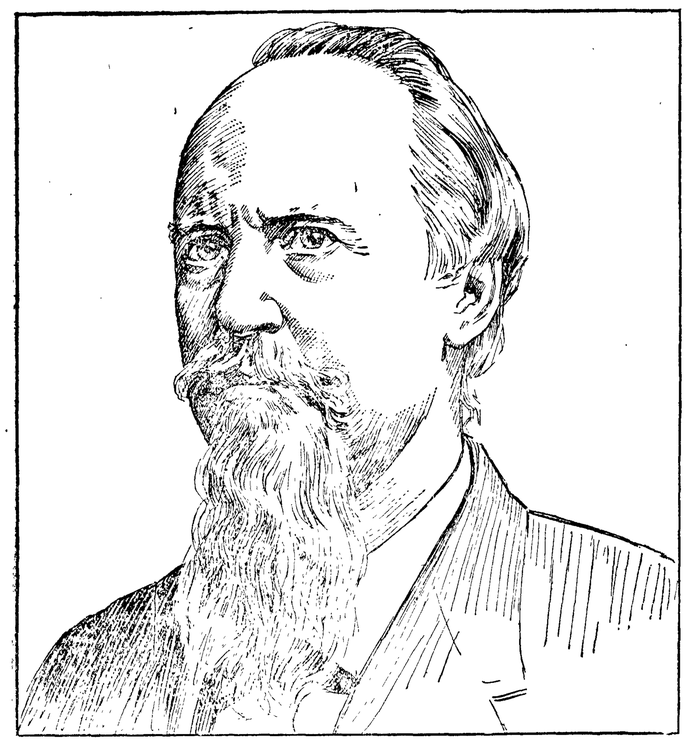
The President Favors Senator Cockrell



FRANCIS MARION COCKRELL, MISSOURI'S FAVORITE SON

WASHINGTON. D. C., Thursday, Dec. 1.—Senator Cockrell of Missouri, who arrived in Washington last night from his home, called today on President Roosevelt and had an extended conference with him. The President informed Senator Cockrell that he would appoint him as member either of the Isthmian Canal commission or of the interstate commerce commission, as the senator might elect.

Senator Cockrell did not indicate to the President what he might do regarding the proffer and said to firiends after the conference that he would not announce his decision perhaps for several weeks and it was not necessary that he should do so immediately.

Senator Cockrell has been senator from Missouri continuously for thirty years, but the landslide or apothetic vote of Missouri this year, caused the state to go republican and as a result a republican will succeed Cockrell after March next. The president concludes the senator is too good a man for the nation to lose and so offers him his choice of the above positions. The latter will possibly be accepted.

The Baptist Ladies Aid society will hold a social at the home of Mr. Giest, at Seventh and Laurel sts. on Friday evening, Dec. 9th. A special program in which Rev. Whelan will give a short talk. Refreshments 10c. Miss Lizzie Mitchell will have charge of the program.

In another column will be found the adv. of the Lewis Supply Co., dealers and furnishers in electrical goods of every description. An electrical supply house is something which Port Angeles can well afford to support and with fair treatment we bespeak for the new firm a growing trade.

SQUADRON RENDEZVOUS

The Paul Jones is Here Erecting Wharf and Targets For Fleet's Use.

The Paul Jones, U. S. torpedo boat destroyer, spoken of in these colums last week upon her arrival from San Francisco, arrived here from Bremerton last Tuesday and at once set to work upon the plans of Admiral Goodrich, Port Angeles' new friend, who has in mind again making this port the official practice grounds and rendezvous of the Pacific squadron, which he now commands.

Thursday, Friday and this morning the Paul Jones towed the pile driving outfit of the Gate City Contracting Company to the spit, about 1,500 yards from Ediz point where a substantial landing place is being constructed for troops in drills. In addition to this the crew of the Paul Jones, with other assistants, will erect rifle butts, targets and trenches for drills and practice for small arms; water targets will be constructed for heavy gun practice.

It is given out that the preliminary work now in progress is for the use of the vessels of the Pacific squadron which will visit this section in March, but it is possible that the Wyoming and others will utilize the conveniences before that time. The boats scheduled to practice here in March are the flagship Chicago, the cruisers Boston and Marblehead; the gunboats Bennington, and Petrel; monitor Wyoming; torpedo boat destroyers Paul Jones, Perry and Preble.

The Civic Club reception given Thursday at the home of the President, Mrs. C. A. The Cushing home, which was handsomely and tastily decorated for the occasion, was filled with a throng of visiters from 2 till 5, who were graciously received by tne hostess and her able corps of assistants. A number of young ladies served refreshments to all comers. Musical numbers by Miss Jensen, Mrs. Richards and Dr. Cooke aided in making the afternoon most pleasant to all.

POSSIBILITIES OF DAIRYING.

Fifteen carloads of condensed milk comprised one shipment made from the farms of the White river valley to a distributing agent a few days ago. The train carried 7,500 cases of prepared milk from the condensary at Kent. It was estimated to have a valation of $30,000 or more, while in the hands of the wholesalers. This great quantity of cream represented only a part of the output from dairy farms in the past thirty days. A conservative estimate places the actual milk handled in that valley at one carload every day.

Five years ago the condensary could not get enough cream to keep a small force of workmen employed.

Now an army of men and women has steady employment and the condensing machinery is kept running day and night. The farmers have engaged more generally in the work of dairying.

Possibilities of dairying in Puget sound country have not been approximated. Those engaged in the business have simply opened a way for others who may follow in the footsteps to future prosperity. The conditions of climate and soil productions are so favorable that no section of the world offers greater inducements for those seeking dairy fields. The meadows are perpetual. There is no excess of heat or cold. The summers and winters are ideal. Every form of dairy cow food products can be grown to perfection in the fertile soil.

A good dairy cow returns the original investment annually. Poor cows possess no value on the diary farm. They are detrimental to the farm and injurious to the communities. They cost as much for feed as good stock and in a few months bring their owners to bankruptcy. The agricultural district that does not advance dairy interests misses one of the most profitable sources of income. It encourages small intensive farming. It develops careful business methods among the people and assists in educating the farmers to up-to-date principle.—Post-Inteligencer.

Kind Words from State Horticulturist.

"Speaking of strawberries, reminds me that the Clallam county variety leads the world this year," said Mr. Van Holderbeke. "I brought some choice samples of strawberries that will be put in cold storage and saved for the Lewis and Clark exposition next year. Some of the berries measured more than six inches in circumference. They were picked in the orchards of Ole Engvolsen and G. H. Randall. I was told that the berries sell for $2 a crate at home, and the supply is far short of supplying the demand. When you consider what other berries are selling for at retail today, $2 a crate is like falling heir to a millian dollars.

"The country around Port Angeles is admirably adapted for fruit culture."

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. M'LEOD-WATTS NUPTIALS

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mrs. E. H. Fowler, Wednesday evening, Nov. 30th., 1904, when her daughter, Elizabeth M. Watts, was united in holy matrimony, to Hamlin S. McLeodd.

The wedding party entered the parlor to the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. C. Elmer Nailor, and under a bell of white chrysanthemums the ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Cheal, the beautiful Episcopal ring service being used. The bride was charming in a gown of white brilliantine with trimmings of real lace and carried a white calla lily with asparagus ferns. The only ornament worn by the bride was a gold watch and chain, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Matilda Fowler, attired in white organdie and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Prof. I. L. Ullery, as best man. The bride was given away by her mother. The house was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns, the color scheme of green and white being carried throughout. After congratulations, the guests, consisting of relatives and intimate friends, repaired to the dining-room where a delicious wedding dinner was served, after which the happy couple left for their cozy home on Ninth and Vine streets, where they will be at home to their many friends after January 1, 1905, who join in wishes of joy and happiness. The bride was the recipient of numerous and costly gifts.

A BRILLANT AFFAIR

The Local Scientists Give Our Citizens an Expensive Treat.

Monday evening a large gathering of invited friends assembled at the opera house to hear the celebrated Bicknell Young, of Chicago, member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, and whether or no the audience agreed with the doctrine of the fluent speaker, they certainly were well-repaid for their presence.

r. Young is a distinguished speaker who readily holds the undivided attention of his hearers and as he gave some very interesting and logical definitions of the Faith which is in him, he proved doubly attractive. His vocabulary and pronunciation too, were something rich and rare, which must be heard to be appreciated. We regret that space will not permit of an intellig ble synopsis of his remarks upon this occasion.

Mr. Young's visit here cost the local Scientists a pretty penny, but we are advised it was all subscribed before his arrival.

I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

Right-of-Way Complete

E. A. FitzHenry, of Port Angeles, is in the city looking after matters pertaining to the furtherance of the interests of the Port Angeles Eastern railway. Mr. FitzHenry is a surveyor by profession and has been engaged for some time by the interests which are behind the scheme to give the West Side railroad connections. Just at this particular time his business is securing rights-of-way, and he announces that he has just completed this part of the business in Jefferson county, having secured the last deed yesterday from the Puget Mill company.

The railroad company now has the right-of-way from Port Angeles to Junction City, with a few exceptions in Clallam county that have to go to condemnation. As the road from Port Angeles to Junction embraces the first section to be built, his duties so far as this particular section is concerned are completed.

Mr. FitzHenry gave out nothing for publication, but it is evident from his talk that he expects the matter of railroad building on the West Side to be rushed far in excess of anything anticipated by the most sanguine citizen here.

Mr. FitzHenry has been engaged with the Port Angeles Eastern since its inception and knows more perhaps of what has actually been accomplished in the field than any other man, having had the matter of surveying practically in charge since it was started five years ago.—P. T. Leader.

ELKS' MEMORIAL

Local Elks will Hold Annual Exercises at Opera House Sunday at 2 p. m.

Next Sunday, Dec. 4, at 2 p. m., the B. P. O. Elks will give their annual memorial services at the opera house, to which the public is invited.

General J. B. Metcalfe, of Seattle, will deliver the memorial address, and Miss Edmonds, a Seattle soloist, and some of the best local talent will give numbers on the program. It is needless to say that you must come early to get a good seat.

THE enemies, presumably, of Lieut.-Governor elect Coon, have already set going the agitation for the abolishment of the office to which that gentleman has been elected, citing as justification for the act the fact that the state has proved in the past few years that there is little need of such an officer.

THE fact that Admiral Goodrich has begun the work of driving piling for a landing place on the spit and is having permanent target put in place, is one of the surest signs we have had for some time that we will get some practice done here next year. Our merchants are eagerly awaiting the day when the Pacific squadron again rendezvous here.

THE figures of the late election from the various counties are given this week. They show an increase in the majority given Roosevelt to over 71,000 or nearly 5 to 1, while Mead plurality is cut to a paltry 16,000 or one-fifth that of the president. The result shows that the entire independent vote and nearly as many Democrats as voted for Parker in this state, voted the Republican national ticket.

ORDINANCE No. 324

An Ordinance granting to the Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, its successors and assigns, the right and authority to locate, construct, maintain and operate railway tracks along, upon and over Victoria street in the city of Port Angeles.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PORT ANGELES DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That there be and hereby is granted unto the Port Angeles Eastern Railroad Company, its successors and assignes, the right and authority to locate, construct, maintain and operate railroad tracks along, upon and over Victoria street in the city of Port Angeles.

Sec 2. That the rights herein granted to the said Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, its successors and assigns, are upon the following conditions, to-wit:

First: That the said railway shall be constructed and maintained on the common level with the wharves or streets on said right-of-way, as said level is now or may hereafter be established by the city of Port Angeles.

Second; That wherever said track or tracks shall cross or be crossed by a wharf or street now constructed, or hereafter to be constructed, said company, its successors and assigns, shall plank or pave, as proximate portions of said street may be planked or paved, and keep in repair at least fifteen feet of its way at such crossings; and whenever a double track is constructed across any such wharf or street, said company, its successors or assigns, shall plank or pave and keep in repair the full width of such street or wharf intersection.

Third: That said railroad company, its successors and assigns, shall not allow its locomotives or cars to stand upon the tracks along said right-of-way except long enough to do necessary switching, make up trains, or to receive and land passengers, or load and unload freight, without the consent of the owner or occupant of such wharf unless in cases of accident or other unavoidable delays.

Fourth: That said Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, its successors and assigns, shall have completed on or before October first, 1905, a standard gauge railroad running from the city of Port Angeles in a general easterly direction to Junction city, in Jefferson county, state of Washington.

Fifth: That upon the completion of said railroad, as in this Ordinance provided, said railroad shall be continuously operated by running at least one train each way on each secular day over the entire length of the right-of way hereby granted.

Sixth: That said grantee, the Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, in and by accepting the benefits of this Ordinance, covenants for itself, its successors or assigns, with the city of Port Angeles that it will at all times keep and save harmless said city of Port Angeles from and against any and all liability, loss, cost, damages, trouble and expense which may at any time arise or occur by reason of its appropriation of any real estate or other property for right-of-way or other purposes, or by reason of the construction, maintenance or operation of said railroad, or by reason of anything that may be done by said grantee, its successors or assigns.

Section 3. That the city of Port Angeles shall retain the same control over the said street in or across which said railway shall be laid down as over other streets, and shall have the right at all times by general Ordinances to regulate the speed of locomotives and trains within the limits of the right-of-way herein granted, and the maximum period of time for which locomotives, cars or trains shall be allowed to blockade travel across said Victoria street on intersecting streets, and shall have such further police powers over said right-of-way as the State Laws permit.

Section 4. That in the operation of said railway, the said Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, its successors and assigns, shall have the right to use steam power or any other motive power that said company, its successors or assigns, shall deem best.

Section 5. That if the said Port Angeles Eastern Railway company, its successors or assigns, shall at any time fail or neglect for a period of ninety days to comply with the conditions of this Ordinance, or any of them, or of any other Ordinance duly passed in pursuance thereof, it shall be lawful for the City Council of the city of Port Angeles, unless such failure or neglect shall be the resulting of or caused by accident or some unusual occurrence, storms, freshets, snow blocks or other acts of God, to declare by Ordinance a forfeiture to the rights herein granted.

Section 6. In order to claim the benefits of the franchise herein given said Port Angeles Eastern Railroad company, its successors or assigns, shall, within sixty days after the taking effect of this Ordinance, file with the city clerk its acceptance thereof in writing under its corporate seal executed by its President or Vice-President and attested by its Secretary if accepted by said company; and if such written acceptance be not filed within said time this Ordinance shall be void.

The Eacrett shingle mill has closed down for the winter.

Mrs. Mary Goodwin has had a severe sick spell.

Mrs. Jennie Eacrett and little daughter, Margurite, and Miss Lydia Johnson have gone to Arizona for the winter, leaving Seattle last Thursday. Mrs. Eacrett is bothered with her lungs. Her many friends hope to see her return in the spring fully recovered.

The shooting match at Fisher's ranch was not well attended however there were a dozen fine chickens, two geese and a pig carried away as trophies.

Miss Mabel Johnson, now fully recovered, has been installed as house-keeper by "Bro'r-in-law" Dick, during Mrs. Eacrett's absence.

There was a fire scare last Sunday night at the Eacrett mill. The stove-pipe set the roof on fire. Fortunately it was noticed before much harm was done.

D. W. Pratt and family are thinking of moving to Oregon, where they have bought land from Mr. Waire, the new farmer at Dry Creek.

Fred Eacrett, brother of our "getleman farmer," Albert Eacrett, is here from Seattle on a vacation. He expects to spend his time whiie here hunting. Fred is quite sportsman and when he wishes a good time always comes into our midst.

A petition is being circulated here for a rural mail route running from Angeles to Dry Creek, Eden and Freshwater, going up Eden Valley to the East End of Lake Sutherland; thence East down Indian Creek Valley and the Little river road back to Angeles. The petition is of course readily signed by all residents. Harry Coventon, the energetic postmaster at Elwha, is the main push in this affair. Let us hope he'll be successful.
