FAIR EDITION

The Democrat-Leader

PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASH., OCTOBER 3, 1895.

YESTERDAY'S SPORTS

The sports occurred as announced yesterday forenoon, under the skillful superintendency of A. A. Smith, excepting catching the greased pig, which was postponed until today.

The races on the hill were a feature of the afternoon's pastime. They all occurred as advertised, excepting one or two which were postponed until today.

The sports of today promise to be intensely interesting and exciting. A number of horses have been entered for today's races which have won a record in the speed ring enviable in an eminent measure.

The only accident to mar the harmony of the races, which very fortunately resulted without serious consequences, occurred while Mr. Holland was riding, his horse stumbling, fell and rolled completely over the rider several times without injuring him. His escape seems almost miraculous.

Notwithstanding Sleepy George, the winner of the trotting race yesterday is past 17 years of age, he easily distanced all competeitors.

The Indian pony race will be a feature of today's races.

The most gracelful gentleman rider was the missing link in yesterday's races.

Following is the result of yesterday's sports and races :

2—Wheelbarrow Race, 500 feet, free for all. Prize, $1. The first race was won by Theo. Brewster. In the second contest a prize 50 cents was given the winner, the successful competitor in the first contest being barred out. Lou Schomer won the second race.

3—Boys Catching Greased Pig. Prize, $1. This contest was postponed until this forenoon at 10 o'clock.

4—Sack Race, 100 feet, free for all. Prize, $1. The sack race proved a very exciting contest, about a dozen boys contesting. The prize was won by Chase Garfield.

5—Pony race, three horses entered—Black Dude, rode by Chase Garfield; Billie, rode by Dell Church; Billie Hooker, rode by Bim Garfield. Race won by Black Dude; Billie, second.

6—Race, horses trotting in harness, single, half mile dash, best two in three. Entrance fee, $1. First prize, $10; sec-prize, entrance fees. Two horses entered—Sleepy George, by Mrs. W. C. Garfield and Prince by A. L. Johnson. Won by Sleepy George.

7—Most graceful and accomplished lady rider. Prize, diploma. Won by Mrs. John Brown, jr.

8—Most graceful and accomplished gentleman rider. Prize, diploma. Won by J. H. Holland.

9—Slow Mule Race, free for all, quarter mile drag. Not run.

FAIR NOTES

The Philadelphia in the harbor.

An excellent miscellaneous program at the opera house this evening.

Quite a collection of exhibits arrived this morning from the west end.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER special fair edition is very favorably received.

The exhibit of live stock in the stock yards, is indeed, a very creditable one.

The mountain elk on exhibition in the stockyards are a special feature of attraction.

Some splendid specimens of quinces produced in Clallam county are exhibited at the fair.

Some blooded sheep and quite a collection of farm products arrived yesterday for exhibiton at the fair.

A fine hog weighing 560 pounds, is a living example of the peculiar adaptability of Clallam county for the profitable production of hogs for the markets.

Tom Watson, proprietor of the City Market, has evidenced a clever stroke of business sagacity, in purchasing the enormous steer and hog exhibited in the fair stockyards.

One of the attractive exhibits in the stockyards, is a magnificent five-year-old, weighing 1665 pounds, English Draft horse, the valuable property of Joseph Henderson, one of Dungeness' successful farmers.

The exhibit of dairy products at the fair is a most creditable one. And why shouldn't it be, as this county stands foremost among the counties of the state for the quality and quantity of butter it produces.

N. R. Smith, the wide-awake manager of the Smith & Perkins Water Power Co., whose plant is located on Ennis creek, has, as was to be expected, a creditable and a suggestive, industrially exhibit. All citizens are aware of the stupendous task undertaken by Mr. Smith, in the highly commendable effort to develope water power sufficient to operate the wheels of a number of industrial plants. Obstacles were encountered which would have utterly disheartened any other man. But each succeeding obstacle encountered threatening the defeat of the enterprise was overcome until success triumphantly crowned the efforts of this undaunted son of a worthy sire.

Last evening's program produced at the opera house was in every way meritorious. Features worthy especial mention were the succession of living pictures arranged under the direction of Mesdames H. B. Willson, Edna Lewis and Geo. W. Meagher; the maypole dance, by sixteen young women, who had been drilled by Mrs. Wm. Bell; the instrumental selections by the Gate City Band, and Messrs. Eckengren and Bradley throughout the program was produced with a regularity and harmony truly refreshing.

The product, matchless shingles, of the plant operated by Port Angeles' first water power are exhibited at Mr. Smith's booth, and justly and rightfully should he feel proud of the signal achievement. Mr. Smith also has some splendid views of the grand scenery in and about Port Angeles. Everyone knows that Norman is an enthusiastic yachtman. On the subject of a model for a swift sailing yacht the gentleman in question has original ideas. Ideas too, which are not allowed to be conceived then permitted to die abornin' but ideas which are being practically utilized, as the splendid models, designated the "Gertrude and Helen" and the "Chester" will very clearly attest. These cleanly outlined little crafts are specialties of Mr. Smith's unique exhibits.

The DEMOCRAT-LEADER fair edition has an extended circulation. An advertisement in its columns will be given he greatest publicity possible to attain.

The largest display of clothing at the U. S. Clothing House.

The steer weighing 1025 pounds is a living exhibition in the stockyards of what Clallam county can do in stock raising. This splendid annimal, formerly owned by D. W. Morse, is the valuable property of Thos. Watson, of the city market.

For advertising space in the DEMOCRAT-LEADER fair edition leave orders at this office or at the DEMOCRAT-LEADER booth in the exposition hall.

Good Flour 70 cents per sack at Lauridsen's.

WILD SWAN ORDERED HERE

Comprehending the presence at this port, during the fair, of the U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia, Capt. Cotton, the management of the fair, conceived the unique and novel idea of bringing, if possible, the flagship of the British squadron, the Royal Arthur, which is stationed at Esquimalt, to this port during fair week, that visitors might be granted the rare privilege of inspecting and comparing the relative points of excellence possessed by either vessel. In a measure the praiseworthy effort has met with success, as the following gracious and courteous communication, received by Mr. M. J. Carrigan from Mr. Frank Dent, Secretary to the Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the British squadron, will attest:

H. M. S. ROYAL ARTHUR,
ESQUIMALT, 30th Sept. 1895.

SIR:—I am directed by the Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief, to request you to please convey his regrets to the members of the Board of Trade, Port Angeles, and the Executive Committee of the Clallam County Fair, at his not being able, owing to previous engagements, to be present in H. M. Ship Royal Arthur on Friday next, the 4th prox., which will be Victoria Day at the Fair.

While regretting his inability to be present, the Admiral wishes every success to the Fair, and fells certain that had he been able to attend, every means on the part of the citizens of Port Angeles would have been used to make his visit a pleasant one.

As the Rear Admiral had arranged for Commander Napiev in H. M. Ship Wild Swan to proceed to New Westminister for the celebration at that place, he will now direct that officer to call in at Port Angeles, so as to be present on Friday, the 4th of October, to assist in the festivities. I am sir,

Your obedient servant,
FRANK DENT,
Sec'y. to the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chief.

Notice.

During fair week there will be a great many strangers who will want lodgings, etc. It is the desire of the executive committee to arrange for all if possible With that end in view a list of all parties having rooms is wanted, with prices, with or without meals. Address Reception Committee.

E. H. STANLEY,
Chairman.

THERE is a beginning to all public enterprises of moment and consequence. It is to be seriously doubted, however, if any encountered less consequential opposition and adverse conditions to mar their success, than Clallam county's first annual fair. Even the elements have adorned their loveliest raiments.

THE splendid exhibit of canned salmon arranged by the National Packing Company, is not only creditable to the skill, judgment and enterprise manifested by this public spirited institution, but it is an invaluable suggestion of one of Clallam's greatest sources of wealth.

THE magnificent specimens of coal on exhibition in exposition hall are a living evidence that Clallam county possesses sources of mineral wealth, the commercial value of which future development and utilization alone will accurately compute.

THROUGH the graciousness and consideration of the commander-in-chief of the British Pacific Squadron, the Wild Swan, one of the gun boats of the Pacific fleet will arrive tomorrow—Victoria day—to participate in the festivities.

THE fair as an exposition of varied natural products is a success in every essential point. This is not all. The social features of the fair are a brilliant, a signal accomplishment.

SOME fine specimens of flax grown in this city as an experiment, suggests a source of inestimable wealth to the agriculturalist and to the manufacturer.

NONE question—all commend the brilliant success of the fair.

THE agricultural exhibit includes some splendid samples of cereals, which very conclusively suggest that Clallam soil is admirably adapted to the culture of small grains.

THE excellent collection of agricultural products is a feast even the old-time farmer of the county little imagined he would enjoy at Clallam's first annual fair.

NEXT year Clallam will boast an exposition hall the dimensions of which will be sufficient to properly accommodate its exhibits.

No one will doubt the advisability nor the wisdom of an agricultural and industrial exposition in Clallam next year.

THOSE magnificent specimens of black diamonds are, indeed, prophetic of a grand indurstrial future for Clallam.

CLALLAM'S farmers have abundant cause to feel proud of the representation made at the first annual fair.

THE fair will become a permanent institution.

GREAT is Clallam.

DICTIONARY OF U. S. HISTORY.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact,
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought

The man who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it,
In Historic Research has reached the extreme:
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it; no one can repel it;
At homes, schools and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small introductions,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking with this book than with anything else they ever sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER, 2, 1895

SOME OF THE VISITORS

Jas. Sherard of Dungeness, is in the city.

K. Y. Church of Dungeness is in the city.

J. D. O'Neil of Townsend, is in the city.

Miss Whittier, of Quillayute, is in the city.

Mrs. J. W. Griffiths, of Townsend, is a vistor.

Jas. Baker of Dungeness, is a visitor to the Fair.

Fred R. Thompson is in the city taking in the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hart of Port Crescent, are in the city.

County Commissioner M. Whittier, of Quillayute is in the city.

Rev. Jonas Bushell returned from Victoria, Tuesday evening.

Fred Robert, of Dungeness, accompanied by his daughter, is in the city.

Mrs. Theo. Knoph, of Dungeness, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ollo, are in the city.

Mrs. Richard McDonnell of Diamond Point, arrived yesterday and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Gould.

Miss Alice Nailor returned from a month's visit up-Sound, yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Richard McDonnell, of Diamond Point, who will spend a few day at the Fair.

Mr. Nottage's peculiar way of "keeping everybody in the right path" in the opera house, is highly entertaining, although somewhat embarrassing to the recipients of his attention.

Messrs. Wm. D. Richardson, business manager, and Thos. J. Church, soliciting agent, of the Seattle Call, the principal Populist journal in the Northwest, are in the city, in the interests of that journal.

The Philadelphia in Harbor.

The Philadelphia has arrived. As is customary a number of prominent citizens, together with the executive committee of the fair and the Gate City band, boarded the steamer Garland, which was in port on the arrival of the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia, Capt. Cotton, yesterday afternoon, and sailed out to the cruiser. Upon nearing the Philadelphia the band struck up a lively national air. The reception committee then saluted the officers of the Philadelphia as the Garland rounded the vessel, and the salute was returned in true naval fashion by the commanding officers and the crew, who had lined alongside as the Garland was passing; her marine band then struck up an enlivening air. The home band then followed with another air. The officers and the visitors then exchanged courtesies, and as the Garland departed for the dock, the cruiser's marine band played another delightful air.

A communication was sent Commander Cotton this forenoon, the nature of which was that he state when it would be most convenient to receive a delegation of citizens aboard the Philadelphia.

GOVERNOR McGRAW.

Expresses His Regrets Over Being Unable to Attend the Fair.

The following kindly letter received by Mr. Carrigan from Gov. McGraw, expresses the distinguished gentleman's regrets over being unable to attend the fair:

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.
Oct. 1, 1895.

Mr. M. J. Carrigan, Chairman Executive Committee, Clallam County Fair, Port Angeles, Wash.

MY DEAR SIR:—When I received your invitatien to attend the Clallam county fair, I was on my way to Eastern Washington on very important public business, but because of an accident I am now confined to my bed here. My physician tells me that I will not be able to travel for at least three or four days, and I will then be obliged to continue my trip to Eastern Washington.

I regret exceedingly that for these reasons I cannot be with my friends in Clallam county on the occasion of your first fair, and I desire to assure you, and and through you Clallam county's people, of my earnest appreciation of the sincerity of the friendship which prompted the invitation sent me. I need not say that the Clallam County Fair committee has my best wishes for a complete and successful exhibit of the county's resources. I hope this first fair will be such a success that your association will live and flourish, growing stronger, better and larger during the succeeding years. I would like much to be with you.

Very sincerely yours,
J. H. McGRAW.

An effort having been made to bring the Royal Arthur, the flag ship, of the British Pacific Squadron, from Esquimalt to this port, during the fair, has resulted in the Rear Admiral ordering H. B. M. S. Wild Swan here on Friday, the 4th inst.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

If you have anything for sale advertise in the DEMOCRAT-LEADER fair edition.

Capt. Davis, of the magnificent English steel ship Vortigen, is an interested spectator, at the fair. The splendid exhibit displayed in exposition hall is, the genial captain declares, a revelation to him. His first visit to this port, twenty-nine years ago, at which time the surroundings were not only suggestive of, but in fact an impenetrable forest, unbroken by the resistless march of civilization. The evidence, however, of civilization's subduing hand was most forceably manifest in the varied collection of products of the farm, the forest and the sea, sources of limitless wealth, of vast commercial possibilities to this port, conditions commercial, which the observing captain readily realized exist here in a measure abundently sufficient to make it one of the important shipping ports of the world.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Migual, Cal. says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.
