NEW BOATS ON THE RUN.

MAIL CONTRACTS LET TO PUGET SOUND NAVIGATION CO.

This Company States New Boats Will Be Built and Operated on This Run Giving This City a Beautiful Service With Elegant Boats.

News was received in this city Friday last to the effect that the Thompson Steamboat Company, operating on this run, had lost the mail contracts for all the ports on this side of the sound and West of Seattle, and in the event of no satisfactory deal being entered into by the new grantees with the Thompson Company, the Puget Sound Navigation Company would build new steamers and enter the run with the intention of freezing out the present company. In fact, it is stated that the Navigation Company is so desirous of accomplishing the latter object that they will undertake and are in a position to dictate terms to the Thompson's and if the deal is made it is very likely the same boats will continue on the run.

Monday Captain John Rex Thompson, Fred. R. Thompson and Capt. Mann came to the city and visited the business men with a view of securing more contracts for freight, a goodly number already being stored away in the company's safe. The mission proved futile, however, as the news of the change having reached here merchants were inclined to await developments. The party left on Tuesday's boat for other points on the run.

Upon the arrival here of the above named members of the Thompson Company and learning the object of their visit a deputy of the court house wired the president of the Puget Sound Navigation Company, setting forth that the Thompsons were here endeavoring to secure contracts and inquiring as to the intentions of the company. and Tuesday received the following answer:

"Seattle, Wash., Dec. 31, 1901.

"Many thanks for information. Please notify Angeles people we will operate new boats meeting all competitive rates. Advise the shippers not to contract.

"CHARLES E. PEABODY, Pres."

This news pleases the Angeles public considerably, for the prospect of competition and elegant new boats promises much for this city. They feel that through high passenger rates many a settler has been barred from visiting this place, and they are convinced that the old Port Townsend company which was merged with the Thompson's, never lost an opportunity to cry down Port Angeles. This charge cannot be brought against the Thompson's, possibly, but employes, and the old company members who operated the boats, continued the fight to the detriment of this city,

Commenting on the matter the Seattle P.-I. of Sunday says:

Five modern steamers are to be constructed by the Puget Sound Navigation Company, an expansion made necessary by a far-reaching United States mail concern, but which in the near future may prove the nucleus of or medium for the for the community of interest idea as applicable to marine transportation on this great arm of the sea. The mail contract—one involving the distribution from Seattle annually of a great volume of matter—is for four years dating from July 1, 1902. It is one of the largest ever let and un unusually important award, covering, as it does, all the ports on the wes side of Puget sound north of Seattle to Neah bay and Cape Flattery.

As regards general transportation, it means that the company is to compete for the rapidly growing business of the section named, and which, in view of the railroad extension from the Gray's harbor country to Neah bay and Port Angeles and other proposed projections from Port Angeles, with the resultant building of new towns and increase of the population of those now founded, makes the field one much coveted in a transportation sense.

Full confirmation of the addition, by construction, of five vessels of its fleet and the award of the important mail contract was given Friday by Charles E. Peabody, president of the Puget Sound Navigation Company. In the larger field proposed for his company, he stated that other leading transportation companies doing business on Puget Sound would be materially interested. The identity os these companies Mr. Peabody declined to disclose.

The Puget Sound Navigation Company will begin the construction of its new vessels during this days in January, propably not later than the 5th. All five are to be built in Seattle. They will cost in the aggregrate not less than $300,00. The plans. which are already drawn, provide for vessels of the same general type of the steamer Rosalie, which is now owned and operated by the Puget Sound Navigation Company between Seattle and Victoria. One is to be fifty feet longer, or 200 feet in length, than the Rosalie, and will be operated on the Victoria run in conjunction with the latter vessel, thus doubling the company's Seattle-Victoria service. This vessel will have a forty-foot beam, and as with all of the rest be supplied with triple expansion engines and up to date machinery, having a guaranteed speed of fifteen statute miles an hour.

For the Neah Bay run almost a duplicate of the Rosalie has been planned. She will be of the same length, 150 feet, twenty-eight feet beam, but equipped with still better machinery than the Rosalie. Her guaranteed speed is thirteen land miles per hour. The other three vessels are to be each 115 feet in length, twenty-two feet beam and nine feet eight inches depth of hold. Their guaranteed speed is also thirteen miles an hour. Money will not be spared in order to obtain the rapid constrution of the vessels. It is hoped to have all five in commission before the close of next summer.

The contract awarded the Puget Sound Navigation Company involves four distinct mail routes. They are known as the Neah bay, Port Angels, Port Townsent and island. The Neah bay takes in as principal mail points Port Townsend, Port Williams, Dungeness, Victoria, Clallam, Port Crescent and Neah bay. On the Port Angeles run are the principle towns of Victoria, Port Angeles, Port Williams, Dungeness and Port Townsend. Port Madison, Port Gamble, Port Ludlow, Kingston and Port Townsend are the principal mail ports of call on the Port Townsend run. The land run takes in all the principal ports on the San Juan islands.

All of the vessels of the Puget Sound Navigation Company's fleet will be operated from pier No. 2, the wharf being constructed on the old Yesler dock site by the Northern Pabtic railroad. Such lease arrangements have been made, and for a term of years, as will not permit of the landing at this dock of any vessel in any way competing with those of the Puget Sound Navigation Company, Cook & Co. and Dodwell & Co.

WILL HAVE A NEW BOAT.

Capt. A. W. Horne Has Contracted for a Steamer to Be Built at Tacoma.

The Tacoma News of Saturday contains the following item of interest about a new steamer which, it is rumored, will ply on Port Townsend bay between this point and Irondale, Hadlock, and the government forts:

"The Tacoma Shipbuilding Company has secured a contract for the construction of a steamer to be used in the Sound passenger traffic. The vessel is to be built for Capt. A. W. Horne, of Port Townsend, formerly master of the Majestic, and a member of the Thompson Steamship Company. Work will begin at once upon the new steamer.

"The measurements of the boat will be: Length, 110 feet; depth, 10 feet; beam 22 feet. She will be equipped with triple expansion engines of 450 horse power."—Townsend Leader.

Watch Night Services.

Watch night services were held in the Congregational and Baptist churches Tuesday night and a good attendance was present at each place.

There wre also numerous parties at private homes where the coming in of the new year was awaited.

At the opera house a large gathering of dancers merrily greeted each other as the hour approached and the masque ball given by the members of the A. O. U. W. broke up in the early hours of the new year with a general feeling of good will among all participants. There was a lack of rowdyism experiencad this year, the crowds upon the streets at the midnight hour being very peaceable.

Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.

COURT HOUSE SQUABBLE.

FACTIONS AT WAR WITH THINGS COMING TO LIGHT.

Commissioners Said to Have Unearthed a Shortage Which is Made Good —Tommy to the Rescue With the Inevitable Result.

Some weeks ago we gave to the public the intimation that everything was not lovely at the court house, and that some high handed transactions had taken place, promising that as soon as our data was more complete we would give the story as we could get at it.

In the absence of any official information we are compelled to give what we learn of the affair from various sources.

Before proceeding with the story it will probably be well to enter into a little Republican history. As is well known there are three distinct factions of the Republican party in Clallam county; the Wilsonites, and the Dyke and Aldwell factions of the Fosterites. The two last mentioned are affecting a more friendly feeling toward each other and will probably ultimately be working together in the coming campaign in local matters. Heretofore the Aldwells have controlled a majority of the board of county commissioners and have been in the position to dictate to an extent to the other boys at the court house.

Last election it became necessary for Mr. Aldwell to relinquish the auditor's office, having served the full term the law allows, and to hold control thereof Deputy Sullivan was placed on the ticket as his successor, so that after election the only change that took place in the office was that Sullivan was known as chief and Aldwell as deputy. Aldwell, Jr., though not a citizen, held his position as before.

Necessarily Sullivan was under obligations to Aldwell for the boost to office and for heavy campaign expenses, and it is now stated that Mr. Sullivan has never been able to repay the obligation, but is now as muchly obligated as ever.

A short time ago Mr. Aldwell, thinking soon to step into the shoes of Mr. Carrigan as deputy collector at this port, tardily stepped out of the auditor's office and admitted W. S. Miller as deputy, and here difficulties lying dormant again arose.

Miller, of course, as deputy, objected to playing second fiddle to Lloyd Aldwell, who, because of not being a citizen, could be no more than a clerk at the office, and the feeling rose to the point where Miller informed Sullivan that he or Lloyd would have to go. It was agreed then because of other pressure that Aldwell should be released January 1st, and with this understanding Miller continued as deputy.

It is also stated that during the last campaign Auditor Sullivan, to secure his election, promised that Aldwell should not remain in the office, and since his election Sullivan has been hard pressed to discharge him, butwithout avail. Sullivan was in it deep. To oppose the Aldwells would leave him a political waif, so to speak, with help in neither faction. Consequently the only wise thing possible for him to do was what he did, to hold the good-will of the Aldwells in any event and let future events suggest subsequent action.

It is also current rumor on the streets that the chief had not been paying as much attention to his office as he should. Everything was seemingly in the hands of Clerk Aldwell, who could not be a

THE GOVERNOR AT REST.

Wednesday the remains of the late Governor Rogers, were laid in their last resting place in the Puyallup cemetery after lying in state for some time at Olympia where they were viewed by sorrowing citizens of that and adjacent cities.

Wednesday before the train started from Olympia family services were held in that city. The special funeral t ain with guard of honor and state officials then left for Tacoma where a military escort of two companies met the train and accompanied the remains to the Pierce county court house where they lie in state until one o'clock. The train then left for Puyallup where the military was au m nted by companies B and D of Seattle with First Regiment band.

At Puyallup services were conducted by the Rev. Spencer S. Sulliger at the home of Edwin R. Rogers.

BIOGRAPHY.

John R. Rog rs was born in Brunswick, Me., September 4, 1838. He was educated in his native town; learned the drug business in Boston. In 1858 he went to the state of Mississippi, managing a drug store for a practicing physician in Jackson, the capital of the state. He was afterward deputy postmaster and manager of a drug store at Terry, Miss. In 1861 he was a resident of Cumberland county, Illinois, where he lived during the War of the Rebellion He was there a school teacher and farmer. In 1876 he went to Kansas, buying a farm in Harvey county. He held several offices in the latter state, serving as commissioner of Harvey county for some years. He established and was editor for three years of the Kansas Commoner, now published at Wichita. He came to Washington in 1890, locating at Puyallup. He was the author of several books and pamphlets on economical and sociological topics, most of which have been published since he came to this state. He was a man of marked individuality, of strong will and self reliant. Governor Rogers leaves a widow and five children.

Governor Rogers was a member of the fourth legislature as a member of Pierce county and took a very active interest in legislation pertaining to education, coal mining and taxation. He was the author of the measure familiarly known as "the barefoot schoolboy" law, and it was due chiefly to his energetic efforts that the bill was enacted after a memorable contest. He was elected governor in 1896 by a majority of 12,800 and re-elected in 1900.

COUNTY NEWS.

The Quillayute News.

Mr. Palmer, of the engineers camp, went out to Clallam a few days ago after a couple of cayuses which the company sent in to replace some that were lost on the trail coming up from the Queets.

The life-preservers and oars which were found along the beach from three to nine miles North of Lapush are marked S. S. Mattewan, New York. The cabin evidently went down Southwest of this or off the mouth of the Quillayute river. No b dies have yet been found in the vicinity of the wreckage.

COURT HOUSE SQUABBLE

To continue the story we give it in the language of our informant: "Sullivan was given a 'leave of absence' and left for his home to recuperate. During this absence the commissioners directed Deputy Miller to have the combination of the safe changed and to give it to no one. This, of course, made things hum, and upon Sullivan's return, after some difficulty he was given the combination and later again gave it to Clerk Aldwell.

"Thus matters went on until Dec. 31st, when Lloyd was to step out. The order was not issued and Miller himself asked to be relieved, and severed his connection with the office.

"There is certainly a sad state of affairs existing, which should be exposed, and it is but justice to the tax payer tha some light should be thrown upon th alleged shady transactions at the court house. This possibly can be best done by a thorough overhauling of the books of the office since the last accounting."

To publish a history of political affairs in Clallam, taking in all interested in the present squabble, would necessitate columns of space. We simply close this article with a brief reference to the other court house faction. Treasurer Dyke, having served the limit of time in the office named, will either have to retire or aspire to another berth. Dyke has served eight years in the sheriff's and treasurer's offices and it is now stated he and his deputies have their eyes on the auditor's office, the only one that will give work to all. This, some say, is the cause of part of the aggressiveness now displayed and there is more to follow.

Next week the commissioners meet and it is said there are some surprises in store.

We apprised Auditor Sullivanof our intention of publishing the above as a matter of news and asked that he make any statement he desired for the benefit of the public touching the matter in question. He refused to make any statement, but late last evening, after the above had been put in type, we were favored with a call from a representative of the firm of McClinton & Son, attorneys for Mr. Sullivan, who informed us that there had been nothing wrong at the office, and that they had been retained with instructions to take the matter to the courts to prosecute us for criminal libel, or such other charge as would fit the case, if we published any statement which could be reached by the libel laws of the state.

GIERIN-BURROWES.

County Commissioner and School Ma'am Married at Los Angeles.

Cards have been received in the city announcing the marriage at Los Angeles, California, of Miss Elizabeth M. Burrowes to Edward F. Gierin, both of this city. The ceremony was solemnized last Thursday, Dec. 26th., and it is presumed Mr. and Mrs. Gierin are now on their way home.

The announcement is somewhat of a surprise at this time as Miss Burrowes was supposed to be visiting in New York while it was given out that Mr. Gierin was in California for his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Gierin are both well-known and popular residents of this county, and THE DEMOCRAT LEADER extends its best wishes to the happy couple and trusts their wedded life will be full of happiness.

Judge Hatch has named Thursday, January 9th. as the date of hearing the plea of Mrs. Riley on the charge of perjury. The motion for new trial of the Priest case will be heard at Port Townsend next week.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Home of Swamp Root.

72 Minutes for Lunch.

That is the average time spent in a large city restaurant by three thousand lunchers. It takes three hours to digest a soft boiled; three hours to digest a baked apple dumpling; three hours to digest fresh roast beef. In fact, three hours is about the time required to digest the average twelve minute lunch. The object of the hasty lunch is to let the busy man get back to his office work. But when the brain is active, the stomach is inactive for lack of necessary blood. The natural consequence is indigestion, and indigestion opens the door to many diseases.

Indigestion is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"It is with heartfelt gratitude that I send this testimonial which I wish you to publish with my name and address," writes Mr. Willis Seaman, of Washingtonville, Orange Co., N. Y. "I had stomach trouble from childhood and suffered with it more or less as I grew up. At the age of 26 I was broken down with dyspepsia. My suffering was terrible. Could not eat without distress. Could only eat a few certain things and was not able to work half the time. Every thing I tried only gave me temporary relief. My wife finally persuaded me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I took six bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.' I then felt so well that I stopped taking medicine. Several months have passed and I can do the hardest kind of work, can eat anything that is set before me and enjoy it. I am 27 years old and this is the first time I have ever been well."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only; or 31 stamps for cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

LAST SESSION.

Old Council Completes Its Labor of Love—New Officers Tuesday.

Last Wednesday's session was the last business meeting of the old council, and it being New Year's night business was rushed. All members except Mr. Bowman were present.

City Engineer Ware reported having examined proposed connection of Bradshaw and city road, recommending that Bradshaw road be extended to D street, north on D to 18th, east to B, and north to 10th; $200 was the estimate of cost. This is the matter referred to the city engineer, Commissioner Christopher and Councilman Bowman. The engineer alone reports. Matter was laid over for new council to consider.

Crossing on Front street between Nailor's and Luiz' was ordered widened to four feet, and gravel placed on either side of the main crossings in the city to keep the mud off. A new crossing was also ordered put in on Front st. at approach to Lincoln street wharf.

Upon motion of Mr. Gould $5 was allowed to repair road at 14th and Cherry streets.

Tumwater Hill walk was again reported unsafe and the street committee was given power to expend $10 in repairs.

Mr. Smith reported Mr. Bull sick and in need. He was directed to assist the family.

Mr. Gehrke addressed the council on matter of a walk on 19th street. The residents of that street had good grounds for complaint because of the great volume of water which is allowed to pass over their property, but they have not complained. They have asked for a small appropriation for a walk and believed they were entitled to one. The street committee was directed to report on matter.

Hearing commotion in the poultry yard one day this week, Grace Pratt, the 16 year old daughter of D. W. Pratt, who lives just west of the city, investigated the cause and found the disturbance to be a huge wild cat. Procuring her father's 38 cal. Winchester and led by their dog she gave chase The prowler took refuge in a large fir tree, but a ball from the gun shot by her unerring hand brought the wild monster to the ground, and as he was game she fired the third shot into the brute. The idea of girls learning the use of fire arms is not altogether a pleasant one in the homes of our brave frontiersmen, but the courage and pluck necessary to the dispatching of wild brutes of the forest is to be commended.

A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any one have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. ## FARM AND GARDEN

A VEGETABLE DAINTY.

Cauliflower Grown In Highest Perfection Under Irrigation.

Cauliflower is a favorite vegetable all over the civilized world, and where it can be grown successfully and by men who know what the plant requires it is a very profitable product. The chief requirements are a very rich soil, well prepared, and an abundance of moisture. Where irrigation is practicable there the highest measure of success is assured.

No land in a state of nature is sufficiently fertile to grow cauliflower to a high degree of perfection. As so much manure is required, it matters less what the quality of the land may be than what the water supply. Thirty or forty thousand pounds per acre of barnyard manure suffice to make the soil conform to requirements, no matter what its previous condition may have been.

Cultivation requirements are about the same as those of cabbage, though a little more exacting. At the Texas experiment station, where the soil is about as unfavorable as possible, as high as $703.50 worth per acre has been grown, and it is claimed that the land on which this crop was grown was not sufficiently manured.

Cauliflower has been successfully grown at the Beeville substation by irrigation, and it is a specialty with many truck growers in that section. The cut is a photo of three specimens grown by a successful truck farmer of Beeville, Tex.

The Happy Truck Farmer.

Truck farming differs from the growing of ordinary field crops in that not so much land is needed for this work; hence the location of the home can be found in the suburbs of towns and cities, where both the advantages of city and rural life can be enjoyed. This is my ideal home. A man upon such a truck farm is a king, surrounded by the best influences of earth, away from the temptations and excitement of the city and close enough to take advantage of its schools, churches, water, lights, etc. He is in touch with the great pulsating heart of nature, her invigorating atmosphere, her balmy sunshine, pure water, the song of the birds, the hum of the bees and the aroma of the flowers. What more enticing surroundings could a man need to lead a pure and happy life, which is the ultimate object and aim of human ambition when simmered down to its elements?—Farm and Ranch.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"Something New Under The Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up themucuous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation.
