An Old Pioneer Settler of Clallam

GRIEVES OVER IMAGINARY WRONGS

Until the Mental Strain Overthrows His Reason and In a Fit of Desperation He Takes His Life—Shoots Himself Through the Head and Only Lives An Hour.

The tragic death of one of the pioneer settlers of Clallam county occurred last Wednesday morning at his home on Sequim prairie. In a moment of desperation John Brown, Sr., shot himself with a revolver, the bullet crashing through his skull behind the right ear, coming out just above his right eye.

The shooting occurred at about 7 o'clock in the morning and he lingered until 8 o'clock, when he passed away.

In years gone by John Brown was a victim of intemperance. A man of peculiarly sensitive disposition, he would keenly repent his folly whenever he overcame the demoralizing influence of one of these spells, and time and again in speaking to his wife of his weakness he would deplore the fact that he yielded to this great evil, thereby ruining his own life and bringing humiliation, suffering and sorrow to those who were near and dear to him. And in these moments of poignant chagrin and humiliation, he frequently confessed to his wife his cruelty and inconsideration of her peace and happiness and that of their family, and that he deemed himself unworthy to live.

About eighteen months ago he gave up drinking entirely. His system was left in a terrible condition, however, and frequently, when almost overcome with the insatiable thirst for strong drink, would relapse into a spell of despondency, during which the desire to end his life would recur, and he would intimate as much to his wife.

About six months ago he experienced religion, since which he has been under an intensely severe mental strain, and has constantly been reproaching himself for the misdeeds of his past life. These were, however, greatly magnified by continually brooding over them.

On the fatal morning of his tragic end, he again told his sympathetic, trusting wife that he was utterly unfit to live. She endeavored to pacify him by saying that "if unfit to live he certainly was not prepared to die."

Later on while out in the back yard, feeding the fowls, his wife called to him and asked if he would get her a pail of water. He quickly answered, "certainly," adding that he would "do anything she would ask him."

He went after the water and returning placed the pail on the water stand, passing on into the bedroom, he went directly to a book-case or clothes-press, and removed a revolver from the place his wife had thought she had safely concealed it from him. Stepping in front of the bureau looking-glass, it is supposed, he took deliberate aim, placing the muzzle of the revolver behind his right ear, he pulled the trigger and sent the leaden missile crashing through his head. The report brought his wife, and his sons who were at work in the barn yard, to his side, when they were completely overwhelmed with the enormity of the deed the irrational man had committed.

There is scarcely any doubt that the severe mental unrest to which his mind has been taxed during the past few months, had overbalanced it, and in a moment of aberration he committed the terrible act.

For the past 20 years John Brown has been a resident of Clallam county. His career in the county has been active and industrious, during which he has accumulated considerable valuable property, which comprises some 500 acres of farming land.

He leaves a wife and nine children—five girls and four boys—to mourn his sad and untimely end. A native of Glasgow, Scotland, he was born about 53 years ago, from whence he removed to Australia where he remained until he emigrated to this county.

The funeral takes place at 1:30 to-day, from the family residence at Sequim.

COLONY FROM TEXAS.

One of the Intending Colonists Writes For Information.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER recently received the following letter from Big Valley, Texas, which explains itself:

BIG VALLEY, TEX., May 28, 1895.

Editor Democrat-Leader, Port Angeles, Washington:

SIR:—I take the liberty to write to you as I don't know any one in Clallam county. Mr. J. J. Stockbridge, of this place, is trying, and I think will succeed, to get up a colony to go to your county. He showed us your paper, and that is why I write to you, hoping to get STRAIGHT TRUTH concerning the questions I ask.

1. Is there much game in the country and what kind?
2. Is it a good fruit country, etc.?
3. There is an orphan boy who will go with us, can he take a claim? He is 17 years of age and has no home.
4. Is there any vacant lots in Port Angeles?
5. What will an unimproved lot in Angeles cost? (Cash).
6. What will a moderate horse cost? Live stock of all kinds, prices, etc.?

Now, Mr. Editor, if it is no trouble to answer my anxious letter I will appreciate it very much indeed. Now write a history on all subjects not only what I ask, but all, and oblige,

Very Respectfully,
E. S. MOHLER.

1st. Game is quite plentiful, such as bear, deer, elk, grouse, partridge, ducks, etc.

2nd. The country is well adapted to the culture of fruit. Apples, pears, plums, cherries and small fruits thrive in this climate.

3d. No. The law is very explicit on this point. Any person otherwise qualified must be 21 years of age before he can file on government land.

4th. There are quite a number of desirable vacant lots within the corporate limits of the city of Port Angeles.

5th. Desirable unimproved and improved residence lots can be purchased at from $25 to $250.

6th. Horses are quite cheap. In Eastern Washington a good American horse is only worth $40. On the Sound they are worth considerably more. You can buy a good animal at from $75 to $150. Milch cows are worth from $30 to $75. Beef cattle are worth 5 cents per pound on foot, and other stock at corresponding prices.

Western Washington is certainly a very desirable country for the intending emigrant to remove to. Its climate is mild, equitable and healthful; its creeks and rivers abount in many varieties of food fish; while Puget Sound, the great inland sea, teems with cod, halibut, salmon, herring, smelt, flounders and other varieties of salt water food fish; its valleys, river bottoms and hill sides, although heavily timbered, are fertile and productive when subdued to cultivation; its vast timber forests are a marvel, and the admiration of timber experts.

There is one thing, however, the intending settler should steadfastly bear in mind. That is, Western Washington is a heavily timbered country; its desirable agricultural lands are more or less covered with timber which will have to be cleared off before the land can be cultivated. This is one of the most serious difficulties which will have to be encountered by the settler on government land in the Western part of the state. It is a grievious wrong to induce settlers into a country through palpable misrepresentations. The advantages of this country are so numerous that the writer need not resort to an untruth in sounding its praises. It would be far better however, for intending colonists to send a representative to the land of promise, so as to be assured of the conservative observations of an unprejudiced observer, or a person capable of judging of the natural resources the country possesses and the opportunities it offers the settler.

Western Washington is a country of varied resources and of limitless possibilities. It is capable of supporting a large population, and is destined to become the home of a people famed the world over for thrift, wealth and contentment.

To Destroy Rose Aphis.

Numerous inquiries have been made at the office of the board of horticulture for some remedy to destroy the rose aphis, which are a great pest at this season of the year. Secretary C. A. Tonneson gives the following receipt for destroying the pest: "Anyone having bushes infested with the lice will find an effective remedy by using a solution made from quassia chips and soap in the proportion of one pound quassia and one pound soap of good quality to eight gallons water. For small quantities steepings can be made by soaking a handful of the chips in hot water for four or five hours, then mix with the suds. Hot water or soap water applied at 110 degress Fahrenheit will also destroy the pests, but the quassia and soap is one of the safest and most effective remedies."

Teachers' Meeting.

A teachers' meeting was held last Saturday, June 1st, in Sequim hall, for the purpose of discussing the question of organizing a society of progressive teachers to meet once in three weeks to study and discuss matters of interest to all teachers.

Such a society was formed with officers as follows: President, Roy McClinton; Vice-President, Lizzie Burrows; Treasurer, John Vint; Secretary, Anna Combs.

The next teachers' meeting will be held at the same place, June 22, at one o'clock, p. m. The county superintendent will be present and it is desired that every teacher in the county make an earnest effort to be present. The course of study laid down for the common schools of our state will receive especial attention. Teachers will please remember date and place.

ANNA COMBS, Teacher.

A Remarkable Cure for Rheumatism.

Westminster, Cal., March 21, 1894.—Some time ago, on awakening one morning, I found that I had rheumatism in my knee so badly that, as I remarked to my wife, it would be impossible for me to attend to business that day. Remembering that I had some of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in my store, I sent for a bottle, and rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with it, according to directions, and within an hour I was completely relieved. One application had done the business. It is the best liniment on the market, and I sell it under a positive guarantee. R. T. HARRIS. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

It is understood that a proposition will be made by Messrs. Hatfield and Carlyle to Receiver J. M. Martin to lease the Lambert mill plant. If successful these gentlemen will put in a double block shingle mill plant.

The schooner Richard Eacrett took a cargo of lumber to Seattle last Friday.

Why be bothered with Dyspepsia. When one or two bottles of Improved Dyspepsia Cure will stop all disarrangements of the stomach. For sale by J. C. Hansen.

CITY BOND HOLDERS

Submit a Proposition to the Council.

IN SETTLEMENT OF OVER-DUE

Interest on the Bonds in their Possession — Anderson Bound Over to Appear for Trial in the Federal Court at Seattle—An Old Settler Drops Dead from Apoplexy.

At the regular meeting of the city council last Wednesday evening Mayor Mallette and Councilmen Harding, Stewart, Graybill, Munro and Shelton were present.

Councilman Shelton, on behalf of the health committee, recommended that the council notify property owners to fill in pools of stagnant water on Oak street, between First and Second.

Jno. Cunnea applied to council for a transfer of liquor license from present location to building on corner of Front and Laurel streets, formerly occupied by the bar-room of the Albany Hotel.

The council granted petition of C. L. Brant to erect temporary structure on corner Front and Laurel streets, for the purpose of selling native fruit for a period of three weeks.

Councilman Graybill stated that the city should take steps to provide suitable quarters for its poor who are in need of medical treatment, as at present it was obliged to send these unfortunates to Port Townsend for such treatment. The council received the suggestions favorably and thought it advisable to investigate and see if suitable rooms could be procured for such purposes.

Thos. Malony was accorded the privilege of the floor, and briefly stated that he had received letters from city bond holders, whom he had written favorably, but they did not want to accept interest warrants. There were willing, however, to hold the coupons instead of accepting warrants in payment of interest, provided, that the proper city officials stamped such coupons, representing that they had been presented for payment on date of maturity, but payment was refused for want of funds. These bond holders also hold that warrants issued for such purposes were illegal. It was recommended that a rubber stamp be procured with which to stamp on the back of the coupons in question the imprint, viz: "Presented but not paid for want of funds;" and each overdue interest coupon to bear 6 per cent. per annum until paid.

The council adjourned.

ANDERSON BOUND OVER.

To Appear for Trial in the Federal Court at Seattle.

The preliminary trial of Henry Anderson, who is held for killing Phillip Brown, an indian, was held in Judge Brewster's court, beginning last Friday afternoon and concluding last Tuesday.

Benton Embree appeared for the defense and County Attorney Stewart for the State.

The attorney for the defendant waived examination.

The witnesses for the state were Debessa, an indian, and his wife Bethel, grand parents of Phillip Brown, the indian who was killed by Anderson.

The case was continued until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, as the State had sent to Neah Bay for an interpreter.

The Interpreter, Chataqua Peterson, arrived on the Garland Saturday morning. At 10 o'clock the hour set for the continuance of the case, the court convened and the state proceeded with the examination of its witnesses.

The trial continued until Tuesday morning, at which time the examination of the witnesses was completed, after which Judge Brewster submitted the following decision:

The State in its prosecution of this case has shown no disposition to magnify the evidence against the prisoner, on the other hand has acted upon the broad and well established principle that the accused is innocent until proven otherwise.

The people of the State of Washington framed a constitution and ratified it, and upon its munificent principles of equity and justice we depend for our guidance, some of its wisest provisions are that all of its citizens shall be protected without regard to race or color in their pursuit of life, liberty and happiness. When a citizen's life has been taken without provocation it becomes necessary for the proper officers chosen by the people to administer their laws, to faithfully and diligently inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case, that the guilty may be punished and the innocent vindicated. In the examination of the charge brought against the defendant ample time has been taken to inquire into all of the circumstances connected with the killing of Phillip Brown, an indian, a ward of the United States. The testimony of the prosecuting witnesses clearly establishes the fact that a human life has been sacrificed by the unwarranted act of the defendant, Henry Anderson. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant be held for trial in the United States District court holding terms at Seattle, King County, Washington, and that his bail bond be fixed in the sum of $5000 for his appearance for trial in said court, and in default of said bail he be committed to the jail of Clallam county, Washington, and there remain until taken into custody by the U. S. Marshal or his authorized deputy.

Benton Embree, attorney for the defense, appeared before the Superior court last Tuesday afternoon and appealed for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that Anderson, the defendant, had been unlawfully committed for trial to the federal court, when the the crime of which he was accused and for which he was held, had been committed in Clallam county and therefore should be tried in the courts of that county. The court continued the case until Friday.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

An Old Settler Stricken Down While Working in the Field.

The sad intelligence of the sudden death from apoplexy of John Westbrook, at his home near Mt. Misery, last Saturday, was received in this city last Sunday.

It appears that the old man was working in the field when stricken with apoplexy. When he left home after dinner Friday afternoon last to resume work in the field, he appeared in usual health and excellent spirits and had been amusing the children. In the evening he was called to supper, and receiving no response his son started for the field where the old gentleman had been at work, and found him in a semi-conscious condition. He was removed to the house and every effort was made to revive him, but without avail. He remained in that condition until the following afternoon when death ensued.

It is supposed that he was stricken late in the afternoon, and had undoubtedly remained in that condition for several hours before being discovered.

Deceased was 74 years of age and a native of New York state. He removed to the Pacific coast many years ago and has been a resident of Clallam county for at least 11 years.

Earnest, industrious, upright, John Westbrook was highly respected by his old neighbors, and beloved by relatives and friends, and his removal from this stage of action will be sincerely mourned by those whose confidence and respect he had won.

Picnic at East End.

The Michigan Association will have an all-day picnic on the grounds east of the Colony sawmill on June 18th. All Michigan people are invited to come with lunch basket and spend a pleasant day. Each member may invite a friend. A good program will be rendered. A business meeting will also be held in the afternoon. C. B. MAXFIELD, Sec.

Having used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and found it to be a first-class article, I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends. J. V. FOSTER, Westport, Cal. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

If citizens intend to observe the Fourth at home, it might not be inconsiderate to other towns in the county, which have already announced that they will celebrate, to state positively whether there will or there will not be any public demonstration in Port Angeles on the national holiday. It is excessively selfish and inconsiderate for Port Angeles to wait until all other towns of the county have either announced that they will or will not celebrate, and then come out with a flaming announcement that she will also observe the Fourth. As the leading town of the county, Port Angeles should either lead or give way.

A writer discussing the deficiency in the receipts of the United States, makes the following pertinent statement: "The fact remains that when the McKinley tariff was adopted the surplus dropped from $65,000,000 to 26,000,000 in one year, from $26,000,000 to $9,000,000 the next year; from $9,000,000 to $2,000,000 the next year; from $2,000,000 to $70,000,000 less than nothing the next year and the Democratic tariff has not been able to reduce the shortage by more than $10,000,000. If the expenditures had been kept up to the figures of 1893 the deficiency for the last two years would have been over $150,000,000.

The intelligent discussion of subjects horticultural at the monthly meetings of the Clallam County Horticultural Society, can fail of beneficial results. The soil and the climate of Clallam county is peculiarly adapted to the culture of fruit, and as years roll by is destined to become an important industry. Therefore, the earnest, thoughtful consideration of subjects appertaining thereto and getting together for the exchange of these thoughts and ideas, cannot fail to be mutually beneficial.

There must have been a presentiment of the disclosure of the free pass episode when the following maxim, from Lincoln, was unfurled from the Simeon's masthead: "You can fool part of the people all the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all the time."

With wheat steadily appreciating to the dollar mark, with general industrial revival throughout the manufacturing districts, with evidences of wages being increased, the prospects of returning prosperity are very hopeful, indeed.

Free Pass Seevers apologizes for indecency this week. There yet remains hope of his ultimate reformation.

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

At the school election next Monday, the citizens of Port Angeles will vote for a director and clerk. While the position of director does not carry any emoluments with it, nevertheless, it is one of the most important and exacting public offices—ever demanding earnest, unselfish and conscientious service from the incumbent. Too frequently the usefulness of that office has been impaired and the public school service severely crippled, in the election of an incompetent, selfish and prejudiced man, as director.

It would seem that the fact would forcibly present itself to the intelligent voter that any man controlled by any faction or clique striving to dominate the management of the public schools of the city, is utterly incapable to return efficient public services.

What is essential in the well-equipped candidate, is courage, independence and absolute freedom from the corrupting influence of any faction that might impair the efficiency of the public schools.

Without disparagement to any of the persons mentioned as candidates for this office, the selection of Richard Eacrett, sr., as a candidate for director is, indeed, an admirable one.

A teacher of many years' experience, a thoroughly conscientious man, with positive convictions and decided opinions, he would undoubtedly prove to be a clear-sighted, able public official.

In selecting a man of the high character and the eminent qualifications of the gentleman in question, for director, the school electors of this district will not make a mistake.

The Books Experted.

Douglas Young, of Seattle, the expert, completed the expert statement as to the condition of the books of ex-Treasurer M. J. Clump, last Saturday.

Mr. Young, it is understood, expresses himself willing to accept the equivalent in county general fund warrants in payment in full for his services and that of his assistant in preparing this expert statement.

Mr. Young will await the action of the county commissioners in the matter before he proceeds to collect from the directors of the school districts who engaged him.

The matter will undoubtedly be satisfactorily adjusted to all interests concerned as outlined in the foregoing.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

East Clallam Record.]

F. P. Sawyer has been named as postmaster at Pysht in place of John Gordon, resigned.

Jesse Maxfield brought in a load of mutton and butter for shipment, Wednesday.

The Schooner Lena Swenzy took a cargo of 300,000 feet of lumber and sailed for San Francisco Thursday While here a new spar, the mizzen gaff, was made for the schooner by Charles Miller.

The land contest of Oscar F. Veasey vs. Francis M. White, involving a claim in 28-13, has been decided in favor of Veasey. White's entry has been ordered cancelled by the general land office.

If the vacant government lands of Clallam county were embraced in an Indian reservation and ordered thrown open to settlement on a certain date, the country would be filled up in about two days. Nothing in the world will draw a crowd like the proclamation of the opening of a reservation. Last week when the Kickapoo reservation in the Indian Territory was opened, there were at least 15,000 claimants for the 550 claims and the land is said to be well-nigh worthless.

Nels Nelson, a settler on the Hoko river, above the falls, did not believe in holding down a claim without a partner to share his joys and sorrows, as he recently met at Seattle a young lady direct from Sweden and made her his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson arrived here Wednesday evening, accompanied by Otto Johnson, a brother of the bride, who came from Sweden with her.

Chas. Stevens, a settler on the East Dickey, returned from a visit to Seattle last Friday, where he had been to seek medical advice. Mr. Stevens is suffering from a peculiar bowel complaint, which is a rare one in the line of diseases, and the doctors could do nothing for him. He has wasted away to a shadow almost, and has hardly strength to stand up. He was taken out home in J. P. Collin's wagon last Saturday.

The general land office has decided a contest between some Indians and David T. Smith, a Quillayute settler, in favor of Smith. When Smith proved up on his homestead in 1892, McGlynn, the Indian agent at Neah Bay, advised three Quillayute Indians to claim the land as it happened to be a portion of the reservation. The Indians were not able to show any title to it, did not claim to live on it or even know its boundaries. This appears to be a case of a too-much meddlesome Indian agent.

Beaver Leader.]

Our correspondent from LaPush says that 149 seals were recently caught in a single day by the sealers of that place. At this rate sealing ought to be a profitable business.

Two directors and one clerk will be elected in this district at the coming school election. A successor to W. T. Crosby will have to be chosen, as also will one for Mrs. E. J. Gordon.

Several school boards have gotten into trouble by employing teachers having no certificates. Superintendent of schools, Miss Guptill, has refused to recognize the schools or honor the checks; and the districts will therefore receive no money from the state the coming year.

The weather this week is what the aborigines would call an "Oregon mist." It has evidently missed Oregon and hit Washington—at least, this portion of the state. For this time of the year the rain has been excessive, and all who failed to take advantage of the recent good weather and put in their crops are likely to be a trifle late.

ITEMS FROM SHUWAH.

People around Shuwah are almost through planting.

Mr. J. P. Austin will put about three acres in hops this year.

School begins to-day (June 3d), with W. J. Payne as teacher.

Mr. Jacob Fassel is sheep-shearing for Mr. Crosby, of Beaver, this week.

We learn that the teacher of Tyee has given up her school, and another has been employed in her stead. Illegal eh?

Mr. Gumerson is building a house for Mrs. Densmore on the edge of the prairie. Mrs. Densmore has filed a homestead on the forty-acre tract which lies adjoining the prairie.

School election Monday.

J. M. Martin is in Seattle.

Superior court convenes next Tuesday.

S. Baxter, of Seattle, was in town Wednesday.

Richard Schrum and family have removed to Dungeness.

Mr. J. F. Purvis, of Sequim, has been in town the past week.

Harry Greenberg was in Whatcom on business during the week.

The members of the Minerva Literary Society enjoyed a picnic and clam bake at the east end, yesterday.

Harry Fletcher has returned from California. His three year term of service on board the Wolcott having expired.

The Rev. E. Davis will hold the usual Sunday service in the hall on Lincoln Heights at 3 p. m. All invited to attend.

Col. J. S. Coolican, Messrs. Griswold, Peterson, Geo. T. Ulmer and Levi Crooks returned from the lakes Monday.

County auditor Troy issued a license to wed last Monday to Herman F. Sindars and Birdie Bell Combs, both of Sequim.

Jno. Cunnea (Ivy John) has leased the New Albany bar room and will remove thereto from his present place of business.

The abiding interest in the public schools of the city is manifested by the number of candidates for the position of director.

The Spiritualists will meet at McDonald's hall next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

A license to wed was issued last Tuesday by county auditor Troy to Victor C. Spaulding and Hattie J. Wilder, both of Boston, Wash.

It is understood that all arrangements have been made for the plant and the water-power with which to operate the proposed shingle mill on Ennis creek.

The Patriarchs of Fuca Encampment entertained their wives and sweethearts last Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. An enjoyable evening is reported.

Douglas Young, the expert accountant, finished the work of experting ex-Treasurer's Clump's books last Saturday and returned to Seattle the following Tuesday.

Delinquent taxes, which were levied in the year 1892 do not bear interest or penalty and assistant attorney general Haight has so advised prosecuting attorneys throughout the state.

A number of young folks drove in from Sequim last Monday, among whom were the Misses Ida Sindars, Margaret Wright, Birdie Combs, and Messrs. Herman Sindars and Guy Combs.

The Washington Fur Company, of La Push, shipped 500 seals to Victoria last Tuesday, via this port. The seals were caught off the cape, valued at $3000, and consigned to Boscowitz & Son.

At a meeting of the Woman's Suffrage League held in this city last Friday for the purpose of nominating candidates for school director and school clerk, Mrs. L. T. Haynes was unanimously nominated for director and Mrs. C. A. Foss for clerk.

Pacific Post, No. 48, G. A. R., desire to extend their thanks to all those who assisted, in any way, on Memorial Day, to make their services a success and the halls beautiful with flowers and other decorations, and last but not least, the beautiful supply of provisions that enabled us to entertain some three hundred at our Camp Fire in the evening.

R. R. Harding, Commander.

In the injunction suit brought by E. George vs. the county treasurer and the various school districts of the county, for the purpose of enjoining the payment of certain warrants drawn upon the funds of certain school districts in favor of Douglas Young for experting ex-Treasurer Clump's books, Judge McClinton rendered a decision last Saturday, in which he sustained the injunction.

Walter Miller left last Saturday on the tug Magic for a trip to the cape, returning last Tuesday. While at the cape he took several excellent photographic views of the picturesque scenes in the vicinity of the cape, among which were views of the Tatoosh light; Flattery Rocks; the bark Wythop under full sail; the U. S. Weather Bureau Station on Tatoosh island and a number of other equally as interesting views.

Mrs. Julius I. Kirschberg of Tacoma, and Miss Dora Fend of this city, who has been the guest of Mrs. Kirschberg for several months past, arrived in the city last Monday from the cape. They had accepted a kind invitation from Capt. Johnson to make a round voyage on the Jewett to San Pedro. Upon reaching the cape, however, the weather was so unpropitious the they deemed it the better part of discretion not to continue the voyage, so they returned on the Sea Lion.

The petit jury has been excused from services at the session of the Superior court, which convenes next Tuesday, for the reason of certain irregularities, chiefly among which is the one held by Judge Osborne, of Seattle, who recently sustained a motion made by James Hamilton Lewis, to quash the entire panel of jurors for the reason, he argued, that the existing law, passed by the late legislature, wholly repealed the old law, and that when the old law passed out of existence, old jurors, drawn under its provisions, also went out of existence.

Mr. W. S. Peterson of Clarinda, Iowa, who arrived in this city about a week ago on a tour of inspection, left for home last Tuesday via Victoria over the Canadian Pacific railroad. Mr. Peterson expressed himself as well pleased with Port Angeles and its superior commercial situation. He believes that it is destined to become a great commercial port. He says it is his intention to return to Port Angeles and reside as soon as he can satisfactorily settle his business affairs in Iowa.

Mrs. H. F. Phelps, the milliner, has just received a fresh stock of the latest novelties in millinery, and respectfully requests that the ladies of Port Angeles call and inspect these goods. The prices will be found remarkably low.

The L. S. L. E. Meeting.

The L. S. L. E. held their regular meeting last Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. D. Stewart. The attendance was good.

In honor of Decoration Day the usual programme was not entirely carried out. Very able papers were read on the various stages of Garfield's life, and some say interesting anecdotes were related relative to the war, by several of the members.

During the afternoon one or two selections were beautifully rendered on the piano by Mrs. Brown. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flags, intermingled with the green, and the air was filled with the fragrance of beautiful flowers.

After partaking of cake and coffee, and all joining in singing an appropriate song, a most enjoyable afternoon was brought to a close.

Do you want a new suit of clothes, or your wife a new dress? If so take any kind of skins to the U. S. Clothing House and they will give you a trade.

School Election.

A number of citizens have urged Wm. Bell to accept the nomination of school director. But the gentleman in question positively declines to enter the contest.

The many friends of T. Wagner have persistently urged that he enter the contest for the position. They contend that as an able, experienced and thoroughly qualified teacher he has the essential qualifications for an ideal director. Mr. Wagner says that personally he has no desise, whatever, to enter the contest, but that if his friends believe, in the event of his election, he could in any measure promote the cause of education, or contribute to the betterment of the public school system, he might accede to their wishes—but left to his own inclinations he certainly would not enter the contest.

Richard Eacrett has been nominated for the position. Mr. Eacrett has had considerable experience as a school teacher and should be elected.

W. H. Smythe is a candidate for clerk of this school district.

AN EVENING AT SEQUIM.

The Literary Society of Sequim Entertain a Number of Leaguers.

In response to an invitation from the Sequim Literary Society about twenty-five of the members of the Lyceum League of this city drove up to that place last Friday, leaving here at 12 o'clock, (noon).

After spending an hour in the cool shade on the banks of Seibert's creek, where a delicious luncheon was served by the ladies, the party proceeded on their journey, arriving at the hall on the prairie at 4:30. The committee, who had been appointed to see to the welfare of the visitors, met them, and put all their energies into looking out for anything that might add to the pleasure of their friends.

At 6 o'clock supper was served and keenly relished after the long but yet pleasant drive from this city, after which groups wandered off across the prairie, seemingly enjoying the cool breeze and fragrant country air, waiting for the exercises of the evening to commence.

At 8 o'clock the meeting, which comprised about 250 persons, was called to order by the president of the Sequim society, who, in a few, well-chosen remarks, welcomed the visitors and hoped they would spend a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Lizzie Burrows then gave a comic recitation which was very much appreciated.

Next was a dialogue, of some length, which was very creditably rendered by Misses Birdie Combs and Margaret Wright and Messrs. Guy Combs and Frank Buckler, and was favorably received. The president then declared the meeting in the hands of the officers of the Lyceum League for further entertainment, After the members of that club repeating their declaration of allegiance to the flag, the following program was rendered:

Song ..... League
Address ..... A. S. McCormick
Recitation ..... Jessie Elliott
Instrumental Duet .....
.... Mrs. Beardsley, H. G. Beardsley
Recitation ..... Myrtia McLaughlin
Instrumental Duet ..... McClinton Bros
Recitation ..... Robt. Dick
Song ..... W. J. Ware
Song—Trio .....
.... McCormick, McClinton, Graham
Closing Song ..... League

After the production of the foregoing a social dance was given, at which about forty (?) Angeles' young people were present.

The members of the League returned home Saturday evening, looking somewhat tired, but loud in their praises of the hospitality of the members of the Literary Society and the people of Sequim in general.

PATENTS
FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
