municipal election must register before the books close as above.

WERE LOVERS 50 YEARS AGO

AND NOW THEY ANE HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Interesting Romance is Told in a Letter Just Received by an Everett Woman—Bride Has Been a Resident of Everett.

An old love affair that 50 years did not dim, nor intervening hundreds of miles destroy, is told in a letter just received by Mrs. L. Muehleisen from her mother, formerly Mrs. Martha E. Merrifield, of Everett, but now Mrs. W. Topping, of Oswego, Kan.

Fifty years ago, when the present Mrs. Topping was 16 years of age, she was courted in Hastings, Mich., by the young men, Merrifield and Topping. The two youngsters looked very much alike and was always the best of friends.

Mr. Merrifield won the handsome girl, but Topping wasn't forgotten, though he moved down into Kansas, where for 30 years he has occupied the same house. He married and four children are settled around him with their families. Mr. and Mrs. Merrifield moved to Abilene, Kan., where eight children were born, three of whom are Mrs. Muehleison, of Everett, N. W, Merrifield, of Lowell, and E. C. Merrifield of Sultan.

Three years ago Mr. Merrifield died. Mr. Topping was also deprived of his mate by death. Mrs. Merrifield came to Washington two years ago to live with her children.

Three months ago Mr. Topping was about to make a visit and wrote to Mrs. Merrifield in Abilene that he would stop off and see her. The letter was forwarded to Everett, and thus the old courtship was renewed after a breach of half a century. The marriage took place in Oswego, Nov. 10th. Mr. Topping is 66 years of age. The old couple will live on the Kansas farm.—Record.

[NOTE—The above is of especial local interest because of the fact that N. W. Merrifield is well known here through several years' residence and as an instructor in the city schools.—ED.]

COMPLETE THE CONNECTION

NOW IS THE OPPORTUNE TIME TO DO SO.

It is a Necessity, Whether the P. A. E. Uses It or Not—Attorney Richardson Advises Passage of a Resolution.

Wednesday's council meeting was unimportant in that it took no action on the two important matters before it, though a start was made in that direction. The tax ordinance was adopted.

The city attorney reported moneys collected by him on delinquent taxes in amount of $178, and remitted same by check payable to the city treasurer.

The ordinance committee recommended passage of the tax levy ordinance, and same was adopted by unanimous vote.

The sidewalk repair ordinance was not reported and the committee was given another week in which to report same.

New bills read and referred:

A J Andresen, hauling to cem'try.	$ 3 00

Maintance of poor, Oct	18 00

Mr. Hallahan reported that T. Reynolds had agreed to repair road and the ditch on Albert street, between 8th and 10th streets for $8. The amount was allowed, The councilman also reported the children of Mrs. Gornflo very ill and she in want. He read letters from Dr. Appleton to that effect. Mr. Hallahan was given power to relieve any threatened suffering.

Mr. Cushing appeared before council and stated that he was very anxious to have the gap in Railroad Avenue filled up. There seems to be considerable doubt as to the status of the case. Mr. Pope, of the P. A. E. had secured about two-thirds of the necessary signers from property owners and the matter is in excellent shape to be completed. The connection is desirable and will ultimately be wanted whether the P. A. E gets in shape to use it or not.

Attorney Richardson also appeared before council. He read extract of law of 1899 (p. 56) wherein council is empowered to pass a resolution authorizing the city treasurer to accept improvement fund warrants for assessment levied in said district. He thought it to the best interests of the city that such a resolution be passed, for thereby the city can collect in full without litigation, and all warrants thus paid in are cancelled. The city attorney was given a week to report the matter.

Seguin.

Special to THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

H. Priest is again able to be around. Last month he was severely hurt by a falling tree, and is now thanking his stars that it is no worse.

New families are arriving on the prairie every week and those who have not seen the place for the past year or so would not know it. Those who come, remain, and write others in the east to join them. Seguin will be the center of population if the present gait of emigration keeps up.

The boys are still congratulating Joseph McDonnell over his happy marriage to Miss Wilkins the latter part of last month. The marriage took place during the election rush and we failed to report. There was a big attendance and the young folks were most liberally remembered with presents of every description.

Last Sunday evening a very interesting wedding took place on the prairie at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Stone, whereat this estimable and respected couple gave the hand of their daughter, Fannie, in marriage to Mr. Arthur W. Cays, one of Dungeness' most popular and prosperous young farmers. The ceremony was performed at six o'clock by the Rev. Marsh and was witnessed by the relatives and a very few intimate friends. Miss Jessie, the bride's sister, graciously assisted that lady, and Mr. Levi McDonnell did the honors of best man. After the ceremony, a delicious wedding dinner was served. A large collection of valuable presents were received by the happy and deserving couple. They will reside on the Cays farm southwest of Dungeness, which the son has made arrangements with the father to manage hereafter. The people of the community here are so certain this union will prove one of lasting joy, each cordially extends his heartiest congratulations.

Last Tuesday evening was the first night at home for the new bride and groom, and a large circle of their friends from here and Dungeness gathered at the Cays' farm and gave them a grand surprise. The evening's pastime proved most enjoyable to all privilegod to attend.

A Typical South African Story.

O. R. Larsen, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larsen says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by all druggists.

An English Author Wrote:

"No shade, no shine, no fruit, no flowers, no leaves—November!" Many Americans would add no freedom from catarrh, which is so aggravated during this month that it becomes constantly troublesome. There is abundant proof that catarrh is a constitutional disease, It is related to scrofula and consumption, being one of the wasting diseases. Hood's Sarsaparilla has shown that what is capable of eradicating scrofula, completely cures catarrh and taken in time prevents consumption, We cannot see how any sufferer can put off taking this medicine, in view of the widely published record of its radical and permanent cures. It is undoubtedly America's Greatest Medicine for America's Greatest Disease—Catarrh.

CITIZENS' MASS CONVENTION.

CALL MADE FOR TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH.

Every Officer of the City Except One to Be Re-elected or Succeeded—New Brooms in Some Instances Promised.

The city election is approaching, and a few persons have been mentioned for some of the offices, but as yet very few. It is understood that some are to retire, while others will possibly have no opposition in their reelection. Among the latter are Clerk Smith and Treasurer Nailor.

Mayor Bradley it is generally understood will not stand for reelection though we have not interviewed the gentleman. All the councilmen except Mr. Hallahan are to be succeeded by themselves or others. Councilmen Grubb and Gould, both serving as appointees of council, can only serve until the next general election, and they will have to come before the people this year for reelection to fill the vacancy for the unexpired terms of ex-councilmen Hunt and Gould, who were refused leave of absence.

Nobody seems to care to take the initiative in calling a convention. The representatives of the two parties believing it the duty of the citizens, and the entire council being interested, the following call seemed the only solution:

Port Angeles, Wash., Nov. 12, 1902.

To the citizens of Port Angeles, greeting:

Having been solicited by a number of the citizens, and the further fact that I am the only officer of the city not affected by the next annual election, I have consented to make the following call:

The citizens of Port Angeles, Wash., are hereby requested to meet in Mass Convention, at the Opera House, Tuesday, November 25, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following city officers:

One Mayor, to be elected for the term of one year.

One Councilman-at-Large, to be elected for the term of one year.

One City Attorney, to be elected for the term of one year.

One City Clerk, to be elected for the term of one year.

One City Treasurer, to be elected for the term of one year.

One City Health Officer, to be elected for the term of one year.

One Councilman for the First Ward, to be elected for term of two years.

One Councilman for the Second Ward, to be elected for term of one year.

One Councilman for the Third Ward, to be elected for term of two years.

One Councilman for the Fifth Ward, to be elected for term of one year.

One Councilman for Sixth Ward, to be elected for term of two years.

It is further requested that caucuses be held in the several wards on Monday, November 24, between the hours of 7 and 8pm for nominating the several councilmen to be ratified at the Mass Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN HALLAHAN,

Councilman City of Port Angeles.

HERE'S hoping the McBride forces will control.

AFTER all the people have endorsed Democratic principles in which Roosevelt and McBride have indulged to some extent recently.

INASMUCH as Mr. Palmer is not pledged, it would be well for Clallam Republicans to protest against him voting for Levi Ankeny. But will they?

WE hope that Senator Preston will succeed Senator Turner, not that the west side is in any way entitled to the honor but that moneybags Ankeny will be left at home.

IN an extended interview in the Tocoma Ledger ex-Senator Wilson claims he will have as many votes for senator as either of the other contestants—Preston and Ankeny.

FOR MAYOR Dr. Lewis seems to be the favorite. He is accomplished as a parliamentarian and is deeply interested in the city's advancement. But "Doc" is not looking for office and will not accept unless it comes to him with a good degree of unanimity.

UP-STATE New Yorkers rolled up a big Republican vote and the party bosses of election, after "counting" the ballots destroyed them, despite the fact that the law says the ballots shall be sealed up and preserved for six months. What are you going to do about it now? they say.

THE Quillayute man is off; we have not looked into his sheet since April. We have no use for the paper of a conscienceless hog, who, while making twenty times as much as his fellow publishers, seeks 'thro trickery and collusion to rob his fellows of the little business which rightfully belongs to them.

FOR the benefit of those who thought our ante-election statements were for election purposes only we reiterate them. 'Tis unnecessary, however, for the independent voter spoke in no uncertain tone. The people willed that at least the board of commissioners should be of a different faith than the other officers.

THE president this week practically reiterated our statement of last week. We said the people had "determined to call the bluff of the Republican party," and the president put it in the more elegant language, "The party is on trial before the voters." "Tuesday's victory does not mean that the Republicans will win two years hence."

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months; the doctors stated he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago, and since then we always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds, it has no equal," 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at C. E. Nailor & Co.

ALREADY the president has sounded the warning. "If the Republicans do not rise to the occasion on the trust question defeat stares them in the face two years hence." We venture the prediction that if the president gets any satisfactory anti-trust bill before him it will be through the votes of the Democrats, assisted by a few loyal Republicans.

NATIONALLY the elections went just as one would expect of a thinking people, no matter how great the revolt against the Republican party. Because of the hold-overs it was absolutely impossible to turn control over to the Democrats. By cutting down the majority the people served notice of what the plutocratic party might expect in 1904 in case it failed to meet the issue.

THE coal operators are already making the arbitration committee's lot a hard one and there's trouble ahead. They claim there are some who have not agreed to arbitrate and "it will be practically impossible to ask some to observe any decision of the commission not observed by their competitors." They also object to Mr. Mitchell representing the miners as President of the Miners' Union. The president and his commission truly have their hands full.

Cancer Cured!!

Mr. W. W. Prickett, Smithfield, Ills., writes, Sept. 19th, 1901: "I had been suffering several years with a cancer on my face, which gave me great abnoyance and unbearable itching. I was using Ballard's Snow Liniment for a sore leg, and through an accident, I rubbed some of the liniment on the cancer, and as it gave me almost instant relief, I decided to continue to use the liniment on the cancer. In a short time the cancer came out, my face healed up and there is not the slightest scar left. I have implicit faith in the merits of this preparation, and it cannot be too highly recommended." 25c. 50c and $1.00. For sale by C. E. Nailor & Co.

COUNTRY HIGHWAYS.

POINTS AS TO MAINTENANCE AND IMPROVEMENT.

Much Can Be Accomplished by Intelligent Supervision—Road Guards Suggested—Useless Repair Material—Road Machines.

There is no question that so vexes the minds of the executive officers of our country towns as that of how to best care for the public roads, says C. P. Augur of Connecticut in New England Homestead. They know that only a certain amount of money will be appropriated for the purpose, and they are well aware that they will be held to a strict account for its expenditure. Except in a few instances, where isolated patches of improved roads are laid down with the help of the state appropriation, the work is very imperfectly done, and the material used is worthless for the purpose. Often the men in charge of road repairs know that the slipshod methods employed are poor economy, but the fear of adverse criticism, perhaps loss of office, if this year's expenditure exceeds that of last year causes them to do that which makes a show of repairing, but which in the end leaves the roads in worse condition than before repairs were attempted.

My idea of what should be done is to elect at the annual town meeting on alternate years a road supervisor whose term of office shall be for two years unless sooner terminated. Give him the entire charge of the roads, bridges and sluices and pay him a liberal per diem for time necessarily expended.

The first duty of the supervisor should be to appoint a resident road guardian for each section of road, such section not to exceed three miles in extent. The duty of this road guardian shall be not to repair damage, but to prevent it. He should inspect the road under his charge frequently, especially during heavy rains, and see that gutters and sluices are kept open and water bars unbroken. Often ten minutes' work with hoe or shovel at the right moment will save ten hours' work with teams and men. I have recently driven over hundreds of miles of country roads and have observed the great damage done by the spring rains. In nearly every case a little work at the right time could have saved the roads. In the event of any unusual damage the guardian should report promptly to his superior.

The material usually used in repairing country roads is road wash or turf that has grown upon it and is in no sense suitable. The worn pebbles have no power of coherency. They will not bind, and the organic matter of turf is productive only of mud or dust.

There is no road so pleasant to ride upon as a well made, well drained, well graded dirt road. Once settled into place it will last in good condition for years if frequently looked after. On heavy soils it will, of course, be muddy when the frost is coming out, but that is only for a short period, and the pleasure of riding on it free from noise and dust at other seasons compensates for a good deal of springtime annoyance.

It is not practicable to harden all country roads, and if the road is well drained and the gutters and sluices kept open it is not desirable. A clattering stone road takes away much of the charm of a country drive, to say nothing of the annoyance to dwellers thereon. Sometimes, if gravel is readily available, it is economy to surface a damp dirt road with a four inch coat. This will keep all light vehicles out of the mud, even in springtime, and unless very heavy teams pass over it will last for years. Wet places that cannot be successfully drained should be filled with a telford pavement and from six to eight inches of gravel placed over it.

All gutters and sluices should be large enough to take the rainfall at its greatest excess, and the failure to have them so is a frequent source of damage and consequent expense. To summarize, put your roads into the best condition possible with the means available and then give them constant attention rather than neglect them for 11 months and repair them in one. When you have them in good condition, expend your efforts upon keeping the gutters and sluices open and leave the road itself alone as much as possible. An old, hard roadbed is better than any new, soft one that can be made with earth in any case, and it is far more desirable than the usual agglomeration of road wash leaves and turf.

Better Roads Are Needed.

American roads must improve greatly before this country can hope to match French feats with horseless vehicles. Some day we shall have highways such as are enjoyed in France. Then there will be great race records for automobiles on this side of the Atlantic.—Cleveland Leader.

John Wannamaker, who is both an advertiser and a newspaper publisher, and therefore competent to speak from either standpoint, is credited with the following: "There is only one way to advertise that is to hammer your name, your location, your business, so constantly, so persistently, so thoroughly into the people's head that if they walked in their sleep they would constantly turn their faces toward your store. The newspaper is your best friend, in spite of your criticism. It helps to build up the community that supports you. When the day comes that the newspapers are dead, the people are near the edge of the grave with no one to write their epitaph."

Gettysburg.

Special to THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

Gettysburg, Nov. 8th.—The logging at this place will soon be at an end for this season. Just as soon as the clean up is made at this landing the track will be moved up the river and in the spring a more thorough equipped outfit will be on hand. A large yarding donkey engine is already ordered for the coming season, and "Old Herk" will be used for loading then. Jay will amile. Five new cars will be added so that the train crew will not have to do their own loading.

This season has been a very profitable one for Hall & Bishop. They have sent out, to date, 22 sections of logs and some of the longest and largest logs that have ever been sawed on Puget Sound, 96 feet long, scaling 6,500 feet of lumber. There has been but very few days that No. 1 has not made her four trips, making a total of 20 cars per day. No accidents, no runaways, no lack of steam to haul up 8 and 10 per cent grades with a climax engine, and under the careful management of engineer George D. Raney and conductor W D. Swan, the season winds up a very profitable one to the owners. While a great deal of credit is due to the train crew, it must not be forgotten that Sam. Michaels, the boom boss, has done his share in successfully sending off his booms when the tug Katy came after them, and to T. Jones, the hook tender of the sound, is due a great deal of credit for the knack he has of getting out logs, especially in bad places. Our old reliable friend George Thompson, the cook, has never failed to dish up the necessaries of life; George is always kind and dilligent and is always in the right place.

Mine host, R. N. Getty, has completed a new float and boat house at great expense. As of old, Mr. Getty never fails to supply his table with the best of everything—he is always up to date in the line of pleasing his customers.

Date of first publication November 14, 1902, JAMES STEWART, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

Cement Floors for Dairies.

In the creamery and in the dairy the old wooden floor should give way to the cement floor of the best quality. The movement in this direction is already on and the cement floor has become very general. Especially in the creameries is this the case. The wooden floor absorbed moisture and odors and gave out the latter again reenforced. The wooden floor has been found impossible to keep clean. It is so constantly wet that it has no chance to be purified by the air. The same is largely true of the floor in the private dairy. In the largest milk selling establishments in Chicago the cement floor is considered an essential, as a large quantity of water is daily used in flooding the floors to insure cleanliness. In the long run the cement floor is cheapest, for it will outlive several wood floors that are daily soaked with water.—Farmers' Review.

Science of Seed Sowing.

It should not be forgotten in sowing vegetable seeds, and, for the matter of that, all seeds, that they must have air, moisture and darkness in order to sprout properly. If sown deeper than they desire they rot; if too shallow, the light is too intense or they do not get moisture enough. As a rule they should be as near the surface as possible, with the rather dry earth packed around them as firmly as possible. The surface earth should be rather dry or it will not powder well—and this is important in connection with air. There is no air in a soil pressed when wet—but the more dry earth is pressed and pounded the finer and more porous it becomes. There is a great art in getting seed to grow properly—and yet the art is very simple when the principles are understood. — Meehan's Monthly.

A WONDERFUL WORK.

To be a man who can excel one hundred thousand men in any one line is good; to be one in a million is better; but to be the only living man, (and the second one in the history of the world), who has drawn a perfect single line picture, is wonderful! This Mr. Fleming, author and illustrator of "Around the Pan," and "Around the Capital," ($2.00 books) has done in his drawing of McKinley Price on best Japanese paper, $1 00. His "Around the Capital," contains one hundred and fifty full-page Washington life pen and ink sketches and five hundred pictures of prominent Americans, including the statesmen, ambassadors and commanders participating in the Spanish American War—comprising by far the greatest collection of facts and faces ever produced in one volume in condensed form, will interest the entire civilized world. The drawings equal, if they do not surpass, those of John Tenniel's, for which work he was knighted by Queen Victoria. The humor is contagious.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Explains His Invention to Engineers.

Young Man Makes a Splendid Impression as He Clearly and in Businesslike Manner Demonstrates Its Merits.

Cornelius Vanderbilt read a paper the other night before the "juniors" of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, at 12 West Thirty-first street, New York city, on the firebox and boiler for locomotive engines which he invented. Mr. Vanderbilt followed his manuscript closely, but he spoke clearly and in a businesslike manner. If any of the young or old engineers present expected to hear an amateurish lecture on locomotive boilers he was pleasantly disappointed.

The invention, as Mr. Vanderbilt described it, consists in replacing the old cumbersome firebox with one of cylinder sections. The principal advantage claimed is that such a box can be cleaned without going to the roundhouse and having it removed and thus an immense amount of time and labor is saved. The Vanderbilt firebox also presents a corrugated instead of a smooth surface, the result of which is found to be that clink, the worst foe of every driver of a steam boiler, is not allowed to form to anything like so injurious an extent. The corrugated surface contracts and expands something after the fashion of a concertina as the steam pressure increases or diminishes and the automatic action prevents the steady growth and accumulation.

Mr. Vanderbilt's exhaustive treatise, his charts and drawings and pictures shown by stereopticon proved that he had devoted many a day to the preparation of the address. He withstood the test of cross-examination afterward and answered the questions with a quickness and confidence that surprised some of the old fellows, who, in their speeches, said they had devoted half a century to the study of boilers. The young engineer made a distinctly favorable impression upon the members.

BIG SUM FOR LETTER.

Harmsworth, the London Editor, Pays for Criticism of His Tabloid Journalism.

Alfred Harmsworth, proprietor of the London Mail, who edited the New Year's edition of the New York World, in a "tabloid" form which he considered the "ideal make-up" for the twentieth century, requested criticisms of the issue and offered £100 to the writer of the first letter he picked out of the entire correspondence.

More than 12,000 replies were received from all parts of the country, and they were piled in a corner of the outer office of the Mail in the Tract Society building, when Mr. Harmsworth, shortly after noon, reached to the center of the pile and took the first letter that his hand touched. It was in an envelope of the Unitype company, whose offices are on the twentieth floor of the same building. The writer was Herbert L. Baker, the general manager, a former newspaper man. His letter was as follows:

"The World in its tabloid form does not seem to have much to it, though perhaps it is all there. I like the form very much, but I don't care for scare heads, long-winded stories, etc."

Mr. Baker was summoned.

"Well, you have got that hundred pounds," said Mr. Harmsworth, shaking his hand.

Mr. Harmsworth counted out twenty £5 notes, saying that he had been unable to find a £100 note in New York, and handed the money to Mr. Baker.

"I rather wish the money had gone to some poor man," said Mr. Harmsworth.

"If you haven't done more than coin the expression 'tabloid journalism,' it is worth the price," remarked Mr. Baker.

HEIR TO AUSTRALIAN ESTATE.

The Romantic Story of a Lincoln (Ill.,) Harness Maker's Windfall.

A poor harness maker, Edmund H. Moller, who has lived at Lincoln, Ill., for 30 years, is on the eve of coming into possession of an estate in Australia said to be worth $750,000.

Moller was one of two sons born to a Dublin silversmith and his wife. Nearly 50 years ago the father went to Australia. Subsequently the mother started in search of him, but died in New Orleans. Then an older brother of Edmund's father took up the search and found the father in Sydney, N. S. W., where he had become rich.

He communicated his discovery to Edmund, and the latter engaged in a correspondence with his father, who recognized their relationship.

The elder Moller died many years ago, and his family in Sydney refused to recognize or consider the claims of the son at Lincoln. Through the American consul at Sydney Edmund Moller gained information and proof establishing his claim to his father's estate, of which he is the heir.

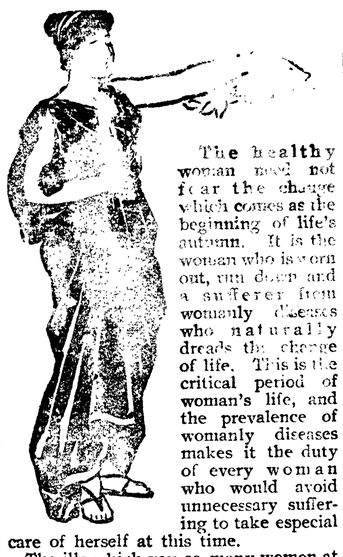
GOLDMAN, Seattle.
The authority on watches.



The healthy woman need not fear the change which comes as the beginning of life's autumn. It is the woman who is worn out, run down and a sufferer from womanly diseases who naturally dreads the change of life. This is the critical period of woman's life, and the prevalence of womanly diseases makes it the duty of every woman who would avoid unnecessary suffering to take especial care of herself at this time.

The ills which vex so many women at the change of life are entirely avoided or cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong, and enables the weakest to pass through this trying change with the tranquility of perfect health.

"I have been a very healthy woman, and this time has been very hard with me," writes Mrs. Maggie Morris, of Munson Station, Clearfield Co., Pa., Box 16. "I am come to the time of change of life, and I have been sick a great deal off and on. When Mrs. Hemmis moved beside me I was sick in bed, and when she came to see me and we were talking over our sickness, Mrs. Hemmis told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' also 'Pellets.' I got her to bring me a bottle of each from the drug store and I used them. They did me a great deal of good, and I got two more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' I never saw such a wonderful cure. Before I commenced your remedies I was good for nothing; was in such misery I hardly knew what to do with myself, now I can do all my work myself and feel well."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take.

Weak and Low Spirited.

A correspondent thus describes his experience. "I can strongly recommend Herbine as a medicine of remarkable efficacy for indigestion, loss of appetite, sour taste in the mouth, palpitation, headache, drowsiness after meals with distressing mental depression and low spirits. Herbine has been a unique preparation for such cases as mine, for a few doses entirely removed my complaint. I wonder at people going on suffering and spending their money on worthless things, when herbine is procurable and so cheap." 50c a bottle at [illegible] & Co.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ORDER OF SALE SHOULD NOT BE MADE.

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for Clallam County.

W. S. Morrisey, the administrator of the estate of Edward O'Connell, deceased, having filed his petition herein, duly verified, praying for an order of sale of the real estate of the said deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes therein set forth; and it appearing from such petition that there are no moneys in the hands of the administrator belonging to said estate and that no personal property of the estate has come into the hands of the administrator, and that certain debts and claims against the estate have been allowed and approved by this Court and that the same are wholly unpaid, and that it is necessary to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate belonging to said estate for the purpose of paying said debts and claims and the expenses of administration which are unpaid;

Now, Therefore, It is ordered by the Court that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before said Court on Monday, the 17th day of November, 1902, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the court room of said court in the city of Port Angeles, Clallam county, Washington, to show cause why an order should not be made authorizing said administrator to sell the real estate of the deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said debts, charges and expenses of administration.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order to show cause shall be published for four successive weeks in "THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER," a newspaper printed and published in the city of Port Angeles, in said county.

Done and dated this 15th day of October, 1902.

GEO. C. HATCH, Judge

Date of first publication October 17, 1902.
