THE WRESTLER ARRIVES

And is Moored at Dolan's Wharf,

WHERE SHE IS BEING RE-RIGGED,

Repaired, Re-painted and Otherwise Thoroughly Over-Hauled—Twenty-Four Men Employed in Reconstructing the Dismantled Vessel—She in Chartered for a Cargo of Lumber From New Westminster to Shanghai—At the City Council.

The dismantled barkentine Wrestler is being re-rigged at Dolan's wharf, and the scene in and about the vessel is one of activity, bustle and animation. Some twenty-four men are given employment in the somewhat difficult and altogether tedious task of reconstructing the partially wrecked vessel, an undertaking that will involve at least fifteen or twenty days' time.

The Wrestler went ashore at Esquimalt about twelve months ago, where she remained in disuse until purchased by the present owners several months ago, of whom Capt. Nelson is one.

When the Wrestler went ashore she was sold to British parties, the ownership of which was finally acquired by the Bank of British Columbia. It was from that bank that Captain Nelson and associates purchased the vessel, the consideration of which, together with the expenditures involved in re-rigging and otherwise repairing the vessel, necessary to place her in a sea-worthy condition, will aggregate $25,000.

The Wrestler was built at Hall Bros' ship yards at Port Blakely in 1882, and had been continuously in service until she went ashore, and is comparatively a new vessel. Her original cost was $42,000. She is now under charter for a cargo of lumber from New Westminster to Shanghai, and is to report at that port by the 13th of next month. Her owners will permanently place her in the Puget Sound-China-Japan trade, confidently believing that an enormous trade will be developed between the Orient and Puget Sound ports within the next five years. The Wrestler is particularly built for the lumber trade, her carrying capacity being 700,000 feet.

Capt. Nelson is an old Puget Sound navigator, having sailed these waters for many years. Formerly he commanded the Brigantines Courtney Forks and Genevia, both of which were engaged in the Australian trade.

Among others, Capt. Nelson gave as one of the reasons for bringing his vessel to an American port for repairs, was, that he had made his money in the Puget Sound trade, and deemed it only an adequate sense of appreciation to return a measure of the money to the people from whom it had been accumulated. And as the Wrestler will sail under the American flag, it doubtless was necessary for her to be re-rigged here.

The repairs to the new vessel include a new foremast and yard arms, the rigging for the main and mizzen masts, repairing and repainting the fore and aft cabins, and thoroughly overhauling the vessel, so as she will be in first class condition when ready for sea.

"THE GATE CITY."

A Neat, Illustrated Pamphlet Printed For Distribution in the East.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER job department has just completed an order from Messrs. Jewett Bros. and W. E. Nulsen for several thousand illustrated pamphlets in book form. These little pamphlets are entirely devoted to Port Angeles, its superb commercial situation, it material resources, its opportunities and its prospects. The half-toned photo-engravings are of scenes in and near this city, and are quite realistic portrayals.

The subject matter of the pamphlet is far more temperate and accurate than is usually the case with descriptive articles, and intelligently and comprehensively treats of the subject under consideration.

The pamphlets are printed on superior finish, two-ply, cream-tinted card board, the covers of which are three-ply light-blue tinted card board, the finish and design of which are artistic and unique. The photo-engravings are of superior and delicate workmanship, and print clearly and definitely. The following scenes are represented by the engravings: "Steam saw at work near Port Angeles," "Schooner Jewett loading lumber for Honolulu." "Map of Port Angeles," "Opera House, View of Front street, facing west, portion of harbor," "High School, Pine Hill School, City Hall;" "Fourth Ward School, Bellview School, Lincoln Heights School"; First M. E. Church, First Congregational Church"; "Standing timber near Port Angeles."

These gentlemen deserve credit for the commendable stroke of enterprise and public spirit, in preparing at a considerable outlay these littlegems, as the distribution of such advertising matter in the East cannot help but attract the attention of desirable emigration.

At the Council.

At the regular meeting of the city council which was held last Wednesday evening, Mayor Mallette and Councilmen Harding, Graybill, Stewart, Munro, Crockett, Lamoreux and Shelton were present.

In the matter of the collection of certain city taxes, County Treasurer Dorsey stated that he would collect the same for a consideration of $350. City Treasurer L. R. Cole agreed to collect the same for 5 per cent., and Councilman Stewart recommended that the offer of the city treasurer be accepted. On motion the offer of City Treasurer Cole was accepted, and he was authorized to proceed with the collection of the same.

The claim of Brady & Gay, Attorneys-at-Law, Seattle, for professional services, was allowed, and a warrant drawn for the same.

An ordinance was introduced, which provides for the creation of a cemetery fund, for the payment of clearing and improving the public cemetery.

The matter of compensation of city attorney for services in special cases was referred to finance committee, with instructions to report at next regular meeting. Council adjourned.

A Cheap Power.

And at the same time a reliable power are the points to be sought for in purchasing an engine. With steam power a constant watch on the engine is necessary to prevent accidents, and the expense for engineer is a serious item against economy. The gas or gasoline engine is by far the cheapest power, as it will run all day without attention or fear of accident, and the cost is about two cents per hour for fuel per horse-power. For intermittent power the economy of gas over steam is beyond comparison. While these points of superiority are without question, it is important in selecting an engine to get the best; the best in the long run is the cheapest. Do not fail to investigate the striking advantages of the Hercules Gas and Gasoline Engines. Send for catalogue. If you want second-hand engines of other makes at cheap rates we can supply you. We have a number taken in trade, and cannot take any more until they are realized on. PALMER & REY TYPE FOUNDRY, Front and Alder streets, Portland, Oregon.

CLALLAM'S NEW BANK

Incorporated with a Capitalization of $25,000.

THE DRY CREEK SHINGLE MILL

Totally Destroyed by Fire—The Dry Kiln and 800,000 Shingles Consumed—The Fire Originated in the Dry Kiln—The Farallon is Withdrawn from the San Francisco-Puget Sound Route.

"The Bank of Clallam County," has been incorporated, under the laws of the State of Washington, for the purpose of carrying on a general banking business in the city of Port Angeles.

The articles of incorporation were filed with County Auditor Troy last Wednesday.

The amount of the capital stock of this institution will be $25,000, divided into 250 shares at $100 each.

The duration of existence will be fifty years.

The incorporators of the institution are Cyrus F. Clapp, of Seattle; Geo. Y. Bollinger, of San Jose, Cal.; Marion Allen, of Victoria, B. C.; Chas. E. Mallette and Harry E. Lutz, of this city.

The management of the bank will be entrusted to a board of trustees comprising five members, which board will be represented by the following persons until the second Monday in July: C. E. Mallette, Harry E. Lutz, Cyrus W. Clapp, Geo. Y. Ballinger and Marion Allen.

The new institution will doubtless open its doors to the general public for the transaction of business by next Monday.

The new bank will occupy the quarters and has purchased the bank fixtures of the suspended First National Bank.

The new bank will begin business under favorable auspices, as there certainly is an excellent opening for the establishment of a general banking institution in Clallam county, and as the incorporators are all well-known men of affairs, of unquestioned business probety and integrity, the institution will command the confidence of the general pubpublic.

The following officers have been elected to administer the affairs of the bank: President, Harry E. Lutz; Vice-President, Geo. Y. Bollinger; Cashier, Chas. E. Mallette.

THE FARALLON WITHDRAWS

From the San Francisco-Puget Sound Route—She Has Been Subsidized.

A dispatch from Tacoma, intimates that the Farallon will soon be withdrawn from the San Francisco-Puget Sound route, having been subsidized by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company.

At the time the Farallon was placed on this route, Port Angeles was supplied with excellent steamer service with San Francisco by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, which had its palatial steamship City of Puebla call at this port twice a month.

When the Farallon was placed on the route, like all "tramp" steameas, she cut passenger and freight rates between San Francisce and Puget Sound ports. By this means she secured a share of the business. At the time she was placed in service, the business men of Port Angeles were under moral obligations to the Pacific Coast Steamship Company to give all their business to the Puebla. This was the inducement held out to that company, and what, no doubt, largely influenced it to place the Puebla on the Angeles' run. Subsequently, the Farallon arrived on the scene cut rates, and a number of business men began patronizing the opposition steamer. This brought complaints from the Pacific Coast Steamship Co., which were followed with threats of withdrawal unless the business men of the city would stand by their agreement This they failed to do, and the Puebla was withdrawn from the Angeles run. This left Port Angeles at the mercy of a "tramp" steamer. And now the "tramp" steamer has departed on the voyage "tramp" steamers usually take, and Angeles is thereby effectually cut off from transportation connections with San Francisco. The Farallon has been chartered to run between San Francisco and Yaquina Bay, Or.

Dry Creek Mill Totally Destroyed.

The Dry Creek shingle mill and dry kiln were totally destroyed by fire last Sunday. The fire is supposed is supposed to have originated in the dry kiln as smoke was seen issuing from the kiln in great volumes when the fire was first discovered. All efforts to save the doomed buildings were unavailing as the fire apparatus at command was wofully inefficient, and the fire spread with lightning rapidity when it got under headway.

Together with the destruction of the shingle mill and dry kiln, some 700,000 or 800,000 shingles were consumed in the fire.

The Dry Creek shingle and saw-mill plant is owned by Messrs. Bradshaw and Sachs, and the plant was recently leased to Messrs. Loggie & Evans, practical and experienced saw-mill men, who, since they assumed the management of the property, had managed it very successfully and profitably.

The total loss is variously estimated at from $6,000 to $8,000. The individual loss of Messrs. Loggie & Evans is estimated at from $3,000 to $4,000.

The mill will not, it is understood, be rebuilt for the present, at least. The loss is a severe one, not only to the owners but to the employes and to the business men of the city, as well, as several thousand dollars were distributed by the mill company among its employes and the business men of the city each month.

VEIN OF COAL

Discovered in the Mountain Regions 15 Miles From Clallam Bay.

A discovery of coal that appears to be of importance has been made by Archie Withrow and Arthur Brown. They brought to town ten or fifteen pounds of the coal last Sunday.

The lumps have been handled and examined pretty generally around town this week and there is a good deal of public interest taken in the discovery. In appearance the coal resembles the Nanaimo kind more closely than any other variety and burns freely.

The locality where the coal was found has not been made public. Mr. Withrow, one of the finders, who is the road supervisor of this district, says in regard to it:

"I have been on the lookout for minerals over this part of the country for several years and have done a good deal of hunting and prospecting, and have noted out croppings of coal and iron in various places. Last August I first saw indications of coal near the place where I found this coal. The indications appeared on the side of a mountain by an exposed vein from 6 to 10 inches in width. At the foot of the mountain and along the bed of a creek we found, after a week's search, what appears to be an eighteen inch vein of coal. The distance is within 12 miles of town. We are trying to make arrangements to secure a diamond drill to test the locality and determine what the extent of the find is. If arrangements satisfactory to us can be made we will have a drill here soon. —Record.

County auditor Troy issued a license to wed this forenoon to Jno. D. Hickok and Oro Delle Robertson.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. No one afflicted with a throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

East Clallam Record.]

W. H. Simpson is at work building a 12x12 addition to the telegraph office.

Surveyor Shelton has finished his work in township 31-14, and went up-Sound on Friday.

Miss Frankie Clark has been engaged to teach the school at Tyee and went out last Sunday.

The contract to carry the mail from Ozette to Swan, a distance of 6 miles has been awarded to L. Chresleuson and P. B. Jerstad of Swan.

Chas. A. Miller who was out at Beaver a few days ago says that good progress is being made on the townsite of Sappho. Men are at work clearing and getting out lumber for buildings. Sappho is all right.

The Dungeness dairies intend to hold their reputation as butter-makers. Three of them have put in separators and are turning out a first class creamery butter.

Captain Slater of the bark Wilne has had a boat out on the bay for several days taking soundings to determine the kind of anchorage there is in this harbor. He says he found it first-class, and had no idea that Clallam offer such a safe and convenient place for vessels in or going out of the Straits. He has been sailing on the coast for twenty years but never happened to anchor here before. His testimony is the same as scores of other captains who have spoken highly of Clallam bay as a harbor of refuge.

Last Sunday night the Indian sealing schooner Dart drifted out to sea and disappeared. She was anchored off shore at Ozette that day and the crew came ashore and stayed during the night. When they awoke on Monday morning there was no sign of the Dart. They found her anchor chain broken and the boat gone. On Wednesday her Indian owners were informed that the Dart had been found. She had drifted over to Vancouver island and went ashore six miles east of Carmanah, and is a total wreck. The vessel is owned by LaPush Indians who lately paid $600 for her.

John Gordon is clearing land and otherwise improving his ranch adjoining the prairie.

There is some talk here of forming a stock company for the purpose of putting in a telephone line to LaPush.

Miss Katie Simpson, who has been spending a few weeks on her ranch four miles east of here, returned to Index last Monday morning. She expects to return to Beaver in a month or two.

Thomas Welch, from the Beaver lake, made us a pleasant call Sunday. Mr. Welch has one of the most picturesque ranches in this portion of the valley, and he proposes to make it a summer resort for pleasure seekers. For trout fishing it is unexcelled, even by Lake Crescent, and the scenery is nice; thus affording relief and enjoyment for all wishing a few weeks' recreation.

Our Populist asses or appeared before the commissioners at their last session and asked that his deputies be allowed $4 per day, which is equivalent to a trifle over $100 per month. If this is Populistic economy, it may be doubted whether we want any more of it. The Populists preach economy when they are out of office, and practice it when they are in, and the practice is about $2 a day greater than the preach.

NOT ALTOGETHER SERENE.

All is not serene with the Republican party.

The rabid, unfair and too frequently untruthful and indecent Republican partisan press ever relishes with exceeding delight extreme and unjustifiable criticism of the Democratic administration and of the Democratic party generally. No statement no matter how unreasonable, ridiculous and unjustly adverse is too excessive for this rampant partisan press to hurl against the national administration.

Of these extremely unjust partisan journals this state has a shining light, a foremost standard bearer of indecent politics, a disgusting, repulsive, unfair and discourteous partisan mouth piece, that is ever diligently searching in the depths of political offal, political corruption, for some unbecoming reflection to cast upon the national administration—the more improbable and unreasonable, the more fiendishly and excessively are the reflections relished by this abnormally partisan journal.

When the impartial reader becomes nauseated with the vulgar display of jingoism in the extreme partisan journal, it is, indeed, wholesome and refreshsng to occasionally come across a Republican journal that has the courage, the honesty and the fairness to speak the truth as to party conditions and party participation in public affairs. In the latter direction the Seattle Press-Times displays admirable courage and commendable honesty in severely rebuking the Republican party of the state for its shameful betrayal of public trust, in the late state legistature.

Referring to the record that party made the Press-Times says:

"The influence within the Republican ranks, which are working in this direction, are chiefly local, but they are having a powerful effect. Last fall a strong Republican legislature was elected. We will not say that it passed no good laws, for that would not be correct; but it failed egregiously in many important particulars. Its action on the railway freight bill was, from a party point of view, one of the most disastrous that can well be imagined. It destroyed in many minds every shred of hope that relief from the burdens imposed by corporations can be looked for from the Republican party. We do not say that there is any warrant for this, but are simply stating what seems to be a fact which cannot be disputed, or the gravity of which, from a party standpoint, cannot be overestimated."

All is not serene in the Republican household.

THE cause which impelled Paul Schulze to take his life has finally been explained. Schulze was a defaulter having misappropriated over half a million dollars of the funds of the company which had implicitly trusted to his honor and to his integrity. He betrayed a sacred trust; overwhelmed by the awful consciousness of guilt; wofully deficient in moral courage, he could not face the men he had so grieviously wronged, and in a moment of desperation, sheer moral cowardice he takes his life. These were the forces which drove him to act.

Was not Paul Schulze a moral coward?

A PROMINENT CITIZEN of the state recently returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., and, in referring to the national political situation, says: "The Democrats will adopt free silver and nominate a Western man for president, and that the Republicans will straddle the money question and nominate a man controlled by the East."

THE prospects are that the output of the Alaska salmon canneries this season will greatly exceed that of any former season.

HON. JOHN H. MITCHELL, U. S. Senator from Oregon, says that the Democrats will elect the next president.

Communicated.

PORT ANGELES, WASH., April 22, 1895.

MR. EDITOR:—After reading Dr. Stanley's very excellent article on the "Material Benefits of a Horticultural Society," which appeared in last week's issue of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER, the thought occurred to me that it would be a most excellent thing if more were written and said on this and kindred subjects, instead of rehearsing our misfortunes and complaining of the administration of public affairs. The article is replete with good sense, and affords much food for reflection. Pardon the suggestion that a column of your paper devoted to horticulture would be an attractive feature to a large number of your readers.

He says, "There never was a time when mutual discussion was not a benefit." I wish to add, there never was a time when mutual assistance would not accomplish more than individual effort. It is along this line that I wish to offer a few thoughts, which I hope may do something towards bestirring our thoughtful citizens from their lethargic condition, and cause them to see the necessity of concentrated and concerted action. A man without money can do but little anywhere or at anything. If he has money, what will he do? Call for those who have money also? No. He will go in search of another kind of capital. A kind of capital that might almost ignore his money if certain conditions were established and maintained. That capital is possessed of a variable quantity by different individuals, and is known as labor.

I will make this somewhat startling statement and attempt to prove it: The citizens of Port Angeles have needlessly lost $30,000 during the last six months! How? In this way: There has been a hundred men who have done effectively nothing during this time. Their labor, if it had been properly directed, would have produced the equivelant of $2 per diem, or say $50 per month. Thus one man could have earned $300, or one hundred men $30,000, in the stated time. I believe this to be a very conservative estimate. But some one may say nothing can be lost that is not once possessed. I reply that these one hundred men had the time and the ability to act in that time. The time is gone, hence the ability to act in that time is lost. Would he not lose his crop, who, after planting, fails to give it the attention it requires? So the product of energy is lost by inaction.

Could this have been otherwise? We believe that it could, not by what any single person could have done alone; but if all this wealth, or more, properly speaking, power, had been centered for the accomplishment of some useful end and had been properly directed and controlled who cannot conceive of what might have been done? But the past cannot be recalled. Let us look to the future. As the doctor very truthfully says, "neither cotton nor corn is king on this coast of the Pacific." This is, indeed a land of fruits and flowers, and I feel assured that the former, if given sufficient encouragement, would quickly don the golden band and take up the sceptre in the interest of those who unite their efforts in her common cause and triumphantly reign queen of the "land of sunset."

How can this one hundred men in the next six months utilize the latent energies so that they will not only not lose $30,000, but will profit thereby? This question will be answered at the next meeting of the Horticultural Society, in a way that at least merits some consideration. All interested should attend. Meeting May 3d, at Board of Trade office.

Respectfully,
A. M. JOHNSTON.

FRUIT CULTURE IN CLALLAM.

One of the Enterprising Settlers of the Quillayute Will Plant An Orchard.

The climate of Clallam county is so well adapted to the culture of the prune tree that it is to be regretted that so little attention has been given to this line of fruit raising. Prunes are always in demand and nearly always command a good price in the market. Their culture is not difficult or expensive, 10,000 pounds of green prunes per acre is only an average yield. It does not take much figuring to show that a few acres of this fruit, bearing, will insure the owner thereof a handsome income. There is, in fact, scarcely any crop adapted to our soil and climate that is so certain to yield profitable returns. Prunes can be grown successfully in only a few of our states, and the demand for them is already large and steadily growing. It costs but a few dollars an acre to prune and the returns are quick and sure.

Mr. I. W. Garland, of Upper Solduck, has very wisely concluded to try his hand at this industry and will soon have several hundred trees growing. His is an example that our settlers in general would do well te follow. The expense of an orchard is slight, the ground can be used for the ordinary crops as before, and the returns from the sale of the fruit is that much clear gain. We would like to see several thousand prune trees planted in the valley this spring.—Beaver Leader.

Two Young Couples Join Hearts and Fortunes.

The marriage of two prominent young couples has been the most prominent social features of the past week.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only the relatives and a few particular friends of the contracting parties being present. The parlors were tastily and artistically decorated with a profusion of delicately fashioned flowers, fragrant plants and attractive evergreens. The arch where the marriage ceremony was performed, was tastily decorated with a wreath of flowers and evergreens, which contributed to a scene altogether charming Nature's most lovely and radiant presence, diffusing that glow and charm and beauty naught else can do.

The solemn, impressive marriage ceremony of the German Lutheran Church was observed and administered with signal impressiveness by the Rev. Mr. Bard of Whatcom.

Miss Hansen, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Benton Embree as best man.

The bride was becomingly attired in cream-white albatross and satin, while the bridesmaid wore cream-colored cashmere and cream-colored velvet.

The bride is a charming young woman whose many admirable traits of character have endeared her to a large circle of friends.

The groom is one of the successful young business men of the city, who, by thorough, methodical business methods, has earned an enviable record as a reliable, thorough-going man of affairs.

The well-wishes of the many friends of the young couple have been extended for a future of happiness and prosperity.

We love you for your violets,
And lambs that gayly skip,
But mostly for the hope that soon
There won't be any grip

She makes her way to church,
But hastens home with beaming looks
New fashion books to search.

Don' let your troubles
Get the upper hand of you;
Don't let your troubles
Turn the whole world blue;
Don't let your troubles
Fill the sky with gray;
Don't let your troubles
Trouble you today;
Just put your sorrow
Off till tomorrow.
—Detroit Free Press.

Would you ruffle the down of the butterfly?
Or scatter the violet's dew?
Would you rub the soft cheek of the peach awry?
Or rumple the roses? Would you?

And the first loving kiss of an unkissed maid,
The fairest bloom ever that blew,
As sweet and as frail as the flowers that fade—
Whoever would take it would you?

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

AN ANGELIC HUSBAND.

There are husbands who are pretty,
There are husbands who are witty,
There are husbands who in public are as smiling as the morn;
There are husbands who are healthy,
There are famous ones and wealthy,
But the real angelic husband; well, he's never yet been born.

Some for strength of love are noted,
Who are really so devoted
That where'er their wives are absent they are lonesome and forforn;
And while now and then you'll find one
Who's a really good and kind one
Yet the real angelic husband; oh, he's never yet been born.

So the woman who is mated
To a man who may be rated
As "pretty fair" should cherish him forever and a day,
For the real angelic creature,
Perfect, quite, in every feature,
He has never been discovered, and he won't be, so they say.

DERWIDED SKIRTS.

I seen ter day, Mariar, a-glidin' down the lane,
A funny sorter creetur, which I hope I won't again.
She rid one o' them cyclers, that don't make any noise,
An' bless my heart! Mariar, she wuz dressed up like the boys.
She came along cavortin', jist as a year-lin' spurts,
A flulterin' hur tresses—an' she wore derwided skirts.

Her skirts, they wuz derwided, I think I said afore,
Ye oughter seen, Marier, the ground she kivered o'er,
A-slashin' o' them pedals, a-humpin' o' them wheels,
A-cuttin' up them capers that sorter brings appeals
Ter pussons like yer Isaac, who hain't no sorter go—
Espashally to city gals a-ridin' out fer show.
Hur stockin's made me snicker, hur ankles they wuz trim—
Accordin' ter my jedgment she'd a proper sorter limb.
'Twuz jist a passin' vision, I glanced at on the sly,
While hid behind the rail-fence an' r-reskin' my off eye.

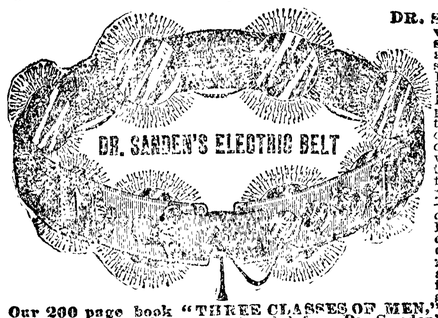
HAVE YOU TRIED DRUGS AND FAILED TO FIND A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, SCIATICA, KIDNEY, LIVER and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, DYSPEPSIA, LAME-BACK, &c.



DR. SANDEN'S ELECTRIC BELT with Electro Magnetic Suspensory will cure without medicine all of the above troubles. Those who suffer from Nervous Debility, Losses, Drains, Lost Manhood, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Poor Memory, all Female Complaints, and general ill health, the effects of abuses, excesses, worry or exposure, will find relief and prompt cure in our marvelous invention, which requires but a trial to convince the most skeptical. Ignorance of effects you may have unduly drained your system of nerve force and vitality—which is electricity—and thus caused your weakness or lack of force. If you replace into your system the elements thus drained, which are required for vigorous strength, you will remove the cause and health, strength and vigor will follow at once. This is our plan and treatment, and we guarantee a cure or refund money. Our 200 page book "THREE CLASSES OF MEN," sealed, free. Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt is no experiment as we have restored thousands to robust health and vigor, after all other treatments failed, as can be shown by hundreds of cases throughout this and other States, who would kindly testify, and from many of whom we have strong letters bearing testimony to their recovery after using our Belt.

WE HAVE CURED THESE—WE CAN CURE YOU!

GENERAL DEBILITY CURED.
San Francisco, Cal., August 14, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Ever since I used your belt I was troubled with lost vigor, vital weakness, and almost a complete loss of power. I would get up with a very tired feeling, bones aching, etc.; since using your belt I have had a new lease of life. I now enjoy life better than I have for ten years past. I have the utmost confidence in your treatment. You can publish this statement, also have others write or call on me. Truly yours, H. A. BOWEN, 26 and 28 Turk St.

RHEUMATISM AND LAMENESS CURED.
Portland, Oregon, April 15, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—I got one of your belts two weeks ago for rheumatism, from which I suffered for several years. For the past six months I had not been able to work. Your belt has placed me in almost perfect health in the two weeks I have used it. I can walk comfortably, and feel like a new man generally. M. E. HUGHES, Proprietor International Hotel.

NERVOUS DEBILITY—LOSS OF VIGOR.
Tacoma, Wash., October 21, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—I have been using your Electric belt for general nervous debility, and to-day feel better than I have for five years. I have gained in vigor daily, and am strong in every part. Yours gratefully, CHAS. LUTTIA.

LAME BACK AND RHEUMATISM.
Portland, Oregon, September 25, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Years of exposure and hard work, combined with the grippe coming from the jar of an engine, produced a case of lame back, from which I suffered for many years. I was so bad that I could not bend my back. Was all doubled up with it. I bought one of your belts. It helped me in the first few days, and I continued to wear it for four months, being perfectly cured. That was two years ago, and I am as well to-day as I ever was in my life. I know your belt will do as much for those who have been cured by it. Any other proof? Send it and they would buy it, they would find it the same as I did—the best remedy in the world. I am located here permanently, and will be glad to talk with anyone who comes to inquire about it. ROBERT HUDSON, Engineer Hotel Portland.

LOST VITALITY AND STRENGTH.
Tacoma, Wash., June 18, 1892.
Dr. A. T. Sanden, Dear Sir:—Since wearing your belt I have been greatly benefited. I feel my old energy returning, and strong as I was before my health failed. My memory is now much improved, and each day shows improvement. I feel much stronger than before using the belt. Yours truly, HENRY SCHULTZ.
