RESERVATION APPRAISEMENT.

Claimants Objecting to Unequal Appraisement Will be Given a Hearing.

Capt. John Carmichael arrived Tuesday pursuant to instructions from Washington city, to investigate the appraisement of the reservation. Capt. Carmichael positively assured all that the investigation will in no way affect the final sale of the reservation that is set for January 1st.

The instructions of Commissioner Lamoreux of the General Land Office, are short and fully justify Captain Carmichael in his assertion. The commissioner quotes from an order of Secretary Hoke Smith, as follows:

From the showing made I am of the opinion that an investigation should be ordered, to the end that the assessment may be fair and the rights of all concerned fully protected. You will therefore detail some special agent or other employe to investigate fully the charges made, and any others that may be made in the matter of said assessment, and for this purpose a time should be set when the parties will be heard, and after such further investigation as may be deemed necessary, that he make due report to your office upon said report. You will then send the same, together with your recommendation thereon, for such further action as the facts may warrant. Under the instruction to the local officers governing this sale the residents who are given a special privilege of purchase at the appraised price are required to complete these purchases before the public sale, which has been set for January 1, 1894. Those having proven themselves to be entitled to such special privilege and objecting to the appraisement need not, for the present, be required to complete their purchases, but their applications will stand suspended to await the result of the investigation hereby ordered."

Secretary Smith refers in his first paragraph to a petition and numerous affidavits of lot holders on the reserva- and to a letter from Register O'Toole, wherein he says:

"From all information I have been able to gain I am firmly convinced that the Port Angeles assessment should be investigated and manifest injustice corrected."

JOHN W. TROY.....Editor

ON THE RIGHT TRACK.

Last week this paper stated that the strength of the People's party was waning, and assigned as the cause its tendency toward paternalism. As if to confirm this, the news of this week seem to indicate that the work of disintergration has already commenced in that party. It seems that there has been a meeting of the leaders of that party in Kansas, and that a division is eminent on the old lines of paternalism and individualism. Hon. Jerry Simpson, than whom a man possessing sounder principles of government is not amongst the Populists, is about to lead a movement to discard all the socialistic principles that have characterized the People's party, and to make a stand solely on the free coinage of silver.

It has been known that Mr. Simpson has been dissatisfied with the People's party leaders for a long time. His ideas have always been essentially Democratic, while the policy of his party has been essentially Federalistic. Mr. Simpson has always found it more congenial to associate with Mr. W. J. Bryan, Mr. R. P. Bland, Mr. John Martin and other western Democrats, than it has been to affiliate with Mr. T. V. Powderly, Mr. James B. Weaver and others who have made Peoples' party platforms. In other words, Mr. Simpson is a Democrat, differing only with the policy of the North Eastern Democracy that has, to an extent confessedly too great, controlled Democratic action, while those who have made the policies of the Peoples' party are Republicans, differing with the Republican party leaders only as to the classes and the industries that should be protected.

Before the free coinage of silver became a question of first importance before the people, there was not an iota of difference in the public policies advocated by Jerry Simpson and his followers in the Peoples' party and that advocated by Tom Johnson, Josiah Patterson, John Washington and other free traders in the Democratic party. These latter, like the great economists, Henry George and Thomas G. Shearman foresaw the tendency of the Peoples' party, and preferred to fight their battles in the party whose fundamental principals, if not all of its temporizing policies, fulfilled their ideas of true Democracy.

Jerry Simpson and many of his compeers are on a fair way to discover, if, indeed, they do not already realize, that the Democratic party is the great peoples' party. They are giving attention to the "mote" in their own eye, as well as the Democratic "beam."

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER does not claim to be a prophet or the son of a prophet, however, it arises to make a prophecy: We offer to wager our devil's last summer base ball shoes against a pair of No. 10 rubbers that Fred Lamoreux will be city attorney of Angeles during the year 1894.

THE welfare of Port Angeles requires that a careful man, thoroughly competent as well as conscientious should be city clerk. If Mr. C. K. Humphries is re-elected, the services of such a man is assured.

EVERY citizen should vote Tuesday, and vote his conscientious convictions.

MR. "JUNIUS."

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir—Will you kindly lend me space to show my appreciation of "Junius," otherwise known as the "society sycophant of the T. T."

When danger threatens brutes howl their cowardly fears. When craven natures desire to manifest their feeling toward mankind in general, their spurious venom befouls the good and bad alike. It is the peculiar characteristic of the scurrilous defamer to despise any and all things that lean toward honor and honorable attributes, and it appears to have been a retching overture of a depraved, fœtid and bilious stomach that affected "Junius" (Sainted ghost of a brilliant soul maligned. Pardon the ignoramus that adopted your glorious name to hide his responsibility for lying inuendos and unsustainable utterances concerning the official short comings of Marshal McGregor.

Marshal H. J. McGregor claims not an attribute of the God-head he knew when he accepted the position of city marshal, that he could not be ubiquitous The city of Port Angeles comprises more than one block, and when the "dreadful things" of which "Junius" writes happened "Marshal McGregor was somewhere else attending to duty. Marshal McGregor does not claim that he has spent his time during the past year hunting through the dusty closets of his neighbors, seeking skeletons to clothe with a thousand hideous faults, in order to pose as "a mouth that packs a thing around, poisoning the atmosphere of decency." He claims to be a manly man, not a vaporing blatherskite who would die of venom on the brain could he not lie about his fellow man.

H. J. McGregor, City Marshal.
