TO BUILD A BRIDGE ON NINTH

Street—The Purchase of the Electric Light Plant Consummated—Laurel, Peabody and Eighth Streets to be Repaired—The City Attorney Wants to Resign, but the Council Says No—An Ordinance Providing for the Opening of Lincoln Street Passed.

The regular meeting of the Council met Wednesday, Mayor Smith and Councilmen Beam, Metcalf, Rose, Read and Ristine being present.

The most important business to come before the Council was the consummation of the purchase of the electric light plant. Councilmen Beam and Rose were opposed to giving the Electric Light Company $25,000 for their plant, and the former moved to adjourn, in order to prevent action being taken. Mayor Smith ruled that Councilman Kreuger had the floor, and the latter moved that Rockman be paid $25,000 for the plant and $3,000 commission for selling $25,000 worth of bonds, $500 to be returned to the city when the bonds were sold. Carried.

Councilman Ristine made a hard struggle to have a sidewalk constructed on Tumwater hill, a petition having been read that was signed by a large number of the residents of that locality. The petition called for a sidewalk on the following streets: On Fourth to A, south on A to Fifth, and thence on the south side of Fifth to E street. The petition was referred to the Street Commissioner.

A petition asking that Laurel, Peabody and Eighth streets be repaired was granted.

A petition signed by a large number of citizens protesting against the erection of the Fourth street bridge across Tumwater gulch, and asking that it be constructed on Seventh or Eighth was read. The petitioners threatened to enjoin the city if they persisted in the work on Fourth street. It was finally decided to discontinue the work on Fourth and to construct a bridge at Ninth. The Filion Mill Co. offered to donate 15,000 feet of lumber toward its construction.

The bond of H B Wilson as Police Judge was accepted.

The resignation of City Attorney Hatch was laid on the table.

The ordinance providing for the opening of Lincoln street from Front to First at an outlay of $3,146.92 was passed.

Two bids for clearing the city burial ground, one of $580 and the oth r $600, were rejected.

City Attorney Hatch will submit the case of the city's in regard to the legality of the electric light bonds to the Superior court on Tuesday next.

THE BEAVER TRAGEDY.

A Man by the Right Name, but the Wrong Appended Arrested.

John Robinson, who is charged with the murder of William Schelsing near Beaver, last November, was arrested near Auburn yesterday by Deputy Sheriff C. H. Brown. He was traced there by an anonymous warning received by Sheriff Woolery.

Schelsing lived in a lonely cabin in the woods about three miles south of Beaver, and he and Robinson were chums, or partners, to the extent of living much at each other's cabin. They were last seen at Beaver on election day last fall, but were not missed, as it is the usual thing there for squatters to be absent months at a time. Schelsing had been missing so long that it was taken for granted he had abandoned his claim, and one of the Konopaski brothers, who live in that vicinity, determined to locate a new settler upon it. Together they went early in September to Schelsing's cabin, which was found to be nailed up from the outside, as if the proprietor were away. Looking through the window they saw something suspicious and proceeded to break into the cabin. The decomposed remains of Schelsing were found on his bunk, wrapped in a blanket, where they appeared to have been for eight or nine months. The only way he could be identified was by his clothing, as no part of the body remained except the hair. The back of the skull was smashed as if by a sledge, and while the skull was being examined a 32-caliber bullet fell out. After waiting several days and making an effort to find Robinson, whose absence excited suspicion, an inquest was held by Justice M. V. B. Lamoreux, and the circumstantial evidence was so strong that the jury found a verdict to the effect that Schelsing was killed by Robinson.

On election day Robinson had borrowed a rifle of a friend. He was a brother-in-law of a man in Tacoma who owed Schelsing $110. Schelsing was seen to display considerable money on election day, but none was found in his cabin. The fact that the cabin was nailed up from the outside showed conclusively that Schelsing had been the victim of foul play.

After the result of the coroner's inquest became known, Sheriff S. G. Morse wrote to Sheriff Woolery giving a description of Robinson. By a curious coincidence, on the very next day after Sheriff Morse's letter was received, Sheriff Woolery received a note without date line or signature, reading as follows:

"Robinson, of Beaver, works in Slaughter sawmill."

With the note was enclosed a clipping giving the result of the inquest and a story of the murder.

Armed with the two letters, Deputy Sheriff Brown had no difficulty in finding Robinson, who was at work under his own name for Mr. Benson, proprietor of the Auburn sawmill. When arrested he was at work on a logging road about three miles from Auburn. At first he denied all knowledge of Beaver, but afterward admitted that he had been there and left last June. Although he was employed as John Robinson and had given an order at the store under that signature he says his name is not John, but Jeptha. He was taken to Seattle and locked up in the county jail.

In an interview with Robinson he said: "About the beginning of the hop pickfng season I came down from Clallam county with several other ranchers in a small sloop. We landed at Tacoma, but I could not get employment and so I went to Auburn and obtained work in a saw mill. I had no reason to suppose I was under suspicion of the murder of Schiling, In fact I did not know Schiling at all, nor John Robinson. At the time of the killing, of which I knew only by hearsay, I was working at a mill at Forks, about twenty miles from the scene of the crime. Any of the employees of the mill can testify that I had been constantly at the mill both night and day for weeks before and after the murder. I made no secret of my going away from my home in Clallam county but went out to find work with several neighbors.

SURPRISED.

A Party of Gay Bachelors Disturbed While Smoking the Pipe of Peace.

The monotony of a bachelor's home life in Port Angeles is seldom brightened by festive occasions being brought within the four walls which constitute the realm over which they rule supreme, but Messrs. White, Smith and Dedman are among the favored few who have pleasures thrust upon them in delightful ways.

Last Tuesday evening at the hour of nine, these three gentlemen were enjoying the consolation derived only from a pipe, and as the fragrant smoke curled upward, one (or more) fair face was found in each column by their imagination. Faces which each presumed,—but hoped not, were at that moment being arrayed in smiles, which each well knew and loved, for the enslaving of another fellow, when a gentle tap was heard upon the door, and then before them stood a full ripe surprise party, containing the faces just seen in their columns of smoke.

Each visitor came burdened with table delicacies, and the party was accompanied by musicians.

Dancing was soon commenced in Mr. Smith's house, after which refreshments were served, and agreeable conversation followed until two o'clock, when the visitors sought their homes.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Caie, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rockman, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gay, Mrs. Jarvis, Misses Ray Rockman, Lou Rudd and Elaine Fitzsimmons, Dr. E. George, and Messrs. Smith, White and Dedman.

ARE NOT HAPPY.

Mr. and Mrs. Langton of Dungeness Pray to be Single Again.

On Tuesday next Mr. and Mrs. Langton of Dungeness will explain to Judge McClinton why they should be single again.

The plaintiff alleges that the first few months of their marriage, life was passed in perfect bliss, after which the defendant began to grow careless, negligent, cross, cranky and abusive, and to treat her in an inhuman manner. On several occasions he has knocked her down with his fist, causing her to become black and blue, and on divers occasions has threatened to kill her, without any provocation whatever. That in consequence of all the above facts she has been made sick in body and mind.

She prays that the court dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing; the custody of her son and the nominal sum of $10 per month for its support.

In answer, the defendant denies the above charges of cruelty, and also prays the court for a dissolution of the matrimonial bonds, and the custody of the child, claiming that his spouse is not a fit person to have charge of the same.

The Olympic's Wealth.

Ex-Secretary of State, Allen Weir, writes to the Port Townsend Leader of the wonders of the Olympics as follows:

Having recently returned from a short trip of exploration in the Olympic mountains, during which I killed two fine deer, had an excellent view of that range, and penetrated farther beyond civilization than ever before, I wish to say a few words to the people of Jefferson county through the medium of your columns.

Of the mineral specimens brought back I enumerate:

First—Sandstone from a mountain of same; good quality.

Second—Slate from a mountain of same; good quality.

Third—Heavy mineral, supposed to be hornblend, carrying traces of gold, silver and tin, sent to assayer's office. From large ledge.

Fourth—Excellent indications of coal.

I saw and traveled over thousands of acres of rolling bunch grass plateaux, inhabited by game such as are found in the low lands, besides prairie dogs (marmots), jack rabbits, magpies, black timber wolves and other animals and birds not found in our lower altitudes.

Of flowers I found the most beautiful varieties, including lillies, crocuses, daisies, buttercups, blue bells and a dozen other varieties, blooming in profusion right up to the edge of ever-lasting snows.

Of scenery there is the grandest that ever delighted the soul of an artist; overlooking the Straits of Fuca, Admiralty inlet, the San Juan islands, Vancouver island and the Gulf of Georgia, backed by the snowy summits of the Cascade and Selkirk ranges, while to the south the blending of green, brown, blue and white colors into the most delicate and ravishing of tints, chains the enraptured beholder beyond all ordinary power. Port Townsend's electric lights by night are most beautiful.

Conclusions:

Those mountain fastnesses ought to be still further be explored, with a view of developing the mineral wealth which they surely contain. A trail should be opened through them to the settlements in the remote western portion of Jefferson county. It could be done without great costs. By far the richest ortion of old Jefferson is as yet almost terra incognito for want of a little intelligent well-directed enterprise. I will guarantee a feasible route for a trail almost due west from the head of Port Discovery Bay. Respectfully,

ALLEN WEIR.

Dungeness Items.

The Alice M departed from Groveland Improvement Company's dock on Monday last loaded with 23 tons wheat, oats and potatoes, bound for Tacoma.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Groveland Improvement Company was held in the office of the secretary in Dungeness, on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. The following were elected trustees for the ensuing term: C. F. Seal, Wm. Bishop, Jr., W. W. Felger, J. A. Campbell and Thos. Malony. The trustees organized by selecting Thos. Malony, president; C. F. Seal, general manager; W. W. Felger, secretary; Wm. Bishop, treasurer. This company has a capital of $20,000; own the townsite of Dungeness, the famous Groveland farm and the new wharf which has done so much to give the farmers of this vicinity a deep water outlet. The trustees contemplate dividing the Groveland farm into acre tracts, and putting them on the market to supply a brisk demand for this class of property.

The potato crop will not be as large as last year, but in quality they are as fine as ever before. The wheat crop will yield from 50 to 80 bushels per acre, the total yield being larger than in former years. Oats are a light crop this year and already is commanding fair cash prices. Hay is the great crop of this place, and something over 2000 tons will be marketed this year.

Notice of the Public Sale

Of the lots in the unsold portion in the town of Port Angeles, washington.

Notice is hereby given that at ten o'clock on the 1st day of January, 1894, the public sale of lots in the unsold portion of the townsite of Port Angeles, washington, will be begun at the court house therein and continued from day to day until all the lots and parcels in said townsite that are subject to sale at public outcry shall have been sold or offered for sale. Port Angeles is situated upon the straits of San Juan De Fuca, Clallam county, in the north-western portion of the state of washington, and was reserved as a government townsite in 1863 by order of President Lincoln. The sale of the unsold portion of said townsite was provided for by act of Congress of March 3d, 1891, 26 stat, 879, and August 5, 1893, 27 stat. 360, and said portion comprises thirty-one hundred and forty seven and 31-100 acres surveyed into 7008 urban and suburban lots and parcels. The majority of the urban lots are fifty by one hundred feet in size, while the suburban lots contain an average of eight and one half acres. The sale will be conducted by the Register and Receiver of the Seattle land office, and all lots and parcels will be offered singly to the highest bidder for cash, except those lots which may be purchased at private sale prior to the date of public sale by the parties entitled thereto, but no bid will be received for less than the appraised value for any lot or parcel. Notice is hereby given to each and every person claiming by the terms of the acts of Congress of August 5, 1892, a preference right to purchase lots at private entry at their appraised value prior to the day of public sale, that he must publish notice once a week for six consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in Port Angeles of his intention to avail himself of such rights and that he will make proof at a specified time touching such residence and improvements before the Register and Receiver at the Seattle land office or other officer authorized to take proof in homestead cases. Said proof must consist of the testimony of the claimant corroborsted by the testimony of two witnesses, stating that the claimant had individually established residence upon one lot and had made valuable improvements upon one such additional lot prior to July 5, 1893, and that he had maintained such residence and improvements up to the date of his application to purchase, and that title to said improvements still remain vested in him. The foregoing to be accompanied by proof of the publication required. Notice is futher given that the aforesaid proof must be made in time to be forwarded to, and passed upon by the local officers at Seattle prior to the day of public sale. Full explanation will be made by the Register prior to the offering of the several lots and parcels for sale as to the exact location of each and shape and size and area of the same in order that parties may bid intelligently upon them.

In Childhood's Happy Days.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

PRESUMPTIVE MINORITY.

Under the leadership of a few small bore senators, from the worst capital owned, monopoly ridden states in the union, masquerading as friends of the people, but really the hired attorneys for a few silver mine owners, the minority in the United States senate is trampling under foot the constitutional functions of the legislative branch of our government. Representative government is a failure, if the majority is not permitted to rule.

The question involved is a principle compared with which the policy of the nation as to the coinage of the precious metals sinks into insignificance. The object of the authors of the constitution of the United States was to frame a conservative method for the expression of the will of the majority of the people.

This can be done only by the enactment of the majority of the chosen representatives. Such action is now being defeated by the filibustering tactics of the senators from Colorado and Nevada aided by Senator Peffer, of Kansas.

It is true, the antiquated rules of the senate, permitting unlimited debate, are largely responsible for this, but never before in the history of the country has there been a minority ungentlemanly or indecent enough to so abuse the courtesy extended to them by these traditional rules, established on the presumption that senators would say their say, and then vote.

The real friends of true silver coinage are thoroughly disgusted with the action of the selfishly interested senators. The majority of the free coinage senators, although they are aware that their cause is in a helpless minority, are ready to vote. They understand well enough that the majority should rule, though differing materially from them. They will be content, as were the free coinage men in the house of representative, with fighting a good fight and then standing on their record. In fact, the debate has already gone so far, that each day drives friends away from the cause of free coinage.

The St. Louis Republic, than which no journal in the United States is more loyal to free coinage, says in this connection:

"Every condemned ism gathers courage from the ability of Stewart and Teller to thwart the will of the country. The senate shall be the refuge of minorities, is the cry. Under the preverted freedom of debate any ism which has its law in the statute book can defy the people and postpone reform. Any ism which is striving to get a law can obstruct other needed legislation until its demands are granted. A majority of three to one would be forced to make terms with a minority that had no moral standing at all before the country. Two or three senators are enough for a purpose—two or three are as potent as twenty.

"A courtesy of debate founded upon an assumed noblesse oblige ought to be swept out like other trash when it decays into such time-killing talk as Washington has heard for a month. Worse than the consequence that we can have no government efficiency under such a practice is the equally certain consequence that our prosperity as commercial people would go backward. If any crank, or any subsidist, or any public enemy who happens to break into the senate from a negligent state can throttle legislation, there can be no more confidence in the guarantees of intelligent suffrage."

It is too bad for the fair name of the senate that necessity should compel the adoption of the cloture, but the necessity arising, the only way to protect that fair name is in its adoption.

THE disinterested advocates of free coinage of silver who are actuated by the very patriotic motive of increasing the circulating medium for the people cannot fail to recognize the harm done their cause by the leadership of those who have axes to grind.

No wonder the representatives of the protected barons of Pennsylvania should come to the assisstance of the advocates of the silver bullion kings of Nevada and Colorado. Both are actuated by the same motives.

COUNTY THOROUGHFARES.

Commendable Enterprise Evidenced in Constructing County Roads.

There is yet a good prospect for the people of the Quillayute valley to have a wagon road to the Straits of Fuca this season, says the Beaver Leader. Supervisor H. L. Brown, of this district is diligently at work on the remaining four miles that are to be opened up before the so-called "Burlingame Road" is completed to Beaver. Mr. Brown commenced last June on the road where Burlingame stopped work on burnt mountain and had made about one mile when he was ordered to discontinue on account of the failure of the Port Angeles bank. He has tried time and again since then to get permission to resume work, but until recently was unable to do so. The people of Quillayute want, above all things, good wagon roads. Until the last three years a wagon road in the valley was unknown, and as a consequence southwest Clallam has been backward to gain recognition as an agricultural region. Forks and Quillayute prairies have been settled for the past twenty-three or four years. This was caused simply by the lack of public thoroughfares. The settlers were compelled to bring their supplies by way of La Push and from there brought up the Quillayute river.

There is now a good road from Beaver to Forks prairie and when the few miles are completed from the Falls to burnt mountain the citizens of the Quillayute will have an outlet to the markets of the Sound.

We will also soon have a road from this place to Lake Crescent and from there roads lead to Port Crescent and to the county seat.

The people of the Quillayute have gone through many hardships in the past years, but we predict that soon, yes, the light already begins to dawn, upon the finest and richest portion of Clallam county—the Peerless Quillayute.

The Clallam Mill.

The enlarging and improvement of the mill at East Clallam is one of the evidences of solid commercial growth that is gratifying to see, says the Beaver-Leader. Such an enterprise converts the timber of our county into coin at San Francisco and brings it into circulation here. Clallam county is just now largely in the first stage of settlement, but it will not be but a few years until it will be necessary to depend entirely upon commercial and manufacturing enterprises to maintain our population. The East Clallam mill has demonstrated its ability, even in these panicky times, of selling its output in the San Francisco market at such a price as to warrant them in increasing their equipment, and they promise to make still further and important additions. The entire county is interested in their success. A steady pay roll is the best basis of prosperity in any community and that is especially true when the natural resources of the county are concerned as in the case in the manufacture of lumber.

COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Paragraphs Gathered From the County Press.

East Clallam Record.

A large consignment of fire brick arrived on the Willapa Monday evening to be used in constructing the furnace of the new mill. The boilers and engine are now being set in position. Last week it was incorrectly stated that the cost of improvements to the sawmill would be about $6000. The amount should have been about $25,000. The new machinery used is the very best that can be obtained and the mill will be able to manufacture about 75,000 feet per day.

Messrs. Colby and Talbot are making regular hauls of salmon at the mouth of the Hoko river. The salmon are pickled in barrels and shipped to Seattle.

The new trail from East Clallam to the Hoko fall has been completed. The work has been done in first class shape under the supervision of James Keltner.

Beaver-Leader:

Mr. G. O. Sodustran commenced gathering his hops Wednesday. Mr. Sodustran has three acres of fine growing hops and will get a fair yield from this, his first crop. Several Beaverites tried their hand at picking them, but at the close of their first day's labor threw up the sponge—they had averaged nearly a half box each.

The wagon road from Oberg's to Collins is now opened, bridges in and ready for travel. This road is much shorter than the former one, is well graded and will now monopolize travel up that way. The people up Bear creek are to be congratulated, as they now have one of the best roads in the county.

Mr. Irving W. Garland, of Collins, was in Beaver Sunday. Mr. Garland also made the Leader a very pleasant call. He reports everything moving along in the upper Solduck, and says that new settlers are continually coming in that neighborhood.

HE WROTE "AFTER THE BALL."

Now his Income is About a Thousand Dollars a Day.

It is a matter of more than passing interest that a Milwaukee boy has broken the record, in these record-breaking days, as a song writer, publisher and seller. The story of "After the Ball" is full of human interest. The words and music were composed by Charles K. Harris, who does not know one musical note from another. Harris is of Hebrew extraction, is 28 years of age, is self-educated and is the composer of at least twelve ballads that are now riding the topmost wave of popularity. He is of small stature, with red hair and blue eyes, and had eked out the usual everyday existence until a few months ago as a teacher of the banjo. To-day he is one of the rich men of Milwaukee, and is enjoying an income of over $1000 a day from the sales of "After the Ball."

Harris has struggled with all the phases of poverty, but one morning about six months' ago he awoke to find himself famous.

The composer showed me a record of forty amusement enterprises that were using his song as a feature of their entertainments. That almost a million copies have been printed and sold is no surmise or matter of guess-work. I called on Mr. Harris yesterday, and he verified this remarkable statement by showing me his order books and cash receipts. Leading dealers are ordering the song in 5000 lots, and Mr. Harris' income has averaged for several weeks $1200 a day from the sale of his song.

The young composer was born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1864. When a year old his parents removed to New York city, where his boyhood was passed. When 13 years of age the boy came with his family to Milwaukee, where he has lived ever since. When comparatively young he began composing music, and thus far upward of twenty of his compositions have been published. He never had the advantage of a musical education, but he takes to music and music-making as naturally as a duck takes to water. His first songs were sold to publishers, but shortly after Harris became his own publisher. Several songs proved fairly successful, and one entitled "Kiss and Let's Make Up" netted him $8000. But it was not until he composed "After the Ball" that things began coming his way in tallyhos and coupes. Last March the Milwaukee bicyclers were preparing to give an amateur entertainment. Sam Doctor, a local singer, called on Harris one morning about a week before the show and asked him to write him a song. Harris had attended a ball in Chicago the night before and was lying on a sofa in his office when Doctor called. "I am too tired, Sam," said Harris, "to try to do anything just now. I am suffering from the fatigue of after the ball." Doctor urged his claims, and finally Harris consented to compose something for his friend. I will tell the rest of the story in his own language:

"The words of my reply, 'after the ball,' kept ringing in my ears, and I quickly recognized that I had a catchy title for a song. I thought out the verses, and little by little the tune came to me and I fitted the words to it. Finally the whole thing developed, and it came to me like an inspiration. I hurried to a music house and ascertained that no music had been published bearing the same or a similar title to 'After the Ball.' Then I sent for Joseph Clander, the orchestra leader, and picked out the piece on the piano for him—I can't read or write music, but I can play anything by ear—and I asked him if he could write it down for me. Clander can write and grasp music as quickly as a stenographer can take a dictation, and in an hour or so I had the words and music of 'After the Ball' on paper.

"Well, I gave the manuscript to Doctor and after rehearsing it he sang it for the first time at the amateur minstrel show. I sat way back in the house, very nervous over the outcome. Doctor sang two verses finely and got tremendous applause. This staggered him and he forgot the third. I left the house chagrined and mortified. I threw the manuscripts in a drawer with a lot of rubbish, fully determined never to publish or to look at it again. But the people who heard it remembered the tune and it grew on them. I heard boys whistling it a few days later. Some Chicago visitors carried it to that city, and I had two or three inquiries for it. Two weeks later Ditson of Boston ordered ten copies. I don't know how it had got that far out. This order induced me to publish the song, and the result is known. To-day I had a telegraphic order from this same Boston house for 5000 copies. I expect the circulation to touch the million mark early in September. I keep two printing houses at work on my music, and my bills for press work are $5000 per month."—New York Advertiser.

They Give Their Reasons.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen it's severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by J. C. Hansen, The Fisher Pharmacy.

Guard Against Errors.

Claimants in filing should exercise the utmost care in giving the correct numbers of their lots and blocks. Unless this is done they will be compelled to file again, which involves not only additional costs but loss of time as well. Already, doubtless, through carelessness and ignorance as well, quite a number of errors have been made, which have necessitated the claimant refiling. If care and ordinary intelligence is exercised these mistakes need not occur.

READ YOUR NOTICE.

Each Claimant Should Carefully Read His to Avoid Possibility of an Error.

In this issue of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER appears several hundred final notices of publication in the Port Angeles townsite reservation. To avoid the possibility of an error, each claimant is requested to read his notice, and in the event he discovers a mistake either in description or names of witnesses, report to this office and it will be corrected. Proof is taken of notices which are carefully read, then revised. But even with that pre-caution errors frequently occur, the fault sometimes lying with and frequently outside of the publication office. In any event such errors are inexcusable when the claimant attempts to make final proof, and must be corrected ere it is too late.

So read your notice and avoid possibility of future trouble or delay.

A copy of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER will be mailed to each claimant THE FIRST WEEK his notice appears for publication. In this issue only such notices as have been set by either the county clerk or United States commissioners for their first week's work appear. With each succeeding week the publication of notices will continue on to the end. This explanation is made so as each claimant will understand that if his notice does not appear in this issue, date of final proof has been set later on and such notice will be published at the proper time.

Practical Farming.

[Peoria (Ill.) Transcript.]

Facts, experience and seasonable hints presented by agricultural writers of national fame fill the pages of that prosperous looking paper, American Farmer and Farm News, of Springfield, Ohio, for July. Its handsome illustrations and bright paragraphs make it one of he most attractive farm journals we have ever read. It certainly is deserving of its wonderful circulation, now upwards of 163,000. Its letters regarding agriculture in Oklahoma, Mississippi, California and Georgia are most interesting.

Dr. Hoskins, the veteran horticulturist, of Newport, Vt., contributes an article on grape growing containing some very novel ideas, while the celebrated dairyman, Henry Talcott, of Ohio. writes from the World's Fair regarding the Columbia dairy test. Miller Purvis treats of poultry in his own original and attractive style. The department of organizations is full of news regarding the Grange, Alliance and the other associations. All in all it is a large, progressive, interesting paper, whose price has been recently reduced to 50 cents a year. We would advise our farming friends who do not know this standard paper to us send for a sample copy.

Angeles Tide Land.

Allen Weir, attorney for most of the tide land claimants, came down on the Monticello Wednesday. Mr. Weir was seen by a DEMOCRAT-LEADER representative and interviewed in regard to the tide land. Among other things he said:

"The Port Angeles tide land matter has been at a standstill for some time. The cause of this is the large amount of work the board has on hand, selecting state lands, appraising and hearing school lands. I cannot tell when the Angeles matter will come up, but it will be among the first. The board has not taken up a single tide land case since it was organized."

Mr. Weir is in town getting his witnesses for the divorce case of Langton vs. Langton, which will be tried in the superior court Tuesday.

PRICE LIST.

October 1. COOPER & LEVY Seattle, Wash

TO OUR OUT-OF-TOWN PATRONS:

Order what you want by letter We ship the Groceries by rail, by boat or any way desired No greater aid to buy Groceries at the very lowest rates has been devised than our order system. Persons living out of town can not always find time to visit the city when in need of goods. In addition to this loss comes the important item of expense.

YOU MAY LIVE FIFTY MILES FROM HERE OR FIVE HUNDRED.

It is immaterial. You can sit quietly at home, making your selection, depending upon getting the best goods at the lowest prices. Every article that you order is sold at the same price as if you were purchasing personally at our store.

HERE'S A DELUSION WE DESIRE TO DISPEL.

Some intended purchasers may have an idea that the freight adds materially to the cost. This is a mistake Your local merchant must pay his freight (his groceries don't fly to him) and he pays the same rate as you do.

IT IS A WELL-KNOWN FACT

That owing to our being among the largest cash buyers we receive the benefit of constant bargains—these our customers share—consequently we sell Groceries for less than the ordinary dealer pays for them. Buying from us, even after adding the freight, still means a saving of fifteen to thirty cents on every dollar.

THIS IS THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN YOU ARE LAYING IN SUPPLIES.

Therefore it will pay you to compare our prices and order from us.

TERMS—All orders must be accompanied by cash. Remittances can be made by express, money order, postal note or registered mail.

☞N.B.—Send no checks on interior banks. We can only use checks on Seattle banks and cannot end out goods unless these terms are complied with.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Send your full name and address with proper shipping instructions. Send all remiitances direct to the house, as we have no traveling agents. WE MAKE NO CHARGE FOR PACKING OR DELIVERY TO RAILROAD STATION OR WHARVES.

We quote only a few articles, and will cheerfully furnish prices on anything in the grocery line. Reference, Dexter, Horton & Co., bankers, Seattle, and Scandinavian-American Bank, Seattle.

Our Best—This is the name of a brand of Baking Powder put up expressly for us—It is the very best baking powder that money and brains can manufacture. We claim it equal to the "Royal" or "Prices" and offer it for much less money. In place of spending thousands of dollars in advertising, and adding this cost to the price of the Powder, we have decided to introduce it among our customers. Royal and Prices baking powder are first-class, still these people spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in keeping their names before the people. Who do you suppose pays for all this? You and everybody who buys their powder. Try a can of OUR BEST POWDER in your next order; if it is not fully as represented return it and we will cheerfully refund your money. Compare these prices with Royal and recollect what we say regarding the quality of OUR BEST BAKING POWDERS. Full weight—guaranteed.
