Railroad Outlook Good

Port Angeles Eastern Again Comes to the Front With a Rush

The people of Port Angeles were somewhat surprised on Monday to have assurances thrust upon them that they could hope for the recommencement of construction work on the Port Angeles Eastern railroad this summer, which was as unexpectedly stopped some years ago after the expenditure of many thousands of dollars. The rumor spread fast upon the announcement of the arrival in the city of no less a person than Mr. William Wayne Belvin, of Seattle in the early days, and confidential representative of President Henry Villard, of the Northern Pacific, but now of Boston. Mr. Belvin arrived in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Frye who spent the winter in California, but little could be learned of the real purpose of his visit. On Tuesday the P.-I. arrived with the following article at the head of its first page:

"Construction of the Port Angeles & Eastern railroad will begin within thirty days and will be pushed steadily all summer in a southeasterly direction from the city on the straits. This statement is made on the authority of William Wayne Belvin, of Boston, who represents the Eastern capital which will build the road. Mr. Belvin is well known to all old residents of Seattle, as he lived here from 1878 to 1884, engaged as the confidential representative of Henry Villard.

Considerable terminal work has already been done upon the Port Angeles & Eastern, and the grade is completed sor a number of miles out of the city. The ultimate terminus of the road is kept a secret for the present, but Mr. Belvin would not deny that its direction was toward Seattle. As the object is to connect Port Angeles by rail with the rest of the world and to tap the country west of the Sound and south of the straits its objective point is not difficult is not difficult to conjecture.

"Mr. Belvin arrived in Seattle yesterday. He will proceed to Port Angeles about Thursday, and at once put in motion the work of active construction. The building of the line will be under his supervision and he will be on the ground a large part of the summer. Part of the material is already at Port Angeles and further shipments will arrive soon.

"Mr. Belvin is an old railroad promoter and builder. He has been president of several railroads, among them the San Francisco & Eastern, which was graded 160 miles into the San Joaquin valley under his management, before it was sold to the Southern Pacific. He has also projected and built other lines. As the confidential agent of Henry Villard in this city for half a dozen years preceding the construction of the Northern Pacific to the Sound, he was actively connected with the building of that line, and with other projects with which Mr. Villard was identified

"While living in Seattle Mr. Belvin dealt largely in realty and owned extensive tracts of land when it was cheap acreage, which is now valuable city property. Through the rapid increase in the volue of this land he acquired a comfortable fortune, and siill retains some holdings, although he sold most of his land in 1884 in the height of the city's first boom under the impetus of railroad building."

The city attorney reported as to validity of city ordinance fixing liability of abutting property for repair of walks; stating that ordinance 314 covers the bill fully, and enables city to compell the keeping of all walks in repair by abutting property-owners. Where parties fail to comply city has authority to repair same and charge costs against property. Liens can be collected in regular way. The only restriction is that city must repair or renew all walk without elaborate change.

Residents of vicinity of Seventh, Eighth, Vine and Albert streets, asked for 1,000 feet of 2x12 in. lumber for repair of drains which are cutting away considerable lands. Petitioners will do work if lumber is granted. Lumber was allowed; also plank for Culvert on Sixth and Washington sts.

A petition was also read from residents of vicinity asking removal of obstruction on Ninth street, East of Chase. Laid on table.

D. O'Brien communicated to council suggestions for improve- of Cook's prairie for park as per letter published last week.

The city marshal asked leave of absence for three weeks as he expected to leave for Portland. Leave was granted, and nomination of Jno. Church to act in his stead was confirmed.

Fifthteenth Annual Institute Proves Very Interesting

The fifteenth annual session of the Clallam County Teachers' Institute convened Monday, in the opera house, at 10 a. m., by County Supt. Risley.

America was sung, the audience standing.

Invocation by the Rev. Baldridge.

Herbert Babcock was elected secretary for the occasion.

Mayor F. S. Lewis was introduced and gave the address of welcome. The speaker saluted the teachers as the greatest of earth; pointing out that in them lay the greatest of all work—that of the moral and intellectual development of the rising generations. An appeal for the teaching of a broader citizenship and a loftier patriotism closed the mayor's remarks.

Prof. J. T. Forest, of the Whatcom Normal, opened the work of the session by a discussion of the "Walsh Method in Arithmetic." The Grube, Spear, Reid and other methods were reviewed, leading up to the Walsh, or spiral method. "The necessity for developing interest in the subject, the desire to know why, must be gained or your teaching is in vain," said Prof. Forrest. The effects of machine teaching and through that the advantage of the country school over the city school was dwelt upon.

Following Prof. Forrest's remarks came a general discussion of the subject, which seemed to indicate that our

Don't forget the Democratic primaries to-night. There is no excitement, as there is no ticket to be named at this convention; but good Democrats should be sent to the state gathering.

To the uninterested observer in the Republican scrap one wonder where the ring gets its pull with the tax-payer delegate. It would seem that a heavy tax-payer elected for commissioner, should be preferable to a sojourning, non-resident, health-seeker.

The bill for the removal of the custom house from Port Townsend to Seattle has passed the House through the efforts of Mr. Seattle Humphreys. Now, if Seattle can get a U. S. Senator, she will get the customs house and anything else she wants to rob the West Side of the sound of. Are you going to assist?

To the City Council of Port Angeles:
Gentlemen:—

In making this, my final report for the year 1903, I should like to make a suggestion, which would facilitate matters in striking a balance between the clerk's and treasurer's books.

You will notice a wide discrepancy between my balance and the treasurer's in the Current Expense Fund, and also in the First Street Improvement Fund.

This is caused because duplicate receipts are not issued when money is turned in to the treasury, of which I should keep one on file in this office; and in the case of saloon licenses, where ten per cent goes to the state, I have no record of the transaction at all; therefore our books cannot possibly balance.

Trusting that these suggestions will be heeded, for the assistance of future city clerks. I am, very respectfully yours

R. D. McLAUGHLIN,
Ex-City Clerk.

My Breath.

Shortness of Breath Is One of the Commonest Signs of Heart Disease.

Notwithstanding what many physicians say, heart disease can be cured.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has permanently restored to health many thousands who had found no relief in the medicines (allopathic or homoeopathic) of regular practicing physicians.

It has proved itself unique in the history of medicine, by being so uniformly successful in curing those diseases.

Nearly always, one of the first signs of trouble is shortness of breath. Whether it comes as a result of walking or running up stairs, or of other exercises, if the heart is unable to meet this extra demand upon its pumping powers—there is something wrong with it.

The very best thing you can do, is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It will go to the foundation of the trouble, and make a permanent cure by strengthening and renewing the nerves.

"I know that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is a great remedy. For a number of years I suffered from shortness of breath, smothering spells, and pains in my left side. For months at a time I would be unable to lie on my left side, and if I lay flat on my back would nearly smother. A friend advised using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which I did with good results. I began to improve at once, and after taking several bottles of the Heart Cure the pains in my side and other symptoms vanished. I am now entirely well. All those dreadful smothering spells are a thing of the past."—F. P. DRAKE, Middletown, O.

If the first bottle does not help you, the druggist will refund your money.

REPUBLIC'S PERIL

Trusts Menace National Prosperity

Principles of Andrew Jackson, Made Effective and Permanent, Will Release Country From Grasp of Greed and Restore True Democracy, Says William Randolph Hearst.

Responding to numerous invitations to attend Jackson day celebrations in various cities of the United States, William Randolph Hearst, whose duties compelled him to remain in Washington, issued the following address to the people of the United States:

The name of Andrew Jackson will always stand for fundamental, fearless and victorious Democracy.

His name is inspiring, especially worthy of reverence at this time when the people again encounter an attempt by unscrupulous wealth to control the government of the country.

Today's situation resembles, in a greatly exaggerated form, that with which Andrew Jackson dealt when our republic was young.

To realize the work that Jackson did we must remember that he not only attacked and destroyed a national danger in his own time, but undoubtedly put off for many years that growth in the power of financial corruption which threatens the country now. This nation's development of individuality, liberty and prosperity for so long a time under popular government we owe to the genius with which Jefferson met the questions of his day, to the courage and fighting quality with which Jackson attacked and destroyed the public enemy of his day.

Never in the history of this country has arrogant, overpowering predatory wealth been as menacing as it is now, never through the wide exposure of its methods has it been as thoroughly detested as it is now. The criminal trust issue is the dominating issue in the minds of the whole American people.

To deal with the criminal trusts radically, making of them its great issue, is the duty of the Democracy. Moral duty demands that the Democratic party attack and destroy misgovernment by trusts. And political wisdom (the duty of leaders to their party) demands that the trust question shall dominate in all political agitation until the end of the next campaign.

Jackson day reminds us that the accidental election of a Democrat on some trifling basis of expediency is no wise or worthy aim for Democrats.

Permanency in useful, effective work should be the aim of the Democratic party. It should have constantly in mind the fact that Jefferson and Jackson, elected on fundamental Democratic principles, which insured to the country genuine popular government, kept the Democracy in power during the generation that followed them.

Contrast the character and careers of Jefferson and Jackson, their vital influence on their party, with the character and influence of any Democrat elected regardless of fundamental principle, living out his few years of office—to leave the party stranded and worse off than before.

The courage of a Jackson is needed in a party bound to uphold the rights of the majority against the insidious scheming of lawlessness and corruption. Greater than ever is the need of such qualities as Jackson possessed, now that money has put itself above the law more than ever before, menacing the people's rights.

Great issues are never invented or created by political leaders. Real issues make themselves, and the trusts, by their growing extortions and defiance of law, have made themselves the great issue in American political life today.

In every American mind the character of the law defying trusts stands out clear. In every American home the wife, even the children, know well by name the beef trust and the coal trust. Dealing in life's necessaries, without sympathy for humanity or fear of the law, such extortionate trusts as these have made themselves a danger to every home.

And every frugal man, anxious for the future of those dependent upon him, knows well—many a one to his cost—the character of the speculative trust, with its enormous inflation and overcapitalization, its remorseless robbing of the public, its cold blooded get rich quick schemes.

There is no doubt as to the character of this trust, it is known by its works, by its stealing of the accumulations of husband and wife, its despoiling of the children's future, using as bait the names of criminal "respectables."

The duty before the Democracy today is to fight the criminal trusts, to cut down and root out the evil power of that predatory wealth that seeks to supplant government of the people by government of the pocketbook and the lobby.

The criminal trusts must be destroyed because they menace prosperity. They menace real prosperity, the prosperity of all the people, the prosperous growth of the nation under popular government.

No man needs to be told how firmly the trusts have intrenched themselves in government. These trusts are absorbing more and more the power that should be the people's.

Jackson found himself face to face with the great bank reaching out for national power. He was told that this bank claimed frankly the right to a certain number of representatives and to a certain number of senators in the American congress. He answered, with his own peculiar emphasis, that if there existed in the country such a governing power outside the government he would destroy it.

And he did destroy it.

How puny was the power, how puny the representation in congress of that bank which aroused Jackson's deep and fatal indignation!

Any one of a dozen big trusts today exceeds in power the boasted influence of that bank. The sugar trust, the beef trust, the coal trust—any of the trusts that need to create legislation or to defeat legislation for the convenient robbing of the public have their tame men, their hired attorneys, in office.

The bank of Jackson's day timidly claimed the right to a small share in government, and Jackson killed it for its temerity.

What would he say to the swarm of trusts today, whose individual and combined influence, whose paid or terrorized servants, in or out of office, constitute the governing power in the national administration?

If Jackson was needed in his day, how much more is he needed now, with the fearlessness that made him do his duty as he saw it!

Needless to say, the Democratic party of the United States, which includes able and successful men in all lines of effort, has never put itself in a position of hostility to any legitimately acquired wealth.

Today, as in Jackson's day, the Democratic party is a party open to all American citizens obedient to the laws and faithful to the constitution, no matter how poor or no matter how rich they be.

Daily Paper: "The Korean government has decided to preserve a strict neutrality in the war between Japan and Russia."
—London Punch.

No Democrat need be reminded that the ability of those men who possess honestly acquired riches is essential to the nation's welfare.

Those who attack indiscriminately or jealously the rights of the prosperous manufacturer, merchant, inventor, banker or other legitimately successful men are not Democrats. They are as blind and stupid in their way as those of another class who cry down and attack the rights of the union man who works with his hands.

The Democratic party, more willingly than any other, recognizes that the men who develop the resources of the country, the men who create the wealth, the men who through executive, organizing and constructive ability provide opportunity for effort, employ labor, distribute wages and confer benefits upon the whole community, are those entitled to large reward, since those who direct great and legitimate business undertakings are essential to the prosperity of the nation.

The promoters of extortionate and speculative trusts do not develop the resources of the country, but hinder and restrict development. They do not create wealth, but appropriate the wealth which others have created. They check prosperity by concentrating wealth in the hands of the few out of the savings of the many. They limit production, they limit opportunity, they limit the employment of labor and reduce the laborer's wage, while they increase the cost of living. They confer no benefits on the community. The wealth they possess is stolen money, and the laws of the country should hold them as public criminals.

Managers of get rich quick trusts, managers of fraudulent trusts—that great tribe of public robbers—are not confounded in any Democrat's mind with the honest men whose superior ability, industry, patience or intellect have brought them legitimate wealth.

The growth and prosperity of the United States have merely begun. The nation needs the ablest minds, capable of wide planning and accomplishment. These will continue to be valued and encouraged by all good citizens. Every Democrat will agree that the laborer is worthy of his hire, whether he work for day wages or for great wealth, so long as he works honestly and legitimately.

The Democratic party is the party of all honest working Americans. It is the party that will promote the welfare of all those contented to live within the laws.

The Democratic party is the party of prosperity—the prosperity of the many, not of the law defying few.

The coming battle of the Democracy against special privilege is already clearly outlined in the minds of intelligent voters. This nation was established for the benefit of all, for the purpose of giving equal legal rights to all. The coming fight of the Democracy is to preserve the essential character of our American system, and is to be against the criminal element which seeks to change the nation's character.

It is the duty of the Democratic party to release the country from the grip of extortionate trusts, which, like the coal trust and the beef trust, control the necessaries of life, increasing the cost of living and destroying the purchasing power of money earned.

It is the duty of the Democratic party to eliminate the opportunities of speculative trusts, like the steel trust and the shipyard trust, that deceive the public and take the people's savings in exchange for worthless watered stocks.

It is the duty of the Democratic party to prevent the recurrence of the present national situation, in which we see the wages of tens of thousands of workers in one single trust reduced in order to swell the profits of manipulators and stock jobbers.

It is the duty of the Democratic party to ally itself with the legitimate business interests of the country, and with their aid to overthrow the Republican party, which has sold itself to the criminal trusts.

None will welcome Democratic success more gladly than the legitimate business man, who finds it more and more difficult to exist under the throttling influence of the trusts and their growing control of legislation, money and opportunity.

To the commercial traveler, the business man, the mechanic whose wages are cut, the local banker in constant danger, to every family that has had its living expenses increased or its savings absorbed by the criminal trusts, I would recommend a study of the character of Andrew Jackson and his political methods.

To all Democrats and Democratic leaders Andrew Jackson stands a proof of the value of principle in the winning of victory.

If it were possible in the coming campaign to choose our candidates in the history of the past, I should not advocate the choice of some so called "conservative" nonentity, without motive or inspiration save desire for office; I should urge the nomination of Andrew Jackson, because he was not afraid of money illegally intrenched, because he knew how to fight and how to win.

"ANYBODY from anywhere except King county, especially any one from the West Side of the sound, who votes in any manner to assist Seattle in her fight for a U. S. Senator, is a blankety-blank fool," said I. D. O'Neil, of Port Townsend, on a visit here this week.

THE Port Townsend Republicans this week, for the first time in years, wiped off the earth the Federal bunch that has been running Jefferson politics for years.

"A Local Issue."

Judge Geo. C. Hatch of this judicial district, came up from his home in Port Angeles yesterday morning and reports politics at a fever heat in Clallam county. The principal contest, the judge says, is on the nomination for representative in the legislature, the candidates being William Church and Walter J. Dyke. The fact that everybody is for Dyke one minute and for Church the next, makes it impossible to say who will carry the convention.

Judge Hatch says the sentiment in favor of the candidacy of Mayor Coon for lieutenant governor is very strong at Port Angeles especially, and in other parts of county as well. He thinke the Clallam county delegation to the state convention will support Mayor Coon loyally and heartily. "It seems to be regarded as a local issue in Port Angeles," said the judge, "and everybody hopes Mayor Coon will be nominated for lieutenant governor." —Port Townsend Call.

Sisson Discharged.

The jury case against D. C. Sisson, charged with killing elk unlawfully, was heard Tuesday and upon the completion of the prosecution's case, Judge Hatch ordered the prisoner discharged, on the ground that there was no evidence to convict. The main witness did not testify as was expected and the case dropped flat. The county will pay $600 00 in costs, More efficiency!

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that in accordance with the by-laws of the Port Angeles Eastern Railroad Company the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company will be held on the first Tuesday in May, to-wit, the third day of May, 1904, at the hour of two o'clock P. M. in the office of the company in the opera house block in the city of Port Angeles, Clallam county, Washington, for the purpose of electing a Board of Trustees and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Dated at Port Angeles, Washington, this 11th day of April, 1904.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless this inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

How Dry Creek Voted

Special to The Democrat-Leader.

Dry Creek, April 25, 1904

If a stranger had come to the Republican primary at this place last Saturday, not knowing anything whatever of the questions at issue between the two factions, it would have taken him but a short time to determine which side was the one that deserved victory.

On the Lauridsen-Church side were the bona fide residents of the precinct—the farmers, the mill-owners, the people interested in the way the money of the county should be spent.

On the Palmer-Dyke side were the Indians and, with one exception. transient white residents of the neighborhood—the exception a lessee of the farm of a custom house official. This latter evidently considers his official position of more importance than his ranch and is willing to sacrifice his farm to his office.

One of the voters on the Palmer-Dyke side is an employe of a Port Angeles saloon-keeper and had, of course, to do his boss's bidding. The Indians knew they would be taken care of; when one was asked what he was getting for his vote, he said he did not know, but Elwha Jimmie (their leader) knew.

It seems not to make any difference whether Mike is big chief at our local custom head-quarters or Tom; when the former was cock-of-the-walk Gleason, of sainted memory, had to do the dirty work in our precinct; he, too, worked the Indians whenever he thought it necessary to do so. That was under the Hanna regime, but who would have thought that Teddy, the immaculate civil service reformer, would allow his appointees to be such extreme partisans as the local representatives show themselves to be.

While the fight was between Lauridsen and Church on one side and Palmer and Dyke on the other—it was nevertheless not really a personal fight, for as a private citizen Palmer has probably as many friends in our precinct as Lauridsen and Dyke, no doubt more than Church; but in this instance the former represents the Court House Gang and the latter the Tax-Payers. It was plainly a fight between the PEOPLE and entrenched officialdom; it was the State Constitution with a limited time of office versus anarchy of perpetuity in office; it was sobriety versus saloon; it meant white intelligence against Indian ignorance. But for the vigilance displayed by the adherents of Lauridsen trickery would have won the day for Palmer, for three non-resident Indians were trying to vote for him and several white employes of the neighborhood, some of whom had not been a week in in the precinct, were brought forward by the local manager; but when challenged they thought better than to purjure themselves.

Lo, to the honor of Dry Creek, Lauridsen and Church won the day out here. Resident.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"There are thousands of sick women dragging out a weary, miserable existence, who would be well and happy did they but have my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Annie Lenman, of 106 Jackson St., Atlanta, Ga. "Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines internally and externally until I had made up my mind that there was no relief in sight for me. A friend of mine endorsed your 'Favorite Prescription,' and I determined then to give it a trial. It took patience and perseverance for I was in a bad condition, and had to use your medicine for nearly four months before I was cured, but what a change it brought; from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful, exhilarating feeling that only health brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars. Your 'Prescription' is a grand medicine. I wish every sick woman would only try it and be convinced."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

MODERN WOODMEN.

The Order's Largest Camps—From Various Jurisdictions.

The largest camp of the Modern Woodmen is Camp 2,002, iocated at Kansas City, Mo. There are eight camps, with more than 1,000 members. Two of these are located in Kansas City, one in St. Paul, one in Duluth, one in Omaha, one in Rockford, one in Des Moines and the other in Grand Rapids.

The order is making excellent progress in Minnesota. The jurisdiction now has 731 camps and about 50,000 members in good standing.

The Modern Woodmen was in such prosperous condition on Feb. 1 that the assessment for that month was omitted.

The members of the Modern Woodmen at Paris, Ill., some time ago invested their camp funds in a building and loan association, which has now matured and amounts to $4,000.

The largest Modern Woodmen camp in the Ohio jurisdiction is in Newark. It has a membership of over 800.

Modern Woodmen camps in California are doing excellent work and growing rapidly. The jurisdiction's largest camp is in Los Angeles. It has about 800 members.

In the fearful Iroquois theater fire in Chicago the order lost four members, as follows: Samuel A. Muir, George H. Studley, Benjamin E. Gould and Otto G. Berry.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Grand Chancellor of Illinois. Pythian Notes.

At the annual convention of the grand lodge of Illinois William G. Edens was elected grand chancellor of the domain. Mr. Edens is a bright, energetic Pythian and will doubtless give the jurisdiction an excellent administration. He has been active in politics in his state for a number of years and took a prominent part in organizing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of which he has been national vice president. Mr. Edens was born in Richmond, Ind., in 1863 and in 1890 went to Galesburg, Ill., where he has since lived.

During the past year 10,056 applications were received by the endowment rank.

There are at present seventy-nine Pythian lodges in Greater New York, which include among their members some of the city's most prominent men.

The New Hampshire grand lodge is accumulating a fund for a Pythian home. It has a standing executive committee which has charge of the matter.

The Illinois domain now leads in membership in the endowment rank, having more than 6,000 members.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Notes and Gossip From Various Jurisdictions.

The Overseer says a Boston actuary, after going over the order's new rates and plans, reported them to be the most equitable that could be adopted and as low as rates can safely be made.

During the year 1903 the order paid over $10,000,000 to the beneficiaries of deceased members.

On Jan. 1 there was a membership in good standing in Kansas of 37,712.

Know the new member and let him know you. Do not be stiff and formal, but thaw out and get acquainted in the lodge room in a way that will keep you acquainted outside.

The Michigan jurisdiction paid $47,000 to beneficiaries of deceased members last month.

There were 19,970 members of the order in the Missouri jurisdiction on Jan. 1.

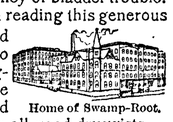
DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

New Type And Machinery.

THE DEMOCRAT LEADER is now better than ever prepared to do fine job printing; in fact it is the only office in the city that has a large press for large work and small presses for small jobs.

We recently purchased the handsome Courier press—the best in the city—and have received direct from the manufacturers in the East some handsome new type of mammoth size together with borders, rules, etc., and a handsome new furniture rack. We now have everything to do first-class work, and if we cannot now do satisfactory job work of any description it cannot be done in town, or this side of Seattle. Our prices are right, too, as you will find them.

HOW HE WAS SNARED

[Original.]

My definition of a genius is one who does things the wrong way with the right results.

The Marroquils lived in a flat on the seventh story of a building facing the park. On the third floor lived the Tuckers. In the Marroquil family, which was a large one, was the oldest daughter, Jeannette, only eighteen years old, but with a remarkable head on her shoulders. Jeannette knew perfectly well that she must be provided for, or, rather, that she must provide for herself by securing a husband. The Tucker family was small, there being but one child, Adolph Tucker, twenty-one years old, and just come into an estate from his grandmother of $200,000. The Marroquils did not know the Tuckers nor the Tuckers the Marroquils, but the wife of the janitor had told Jeannette all about the Tuckers and the fortune. Besides, Jeannette had gone up in the elevator with Adolph Tucker and considered him "perfectly lovely."

Jeannette was determined to make Adolph Tucker's acquaintance. But how? There are many sets in large cities, and the two families belonged to different sets. Jeannette never found one of her friends who happened to know the Tuckers. Nevertheless she felt no doubt whatever that she would make young Tucker's acquaintance.

She was leaning out of her window one summer morning looking across the street below into the park. Hearing the patter of footsteps on the sidewalk, she looked down and saw the object of her wishes, who had just come out from the house, standing on the sidewalk in immaculate costume.

Miss Marroquil was not only a girl of resource, but her conceptions came to her like lightning and were executed nearly as rapidly. Rushing to a stand, she filled a pitcher, returned to the window and poured the contents on Mr. Tucker, aiming for the streak of sunlight that glistened across the top of his silk hat. Waiting only till she had seen a splash like a radiating fountain, she set down the pitcher and, seizing a newspaper, fixed her eyes intently upon it.

Mr. Tucker, who was a fiery young man, first shook himself like a dog which has just emerged from a swim, then, going across the street muttering maledictions, stood on the opposite sidewalk and looked up to discover whence had come his unwelcome bath. A number of windows in the flats above were open, but only one window was occupied, and there sat Miss Marroquil. Mr. Tucker was sure that she was the aggressor.

Mr. Tucker went to his room and again made himself immaculate. Half an hour later he emerged from the building covered by a silk umbrella with a silver mounted handle. When he returned he had made up his mind for the most bitter revenge man can take on woman. He had resolved to make the acquaintance of the girl who had so wounded his dignity, win her heart and throw it to the winds.

Just why Mrs. Tucker took it into her head to call upon Mrs. Marroquil never was satisfactorily explained. The call was returned and was followed by another from Mrs. Tucker, with a request to be permitted to bring her son. Miss Marroquil, armed with her daintiest costume, met Mr. Tucker ready for a fight to the finish. She did not know his intentions, but believed they were vengeful. Mr. Tucker said nothing about his ducking, but made himself as fascinating as possible. Miss Marroquil accepted his attentions and made it as pleasant as possible for Mr. Tucker. Indeed it was apparent to him that all was working well till one morning, when emerging from the building, he received a second cold water bath. This time, though he looked up with surprising quickness, he saw no one at the Marroquils' window.

Mr. Tucker was surprised. He could understand the girlish freak that had led Miss Marroquil to give him his first ducking, but had supposed he had made an impression and would be at least treated with proper consideration. He began to feel that he was not after all an object of the slightest reverence to Miss Marroquil, for he did not doubt that she was this second time the aggressor. His future action was not clear to him, but upon consideration he finally resolved to cut Miss Marroquil the next time he should meet her. A few days later when he passed her coming out of the door of the apartment house, he turned his head.

Miss Marroquil had now done everything she could to entangle Mr. Tucker. If he was caught he would soon show it; if not, there was nothing more to be done.

The two did not see each other again till one day they met in the elevator. Mr. Tucker turned red, then white. Miss Marroquil chatted glibly with a friend, apparently forgetful of her former acquaintance with Mr. Tucker. Then her cousin, Tom Martin, came and passed a week with them, and Mr. Tucker saw her going out with him for walks in the park.

This was the last round. One day Miss Marroquil received a note from Mr. Tucker saying that he would like to be permitted to call that evening and make an explanation. He received no reply. Three days after Mr. Tucker saw his enemy go into the park alone for a walk. He followed and joined her. The result of the meeting was a humble apology from Mr. Tucker for cutting her. As to an apology from her for ducking him, it was forgotten owing to Mr. Tucker's condition. He declared that away from or at enmity with her he would go mad. Since their marriage Mr. Tucker has made many apologies, Mrs. Tucker never one.

COUNTY NEWS.

Clallam Record.

Trout are taking the fly and anglers can be seen everywhere.

Everybody is busy making gardens and ornamenting their yards with flower beds.

Five sections of logs and fifty spars were towed up sound from Robinson's camp the latter part of last week.

The fishing schooner Alma which broke her anchor chain and went ashore one night last week during a heavy squall, was pulled off the beach by one of the Puget Sound Tug Boat Co's., tugs, but sank in forty feet of water. The captain became discouraged and offered the vessel for $2.00 which was taken up by C. Peterson, of Neah Bay. Mr. Peterson has successfully raised the schooner and has her on the ways at Neah Bay and expects to launch her in a few days as good as new. Not much damage was done the vessel going on shore.

Arthur Brown an old timer of this place left Wednesday for Oak Harbor to visit his brother. He expects soon to go to St Louis and take in the world's fair.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

542 1-2 Congress St.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

Warm and Close Fight

uncomfortably close and a change of ten or a dozen votes, or the pledging of all electors to the support of the ticket would have given the big end of the city delegates to the opposition. For instance, the Second ward delegation of five was won by an average of four votes in a total of eighty odd; the four in the Fifth by two votes in a like total, and a change of six votes in the First would have given five more to the losing side; thus giving the Church-Lauridsen crowd the city by a vote of 19 to 6. As it is the figures are about reversed.

But no pledges were demanded.

Every conceivable scheme and promise imaginable was resorted to for votes, and luke-warm and even patriotic Democrats were successfully pleaded with to take part in the primaries; some on one pretext, some on another. Both sides used with great effect on these the "downing of the ring," this term being applied to the commissioners on the one side and the other court house boys on the other. And the poor antis bit fine.

At Forks

Owing to the late season but little grain has been planted; plowing about done and farmers are impatiently awaiting good weather.

La grippe has been prevalent in this vicinity and seemingly been particularly severe on the old residents. The families of L. M. Ford, M. J. Mayberry, E. L. Peterson, etc., have been afflicted and while they are reported as being greatly improved, they also look forward to good weather to complete their recovery.

Strong as has been this grippe it is quite weak as compared to the grip politics has had upon us. Never have the people of the Valley been treated to so amusing, albeit ridiculous, bit of comedy as was enacted at the Republican primaries on April 23d The show bills announcing that the Republican primaries would be held at the school house was sufficient to attract several Democrats who, at once, saw the incongruity of a Republican meeting being held in a house of learning.

The curtain arose on the first act disclosing the actors in their usual discord—on this occasion Christopherites and anti-Christopherites—the anti's apparently in possession of the throne.

Things progressed with only the usual tumult until one of the Christos spied a staunch old Democrat in the rear of the building—filled with consternation he quickly communicated his discovery to his associates, who, turning in their seats, found he had told the truth (more comedy) and becoming alarmed at the unusual display of dignified intelligence, at a Republican meeting, made a wild rush to escape from the building. With them, and one of them, a man who four years ago was chairman of the Democratic caucus, and who two years prided himself on his Democracy. Alas! Do good men sometimes go wrong.

Finally one of the seceders, more bold than his companions, ventured to thrust his head in at the door and in a tragic voice, that would have done good to a trained actor, admonished the Republicans if any remained, to retire to the out-house where the Republican primaries would be held, as "he would not allow his name to be presented to a Dim-e-cratic matin.'"

After holding a short session, this same bold Christopherite returned and not being contented with having established himself a Republican, by adhering to strict Republican principles of bolting a caucus if things did not go to suit him, he sought to further confirm his position by defaming the Democratic party by declaring several voters in the original meeting Democrats. The faces of the "several voters" beamed with pardonable delight at the accusation, but their joy was short lived as their associates enviously pulled them from their exalted position by proving them merely Republicans.

The result of the primaries is that two sets of delegates will attend the county convention, and what to our little village was a comedy of high proportions, was probably only the baby-show of the Big Show at Angeles.

THE COUNTY INSTITUTE

Port Angeles is a city fair,
This truth let none dispute,
Where in April, 1904, was held
The County Institute

The teachers came from near and far
O'er many an awful route,
And the cream of the county, as it were,
Was at the Institute.

Professor Kincaid talked of bugs,
The worm, the toad, the newt;
And Mr. Forrest told Indian tales
At the County Institute.

And Mr. Yoder, "do you understand?'
We owe him some tribute,
He sang some very pretty songs
At the County Institute.

Miss Boyker and Miss Morewerethere and Miss Morden so cute;
Miss Williams, Smith and Egeberg,
At the County Institute.

Miss Kenner and the raw-hide Belt,
And a Porter fair to boot;
The sisters, Misses Foss and Johns,
Adorned the Institute.

And Mr. Risley bossed the job
In a way both wise and cute;
And Mr. Taylor smiled on all
At the County Institute.

And very last but by no means least-
I hope you'll not dispute—
Miss Bowman tried to do her part
At the County Institute.

And all the stores in town that sold
Either dry goods, hats, or fruit,
They knew the gigling crowd that came
From the county Institute.

Did you ever have a better time?
To the question all were mute,
For they knew the time of their lives was had
At the County Institute.

The teachers all had this
And many things to boot;
They all were photographed
At the County Institute.

Itch--Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c. 50c. and $1.00. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.
