THAT MONSTER DEBT

Drives Another Victim to the Verge of

UTTER DISPAIR AND HE RESOLVES

To Take His Life—Once Thrifty and Prosperous But Unwise Investments and Business Reverses Sweep the Accumulations of Years Away—A Victim of Religious Dimentia Committed to the Asylum Last Monday.

Phillip A. Sauter, a little German tailor who has resided in Port Angeles for about three years last past, committed suicide last Saturday night by shooting himself through the mouth with a 38-calibre America double action revolver the ball passing through his head.

The first intimation of the terrible crime was learned by Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Maxfield, who had occasion to pass Sauter's premises on Tumwater hill last Monday forenoon. In passing the house, which stands out to the road, they glanced in the window and saw what appeared to be the body of a man stretched out on the bed. A closer examination revealed a horrible spectacle. There lay the dead body of Sauter, with a revolver clasped in his hand.

They immediately gave the alarm. When an entrance was effected their worst fears were confirmed. When the door was opened a sickening, nauseating odor was emitted from the room. There lay the body of Sauter with a revolver clasped in his hand; an ugly, ghastly wound through his head. The horrified spectators were overwhelmed with the awful evidence of a terrible crime, committed too by the hand of the pitiable victim stretched before them.

To those who best knew Sauter the intelligence of his having taken his own life was no surprise to them, in fact, he had frequently threatened as much in the presence of his friends. Of a peculiarly nervous disposition, subject to frequent spells of melancholy, having experienced severe financial reverses which swept away the accumulations of a lifetime; extremely sensative, somewhat grasping, suspicious and distrustful, he grieved and brooded over his financial losses until undoubtedly it over-balanced his mind. When he first came to Port Angeles he invested $1500 in real property; from these investments he, like hundreds of others, had been hopeful in years to come, with the appearance of the much coveted boom to realize a fortune, a future of luxurious ease; he engaged in business and that monster, debt, fastened its relentless clutches around him, and ruin, desolation, dispair confronted him.

He was indebted to a furnishing house; the amount was small, something like $130; the claim is pressed, a judgment obtained and his entire property is levied upon and sold to satify the not overly scrupulous but somewhat covetous creditor.

In speaking to Mr. Carsten last Thursday, Sauter declared to him that it was his intention to take his life. He also made the same declaration to Adam Zerenner, who was formerly a partner of his in business in this city. Zerenner did not believe that he intended to carry out the threat, as he was subject to frequent spells of melancholy, when he acted irrational and talked in a wild and incoherent manner.

Later events proved, however, that the threats were not idle, and that he had seriously been contemplating the terrible deed which he put into execution last Saturday evening.

Adjudged Insane.

For months past Ernest Luckner, proprietor of a small grocery store on the corner of Race and Fourth streets has evidenced unmistakable symptoms of insanity. Little attention was paid to him, however, as he was generally regarded as harmless during his insane periods, when his mind was overwrought with religious frenzy, he imagining that he had received a revelation direct from heaven of the second coming of Christ, and other equally irrational and ridiculous conclusions.

Last Sunday he attended the funeral services at the opera house and acted so strangely, that he had to be escorted from the hall. He told a number of citizens that the Lord was in Port Angeles, and it was the largest city in the world.

His strange action at the opera house, and irrational conversation with citizens during the past few weeks confirmed the opinion among his neighbors that his insanity was gradually becoming more aggrevated and that it would be the part of discretion and wisdom to place him under restraint and where he could receive medical treatment ere he committed some serious act in his unaccountable moments.

Agreeable thereto Thos. E. Banks swore out a warrant for his arrest on the charge of insanity last Monday. In the afternoon he was brought before Circuit Court Commissioner Harry E. Lutz, for an examination. The examining board comprised Drs. Lewis and Lull. The examination developed the fact that the unfortunate was suffering from religious dementia, and the case was sufficiently aggrevated to commit him to the asylum consequently he was adjudged insane and committed to the asylum, Sheriff Dyke leaving Tuesday morning for Steilacoom having in charge the unfortunate man.

He leaves a wife and two children who have the sympathy of the community in their terrible affliction.

Clallam Lodge, I. O. O. F. Officers.

Clallam Lodge No. 72, I. O. O. F., installed the following officers for the ensuing term last Thursday evening: B. F. VanLehn, N. G.; C. F. Merritt, V. G.; Chas. Foss, Secretary; D. S. Burness, Treasurer.

The Shields & Maxfield shingle on Ennes creek has been closed down during the past few days as the water is unusually low in the creek, which necessitated the construction of a six foot dam. The volume of water was only sufficient to develop 48 horse power, whereas the wheel required 83 horse power. With the construction of the dam double the power will be developed required to operate the mill.

Among the numerous persons who have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, mention should be made of Mrs. Emily Thorne, of Toledo, Wash., who says: "I have never been able to procure any medicene that would relieve me of rheumatism like Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have also used it for lame back with great success. It is the best liniment I have ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

City Marshal Dustman recently received a letter from the chief of police of Puebla, Colo., who seeks information as to the whereabouts of W. Cole Thompson, who left that place some tsme ago for the state of Washington. Since his departure his father has died, leaving a wholesale business without an executive head, consequently his mother is very desirous to learn of the whereabouts of her son.

MYERS IS ELECTED

Councilman From the Second Ward

TO FILL THE VACANCY CREATED

By the Removal of Councilman Crockett From the City—The Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Late Edwin Phelps One of the Largest Ever Held in the City—Services Held in the Opera House.

At the regular meeting of the city council last Wednesday evening Mayor Mallette and Councilmen Harding, Stewart, Graybill, Munro and Shelton were present.

The chief of the fire department was instructed to have one of the ladders repaired and see that the hose is properly put away.

Councilman Harding, of the cemetery committee, stated that the first cemetery lot had been sold; also that the clearing of the cemetery was progressing satisfactorily.

The health officer called the attention of the council to a shack on the corner of Lincoln and 3d streets, from which offensive odors were emitted. The council order that the city marshal destroy the shack.

A petition was read from citizens of Sixth ward, the nature of which was a request that the council furnish the lumber and nails for a two-foot sidewalk from Fourth street on C street to Third street, petitioners agreeing to do the work. The petition was granted.

A communication from Thos. Penniman apprised the council of the dangerous condition of a bridge on Sixth street between Lincoln and Chase streets. The matter was referred to the street commissioner.

The matter of electing a councilman to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the city of Councilman Crockett, of the second ward, was taken under consideration. Only two nominations were made, namely, Warren R. Dodge and S. L. Myers. It required a number of ballots to determine an election. On the last ballot Mr. Myers received all of the votes and was declared unanimously elected. The council adjourned.

The Funeral of Edwin Phelps.

The funeral services under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic as held in this city on Sunday, July 21st, 1895, over the remains of Comrade Edwin Phelps, of Pacific Post No. 48, were deeply impressive, and for general attendance excelled anything of the kind heretofore witnessed in this city. The deceased was a universal favorite in the city and county, he being noted as a strictly sober and industrious citizens with a cheerful word for everyone he chanced to meet.

Mounted upon a wagon he was proceeding with a load of wood on the side road coming down from Pine hill on Friday, about 2 o'clock a. m., July 19th, 1895, when the rope attached to the brake gave way throwing the load and wagon upon the horses, which were forced over a precipitous point and dashed over to almost certain death. The driver was thrown down and a hub of one of the wheels struck him in the breast and crushed his ribs on one side.

He was immediately taken to his home where he retained consciousness sufficiently to realize his condition, and to call his wife and little daughter to say "good bye my pets."

The veterans of the local post at once rallied at their comrade's home, and their relief committee then took charge of the remains while the others proceeded to make arrangements to fittingly pay their last respects to the deceased.

On Sunday, July 21st, at 9:30 a. m., the members of the local post of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V., with the Gate City Band, proceeded in a body to the residence and escorted the remains to the opera house, which was densely packed with people at an early hour. The stage was banked with floral tributes of many attractive designs, among which we noticed the national flag exquisitely worked out in stripes, and a field of primroses with stars of daisies; a pillow of white roses, and one of white pansies, each with F. C. & L. inserted with contrasting floral gems; two baskets of exquisite roses, artistically arranged; a stand of crossed rifles with an anchor and drum combined all in wonderful skill.

Religious exercises were conducted by Rev. J. McKean of the M. E. Church, assisted by the choir of the same. The Gate City Band opened the exercises by playing "Nearer My God to Thee," the choir then sang the last verse.

The sermon was effective in an appropriate text, reminding us that "Death is Ours," and dwelling upon the facts here evident of the uncertainity of life, and of the inevitable—death!

Several hundred persons filed by the bier and took a farewell look at this favorite veteran, who had so many times over enlivened local camp fires with old time war songs.

While the processsion was re-forming on the street, an enterprising photographer, by request, took a number of views, which will doubtless be eagerly sought and preserved for future reference in history, as well as for keepsakes among friends.

Some twenty-five vehicles were in the funeral train, which passed to the Ocean View Cemetery. His grave, which is in lot 1, block I, marks the first interment in the two-acre plot, set apart for the exclusive use of old soldiers and their families.

At a regular meeting of this post on this Friday evening, July 19, 1895, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect, which were reported and attested as follows:

HEADQUARTERS
PACIFIC POST NO. 48, G. A. R.,
PORT ANGELES, WASH., July 19th, 1895.

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father has suddenly withdrawn forever from this community the familiar face and form of Comrade Edwin Phelps, who received fatal injuries from the accidental overturning of a wagon this afternoon; and

WHEREAS, We deem it right and proper to befittingly note the departure of comrades as they one by one are transferred, we hope and believe, to a grand everlasting reunion in Paradise. Be it therefore

Resolved, That in recognition of the Grand Commander's supreme power and action, which has so unexpectedly taken Comrade Edwin Phelps from this community into the realms of immortality, we humbly exclaim, "Thy will be done"; and submissively place upon the records here, our sincere heartfelt expressions, that in this instance our city has lost one of its most fraternal and exemplary citizens, the post is deprived of one of its most loyal, zealous and faithful comrades, and the widow and children of the deceased have cause to mourn for a husband and parent who was noted amongst us for his watchful care and great affection for them, and his spirit of "Charity to all and malice towards none."

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Phelps and her children in the great trouble that has thus woefully fallen upon her and them, and we pray th the all-wise Ruler, who "doeth all things well," will solace and comfort her and them in their deep distress and sorrow. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished Mrs. Phelps, and be published in the newspapers of this city.

THOS. H. BRADLEY,
W. C. ELLSWERTH,
RICHARD FOWLER,
Committee.

R. R. HARDING,
Post Commander.

GATE CITY COUNCIL NO. 11, W. A. P. A.
Port Angeles, Wash., July 23, '95.

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from our midst our brother and friend Edwin Phelps and

WHEREAS, we deem it just and appropriate to respectfully note the deceased friends as they pass away and are called from us. Be it therefore

Resolved, That in the recognition of a supreme power, which, by seeming mysterious action, removed our friend, we can only exclaim "Thy will be done,"

THE FAIR WILL BE HELD

In the Mild Month of October.

IT WILL BE HELD FROM THE SECOND

To the Fourth Inclusive—The Executive Committee, Comprised of Members of the Horticultural Society, Address a Pertinent Letter to Citizens of the County—Other Important Matters Appertaining Thereto.

PORT ANGELES, WASH., July 23, 1895.

To the People of Clallam County:

At a recent meeting of the Clallam County Horticultural Society, it was decided to hold a County Fair at Port Angeles during the first week in October of the present year, and to endeavor to make this—the first of a series of Annual County Fairs—a worthy and truthful exposition of the resources of this great county; one in which every resident of the county will take an active and enthusiastic interest, and to the success of which everyone will contribute to the full limit of their ability.

There is nothing that we can do, as a community, that will more thoroughly and convincingly advertise to the world the divers fied wealth of our county and justify the claims that we make for the wonderful productiveness of our soils and to excellence of the quality of our products, than a successfully conducted County Fair, in which every portion of the county will be fully represented. Such an exposition, properly advertised and managed, will bring hundreds of strangers into our midst to see what we are doing, as a county; to note the progress that we have made in advancing our agricultural and horticultural interests; what we are doing in the way of raising well-bred horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry, and in making high-grade butter and cheese, and in honey-making, what our ladies can show in the way of fine breads, cakes, jellies, jams, preserves and pickles, at needle work, paintings and flowers; the character of the exhibits that our merchants can make; what we can show in the way of specimens of big timber of the various varieties that we have in such abundance and perfection, and what we can display in manufactured lumber—shingles, clear cedar lumber, clear fir flooring, rustic and dimension stuffs, clear spruce, hemlock, pine, Alaska cedar, curly maple; what varieties of food fishes we can exhibit, taken from the waters of the sea that washes one hundred miles of Clallam county's shore line, and from our lakes and mountain streams; what we have to show in the way of pelts, or mounted specimens, of our valuable fur bearing animals, or the big game that makes this section an ideal resort for the sportsman; how well we are maintaining the standard of education, through specimens of the work that is being done by the children in the schools in every part of the county, and what we can show in the way of gold, silver, copper, coal, building stones and valuable clays, produced within Clallam's borders.

If the people of every locality in the county will take hold of this project, and see to it that their respective localities are properly represented at the Fair by exhibits that will worthily represent their products, of every kind, the grand result of their united endeavors will be an exposition the magnitude and excellence of which will astonish us all.

If the farmers, fruit-growers, dairymen and stock raisers of the east end of the county, who have for so long and so successfully demonstrated that Clallam county's products cannot be excelled by those of any section of Western Washington, will assemble here the splendid all-around exhibit they are so competent to make; and if the ambitious people of the west end of the county—the people of the great Quillayute country, about the wonderful wealth and productiveness of which we have come to know so much in the past few years—will "get in" and make an exhibit that will do justice to their splendid section, and if the farmers, fruit growers, merchants, manufacturers and business men of the Angeles district will do their part—as they surely will—Clallam County's First Annual County Fair will be a success that we will all be proud of, and one from which every portion of the county will receive a direct benefit.

There are many fine fruits now ripe, or ripening, specimens of which should be preserved for exhibition at the Fair; and every fruit grower, in every portion of the county, is urged to preserve in their natural size and color, in alcohol, or other preservative fluid, at least one glass jar full (Mason's jars will answer the purpose) of choice specimens of the various varieties of fruits they grow; and the ladies—who never fail to do their part, in any public-spirited enterprise— will see to it that good specimens of these same fruits, preserved in various forms, are exhibited at the Fair.

Prizes will be offered for the best exhibits entered for competition in every department of the fair, and all awards will be made by carefully selected committees, representing every locality in the county.

A great many of the products displayed at the Fair can be preserved for a permanent exhibit of the resources of the various portions of the county, and all articles that are thus contributed to this permanent exhibit, which will be handsomely arranged and displayed in suitable quarters, will be clearly labeled with the name of the specimen exhibited, and with the name and post-office address of the exhibitor, and such other information as will be of value to visitors to the exhibit.

In this way, a permanent exhibit of fruits, vegetables, wheat, oats, barley, rye, corn, timothy, clover, alfalfa, hops, minerals, building stone and specimens of our timber wealth, can be had and maintained, that will be an enduring advertisement for the localities that produced them, and that will be of the utmost value to new settlers coming to the county, in enabling them to determine the section of the county in which they want to locate and make their home.

An excellent auxiliary programme will be arranged for the three days of the Fair; low-rate excursions will be run from Victoria, Nanaimo, Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Williams, Dungeness, and all points between Port Angeles and Neah Bay. Every posible facility will be afforded the people to get to the Fair cheaply, and ample provisions will be made for entertaining them while they are here, and for making this First Annual County Fair such a success as will redound to the credit and benefit of the whole county.

The social importance of the Fair should not be lost sight of, either, as it will afford the people from every portion of the county an admirable opportunity for mingling together and getting better acquainted with each other, with results that cannot fail to be beneficial all around.

The Horticultural Society, under the auspices of which this Fair will be given, has elected the following gentlemen as the Board of Managers of the Fair: Messrs. Geo. H. Gale, A. Lingham, J. M. Grant, T. H. Carter, J. S. Coolican, S. M. Crooks and M. J. Carrigan.

This board met Monday evening of the present week and organized by electing M. J. Carrigan, President; S. M. Crooks, Secretary-Treasurer, and Geo. H. Gale, Corresponding Secretary.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 2nd, 3d and 4th, were chosen as the days on which the Fair will be held. The opera house will be used as the main exposition hall, and ample accommodations will be provided for properly taking care of the live stock, poultry and speed class exhibits, in suitable quarters, centrally located.

Horse races, sailing and canoe races, bicycle and foot races, base ball matches,

A COUNTY FAIR.

The possibilities for the accomplishment of material and lasting benefits in holding a county fair in Port Angeles are simply infinite.

The marvelous wealth of its agricultural, timber and mineral resources and its fisheries has oft been told, but no more effective plan offers to thoroughly and properly demonstrate the existence of this vast wealth of varied resources than to gather together a collection of these products and publicly announce the holding of an exhibition to display them.

With this object in view, no doubt, the Horticultural Society has earnestly taken the matter in hand, and is busily at work perfecting the arrangements for a county fair in October. The exhibition will extend over a period of three days.

Every producer in the county is cordially invited to take an active, personal interest in the fair, and to contribute any specimen of the products of the soil, timber, mineral region or fisheries, as will fairly represent and measure the quality and commercial value of its resources.

Then too. A creditable exhibit could be utilized most advantageously for shipment to the East, as a material advertisement of the actual resources of this wonderful country.

And the executive committee should see to it, that every encouragement possible is extended to the producer to induce him to bring samples of his products to the fair, by offering premiums to stimulate active rivalry; by securing free transportation for his exhibit and reduced fair for himself, and in other ways make it worth his while to take an active part in the fair.

And it should be a pleasurable duty for every citizen in the county to assist and encourage those who have evidenced such commendable public spirit in taking the initiative in this enterprise, in every way in his power, and thus in advance impart the assurance of the ultimate success of the fair.

IF GREEK MEETS GREEK.

WATSON C. SQUIRE, United States Senator from the state of Washington, is by no means a political unit, as some of his party opponents profess to believe. During his official career Senator Squire has made a record, and it will be no fault of the distinguished gentleman, if he does not receive full measure of publicity and credit for whatever he may have accomplished for his dearly beloved constituents as their representative in the United States Senate.

And there may be another method in the maneuvers of this polished parliamentarian, than that which appears on the surface to the casual observer. Washington's Chesterfieldian Senator has an exceeding relish for the continual whirl of social gayety at the National Capital, and most likely is loth to retire to the peaceful calm of private life.

The beginning of the end of his term of office is not very far removed in the future. To his cultured idea of agreeable surroundings and luxurious advantages, another term as United States Senator from Washington would neither be inharmonious nor distasteful.

An adept in the art of manipulating political forces, he would prove, with all of his other potent and effective weapons brought into action, an influential candidate and at the same time a formidable opponent in the oncoming sensational contest at Olympia in '96-7.

A contest between the distinguished Senator and Governor John H. McGraw is not altogether improbable. And should the logic of events bring it about, the opportunity supreme may be afforded the local historian for one of the most racy, sensational and thrilling chapters yet written—although the crafty Republican leaders of the state have already contributed several spicy chapters to local political history that neither impart an agreeable flavor nor a wholesome odor to the political atmosphere.

With this rough forecast of future political possibilities, why be discouraged.

A REPUBLICAN journal gleefully publishes the statement, which it credits Henry Watterson with saying, that the record of the Democratic party from 1861 to 1895, was "a history of one blunder following another in almost unbroken succession." Now to make the chapter complete will that presumably impartial journal tell an eager, interested public, what Henry Watterson says of the Republican party during that period.

AMONG the Democratic presidential possibilities the names of William C. Whitney of New York, and William R. Morrison of Illinois, figure very prominently and conspicuously.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Bricelland, Cal., "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much fasth in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for the list of testimonials.

The summer green is growing sere,
The sultry July days are here;
Where nodded roses white and red,
The fading blossoms droop each head.
Beneath the cloudless summer skies;
The leaves hang limp upon upon the trees
The heat is ninety-odd degrees.

"The Country School" will be given in the near future either here or at Sequim under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Rev. Dr. Ford officiated Sunday evening at the M. E. Church. A large and appreciative congregation were present it being the last quarterly meeting of the year. It is hoped that Rev. R. C. Lee will be returned to the charge as he has gived universal satisfaction.

Tom Bowman was arrested on a charge of hog-stealing by Amore Myers. He was tried before Justice Miner and found guilty. Lawyer Hatch, of Angeles, was in attendance at the trial. Tom's many friends are hoping that extenuating circumstances will be found to prove his innocence.

The "Literary" is gaining ground, as parents begin to recognize the fact that something of a higher nature is required to satisfy the needs of the community than the Sunday ball games and horse-races, which have heretofore characterized Dungeness.

A number of friends surprised Levi H. Cays the 20th inst., it being the occasion of his sixty-first birthday. An enjoyable day was spent, the most pleasing part being the splendid dinner served at 3 p. m. After wishing Levi many happy returns of the day, the ladies presented him with a few tokens of friendship as a reminder of the occasion. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lotzgasell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pilcher, Mr. and Mrs. Squire Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cays, Elias Cays, Mrs. Adeline Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson.

Many of the farmers are digging their early potatoes and find ready sale for them at remunerative prices.

O. V. Brown, assistant light-keeper here left Wednesday for a months vacation. He will take in Seattle, Portland and other places in Oregon.

Mark Miner left Wednesday for Cape Mear's light, Oregon. His uncle, Mr. Hunt, light keeper there, has secured for him a scholarship in Tillamook Academy.

The social given at Sequim last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Grace M. E. Church, was well attended and an enjoyable evening was spend by all present.

A. Lingham, nurseryman and florist, has choice dahlias and other flowers in bloom, and is also raising a fine lot of garden peas and beans for seed on the Groveland place.

EAST CLALLAM ITEMS.

Lovely weather.

Quite a party of young folks took a horse back ride to Pysht last Sunday.

Mrs. John Gordon, of Beaver, was transacting business in town Monday.

Joseph Sands took his elk to Gray's Harbor last week, where he expects to sell it.

Mrs. Pullen returned to LaPush Tuesday after spending three very pleasant days with us.

Chas. Brockway arrived here on Monday's Garland with six horses for the Pysht logging camp.

Crops in this vicinity are looking fine and the farmers are all jubilant over the prospects of a large yield.

Fred Baxter, of LaPush, is laid up here suffering from a large carbuncle on his right knee. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. J. L. Sweet and Mrs. Keltner gave an old fashioned candy pull and social at the residence of Mrs. Sweet Friday evening. All report a fine time.

Scott & Shaw, the Seikou river loggers, sent a boom of 600,000 feet upsound last week and have as much more in the river awaiting the arrival of a tug.

Capt. and Mrs. Horne arrived here Sunday from LaPush in company with Mrs. Pullen. Mrs. Horne met with a painful accident on the way in, being thrown from her horse and kicked on the side of the face. No bones were broken, but she had a narrow escape. She was taken home on Monday's steamer.

A. S. Crawford & Sons, the Hoko river loggers, have just completed work clearing out the river for six miles up from the mouth. They cut an 80-foot channel through the big jam, and also removed three smaller ones farther up the river. They employ about 20 men and a thirty horse power engine. Mr. Crawford expects to log all winter rain or shine and is now at work building a large camp at Hoko Falls. He finds ready sale for all his spruce, and is making that timber his specialty.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

East Clallam Record.]

A swarm of pests in the shape of worms and bugs are destroying the growing vegetables in this vicinity. A remedy for this nuisance is badly needed.

A state land cruiser named Bush arrived on Wednesday and starts out today on a cruise of the townships of the west end accompanied by J. A. Witherow.

One of the old Indian residents of the day, the wife of Thomas Jemiack died Wednesday and was buried yesterday. Her mourning relatives went through some peculiar ceremonies by paddling canoes around the bay in which were loaded all the dead woman's belongings, presumably taking them over the water where she used to put in her time fishing. The goods were then buried with her.

Beaver Leader.]

The black bear, Annie, was shipped from LaPush to David T. Smith, of Seattle.

Miss Malson, who has been teaching at Quillayute, but who, at the request of Miss Guptill, has closed her school, was in Beaver Sunday evening while on her way home in Seattle. She was accompanied this far by Miss Mina Smith, who returned to Quillayute Monday.

The fire near Gettysburg and the one at Sappho are forcible reminders that settlers cannot be too careful about putting out fires. When fires once get started in slashings, especially on a windy day, there is no stopping it from catching in the tree-tops and once in the tree-tops look out for the result. Be careful with your fires.

We hear a great deal of complaint this year about the destruction of crops by bugs and worms. It is claimed that in several localities below here the worms have entirely stripped the potato tops and have done incalculable injury to cabbage and all kinds of roots. Old timers say this is the first time in thirty years that the obnoxious grub has made his appearance in this county. Some thirty years ago they took everything in sight. They came in vast swarms and the ground was literally covered with the worms. Toward the latter part of July, however, they were transformed into white butter flies and took to wing, causing the sun, as an old settler put it, to be darkened for hours as the large swarm rose in the air.

A Pioneer's Recommendation.

Mr. J. W. Venable, of Downey, a pioneer of Los Angeles county, Cal., says: "Whenever I am troubled with a pain in the stomach or with diarrhoea I use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it for years, know it to be reliable remedy, and recommend it to every one." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

A fine line of stylish $3 hats have been reduced to $1 each at the U. S. Clothing and Dry Goods House.

A full line of boys brown overalls with bibs attached just received at the U. S. Clothing and Dry Goods House.

Why be bothered with Dyspepsia. When one or two bottles of Improved Dyspepsia Cure will stop all disarrangements of the stomach. For sale by J. C. Hansen.

WHEN THE NOTE FALLS DUE.

You may say life is trouble
When the clouds are in the blue;
But a fellow finds it double
When the
Note
Falls
Due!

Sorrow's nothing but a bubble
That will vanish from the view;
But it's trouble, trouble, trouble,
When the
Note
Falls
Due!

And the corn it goes to stubble,
And the rose—it withers, too;
And it's trouble, trouble, trouble;
When the
Note
Falls
Due!

Go it single file, or double,
There'll be work enough for you
In a living world of trouble,
When the
Note
Falls
Due!

President Eliot says some boys come to Harverd wiih a vocabulary of only 200 or 300 words; everything is either "nice" or "bully;" they have few nouns, a limited number of verbs, and no adjectives to speak of. And probably some of the adjectives they do have were better not spoken.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Improvement depends far less upon length of tasks and hours of application than is supposed. Children can take in but a little each day; they are like vases with a narrow neck; you may pour little or pour much, but much will not enter at a time.—Michelet.

That modern surgery can no longer be classed as an "experimental science" but must hereafter be regarded as one of the "exact sciences" was effectively demonstrated at Elkhart, Ind., the other day, where three women were operated on almost from the same disease. THE FUNERAL OF EDWIN PHELPS.

and sadly place upon the records our sincere convictions of the loss of so noble a man and friend, zealous in all work, faithful in all duties and true to his country and home. Be it further

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathies to the family and friends of the deceased in this their home of trial and bereavement, and that we will do all in our power to alleviate their suffering, realizing the loss and from whence it came, we can only ask the protection of that supreme power.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished Mrs. Phelps, and a copy sent to each of the newspapers for publication.

MATILDA C. COOPER,
JENNIE CLEGG,
Committee.

Card of Thanks.

Permit us to say that words fail to express the gratitude we feel to the many friends of our beloved husband and father for so fittingly expressing their sympathy through the presentation of the beautiful flowers, and the many other kind attentions shown us in our great bereavement and loss of our loved one who was so suddenly called from us. May God bless you all.
