FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Again Suspends Payment and the Appointment of a

RECEIVER URGENTLY DEMANDED

By the Management of That Institution, as the Stockholders Desire That it Shall Liquidate and Permanently Wind Up Its Affairs—Its Liabilities Are $10,200, and Its Assets $71,200—Several Applicants for the Position of Receiver—The Council Awards the Contract for Clearing the Cemetery.

Bank Examiner Chas. Cleary arrived last Wednesday, for the purpose of assuming charge of the First National Bank of this city, pending the appointment of a receiver by Comptroller Eckles.

The action taken by Examiner Cleary has been persistently urged by the management of the bank for more than a month past, as the course was considered the most prudent and business-like, after deliberate consideration of the affairs of that institution. During the past sixty days the management of the bank has been subject to constant threats from uneasy creditors, who have demanded payment, otherwise they would immediately begin action in the courts for the collection thereof. The management of the bank has done everything in its power to avoid litigation, as it fully realized that it meant the ultimate absorption of the resources of the bank, should it become entangled in the meshes of the law. Intelligently and conservatively managed it has abundant resources not only to liquidate its liabilities, but to reimburse the stockholders as well.

Ever since the bank resumed payment this has been the course unerringly pursued, and as an evidence of the eminent degree in which the plan has succeeded the statement of the present condition of that institution will eloquently attest. At the time the bank suspended payment its liabilities amounted to $104,000. Its present assets are conservatively placed at $71,200, while its liabilities are only $10,200 or thereabouts. Since resuming payment the management has liquidated $94,000 of its liabilities, a more favorable showing than can be presented by any national banking institution which has passed through similar financial embarrassments during the recent panic.

If the assets are preserved and properly applied to the payment of the liabilities, the creditors will not only be paid in full, but the stockholders will, as well, realize something from the wreck. To accomplish as much the appointment of a receiver has been applied for.

The local applicants for the position are Messrs. M. J. Carrigan, Chas. E. Mallette and R. C. Wilson, and should the appointment fall to a local applicant it would be exceedingly difficult to guess the favored one. It is more than likely, however, that the appointment will go abroad.

At the Council.

At the regular meeting of the city council last Wednesday evening Mayor Mallette and Councilmen Harding, Graybill, Stewart, Munro. Lamoreux and Shelton were present.

The ditch and flume on Pine street hill were ordered repaired under the supervision of the street commissioner.

A 16-candle incandescent light was ordered adjusted at the corner of Front and Oak streets, by the electric light manager.

Councilman Harding, of the cemetery committee reported that he had been over the cemetery site, and was of the opinion that 18th street would be the most practicable route for public a highway into the cemetery grounds. The report was accepted.

The report of Electric Light Manager Hall was read. The receipts for March were $129; expenditures, $115.40, gain over last month $13.60. The report was referred to the electric light committee.

There were nine bids submitted for slashing and clearing the public cemetery. The lowest bidder agreed to do the work for $15.75 per acre, and the highest for $43. The bid of John Hallahan being the lowest, viz, $920, it was moved by Councilman Lamoreux that it be accepted. The motion carried. The successful bidder agrees to slash and clear 58 3-10 acres at $15.75 per acre, which is, judging from the amount of work to be performed, exceedingly reasonable.

Ordinance 223, which provides for the repealing of certain franchise ordinances, was adopted.

In the matter of the collection of certain delinquent taxes, the finance committee was instructed to confer with County Treasurer Dorsey, and ascertain what he will collect such taxes for. The council adjourned.

Smith Acquitted.

After a scant ten-minutes' deliberation the jury in the case of the State vs. R. S. Smith, brought in a verdict of acquittal last Tuesday afternoon. The defendant was on trial on the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to kill, on the person of Wm. Swan, which occurred at Gettysburg last summer.

The evidence in the case very clearly demonstrated that Smith had been provoked to the severe measures he had resorted to, as he, as well as his family, had been subjected to gross, vile and indecent taunts and outrages, and was, consequently, forced to protect the honor of his family, and his own person from the cowardly and unwarranted attack of his persecutors.

Mr. Jno. Trumbull, of Townsend, assisted County Attorney Stewart for the State, and Geo. C. Hatch, of this city, and Judge Allen, of Seattle, appeared for the defendant.

A State Bank.

As soon as the fate of the First National Bank will have been definitely determined, which at the most will only be a few days, as a receiver will, most likely, have been appointed within a week at the most, to wind up the affairs of that institution, a state bank will be established in this city, the organization of which is already perfected, the articles of incorporation having already been signed, properly executed and have only to be filed with the auditor and the secretary of the state. The incorporators, it is understood, are well-known business men of this city, who have associated with them business men from abroad of high repute and abundant financial resources to place the institution on a solid basis.

Married.

At Sequim, last Saturday, April 13, 1895, at the residence of the bride's parents by the Rev. Jonas Bushell, of this city, Mr. A. J. Smith and Miss Gertie Wright, both of that place.

The young couple are well and favorably known in the county, and have a host of friends who will wish them all possible happiness and prosperity on their new journey in life. They left the following Monday for a brief bridal tour of the Sound cities.

Surprise Party.

Mr. Orin Babcock was agreeably surprised last Tuesday evening by a number of his young friends at the home of his parents on Sixth and Race streets.

Games of various kinds, charades, etc., furnished a delightful evening's entertainment for all present. A delicious luncheon was served shortly after midnight, after which all returned to their respective homes. Among those present were:

Misses Grace Grant, Mabel Crosby, Etta Priest, Theresa Graham, Emma McLaughlin, Anna Fields, Bessie Chitwood; Mr. and Mrs. Derrickson, Messrs. A. J. Adams, Wm. J. Ware, Clarence McLaughlin, A. S. McCormick, Orin Babcock, Herbert Babcock, Ed. Shields, A. J. Cosser.

GODEN TAKES ANOTHER

Mysterious Midnight Tour and is Unceremoniously

ARRESTED BY GEO. WUNDERLICH,

When About to Enter the Premises of Al. Wilson—Wunderlich Points a Double-Barrelled Shotgun at Goden and Commands Him to Throw Up His Hands, Goden Complies With Alacrity and is Lodged in Jail—Is Tried for Insanity, Adjudged Insane and Committed to Asylum at Steilacoom.

Alex Goden, the mysterious midnight prowler, the unrestrained and indecent monomaniac, who, in the insane wanderings of his disarranged brain, imagines, or professes to imagine, that some vision of the gentler sex is constantly beckoning him to her side, the incentive from whom is, of course, invariably immoral and impure, has finally been taken care of by the ever indulgent and lenient "hand of the law," and committed to the insane asylum at Steilacoom.

Godin, for months past, has been in the habit of frequenting the homes of citizens, always confining his movements to the dark hours of the night, and only prosecuting his unsought and unwelcome visits to the homes where he positively knew the male members of the family circle were absent; then he would attempt an entrance, and when successful, would cautiously enter the sleeping apartment of the occupant, and hover at the bedside with the impressive and solemn air of a spirit from spirit land.

When the occupant was awakened; as was the case in one or two instances, and the presence of the mysterious visitor was discovered, he quickly and noiselessly glided from the room out into the night, leaving the afrighted, dumbfounded and horror-stricken occupant endeavoring to gather his scattered senses.

Several months ago Goden was brought before the Superior court on the charge of insanity, but upon examination was released, as the evidence was insufficient to commit him to the asylum.

Last Saturday night Goden started out on another of his midnight tours, having, presumably, as the objective point the home of Mr. Albert Wilson.

His presence was discovered, however, in the neighborhood by Rich Wunderlich, who concluded that his suspicious movements around the Wilson premises augured evil, and immediately informed his father. Mr. Wunderlich armed himself with a shotgun and started in pursuit of the midnight prowler. The mission was not in vain, as Goden was soon discovered attempting to enter the premises at the back gate. Wunderlich approached him and demanded that he "throw up his hands," which he did with an alacrity that was truly surprising. Wunderlich brought his prisoner down town, and turned him over to the marshal, who confined him in the city jail.

Last Tuesday Goden was brought before Judge McClinton on the charge of insanity. The examining board was comprised of Drs. W. W. McGeorge, W. T. Strother and A. B. Lull.

The results of the examination were that Goden was a monomaniac on the subject of receiving messages from the gentler sex, and a dangerous man to be permitted at large, as he might inflict bodily injury in his insane wanderings. He was therefore adjudged insane and committed to the asylum at Steilacoom, to which he was taken by Sheriff Dyke last Wednesday.

Bilious Colic

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic will be pleased to know that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. It acts quickly and can always be depended upon. In many cases the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

Beaver Leader.]

Hiyu salmon running.

Otto Dimmel has nearly finished getting out lumber for his restaurant which he will build in Sappho. He will frame the building next week if the weather be favorable.

Miss Kate Simpson contemplates erecting a building in Sappho for hotel purposes. She has been running the hotel at Index, for the past two years, but she intends to give it up the first of May and will then return to the valley and start up in the new town. We wish her success in her new venture.

Mr. Henry Tardel, who has located a claim on the upper Solduck, paid us a visit the first of the week. Mr. Tardel is a new comer in the valley and the sort of a settler we like to see come in. He will make extensive improvements the coming summer, and convert some of the forests thereabout into farm land.

Samuel Irwin, of Forks, was in Beaver Sunday and Monday. He came to look up a good location in Sappho for his livery stable, which he will put up this spring. Mr. Irwin is one of our most popular freighters, and having quite a lot of freighting to do for people in this vicinity he proposes to build a barn for his own use, and for the accommodation of travelers.

East Clallam Record.]

Several cases of the grip are reported in town.

Fred Knott, of the logging company at Twin Rivers was here on Monday. A crew of about 15 men are at work.

School on the west side will begin on Monday. Miss Carrie Russ has been engaged to teach a three-months' term.

Steam vessels from outside of Cape Flattery report an unusually large number of fur seals. Sealing schooners are said to be making big catches.

J. C. Cole, an army veteran who has been residing at Quillayute, was here on Monday on his way to California, where he is going to enter the Soldier's Home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Buchholz have rented the Pioneer Hotel and Restaurant building, and moved into it last Saturday. It has been furnished anew and fitted up in good style.

Geo. T. Myers, a Portland cannery man, arrived here on Wednesday. He comes with a view of establishing a fish cannery somewhere about the bay or at the Hoko, and went down to Colby's place on the river yesterday. There is a prospect of a cannery being established.

A specimen of what is known as a ratfish was found on the beach here last Monday by Mrs. C. Snyder. It is something of a curiosity, being endowed with a rat-like mouth, a shark's head, and has four legs in a bunch. R. R. Johnson secured the fish and will preserve it.

The two strangers mentioned in last week's Record as cruising the Hoko and Sekiou rivers for timber and for a place to put a logging camp, it is learned, were from Seattle, and were looking up a locality where they could obtain from twenty to thirty million feet of spruce. They talked of contracting for that amount of timber, and said the timber along the rivers here, while not as fine as they expected was as good as any they had seen in the state. What they intend doing is not known here.

Mr. Bell Surprised.

Mr. Wm. Bell was the recipient of a delightful and what really proved to be a complete surprise from his friends last Monday night, the event of his birthday.

The evening was most enjoyably spent with music and games.

Delicious refreshment were served during the evening. Those present were: Prof. and Mrs. O. A. Tiffany Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Mallette, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas, Rev. and Mrs. Jonas Bushell, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stakemiller, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ballou, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Willson, Mrs. D. C. Hibbard, Mrs. C. C. Bowman, Messrs. Jno. M. Bell, Jno. Trumbull.

Mrs. Mallette Entertains.

Mrs. Chas. E. Mallette gave a party last Friday evening in honor of her guests, the Misses Cameron and Spears of Victoria.

Features of the evening's entertainment were music, cards and charades. A dainty luncheon was served.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lutz, Mrs. S. P. Carusi, the Misses Ella Guptill, Pitts, Cameron, Spears, Haswell, Cook, Messrs. A. A. Smith, Horace White, H. C. Strong and L. R. Cole.

IMMENSE DISPLAY.

Of the Latest Novelties in Dress Fabrics at the U. S. Clothing and Dry Goods House.

Have you examined our varied display of elegant and stylish dress fabrics?

If not, it will be to your advantage, as an intending purchaser, to do so.

Our stock of dress goods, includes the very latest novelties of the Eastern markets.

And the prices. Why we defy local, and are prepared to meet up-Sound, competition on every point.

The immense sales in every department of our large establishment, during the past 30 days, most eloquently testify to the truth of this, and also abundantly evidences the fact that our liberal treatment of customers is fully appreciated.

Right here, we want to tell citizens of Port Angeles and Clallam county that the special sales we have held during the past 30 days, will be followed during the spring and summer months with other extraordinary and crushing special bargain sales, which will simply cut prices in two, and give our customers every advantage possessed by the proverbial bargain counters of the Eastern metropolises.

Next week we will close out our stock of capes, and will, consequently, offer a remarkable bargain in these garments.

Only a few pieces of Challie left. These are in attractive patterns. Only 5 cents per yard.

Our special sale of Ladies' $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 shoes for $1.00, is meeting with unqualified success.

The special sale of men's $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 shoes, for $1.00, will continue another week.

Those Gents' Dancing Pumps are rapidly going at 50 cents a pair.

These are only a few of the many special attractions in the various departments of our store, which will outshine anything in the city.

Out-of-town customers should keep these in mind, and all orders intrusted to us will be promptly and carefully filled.

If you desire the services of a fashionable dressmaker, call on Mrs. Lydia Hayden, at Mrs. Phelps' millinery store, Front street near Oak.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. No one afflicted with a throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

A Cheap Power.

And at the same time a reliable power are the points to be sought for in purchasing an engine. With steam power a constant watch on the engine is necessary to prevent accidents, and the expense for engineer is a serious item against economy. The gas or gasoline engine is by far the cheapest power, as it will run all day without attention or fear of accident, and the cost is about two cents per hour for fuel per horse-power. For intermittent power the economy of gas over steam is beyond comparison. While these points of superiority are without question, it is important in selecting an engine to get the best; the best in the long run is the cheapest. Do not fail to investigate the striking advantages of the Hercules Gas and Gasoline Engines. Send for catalogue. I you want second-hand engines of other makes at cheap rates we can supply you. We have a number taken in trade, and cannot take any more until they are realized on. PALMER & REY TYPE FOUNDRY, Front and Alder streets, Portland, Oregon.

COWARDLY AT THE BEST.

Paul Schultze, General Western Land Agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, committed suicide in Tacoma last Sunday. There was no reason assigned for the rash act, and the theory most generally held as to the cause which actuated Schulze to take his life, is financial embarrassments and undoubtedly more the humiliation resulting in his recent removal from the position of land agent—a lucrative position he had held since 1887.

The only reason assigned for Schulze's removal, is, that it is an invariable rule of that company that no head of a department shall engage in outside pursuits, and as Schulze was deely interested in and his time more or less occupied with other enterprises, his dismissal was simply the natural consequence of violating an important business rule. It almost seems inconceivable how a man of the superior intelligence, learning and culture of Schulze could ever seriously contemplate suicide as a deliverance from any misfortune, however severe and overwhelming.

At the best suicide is cowardly and any one who resorts to such desperate means to escape the severer responsibilities of life, it is seriously to be questioned if the world would not have been better had he never have been born.

SAN FRANCISCO has long borne an unenviable reputation as a city of horrible crimes. And another chapter, exceeding all others in the enormity of atrociousness and cruelty, has been enacted there, the heinousness of which modern civilization doubtless has never before witnessed. Two young women, Marian Williams and Blanche Lemont, devout members of Emanuel church of that city, were cruelly murdered in that edifice. Their horribly lacerated bodies were found in that edifice, one in a little anti-room near the altar, the other in the belfry. The shocking tragedy is surrounded with a dense mystery. While suspicion strongly points to Theodore Durrant, a young medical student, as the perpetrator of the horrible crime, the evidence is as yet only fragmentry, conflicting and insufficient.

IN concluding the peace treaty with China, Japan has not overlooked commercial advantages, and there are grave apprehensions entertained by European powers that that aggressive nation will monopolize the routes of trade of the ceded territory, to the exclusion of other countries. The European powers vitally concerned will undoubtedly assert their rights in the premises in no unmeaning way. Japan is likely to taste of the pleasure of gracefully yielding concessions to other nations. She will then in a measure realize the inexpressible pleasure she has visited on China.

SUPREMELY UNJUST.

WHILE no patriotic citizen will impugn the lofty motives, the high, unassailable character of the judges of the supreme court of the United States, the thoughtful citizen cannot refrain from wholesome criticism of the striking inconsistency and extreme injustice of the interpretation of certain laws as to their constitutionality. Particularly is this true regarding the decision of the supreme court, as to the constitutionality of the income tax law.

No one will question the soundness of the decision from a constitutional point of view. Nevertheless, the fact seems painfully apparent that a decision may be strictly within constitutional limitations and still be harshly unjust and unfair. Imagine the supreme injustice of a decision which interprets a tax on accumulated wealth to be unconstitutional, while it declares a tax on industry constitutional.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S financial views may appear somewhat antiquated and insufficient to the average advocate of "free silver." There is one thing that can be said to the honor of the president, however, and that is, when the credit of the country was threatened, he patriotically performed his duty in protecting the nation's credit. Did the "free silverites" in Congress do as much?

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has unequivocally declared for sound money. And now he is being assailed from near and far by all of the financial fanatics of the the Universe. The position of the president may be unwise and impolitic; but there is one thing no honest man dare deny—that is, President Cleveland always has the courage of his convictions.

THERE is indisputable evidence of a universal iudustrial revival throughout the country. It is refreshing to know that political calamity howlers will soon be without an occupation.

THE MATERIAL BENEFITS

Which Are to Be Derived From a Horticultural Society.

At the regular meeting of the Horticultural Society of Clallam County, which was held in the Board of Trade room last Saturday afternoon, the principal feature of the program was an address delivered by the president of the society, Dr. E. H. Stanley, the subject of which was, "Material Benefits of a Horticultural Society." The following is the address, which is published in full:

A few days ago I was asked, among other questions, what were the material benefits to be gained by attending the meetings of the Horticultural Society. I will try to answer, from my standpoint. There never was a time when mutual discussion was not a benefit. There never was a man undertaking to open up an industry but what made mistakes. There is nothing in all the sciences that need such extensive study as that embraced in the name of our society. Our society is a school, and he who attends school must study what are the material benefits wanted. One will say we need people to come into this county and bring money; another will say, we want a railroad; another, there is no material benefit unless we can sell corner lots and water-front lots; another, start some mills, dig for coal, etc., etc. All are right and all are wrong. I will start with No. 1. He who wants people to come in and buy property. Who does he expect to come where nothing will grow? Or if the buyer was shown some well-made gardens and orchards, and in the right season, perfect fruit? How do you think a stranger would view it? Would he stand a chance of selling his property, where everything is for sale, where everybody is anxious to sell and get out of the country? Or on the other hand I have only to sight you to the Dungeness country, where nothing is for sale. Which place would strike a stranger. Look through a neighborhood where the signs "For Sale," "For Rent" stare everyone in the face. The stranger passes such places with the remark there is too much for sale. The man with cash will pass us by, unless we can show him some well kept gardens and orchards.

Man No. 2 wants a railroad. (I pause for inspiration to deal with this man). But should say to him, sir, what do men build railroads for? The answer is simple—to carry freight. The first thing asked, by the company who is asked to build you your railroad, is, "what kind of men have you in your country, are they idlers or rustlers? What have you got to sell? What do you raise?" If you tell the truth, you would say ou only saleable article is reserve lots, and about all we raise is election enthusiasm and bonuses for this thing and that.

We will reverse the picture, and now imagine, if you can, a city with its almost numberless beautiful homes and gardens, whose every man raises enough to live upon, builds himself a comfortable house in place of the shanty, spending his time under his own vine and fig tree, vine and fig will not apply in our town, but beautiful transcendent crabs and pear trees would take their place. A stranger coming into such a city would very naturally want to live in just such a place, or at least to speculate in it. You could sell out if you wanted to, but I think it would be like it is with our Dungeness friends, nobody would want to sell, your railroad would come without a bonus, and there would be no trouble in sells corner and water-front lots.

What we want most is stability, anchorage; not be like a swarm of grasshoppers, ready to rise and fly to other fields when this crop is becoming short. How are we to attain all this? 1st, by getting together for discussion, study ways and draw plans. A man from Dungeness yesterday told me he had made a great mistake when he planted his orchard, and never knew it until he went into a well-planned orchard of a neighbor. He said, "I'd give $100 if I had seen his before I had planted mine. Here is a case where plans would have been a material benefit. Coming down to our present effort we will say, suppose we get good returns for our labors in our gardens, and decide on a fair to show what we can raise. Will not our success encourage other to try and do likewise. It will be a beginning of greater efforts, and sooner than most of us think produce will be sold, and those who now depend on Chinamen and others, will have their own and a little to sell. Our fruit will most certainly improve under the new regime of pruning and spraying and there will be a boom in orchard planting and our friends, the nurserymen, will get a very substantial material benefit. Ex-Governor Nelsen of Minnesota, in a campaign speech, called attention to the difference between two different counties in his state. One was rich in soil, had dairy interests, poultry and hogs, and general diversified farming. He said, with low prices and hard times, the people were prosperous, thrifty, had plenty to subsist on, and would weather a long seige of hard times. The other county, although it had a railroad, depended on labor in the lumber woods for their support, and although the soil was good, no effort was made to utilize it. These people had to have state aid, food and clothing had to be sent to them. I think you will agree with me had the people of the last named county adopted good plans, well tried and proved plans, for their own subsistence, no suffering would have been reported. Let us get right down and understand our position. Study and adopt plans and don't despise small beginnings, and we will all be surprised how quick material benefits will be ours.

The possibilities of this state are very great, in my opinion, far beyond the credit given it by the casual observer. The tendency of immigration is westward. The decendants of the pilgrims are being pushed from their ancestral homes by an influx of an uncongenial population from beyond the Atlantic. When they cast their eyes over the map westward, no place is more promising than the great State of Washington. They have already become familiar with her greatness as a lumber producing country. They have heard of her output of coal, of her prospective fisheries, of her renown as a hop-producing country, and possibly of her choice potatoes. They see, stretched before them, the inland sea, the great Puget Sound, the finest body of water on the globe, with her islands of unsurpassed fertility, affording a coast-line of hundreds of miles, where the produce can be cheaply landed at the great commercial cities of Seattle and Tacoma.

The picture before them is rose-tinted, it is alluring, and the question is asked, what will we do when we get there? Some have been reared with the idea that cotton is king and say they have no cotton there; other that corn is king and say that it is not a corn country. We must give them literature to teach them, the world, that trade like fashion changes that the days when cotton was king have long passed by; that the rule of corn as king is passing, and the epoch of fruit as ruler is dominating, and before another half century passes the production and consumption of fruit will be so great that the raising, handling and transportation will excell that of any other commodity, and it is in the power of those planting orchards in this state now to do much towards hastening that result.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

THE GOLDEN SECRET OF SUCCESS.

I gaze with rapture and with awe
  On the eternal hills,
And lo! upon the rocks I read
  "Take Harker's Liver Pills!"
I turn to where the setting sun
  Sinks grandly in the west;
His dying beams fall full upon
  "Jenk's Gladuv are the best!"

Mark yonder frowning precipice;
  Adown its dizzy steeps
A mountain stream in foam and spray
  A dazzling vision leaps.
Alack! the advertising fiend
  Has climbed the giddy height
And planted on the topmost crag
  "Go buy your boots of 'Wright!'"
—Harper's Magazine.

They say that spring has come my dear,
  An' so it's understood;
I reckon, though, they hardly know:—
  I'll keep on haulin' wood!

They say the weather's gittin' warm—
  That winter's gone fer good;
It may be so; but this I know—:
  I'll keep on haulin' wood!

They say the blizzard's day is done—
  It's done the worst it could;
But 'spite o' birds, an' flowers, an' sun,
  I'll keep on haulin' wood!

The owner of a menagerie in Berlin, which includes the "happy family," consisting of a lion, tiger, a wolf, and a sheep, was asked one day in confidence how long these animals had lived together. "About nine months," he replied, "except the sheep, which has to be renewed occasionally." — Philadelphia Ledger.

The Chicago idea. Mrs. Waldo—Don't you think your divorce laws should be changed?" Mrs. Lakeside—"I most decidedly do. It's a shame that a woman can't get alimony from more than one husband at a time."—Judge.

Colonel Will L. Vischer, the humorist, enjoys his reputation for homeliness. Speaking of his yearnings for comeliness, the humorist said: "When I was married and had a little daughter, I had someone who really admired me. To her I was an apollo. One day Bill Nye was in my office with me, and my little girl came in and began making love to me, as was her way, calling me all sorts of sweet names. 'Nice papa,' said she; pretty papa.' Nye turned around and said in his peculiar drawl: 'Vischer, are you trying to make a humorist out of that child?'"—St. Louis Republic.

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc.," writes Henry Hudson, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., "none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old mother urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

For the cure of all diseases originating in impure blood, the best remedy is
AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Cures others, will cure you

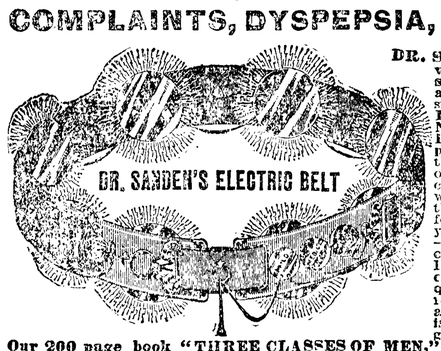
HAVE YOU TRIED DRUGS AND FAILED TO FIND A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, SCIATICA, KIDNEY, LIVER and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, DYSPEPSIA, LAME-BACK, &c.



DR. SANDEN'S ELECTRIC BELT with Electro Magnetic Suspensory will cure without medicine all of the above troubles. Those who suffer from Nervous Debility, Losses, Drains, Lost Manhood, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Poor Memory, all Female Complaints, and general Ill Health; the effects of abuses, excesses, worry or exposure, will find relief and prompt cure in our marvelous invention, which requires but a trial to convince the most skeptical. Ingnorance of effects you may have unwittingly drained your system of nerve force and vitality—which is electricity—and thus caused your weakness or lack of force. If you replace into your system the elements thus drained, which are required for vigorous strength, you will remove the cause and health, strength and vigor will follow at once. This is our plan and treatment, and we guarantee a cure or refund money.

Our 200 page book "THREE CLASSES OF MEN," should be read by every young, middle-aged and old man, sent sealed, free. Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt is no experiment as we have restored thousands to robust health and vigor, after all other treatments failed, as can be shown by hundreds of cases throughout this and other States, who would gladly testify, and from many of whom we have strong letters bearing testimony to their recovery after using our Belt.

WE HAVE CURED THESE—WE CAN CURE YOU!

GENERAL DEBILITY CURED.
San Francisco, Cal., August 14, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Before I used your belt I was troubled with lost vigor, vital weakness, and almost a complete loss of power. I would get up with a very tired feeling, bones aching, etc.; since using your belt I have had a new lease of life. I now enjoy life better than I have for ten years past. I have the utmost confidence in your treatment. You can publish this statement, also have others write or call on me. Truly yours, H. A. BOWEN, 26 and 28 Turk St.

RHEUMATISM AND LAMENESS CURED.
Portland, Oregon, April 18 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—I got one of your belts two weeks ago for rheumatism, from which I suffered for several years. For the past six months I had not been able to work. Your belt has placed me in almost perfect health in the two weeks I have used it. I can walk comfortably, and feel like a new man generally.
M. E. HUGHES, Proprietor International Hotel.

NERVOUS DEBILITY—LOSS OF VIGOR.
Tacoma, Wash., October 21, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—I believe in using your Electric belt for general nervous debility, and to-day feel better than I have for five years. I have gained in vigor daily, and am strong in every part.
Yours gratefully, CHAS. LUETKA.

LAME BACK AND RHEUMATISM.
Portland, Oregon, September 23, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Years of exposure and hard work, combined with the strain coming from the jar of an engine, gave me a severe case of lame back, from which I suffered for seven years. I was so bad that I could not bend my back. Was all doubled up with it. I bought one of your belts. It helped me inside of two days, and I continued to wear it for four months, being perfectly cured. That was two years ago, and I am as well to-day as I ever was in my life. I know your belt well, and I know lots of people who have been cured by it. Many others need it, and if they would try it they would find it the same as I did—the best remedy in the world. I am located here permanently, and will be glad to talk with anyone who wants to inquire about it.
ROBERT BURNS, Engineer Hotel Portland.

LOST VITALITY AND STRENGTH.
Everett, Wash., June 13, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Since wearing your belt I have been greatly benefited. I feel my strength returning and after a month's use of the belt I find myself twice as vigorous as before. My memory is now nearly perfect, and each day shows for the better. I feel much stronger than before using the belt. Yours truly, HENRY SCHMITZ.

THE DR. SANDEN ELECTRIC BELT is a complete galvanic battery, made into a belt so as to be easily worn during work or sleep, and it gives soothing, prolonged currents which are instantly felt throughout all weak parts, or wherever desired. $5,000.
