State Republicans

After one of the most terrific struggles in its history the Republicans in state convention, this week, completely turned down the McBride forces and repudiated the issue upon which he has fought so valiently. The railroads are in complete control and all commission men got the axe deep. Eastern Washington, proper, gets the renomination ot Judge Fullerton, a railroad man ; and the West and Middle West, grab everything else. The northwest gets several nice plums because of its lining up in the railroad band wagon, and by wisely withdrawing from the race for state auditor in favor of Kitsap's candidate, Clallam will probably get a clerkship in the state auditor's office for H. J. Lipsett. Representatives Jones, Cushman and Humphreys are renominated and the following state ticket was named :

Governor—A. E. Mead .....Whatcom
Lieut-Governor—C. E. Coon..Jefferson
Att'y General—J. D. Atkinson...Chelan
Auditor—C. W. Clausen.....Kitsap
Sec'y of State—S. H. Nichols, Snohomish
Treasurer—George Mills.....Thurston
Land Com'r.—E. W. Ross.....Cowlitz
Supreme Court Judges—Mark A. Fullerton, Whitman; F. H. Rukin, Yakima
Supt. of Schools—R. B. Bryan, Chehalis

Johnson & Bork will loan you a brush with every can of paint.

"GREATEST OF EARTH."

In the Teachers of To-Day Lies the Hope of the Future.

The following is the address of welcome of Mayor Lewis to the recent gathering of teachers in this city, and is published by request of County Supt. Risley:

O! Ye—Teachers—Greatest of earth—I salute you !

For, if we glance backward over the centuries and observe who has most influenced the progress of the race toward higher things, we shall not give credit to those great warriors who have overrun the earth with fire and sword, but to those great Ministers of Peace, the Teachers of Mankind: Confucius, Socrates, Hypocrates, Plato, Jesus. To be a Teacher then, in however humble a capacity, is to be numbered with the greatest of earth !

Holding your vocation thus high, and, in early years, having myself stood on the lower rounds of the profession, it gives me great pleasure to meet with you at this time and, on behalf of all our people, bid you welcome to Port Angeles!

Your coming together here benefits not yourselves merely; inasmuch as you bring with you and spread among us the true educational spirit you benefit us all.

The position you hold towards the rest of the community is as responsible as it is powerful. It rests largely with the teachers of a country whether the standard of citizenship shall be high or low. Book knowledge and Chesterfieldian graces will not alone make the good citizen. If the child is to reach that high position, along with the alphabet must be taught the Golden Rule; with his reading, the sacredness of his person; with his writing, the sacredness of Debaters Get Rank Decision.

Large, Impartial Audience Voices its Disapproval in Every Quarter.

While the large audience present Friday night at the Inter-scholastic Debate between the Port Townsend and Port Angeles high schools and the scholars and debaters here have no ill feeling toward the judges who saw fit to decide against the Angeles boys, still they feel that the decision was not a fair one Had the decision been left to the audience on the merits of the speakers it would have been unanimous for Angeles, for, as one enthusiastic listener put it "our boys were certainly a surprise in their display of oratory and debating qualities, and showed that they possessed marked ability. To say that the people of Port Angeles are proud of them does not express their appreciation." They put forth good argument which was not combatted, and we understand the decision was first given them, and later to the negative by Rev. Smith changing his vote upon argument of Mr. Waldron who held that affirmative had to fully prove its contention or the opposition need not utter a word.

The debaters were: for affirmative, Angeles, Fred Foster, Chas. Filion, Fred Bown; for negative, Townsend. Miss Minnie Rhuele, H. C. Tibbals. Fred Rhuele; judges, Rev. J. C. Smith of Townsend, F. J. Waldron, Seattle law student, Rev. C. E. Fulmer.

Accompanying the Townsend speakers were a dozen others, and after the debate all were royally entertained at Lyster's hall.

If troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

"Home" Day is Named.

Civic Club Again Calls Patriotic Citi- to Work for the Beautiful— Will Assist Materially Where Rexuested

Friday, June 17, will be the anniversary of the inauguration of the Civic club in this city and the beginning of the concerted and intelligent crusade against stumps and other unsightly things in the streets of our otherwise beautiful city, and the ladies of the club have decided to add a new feature on that day to their work.

Since last stump day the ladies have purchased some $27 of blasting powder, and will now have an "home" day, on June 17, when every male resident in the city is asked to make an effort to spend the day beautifying in some way the place he calls home. Street improvements where necessary are contemplated, but where not any clean-up that suggests itself to the worker will suffice. Those having stumps in or about their premises upon which they wish to work on that day can have them blown loose by the club's official blast man by leaving name at Brophy's or Cushing's stores. The ladies have had some very good work of this kind done for parties on Francis street who were eager to beautify their section and very thankful to avail theselves of the assistance of the club.

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness Is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibres, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.

To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Fretfulness, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.

They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity.

Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"My husband had been sick for weeks, could not sit up to have his bed made. With all the medical help we could get he continued to grow worse. He could neither sleep or eat. Our baby girl was sent away, and all callers barred, because he could not stand a bit of talking. I read of a case of nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. We began giving it to him, and in a few days he was able to be dressed. From that time he steadily improved. Nervine saved his life."—MRS. A. G. HASKIN, Freeville, N. Y.

RUSSIANS REPAIRING RAILROAD DAMAGED BY BRIGANDS.

Most of Russia's land fighting in the present war so far has been with the Chinese brigands who have been doing everything possible to harrass the czar's troops. These brigands seem to have a special fondness for tearing up the track of the flimsy trans-Siberian railway over which Russia must carry all of her soldiers destined for the east. The illustration shows the troops, assisted by Chinese laborers, repairing a section of the railroad wrecked by the brigands.

IN INTEREST OF PRODUCERS.

Hearst Bill to Prevent Railroad Discrimination In Favor of Trusts.

Representative William Randolph Hearst has introduced an interstate commerce bill in congress which designs to prevent unjust discrimination by transportation companies in favor of trusts and against producers of farm products and manufactured articles. This bill is of the greatest importance to the farmers of the country in that it will limit the exactions placed upon producers by traffic combinations.

The bill provides for the creation of an "interstate commerce court," which will have jurisdiction over all questions affecting interstate commerce and give effect to orders of the interstate commerce commission. Under its provisions the interstate commerce commission will, after investigation, have authority to fix rates in lieu of unjust and unreasonable rates established by transportation companies.

One of the important features of the Hearst act is a provision which will effectively prevent discrimination in the allotment of freight cars to shippers. The withholding of cars from points and shippers not in favor with the railroad managers and the granting of adequate service to the Standard Oil, the coal and the steel trusts have been one of the constant and efficient methods of unfair discrimination. The Hearst bill will stop this.

HIS "TAKING" WAY.

Disturbed by Our Steel Rails.

So many American goods are now pouring into Canada that the manufacturers there are agitating for higher tariff duties to keep out the cheap American goods. A letter from Toronto appears in the Iron Age of Feb. 18 on this subject. On the steel rail question it says:

"The recent sales of American rails in Canada at prices $5 to $6 below those maintained in the United States have been commented upon in many Canadian newspapers. Were the (proposed) duty now in force it would not suffice to save the home market for home rail manufacturers, should there be such, for the prescribed rate is $7 a ton, and that amount is only about equal to the difference between what the American railmakers are getting in the United States and what they are getting here."

Query.—Whom does protection benefit?

Knights and Ladies of Progress.

Recent reports from various jurisdictions show the order is steadily growing.

The supreme organizer reports fifty new applicants ready to institute two lodges in Springfield, Mo. The supreme deputy at Aurora, Mo., also reports twenty applicants ready to institute a lodge there.

Trusts Fear Hearst.

The trusts and the so called business interests of the country are afraid of Roosevelt because they do not know what he may do. They are afraid of Hearst because they know what he will do; hence they are moving heaven and earth to induce the Democrats to nominate some man on whose favor they may surely rely. This is the situation in a nutshell.—Tyler (Tex.) Democrat.

"Hearst Against the Field."

William Randolph Hearst's candidacy for president has advanced so far that it's now a question between "Hearst and the field." What a shaking up Hearst has given a lot of old dry bones who jeered at the very suggestion of Hearst's name nine months ago!—Seattle Times.

War Proverb.

There is an old German proverb which says, "A war leaves three armies behind it—an army of widows, an army of cripples and an army of thieves."

Sharks Menace Fish Industry.

A species of shark, known as "dogfish," has become so numerous along the shores of New England that the fish industry is seriously menaced.

In last week's issue Mr. George Lotzgasell's name appeared as an aspirant for the Republican nomination for county commissioner. In justice to George, who is a patriotic Democrat, we must note that the name should have read "Frank" Lotzgasell.

Repeal the county road law and favor an anti-pass bill is the sop thrown by the Republicans for the repudiation of their platform two years ago and the candidate who conscientiously sought to uphold it. Washington voters have a faculty for remembering things though.

The Ladies of the Civic club are to be highly commended for their enterprise in taking up new work in the line they have chosen; the latest, a "home" day should certainly strike a popular chord, and we predict there will be many who will act on the suggestion before the appointed day.

Our neighbors at Victoria are advertising great doings for Victoria Day, May 24th, and as usual good crowds from Port Angeles will attend. The two cities are closely allied and reciprocity has formed strong ties. Our visits to Victoria and their's here are always remembered by each with considerable pleasure.

A committee styling itself "The Philippine Independence Committee," is engaged in the circulation of petitions addressed to the Democratic National Convention and also to the Republican National Convention, asking that these political parties pledge themselves to secure to the people of the Philippines independence upon terms similar to those under which Cuban independence was obtained. The committee having this work in charge is composed of the following named gentlemen:

Charles F. Adams, Massachusetts; Dr. Felix Adler, New York; President Edwin A. Alderman, Louisiana; James M. Allen, California; W. H. Baldwin, Jr. New York; General R. Brinkerhoff, Ohio; George Burnham, Jr., Pennsylvania; Andrew Carnegie, New York; President George C. Chase, Maine; R. Fulton Cutting, New York; President Charles W. Elliot, Massachusetts; Phillip C. Garrett, Pennsylvania; Judge George Gray, Deleware; President G. Stanley Hall, Massachusetts; Chancellor Walter B. Hill, Georgia; W. D. Howells, New York; Rev. W. R. Schurman, New York; Prof. Edwin R. A. Seligman, New York; President Isaac Sharpless, Pennsylvania; Hoke Smith, Georgia; Judge Rufus B. Smith, Ohio; Bishop J. L. Spalding, Illinois; Prof. W. G. Dr. F. S. Lewis was made permanent chairman of the Democratic State Convention over Judge N. T. Caton by a rousing majority and Clallam was thereby handsomely recognized.

From every source come expressions of surprise that a county convention, of a party hoping for endorsement at the hands of the people, should sanction such a contemptible and high-handed steal as that perpetrated upon the voters of Elwha precinct, and pnblished in our last issue

That was a pretty compliment paid Senator Turner by the Hearst Democrats at the Olympia convention last week when he was allowed to keep the name of Hearst out of the platform to put his in. And as the platform bristles with Jeffersonian declarations and as Hearst gets Washington's ten votes under the unit rule, harmony was made possible without sacrifice of one solitary principle.

Love by Letter

A special from Meriden, Conn. to the Seattle Times says: "Emma C. Radley left Sunday for Gettysburg, Wash., to become the wife of Edward H. Klein, whom she has never seen. The woman has a brother (W. H. H. Grant) who is acquainted with Klein and who made correspondence possible that led to a proposal."

Klein sent money for traveling expenses, and upon arrival of the lady at Seattle the wedding will take place.

EARLY DAYS

Clallam county claims as one of its earliest settlers Hon. Daniel F. Brownfield, a pioneer of 1853, when he, John Donnell, John Thornton and a few others, made settlement in what is now that county in 1852. Mr. Brownfield was a Virginian by birth and he first saw the light in 1823. At an early age he entered the U. S. service in the Quartermasters department and was in the West when the war with Mexico broke out, being at Santa Fe, in charge of the stores there, and when hostilities began he left the quartermasters employ and enlisted as a private in the U. S. army serving through the Mexican war, taking part in the battles at Sacremento and Bracto. After being mustered out, he came to the territory of Oregon the year it was organized by congress in 1848, as wagon master of a supply train, which was escorted by a detachment of riflemen via Fort Hall to Vanconver. Mr. Brownfield concluded to remain in Oregon and took a claim in Clark county, and in 1849 was elected as a member of the first Oregon territorial legislature from Clark county. But owing to a dispute over the capital question he never took his seat as a legislator. In 1853, he removed to Dungeness, Jefferson county, then recently organized by the legislature of Oregon, Dec. 22, 1852. The first election in Jefferson county was held in his house near Dungeness, and he was elected a member of the first Washington Territorial Legislature representing Jefferson county. He was one of the last survivors of that body which convened at Olympia, Feb. 28, 1854. Daniel was a hard worker, as the journal of that session shows. He was chairman of the committee on Counties and a member of several more important committees. He introduced the bill that located the capital at Olympia and the bill creating Clallam county. Also various bills for the creation of county officers and fixing their salaries in new counties. Also a resolution to congress for the annexation of the Sandwich Islands to the United States, even thus being an expansionist, and a true American. Being a Mexican War veteran, when hostilities broke out between the Indians and whites in 1855 he joined a company at Port Townsend and fought the Indians on the Skagit and Snohomish rivers. He did not participate in the trouble East of the mountains, having obtained his discharge and returned to his farm. His sympathies were with the Indians as he believed them imposed upon. He was an early settler in Quillayute, and was instrumental in having the county of Quillayute created in 1868 and was named as one of its commissioners; the county was never organized for lack of population.

Daniel Fauber Brownfield died April 1st. 1899, at Seattle, aged 76, leaving one son, Chas. H. Brownfield, and hosts of pioneer friends and acquaintances made in the early days in Washington territory.

ODD FELLOWS

The growth of the order in two great jurisdictions is thus compared by the Odd Fellows' Talisman: By a circular recently received from Grand Secretary J. H. Sikes of Illinois the present membership is shown to be 63,716, a gain of 3,628 in the past year, as against a gain of 3,583 in Indiana for the same period. The initiations were 5,869 as against 5,710 in Indiana. Illinois dropped 2,562, or 40 per cent of its present membership. Indiana dropped 1,688, or 28 per cent of its present membership.

Honolulu has two lodges, with a combined membership of 288.

Recent reports from Nebraska show a membership in the jurisdiction of 15,000. The encampment in Nebraska has about 2,000 members.

The great fire at Baltimore was supposed at first to have destroyed the sovereign grand lodge headquarters, but the building and its contents were saved. The fire came within twenty feet of the building.

Ten encampments were instituted in Maryland during the past year.

The Odd Fellows of Oswego, N. Y., have purchased an $8,000 temple recently erected by the Masons of that city.

MASONIC.

The Value of a Visitor's Notice. Chips From the Temple.

At the recent session of the grand lodge of Connecticut the grand secretary made the following recommendation: "There is a practice adopted in a few of our lodges which I would like to see more generally adopted. It is called a visitor's notice—a short note or card sent to a visiting brother's lodge giving notice of his visit. It serves not only as a recognition of fraternal courtesy to a worthy brother, but is a help in detecting those claiming the right of visitation when not in good standing in their lodges."

Rochester, N. Y., is said to have the largest Masonic lodge in the world. It has over 1,100 members.

Fletcher E. Turrell of Bellaire was recently elected grand master of the grand lodge of Michigan. The growth of Masonry in the Wolverene State during the past year has been unprecedented.

The Masonic lodges of Augusta, Ga., secured an excellent piece of property recently, upon which they will erect a handsome temple.

The grand master of Pennsylvania decided that a lodge cannot restore to good Masonic standing after his death a Mason who was suspended for nonpayment of dues. No one but the suspended member can make application to be restored.

The grand Royal Arch chapter of New York had in 1903 the most prosperous year in its history. There was a net gain during the year of 1,745 members.

Past Grand Master Day of Pennsylvania, who died recently, bequeathed $2,000 to the Philadelphia Masonic home.

Reports presented at the recent annual communication of the grand lodge of Minnesota show there is a membership in the jurisdiction at present of 19,474, a gain of 936 during the year.

New Masonic temples will be erected in Sherman, Tex.; Batavia, Ill.; Mauston, Wis., and Woodbury, N. J.

ROYAL ARCANUM

The latest reports show the order now has 29 grand councils, 2,110 subordinate councils and an emergency fund of $2,025,717.93.

A Brooklyn council has organized a Royal Arcanum amateur orchestra.

A new council was instituted recently in McKeesport, Pa., with a charter list of 106. This is said to break all records for the number of charter members.

During the past year there was a net gain in membership in Pennsylvania of 4,000. This is 800 more than was gained in any previous year.

The executive committee of the supreme council recently decided to hold the next meeting of the supreme council in Fortress Monroe, Va.

Knights of Malta.

New commanderies are being instituted in many jurisdictions, and February reports show a splendid increase in membership.

With Jan. 1 began the eight hundred and fifty-sixth year of the order. It was established in 1048, chartered in America in A. D. 1889 by the Imperial Parent Grand Black Encampment of the Universe, with headquarters at Glasgow, Scotland.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

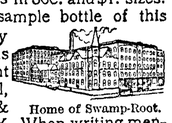
How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER is now better than ever prepared to do fine job printing; in fact it is the only office in the city that has a large press for large work and small presses for small jobs.

We recently purchased the handsome Courier press—the best in the city—and have received direct from the manufacturers in the East some handsome new type of mammoth size together with borders, rules, etc., and a handsome new furniture rack. We now have everything to do first-class work, and if we cannot now do satisfactory job work of any description it cannot be done in town, or this side of Seattle. FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

THE congress which "has done nothing but spend money" has dispersed itself to forty-five states and four territories and two islands of the sea. Beyond making appropriations it has done barely two of the forty or fifty important things which it came to do. The required legislation must wait upon party exigency. Four territories applied for admission to the Union as states. They can wait. The Panama canal zone is in state of anarchy. Laws it gravely needs; but it can wait. Alaska is practically without courts of justice and Senator Nelson declared the other day in a burst of righteous wrath that congress had "not done a damn thing" for Alaska. But Alaska can wait. Porto Ricans will enjoy for a while longer their inability to be naturalized as American citizens or to practice law. Congress must hurry home. Porto Rico can wait. The people were promised that trusts would have a terrible over-hauling. But the trusts have given notice that they can wait. Republicans felt that to tackle any of these matters was playing with fire—dangerous business. Besides, they hadn't time.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Mrs. T. J. Appleton was most agreeably surprised on Monday night with a rather late visit from a large number of her friends. The occasion was the celebration of her birthday anniversary and that it was enjoyably spent is attested by all. After the assembling of the guests and the recovery of the lady of honor, animated conversations and music filled in a half hour until luncheon was served. Mr. Trumbull, then in behalf of those present, presented Mrs. Appleton with a large heavy cut-glass piece. The party then proceeded to Lyster's Hall, where dancing was enjoyed in an informal way until past midnight. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lauridsen, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Appleton, T. J. Appleton, Jr.; Miss Clio Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Horace White, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. H. Lyster, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cosser, Mrs. Geo. Clementson, Mrs. Geo. Wiggins; Messrs. John Trumbull, A. L. Johnson, C. A. Morse.

A surprise party took possession of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Griswold, the afternoon of May 10th.; the occasion being the hostess' birthday anniversary. The guests amused themselves with the games of the day while the committee on refreshments prepared a delicious lunch. Mrs. Griswold was the recipient of a beautiful souvenir; those present were: Mesdames C. S. Stakemiller, E. E. Fisher, T. H. Hill, C. H. McGill, M. E. Alexander, J. C. Hansen, L. E. The United Ancient Order of Druids was founded in England in 1781 and established in this country in 1839.

Since 1847 the order has disbursed in benefits in America about $5,000,000.

Recent reports show that the order is in splendid financial condition and steadily forging ahead.

About $200,000 was paid to beneficiaries of deceased members last year.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. Democratic County Platform

Adopted at the Democratic County Convention in this city May, 1904:

First. We reaffirm those fundamental principles of righteous government taught and practiced by Thomas Jefferson, the founder of the Democratic party, and embodied and fully expressed in the sentiment, "Equal rights to all, special privileges to none."

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weaknes and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

the bodies of others, upon which he may not irreverently lay his hands. As he grows into the period of youth he should have clear ideas of the inalienable rights of man and of his duty to hold them as sacred to others as to himself. Viewed from the standpoint of good citizenship, honesty in dealing and truthfulness in speech are as necessary to success as proficiency in bookkeeping or knowledge of business. As, in a free country, every citizen is a Sovereign, he should be well grounded in the laws of equity, and should have deeply installed into him the doctrine of the brotherhood of man—should be taught to exhibit kindness toward all with whom he may come in contact—including animals and, though neither last nor least, a discriminating patriotism! I use this term advisedly, for in a country where the citizen is the sovereign the office holder is the servant. Loyalty to his country may be a very different thing from loyalty to an officeholder. In fact, loyalty to the latter may even be treason to his country What I mean by patriotism is that sentiment which impels the citizen to use every means—his voice, his pen, his ballot—to keep his country in the path of rectitude and honor. The sentiment, "my country right or wrong," was invented as a shield for tyrants. The person who can see nothing good outside his own country might be very patriotic but he would have very poor judgment. He who sees the errors and wrong tendencies of his own country and tries to prevent or correct them, is possessed of the highest degree of patriotism.

There are those who think they discern in our country a distinct lapse politically from the high ideals of the fathers; who hold that we are retrograding morally. They point to the inordinate thirst for gold and the unscrupulous use thereof in the corruption of men from voter to legislator—its malign influence extending even into our educational institutions; to the growing brutality in college sports; the almost universal interest in prize fights; to the decline in legitimate drama and the substitution on the stage of coarse and frivolous plays which alone draw paying houses; that in music there are no more great creations. We hear the jangle of rag time everywhere, and from the exalted sentiment of a Shubert, interpreting human passion, we have come through "Telegraphing My Baby," and "Honolulu Lou," to the "Chimpanzee in the Cocoanut Grove," and the "Tail of the Kangaroo." And along with all they claim there is a woeful increase in the number of suicides, robberies, murders and lawless acts in general. It is charged that as a Nation we watched with indifference the struggle of the Cubans for 9 years; that not till Spain had begun to resort to inhuman and barbarous modes of warfare and had starved to death in reconcentrado camps 80,000 women and children did we raise a protest; and that within 2 years we were ourselves waging a war of conquest in the Philippines and were practicing, though to a lesser degree, like barbarities. If these things are true they prove a woeful lapse from the high ideals of a half a century ago. If these things are true where shall we look for the cause? I can only attribute it to the failure on the part of parents and teachers to give sufficient importance to the principles of ethics. The spirit of evil has crept in while we slept! We can not blame the editor, he spent his childhood at your knee; nor the minister, through all his youth he was in your hands; nor those who make our laws, state and national, none prouder of Alma Mater than they. But there are signs of an awakening—it is showing itself first among the teachers. A society has been organized for the purpose of undoing the wrong done to the Philippinos. Prominently appear the names of many of our greatest literary men and also college presidents. (See editorial column.)

The only safety for the future of our country then lies in the direction of education. The teacher must give more time to teaching those high ideals which make good citizenship.

As a whole, as we glance back over the century, we see progress. Much of it must be credited to the teacher both directly and indirectly. Much is due to that spirit of devotion to education as a cause, which animates so many of you; leading you to forego opportunities for gaining wealth in its interest. Let me then bid you good speed in your noble work.

In closing, I cannot do better than to quote from a speech of a celebrated American, made before the American Colony, in London, at their Thanksgiving dinner last November, giving to the world the highest ideal of good citizenship:

"We admire the moral courage of the man who is willing to die in defense of his rights, but there is yet before us higher ground. Is he great who will die in defense of his rights? There is yet to come a greater man still—the man who will die rather than trespass upon the rights of another."

O, Ye Teachers!—Greatest of Earth—I salute you and welcome you to Port Angeles.

Flagler vs. Angeles.

Local Boys with Many New Players Get Badly worsted.

About 100 soldier boys and a few citizens of Townsend came down on the Dauntless last Sunday with the Fort Flagler ball team to see the game with the Angeles boys. They brought along the crack Artillery band and the music was much enjoyed by the city people who rarely enjoy such a treat. The ball game too was interesting though very much one sided, for the local boys worked hard to overcome the handicap of little practice and several new players. The following record tells the tale:

Itch--Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c. 50c. and $1.00. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.
