County Sale Is Valid.

Supreme Court Stretches a Point to Brush Aside Technical Defense.

The supreme court on Saturday rendered a tax decision that is important in that it practically says that no tax sale will be declared invalid on any technical point. The case was taken from Jefferson county, and although irregularities in the foreclosure proceedings by the county was charged, Judge Hatch brushed aside all contentions and practically decided that no sale is illegal unless it is proven that the property sold was not taxable or that the tax had been paid. The decision practically means where only a technical defense is offered a county quit-claim deed is as good as a warranty deed as far as ownership is concerned, and will only be affected by the individual fear of trouble for undisputed possession. Several prominent attorneys including John Trumbull, of this city, vigorously contested the Hatch decision, but to no effect.

The principal point made by defense was that no certificates of delinquency had been issued, and that county could not foreclose on something it did not have. It seems, however, that before foreclosure proceedings were begun the deficiencies of one treasurer were made good by the succeeding officer, and the court holds that the officer had the right to make good, so that on this analysis the decision is not so far reaching as it would be had these irregularities been corrected after foreclosure proceedings had been commenced. It is evident, however, and right, that a tax, where legally made, must be paid, or the property can be sold to pay same.

The nomination shall be made to the board of county commissioners (of the county wherein said society is organized) who are hereby authorized and required to appoint such person as county fruit inspector for a term of two years, deliver to him a certificate of appointment, and mail a duplicate copy of said certificate to the commissioner of horticulture: Provided, however, That county inspectors shall be required to pass a satisfactory examination before the state horticultural commissioner before they are authorized to perform the duties of their office.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes R. E. Secord, Esq., of 13 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could not for a long time bear any solid food in my stomach; felt melancholy and depressed. Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

A man can succeed and be strong if he heeds Nature's warnings. When there is indigestion, loss of appetite, ringing in the ears, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart; any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to turn to.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weaknes and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

GEMS IN VERSE

Evolution.

She sketched a husband strong and brave
On whom her heart might lean;
None but a hero would she have,
This girl of seventeen.

Her fancy subsequently turned
From deeds of derring do;
For brainy intercourse she yearned
When she was twenty-two.

The years sped on; ambition taught
A worldly wise design;
A man of wealth was what she sought
When she was twenty-nine.

But time has modified her plan;
Weak, imbecile or poor,
She's simply looking for a man
Now she is thirty-four.

—Punch.

The Land of Make Believe.

Let us let the little children have the legends and the rest;
Let them keep the glad illusions of the years that are the best;
Let them know the joyous fancies of the mystic fairyland
And the wonderful enchantments only they can understand,
For the years are coming to them when they'll sigh and softly grieve
That they left the realm of childhood in the Land of Make Believe.

In the Land of Make Believe there's a vine that meets the sky,
And Jack goes up and down it—we have seen him, you and I.
There's a winding path that leads up to the bushes of the wood,
And a-many times we've trod it with the quaint Red Riding Hood;
There's a frowning cliff surmounted by a castle glum and grim,
And old Bluebeard lurks within it—you know how we peered at him!

In the Land of Make Believe we used to ramble up and down
To the playing of the piper in the streets of Hamelin town,
And we saw the fairy mother make the horses rear and prance
When we rode with Cinderella to the palace for the dance,
And of evenings, you remember, how we saw some one go by,
And we knew it was the sandman come to shut each blinking eye.

All the others—how we loved them! How they used to come and play
Till at last they sent a message that they'd come no more one day,
For they had to leave us lonely with our broken dreams and toys
While they stayed behind in childhood with the little girls and boys.
Let us let the children have them ere the years come when they grieve
That they ever found the highway from the Land of Make Believe.

—Boston Journal.

Time's Warning.

I am Time. Though men abuse me,
I that sin will lightly scan
If at last they only use me
For the common good of man.

Though for years they may be idle,
Though awhile they doubt or dream,
I my righteous wrath will bridle
If their folly they redeem.

Let them have a while of pleasure,
Let them have a time of rest;
But, remember, I will measure
Every soul—the final test.

Let them sin if sin be pleasant;
Let them dream instead of toil,
Wasting all the golden present,
Storing not the wine and oil.

Let them rest while others travail,
Play while others agonize
Over truths they would unravel
That the truth may make them wise.

But remember that disaster
Will attend their fatal lack;
I am Time, and I am master;
None can turn the dial back.

Be they Adam, Cæsar, Hector,
Be they Xerxes or St. Paul,
I of men am no respecter;
I am ruler of them all.

Dream you dream if dreams delight you;
Sin you sin, but only know
That my wrath at last will smite you
If a single hour you owe.

A Total Wreck

The wreck of the sealing schooner Penelope, at Clallam last week was occasioned by the dragging of the anchor in the heavy wind, letting the vessel on the rocks, where she broke up. The crew of the ship Kilicrankie stood by and saved the schooner's crew with the exception of David Walker, who was washed off the boom and was drowned. He was buried at Clallam. Owners of the schooner went down on a tug Saturday and it is understood the vessel was dismantled.

President Roosevelt has got his eye on Clallam county and wants to see a national park established within our boundaries for the protection of the wild animals therein. A few years ago the powers that be tried to shut us all up in a forest reserve. After a spell of solitary confinement for several years they let us out again. Not being able to confine the people in a reservation, they seem to have come to have come to the conclusion that it is the wild animals that need reserving.

The Clallam Bay lighthouse seems to have been lost, strayed or stolen. Anyhow, we are being kept in the dark.

Call for Meeting of Democratic County Central Committee.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee of Clallam county will be held in the city of Port Angeles, Washington, on Thursday, March 31, 1904, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of fixing date and place for holding the County Convention, and for such other business as may come before said meeting.

A. J. COSSER,
Secretary and Acting Chairman.
Dated Port Angeles, March 17, 1904.

COMPARISONS are odious, if your end don't compare well. The T.-T. says we have copied them until now we have a pretty good looking paper. We confess to extravagance that will bring no returns, but we have always lead in news—and what else is a paper for? If you want THE NEWS read THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

THE Democratic State Convention date has been revised and will now be held at Olympia, May 3d. It is given out that the reason for the change is to boom Senator Turner for the vice-presidency. This idea was first suggested by THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER two months ago and there is no reason why Mr. Turner should not be the nominee. He's big enough for the presidency. The change necessitates the immediate call of the Democratic Central Committee which is made in another column, and the fixing of date of the County Convention to elect delegates to the State Convention. Date will probably be fixed for the last week in April, and if any have any particular day to suggest that will be most convenient let them speak quickly.

Dowieites for Seguin Bay

Special to THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

SEGUIN, March 17.—H. J. Bugge returned Wednesday from an up sound trip and on Thursday left for Angeles to attend the committee meeting. The Republicans of this section do not believe in the one convention idea. They feel that it is not only a snap-judgment departure on the part of the committees, but shuts out many good available men and makes a long unnecessary period of strife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mossman returned Wednesday from an up sound visit.

Mrs. H. E. Risley returned from a trip up sound on Wednesday's boat.

Postmaster Huff is a visitor to the county seat today to attend the Republican committee meeting.

It is said the country about Seguin bay is likely to soon become the home of a large colony of Dowieites. Two months ago a delegate was here and opened negotiations with Mr. Bugge who owns a considerable area of the chosen spot and a month later the gentleman appeared with two of his giant associates and a thorough inspection of the country was had. Since that time Mr. Bugge has not heard from them and it is not known what decision if any has been reached.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grant returned on today's boat from Seattle.

The Discovery mill has closed down for about two weeks because of a shortage of bolts. Wm. Ulmer, Roy Madison, Lucian Madison and others of the boys are spending the time in Angeles while Billy Dippold says Discovery is good enough for him. Wonder why?

Mr. Roy Virtrees and wife started for San Diego, Monday morning to reside. He traded his ranch for a lemon grove 9 miles out from San Diego.

Miss Ada Grant sojourns in Seattle.

Frank Wilkins is recovering from a severe attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. Voldo, of Port Angeles, is still visiting at Dr. McGeorge's.

Mrs. Sweet is down with the grippe.

Mrs. Chas. McDougal has a severe case of jaundice.

Hay has been in demand this week but at reduced prices from a month ago. $11 to $12, where it was $14 to $15.

F. C. Howell's little boy has the bronchitis combined with whooping cough.

R. Long, Wm. Long and Mr. Currie are clearing some land. They first used the donkey engine to pull the stumps and are now plowing harrowing and picking up the stone.

The Seguin Shingle and Lumber Co. are repairing their mill to commence cutting shingles.

Ed Potter's children are having a severe attack of whooping cough.

W. B. Main and family are down with la grippe.

They are trying to establish a new P. O. on Long Prairie. If they do, and there is no reason why they should not, our mail carrier would go to Exa that way. Why not have rural delivery?

Socialist Speaker

J. W. Brown, of Connecticut, spoke at the opera house Wednesday night to a large gathering on the "Triumphs of Socialism" as he termed the advance of primitive man before capital combinations took control. Mr. Brown is an excellent speaker and well versed though not an educated man. His industrial analysis proved clear and pointed. Capital, he said, has absolute control of all the tools of labor, and exacts four-fifths of the products of labor, giving to labor one-fifth on an average of what it produces. The practical solution is that labor, through co-operation, must regain control of the tools of the various trades. If this is not done, or if socialism does not prevail, the enslavement of mankind will continue until a condition not hard even now to picture is brought about.

The new Glendale creamery opened for business this week and the first churning took place Friday. The machinery and fixtures are in first class working order; although new and stiff. The management is very desirous of farmers increasing their stock, as the creamery can accommodate many more than is now owned in this neighborhood, and the plant will always be kept in advance so as to take care of any increase. Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

DEWEY

in command of the Asiatic squadron, consisting of the Olympia (flagship), first-class cruiser; Baltimore, Raleigh, Boston, second-class cruisers; Concord, third-class cruiser; Petrel, fourth-class cruiser; McCulloch, revenue cutter, used as a dispatch boat; Nanshan, collier; and Zafiro, supply vessel; with a total personnel of 1,694 officers and men.

On the breaking out of the war with Spain, April 22, 1898, Commodore Dewey was at Hong Kong with his squadron; and he received prompt instructions from Washington to find and destroy the Spanish fleet stationed somewhere in the Philippines. Accordingly, on Wednesday, April 27, he sailed with his squadron from Hong Kong in search of the enemy. The result may be given in his own first brief dispatch: "Manila, May 1.—Squadron arrived at Manila at daybreak this morning. Immediately engaged the enemy, and destroyed the following Spanish vessels: Reina Cristina, Castilla, Don Antonio de Ulloa, Isla de Luzon, Isla de Cuba, General Lezo, Marques del Duero, Cano, Velasco, Isla de Mindanao, a transport and water battery at Cavité. The squadron is uninjured, and only a few men are slightly wounded." Owing to the feeble defense of the Spaniards, Commodore Dewey's victory was an unexpectedly easy one; but that circumstance does not in the slightest degree detract from its workmanlike completeness, which, when contrasted with the trifling cost to the victor, made it one of the most remarkable victories in naval annals. Commodore Dewey's dispatch was received by President McKinley on May 7, and he at once telegraphed his thanks to Commodore Dewey, and notified him that, in recognition of his "splendid achievement," he had been appointed acting rear-admiral. Two days later the President sent a message to Congress recommending that the thanks of that body be given to "Acting Rear-Admiral George Dewey for highly distinguished conduct in conflict with the enemy, and to the officers and men under his command." On the same day (May 9) Congress passed a joint resolution of thanks, to the effect indicated, and voted to Admiral Dewey a sword of honor, and to his comrades medals commemorative of the victory. It also passed a bill increasing the number of rear-admirals from six to seven, to provide for Dewey's promotion. After the destruction of the Spanish fleet, Dewey subjected Manila to a strict blockade, and with his squadron took part in the capture of the city by General Merritt on Aug. 13, 1898. On March 2, 1899, he was created full admiral. (See also MANILA, in these Supplements.)

Admiral Dewey is a strict disciplinarian, and his action with the Spanish squadron showed that he is an admirable tactician, and a cool, clear-headed, skilful, and brave commander. He is an all-round athlete, a daring horseman and huntsman, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. At Portsmouth, N. H., in 1867, he married Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of Ichabod Goodwin, the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire. She died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey, who, after graduating at Princeton, went into business in New York city.

The New Werner Encyclopedia Britannica

is revised up to June, 1899. It is complete and contains the latest statistics, discoveries, inventions, etc., etc. It does not omit such important personages, as Governor Theodore Roosevelt, Admiral Schley, Admiral Sampson, Capt. Clark of the Oregon, Capt. Evans of the Iowa, Kipling and his Career, nor a single town or post-office in the United States, possessing sufficient population, commercial advantages, or other points worthy of notice.

It speaks of General Wood as Governor of Santiago; of General Henry as Governor-General of Porto Rico; of Aguinaldo's declaration of war against the U. S. in February, 1899.

The New Werner Encyclopedia Britannica

Has Thousands of Special Articles of Great Interest to Americans, among which are the defensive and aggressive resources of the U. S., discussed under Navy, Army, Coast Defenses, Sub-Marine Boats, Artillery, Gun Making, the complete history of the last quarter-century of the U. S., including the new government of the Hawaiian Islands, Philippine Islands, Cuba, Porto Rico, Guam, Wake Islands, Ladrones, The Spanish-American War, with the biographies of the noted men it produced. It does not leave KITCHENER OF KHARTHUM holding the rank of adjutant-general in the Khedival Army but tells how he was awarded a peerage, and how Lord Kitchener was instrumental in raising a fund of half a million dollars to found and endow a Gordon Memorial College at Khartum; also mentions his appointment in January, 1899, as GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF THE SUDAN.

In the mayorality contest in Seattle last week the Democrats succeeded in cutting down the Republican plurality to 1,260.

Fawcett, ex-Democrat, was defeated for the Republican nomination for mayor of Tacoma. This is proper. Those politicians who flop around with every turn of the wind should be sat on hard.

If newspapers are anything to judge a place by—they generally prove a true mirror—the newly incorporated town of Munroe, Snohomish county is going ahead fast. The Monitor of that place started as a five column paper, later it advanced to six columns with inside patent, and now rejoices in all home print with a good advertising patronage.

"Silence," is still the watchword of the Republicans in both houses of congress. They incline to permit the Democrats to do all the talking, feeling that when it comes to a vote they can put anything through by mere force of numbers. Having but one candidate for president they are not embarrassed as to whom to vote for. The essentials of the platform on which they will make the campaign are determined on and to some extent formulated. Meantime the Democrats feel that they have an abundance of issues and that when it comes to the hard pull, there will be no kicking over the traces.

POST CHECK CURRENCY.

The post check currency, for which so many people are now working, in and out of congress, is intended to meet the requirements of mailable money for those who desire to remit small amounts by mail and are too busy to wait for the red tape operations of the money order office.

The Gardner post check currency bill aims to make it easy to send money through the mails without the annoyance and delays of the present system. It provides that all $1, $2 and $5 notes printed in the future shall contain certain blank spaces, but will pass from hand to hand like other government currency udtil they come into the possession of some one desiring to send money through the mail. Then the spaces are filled in with the name of the payee and his address and a 2 cent stamp is placed on the bill. The bill is thus transformed into a check, with many of the safeguards and none of the inconveniences of the present postal order system. When these bills are paid at any postal money order office they will at once be canceled and withdrawn from circulation.

The issue of post check notes would not change our financial system, but it would insure a constant supply of clean paper money and afford a safe and convenient method of making remittances. It would prove particularly useful to the people of the country districts now that the rural free delivery has been established, and when the merits of the plan have been thoroughly understood it is probable that it will meet with general favor.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,
