TRADE WILL BE IMMENSE

AND HARRIMAN WILL COME TO GET A SHARE.

West Side of Sound is Now In Favor—Reasons Why Townsend and Angeles Will Attract Attention of New Railroad Builders in This Section.

A special from Seattle to the Townsend Leader says: Business men here are just begining to realize what it will mean to them and to the whole of Puget Sound and the Northwest, if the Phillippine transport serviee can be brought to the Sound. It has just leaked out that for the past week there has been a representative of one of the San Francisco Mercantile Associations in Seattle, looking around with a view to finding locations here for some of the big merchants he represents. This man admitted in private conversation with a friend here that in the opinion of conservative business men of San Francisco, the transport business is bound to come to the Sound, and that even if it does not come during the next year, it is only a question when it will practically all be done from this section, instead of from San Francisco. And the merchants of San Francisco, he says, are awakening to a full realization of what they will lose when the Philippine business is transferred to Puget Sound. The San Francisco man says that directly and indirectly the transport business has been worth more than a billion dollars to the merchants alone of San Francisco, and that it has developed the commerce of that city more in four years time than would have been done in forty years of ordinary trade and commerce such as San Francisco had before the Spanish war.

But for the friendly self interest being taken by Mr. Harriman, in behalf of San Francisco, the Boston SteamshipCo. would have been awarded the contract on its bid calling for three fourths of the entire goverment business to and from the Pacific coast and the Philippines.

And as the Oriental trade is worth more for the future than all other classes of business on the Pacific coast combined, it is as certain as anything can be that Mr. Harriman and his associates are not going to sit idly by and watch it go to Jim Hill and his allies in the Northwest.

The result will be the extension of the Union Pacific and the Harriman system to Puget Sound. It is not believed that this road will come to Seattle. Even at the present time the Great Northern is unable to handle its business at Seastle on account of the crowded condition of the water front. For a time it was thought that Hill's big steamers would be docked at Smith's Cove, off North Seattle, and a great deal of money has been spent there in dredging and constructing piers. But when this work was only partially completed it was abandoned, and it is now certain that Hill will take his big steamers to some other point on the Sound. Bellingham Bay is claiming that arrangements are now being completed for taking the Hill steamers to those waters, and this may be true.

Can Harriman find terminal facilities on the East Side of Puget Sound? Certainly Tacoma, Seattle, Everett and Bellingham Bay, are not to be considered in that connection, and the railroad and steamship men here are mentioning the names of Port Townsend and Port Angeles and Port Discovery bay as likely to attract the favorable notice of the Harriman people.

These places offer waterfront facilities not equaled on this side of the Sound, and all they lack at the present time to give them a large share of the Oriental trade—it indeed not practically all — is railroad connection with the East. If the Harriman people give the West Side of Puget Sound a transcontinental railroad, Seattle and Tacoma and Everett will be compelled to recognise a rival city on that side, so far at least as the great cemmerce of the Orient is concerned.

Harriman is sure to come to Puget Sound within he next few years.

CAN MORTGAGE A CLAIM.

An important decision from the land decision from the land department has been received at the Walla Walla land office, giving a verdict for the defendant in the case of W. H. Lichty versus Hugh L. Hannon. The quarter section in question is located in Whitman county, two miles from Palouse City, and is said to be worth about $6,000. The decision is important, not onlyon account of the value of the land, but because a number of similar contests have been filed in the Walla Walla office, and are awaiting trial.

The real significanceof this contest lies in the validity of the homesteader's right to mortage, or give a claim against his filing in any way, before making final proof. This has been decided to be legitimate, provided it cannot be shown that the entry was made in the interest or for the benefit of the party advancing the money. It indicates that the department is favorable, or at least does not object to, borrowing money on a homestead to make impovements on the same.

RANGERS WILL TAKE A CENSUS.

Settlers on the Reserve Will Be Closely Questioned.

Superintendent Sheller of the state forestry reserve, has rangers employed this winter in making what might be termed a census of those having mining or homestead rights on the forestry reserves. All settlers on the reserves will be visited and a report made of the livestockpossessed byeach, the improvements made, character of house, when settled and the validity of the claims of each. All persons holding mining claims on the reserves will have to tell the character of the ore on their property, the time the claim was taken and show the ranger the amount of improvement work done. Mr. Sheller is doing this to ascertain just who have rights on the reserves. All bogus claimants will have their claims revoked.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

MANY ENJOYABLE FIRESIDE GATHERINGS.

While Big Affairs Were Scarce Society "Woke Up" Sufficient to Make a Showing—Only a Portion Reported.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Waite were most agreeably surprised through the storming of their home by a very large gathering of their friends, who when admitted filled the house very full. They came determined and prepared to have a good time and to make the evening pleasant for their host and hostess and succeeded in an admirable degree. Luncheon was served before departure and this feature was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The recital given Monday night in the opera house by Miss Jordan and the Gate City Orchestra under the direction of the local A.O U.W. was a pronounced success, and although there was a good attendance the gathering was not as big as the lady and her assistants deserved. Miss Jordan is a monologist of rare ability and those present recognized this fact with generous applause after each number.

The following program was rendered:

1 Medley of National Airs ..... Arr Bradley
2 (a) "Young America" .....
(b) "The Irrepressible"..Miss Jordan
3 Cake Walk "Mississippi Bubble".. .....Haines
4 Monologue (Poem) .....
"Tomorrow at Ten".....Miss Jordan
5 Waltz—"Return of Love". .... Snider
6 (a) Impersonation.."Friday Afternoon in a District School"
(b) Scene from "Caprice"—Characters; Jos. Garland, farmer Jack Gordon, in love with Rose Garland..... .... Miss Jordan
7 Overture—"Feast of the Roses"... ....Munkett
8 Monologue .....
"Over the Tea Cups".....Miss Jordan
9 King John, Act IV, Scene I, Miss Jordan
10 March—"Alagazarn"....Abe Holzman
11 "Pop's Baby" ..... Miss Jordan
Star Spangled Banner.

After the program a social dance was held at which there was a good attendance, good music and an all-'round good time was had.

Tuesday night at the home of Judge and Mrs. McClinton the latter entertained a number of young people in behalf of Miss Mary Willson, who was home for the holidays. Features of the evening's entertainment were delightful games of telegrams and initials, music and singing. The evening passsd all too quickly and the luncheon served was delicious. There were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Willson, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McClinton, Mrs. A. C. McDougall, Mrs. J. A. Withrow, Mrs. H. A. Babcock, Miss Willson, Miss Appleton, Miss Ware, Miss Glenn, Miss Dick. Messrs. John Willson, T. J. Appleton, Jr., Fred. Foster, Dr. McGilliyray, R. L Richardson, Roy McClinton, Frank Babcock.

Also on Tuesday night the happy family of W, Mathewson, who reside in the Fonrth ward, were the recipients of a most pleasant surprise visit from a number of their friends. And it was no formal fashionable visit they made, but one which real friends like to have. They stayed long and were merry to the last, with games and music. All partook of an excellent luncheon before departure. There were present: Messrs. and Mesdames F. M. Wait, E. Dermul, Thad. Wagner, Frank Sullivan, M. T. Fuller, W. J. Mathewson, J. D. Yarnell, W. A. Doty; Misses Hypatia Dermul, Josie Phelps, Mabel Wait, Laura Doty, Florence Wagner.

Wednesday evening of course was the event of the week—the Grand Masque ball, given at the opera house for the benefit of the base ball boys. There was a large crowd present both on the floor masked and in the galleries watching the gay assembly in costumes of every imaginable description. There were several new and pretty costumes out, and the music by the orchestra was all that could be asked. The judges, comprising Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Oscar Morse and E. E. Day awarded the prizes as follows:

First prize—Best dressed gent, hat, A. Goldwater.

Second prize—Best dressed lady, toilet case, Mrs. A. Filion.

Third prize—Second best dressed gent, muffler, (silk), Wm. McIvor.

Fourth prize — Second best dressed lady, slippers and lace pin, Mrs. Lewis.

Fifth prize—Best sustained gent character, mustache cup, Pete McGoff.

Sixth prize—Best sustained lady character, handkerchief case, Mrs. Fred Wilkins.

Seventh prize—Best Negro gent, cigars and pedals, W. H. Lyster.

Eighth prize—Best Negro lady, candy and photo holders, Mrs. Lyster.

Ninth prize—Best group, wine, H. Mitchell, E Nichols, Chas. Watts, B. Shomer, Carl Larson.

Tenth prize—Most original character, box candies, Dan. McKensey.

Eleventh prize—Best gent waltzer, box cigars, Frank Hooker.

Twelfth prize—Best lady waltzer, kid gloves, Mrs. Ben. Smith.

Also on Wednesday evening a most enjoyable home party in the form of a surprise was given at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dermul, on Eighth street, the occasion being Mr. Dermul's birthday anniversary. The friends gathered early and stayed late—welcoming the new year before their departure. The luncheon served and the evening's entertainment here too was thoroughly enjoyed. There were present: Messrs. and Mesdames O. L. Burdick, Geo. Nestle, F. Robinson, Ray Haynes, Thad Wagner, E. R. Maxfield, W. Mathewson, Mrs. Mollie Phelps, Misses Franchie Nace, Josie Phelps, Jessie Burdick; O. W. Burdick.

Besides the above there were numerous home gatherings of various sizes, some of which were deserving of special mention had the participants taken the trouble to advise the newsgatherer, but like most people they either didn't think of it at all, or believed one or two reporters able to tell by the atmosphere in a certain locality that a social event was on. The townsite contains about six square miles so they flatter the reporter considerably. Moral: 'phone us of the event and we will rustle the details.

A Christmas Treat.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Craig had a most enjoyable time during Christmas day, in the form of a special brew of "Boston Tea" which Mr. Craig declared his forefathers had saved for him from the famous Boston tea party of 1776, and as the latch string of the door of their beautiful home on Georgiana street hung outside the entire day, their numerous friends took advantage of the opportunity of testing this special brew. All are unanimous in the opinion that it certainly is the best brew of tea that they have had for a long time, and all those who took advantage of the occasion found such a hearty greeting awaiting them, that the earnest desire of all who visited them on that day is, that they will both live long and continue to brew such tea for many Christmas days to come, and that the latch string will continue to hang outside the door as it did on this Christmas day of 1902. KEEP those new year resolutions or do not resolve.

A Seattle pressman, brooding over his inability to quit gambling, shot himself this week. After many years experience the "lead" cure seems to be the only one that is effective when this habit gets hold of one—moral, never begin.

SEATTLE'S or the Boston Company's bid was accepted, but with the 75 per cent. clause eliminated it is doubtful if Puget Sound has won after all. Puget Sound has had a portion of the transport business and would get more had the bid never been made. She will now get "as much as the government believes she can handle," which she has had in the past.

AS SURE AS TAXES.

Port Angeles only wants to know for sure that Harriman and his U. P. or S. P. road is coming to the Sound to be certain of being the terminal. Twelve years ago before the deal was made to divide territory the Union Pacific took steps to make Port Angeles its Sound terminus, going so far as to construct a grade North from Portland, to build a wharf at Port Angeles and put on a steamer between this city and Seattle. Should this agreement be broken as seems probable in the strained relations now existing, there is no doubt that the road will take up the old plan so thoroughly perfected at that time.

A NEW ROAD.

Railroad news comes thick and fast these days, which goes further to prove that Port Angeles' opportunity is at hand. In the settlement it seems we must get a railroad or good promise of one very soon.

The latest project is a line from Tacoma to Sumas, the C. P. terminal on the boundary line, and it is intimated that this line is being put in by the C.P.R. and the Union—Southern Pacific, to give both these roads terminals on the sound.

If the Southern and extreme Northern lines should combine to surround the Mellen and Hill systems what more advantageous route could be asked than by way of Port Angeles and Victoria?—direct and through a rich country which would give an immense amount of local support.

We repeat: Let the merry war go on.

PORTLAND now favors the Sound for the transport business as against San Francisco, recognizing that with the business on the Sound she will profit indirectly while otherwise not at all. Portland is figuring on Southern Pacific business and will get it when the government transports all leave the Sound.

Brides

Are always "beautiful" and always "happy" according to the society reporters, and in this case the report is mostly true. There may be unhappy brides in fiction, but there are few in real life. But how hard it is to look upon many of the wives we know and believe that they were once beautiful and happy. Pain, the result of womanly disease, has marred beauty and undermined happiness.

Beauty and happiness are both restored to the sufferers from womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the pain-producing ills peculiar to women, establishing regularity, drying weakening drains, healing inflammation and ulceration, and curing female weakness. It restores roundness to the sunken cheek and plumpness to the shrunken body.

"I have thought for some time I would write you and tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day, and was so weak I could not walk one quarter of a mile. I noted a great improvement in my health before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The absorption by the Northern Pacific railroad of the Port Townsend Southern has revived interest on the west side of the sound in the growing necessity for through railroad communication from Port Angeles, Port Townsend and other important points over there to Olympia and the main lines of rail traffic north, east and south. The Northern Pacific will, of course, see to it that its new acquisition is made productive. To become so it will have to be in touch with the sections that promise the richest results in point of products. The west side of our state is known to be rich in mineral as well as timber resources, and ready to develop that country if given reasonable assurance of transportation facilities. Capital will follow the railroad, and the development on the west side of Puget sound will be rapid while direct and indirect benefits are sure to accrue to everybody this side of the sound included.—Trade Register.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

John Govan of Dungeness and Miss McFarland of Scotland.

While there he met Miss McFarland and when he left to return to his home at Dungeness, in this county, he had the promise that his sweetheart would follow him shortly and they would get married. True to her promise Miss McFarland arrived in Seattle Monday, and Mr. Govan hurried to Seattle to consummate the happy event and reward her for the long trip she made from Scotland in order to fullfill her promise. Mr. Govan is a prominent business man of Dungeness, and is said to own considerable property He announced that he would at once begin the erection of a handsome home for his bride.

Will Recover Taxes Paid On Water Plant.

Dunsmier, respondent, vs. the Port Angeles Gas, Water, Electric Light and Power Company, et al., apppellants. Respondent held a mortgage on the plant of the defendant company, which was recorded in the book of real estate mortgages. Later the company gave a trust deed to one Burwell. Respondent paid certain taxes on the plant when the same was threatened to be sold by the county for such taxes. He then brought an action to have his mortgage, and the taxes under the statute providing for a lien on real property for taxes paid, declared a first lien on the company's property, and paramount to the trust deed. Burwell contested the superiorty of the mortgage for the reason that he (Burwell) had no notice of the plaintiff's mortgage; that the property was personal property, and in the records of Clallam county for the recording of personal property mortgages nowhere could be found the mortgage of plaintiff. This was brought to the supreme court and the court held the property to be personal and the trust deed the paramount lien, and as the lien for taxes was brought under the statute relating to taxes on real property no relief could be granted. The plaintiff then commenced his action to have the amount of taxes paid, with interest, declared a lien on the water plant on the theory of subrogation. The defendants pleaded res adjudicate—that the lien for taxes was passed on in the former trial. (24 Wash. 104). This court holds, however, that the right of the lien under the statute relating to real property taxes, and that plaintiffs have a lien for the amount of taxes paid and legal interest.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

DO YOU WANT TO?

Do you really want to get rid of your catarrh? If you could get treatment by a good physician for two or three cents a day would you take it? The MacKenzie treatment isn't a "patent" treatment but a reliable method for curing catarrh, devised by Sir Morell MacKenzie—the great English nose and throat specialist. It is convenient; it costs but two or three cents per day and it gives permanent relief.

Physicians the world over have agreed with McKenzie that the nasal passage is the original seat of catarrh and from that point it spreads by contagion and absorption, infecting the blood, the stomach and in time the whole system. The MacKenzie treatment is the only home treatment which, in conformity with the above fact, removes the local inflamation in the nasal passage and at the same time destroys the poison which has infected the oter parts of the body.

Local treatment stops the purulent discharge in the nose and the consequent dropping of the thieeted mucucus into the thoat. Have you ever stopped to consider that the two little tubes leading from the throat to the ears are often infected by that pyisonous mucus? And did you know that it is thiis infection and inflamation of those tubes that causes nine-tents of the deafness with which so many people are trouqled?

Stop its progress now. Stop the catarrh. Write for further information to Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and become prolific germ culture ground, so that an ordinary case of catarrh develops into dry catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and sprays and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly.
