VOL. 6. NO. 15. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, AUGUST 9, 1895. PRICE FIVE CENTS

THE LOGGING INDUSTRY.

Chadwick Disposes of His Logging Outfit and

STUMPAGE NEAR PORT CRESCENT.

The Successors to This Valuable Property Will Make Important Improvements—Will Operate on an Extensive Scale—One of Clallam County's Finest Private Edifices Totally Destroyed by Fire—Loss Estimated at $10,000.

J. Chadwick has sold his logging camp which is located on Whisky creek, near Port Crescent, together with the stumpage contract on 2000 acres of valuable timber land situated along the banks and in the vicinity of Whisky creek, to Wm. Hulbert & Co., of Seattle.

The successors to this valuable logging business will immediately take possession and inaugurate many valuable improvements, among which will be a breakwater at the mouth of Whisky creek, the dimensions of which will be 600 feet with a wing 300 feet.

In the construction of the breakwater a donkey engine will be used for hauling and hoisting purposes, after which it will be profitably employed in yarding.

Two miles of track will be constructed along the banks of Whisky creek into the magnificent belt of timber.

It is not thought these important improvements can be finished much before the rainy season begins, so it is not expected that they will be able to begin logging operations on an extensive scale until next spring.

The belt of timber acquired by this company is undoubtedly one of the finest in the state of Washington and is estimated to contain at least 75,000,000 feet of superior merchantable timber—fir and cedar.

Messrs. Hulbert & Co., are also negotiating with the Port Crescent Improvement Co., for its valuable belt of timber which almost, if not immediately, adjoins the timber they have acquired. Should they succeed in securing the tract at a reasonable figure, they will certainly have laid the foundation of an independent fortune, as all of this timber is easily accessible to the water and can be logged cheaply and advantageously.

As it is, they have several seasons' work before them, with the promise of remunerative employment for forty or fifty men.

CHAMBERS' FINE RESIDENCE

Totally Destroyed By Fire—Fully Covered With Insurance.

The fine residence of Frank Chambers sr., situated at his country seat east of the city was totally destroyed by fire last Tuesday night, together with all of its contents, including household furniture, furnishings, etc., valued at $10,000.

The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but it is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. At the time the only occupant of the house was Ralph Chambers, Mr. Chambers being in the east, and Mrs. Chambers and Miss Sarah were at the lakes.

The first intimation Ralph had of the fire was in awakening from a deep sleep he was nearly suffocated with the dense smoke, which had by that time thoroughly circulated through the house. He hastily arose to discover that the house was enveloped in flames, and none too quickly to safely make his escape.

The fire had got under such headway that it was impossible to overcome it with the ineffectual means at command, and one of Clallam's finest private residences was totally destroyed by the fiendish flames.

The loss to the unfortunate owners is, indeed, a severe one, as not only the house but its entire contents were consumed. The house was a costly structure and its furnishings were rich and elaborate. The edifice was built about five years ago and cost about $8,000. It was insured for $4,500, and the furniture for $1,000. The companies involved are, the Manchester, Wilson & Fisher, agents, $2,000; the Hartford, Chas. E. Mallette, agent, $1,000; Farmers & Merchants', St. Paul, $2,500.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

East Clallam Record.]

A logging camp for the local mill was started this week two miles up the river.

W. H. Simpson is building a dwelling 10x30 feet for Robt. Smith, to replace the building burned down last year.

Nicholas King is at work building a shop 12x14 feet for his shoemaking business, on the lot adjoining his present quarters.

Some Seattle sportsmen have taken to a new form of excursion for a summer outing which has in it both pleasure and profit. They sailed on a yacht for a few day's deep sea fishing off Cape Flattery.

A county fair will be held at Port Angeles during the first week in October next. It is under the auspices of the Clallam County Horticultural Society. A display of all products of the county will be had and there are other interesting features attached. This county has never had a fair and now is a good time to begin.

The Quillayute river appears to offer a good opportunity for salmon fishing and the Washington Fur Company, owners of the schooner Teaser, are preparing to engage in the business of catching salmon and salting them in barrels. The Teaser will be at anchor at Neah Bay and make trips around to LaPush when necessary.

John Sullivan came down from Ballard last week to build a large dam on the Sekiou river at Merrick's place, for the logging firm on the river. The dam will stretch across the river and will be constructed with three piers and will have two fourteen foot gates.

Old Indians Thomas Jemiack is dying on the west side of the bay surrounded by numerous of his tillacums who have been keeping up a melancholy concert over him for the past week. The old man is suffering from blood poisoning and has been in a deplorable condition. Tuesday morning the Indians ordered a coffin for him expecting that he would die before night. The coffin was made on Wednesday but Tom is alive yet, or was, when last heard from.

Messrs. Burh and Witherow, state land cruisers, came in from a cruise over five or six townships, Wednesday. They have not made any selections for the state thus far, owing to the fact that all the good quarter sections are settled upon in the townships they visited, and the vacant forties they cannot take. Good claims are very scarce in the surveyed townships. The cruisers are going out again into some townships not so well settled as those around here, where they expect to capture a quantity of land.

Beaver Leader.]

Settlers who have any large potatoes or other large roots should preserve them for the Fair.

Sam Irwin, Forrest Codman and August Bark, of Forks, came up Tuesday to begin work on the barn which Mr. Irwin is going to erect at Sappho.

Bloomers—while the average girl might look horrid, in fact, absolutely ugly, in them—would, nevertheless, be a mighty good thing for picking blackberries on the mountains, and would, at least be a big improvement over common every-day pants.

The annual rush to Burnt mountain has begun. Some twenty odd people may be seen climbing up the mountain side in quest of the juicy berry, and a great many more anticipate going soon. Probably seventy-five gallons have been gathered within the last week.

First-class photographs from $1.50 to $9.00 per dozen at Thomas', Front St., near the bank.

CLALLAM'S EXPOSITION.

A Number of Valued Additions Are Made

TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

All Evidences of Inharmony Disappear, and the Citizens of Clallam Unite With the Fair Committees in Perfecting the Plans for One of the Most Creditable County Fairs Ever Held in the State of Washington.

The executive committee, having in charge the management of the County Fair to be given in Port Angeles on the 2nd, 3d and 4th of October, under the auspices of the Clallam County Horticultural society, is actively at work advancing all preliminaries that will add to the merit and success of the Fair.

The committee is stimulated to put forth its very best efforts by the many messages of approval and encouragement that it is receiving from all parts of the county—messages that conclusively show that the people are alive to the importance of making the Fair one that will redound to the credit and profit of the county. Both the East and the West ends of the county will make large, varied and interesting exhibits, and Angeles will, of course, be on her mettle to see that the interests of the "Middle District" are handsomely represented.

At a special meeting of the Horticultural Society held at the rooms of the Board of Trade Wednesday evening, the Executive Committee of the Fair was increased by the addition of seven new members. The following now comprise this committee: Messrs. M. J. Carrigan, S. M. Crooks, Geo. H. Gale, J. S. Coolican, T. H. Carter, J. M. Grant, A. Lingham, E. H. Stanley, Henry Westphal W. W. Maltby, G. V. Smith, Wm. Banks and Mrs. J. B. Cosser.

Several valuable additions were made to the local committee of the Angeles district, and this committee now embrace the following gentlemen:

Port Angeles District—Judge J. G. McClinton, Senator R. C. Wilson, Hon. E. E. Seevers, U. S. Deputy Collector Will Clark, County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Ella Guptill, Commissioner Titus Graybill, Mayor C. E. Mallette, Capt. Thos. H. Bradley, Major R. R. Harding, Major W. H. Can Fish in British Waters.

A company, composed principally of Oregonians, who have been engaged in the cannery business on the Columbia river, have started a salmon cannery at Port Angeles and will commence operations in a few days. They will fish in the straits, for which purpose they have had several large nets made. One of the nets is a mile long. A steamer will tow the boats out and will also take scows, on to which the nets will be emptied. The gentlemen interested are all experienced men, and having thoroughly investigated the matter, believe that they have a good thing. Mr. J. W. Griffith, formerly of this city, who is interested, was here a few days ago interviewing Dominion government officials as to weather the company may fish in Canadian waters. It is understood that the answer was a satisfactory one.—Victoria Times.

BUSINESS MEN WIN.

The Match Game of Base Ball Last Sunday.

The match game of base ball between the business men and the court house officials, which had been the subject of much speculation as to which would prove themselves the victors and at the same time evidence the degree of skill and proficiency that would entitle them to rank as champions is now a matter of record, and the business men occupy the exalted and unique position of victors, having achieved that end by a score of 30 to 21.

Only six innings were required to demonstrate, to the satifaction of the business men at least, that their lucky star was high cast on victory's picturesque horizon. 'Tis well to add, however, that they wear the honors with retiring dignity.

The following is the official score:

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much fasth in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for the list of testimonials.

IMMIGRATION is setting in northwestward. Clallam county should receive its share of these newcomers.

As an illustration of the vast productive wealth of the country, the value of this year's corn crop is estimated at $1,111,104,000.

THE east and the west end will doubtless enjoy a little friendly rivelry by striving to outdo each other in the excellence of their exhibit.

CLALLAM will have one of the most creditable county fairs ever held in the state of Washington. That is the sentiment by which the management of the fair will be guided. And that is the sentiment that always succeeds, either in public or private undertaking.

MISSOURI DEMOCRACY has declared positively and unequivocally for free silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. Richard P. Bland was chosen chairman, and a strong set of resolutions adopted condemning the administrative financial policy, and declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, in unmistakeable language.

THERE is one thing that should be distinctly understood in the outset. The fair will not be a Port Angeles exhibition—nor would it be successful as such—but a Clallam county fair—knowing neither an east end nor a west end, but embracing both—as without the earnest, enthusiastic co-operation of either it would be a dismal failure.

THE third presidential term agitation still appears to be a subject of prolific discussion by the Republican journals of the country. The grand old party is, indeed, sore pressed for political capital when it has to employ such transparent material. Yet it cannot be denied that it has ever been an adept in the practice of subterfuge and artifice.

THE Post-Intelligencer is becoming boistrous in its extreme partisan servility in claiming a Republican victory in the approaching national contest while yet it lingers in the shadow of the crushing defeat suffered in the last presidential campaign. Then this superbly ridiculous journal was loudly shouting victory in the midst of defeat.

EVERY courtesy should be extended the teachers of Clallam county who will be guests in the city while in attendance at the institute which will continue in session next week. The aims and objects of the institute is to better prepare the teacher for his chosen profession. To rise above the monotonous routine of everyday school life and soar into the realms of higher education must indeed be a source of exquisite pleasure to the teacher.

INTERNAL eruptions should not be permitted to defeat the county fair this fall. There is every reason why Clallam county can make a creditable display of her varied natural products. and no valid reason appearing against such a commendable public spirited movement. Whatever of acrimony may have developed to defeat the fair should be most effectually squelched.

MR. SEEVERS professes to believe that neither the office nor the emoluments of the office is the primary or even the incidental object of the average Populist's vigorous participation in politics. The gentleman is undoubtedly sincere in his professions, as in time gone by he has given a public exhibition of his ideal conception of reform from a Populist point of view, and, as he then expressed it, in a style peculiarly original and childlike in its symplicity, the reader must have been particularly impressed with the fact, that the average Populist in public office is not unheedful of the "spoils of office;" rather on the contrary, he must have been convinced that when it comes to "farming" a public office the native genius displayed by the Populist is surpassed by none if equalled by any.

THE unprecedented activity in the iron market is a marvel even to experts. That in the brief period of six months a market characterized by extreme stagnation is transformed into one marked by excessive activity, is, indeed, a condition over which even experts might well marvel. The complete recovery, is, however, cast along substantial lines, warranted by an awakening market. Then in the sphere of possibilities, it by no means is unlikely that within the next quarter century as many miles of track will be laid for electric roads as have been laid for steam roads in this country. There is every reason for a long continued period of prosperity in the iron market is an unfailing barometer of good times, activity in that industry foreshadows a healthy movement in all other industrial and commercial pursuits.

The handsome board of trade cup was on exhibition at the New Albany last Wednesday. The following self-explanatory inscription is neatly engraved on the cup: "Board of Trade Trophy, Presented by President J. S. Coolican, Championship, Port Angeles, Wash., won by——"

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceland, Cal., "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

FARM, ORCHARD, GARDEN.

As a general rule it is good business policy to invest in a reasonable amount of first-class stock of any kind when they are extremely low, for the re-action will come sooner or later.

H. B. Gurier thinks that for milkers women are superior to men, because they are naturally more kind and have more sympathy with the cow than the men have.

The younger pigs are the more profit there is in feeding them. It costs double the amount to put a pound of gain on a pig one year old than it does to make the same increase on the one six months old. Thus thus the more rapidly they can be forced forward from the start the greater will be the profit.

Much of one's success in raising spring calves will depend upon good pastures well watered and furnished with dense shade for the protection of youngsters from insects. It may be necessary to build a dark shed into which the calves may retreat. Build low, mature stock will not molest the inmates.

The apple trees in many sections are loaded down with fruit this season. To insure a salable crop the fruit should be thinned out. As the apples become larger there is a liability of the limbs of the trees being broken if the fruit is not reduced by thinning.

The principal reason for regular and thorough grooming is that the health of the horse requires that the pores of the skin be kept open by removing the dust and secretions, and that the muscles be rubbed which would not otherwise be well exercised.

If there is more in the garden than can be used do not allow waste to occur, but store as many vegetables away for winter as possible. All kinds of small fruits can be canned, and tomatoes will afford work to some members of the family in peeling and preparing them for the cans. Sweet corn, peas, lima and string beans may be canned.

The pea is a cold-country lover, and soon becomes weak and sickly where the summers are hot; but if the soil is dug or loosened to the depth of a foot or more, so that the roots can get down into the colder soil, and a cool spot in the garden selected, very good peas may be had by sowing as late as mid-summer.

It has been thought that poultry could not be successfully raised in large numbers, but the science of breeding and poultry management has developed the way with the incubator and the separating of the flock into small numbers. Improved breeds are kept by thousands by some of the larger poultrymen near the cities.

A Massachusetts farmer is reported to be making $4,000 a year out of his poultry because he has caught on to the knack of doing things in just the right way. The farm is the right place for chickens and the man or the woman with the right qualifications can make the fortune if they make the effort.

The care of fowls is not only rest and recreation to many of our wives and daughters, but it is medicine itself to scores who have been seeking for health and strength through other means in vain. Just the occupancy of the mind with an interesting and profitable pursuit is much to those who have been pining under enforced confinement all their lives.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1895.

A kiss I took and backward look,
And my heart was like to smother;
To think of what a fool I was—
I might have had another.

She meets me at the close of the day
With a smile that is sweet as it is rare—
With rosebud lips puckered up for a kiss—
With cool, clinging arms all dimpled and bare.
She trips down the walk at the sound of my step,
And the fondest embrace she bestows upon me,
And heels not the fact that "the care pass the door,"
For my dear summer girl is my baby of three.

BIG PROFITS ON SMALL INVESTMENTS

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but no where can they make so much within a short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stocks.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can by made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States, who by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invest a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

WRITE FOR CONVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. ALL FREE. Our Manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard our standing and success.

HIS MOTHER'S KISS.

It was her wont when, tired of play,
He to her bosom crept,
With golden locks in disarray,
To kiss him as he slept.
And still her plea would be but this:
"I shall not wake him with a kiss!"

"So heavenly sweet his sleeping face—
So beautiful and bright,
I know the angels lift the lace
To kiss my boy good-night.
For, see! he smiles in dreams of bliss:
How shall I wake him with a kiss?"

So did his mother say, and when God whispered His sweet will,
She only moaned: "He sleeps!" and then
Kneeling, she kissed him still;
And weeping, murmured only this:
"I cannot wake him with a kiss!"
