VOL 12, NO 40 PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASH., FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1902. PRICE FIVE CENTS

THOMPSONS SELL OUT.

NEW COMPANY ABSORBS BOATS OF THE OLD.

Monopoly Will Probably Continue But Plans At Present Are to Improve the Service Next Summer By Putting the Rosalie on the Garland's Run.

It begins to look at this hour as though the hopes of the citizens of Port Angeles for a competitive line of steamships to this port have gone glimmering.

During the past week the news came to the effect that the Puget Sound Navagation Company, which now holds the contracts for carrying the mail to all points between Seattle and Neah Bay, has purchased the entire fleet of the Thompson Steamboat Company, comprising the steamers Majestic, Alice Gertrude, Garland, Lydia Thompson, Prosper, and Evangel, the second and third named operating on the run to this city. The sale price is stated to be $300,000, but there are few in the city who believe this amount was received, as it is more than the original cost of the fleet. Full confirmation of the sale is given by President Peabody of the Puget Sound Company, who says the deal took place Jan. 1st, the boats being turned over yesterday, and now operated by the new company.

The acquisition of this fleet by the Puget Sound Company changes the plans, somewhat, of the corporation regarding the construction of vessels. It is now stated that only three new steamers will be constructed instead of five as originally intended, and these will be operated in conjunction with the Majestic and Alice Gertrude. It is also given out that the steamers Garland, Prosper and Evangel will be used as freight carriers exclusively.

Other changes in plans are also expected and the final outcome is thought to be that the same boats will continue on the run under the direction of the new company.

It is to be hoped, however, that the company will carry out the plans as now agreed upon, viz., to use the steamers Garland, Prosper, and Evangel for freight carriers only and to put the Rosalie on this run in place of the Garland. This change, together with a fair and reasonable adjustment of the passenger rates will make friends for the new company of the entire population of Port Angeles.

NEW BROOMS ALL ROUND.

Council Meets In First Regular Session and Elect Subordinate Officers--New Members Control Election.

Wednesday evening the new council met in its first regular session with all members present.

The street committee reported recommending appropriation of $15 for walk and ditch on 10th street, just east of Oak. The matter was again laid over upon motion of Mr. Miller.

The ordinance committee recommended the passage of ordinance providing for deposit of $100 by prospective grantees. Mr. Smith desired that a like sum be deposited in cases of extensions also. The city attorney stated that any extension of a franchise was illegal, and he would not advise that the council bind themselves to do any illegal act. The ordinance was then adopted without amendment.

The police justice read his semi-annual report setting forth that three arrests had been made during the past six months: one for peddling, no fine; shooting, fine $5; shooting, fine $1. The police judge also made a nice plea for reappointment, asking that each councilman select a deputy marshal to act for fees in each ward. The report was referred to finance committee, as was the city treasurer's fourth annual report, which was also read.

A communication was also read from W. D. Perkins & Co., stating that they were the holders of $550 of Electric Light Warrants for which they would accept face value if paid out of the current fund within thirty days.

The mayor then addressed the council as given in full in another column, at the close of which he named the following committees:

Street—Gould, Hallahan.
Finance—Miller, Lauridsen.
Fire, Light, and Water—Lauridsen, Miller.
Ordinance—Bowman, Hunt.
Electric Light—Hunt, Miller.
Franchise—Hallahan, Gould.
Cemetery—Smith, Bowman.
Fire Wardens—Smith, Bowman, Fire Chief.
Health—Lewis, Hunt, Smith.

Mr. Miller submitted the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The present revenues of the city are insufficient to repair such sidewalks as now exist on our streets and no money can be spared from the treasury to construct new sidewalks. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That no more or further appropriations be made for the purpose of building new sidewalks or for purpose of A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any one have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. THE MAYOR'S ANNUAL REVIEW

A SUMMARY OF THE YEAR'S DEVELOPMENTS.

Ships Return to Practice—Brewery Constructed—Forest Reserve Opened—Good Mineral Prospects—Oil Claims Recorded and New Mills Established

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Port Angeles, Washington,
January 7th, 1902.

To THE CITY COUNCIL,
Port Angeles, Washington.

GENTLEMEN:—Now entering upon a fifth term in this honorable office of mayor, I respectfully submit to the council and our fellow citizens a report as follows:

Our thanks are ever gratefully due to Him, "from whom all blessings flow" that throughout the year last past this community has peacefully and prosperously enjoyed almost everything individually and collectively necessary to health, comfort and success in the ordinary affairs of life, including many very happy home surroundings which, perchance, are ne'er met with elsewhere.

Resumption of a peace status on the part of the national military and naval forces has caused the latter of the Pacific Squadron to renew the seasonable occupation of their practice grounds in Port Angeles harbor, resulting in the expenditure of considerable sums of public money here for various supplies, and in adding largely to the local animate scenes on sea and shore.

Among the several war ships which visited the harbor for several weeks of practice last summer, were the battleships Iowa and Wisconsin.

The former had on board Rear Admiral Silas Casey, U. S. N., Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Station, who, with the officers and men of the flag-ship, including the band, kindly honored our city and citizens by participating with every body here in joyful celebration of Independence Day, and by closing the exercises thereof, with an electrical illumination of the ship from stem to stern, and from mast-head to water-line, throughout, producing a never to be forgotten illustration of modern ingenuity in fireworks display and an idea that elsewhere, historically, the ship had once resembled "Hell broke loose," but here it was "a thing of beauty."

The Philadelphia, Oregon, Mohican, and Alert also anchored in the harbor for awhile and altogether gave encouragement to our hopes, not only that some of the Government Reserves within the city limits may be permanently utilized by United States forces, but that this harbor may duly become the home station of some one or more of these great national favorites in whose presence here we always find both profit and pleasure.

The forest reserve re-opening of certain lands for settlement has operated upon this county seat more beneficially than aught else recently done hereabout by the general government. Its effect has been such as to cause a re-occupancy of some apparently abandoned frontier homes and to awaken many of the old-time settlers from the Rip Van Winkle sleep into which they seemed to have hopelessly fallen when the said reserve was proclaimed some years ago, and has caused very many new home-seekers to reach satisfactory dwelling places in this great county of Clallam. These new comers have not only renewed the sounding of the ranchers' cheerful reveille call, "hoo-hoo," but have caused re-occupancy and construction of school houses and meeting places in various neighborhoods; established new roadways through some of the woodland gloamings; bridged several mountain-fed streams heretofore otherwise impassable, and have co-operatively made numerous valuable improvements, which could only be accomplished for large sums of money, or which otherwise usually accrue from only such united efforts as are manifested in the thrift, industry and zeal of the fearless frontier home builders.

Further results of the said home-seekers' works thus far, in co operation with old settlers, are apparent to the observer on the city's highways and by-ways and are realized in local mercantile houses where substantial exchanges of homestead products, or cash payments for supplies brought from other counties, are currently being made and daily increasing in quantity, quality, and amount, and are also apparent, elsewhere, in newly erected habitations on the said reserve, which welcomely greet the eye of the prospector and rover, now constantly moving from well-known coast lines and searchingly puncturing many foot hill valleys of the Olympic range.

Over twelve thousand acres of land, in the western part of this county alone, have been taken up in oil or mineral claims of twenty acres each, since the 6th day of April last, and more claims are being almost daily entered in that way upon the county records, thus showing intended works and individual enterprises reaching far beyond the expectations of any farm or homestead products hereinbefore mentioned, all of which, if they are really bona fide undertakings perchance, are and should be wonderfully beneficial to this county seat. Think of the possible products of oil, coal, precious metals, timber and so forth which may be brought forth from that vast quantity of choicest lands.

Gold, silver, copper and iron ledges in apparently large dimensions, surprising numbers and rich prospects, almost easily accessable to ordinary travellers on highways or county roads, are recorded as having been recently discovered, with asserted returns of assays showing prima facie quantities of precious deposits which will doubtless pay for development, many of the locations being very near the city's southern boundary line.

One enterprising promoter of gold and silver mining interests, Singer by name and perhaps by nature, but anyhow well known to you as a good talker, has invested in and taken up several alleged valuable claims on the Little river, a few hours drive from the Council Chamber door, and has undertaken to secure one or more of the several valuable water falls thereabout, to be used in developing power for mining and other purposes.

In advance of many persons aiming to obtain from the city government valuable concessions, he has conditionally secured certain franchises, to-wit, the use of Cedar Street, first, for railway privileges from Boundary to Second Street, and next, from Second Street northward into the harbor, for wharf purposes.

The grantee promises that he or his successors and assigns, will duly construct a rai way from the wharf to the mining claims, where he will set up a stamp mill and with electric power development from the water falls mentioned, will make things hum.

As coincident to these undertakings his railway line lies on the next street east of the remarkable improvements lately made by the Angeles Brewing and Malting Company, Incorporated.

The representatives of this company arrived here on the 8th day of June, 1901, and fortunately secured several urban lots in one body near tide water, beside a flowing stream, (Frazer Creek,) and beneath the falls of several living springs, which Manager Jensen acquired by purchase of certain urban lots other than those already mentioned, and which can be conveniently utilized for their waters to be conducted to reach the brewery grounds without any intervening obstacles thereto known at present.

The said representatives have since erected a handsome large brewery building and a bottling house on the said site, at an expense of several thousand dollars, and purpose at an early date to outfit the same with a full plant of machinery for producing, bottling, and otherwise preparing malt liquors for export and home markets. Their liberal local expenditures were and are quite acceptable to our business men and to artisans and laborers employed, and we heartily hope this company may meet with great success.

Another gratefully recognized enterprise of much benefit to our citizens during the year has here existed in the canning establishment of the National Packing Company. It was operated from February 2nd to March 27th for clams and from July 6th to November 20th for salmon.

The number of employees varied at different times, but the highest number at one time on the pay roll was 144 and the total wages paid during the year was $17,534 12. The company packed of Clallam county products 51,289 salmon caught along the shore line of the county, and 2057 bushels of clams dug on Sequim Bay, resulting in measurement 24,315 cans salmon, 1607 cans clams and 78,000 pounds of clam shell chicken food.

Other products from various places were packed in this cannery, but the value of those named from this county alone amounted to $6,680.17.

Live stock raised in this county found very little local market demand three years ago. Of such stock so raised we are informed that fifteen hundred head of cattle, two thousand hogs, and two thousand sheep were here slaughtered and passed over the butchers' blocks during the year 1901, all gone down the "red lane" on ship and shore.

The lumber and shingle mills have all been running at full force during the latter part of the year and the results of their combined output have been evidenced by an increased number of cargo carriers at the wharves and by new structures seen in various parts of the city and county.

Three new mills have been put up and operated and one mill has been destroyed by fire, and the daily output of shingles has increased 85,000 since about the close of the year 1900.

The Seattle Chamber of Commerce, with open hearted generosity and noted progressiveness, has kindly honored this city upon many occasions, but most especially in two instances, which are worthy of extended notice. First, in sending here on a steamboat excursion a goodly number of its members, including many merchants and professional men, in order that they might personally meet our business people and thereby become better acquainted and unite in closer fellowship for mutual interests; secondly, in subsequently providing for and inducing the Congressional Committee on Rivers and Harbors, headed by the Hon. Theodore Burton of Ohio, Chairman, to visit this harbor and city, exchange kind words of greeting with us as fellow citizens of the United States, and to duly pay their respects to the officers and men of the great warships then anchored in this port. With all her marks of National parentage Port Angeles has never been favored by the presence of such a gathering of wise and learned men of the nation as were here assembled together on the 9th day of July, 1901, and our thanks are due not only to our west shore United States Senator, but also to our Congressional delegation, as well as to the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and its sub-committee, and also to each visitor beside,

Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.

WHO wants a franchise now? Don't all speak at once.

AN amusing though ridiculous question was raised in tho council Wednesday night in behalf of the candidacy of Justice Penniman for re-appointment. After the election was over and Penniman defeated it was sought to disqualify the elect by twisting the law to read that it was compulsory that a duly elected justice of the peace be elected to the office of police judge. The law says a justice "may" be appointed and the reason for such language is as clear as the nose on one's face.

Tax Foreclosure.

The sixty days notice required by law by publication of the delinquent tax list is about up, and if the publication as printed is a legal one the time in which owners can redeem is short. As soon as the publication is complete the county attorney will move for judgment by a default against each owner, and later the court will be asked to sign an order directing the treasurer to sell the property not redeemed to the highest bidder. Any person desiring to purchase any piece must offer the amount due for 1895 and prior years and before getting a deed must pay all taxes due from 1895 to date. After the sale the county treasurer will execute a deed to the person to whom the lots are sold. Those acquired by the county will be for sale under the supervision of the Board of County Commissioners.

Jurors Drawn.

The following list of jurors for the January term of court which convenes on the 25th inst., was drawn today:

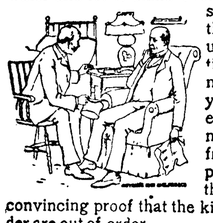
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.



What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

THE MAYOR'S ANNUAL REVIEW

for the encouragement afforded to our citizens on that occasion.

RAILWAY CONNECTION EASTWARD

between this city and Olympia, Seattle, or some other important railway terminal point, has been constantly expected to be a thing very nearly in sight or absolutely accomplished, ever since early in the year 1899, when the Port Angeles Eastern R.R.Co. was incorated under the laws, by a syndicate formed by gentlemen from Boston, Massachusetts, who then made their home with us and commenced construction work.

Through their efforts Mr. Virgil C. Bogue, civil engineer of New York city, well known to capitalists there and upon the Pacific coast, if not all over the country, as an expert and high authority on railway financial and construction affairs, was sent here to make a careful examination of this proposed improvement. He thoroughly investigated and favorably reported upon the project to construct this road.

The Boston syndicate first formed, found the estimated costs of construction, equipment and so forth, as stated by the expert, were somewhat beyond their figured anticipations and thereupon the company halted in its construction work and sought further financial aid.

In order to expedite matters and insure early success in the latter undertaking, negotiations were opened in New York city and Boston, reaching abroad indeed, among promoters and investors in railroad systems and have happily resulted in reaching a status wherein the construction of this road within this year seems to be conclusively assured.

The whole enterprise, including finance, construction, equipment, and operation, has recently been transferred to the management of several gentlemen who are well known leaders in railroad advancement, and who seldom or never fail, individually or collectively, in the accomplishment of their undertakings and who, upon their request made of the City Council, were cheerfully granted six months extension of time within which to renew active construction work upon the road.

The time limit now running will expire May 1, 1902, before which date according to late reports the company expects to be rushing work all along the line from here via Junction City and Bremerton to Seattle.

Meanwhile, since the Port Angeles Eastern Railroad Company came to dwell with us, the Northern Pacific system has advanced quietly and materially along the Pacific Ocean slope from Grays Harbor towards this place, gradually taking in the many grand river fisheries, the tempting timber belts, the coveted mineral region and the attractive agricultural parks, all interposed between that point and this terminus.

Of this last route I repeat my remarks written in January 1894:

This link of railway laid towards Grays harbor "will develop a wonderful flow of riches to the projectors and to us in various products which will find ready markets from this grand harbor of the extreme northwest," and this city "will be the grand base of operations for profitably treating our own Alaska, for speedy intercourse with great nations across the broad Pacific, and for safe defense of the millions of treasure and the hosts of citizens now in and crowding into Western Washington from all parts of the globe." (See pamphlet, "O'Toole's Mallet," page 65.)

THE CITY FINANCES

Are reported upon annually by the City Clerk, showing assets and liabilities, and quarterly by the City Treasurer, showing receipts, expenditures and balances on hand, under the several heads of accounts.

The said annual reports comparatively considered, show an annual increase of liabilities over assets, which for the years 1896, 1899 and 1900, averaged $3,700. Many of the warrants against the late General Fund, now Indebtedness Fund, which have been carrying interest at ten per cent. per annum have been paid and now a stage has been almost reached where all warrants at that rate will be taken up and where the rate of interest on the remainder outstanding will not exceed eight per cent. per annum.

THE CLERK'S ANNUAL REPORT

for 1901, is not yet rendered, but that for the period ending December 31, 1900 shows the sum total of liabilities was then $302,157.57, and of assets $115,828.28, the difference being as against the city $186,329.29, which is a very insignificant sum for a city of this class to owe, after all the clearing away of the dense forest that existed here, and other public works accomplished in the last decade of years.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT

for the quarter ending December 31, 1901, is not yet available, but that for the quarter ending September 30, last, showed balances of funds then on hand, respectively, as follows, to-wit:

Indebtedness	$1,054 66
Municipal bond int	1,784 07
Electric light bond int	1 941 04
Electric lighting	40 13
First street improvement dis.	49 87
[illegible]	8 28
[illegible] expense	[illegible]
Total [illegible] on hand	$ 940 84

His last [illegible] were [illegible] w[illegible] [illegible]ated December 1[illegible], 1[illegible] and w[illegible] [illegible]se [illegible] the General Fun[illegible] inclusive "A," 13[illegible] which is dated January 18, 1894; for Municipal Bond Interest coupons No. 1, on bonds to No. 35 inclusive; the interest on the coupon of this number having been due in August, 1901; and for Electric Light bond coupons No. 13 on bond to No. 4 inclusive, the interest on the coupons of this number having been due in October, 1900. Fifty Municipal bonds of $1,000 each, and thirty-six Electric Light bonds of $1,000 each represent the principal sums outstanding under those heads.

THE CURRENT EXPENSE FUND

is the one out of which salaries, repairs of roads and walks and miscellaneous expenses necessary to the life of the city are paid. It accrues from a tax of eight mills upon each dollars valuation of real and personal property within the city limits, and from the sums collected for licenses, fines, and so forth. Ever since May, 1898, this fund has been at par, but in order to have it so kept, as the law requires it to be maintained, rigid economy, thorough investigation of complaints, and especial care on the part of the mayor, council, city attorney, and subordinate officers, has been given touching receipts and expenditures which in any way relate thereto. For example, the balance on hand December 31, 1901, was only $44.56. During the quarter ending March 31, following, the receipts were larger than the expenditures and at the end of the quarter the balance on hand was $357.44; thus continuing, on June 30, the balance was $1,500.39; on September 30, $685.03, and on December 31, 1901, was about $440.75. I say "about", because the Treasurer's Report is not in for verification of my memoranda for this quarter.

Against the said sum of $440.00, however, there are warrants dated in January for salaries due in December representing the sum of $261.97; when these are presented and paid the actual balance will be about $178.78.

In my calculations on memoranda I have assumed that this Current Expense Fund has paid a deficit in the Electric Lighting Fund for the year 1901, which with the interest amounts to about $673.90.

This deficit arises from the fact that there are many lights, say fifty, owned by the city, which, otherwise than as deficit at the end of the year, contributes nothing towards the support of this fund. So it may be assumed that with a fair allowance for City Lights, the Electric Lighting Establishment has been substantially self-supported during the year 1901. I may here add, also, that the service has been especially well and satisfactorily maintained during the last quarter of the year and up to the present day, which covers the extraordinary storm period.

Several law suits have been brought against the city as a corporation and against the mayor and clerk, individually, and other cases pending in court have been called up from time to time. These have all been promptly turned over to the city attorney at every step in question, with power to act, and the results have been entirely satisfactory to the city authorities.

Looking over the whole field of the city's business affairs, past, present, and prospective, there are many considerations which should afford us gratification.

Among these I have mentioned the continued heavenly blessings we enjoy, the renewed government attention and indulgences granted, the periodical visitations of great warships, officers and statesmen; the courtesies extended by a sister city's chamber of commerce, the increase of incoming immigration, the new near by discoveries of precious metals and oil lands, the incoming of new industries, the satisfactory workings of enterprises already established, the favorable prospects of eastward railroad connection, the approach of a west side railway system trending towards Grays Harbor, and also the satisfactory financial condition of the city.

To the councilmen and officers of the city in service during the year 1901, I render my sincere thanks for much time they have patiently given to my remarks upon many subjects and for the hearty support they have at all times given to my undertakings in public economy and city affairs in general.

And in closing, what shall I say further to you and the people at large touching the honor I enjoy at this time and place.

I feel deeply grateful to our citizens, one and all, for the renewed assurances of esteem and confidence they have expressed in making me my own successor in this office for a fifth term.

With a record of forty years in the United States army, subject to retirement for age by operation of law, on the coming 12th day of February, were I not already on the retired list at my own request, I am proud, indeed, that the year 1902 finds me not only retained at the head of the government of this charming city, but most kindly respected at all times and places by her stalwart business men, lovely women, joyous youth, and rosy cheeked children, all unitedly and cordially co-operating to enrich everybody's recently established sweet home and to secure further prosperity and happiness in days to come.

Very truly yours,

THOS. H. BRADLEY.

Mayor.

Love is unequally yoked with sickness. Labor is lightened by love, but love cannot lighten pain or relieve it. Many a man looks on at his wife's suffering willing to do anything to aid her and able to do nothing.

Sometimes, however, the husband's attention is directed to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and its remarkable cures of womanly diseases. He may not have much hope of a cure, but he is led to try the medicine, with the result that in almost every case there is a perfect and permanent cure.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity. It dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

As a tonic for women who are nervous, sleepless, worn-out and run-down "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled.

"In answer to your letter I will say, my wife commenced to complain twenty years ago," writes Lewis A. Miller, ex-Chief-of-Police, of 33 Prospect St., Weissport, Pa. "We have tried the skill of twelve different doctors. She took gallons of medicine during the time she was ill, until I wrote to you and you told us what to do. She has taken eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and six of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' She can do her own work now and can walk around again and is quite smart."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

A SEVERE EXPERIENCE.

The Bark Robt. Duncan Ran Into a Typhoon.

The four-masted British Bark Robt. Duncan, Capt. Malcolm MacLean, arrived in port yesterday morning from Wei hei Wei, China, in a somewhat disabled condition, and Capt. MacLean says if his ship had not been an extra strong one he would not be alive to tell the story.

The ship sailed Oct. 1st and on Oct. 28th, when off the coast of Japan, a terrific typhoon was struck, which came near demolishing the ship and sending all to the bottom. The ballast was shifted, so that the sailors were compelled to go below in the heart of the storm and adjust it, and many a severe bruise they got. All the ships stores were mixed with the oil and paint, and a considerable portion ruined, the crew almost starving before reaching port.

After emerging from the typhoon, in which the Captain is positive other vessels spoken were caught, storm after storm beat on the vessel, that of Christmas time catching it just off Flattery and again dismantling the vessel. For 16 days the Captain beat about trying to enter the straits and finally succeeded, being picked up by a tug off Clallam Tuesday.

When the ship struck port the crew had been without food for three days and the Captain had existed upon beef tea straight for some time.

Dungeness.

Little Dora Cays, daughter of Mr and Mrs Elias Cays of this place, died Sunday after an extended illness. The funeral took place Tuesday and was well attended. The sympathy of the community is with the stricken parents.

Sam Irwin is still on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McLare returned to town this week after an extended honeymoon tour, and have taken up their residence on the Henderson farm

The Dungeness river again reminds us that it still carries water and that the water is obstructed by numerous log jams, causing it to be troublesome.

Mrs. Lipsett is visiting in Port Angeles this week

Jack Reay was a visitor here yesterday from Port Angeles, on business.

It is reported the negotiations for the sale of the Farmers' Supply establishment to Druggist Hansen and brother and Mr. Pickett are off, Mr. Hansen being sick and the company not wishing to await his recovery.

Queer Things In an English Egg.

The Pall Mall Gazette tells the following remarkable egg story:

"A Scarborough gentleman was rather bewildered the other morning to find no fewer than 38 common pins and a shoemaker's brass sprig imbedded in the white of his breakfast egg. The egg had been bought in the Scarborough market, and it seems that one or two other eggs purchased there about the same time have been found to contain two or three pins each. The extraordinary egg is being preserved in spirits by a Scarborough naturalist."

What a strange taste the hen that laid that egg must have had! It is now in order for some one to rise to demonstrate that such a thing is an utter impossibility. Some people are so practical that they would spoil any good story for the sake of physiological accuracy.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR

"Something New Under The Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up themucuous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation.
