SPORTS

WEDNESDAY

It was somewhat of a disappointment that the ameteur base ball club of Townsend did not arrive yesterday, as an interesting and doubtless what would have proved exciting contest would have followed, as the Stars, of this city, were in splendid playing trim, and were eager for the match game.

The non-arrival, however, of the players from Townsend, demanded that a local team be organized to cross bats with the Stars. These were: Hawkins, Ferguson, Dyke, Wright, Crockett, Keller, Meagher and Fisher. The players comprising the Stars were Murphy, Church, McLaughlin, Shields, Graham, Hooker, Vail, Church and Dennis.

In the first two innings the Business Men evidenced good playing qualities, but from thence onward to the close of the seventh inning they went completely to pieces and the Stars experienced practically a walk-over.

The score stood at the end of the unfinished game 7 to 32 in favor of the Stars.

The next match game will be played Friday, betwen the juniors of Victoria, designated the Maple Leaves, and the Stars of this city, and the contest promises to be an animated one, as the visitors have won an enviable record for putting up good ball.

Notwithstanding Sleepy George, the winner of the trotting race yesterday is past 17 years of age, he easily distanced all competeitors.

The Indian pony race will be a feature of today's races.

2—Wheelbarrow Race, 500 feet, free or all. Prize, $1. The first race was won by Theo. Brewster. In the second contest a prize 50 cents was given the winner, the successful competitor in the first contest being barred out. Lou Schomer won the second race.

3—Boys Catching Greased Pig. Prize, $1. This contest was postponed until this forenoon at 10 o'clock.

4—Sack Race, 100 feet, free for all. Prize, $1. The sack race proved a very exciting contest, about a dozen boys contesting. The prize was won by Chase Garfield.

5—Pony race, three horses entered—Black Dude, rode by Chase Garfield; Billie, rode by Dell Church; Billie Hooker, rode by Bim Garfield. Race won by Black Dude; Billie, second.

6—Race, horses trotting in harness, single, half mile dash, best two in three. Entrance fee, $1. First prize, $10; second prize, entrance fees. Two horses entered—Sleepy George, by Mrs. W. C. Garfield and Prince by A. L. Johnson. Won by Sleepy George.

7—Most graceful and accomplished lady rider. Prize, diploma. Won by Mrs. John Brown, jr.

8—Most graceful and accomplished gentleman rider. Prize, diploma. Won by J. H. Holland.

9—Slow Mule Race, free for all, quarter mile drag. Not run.

The only accident to mar the harmony of the races, which very fortunately resulted without serious consequences, occurred while Mr. Holland was riding, his horse stumbling, fell and rolled completely over the rider several times without injuring him. His escape seems almost miraculous.

THURSDAY

by ocal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube reslored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

PRIZES AWARDED

The baby contest yesterday afternoon proved to be, as was expected, one of the most attractive features of the Fair. The scene presented, with twenty-five or thirty babies gathered together for the impending contest, a contest truly momentous to every loving mother's heart as with true parental devotion and pride she beheld the prettiest, the sweetest and the best baby in all creation, weighed in the balance of—what? cruel, relentless, heartless judges' minds and found wanting. No doubt the unimpartial judge wished, way down at the bottom of his heart, to vote a prize to every baby entered in the contest—but stern, unfeeling duty prevented. Amongst so many really deserving babies a decision—just, impartial—was, indeed, difficult—most difficult. But even the most indulgent mother will not gainsay that the prize was justly awarded, inasfar as qualifications were concerned. The judges were R. Croft E. H. Isabel and Prof. Tiffany. The first prize was awarded to the little two-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hall, and the second to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards' seven-months-old baby.

The judges on butter and cheese, Mrs Laura E. Peters, Hartley Goodwin, Mr. Wait and Mr. Maple, were confronted with no no light task in justly awarding the prizes for the best butter on exhibition. With so many samples of excellent butter, only an expert would be expected to distinguish superiority. Yet this was the thankless task imposed upon these righteous judges. The award of first prize was given to Thos. Knoph, of Dungeness, who long since had won the distinction of being one of the best buttermakers in the county. The award comprised butter in the roll and firkin. The second prize was awarded to Mrs. Geo. Alexander, of Dungeness.

For the best cheese the prize was awarded to W. C. Williams, of Port Williams.

The second prize was awarded to Mr. Bright for ornamental penmanship.

In the art department the first prize was awarded to Mrs. J. W. Garrison, of Dungeness, for the best landscape painting.

The second prize for the same character of painting was awarded to Mrs. W. T. Strother, the subject of the latter painting being "Mt. Hood."

Mrs. John W. Troy was awarded first prize for best flower painting.

Mrs. J L Worthley was awarded first prize for still life fruit, the subject being lemons.

The collection of antique articles (fancy work), exhibited by Mrs. Lewis received first prize.

First prize was awarded Jno. D. Yarnell for the best washing machine.

Mrs. Kate A Flowers, subject, "roses," second prize; marine scene, second prize.

Mrs. Wm Bell, oil painting, animals, first prize.

Mrs. J W Garrison, oil painting, animals, second prize.

Mrs. J L Worthley, colored pastel, first and second prize.

Guy Stanley first prize pencil drawing.

Mrs. J G McClinton first prize wax flowers.

Mrs. E S Derickson first prize, pitcher 150 years old.

Amongst the many excellent paintings in the art department, evidencing natural talent in a high degree, and the advantage of instructions received from an accomplished teacher, were those exhibited by Mrs. H B Willson's class. An artist possessed of undoubted talent, which has received that degree of culture only years of conscientious, unremitting toil brings the devoted student in any profession in life. Mrs. Willson has proved herself to be a most efficent teacher, a fact attested by the remarkable advancement made by her class, and evidenced by the exhibits at the fair.

The members of her class appearing among the contributors were: Mrs Ray Haynes, Mrs Wm Bell, Mrs Lewis, Mrs. Garrison (Dungeness), Mrs Flowers.

Mrs. Willson did not appear as a contributor. Other contributions were made by Mrs. Strothers, Mrs. Worthley, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Stewart and others.

In awarding the prizes the judges were governed and rightfully too, by the work exhibited being entirely that of the contributor—work not executed under the instructions of a teacher.

Jas. Dick, Jr., of Dungeness, second prize roll butter.

The Philadelphia in Harbor.

The Philadelphia has arrived. As is customary a number of prominent citizens, together with the executive committee of the fair and the Gate City band, boarded the steamer Garland, which was in port on the arrival of the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia, Capt. Cotton, yesterday afternoon, and sailed out to the cruiser. Upon nearing the Philadelphia the band struck up a lively national air. The reception committee then saluted the officers of the Philadelphia as the Garland rounded the vessel, and the salute was returned in true naval fashion by the commanding officers and the crew, who had lined alongside as the Garland was passing; her marine band then struck up an enlivening air. The home band then followed with another air. The officers and the visitors then exchanged courtesies, and as the Garland departed for the dock, the cruiser's marine band played another delightful air.

A communication was sent Commander Cotton this forenoon, the nature of which was that he state when it would be most convenient to receive a delegation of citizens aboard the Philadelphia.

GOVERNOR McGRAW.

Expresses His Regrets Over Being Unable to Attend the Fair.

The following kindly letter received by Mr. Carrigan from Gov. McGraw, expresses the distinguished gentleman's regrets over being unable to attend the fair:

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON. Oct. 1, 1895.

Mr. M. J. Carrigan, Chairman Executive Committee, Clallam County Fair, Port Angeles, Wash.

MY DEAR SIR:—When I received your invitatien to attend the Clallam county fair, I was on my way to Eastern Washington on very important public business, but because of an accident I am now confined to my bed here. My physician tells me that I will not be able to travel for at least three or four days, and I will then be obliged to continue my trip to Eastern Washington.

I regret exceedingly that for these reasons I cannot be with my friends in Clallam county on the occasion of your first fair, and I desire to assure you, and and through you Clallam county's people, of my earnest appreciation of the sincerity of the friendship which prompted the invitation sent me. I need not say that the Clallam County Fair committee has my best wishes for a complete and successful exhibit of the county's resources. I hope this first fair will be such a success that your association will live and flourish, growing stronger, better and larger during the succeeding years. I would like much to be with you.

Very sincerely yours,

J. H. McGRAW.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal says: "I am trying in a mea sure to repay the manufacturer of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

An earnest and most excellent address was delivered in the M. E. church last Sunday evening. It was especially suitable to the place, after the bitter fight that has been waged on the saloon elemene. It was mete that the young men of this community should have pointed out to them in life—something brighter and better and the nobler than that of playing the part of the saloon loafer. Sunday night's sermon ought surely to be sufficient to enthuse and inspire any young man or woman to so apply their lives that men shall be benefitted by them and not destroyed. The subject was given the title of "Grit and Pluck," and to a well-filled church the pastor opened out in earnest language—a vista that ought to engage the attention of all present. A brief synopsis is: That in a land where farmers and shoemakers sit in Congress no limit can be rightly placed upon the career of a determined young man who has once learned the alphabet of letters. That wealth does not constitute greatness That taking the measure of such a man as Washington or Gladstone and placing beside them the millions of a Croesus. The one rises supremely grand whilst the other is contemptible. That there is something greater than wealth and grander than fame and that is character. Give to a young man resolution and an education and no one can place a limit upon his career. The address was filled with choice anecdotes of the lives of Edison, Sec'y. Manning, David B. Hill, Gen. Grant, Gen. Marion of revolutionary fame, Michael Faraday the scientist of his time, with numberless others, making last Sunday night's address one of the best the pastor has delivered and one that ought to open wider the door of any narrow life and awaken all the powers of enthusiasm in a young man to do and be somebody in life. We understand that next Sunday a similar address will be given, the subject being, "The Man and the Opportunity." The church ought to be crowded.

Capt. Davis, of the magnificent English steel ship Vortigen, is an interested spectator, at the fair. The splendid exhibit displayed in exposition hall is, the genial captain declares, a revelation to him. His first visit to this port, twenty-nine years ago, at which time the surroundings were not only suggestive of, but in fact an impenetrable forest, unbroken by the resistless march of civilization. The evidence, however, of civilization's subduing hand was most forceably manifest in the varied collection of products of the farm, the forest and the sea, sources of limitless wealth, of vast commercial possibilities to this port, conditions commercial, which the observing captain readily realized exist here in a measure abundently sufficient to make it one of the important shipping ports of the world.

AT THE FAIR.

Clallam's first annual fair is an achievement to which the management and citizens of the county can point with pardonable pride.

Begun under conditions most unpropitious and discouraging, with opposition at home and indifference in the country, the nature and gravity of which was such as to seriously compromise if not threaten the ultimate success of the enterprise.

In prosecuting a commendable public enterprise of great moment and consequence, it requires no superhuman effort to conquer unfriendly opposition if openly made, but it requires the greatest skill, tact and patience to overcome indifference. These adverse conditions, so intensely manifest in the beginning, have almost entirely disappeared; much of the opposition and indifference to the fair was due to a misconception of the movement. When it had been demonstrated to the satisfaction of those who questioned the legitimacy of the enterprise, that it was wholesomely a county exposition, they became most active, earnest workers.

The signal success of the fair is, indeed, an accomplishment of vast material consequence. It demonstrates in unmistakable measure the commercial value of Clallam county from an agricultural point of view; it proclaims conclusively it is infinitely rich in these varied resources; it portrays its vast possibilities in language all can understand and no one will doubt.

CITIZENS extend the freedom of the city to every farmer of Clallam county in attendance at the fair. Their presence in the city most forceably impresses the fact on the mind of every visitor that without their aid, encouragement and assistance the success of the fair would have been utterly impossible. But they did their part nobly and Clallam's first fair is a decided, a gratifying success, and a great sphere of usefulness, of possibility is thereby open to an enterprising, a progressive, public spirited people.

INEXPRESSIBLE GRATITUDE

Is due the commanding officers of the Philadelphia from citizens and visitors for the rare treat they have been privileged to enjoy through the courtesy of the officers in giving a drill exhibition this forenoon. It was a trial never before enjoyed in Port Angeles.

THE rivalry and competition stimulated at the fair has produced vastly beneficial results—it has clearly demonstrated the possession of latent talent, skill and genius, on the part of the competitors in the various departments, in a surprising degree—it has most satisfactorily evidenced that this people possess every essential qualification requisite to build a vast empire.

THERE is a beginning to all public enterprises of moment and consequence. It is to be seriously doubted, however, if any encountered less consequential opposition and adverse conditions to mar their success, than Clallam county's first annual fair. Even the elements have adorned their loveliest raiments.

THE splendid exhibit of canned salmon arranged by the National Packing Company, is not only creditable to the skill, judgment and enterprise manifested by this public spirited institution, but it is an invaluable suggestion of one of Clallam's greatest sources of wealth.

THE aggregation of attractions produced during fair week was of that character and excellence, that the management is to be congratulated over the judgment and wisdom exercised in the arrangement of the signally meritorious program.

THE magnificent specimens of coal on exhibition in exposition hall are a living evidence that Clallam county possesses sources of mineral wealth, the commercial value of which future development and utilization alone will accurately compute.

THROUGH the graciousness and consideration of the commander-in-chief of the British Pacific Squadron, the Wild Swan, one of the gun boats of the Pacific fleet will arrive tomorrow—Victoria day—to participate in the festivities.

THE past has been one of the dryest seasons in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. In view of the fact the magnificent products on exhibit at the fair proclaim Clallam a most favored region for agriculture.

THE magnificient exhibition of native products in the exhibition hall portrays most eloquently, and truthfully the grand—in fact—almost limitless possibilities of Clallam county in a material way.

THE presence of the United States cruiser Philadelphia in the harbor during the fair, will afford visitors an opportunity to inspect one of the largest vessels of the government's new navy.

THE agricultural exhibit includes some splendid samples of cereals, which very conclusively suggest that Clallam soil is admirably adapted to the culture of small grains.

THE freedom of the city should be extended to Capt. Cotton, to the officers and to the crew of the U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia.

THE battalion from the Philadelphia this morning presented a most inspiring spectacle, as the troops, drawn up in battalion, gave a drill exhibition, which was attractive and at the same time interesting and instructive.

THE fair as an exposition of varied natural products is a success in every essential point. This is not all. The social features of the fair are a brilliant, a signal accomplishment.

THE excellent collection of agricultural products is a feast even the old-time farmer of the county little imagined he would enjoy at Clallam's first annual fair.

SOME fine specimens of flax grown in this city as an experiment, suggests a source of inestimable wealth to the agriculturalist and to the manufacturer.

NEXT year Clallam will boast an exposition hall the dimensions of which will be sufficient to properly accommodate its exhibits.

DURING the past two months THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER has devoted much space in advocacy of the county fair. It has but one regret to express. That is, that it has FEW question while the great rank and file of people in attendance at the fair, are delighted over the unimpaired success of the first annual county exposition.

THROUGH the courtesy of Commander-in-Chief L. A. Beardsell, citizens had an opportunity last evening to enjoy the Philadelphia's splendid marine band.

THE county fair has been incomparably the most successful and interesting public exhibition ever held in Port Angeles.

No one will doubt the advisability nor the wisdom of an agricultural and industrial exposition in Clallam next year.

THOSE magnificent specimens of black diamonds are, indeed, prophetic of a grand indurstrial future for Clallam.

CLALLAM'S farmers have abundant cause to feel proud of the representation made at the first annual fair.

THE presence in the harbor of the cruiser Philadelphia will cause all true Americans to exclaim, "Great is America!"

LAST evening's entertainment in the opera house was a rich musical feast—one hugely enjoyed by the crush of people in attendance.

DID you listen to the sweet waves of music waft on the soft evening air?

THE final day of the fair. And what an uninterrupted success it has been.

NONE question — all commend the brilliant success of the fair.

THE final day of the fair—and a glorious day it is, too.

THE fair will become a permanent institution.

IT is a county fair in reality as well as in name.

IT is indeed peerless Clallam.

GREAT is Clallam.

Miss Alice Nailor returned from a month's visit up-Sound, yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Richard McDonnell, of Diamond Point, who will spend a few day at the Fair.

If any ever doubted the culture of fruit possible in Clallam county, the splendid exhibit in position building should forever disabuse his mind of the erroneous conclusion.

Mr. Nottage's peculiar way of "keeping everybody in the right path" in the opera house, is highly entertaining, although somewhat embarrassing to the recipients of his attention.

The lovesick youth of this glorious county were either too modest and retiring or too bashful to win the wedding prizes offered for a wedding in exposition hall Wednesday and Thursday evening.

The Philadelphia's marine band discoursed delightful music in exposition hall last evening. The audience was simply captured with the sweet strains of music from this really meritorious band.

The crush of visitors and citizens were treated to a rich musical treat at exposition hall last evening, partly due to the Philadelphia's marine band of finished musicians, and to the selections produced by the home band and the numbers on the evening's program.

They would be a valued addition to social circles.

FAIR NOTES

The Philadelphia in the harbor.

An excellent miscellaneous program at the opera house this evening.

Quite a collection of exhibits arrived this morning from the west end.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER special fair edition is very favorably received.

The exhibit of live stock in the stock yards, is indeed, a very creditable one.

The mountain elk on exhibition in the stockyards are a special feature of attraction.

Some splendid specimens of quinces produced in Clallam county are exhibited at the fair.

Some blooded sheep and quite a collection of farm products arrived yesterday for exhibiton at the fair.

A fine hog weighing 560 pounds, is a iving example of the peculiar adaptability of Clallam county for the profitable production of hogs for the markets.

Tom Watson, proprietor of the City Market, has evidenced a clever stroke of business sagacity, in purchasing the enormous steer and hog exhibited in the fair stockyards.

One of the attractive exhibits in the stockyards, is a magnificent five-year-old, weighing 1665 pounds, English Draft horse, the valuable property of Joseph Henderson, one of Dungeness' successful farmers.

The exhibit of dairy products at the fair is a most creditable one. And why shouldn't it be, as this county stands foremost among the counties of the state for the quality and quantity of butter it produces.

The steer weighing 1025 pounds is a living exhibition in the stockyards of what Clallam county can do in stock raising. This splendid annimal, formerly owned by D. W. Morse, is the valuable property of Thos. Watson, of the city market.

The Lake Crescent exhibit is one of the most realistic in exposition hall—the only glaring omission being the clear, cool lake, even in miniature form. All else, however, seemed to be there; magnificent specimens of speckled trout; delicately fashioned fern, beautiful overhanging cedar and fir boughs, all of which reminds one familiar with the rugged grandeur and beauty of the scenery surrounding this ideal resort.

The display of exquisitely fashioned and delicately perfumed plants by J. M. Grant evokes many pretty compliments.

The art department reflects excellent artistic talent. The display is, indeed, a most creditable one.

The total entries at the fair aggregated 700 yesterday morning which will undoubtedly be swelled to 1000.

All will hail the presence in the harbor of a representative of the new American navy—the cruiser Philadelphia.

One farmer brought 21 exhibits to the fair, any one of which is creditable to the county and to the producer.

The fine live stock in the stockyards suggests the fact that Clallam county is destined to be a great stock raising region.

The exhibit of brackets, ornamental frames and fancy wood work by John Martin evidences the young man to be a mechanical genius.

The preserved (native) fruits make a very tempting display.

Of all virtues none is more sublime than patriotism of home.

What a vast source of wealth Clallam possesses in its agriculture.

It is not only an agricultural fair, but an industrial exposition as well.

Did you admire the luscious fruit on exhibition in the exposition hall?

Behold the fair—the living example of agricultural and industrial wealth.

Quite a number of art exhibits were received yesterday morning from Townsend.

Three mountain elk arrived on the Garland yesterday morning for exhibition at the fair.

The exhibit of shingles from Shields & Maxfield's mill cannot be excelled for qualiyt and finish.

The product, matchless shingles, of the plant operated by Port Angeles' first water power are exhibited at Mr. Smith's booth, and justly and rightfully should he feel proud of the signal achievement. Mr. Smith also has some splendid views of the grand scenery in and about Port Angeles. Everyone knows that Norman is an enthusiastic yachtman. On the subject of a model for a swift sailing yacht the gentleman in question has original ideas. Ideas too, which are not allowed to be conceived then permitted to die abornin' but ideas which are being practically utilized, as the splendid models, designated the "Gertrude and Helen" and the "Chester" will very clearly attest. These cleanly outlined little crafts are specialties of Mr. Smith's unique exhibits.

All appeared confusion in the exposition building yesterday. This embryonic condition has been followed by order, the artistic arrangement of the splendid collection of exhibits which will herald Clallam's fame abroad as a marvelously rich commonwealth.

The imposing pyramid erected in exposition hall for the National Packing Company's exhibit, is the object of never ceasing attraction to throngs of observers. The enterprise evidenced by Manager Hume of this signally succesiful industry, is a subject of most favorable criticism.

The diplomas which will be issued to the successful competitors at the fair, are very neat and attractive. They certainly will prove invaluable to preserve as a momento of Clallam's first fair.

There has been such an elaborate exhibit on the part of the local business men and manufacturers, that there is imminent danger of there being unadequate space for the agricultural products.

"The pioneer industry of Port Angeles," attested its loyalty to Clallam county, in the creditable exhibit arranged in exposition hall under the supervision of its public spirited proprietor, John M. Martin.

McClinton Bro's. photographic exhibit, including marine and landscape views and photographs, is a great attraction at the fair.

Who says Clallam county cannot raise pumpkins? Those large, fine specimens on exhibit at the fair very positively attest the mistake of this.

The military drill by the children of the public schools will be an interesting feature of the exercises at the opera house this evening.

Things agricultural, horticultural and industrial are vastly stimulating, judging from the unusual activity and bustle in the city during the week.

N. R. Smith, the wide-awake manager of the Smith & Perkins Water Power Co., whose plant is located on Ennis creek, has, as was to be expected, a creditable and a suggestive, industrially exhibit. All citizens are aware of the stupendous task undertaken by Mr. Smith, in the highly commendable effort to develope water power sufficient to operate the wheels of a number of industrial plants. Obstacles were encountered which would have utterly disheartened any other man. But each succeeding obstacle encountered threatening the defeat of the enterprise was overcome until success triumphantly crowned the efforts of this undaunted son of a worthy sire.

The Esquimau exhibit is a great attraction at the fair.

Who will win the elegant wedding presents this evening.

Lake Crescent has a creditable exhibit in the exposition hall.

Clallam County Horticultural Society has no reason to feel ashamed of its offspring—the first annual county fair.

A common expression: "What perfect specimens of apples and plums." They were products of Clallam county soil.

The exhibit of elk deer and antelope horns by Geo. Urquhart is very creditable and one of the attractions of the fair.

The mineral exhibit and the old coin exhibits in exposition hall by A. G. Simmer are among the principal attractions of the fair. These collections contain every family of minerals; and coins 200 years old.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by J. C. Hanen, Druggist.

DICTIONARY OF U. S. HISTORY.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact,
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought

The man who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it,
In Historic Research has reached the extreme:
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it; no one can repel it;
At homes, schools and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small introductions,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking with this book than with anything else they ever sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to

BIG PROFITS ON SMALL INVESTMENTS

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but no where can they make so much within short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stocks.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can by made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States, who by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invest a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

WRITE FOR CONVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. ALL FREE. Our Manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard our standing and success.

WILD SWAN ORDERED HERE

Comprehending the presence at this port, during the fair, of the U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia, Capt. Cotton, the management of the fair, conceived the unique and novel idea of bringing, if possible, the flagship of the British squadron, the Royal Arthur, which is stationed at Esquimalt, to this port during fair week, that visitors might be granted the rare privilege of inspecting and comparing the relative points of excellence possessed by either vessel. In a measure the praiseworthy effort has met with success, as the following gracious and courteous communication, received by Mr. M. J. Carrigan from Mr. Frank Dent, Secretary to the Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the British squadron, will attest:

H. M. S. ROYAL ARTHUR,
ESQUIMALT, 30th Sept. 1895.

SIR:—I am directed by the Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief, to request you to please convey his regrets to the members of the Board of Trade, Port Angeles, and the Executive Committee of the Clallam County Fair, at his not being able, owing to previous engagements, to be present in H. M. Ship Royal Arthur on Friday next, the 4th prox., which will be Victoria Day at the Fair.

While regretting his inability to be present, the Admiral wishes every success to the Fair, and fells certain that had he been able to attend, every means on the part of the citizens of Port Angeles would have been used to make his visit a pleasant one.

As the Rear Admiral had arranged for Commander Napiev in H. M. Ship Wild Swan to proceed to New Westminister for the celebration at that place, he will now direct that officer to call in at Port Angeles, so as to be present on Friday, the 4th of October, to assist in the festivities. I am sir,

Your obedient servant,
FRANK DENT,
Sec'y. to the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chief.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.
