CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

Judge Hatch Hears Argument In Railroad Election Matter.

The case of Belvin et al. vs The Port Angeles Eastern Railroad, and the trustees in control, came up for answer to complaints of former on Saturday, when defendants demurred to the complaint on the grounds that (1) it did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, and (2) that several causes of action have been improperly united. The defense also filed affidavits of C. A. Cushing and W. B. Hamblin in effect that they had authorized no action in their names and asking dismissal as far as they be concerned. The latter affidavit also states that affiant is not a bona fide stockholder, and that he wants nothing to do with the matter and will not qualify as trustee should the court declare him elected. This affiant, however, wants the affidavit stricken from the record for the reason that he was tricked into saying things untrue.

The hearing on the motion to strike and on the demurrer of defendant was had Wednesday and the court took the case under advisement, as to whether it had jurisdiction to go into the question of how defendants came into possession of stock which elected them to office. Defendants allege the court has not this right, while the plaintiffs vigorously contend that it is wholly within the province of the court to ascertain whether the stock voted was legal, and that there is no other way to determine who was legally elected.

Judge James Stewart and General J. B. Metcalf appeared for plaintiff, and, of course, Trumbull & Trumbull, for defendants. The hearing proved most interesting.

If the court decides that it has jurisdiction, as there seems no doubt it will, the demurrer will be overruled and the cause brought to trial as soon as possible.

RECEIVER FOR PAP

W. F. Delabarre is Named with the Consent of Defendants.

The case of M. F. Backus vs The Port Angeles Pacific Railroad Company, was heard Saturday, Attorney James Stewart appeared for defendants, and acknowledged the corporation to be insolvent, and that it was to the best interest of all that the affairs of the company should be wound up and the assets be distributed pro rata among the creditors.

The court therefore named W F Delabarre, receiver, and the gentleman has already qualified.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH OF JULY

Unanimous Sentiment at Commercial Club Meeting For Celebration.

A meeting of the Commercial Club was called for Wednesday afternoon and the unanimous sentiment of those present was for a rousing celebration of the Fourth of July in Port Angeles this year. In accordance with the sentiment Mayor Appleton moved that the chair appoint a committee of nine to take full charge. Chairman Lauridsen therefore named E. E. Day, C. S. Stakemiller, T. S. Brophy, P. B. Grubb, W. F. Delabarre, H. M. Fisher, Lloyd Aldwell, W. S. Caldwell, W. E. Burnside.

The local G.A.R. are taking quite an interest in the celebration and have arranged for an excellent program to be given at the opera house. This will be one of old-fashioned features of an orator, glee club, etc., so much enjoyed. If the day is dry, these exercises can doubtless be had at "Pacific" park. In fact, it is the general desire that the park be put in as good shape as possible by the Fourth, so if the usual wind prevails, a quiet place of refuge where everybody can have a good time will be available.

Honor Dead of Nation

A Most Respectful Observance of the Day is Had.

One of the most orderly observances of Decoration Day in the history of the city was held here Tuesday when the usual exercises at the opera house, were held and the graves of departed ones were decorated with flowers. Nearly every business house in the city closed.

The program was carried out as given in these columns two weeks ago. The parade was a lengthy one and was witnessed by a large concourse of citizens. The exercises at the opera house, too were good, and impressive. The hall was crowded, and most respectful attention given.

Sunday, the usual memorial exercises were given in the opera house, Rev Whelan giving the address. Here, too, a crowded house greeted the speakers. Also on Sunday morning, Rev Williston gave his customary memorial sermon at the M E church.

GRADUATES OF THE YEAR

Greet an Immense Gathering of Friends at the Opera House Friday

The commencement exercises at the opera house last evening was attended by one of the largest crowds of the year, every available space in the commodious hall being occupied. The stage was prettily decorated for the occasion with huge streamers of purple and golden yellow crepe paper, and across the top of the stage was hung the motto of the class in large gold letters on purple background: "Through Trials to Triuph." The stage was literally banked with immense bunches of the choicest roses, from friends of the able graduates —Charles John Filion, salutatorian; Antone Smith, Addie Rena Thomas, Margaret McMullen, and Inez Vivian McLaughlin, valedictorian — all finishing the fourth year and the complete course of the Port Angeles High School.

After the overture by the M E orchestra lead by Rev Fulmer, and invocation by Rev Williston, the salutatorian, Mr Filion, gave an able discourse on that great modern undertaking, "The Panama Canal," showing its great value to America and the nations of the world and the great difficulties encountered. Mr Filion spoke clearly and distinctly and his efforts were roundly applauded.

Everybody present was given a keener insight into the great life of Booker T Washington in the address of Antone Smith, the next graduate on the program. He portrayed in vivid language the great work and trials of the greatest of Negro philanthropists, and the final grand success which he so richly deserved. Mr Smith was heard in every part of the hall and did well, as was attested by the vigorous applause at the close.

"The Pioneers of Washington" as given by Miss Addie Thomas, proved doubly interesting to Port Angeles people, as the incidents so vividly and ably recited, were still fresh in the memories of our people. Miss Thomas closed with a short account of local history. She spoke clearly and her part was most favorably received.

"Indian Traditions" furnished data for a most interesting essay by Miss Margaret McMullen, in which more of the early history of Washington was brought forth. The young lady greatly pleased her many friends with the vigorous manner in which she handled her subject and she acquitted herself most creditably, receiving merited applause.

Miss Inez McLaughlin followed with a carefully prepared paper on the "Ideal Citizen" in which she gave an exhaustive review of his requirements. The Ideal Citizen is he who keeps well posted on events of his day, who is unselfish, kind and gentle, patriotic, mindful of the rights of others, and to whom principle is first, wealth secondary; the man who never fails to vote and who casts his ballot according to the dictates of his conscience; he is not a blind partizan nor a bigot; he is always willing to learn; and, if in addition to these he is a Christian he is the more an Ideal Citizen. Miss McLaughlin closed with the plea that her classmates strive to be Ideal Citizens. She was roundly applauded.

Supt Mahaffy in a few forceful words of warning and advice then presented the diplomas.

Interspersed with the graduates efforts were beautiful numbers by the orchestra, duett, "The Fishermen," by Mrs Cushing and Dr Cooke; solo, "The Falconer's Song," Mrs Cushing, written by Inez Carusi, daughter of Judge Carusi; quartettes, "Greeting to Spring," and "Suannee River" by Mesdames Farmer, Mead, Haswell and Jensen; solo, by Dr. Cooke.

Altogether the exercises were most creditable to the efforts of the scholars and their instructors.

The Crime of Amalgamated

Speaking briefly, the great "Crime of Amalgamated," as defined by Mr. Lawson, is as follows:

"In May, 1899, the National City Bank received bids on the 750,000 shares of Amalgamated Copper Company stock. The terms of the advertisemennts of the Amalgamated Copper prescribed the conditions under which the subscriptions must be made. In fact, these advertisements constituted a legal contract binding the National City Bank, an institution under the national banking laws of the United States, to allot to every subscriber whose subscription was not rejected in full, his proportionate part of the entire 750,000 shares of the capital stock of the corporation, his proportionate share being the ratio his subscription bore to the entire subscrition received at the National City Bank before 12 o'clock noon of Thursday, May 4, 1899.

"The actual amount of the subscriptions received was $132,067,500, and the amount of 5 per cent certified checks was only $6.603,375, or $5 per share, or a total of 1,320,675 shares

"The advertisements issued by the corporation promised that the entire allotment should go to the public. On receipt of official notification by the National City Bank that he had been allotted 20 per cent of his subscription, or one share in every five subscribed for, the subscriber had a right to think that the total subscription of stock had been five times $75,000,000, or $375,000,000,000.

"To bring about the praportion which Mr Rogers wanted, a bogus subscription of fivr or six times the allotted balance was put in by him, and this is where the fraud was committed. The National City Bank was in duty bound to prevent the public from any such bogus subscription, and to see that fair treatment was accorded to all subscribers. Yet, unfaithful to the trust, it permitted this bogus subscription to be put in eleven hours after the bids had been opened. It utterly failed to comply with the conditions of its advertisement, and was thus a direct party to the fraud perpetrated by its president and Mr. Rogers."

Official Paper
Of Port Angeles, Clallam county.

Entered as second-class matter, in the Post office at Port Angeles, Washington.

IT is just and proper that note should be made of the fact that while the various county officers enjoyed two legal holidays this week, the treasurer's force stayed at its post and had very little idea of any holiday in sight. There was an accumulation of work in this office, occasioned by heavy payments and the patriotic thing to do was to stay with it—which was done.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORDS BLACK DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown.

Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and virulent contagion results.

Timely treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangers which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the inroads of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.

TOGA didn't do a thing to the Russian fleet.

THOSE who believe in a yellow peril, may now find reason to increase their fears.

THE triple alliance of the United States, England and Japan is now suggested.

WE are pleased to note that in the coming celebration we are to have some indications of what the day we are to celebrate is. It is more than a day of pleasure.

IT is refreshing to note that the attorneys for plaintiff in the railroad case are pushing it to a final conclusion. This is well. The people are anxious to know where they are at, and, doubtless, the Belvin interest want to know just what part the court will take in the matter.

THE Port Townsend Southern now has a payroll of over $100 per day, men employed in rebuilding the line, preparatory to completion of the road. The crew that is doing the work will, it is announced, be increased when the work begins on the bridges along the line out in the country. Besides the pay for labor, thousands of dollars is being spent for bridge timbers. The importance of the work being done is the most encouraging sign of the early completion of the road that has ever been given since it was commenced more than a dozen years ago. The Knockers may knock and the Croakers may croak, but completion of the road will surely follow immediately after the rebuilding of the present portion of the road.—P.T. Call.
