A VARIED PROGRAM

Has Been Provided for the Entertainment

OF THE CITY'S GUESTS AT THE FAIR

It Will Comprise a Number of Concerts, Including Vocal and Instrumental Selections by Some of the Best Musicians in the City—An Exhibition by the Natives of the Famous Indian War Dances.

Few persons are aware of the prodigious amount of work performed by the members of the various committees of the fair during the past few weeks, all laboring systematically, harmoniously and unitedly with one common object in view—the ultimate success of the fair.

Not only the committees directing the various departments but those arranging the varied program for the entertainment of the visitors to the fair have prosecuted the work assigned them with that degree of enthusiasm, earnestness and willingness, that foreshadows unqualified success for the undertaking.

No department of the fair evidences more intelligent and conscientious management than the one providing entertainment for the visitors to the fair. The ladies as well as the gentlemen comprising the various committees of this department, have done everything in their power to contribute to the success of this indispensible feature of the exposition. Varied and interesting, indeed, is the program which will be produced during the fair for the entertainment of the visitors.

One of the features which will be particularly interesting will be the exhibition given by the Indians. This exhibition will be under the personal direction of J. C. Keenan, agent in charge of the Neah Bay, Quillayute and Ozette Indians. These tribes will be in attendance, prepared to give a unique entertainment. The dancers will come prepared to give an exhibition of their skill. They will bring their costumes, which includes the striking head dress and regalia. The canoe men, foot racers, sealers and base ballists will give public exhibitions of their skill and prowess. Daring riders on race ponies will participate in a number of exciting contests. Indian women famed for their skill as basket, mat and jewelry makers will have a booth in the opera house where they will exhibit their wares; they will also bring material so as to manufacture these various articles to give the spectator an idea of the process of so doing. The Indian sealing fleet is also expected, in the event of which it will give an exhibition of the tactics employed in sealing.

Mr. Keenan says that it is the policy of the government to educate the Indian. And no better opportunity could be afforded than to bring them in contact with the superior and dominent race, that they may observe the customs, costumes, habits and products of the more enlightened race.

Exciting exhibitions will also be given by the whaling and the racing canoe clubs.

The Jamestown Indians will be in attendance en force with their base ball, war horse and racing canoe clubs.

Captains Enos and S. P. Raymond and Len Raymond, having just returned from a three month's cruise in Behring sea, have kindly consented to give an exhibition of Esquimou curios, suits, fishing gear, hunting and sealing implements, and an explanation will be given of the use of each implement on exhibition. Captain Enos Raymond brought his little daughter, Miss Jessie, a suit such as worn by an Esquimou girl, and Miss Jessie will appear in the peculiar, but none the less interesting and unique costume during the evening exhibitions.

The may-pole dance will be given Wednesday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Bell. Sixteen young women will participate in the dance.

A series of living pictures are being prepared by Mrs. H. B. Willson, Mrs. Edna Lewis and Mrs. Geo. W. Meagher. These will be produced on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Miss Jessie Elliott is organizing a Zouave drill, in which sixteen young women in Turkish costumes will appear. This drill will be given Wednesday evening. On Thursday evening a Japanese drill will be given by sixteen young women under the direction of Miss Elliott.

The musical program of the fair will be one of its most delightful features. The home band will be in attendance, prepared to produce a carefully selected program during the session of the fair. Several concerts will be given during the evening session of the fair, which embrace a varied program of vocal and instrumental music, comprising solos, duets, trios, quartetts, jubilee songs, and piano, banjo and mandolin solos.

The art department will contribute one of the interesting features of the fair. Exhibitions of painting from life, nature and object lessons and art needle work will surprise many as to the talent and skill of the local contributors.

It is very likely that the U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia, Capt. Cotton, will be in the harbor during the fair. She has been ordered to the Sound and to this port for three days target practice. In the event of her arrival the management will endeavor to prevail upon Captain Cotton to permit the cruiser's band to give a concert in the opera house some evening during the fair, which would contribute one of the most delightful features of the fair.

This incomplete summary of some of the features of the fair which promises pleasurable pastime for the visitors, will suggest, at least, that the management has not been entirely forgetful in providing for the entertainment of the city's guests during the fair.

The following additional premiums have been received by the committee during the week, which fully demonstrates the interest which is being taken:

SEASON TICKETS TO THE FAIR.

A Splendid Ticket, that Gives a Great Deal for Little Money.

The management of the fair have issued and placed on sale a Season ticket to the fair, that is a dandy. It is one that will strike the people just right, for it fills every requirement of a cheap and perfectly satisfactory ticket, and is sure to meet with a large sale. It gives a great deal of value for little money, and leaves nothing to be desired.

These season tickets will admit the purchaser to the fair at any and all times during the day and evening on Tuesday, Wendnesday, Thursday and Friday, including the Grand Harvest Home Ball, Friday evening, October 4th.

They cost but $1 each, a remarkably low price. They give the purchaser full liberty to go and come as he or she pleases, during the day or evening, throughout the entire fair, and when one remembers that they are also good for the grand ball, it makes this ticket a most desirable one to possess. They can be purchased at any time now at the fair committee's headquarters or of any merchant in the city.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by ocal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube reslored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

AN ELEGANT PRIZE

Offered For the Best Home-Made Garment Exhibited at the Fair.

The management of the county fair has received from Messrs. M. Seller & Co., of Seattle, a handsomely designed triple-plate, silver water pitcher, valued at $15, which this public-spirited and enterprising firm has donated, to be given for the best exhibit in some one of the various departments of the Fair.

The management, after thoughtful consideration, has decided to offer this valuable prize to the woman, exhibiting the best home-made dress. Each exhibitor to wear the garment contesting for the prize.

This, undoubtedly, is one of the most handsome and valuable prizes offered by any firm or individual, and is well worth the time and effort involved to win it. Young women are by no means excluded from contesting for the prize.

The award will be made at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Stock at the Fair.

The management of the fair has completed all arrangements for the care of stock exhibited at the fair. Large, comfortable stalls have been erected. Hay will be furnished free of cost for all stock on exhibition during the fair; should the owner desire to feed his stock oats or chop feed, he will be expected to do so al his own expense.

Malfeasance in Office.

A warrant was issued last Monday by Justice C. W. Brewster for the arrest of George C. Hatch, an attorney at law, of this city charged with malfeasance in office, in which it is alleged that on the 7th of this month he was chosen as chairman and judge of an election for road supervisor of district No. 22, held that day, that he acted as such chairman and judge during the casting of the ballots and everything went smoothly until he offered to vote, when he was challenged on the grounds of non-residence, which for the moment seemed to surprise the attorney and as the complaint says, threw the ballots that had been voted into a stove, thereby immediately destroying the same.

Mr. Hatch was arrested and appeared before the justice on Tuesday, and October 4th was set for day of hearing with bail fixed at $200, which was given with Geo. W. Meagher and D. W. Morse as sureties.

Unfurl the Flag.

PORT ANGELES, WASH., Sept. 20. '95.

To the Honorable School Board, District No. 7, Clallam County, Wash.:

GENTLEMEN—The following preamble and resolution was adopted as follows:

Whereas, We, the members of Pacific Post No. 48, Department Washington and Alaska G. A. R., note with regret the absence of our national flag from the flagstaff erected by us on the Central school grounds in this city thought three weeks have already elapsed since the opening of the school term. And

WHEREAS, We believe that no good reason exists why the national flag should not float over our public school during school hours from the beginning to the ending of the school term, there being a flag in the possession of the school board for that purpose. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, At a regular meeting of Pacific Post, this September 20th, 1895, that we most earnestly request the Honorable School Board District No. 7, of Clallam County, Washington, to cause to be raised over the Central school grounds in this city of Port Angeles, our national flag, to the end that it may be an object lesson of patriotism to the public there attending. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Honorable School Board and the public press of this city.

By Order of Pacific Post G. A. R.

The U. S. Clothing and Dry Goods House is compelled to offer its select stock of shoes for sale at cost, to give space to the immense stock of dry goods for the fall and winter trade, large invoices of which it is receiving on each steamer.

Messrs. M. J. Carrigan and Sam Crooks went to Victoria Tuesday in the interest of the fair.

THE JESSIE RETURNS

From the Far-Away North After a

SUCCESSFUL TRADING EXPEDITION

Among the Esquimaux—She Brings Back a Valuable Miscellaneous Cargo of Furs, Whale Oil and Curios—A Public Meeting Held in the Board of Trade Rooms Wednesday Evening.

The schooner Jessie, Capt. Enos Raymond, arrived last Saturday from a cruise in the Arctic ocean. The Jessie sailed from this port the 22nd of last June for a cruise in the Arctic ocean. She was chartered by Miner W. Bruce, of Seattle to take a cargo of merchandise north to trade to the Esquimoux for furs, seal skins, whalebone, curios, etc. Her voyage north extended to Point Hope, extending into the Arctic ocean, which is, roughly estimated, 2,572 miles from Cape Flattery.

The Jessie sailed first to Unalaska, which is 1,607 miles from the cape, from thence to Cape Prince of Wales, 700 miles from Unalaska and from the latter point 65 miles to Point Hope.

The principal trading with the Esquimoux was done in and around Cape Blossom, situated between Cape Prince of Wales and Point Hope, which is a great rendezvous for the natives during the salmon season. The natives are quite eager traders, particularly for the toys, trinkets, blankets and various articles of merchandise which comprise the average trader's cargo. As a result quite a valuable collection of furs, whalebone and curios was received in exchange for merchandise. The Jessie also brought five Esquimoux, comprising two women, two men and a little girl. They were taken to Seattle, where they proved an object of great interest to a large number of citizens. Before their return north they will be taken on a tour of exhibition through the East, and will probably visit Washington to intercede with the general government for certain concessions.

It will be remembered that besides the captain, Port Angeles furnished the pilot, Capt. S. P. Raymond and the mate, Len Raymond, all of whom returned from their northern voyage in the very best of health and spirits.

The Jessie, it is reported, is likely to be chartered for a trip to Honolulu.

ALL FOR THE FAIR.

Citizens Heartily Endorse the Labors of the Management of the Fair.

A public meeting was called at the board of trade rooms last Wednesday evening for the purpose of giving the executive committee of the fair an opportunity to lay before citizens the progress made thus far by them in the prosecution of the fair work, and to further co-operate in devising plans necessary to the ultimate success of the movement.

The report of the committee as to the progress made, was most encouraging. From over all the county favorable reports had been received from committeemen. They were laboring with ardor, zeal and enthusiasm for the fair, and promised creditable exhibits. Both the East and West end had signified their intention to attend the fair in great numbers and to bring exhibits that would be a revelation to any person not familiar with the vast productiveness of Clallam county soil. From the many favorable reports received, from the numerous letters attesting friendliness for the movement, from the material aid contributed at home and abroad, from the activity of the people over all the county, the committee felt justified in predicting a far greater measure of success for the fair than they had anticipated.

Throughout the county there was only inconsequential opposition to the fair, at home the condition was much the same. And to those, if there were any at home who might feel indifferent or antagonistic to this commendable public-spirited movement, through personal motives, prejudice or for other reasons, whether well-grounded or not, the committee appealed to as citizens, interested in the material advancement of the county and city, to cast aside these petty feelings so unworthy and incompatible to good citizenship, and unite as a man, in an unbroken phalanx in this grand movement for the upbuilding of home.

From the harmony, unity of purpose and enthusiasm prevailing at the meeting, but one conclusion can be drawn and that is, success will crown the county fair movement.

The Baby Show.

From all the reports that are coming in at the headquarters of the fair committee, the contest in the baby show is going to be a very spirited affair.

The Angeles Mercantile Co., has offered two dollars worth of baby dress material to the baby carrying off the first prize for good looks, and Thos. T. Aldwell will give a box of fine cigars to the second handsomest baby. It is understood that this prize will be monopolized by the fond parent on the masculine side of the household, but Baby will dole out the cigars as it thinks "papa" can stand it. The contest will be decided at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Every pretty baby in town will be on hand and of course, the boys in the band will not be in it along side these youngsters when it comes to high grade music.

Port Angeles is proverbially noted for its handsome babies and there will be a great crowd of them striving for supremacy.

To the mothers we will say, bring on your babies, let no handsome one escape and we will all have great fun.

A Delightful Farewell Party.

A most delightful farewell party was given in honor of Messrs. W. E. Graham and A. S. McCormick, and Miss Iva Coolidge, on the eve of their departure for California, last Monday evening, at at the residence of Mrs. C. C. Bowman.

The evening passed away swiftly and pleasantly with cards, games, music and dancing. Luncheon was served at 11:30. The large number of young people present on the occasion attest most eloquently the regard and esteem with which the recipients were held. Those present were:

Mesdames Bowman and Bryan, Misses Maggie Brown, Grace Grant, Blanch Hitch, Mabel Crosby, Fronie Raymond, Iva Coolidge, Theresa Graham, Edith Cook, Emma McLaughlin, Anna Fields, Bella Shearer, Etta Priest; Messrs. W. J. Ware, Wm. Graham, Joe Pearson, W. Rex, Robert Dick, Harry Dick, W. E. Graham, Ernest Graham, F. Hooker, A. S. McCormick, O. H. Babcock, Ray McClinton, Harry Yarnell, Jno. Weldon, A. J. Cosser, Leighton Worthley, Eddie Graves, Eugene Bowman.

The party left Wednesday morning, Messrs. Graham and McCormick going to San Francisco, and Miss Coolidge to Southern California.

Olympic Mountain Elk at the Fair.

The county fair—and its going to be a whopper—will bring together at Port Angeles next week a wonderfully varied and interesting line of exhibits, and one of the most novel among the many novel displays will be a band of Olympic mountain elk, that will form a portion of the splendid line of exhibit that the West End of the county will send to the fair.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER takes this opportunity to commend the broad, unselfish and public spirited policy which has characterized the attitude of the Beaver Leader and the East Clallam Record toward the county fair. These journals have risen above local prejudices and sectional antipathies to the point which recognizes no section, no locality, but the entire county, and have accorded the fair generous, open-handed support. The broad-gauged policy in this instance pursued by these journals might be emulated by a local issuance, without marring its usefulness or dimming its brilliancy in the least.

A BANK recently failed in Oklahoma territory; its officers have disappeared, doubtless fugatives from justice—the accounts of the institution as a natural consequence are in a deplorable condition—the result probably of mismanagement and profligacy. A local issuance with characteristic discernment attributes the failure of the bank to "hard times." With as much logic and reason the editor of the local issuance referred to, might submit his acceptance of a free railway pass, that he might appropriate to his personal use the paltry amount allowed him by the state for mileage, as proof positive of continued "hard times." There is as much logic and reason in the latter as in the former conclusion.

DURING the past two months THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER has devoted much space in advocacy of the county fair. It has but one regret to express. That is, that it has not devoted greater space to this commendable movement—that it has not more vigorously and persistently advocated this public spirited enterprise. And by no means has its effort been unappreciated or in vain. Its course has been strongly approved at home and abroad.

ANY allusion to the free pass which Mr. Seevers accepted from the railway company for transportation for which he received mileage from the state, is exceedingly distasteful to the gentleman. Why shouldn't it be? Any man who violates the state constitution and betrays his party, never cares to hear of his wrongdoing.

THE presence of the United States cruiser Philadelphia in the harbor during the fair, will afford visitors an opportunity to inspect one of the largest vessels of the government's new navy.

CLALLAM COUNTY is all right. It will conclusively demonstrate that the capabilities of its soil for enormous yields of agricultural products, will compare favorably with any county in the state.

The Fair.

The management of the county fair are entitled to considerable credit for the amount of energy and sagacity they display in devising ways and means for securing to the fair an attendance and interest and extent of exhibits commensurate with the wealth and enterprise of the greatest county in the state. To this end they have brought to their command the knowledge derived from the personal experience of themselves and others in the management and observation of successful fairs elsewhere, from the outside suggestions solicited and received, and from original conceptions from their own active and elastic minds. They have been very fortunate in securing perfect co operation from the assisting committee throughout the county, who evidently realize that if the fair is to be a creditable one the chain of preparations must be complete at every point. Having received assurance that the people of the county will support the fair with true Western heartiness, the management have been encouraged to expand and supplement many of the more prominent features much beyond what was at first contemplated, and several entirely new and pleasing attractions, have been added.

A particularly happy expedient was hit upon to secure full attendance and representation from both ends of the county. The great East End was pitted against the greater West End or vice versa.—Beaver Leader.

The Philadelphia Will Arrive.

A telegram was received last Tuesday by M. J. Carrigan, secretary of the board of trade, from Capt. Cotton, of the U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia, which is anchored in San Francisco bay, to the effect that the Philadelphia would sail from that port so as to arrive here by the 2nd or 4th of October. She will remain here at least three days for target practice.

The Philadelphia is one of the largest cruisers in the "new" American navy, and her presence in the harbor will give the visitors to the fair as well as citizens an opportunity to personly inspect a modern war vessel.

Excursion From Victoria.

Messrs. M. J. Carrigan and Samuel Crooks returned from Victoria last Tuesday evening having perfected arrangements with the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company for an excersion steamer to make excursion trips between Victoria and this city on Friday, October 4th. If the crowd is sufficiently large the Islander will be placed in service, otherwise the Princess Louise will carry the excursionists. Two round trips will probably be made.

On the final return trip the steamer will not leave this port until Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, giving the excursinnists an opportunity to attend the Harvest Home Ball in the opera house Friday evening which will conclude the fair.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to return thanks for the many kindly acts administered by thoughtful and considerate neighbors and friends during the long continued illness of my beloved wife.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

Beaver Leader.]

Twenty Indians, of La Push, came up this week to pick hops on G. O. Soderstran's ranch.

The rainy season is setting in by giving a little shower every night, "so hired men can rest." The days are as pleasant as summer. Gardens and flowers are lovely. Eastern people complain of the frost the year round. We have not had any frost and do not expect any before Christmas. Everything is fresh and green and flowers are blooming the same as in midsummer. Western Washington has an ideal climate. It does not rain 375 days in the year as has been reported. Haying and harvest has progressed with but a very little rain to hinder it.

Western Clallam county is beginning to receive considerable attention from outside parties. The Michigan syndicate has its eye on this valley and doubtless will have cruisers in here before long looking the land over. This company is reported to represent a cool thirty million dollars and should they become interested in the valley it will mean a great deal to us. All we require is development and the Michigan parties are able to do this. We have timber and soil, but need cash.

East Clallam Record.]

A band of cattle numbering fifteen steers, were brought in here from Forks and Quillayute last Monday and shipped on the Garland to Townsend. The shipping of cattle from here is a growing business.

The men engaged in fishing on the shore of the bay shipped 140 salmon to the Port Angeles cannery on Monday and 345 on Wednesday. Five cents a piece is paid for the fish delivered on the wharf here. The salmon caught are all good sized and appear to be coming in very large numbers during the past few days.

The enterprising individuals in charge of the little schooner Eacrett, of Port Angeles, purchased a lot of plums and prunes from the orchards of San Juan island and have been cruising along the Straits selling the fruit at retail. They sold out their cargo here last Tuesday evening and sailed away to San Juan for another supply. They said they were making wages at it.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Quilter was a passenger on the Garland Monday evening to the bay. He came and served a notice upon W. W. Ulin to appear before the United States court a Seattle September 28th and show cause why he should not be restrained from cutting timber on the land now in contest between himself and Mrs. Colby. U. S. Attorney Brinker is the party who has brought the suit. He claims that the land belongs to the United States government and asks the court for an injuction to step timber cutting upon it.

THE ESQUIMAU EXHIBIT

at the Fair by the Raymonds will Include Wearing Apparel, Implements.

The Raymonds who recently returned from a cruise to Berings sea, brought with them a varied collection of Esquimau wearing apparel, implements, curios, etc., which they have kindly consented to exhibit in the opera house during the county fair. This varied collection includes about 150 different articles.

This exhibit will prove a great attraction.

Agreeably Surprised.

Rev. Edward Davis, of St. Andrews' Episcopal Church, of this city, was most agreeably surprised at his home on 7th street last Friday evening, the 52nd anniversary of his birth, by the following friends and members of his church:

Messrs. and Mesdames Bell, Brown, Carrigan, Hansen, Smith, Stanley, Strother, Tiffany, Wilson and Willson' Misses Wagner, Powel and Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander Butt and bride were present spending part of their honeymoon with Rev. E. Davis and wife

A most agreeable evening was spent.

Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. BUNNELL, Centerville, Wash. FARM, ORCHARD, GARDEN.

The great advance in the dairy interest of late years has unquestionably been due to the study and practice of scientific feeding. It may be well thought that what is good for the feeder of cows may be quite as good for the feeder of sheep, and this is true; so that the shepherd should take a lesson in this respect, and learn just how his sheep should be fed with the greatest success and profit.

Chopped straw or fodder may not be considered very valuable food for cattle, but add linseed meal or ground oats to it and the result will be that a large proportion of the coarse food will be rendered palatable. The coarsest kinds of food will sometimes be relished as a change of diet. Feed the cows on all that they will eat and they will even then occassionally pick over straw and coarse fodder because they are desirious of a change.

Beef cattle are yet in demand, and there is plenty of time to grow calves of good breeds for the conversion into bee in three years provided the calves are well bred. If every farmer would resolve to keep a pure bred bull the calves would be more valuable and not be sold off the farm when but a few days old. There is a large loss to the farmers of this country in the annual slaughter of very young calves, and yet the failure to retain the calves is due to the use of scrub bulls, which have done more to curse cattle raisers than all other causes combined.

The chrysanthemum as one of the most beautiful flowering plants that ornaments a flower garden, and it is just as easy to have the newest novelties as to give room to the well-known varieties. It seems to thrive wherever it is placed, and the cost of planting a plot with them is but little.

Ensilage should be the object of the dairyman now. It is a food that combines so many advantages in its favor as to make it a necessity on all well-regulated dairy farms. In the winter season it saves grain and hay, and is cheaper than either.

It is an advantage to have a variety of stock in order to avoid the waste of some substance that could not be utilized without the aid of certain kinds of animals. Cattle will leave much that a small flock of sheep will consume, and there is always a lot of feeding material for the hog pen that would be of no use except in the manure heap. Even the poultry will consume something that would be lost without their assistance

The only advantage in endeavoring to grow crops in an apple orchard is in the cultivation which the trees receive, as the feeding capacity of the roots of the tree is such as to keep down those portions of the crop which grow close to the trees. It is doubtful if such crops pay or the labor bestowed unless the soil should receive a liberal application of fertilizer.

When setting out young trees during the fall it is better to use those that are one year old than to take those that are older, as they will be less liable to checks in the future and will root sooner. A tree that is young will gain in growth, compared with the older one, and become much more serviceable in the future.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.

W[illegible] critics say my work is bad,
I don't indulge in wail or woe.
I simply smile and go my way,
And say the critics do not know.
But when they pat me on the back
And say they think my work immense,
I take a rosier view of life
To think they show such rare good sense.

Next week Clallam county will give a living demonstration of the vast wealth of its material resources. What the intending settler wants to know about all other considerations, is what the county produce—the extent and value of its agricultural, timber and mineral resources—a public exhibition of all these products will accurately and truthfully represent the quality and commercial value of each—and no one need fear the results of such an exhibition, as it will be creditable in an eminent degree.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal. says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

DUNGENESS ITEMS

A. Lingham, our enterprising nurseryman, has been canvassing the Dungeness country, and has taken many orders for trees, plants and seeds. His plat of ground in Dungeness, on the avenue, filled as it has been this past season with trees, vegetables and flowering plants of all kinds, has been the admiration of everyone. Mr. Lingham proposes to enlarge his business materially, and in all probability will remove his greenhouse to Dungeness in the near future.

Dr. Thornson came down from his mountain ranch on Wednesday, looking hail and hearty as ever.

Joseph Forsman, of Cossopilis, Mich., who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs Levi Cays, the past summer, started for his home on Tuesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Cays accompanying him as far as Seattle.

The "Bell Social" given on Wednesday evening by the ladies, in the church, was an enjoyable success. An exceptionally fine essay on the famous bells of the world by Mr. Lingham was the literary treat of the evening. Miss Slack recited "Curfew Shall Not Ring To-night," in a very creditable manner. The church quartette choir, Miss Bessie Miner, Mr. Semple and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hunt, with Mrs. Semple as organist, rendered various collections of jingle songs. The children executed a fancy bell drill to the delight of everyone present. Other readings and recitations of merit on the topic of bells was well received.

The Sunday evening topic by Rev. R. C. Lee will be "Grit and Pluck, or the Men Who Get There." A lecture specially prepared for young men.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Roberson tendered a birthday party to their daughter Miss Mabel on Tuesday evening, which was attended by a large company of friends and neighbors. The evening was passed in dancing, card playing and conversation, and after refreshments had been served at midnight, all departed wishing the young lady many happy returns.

Mr. J. P. Tiller, received the sad intelligence recently of the death of his eldest son who was married and resided in Walterloo, Iowa.

To state that considerable interest is being manifested by Dungeness people in Clallam county's first fair, scarcely expresses the feeling. The Dungeness end of the county is known all over the Northwest as a rich farming and stock producing country, and has the advantage of being near and convenient to the exposition. As the opening of the fair approaches Dungeness will be on deck in exhibits and patronage.

An interesting meeting took place in the M. E. church of Dungeness, Monday evening, the 23d inst, to formulate plans for the erection of a parsonage in connection with the church. The present structure is wholly inadequate for the purpose and very inconvenient. The sweet, gentle zephers that ordinarily blow up from the ocean seem to concentrate their strength at this point, and the parsonage being situated on the beach, receives the full strength of both summer breeze and winter blast. It would be an interesting tale to listen to some winter's night, if the pastor could be induced to tell his experiences of the darksome nights passed as the winds howled and the rains beat in the small rough-board shack used the past two years as the parsonage. This, however, is to be altered. The meeting decided, and that very definitely and enthusiastically, that a parsonage, and a bran new one at that, was a necessity, and that it was the sense of that meeting that plans and specifications, and contracts and agreements be entered into at once for its erection. A committee consisting of Messrs. Geo. Hunt, A. U. Davis, C. F. Seal and the pastor with Mr. Thos. Semple as Secretary, was appointed to go ahead with the work. A very suitable and prominent lot has been already secured by the ladies of the church. Upon this will be built the parsonage. It is expected that work will commence at once and go through to completion. Mr. Seal and Mr. Hunt have both presented plans to the building committee, having undoubted merit and artistic beauty. One of these will be accepted. Dungeness takes no back step, but means to push to the front, as a live, enthusiastic town in all that goes to make a place habitable and pleasant. The reforms of last winter have accomplished much, and we are gla[illegible] to hea[illegible] the reverber[illegible]ing sounds of the [illegible]ugs as they whistled down the [illegible] on the Gra[illegible] City of the West—as [illegible] is Port An[illegible]geles? There [illegible] to be a solid phalanx, a united shov[illegible] from Townsend to the sea, declaring that the curses [illegible] civilized life and the [illegible]ases on our bod[illegible] politic shall c[illegible]se, and that, together with the growth of Clallam county there shall go forth to the world the news that we are abreast of the times, and propose to see hereafter that the filthiness and uncleanness of our villages, towns and cities shall be swept away, and that it shall be possible for the best blood of the east to live in peace, quietness and comfort amongst us. Dungeness sets the pace, for Home and Native Land; who follows?

The County Fair.

Those citizens who have the coming county fair in hand are working very faithfully and earnestly to make the exposition a great success. The executive committee is untiring in its labors and the fair is deserving of the good wishes and encouragement of everybody in Clallam county. It can accomplish a vast amount of good if the people join together and help out by getting exhibits and by talking up all its good features.

The west end of the county should be particularly interested in this fair as this section needs all the attention that can be drawn towards its varieties of timber food fishes, products of grain, orchard and fields, specimens of minerals found, etc. A good showing for this locality can be made if the people choose to take an interest in the fair.—Record.

BIG PROFITS ON SMALL INVESTMENTS

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but no where can they make so much within short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stocks.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can by made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States, who by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invest a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

EXIT THE STRAW HAT.

And must thou go, my summer hat?
I fain would keep thee still,
Did I not have misgivings that
You would not fill the bill!
Although the one I paid for you—
Three dollars—well, 'twas steep,
For now you fellows, placed on view
At ninety cents, are cheap!
But still we had some fun, I think,
When you were clean and new;
If at a girl I tipped a wink,
I always tipped you, too!
Best friend of mine in many ways,
You've often advertised me!
Though, from your most abnormal traits,
You've also compromised me!
They've called you in—your day is done;
Go, take a well-earned rest,
For, now the summer season's gone,
I like my Derby best!

DICTIONARY OF U. S. HISTORY.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact,
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought

The man who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it,
In Historic Research has reached the extreme:
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it; no one can repel it;
At homes, schools and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small introductions,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking with this book than with anything else they ever sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to
