Protest Is Made

B Street Residents Want Railroad on A Street and Stone Co. Accepts Change.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday. Absent, Mayor Lewis, Councilmen Clegg and Polhamus.

The electric light committee reported sale of old electric light plant for $500; $300 down and $200 in twelve months—sale subject to confirmation by city council. Upon motion of Mr. Mosher sale was confirmed. An offer of $40 is now made for building.

The city attorney and franchise committee reported regarding franchise grant to the Port Angeles Stone Co., recommending passage as read, provided, clause is inserted so as grant will not interfere with the privileges already conferred upon the P. A. P. railroad. A remonstrance was read from residents of Lincoln Heights, protesting against the granting of any rights for railroad or other like purposes on Fifth or B streets, as such a grant would ruin such streets for road purposes. Upon consideration Mr. Grubb thought matter should go over, pending more information regarding protest of residents. Mr. Barnett stated his company was willing to take A street or anything satisfactory to said residents. Speaking further Mr. Barnett thought that possibly there was danger in two roads operating on Tumwater street hill with so steep a grade. Mr. Grubb moved that matter go over to new council. Mr. Mosher thought old council should clear up all matters possible as they were better posted. He moved that ordinance be read a second time for amendment. Carried. Mr. Hoare stated he was ready to vote on grant for A street. He also thought city should make some provision for city to reserve certain portions of Tumwater street for road purposes, as it is certain present roadway will have to be abandoned. Mr. Hallahan spoke at length on the subject, calling attention to certain provisions and omissions, and thought council was not in shape to amend intelligently at this time. After some discussion Mr. Grubb moved that matter go over until first meeting in January.

Acknowledgement of receipt of policies by Wittler-Corbin Co. was read and filed.

Paul Jones Here.

The torpedo boat destroyer Paul Jones arrived in port Thursday morning and has since been cruising about the bay. The men of the Paul Jones expect their pay checks here, and as soon as it comes (possibly today) the boat will sail for Victoria to remain some time, thence to Bellingham, Tacoma and Olympia.

The boat did not bring any supplies for renewal of work at the practice grounds on the spit, and as a consequence no work on this project has been done during the ship's stay. It is not at this time known just when the work will be finished.

Paralysis Caused Death

Last Saturday, David I. De Launay, one of Puget Sound's pioneer marine engineers, suffered a stroke of paralysis and on Tues- passed away as a result at the family home on Lincoln Heights. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the M. E. church, where a large circle of friends paid their last respects. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masons; the sermon was by Rev. W. H. Whelan of the Baptist church.

Deceased leaves two sons and and three daughters, one of the former being Chas. Delaunay, the engineer of the steamer Clallam who had his license revoked as a result of the catastrophe. He was 64 years of age and one of the best known marine engineers on the sound, having been in the business here for the past 18 years. His last position was chief engineer of the steamer Bertha.

Adverse Decision

Steamboat Company Says Development of American Field Must Precede Foreign Service.

The steamboat company has turned down the petition of local parties for a renewal of the service of 1903, which seemingly contemplated pulling off the daily western boat, and substituted a tri-weekly service to the western ports as heretofore and a like service to Victoria. The traffic manager's letter, which is self-explanatory, is given herewith. It is safe to say the petitioners will not give a bond to guarantee the expenses and interest and the service will not be changed. The letter follows:

"Replying to yours of 15th with enclosed petition of some of the citizens of Port Angeles for resumption of service between that port and Victoria, same as was in effect previous to Jan. 1, 1904. We have given matter very careful consideration, but have been obliged to decide adversely, owing to immense competition on Victoria route.

"From the standpoint of development I should hesitate seriously, even though we had no competition, to withdraw from the route from Port Angeles to Clallam in favor of Victoria service, as my ideas and intentions are first the development of American territory adjacent to all of the cities on all the routes operated by this company.

"I exceedingly regret the necessity of this decision, but if the petitioners are willing to guarantee us, say 6 per cent on the investment in addition to repairs and operating expenses, and would be willing to furnish bond to cover such an arrangement, I should be willing to consider making schedule suggested."

Last Sunday, when the D. L. correspondent returned from his weekly round among the churches and other religious gatherings, he fount that his house had been taken possession of by four of his heathen neighbors (not of the yellow persuasion). They had stolen a place at his fireside and were indulging in a game ef pedco, when the owner of the house returned. After expostulating with the intruders about their sacriligious way of breaking the Sabbath in as kindly a way as the occasion permitted, they recognized their wrong and were ready to join your correspondent to close the evening with singing hymns. In Everybody's for January Mr. Lawson gives further starling exposures of Bay State Gas deallngs; how it fell into a Receiver's hands and was rescued after an increditabie struggle. Something more is told about financial morals and the cost of success. Incidentally the author tells of how the "System" expended five million dollars to change the votes of five doubtful states in the '96 election, and called the bribery patriotism. Addick's plot to hold up the receiver and the extraordinary scene in the Delaware court room, where two dress-suit cases filled with money changed hands under the judge's eyes, form the most sensational passage so far in Mr. Lawson's story.

Thursday's dispatches this week tell of two attempts during the past three weeks at ending Lawson's life by poison administered by someone at the hotels where he dined. The use of stomach pumps in each instance saved him.

Mayor-Elect's Rise and Fall.

Dr. Appleton Jokingly Comments on His Election to a Raise in Honor and a Cut in Salary

Dr. T. J. Appleton, elected mayor of Port Angeles at the late election, was a visitor in the city Saturday, meeting old acquaintances and shaking hands with new. Dr. Appleton, who is a loyal resident of his home town, tired not in telling of the great things Port Angeles will do in the near future. He predicted that the whistle of the locomotive will be heard possibly within a year down his way, and he said that everyone in Clallam county aae getting ready for the rush. Dr. Appleton was congratulated, of course, on his election to the honorable office of mayor. In this connection the good doctor said that his career in Angeles was one of rising and falling, rising in the measure of honor bestowed and falling decidedly in the measure of cash emoluments. He cited the fact that some years ago he was coroner of the county and this position paid him a fair amount for seavices performed. Later he was made health officer at the munificent salary of $30 per year. His latest rise in the political arena has made him mayor, but in this instance there are no cash receipts connected with the office whatever. However, the doctor appreciates the honor bestowed and as long as people will get sick, as they do even in Port Angeles, he will manage to make the mare go.—P. T. Cal.

PARTY ALL IN ALL.

Must Have Credit When City Has Good Government

Some Republicans of Port Townsend have just possed through another city campaign wherein the non-partizan idea of running city business, independent of party graft prevailed, and as the pie is to be distributed witn an eye single to the city's welfare notwithstanding the claims some may have for party loyalty and political boosting, the ball has been started for a partizan convention next year, and at a called meeting committee have been named to see to it that a straight party call is made one year hence.

The following is sample of the argument used as told by the call non-partizan convention were characteized as mob rule

At this point one prominent republican over in the left-hand corner of the room remarked to a neighbor that if mobs can continue to give the city such able officials as Mayor Coon, whose efforts are largely responsible for bringing about the building of the water works, that mobs are ruled by a pretty level-headed people. "You darn fool," replied the neighbor, "that don't help the party if such officials are not nominated by a party convention. What we want to do is to strengthen the party.

WE SOLICIT YOUR BUSINESS

Nels Tanggard, of Shuwah, Speaks to Commissioner Dave Christopher.

D. A. CHRISTOPHER, Esq.

DEAR SIR:—I understand our road supervisor, Jim Smith, was recently in Port Angeles fishing for a reappointment, and the majority of the people in this district are rather anxious to learn the result.

No doubt Jim has been to you a faithful servant in regard to your blacklist you sent him, for he told a party in confidence that he discharged the boys according to your order, but when the orders came too fast he drew the line, but in reality he drew the line for his own safety, as some of our boys are quite muscular and very likely they didn't fancy Jim's way of talking, as he uses less politeness than the average.

I understand you to say no one ought find fault with J. Smith. That reminds me of a bulldog: the more you kick him the better he likes you, for I still remember the difficulty of a few years ago when you refused to pay Jim $2 for work performed on the road, when he brought suit against you and made you come to time. Did the county stand the expense, Dave?

Jim Smith coaxed some of his friends to write letters to the commissioners-elect, speaking in high terms of the excellent road work—for the general opinion was that he would stand no show with a petition.

In regard to the road work, I am free to say that Jim has been very shrewd about it, for in order to make a show he has fixed the road in fair shape where it was least needed. But the mudholes are here to speak for themselves. Come in and see them.

However, he must be sure of the reappointment, as he has already promised one of his friends $300 worth of work the coming term, and the road crew will be compelled to board at said friend's. Rather fine music for the poor taxpayers to dance to.

When I saw you last, Mr. Christopher, you seemed very anxious to break the Port Angeles ring. Why not let us begin near home? Or do you think a ring is alright where you are the leader?

You wrote to J. Smith to discharge one of the best workers we had on the road because he worked against you in the convention last May. I understand you ordered Jim to give me not more than $50 worth of work. Now, Dave, how much of a sucker should a man be to get twice that amount?

I have often heard you say that you want no crooked work going on. Well, what would you call it? During the three or four weeks I worked on the road there wasn't a day J. Smith didn't steal either from the men or the county. Was that with your consent or without your knowledge?

Perhaps you think this a hard dose for Smith, but you and everyone knows his reputation is down to the standing where it can't suffer. Furthermore, we all know he was only a tool in your hands to do your dirty work.

When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no gripping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

"I am well now and enjoying better health than ever before in my whole life."

That is the statement of a woman who had never been well until she was made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There are a great many other women in like case. They have always been sufferers from disease. They have never known the joy of perfect health.

For all such women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription holds out the prospect of perfect and permanent health, by the cure of the womanly diseases which weaken women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"It gives me pleasure to let you know of the great benefit received from Dr. Pierce's medicines and the advice which you so kindly sent," writes Mrs. Bertie Parker, of Bonham, Fannin Co., Texas. "I took your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and followed your advice regarding the 'Lotion Tablets,' and am cured. I had been treated by different doctors and spent one hundred dollars for treatment and medicine, but received very little relief. I have only spent seventeen dollars and fifty cents for your medicine and it has cured me in three or four months of ulceration and falling of uterus. I suffered severe misery in my back, also irregular periods. Had bearing-down in lower portion of body and great pain all through my body. Pain in uterus was very severe. Had smothering spells, breath was very short all the time, had pain in stomach, pain in my thighs, pain in breast, also between my shoulders. Bowels constipated. I am well now and enjoying better health than ever before in my whole life. Am happy to tell you that I was cured by your good advice and good medicines, the 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Pleasant Pellets' and 'Lotion Tablets.' These medicines cured me and will cure others also."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels.

"I was afflicted with heart trouble for three years. I would be apparently all right, and without a moment's warning would fall as though shot. The attacks were frequent, and a terrible dread possessed me, as I never knew when or where, nor under what conditions I would be attacked, and whether I would survive them. I consulted and was treated by some of the most eminent physicians of the state. Not finding relief from this source, I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and began to improve at once. WAGES AND THE COST OF LIVING.

Nearly every independent journal has taken Mr. Roosevelt to task. One of these, the Philadelphia Public Ledger, published in the metropolis of the strongest protectionist State in the Union, devotes a column and a half of its space in refuting the President's statement. Mr. Roosevelt, to quote him precisely, says:

"As conclusively shown by the bulletin of the Bureau of Labor, the purchasing power of the average wage received by the wage-worker has grown faster than the cost of living."

The Philadelphia Ledger regrets that it cannot confirm this statement. It says:

"More reliable, because more disinterested, and more unprejudiced witnesses than Mr. Roosevelt's Commissioner of Labor, have time and again declared it conspicuously inexact. Among the disinterested witnesses are both Bradstreet's and Dun's carefully compiled reports, and among the unprejudiced ones are several prominent labor leaders, who have testified to the truth respecting the wage scale of the one part and the regular quotation of the prices of the necessities of life of the other part. And the precise testimony given by these trustworthy witnesses, is directly contrary to the President's statement.

"The prices of domestic commodities have had an average increase from the lowest standard reached in 1896 of 37 per cent. No sensible and well-informed man will seriously assert that since 1896 the average wage rate has increased to that extent—more than one-third. There is no workman in the land who can testify to the accuracy of this. The President's contention is that the alleged greater proportionate increase of the average wage to the increased cost of living has been due to the beneficent protection afforded to labor by the tariff. Here again the President's position is contested by labor itself. It is true that the wages of artisans and their unskilled helpers have been materially increased since 1896, but while there have been slight increases at various times of the wages of the so-called protected workmen, the aggregate differences have not kept step with the increase of the cost of living.

"At present the tendency all over the country is to reduce the wages of those employed in protected industries. At Fall River, Mass., 25,000 textile operators are out of work and deprived of wages because they would not consent to a flat wage reduction of 12 per cent. In Chicago the Meat Trust has crushed to death one of the most powerful labor organizations because it demanded a reasonable increase of wages for the under-paid laborers. The Steel, Iron and Tin Trusts, interests protected by the tariff, have been largely reducing their wage schedules, as has also the Glass Trust. The artisans, mechanics and all sorts of their unskilled helpers, to whom the tariff does not even pretend to give protection, receive high wages, and will continue to receive them so long as their unions remain intact. But what single tariff-protected industry pays its workmen the same generous reward for their labor that the unprotected activities pay their employees for their labor."

It might be added that Commissioner Wright's remarkable statement and tabulation upon which President Roosevelt bases his remarks already quoted, was discredited long before the candidate's letter of acceptance was made public, for Secretary Shaw in a stump speech delivered several weeks ago stated that the Commissioner of Labor has prepared a bomb which would blow the Democratic party sky-high, or words to that effect. He said, in so many words, that this "bomb" was in the nature of a carefully prepared article showing that the Democratic contention that the cost of living had been increased out of proportion to the increase in wages was untrue.

Fish Hatchery For Lake Crescent

Fish Commissioner Kershaw Will Seek an Appropriation For the Purpose.

In his annual report Fish Commissioner T. H. Kershaw says, relative to the establishment of a hatchery at Lake Crescent:

The first trout hatchery in the state was built last year. It is located on the beautiful Lake Chelan, far up in the Cascade mountains and is an ideal spot for the enterprise, as well as a pleasant resort of the tourist The hatchery is modern in all its details, and is supplied with a complete system of ponds and basins for the rearing of all the choicest varieties of game fish. The hatchery is built in a beautiful grove at the mouth of the Stehekin river, and we take our water supply from a stream on the south side of the river. This season we hatched out about 1,000,000 young trout, of which about 300,000 were distributed among the different brooks and lakes throughout the state. At the convening of the legislature I shall ask for an appropriation for the construction of two more game fish hatcheries; one should be located in the prairie county on the Little Spokane river about nine miles from the city of Spokan in the eastern part of the state, the other should be located in the western part of the state on Lake Crescent, a most picturesque body of water high up in the Olympic range, and one of the most beautiful places known to man. These hatcheries should likewise be modern in all their equipments, and when complete and in operation the state will be as well equipped for supplying our streams and lakes with game fish as any state in the union.

Too much importance cannot be placed upon the desirability of keeping our mountain streams and lakes well supplied with fish and our forest with game. Indirectly it will be one of our great commercial resources. There is no class of people that spend money so freely as those who seek enjoyment along our mountain streams with rod and reel and wooded hills with dog and gun. Our state is now inhabited by a class of people who can afford and demand this pastime. Not alone should our state be well supplied with trout hatcheries, but each hatchery should be equipped with a game propagating station. This can be done with very little expense, the same superintendent who looks after the fish could also attend to the game.
