One Hundred Twenty-Three Industrial Fires

RE-KINDLED IN THE EAST,

During the Past Two Weeks—They Embrace All Classes of Manufacturing Industry and Re-employ Thousands of Operators—These Remarkable Facts of Industrial Awakening Revealed by the Assistant Comptroller of the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 29—The national democratic congressional campaign committee will issue to the voters thousands of copies of a remarkable speech of Assistant Comptroller Charles H. Mansur, delivered this week before the interstate democratic association of this city. It is brimful of food for reflection and contains the most important and cheering piece of news which has emanated from the treasury department for the past 18 months. Col. Mansur stated that during the last 10 days, through the several branches of the department, it has been notified that 123 large industrial establishments had been started or re-started in the East. These embrace all classes of manufacturing industries, re-employing thousands of hands.

"We are entered upon good times," declared the the comptroller of the treasury, "and on the edge of better times than the country has known for years. The years of 1895 and 1896 will be brighter and better business years than any since high tariff went into operation."

He said he made this prediction on official facts, figures and signs which he had, by virtue of his official position, exceptional opportunities to observe and study. Another great point the comptroller made, which brought him storms of applause, was the announcement that in not single specific instance where the 123 industrial fires had been rekindled for work in the manufactories he had mentioned, had he learned of a reduction of wages below the scales paid under the operation of the McKinley law, notwithstanding republican predictions that these same industries would not be able to exist under the rates of the tariff act of 1894. The fact that many of these which have just started anew are located in the protection states of Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania, and had been practically idle for the past two years, is conclusive that the period of business disaster and distress in the country, which is now rapidly terminating, can be traced to no other cause than to the law under which these mills suspended—the McKinley act—and not to the door of the Democratic party, under whose reform of the tariff these same great business enterprises have promptly resumed.

The comptroller philosophically reasons that if it is true that Democrats were disgruntled throughout the country on account of the unsettled business, they have no foundation for this state of feeling now. He quotes the fourth auditor of the treasury, a Maine man, for authority for the statement, that the Republican vote in Maine this year was 482 less than in 1892, but the Democratic vote had fallen off in the two years 8,000.

"Tom Reed brought to his support the efforts of the ablest talent in his party and unlimited money, and yet received only 13 more votes than was given him in 1892. In spite of this fact he had 8,000 plurality where he had but 2,000 two years previous. This shows that while the Democrats in Maine have not gone over to the radical party, they felt like spanking the tariff backsliders of their own party."

If Democrats find fault with the present congress, it must be because it had not been able to undo, in a single year, every statute and all the deviltry that had been passed in 30 years by Republican legislature.

"Give us time," continued a friend of Secretary Carlisle, "and we will remedy some of the things you say congress has left undone."

He said the secretary of the treasury, although preferring the Wilson bill, declared the senate bill to be a better bill than the Mills bill, with which the Democracy seemed well pleased as a beginning. "A year or two is not very long, and yet it is long enough for some people to forget that there was hardly a Democrat who went to the polls in 1892 visionary enough to predict that the Democrats would then gain control of the senate. Had not the Republicans been a set of blind fools in Wyoming, Montana and Washington and refused to elect Senators because they couldn't agree upon whom to send, the Democratic party would not have gained control of the senate to this day, and any Democratic tariff measure would consequently have been an impossibility. It was God, upon our side, which gave us the senate, and it is he who is blessing the work of this congress by restoring business prosperity."

This sentiment brought long and deafening applause, and the speaker followed the point with another.

"The bible says that the Lord God chasteneth those He loveth. Well, he has been chastening the Democratic party for 30 years, and now he has given us an evidence of His love."

"While the senate bill is not all we looked for," continued the speaker, "it is so much better than any Democrat could have conceived of in 1892 that every man in the party should say 'all right; it is a good thing.'"

So much remedial legislation had never before been crowded into one year's history of the American congress. The repeal of the force bill, the faultfinders seem to have forgotten, and yet this was the most important work of this congress, in itself enough to immortalize that body.

"No one," declared Col. Mansur, "dare assail the income tax. Neither Reed, McKinley nor Harrison has said a word against it. It is something they do not wish to attack, for they are presidential aspirants."

A Capable Man Required.

Few of the county offices are more complicated or need more competent men to conduct them than that of auditor. In this office is needed a thoroughly capable man, and even a well qualified man must have had previous experience in that line of work to make a good official; for the more or less complicated duties cannot be picked up in a day or a month, but one must get onto the routine of the office by actual observation, as it may come to his notice from day to day. Mr. John W. Troy, our present auditor, and candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, has the advantage of two years experience, and is now thoroughly acquainted with the working of that office. He is a young man of unreproachable character and rare ability, and, we feel sure, has always labored in the interest of the county. He is by great odds the better man of those who have announced themselves as his opponents, and should receive the support of the west end regardless of political faith.—Beaver Leader.

Prominent Lumbermen Lease the Dry Creek Mills,

AND THE STUMPAGE ON THE FINE

Colony Tract, Comprising 600 Acres of the Finest Body of Cedar in Western Washington—The Leases are Experienced Lumbermen and Command the Financial Resources Necessary to Operate on an Extensive Scale—Will Employ About 200 Men.

In the last issue of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER an article was published relative to the pending negotiations by prominent lumbermen, Messrs. Loggie & Evans, of Seattle, for the lease from the owners of the Dry Creek mill, and for a stumpage contract on 600 acres of the colony tract surrounding the mills. THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER has obtained the information from a reliable source that these negotiations have been prosecuted to a successful issue, a lease of the Dry Creek mill for a long period and a stumpage contract on 600 acres of colony land have been secured, all persons interested in these personal and real properties, having consented to the conditions of the lease and of the contract.

The leases, Messrs Loggie & Evans, are experienced lumbermen, with sufficient financial resources to operate the mills on a far more extensive scale then they hitherto have been run. They will not, however, assume control of the mills until the 1st of December next, as the present manager and receiver, Mr. Thos. Malony, cannot satisfactorily adjust and settle the affairs of the company before such time.

The new management propose to inaugurate extensive changes and improvements, which will greatly increase the capacity of the mills, economize in labor and otherwise facilitate matters at the mills and in the camps.

Among the important improvements contemplated will be the erection of two dry kilns, a large warehouse, the construction of a new tramway, from the mill to the spit, and the introduction of improved machinery in the mills. It is expected that steady employment will be give to 200 men, in the mills and in the camps.

Mr. Loggie will be the resident manager, and has already rented the Rushworth residence at the east end.

These gentlemen have, it is understood, an extended Eastern market and will have a ready demand for all of the cedar shingles and lumber they can manufacture. This is the development of legitimate industry. Let it expand and the labor problem will be solved as far as Port Angeles and Clallam county are concerned.

Commissioners Meet.

OCTOBER 4, 1894.

The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

The August report of A. A. Richardson, county clerk, of land proofs, examined and approved.

The board proceeded to the examination of the claims against the county and took action as indicated in register of claims.

AFTERNOON.

Hartley Goodwin appeared before the board in pursuance to service of the order of board in relation to the obstruction in the Charles Peters road in Road district, No. 7, and represented that he has not and does not intend to obstruct the said road in any manner whatever, and that as a matter of fact the said road is being improved, therefore it was ordered that the action of the board of county commissioners heretofore entered in relation to said road be recinded.

The board granted the application of Garrison & Towne and directed the county auditor to approve the bond.

ERROR'S SUBTERFUGE.

Republican Speakers Severely Criticise

THEIR POLITICAL OPPONENTS,

But Signally Fail to Point Out An Issue in the Interest of the Masses and Good Government on Which the G. O. P. Squarely Stands An Avowed Champion—Is for Priviledged Classes, This Its Leaders Do Not Deny—Populists Severely Chastised.

The Republican campaign in Clallam county was formally opened in the Opera house last Saturday evening, and if the lack of enthusiasm evidenced at the meeting is a criterion by which to judge of the possibilities of the success in the oncoming campaign of the g. o. p., the outlook is a very dismal one, indeed.

The band very inappropriately preceded the meeting with "After the Ball." More correctly speaking it would have been more appropriate and in better taste and judgment to have played the piece after the meeting.

Friday Burnside had truly for the first time in his uneventful career "touched the highest in all his greatness." It was, indeed, "the full meridian of his glory." Had an earthquake shook the Opera house to its very foundation, the audience would not have been more shocked and overcome than it was when Friday Burnside rummaged amongst the transcendent lights of Republicanism and gathered to his fond embrace Geo. C. Hatch, Esq., the able, undaunted, unterrified and of whom it had hitherto been said uncompromising foe of R. C. Wilson and his band of co-workers. Cruel, unrelenting fate had dealt unkindly with George.

Whoever has passed through the trying period of disappointment and humiliation only can truly sympathize with Mr. Hatch. Defeated, conquered, subdued, a humble supplicant in the house, not of his Father who rules above the cedars and the stars, but the frail, decaying house of Republicanism, can it be wondered meek, repentant George appears on the scene faltering and hesitating. Could it be that he at the moment was overwhelmed with a vision? Did he see in the distance the form of courageous, undaunted "Bill" Hoole appear, pleadingly, entreatingly, beckoning him in the hour of trial not to abandon a sinking ship, not to forsake a true and tried friend, and is it to be wondered that standing on the threshold of doubt and fear, hesitating between duty beckoning on the one hand, fame tempting on the other, that insatiable thirst for fame and renown, should have conquered the proud and what might have been unyielding spirit of an aspiring young young politician."

George very sensible said he would refrain from alluding to the mistakes and blunders of the present administration. He then recklessly plunged into a discussion of the tariff. Told the audience the McKinley bill had been repealed. Failed to tell the issues along the line of which the Republican party was waging the present campaign. At this point George remembered that other speakers were to divide the time with him, so he very gracefully introduced who appeared in the very best of spirits and gave the audience the impression that senatorial duties fell very lightly on his shoulders, and that of the good things of this life he had his full share and relished them exceedingly. With the wonderful strides of advancement made during the past two years of Democratic reform he was more than satisfied Having caught inspiration from the sentiment of the hour shared by the shrewd business men of the country, he predicted an era of business prosperity.

The causes for the business depression through which, not only this, but the nations of the civilized world had passed, were so intricate and multitudinous that it would be difficult to define them. At least the speaker did not attempt to do so.

Washington, particularly, he believed, was suffering from too rapid growth. The speaker grieved because the poor, injured Republicans were, after six months discussion of the tariff question, no longer able to obstruct the passage of the bill. He had opposed placing lumber on the free list. Didn't allude to the present activity in the lumber market. Gloried over the record achieved by the Republican party in having rehibilitating the South. Refrained, however, from mentioning the infamous attempt by the same party to dishibilitate the South by the passage of a force bill. Deplored the duty on sugar, but did not deem it of sufficient importance to commend the Democratic party for the removal of the tax from the necessaries of life. But when the clever senator made the statement that "the Republican party is the friend of labor, and does not favor the classes but the masses," an audible murmur of doubt rippled through the large Populistic and Democratic representation of the audience. Opposed the income tax, it was an inquisitorial measure, of English origin, and should not be adopted. Of course the Republican party had adopted and imposed an income tax during the during the war. It was all right then, but could not be defended now, as it was a tax on the wealthy, the favored and privileged classes—from a Republican point of view.

Paid, unintentionally of course, an eloquent tribute to the Democratic personnel of the navy. This was really the most interesting portion of his address. The speaker shared the pride all Americans felt in the wonderful studies being made in the equipment of a navy and in the establishment of fortifications. Spoke of the repeal by the Democrats of that monstrosity, the Sherman silver bill, a creature of Republican creation. Was a bimetallist. But would submit to the coinage of the product of the American silver mines. The senator then closed his address with an invitation to the Populist to vote the Republican ticket.

Charles F. Fishback, of Seattle, was then introduced as an orator of the first magnitude, and after the speaker had finished his rambling address, there were in the audience persons convinced of the fact that the impassioned orator possessed other traits of character of which the ten commandments say, "thou shalt not." Landed "Bill" McKinley to the skies. Wanted it distinctly understood he was for the apostle of high taxes first, last and all the time. Seemed not to have awakened to the gathering stampede to Reed. Criticized in the severest terms Congressman Wilson's address while in London. Did not speak, however, of England's magnificent merchant marine, her unquestioned commercial supremacy, the result of broad, liberal and unrestricted laws of commerce. At this point the speaker unjustly and unfairly misquoted Mr. Wilson. He charged Mr. Wilson with saying in the London address that THIS government was unsafe and unstable. Mr. Wilson said nothing of the kind. This is what he said: "We are being rapidly sobered, though unappalled by the truth forced upon us that of all human governments, FREE GOVERNMENT is the most complex and difficult, and judging from the world's experience, the most uncertain and short lived. OUR INSTITUTIONS ARE STRONG, because they are deeply rooted in the past. It is for you and for us to show that, while other nations have been great in war, commerce, science and art, we can be great in all these and also great in the greatness of PERMANENT FREEDOM." Are not these the words of a patriot having abiding faith in the permanency of his country and of its institutions? Concluding from the drift of the speaker's remarks he was less interested in the great issues confronting the American people than he was in Republican ascendency. Mr. Fishback declared himself positively in favor of free silver. Did not attempt to enlighten the audience with the position of his party on that question. Presuming the omission to be unintentional and desiring to aid the gentleman in the courageous step in the direction of reform, THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER will give the record in Congress of the Republican party on the question. Here it is:

In the House July 13, 1892:
Republicans for silver..... 9
Republicans against silver..... 60

In the House August 23, 1893:
Republicans for silver..... 13
Republicans against silver.....111

In the House March 1, 1894:
Republicans for silver..... 19
Republicans against silver,..... 71

In the House April 4, 1894:
Republicans for silver..... 14
Republicans against silver..... 71

The speaker then proceeded to speak in most uncomplimentary terms and unbecoming language of the Populists. The murmurs of disapproval subdued the the speaker and he made the remarkable admission that "all is not well in this land of plenty." He said on the one hand "is organized selfishness and avarice, on the other organized selfishness," and the only salvation is through the honest and patriotic devotion to good government of free American people. Of course he thought the Republican party should be entrusted with working out this plan of salvation. But on this point his audience differed with him. This ended a delightful evening's amusement.

A MISSTATEMENT.

Samuel G. Morse, the Republican nominee for county auditor, in making his eloquent addresses to the citizens of Clallam county, makes the statement that the present auditor of Clallam county, who is his Democratic opponent, has not fulfilled his pledges to the people of Clallam county that he would run the office with only $200 per month for deputy hire.

Mr. Morse misstates facts. Except for some extra work, expertíng tax records, made necessary by legislation enacted subsequent to the last election, and for about $150 expense, during the rush, incident to the throwing open of the government townsite reservation, the work has been done at the price pledged. Besides this, the estimate made two years ago was based on the volume of business then being transacted. Since that time the recording has increased over 30 per cent., and the volume of county business has increased to a greater extent. This latter was greatly argumented during the first six months of the present year, on account of the numerous gangs of men who were given employment on the roads near Angeles, who were issued time checks several times a week, which necessitated a complicated check system of keeping books.

It is not over-estimation to say that two-thirds of one man's time was occupied for five months on account of this alone. And again, the county auditor has written up an index covering the records of Clallam county, for three years—from 1889 to 1892. This was made necessary by the original index having actually fallen to pieces.

Now Mr. Morse, it would seem, should be the last man who aspires for the position of auditor, to make such statements as these on such a bare thread of excuse. His audacity can be accounted for only because he knows nothing about the matter, and it is extremely doubtful if he would be able to find out anything about it if he should make an examination of the records in the auditor's office.

It will be remembered that about six years ago at a Republican convention convened at Dungeness, Mr. Morse's name was proposed for county auditor. In declining to permit the use of his name for that position, Mr. Morse frankly stated, as his reason, that he was not competent to discharge the duties of that office. Those who know Mr, Morse believe that he then told the truth.

SPEAK THE TRUTH, MR. WILSON.

On his recent political mission to Townsend Mr. R. C. Wilson of this city, Republican candidate for joint senator, unbosomed himself to a representative of the Leader of that city

The gentleman very cleverly assumes the unique role of an inexperienced politician. His exceeding modesty stands out in bold relief as the dominating trait of a truly subtle nature. Excessive modesty is a mighty powerful weapon and when accompanied with impenetrable silence, no one familiar with this gentleman's lack of force as a public speaker, will question the depth of the tact and judgment displayed. Against the unique position so becomingly assumed, THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER urges not the slightest objection. It will not be its funeral. And with Chas. D. Ulmer, sr., of local political fame and significance, it will not appear as a pall bearer.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER, however, desires at this point to call the attention of Mr. Wilsen to a glaring discrepancy on the side of truth in his reference in the Townsend interview to the Clallam Democracy. The following extract is taken from the article referred to:

* * * * "The Democrats put up a ticket in Clallam county for trading purposes, and they do not expect to elect more than three men on it. The others will be traded right and left for these three."

A very grave charge, indeed, and a remarkable statement eminating from the source it did, as the Democracy of Clallam had reason to believe, judging from the attitude assumed by this gentleman, that it would receive fair and honorable treatment.

These charges are absolutely untrue, and if Mr. Wilson has unwittingly unfolded the plan of campaign adopted by the Republican party of Clallam, the candidates doomed to merciless slaughter, should strive to evert the terrible fate overhanging them.

If Mr. Wilson would escape the designation of an unscruplous politician with the polish and cunning of a Quay, he should, when alluding to his political opponents, speak the truth.

FROM A BUSINESS POINT OF VIEW.

Doubtless one of the most unfavorable signs of the times is the almost utter indifference or insensibility of the people to the vigorous, wholesome, honest and economical administration of the affairs of county and state.

Too frequently the elevation of the individual to public office, is the opportunity long and industriously sought for private gain rather than public advantage. And the logical result of an administration permeated and tainted with the polluted breath of rascals and traitors to the trust reposed in them, is the expose of a series of public scandals, of jobbery and of misappropriation of county funds.

At this point the reader should be overwhelmed with the vital importance of electing men to administer the affairs of the county who are honest, capable and positive business men. Men of affairs, men of capacity and men whose hearts are permeated through and through with sound, reasonable, correct and generally accepted ideas of business. This important office should be removed from the sphere of uncertainty; of experimental folly and from designing and vicious influence.

There never was a time in the history of Clallam county when the taxpayers were so thoroughly aroused to the imperative need of everting the impending calamity.

To the taxpayers who earnestly desire rigid economy and the strictest honesty in the management of of the affairs of the county the Democratic candidates for commissioners are recommended. They are men of affairs, of positive convictions, of wholesome business ideas. And for the honest, economical administration by such men of the county's affairs, the taxpayers have banded and will labor ardently and untiringly until the 6th day of November, when a grand and worthy cause will triumph in glorious victory.

THE Beaver Leader is right. The people of Clallam county should defeat all those who are attempting to control Clallam county by such methods of bribery as are some of the Republican nominees in this county. It is a notorious fact that men were hired to vote at Republican primaries, and are now being hired to vote for the Republican nominees who bought the convention which convened Sept. 8th last.

This must be sat down upon. The Republican party of Clallam county has become corrupt. A dangerous gang is attempting to buy themselves into office. To defeat their scheme is the duty of the hour, and the only way to do this is to vote for the Democratic county ticket.

A REPUBLICAN journal has discovered that at one time in the vague past the public utterances of Mr. Heuston, Democratic candidate for congress were unfriendly to silver legislation. The truth of the charge is seriously to be questioned, but, even if true, what of it? Which is the greater force, the man or the party? It is a fact of history that the record of the Republican is one opposed to free silver, while history teaches us the Democratic party has always championed this cause. It is not the utterances of the individual but the public record of the party which will influence the voter.

THE editor of the Tribune-Times courted the favor of the commissioners during the last session of the board, solely for the purpose of securing the printing of the election tickets. Two years ago the taxpayers paid this superanuated public plunderer $600 to print the election tickets, fully $200 more than the work was worth. What a pity the scheme failed.

THE editor of the Tribune-Times says that he is not a candidate for public office. It isn't his fault, either. He laid the wires to capture the legislative nomination. The Republican convention did the rest. Result: Embree, 66 votes; Ulmer, 25 votes. No. He isn't a candidate for public office.

THE best kind of legislative material is a man who is honest and capable of weighing matters which come before the legislature well, and who then casts his vote right. Such a man is Mr. R. T. Smith. Vote for him.

THE Tribune-Times suggests that the county auditor take around one of the type-writers and exhibit it in his campaign for reelection. The only difficulty we see about this is that the only typewriter in the court house that is not in use is the one ordered by Mr. S. G. Morse for the sheriff's office, and doubtless he will want to use it as an argument why he should be elected county auditor.

POOR EMBREE! He unwittingly defeated the editor of the Tribune-Times in the legislative race for the nomination before the Republican convention. Now witness the cheerful support that broad-gauged journal extends him?

FOR the support of the Tribune-Times it has cost Mr. Wilson several hundred dollars. Isn't it about time that journal gave the voter one substantial reason why he should vote for Mr. Wilson?

THE Tribune-Times filched nearly seven thousand dollars for public printing from the pockets of the taxpayers of the county during a former Republican administration. It wants to repeat the dose.

THE new mayor will make a heroic effort to reduce municipal expenses. Cut the running expenses of the city in two, Mr. Beam, and you will receive the endorsement of nine-tenths of the taxpayers.

MR. EMBREE defeated the editor of the Tribune-Times in the race for the legislative nomination. This doubtless accounts for the generous support that journal extends Mr. Embree.

WHAT generous support the Tribune-Times extends the Republican candidate for county school superintendent. Doubtless Mr. Taylor has not yet paid for editorial space iin that journal.

EVEN the candidates who were silly enough to pay for the editorial advertising space in the Tribune-Times are thoroughly nauseated with the ill-ground grist.

THE Tribune-Times concludes that it is not necessary to discuss the McKinley bill. The American people reached the same conclusion in '92.

As a political unit Chas. D. Ulmer, sr., is a superb figure in politics.

Subject to Pain in the Stomach.

"My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhœa. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing did him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhœa or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex." 25 and 50 cent bottles for for sal, by J. C. "For Years,"

Says CARRIE E. STOCKWELL, of Chesterfield, N. H., "I was afflicted with an extremely severe pain in the lower part of the chest. The feeling was as if a ton weight was laid on a spot the size of my hand. During the attacks, the perspiration would stand in drops on my face, and it was agony for me to make sufficient effort even to whisper. They came suddenly, at any hour of the day or night, lasting from thirty minutes to half a day, leaving as suddenly; but, for several days after, I was quite prostrated and sore. Sometimes the attacks were almost daily, then less frequent. After about four years of this suffering, I was taken down with bilious typhoid fever, and when I began to recover, I had the worst attack of my old trouble I ever experienced. At the first of the fever, my mother gave me Ayer's Pills, my doctor recommending them as being better than anything he could prepare. I continued taking these Pills, and so great was the benefit derived that during nearly thirty years I have had but one attack of my former trouble, which yielded readily to the same remedy."

A World's Tribute.

America Leads the Nations in the March of Progress.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the Butterfly social given by the Ladies Aid Society of Lincoln Heights at the Hall last Wednesday evening. An interesting program was rendered. The audience was then entertained by social games, while the ladies prepared the supper. Much credit is due them for the delicious lunch that was served. Over eighty people were present and all report a delightful time.

JOTTINGS FROM DUNGENESS.

The Dungeness Trading Co. are paying 26 cents for eggs.

Mr. H. J. Lipsett went to Victoria on Tuesday by steamer Evangel.

During the storms of last week thousands of ducks were driven in close to shore and sportsmen had a picnic.

Mr. Robert Hoods' new house is assuming shape. It is enclosed and roofed and the plasters have began their work.

A great many Indians have been recently camping at the mouth of the Dungeness river. They were homeward bound from the hop fields.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lipsett and C. F. Seal were guests of Capt. Hatch on the Steamer Monticello for Seattle on Saturday evenig. They returned on Monday morning.

We notice from Seattle papers that a marriage license was issued on Saturday last in King county to John Grant Rollins of Dungeness and Ida M. Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reay and daughter have been in Dungeness for a week attending to business matters. Their present home is in the Chimacum valley near Port Angeles.

During the past week considerable thieving has been going on in Dungeness and adjacent districts. About 100 feet of good rope at Lipsett's barn, used for hoisting purposes, was cut down and taken.

There seems to be an element of lawlessness in Dungeness of late, and also a good deal of profanity, vulgarity and drunkenness. If we wish the good name of Dungeness maintained there must be reform in this respect.

Mr. Geo. Hunt has as neat a little home as can be found in all the Dungeness country. He recently purchased two lots from the land company, moving his house and improving the same with a neat and tasty porch and fence. The location is a very sightly one.

The Dungeness Trading Co., are purchasing for cash, and have every advantage the markets afford in this respect as a consequence they can sell goods lower than any other house, and judging from the activity about their store from early in the morning until late at night, it is evident the low prices are appreciated.

Miss Amil Van Woerman expects to retura to her home on Whidby Island in about two weeks. She accompanied Capt. Horne's daughter on a trip on the Willapa to the mouth of the Quillayute River on Friday last and reports a very enjoyable time. The Willapa had a full cargo of freight for Frank Balch, the Quillayute merchant.

We notice very many people coming to Dungeness this fall to do their trading sell their products and lay in their winter supplies. The citizens of Clallam are just finding out that they can do better by trading in Dungeness than anywhere else on the west side of the Sound, and prices even compare with those of Seattle. Messrs. Seal and Lipsett.

Rev. Robt. E. Lee, the new pastor, arrived in Dungeness on Saturday last on the steamer Monticello, accompanied by his family and bringing at the same time his household furniture. Dungeness people are well pleased with the earnestness and frankness of the man and we bespeak for him many friends and a good work. A reception will be tendered him on Friday evening.

Mrs. Leora Rollins, wife of C. P. Rollins, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cays passed away in Port Townsend on Monday, after a long and painful illness. Her remains were brought to Dungeness on Tuesday, and at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday the funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Rev. Lee officiating. A large concourse of relatives and friends were present. The remains were interred in the Dungeness cemetery.

The annual meeting of the Groveland Improvement Company was held in Dungeness on the the 11th inst. The following directors were elected: C. F. Seal, H. S. Lipsett, Geo. N. G. Davis, Wm. Bishop and W. W. Felger. The company is now in a prosperous and thriving condition and now that the manager Mr. Seal has taken up his residence in Dungeness and the five year lease on the property expiring the business and interests of the company will be carefully looked after.

ANOTHER FOREIGN CARGO.

Local Mills Get An Order From Honolulu for 700,000 Feet of Lumber.

Through the energy and enterprise of the managers of the local mills Port Angeles secures another foreign cargo of rough and finished lumber, comprised of 700,000 feet, together with an order for 180 doors and 200 windows.

Mr. J. M. Bickal, of the firm of Lathrop & Bickal, Honolulu, was in the city early in the week, for the purpose of closing pending negotiations for this general cargo of building lumber. The flooring, rustic and other finishing lumber will be furnished by Manager Ellsworth, of the Colchy mill, and will comprise, approximately, 350,000 feet; the rough lumber will be filled by Manager Lambert of the Red Cedar Shingle and Lumber Manufacturing Company, and the doors and windows will be supplied by Mr. J. M. Martin.

The magnitude, value and excellence of Clallam's timber is not only dawning upon its citizens, but the outside world as well is beginning to realize and to appreciate the fact, that the county possesses an abundant supply of superior merchantable timber.

Any person who honestly believes in the utilization of the natural resources of the county cannot fail to appreciate and welcome as a favorable omen the unmistakable gathering activity in the development of its timber resources.

With its mills running to their utmost capacity, filling orders for foreign cargoes, with an increasing demand for its shingles, with prominent lumber merchants negotiating the lease of the Dry creek mills, the prospects are, indeed, very flattering and encouraging for long continued and increasing activity in this important industry.

Death of Mrs. C. P. Rollins.

The death of Mrs. C. P. Rollins, of Dungeness, which occurred at Townsend last Tuesday, while not entirely unexpected, is a severe shock to the many friends of this estimable woman in Dungeness and in Clallam county.

The second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cays of Dungeness, where she grew up from childhood, her untimely demise will be mourned by the friends of her childhood and young womanhood.

The funeral occurred at Dungeness last Wednesday at 1 o'clock p. m., and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, who, with THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER, extend the bereaved family sympathy in their hour of affliction.

THE SOCIETY FOLK OF EDGEWOOD

Entertained Their Friends With a Grand Ball Last Saturday Evening.

The grand ball given by the young gentlemen of Edgewood last Saturday was a grand success. The attendance was good, the music excellent and the dancing floor in good condition. The ball well nigh developed into a Democratic dance, though, the Populists and Republicans present had a good time.

A bountiful luncheon was spread at midnight, after which all wended their way homeward, wishing that when night was created, that its hours had been made longer. A great many were present from Port Angeles and neighboring localities.

Those present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames A. L. Johnson, M. H. Miller, W. J. O'Brien, W. Eacrett, A. McFarland, B. T. Smith, B. G. Wilcox, F. Harris, J. W. Troy, Chas. Lusk, Geo. Jackson, Mrs. Madison, Mrs. Goodwin, Misses Luella Hall, Ella Guptill, Maggie Guptill, Mamie Love, Blanche Hitch, Theresa Graham, Alice Nailor, Ethel Miller, Joe Lusk, Jennie Johnson, Birdie Malony, Alice Eacrett, Maggie Dowd, Messrs. P. J. Wiley, Frank Fisher, W.E. Van Allen, M. J. Clump, Al. Eacrett, Richard Eacrett, Roy Madison, W. A. Gay, John Ferguson, Wm. Leonard, Alex Watt, H. Beack, James Gallagher, T. Harrington, Ed. Barrett, Geo. White, Jr., Peter McGoff, Fred Reynolds, Elmer Keltz, W. Doyle, Alden Goodwin, Chas. Forsberg, Geo. Jacobs and Paul Pfister.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Important Meeting of Democratic State Executive Committee.

The Democratic State Central committee had a meeting in Tacoma on October 6th, at which much of the preliminary work of the campaign was outlined. A sub-committee, whose duty it will be to look after the election of members of the state legislature, consisting of H. J. Snively, of North Yakima, E. P. Hall, of Whatcom, and Thos. Maloney, of Port Angeles, was appointed. This committee organized by selecting Thos. Malony, chairman, and E. P. Hill, secretary.

Encouraging reports from every county in the state have been received by Chairman Henry Drum, and although the campaign will be a short one, it will be one of vigor and energy.

The list of speakers for the state Democracy will include James Hamilton Lewis, Will H. Thompson, H. J. Snively, L. C. Gilman, Thos. Carroll, LeRoy Palmer, Chas. S. Voorhees, L. T. Jones, L. Plattar, W. M. Starr, and others.

If you have sick or nervous headache, take Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They will cleanse the stomach, restore healthy action to the digestive organs, remove effete matter, the presence of which depresses the nerves and brain, and thus gives speedy relief.

Clashing of Authorities.

A clashing of authorities between the superintendent of the city schools and the directors of the district have caused not a little trouble, inconvenience, arrogance and hard feeling. The superintendent assumed the authority was delegated to him to asign the several teachers in the public schools their respective duties. The directors took exception to this assumption of authority on the part of the superintendent and positively maintain that to them is specifically delegated such authority, and in defense of their position quote from page 11 of the Rules and Regulations adopted for the government of the schools, which reads as follows:

"The superintendent shall be the executive officer of the board of directors, shall have general supervision of the schools, and school property of the city, and shall be especially charged with the enforcement of the rules of the board."

The trouble arose over the superintendent assigning Miss Guptill the eighth grade in the central school. This, the directors maintain, was directly in conflict with their express wishes, as this excellent teacher had been expressly engaged by them as principal of the Lincoln street school.

The superintendent, however, denied the right of the directors to interfere with the management of the schools.

The decision of the directors temporarily prevailed and the pupils from the eighth grade were dismissed. At this point in the controversy feeling was running quite high, and the pupils evidenced, very decidedly, a wish for the retention of Miss Guptil as their teacher and they circulated petitions which were quite generally signed.

The petitions were presented to the board at a meeting held Monday evening, but the wish of the petitioners was not granted, as, the members of the board maintained that the retention of Miss Guptil in the Central school would necessitate the services of another teacher, and the expenses of the district had already touched high water mark.

After considerable discussion on either side, the directors agreed to abide the wishes of the taxpayers. If the latter signify a desire to have Miss Guptill retained in the Central school, the board would most cheerfully submit. Here the matter rests and will finally be settled to-morrow afternoon.

Signal Service Changes.

There has been a number of changes in the signal service in Western Clallam. The resignation of Mr. R. S. Dimmick of East Clallam has been accepted, and Jas. P. Fallihee, formerly of Pysht, has been transferred to East Clallam. This necessitated the removal of Mr. R. S. Smith from Gettysburg to Pysht. The position at Gettysburg will be filled by Mr. Sands of East Clallam.

THE ELLA JOHNSON ARRIVES.

A Port Angeles Boat Catches 1226 Seals On Her Initial Voyage.

The schooner Ella Johnson, which was built on the Colony ways at the east end, and therefore, strictly speaking, a Port Angeles boat, and is still owned by Capt. John Johnson, of this city, met with flattering success on her sealing cruise in Bering sea, having captured 1226 seals.

She sailed north on the 3d day of last July, arriving at the point of destination on the 9th of August. She was commanded by Captain Miner, and carried a crew comprised of twenty-four Indians. She sailed from the sealing grounds on the return trip on the 16th of August, having met with remarkable success, capturing a cargo ot seals worth fully $10,000, and arrived in these waters Thursday, the 4th inst.

The Ella Johnson was chartered by Capt. Nixon, of Seattle, the owner of ill-fated schooner Henry Dennis, wrecked off the Japan coast some time ago.

Capt. Johnson feels justly proud of the splendid record achieved by his boat on her initial trip north.

Another fortunate individual of local renown, who reaped fame and fortune in the world of the princely seal, was Elwha Jim, who cleared the handsome sum of $600 in commissions on seals captured by this dexterous and unfailing spearsman.

THE EAST CLALLAM MILL.

E. F. Donahoe Is Now the Sole Proprietor of This Valuable Property.

It will be seen from notices published in this issue that Michael Earles has sold all his interest in the firm of Earles ffi Donahoe to his partner, E. F. Donahoe, and in all the other enterprises in which he and Mr. Donahoe were jointly engaged at East Clallam, in order to devote his entire attention to the valuable contract for the construction of the Monterey & Fresno railroad in California.

The property which Mr. Earles has sold includes his interest in the Clallam sawmill, with some valuable timber lands; the Clallam Land and Investment Company, the Clallam Bay Boom Company, the general merchandise store and hotel here, and some Port Townsend real estate. Mr. Donahoe will hereafter operate this property alone.

The contract on which Mr. Earles is now engaged is held by the firm of McLean & Earles, and provides for the construction of forty-six miles of road from Monterey to Fresno through the Salinas and San Juan valleys, one of the most fertile and productive sections of California. The firm has about two hundred men at work and has about ten miles of grade ready for tracklaying.—Record.

BEAVER RANCHER SUICIDES.

Blew the Top of His Head Off With a Rifle.

Charles Brenton, a rancher living on Lake Pleasant, one and one-half miles from Beaver, killed himself by placing the muzzle of a rifle in his mouth last Sunday afternoon, and blowing the top of his head off. He was alone at the time. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon that J. E. Higgins and wife went to Brenton's house and found him dead in the manner described. From appearances he had paused in the act of cooking supper to commit the deed of self destruction.

The only cause that can be assigned is that he was despondent. An inquest was held by Justice Lamoreux on Monday, and a verdict of suicide rendered.

The wife of deceased has been living at Everett, but had been expected down here this week. She arrived Wednesday evening and went out to the ranch. Brenton was buried on Wednesday.

The Jewish Day of Atonement.

The Jewish Day of Atonement was properly observed by the Jewish citizens of this city last Wednesday.

The American Hebrew News, of Portland, says that the great Day of Atonement is the only fast day prescribed in the Pentateuck, and the idea is that of "covering over" sins. The gates of repentance are always open, but once every year, on the Day of Atonement, there was an impressive presentation of the putting away of sin by means of propitiation. At the present time the observance of the day is proceeded by forty days, in which, every morning and evening, trumpets are blown throughout the world wherever there are non-reformed Jewish communities.

COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Paragraphs Gathered From the County Press.

East Clallam Record.]

Work will shortly be resumed on the church and the building finished.

Henry Poole is getting a house built opposite his livery stable on Quillayute street, 12x20 feet in size to contain an office and sleeping apartment.

Geo. Lamb left on Monday to attend county commissioners' meeting at Angeles this week. The principal business of the session will be the appointment of election officers.

Frank Edwards and J. W. Jackson, while coming up from the Sekiou last Saturday, killed a sea lion on the beach about two miles below the bay. The animal was apparently wounded and unable to get back into the water from shore.

Three boys, Will and John Whiting and H. Elrod, drifted out of the river on a raft last Monday and were carried a short distance on the bay before they were rescued. Billy Whiting had fallen overboard and was clinging to a piece of driftwood when Frank Edwards went out with a boat and took the boys in.

A. C. Cook, the mill man, arrived here last week from Michigan, on business connected with the Hoko sawmill. His stay was short as he left for the east on Monday night. It is understood that the mill site at the mouth of the Hoko, comprising twenty acres, has been purchased from A. Colby. Mr. Cook stated that he did not wish to say anything at present regarding the plans of his company.

Beaver Leader.]

Fifty Neah Bay Siwashes are camping on the spit at Pysht. They are making some large salmon catches. 1115 were taken in one haul Thursday.

Wm. Kerr, while at work last week, got one of his legs caught between two logs as they were be rolled together, and the knee joint was severely bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken.

James Newberry, trapper and hunter from the Humptulips, was on the river this week, looking for trapping grounds for the winter. He found enough beaver "works" to pay him to locate here, and he will return in a few weeks with his traps.

One man with the good, honest judgment of Donald McInnes is worth a dozen lawyers, to represent Clallam county in the legislature.

The road between the postoffice and the prairie is again badly in need of repairs. Only last week one of the mail carrier's horses got down and succeeded in coming around right side up only after several minutes of lustily yelling and vigorous kicking by Mr. Klahn. Our road supervisor should look after this piece of road at once, before some accident happens and a damage suit entered. A stitch in time, etc.

The more lawyers you send to the legislature the more litigation you will have; for it is by litigation that lawyers live. Will they make laws for the people or will they frame measures that will benefit themselves?

The fair at the Boston school house last Saturday was largely attended and was a grand success.

Dislocated His Shoulder.

Drs. Lewis and Lull were summoned last Friday when the Willipa arrived for surgical attendance, the chief engineer, Mr. Adams, having dislocated his shoulder in a fall through the hatchway. The injured member was reset and the unfortunate man resting as comfortably as could be expected when the steamer steamed away. He did not, however, accompany the steamer west, but remained in the city several days.

And From a Republican Journal, Too.

It is claimed that R. C. Wilson and Benton Embree, in order to get the support of the Tribune-Times, were compelled to pay to that paper more money than their entire salary amounts to for their full term. This is outside of what they will have to pay for campaign assessments and expenses. Can the Republicans of this county afford to send such men to the legislature and give them an opportunity to make laws that will return to them these enormous sums they are paying out to secure their election? Give us honest legislators.—Beaver Leader.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The Democratic Party of Clallam county, Washington, in convention assembled, do hereby make and promulgate this, their platform and principles:

We, the representatives of the Democratic party of Clallam county reaffirm our allegiance to the grand principles of Jeffersonian democracy believing that good government can be brought about only by a strict adherance thereto.

We heartily endorse the efforts of President Cleveland and the house of Representatives, together with those members of the United States Senate who remained true to the last Chicago platform, in their earnest efforts at the destruction of the McKinley robber tariff; which earnest and noble efforts were so corruptly and shamefully impeded, and where possible, thwarted by the large Republican minority allied with a few political motebanks, who have stolen the livery of Democracy in which to serve their Republican masters

TARIFF.

We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, sufficient to furnish necessary funds for the efficient conduct of our government economically administered. For the abolition of all tariff taxes upon the common necessaries of life and raw material, and we heartily endorse the income provision of the Wilson bill.

FINANCE.

We favor the free coinage of both gold and silver, the latter at a ratio of sixteen to one, and demand that all money be a full legal tender for all purposes, to the end that there shall no longer be one kind of money for the capitalist and another for the poor.

We favor the enactment of laws requiring county treasurers to receive all county warrants for taxes due said counties or any municipality therein of which municipality such treasurer is ex-officio tax collector irrespective of the date of their issue, such laws to run for a term of years safely sufficient to extend beyond the present hard times.

We demand the repeal of the iniquitous statutes enacted by the last legislature, which permits attorneys to issue summons without the seal or sanction of a judicial tribunal, to serve the same, and collect and retain the fees therefor, thereby depriving the county treasury of of the cost of said issuance and service, though the cost of to litigants is not lessened thereby, and the taxpayers of the several counties of the state are compelled to keep and pay officers whose duties are to issue and serve such paper.

We favor the enactment of laws confining the salaries of all county officers who collect fees from the public for their services within a reasonable amount and in no case to exceed the actually collected by them, thereby relieving the overburdened people from the payment of salaries to such officers or their deputies out of the county treasurer.

We urge the enactment of laws prohibiting the recovery of deficiency judgments by money lenders upon the foreclosure of real estate mortgages.

We favor the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people and pledge the nominees of this convention to do all in their power to help bring about such legislation as will carry this resolution into effect.

We demand the passage of a maximum expense bill law governing the expenditures a candidate for any office may make in conducting his canvas and rigid enough to disqualify any one violating it, thus placing a poor man on an equality with the rich man when canvassing for an office.

We deplore the existence in our state and county of powerful political rings who seek to control the affairs of government for the benefit and aggrandizement of their members by the distribution of their offices, and of money where they will "do the most good," the the machinations of which are responsible for the disgraceful proceedings which have characterized the Republican primaries and conventions in Clallam county and other positions of this state.

We most earnestly condemn the present iniquitous delinquent tax law and pledge ourselves to the enactment of a law whereby no delinquent tax shall bear a greater interest than eight per cent. per annum, nor a heavier penalty than two per cent. and make the period of redemption of land sold for taxes not less than ten years.

We condemn the Republican party for its useless waste of time and the people's money during the session of the last legislature in attempting to elect a United States senator.

We condemn the action of the present governor in his attempt at packing the state capitol commission in the interest of jobs and jobbers.

We condemn such class legislation as will provide a cash warrant for an official, and a depreciated warrant for the common laborer.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."—T. D. M., Norcatur, Kans.

SUMMONS.

In the Superior Court of Clallam County State of Washington.

Sallie A. Darnell, Plaintiff.
Andrew J. Darnell, Defendant.

State of Washington, County of Clallam. } ss

The State of Washington to Andrew J. Darnell, the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned and required to appear within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, answer the complaint in the above entitled action and serve a copy of your answer on Benton Embree, the person whose name is subscribed to this summons as the attorney for the above named plaintiff, at the place specified following his said name, that is to say, at the city of Port Angeles, in Clallam county, State of Washington, in which place there is a postoffice, and defend the above entitled action in the above entitled court; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you, according to the demand of the complaint which is now on file with the clerk of said court.

The first publication of this summons will be made on the 24th day of August, 1894, and will be published once each week thereafter for six consecutive weeks, and the service of this summons will be deemed complete at the expiration of said six weeks.

BENTON EMBREE,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

Postoffice Address: Port Angeles, Clallam County, State of Washington.

Notice for Publication.

United States Land Office, Seattle, Wash., Sept. 7th, 1894.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled, "An Act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, of Port Angeles, county of Clallam, state of Washington has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 6469, for the purchase of the Lots 2 and 3, of section No. 28, in township No. 30 north, range No. 9 west, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver, of this office at Seattle, Washington, on Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1894.

JAMES G. McCLINTON,

He names as witnesses: Edward A. Barnes and Paul Barnes, of Fairholme, and Arthur A. Smith and William W. Dedman, of Port Angeles, all of Clallam county, Washington.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 29th day of November, 1894.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Washington, entitled "An Act to provide for voting on a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1894, relative to the investment of the permanent school fund," approved February 6, 1893, that the following amendment to Section 5, of Article XVI, of the Constitution of the State of Washington will be submitted to the qualified electors of said state for their approval at the next general election:

Section 5.—None of the permanent school fund of this state shall ever be loaned to private persons or corporations, but it may be invested in national, state, county, municipal or school district bonds." That there shall be printed on all the ballots supplied for said election the words, "For proposed amendment to Section 5, Article XVI, of Constitution, relative to investment of permanent school fund. Against proposed amendment to Section 5, Article XVI of Constitution, relative to investment of permanent school fund." At said election each elector shall vote for or against said amendment by crossing out part of the ballot in such a manner that the remaining part shall express his vote on the question submitted.

IN WITNESS whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the State, this 24th day of July, 1894.
