THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

VOL. 6. NO. 25. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 18, 1895. PRICE FIVE CENTS

THIS PORT SELECTED

As the Permanent Practicing Grounds

FOR THE PACIFIC SQUADRON.

Rear Admiral Beardslee Frankly States This Fact to a Representative of The Democrat-Leader—The Pacific Fleet Will Comprise Seven Vessels.

L. A. Beardslee, Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Squadron, at present in the harbor on board the flagship Philadelphia, was seen yesterday by a representative of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER and an expression of his opinion, as the results of his personal observations, was requested, as to the merits possessed by this port for a navel practicing station.

The distinguished officer most graciously complied with the request and said, in a simple, straightforward, clear, and direct manner, so truly characteristic of the cool, self-poised commander, that he was most favorably impressed with the conditions existing at this port. "Your port," continued Admiral Beardsley, "is most admirably situated and possesses every essential natural advantage for an ideal naval practicing station. The harbor is, as a matter of fact, one of the finest I have ever seen; sufficient in area, with excellent anchorage-depth, the water deep to shore, it possesses essentially every advantage to prosecute with, safely and with the greatest facility maneuvers with the largest war vessel in the navy. With a far-reaching range, extending, unobstructed for miles over the waters of the straits, sufficient distance is given to practice with absolute safety with our largest guns. These conditions, possessed by your harbor, in a degree not elsewhere to be found, influenced me, solely as a result of my personal observations gathered from the successful maneuvering of the Philadelphia during our visit here, to make this the permanent practicing grounds of the Pacific squadron. My fleet comprises six vessels, which will be increased to seven as soon as the Boston, now in process of construction, is pressed into commission. I have fully determined to have each of the vessels in my fleet, spend a number of weeks here during the year in practice. A number of minor matters have yet to be arranged, the more important of which is to become more familiar with the climatic conditions here, so as to regulate the movements of my vessels, so that the presence here of each will be during the greater number of clear days. During our visit here efficient and expeditious practice has quite materially been interfered with on account of the heavy fogs prevailing in the forenoon, otherwise, the weather has been simply delightful.

"Of course it will be utterly impossible to control, with any degree of certainty the movements of all my vessels, as the coast-line is so extended, unforseen conditions may arise so as to require the presence of a number of the vessels in the fleet in South America or in other foreign waters, during the season best adapted to practice. The future will, of course, regulate and determine these minor matters. These, essentially are the facts, however, I have fully and finally determined to make Port Angeles the permanent practicing grounds for my fleet.

"I want to attest, however, the keen appreciation of myself and of the officers of the Philadelphia, of the pretty entertainment given us by your people, last evening. We thoroughly enjoyed the evening's pastime, and far more the pleasure permitting ot social intercourse with your people."

The Philadelphia will be here, Mr. Beardslee stated, a week or ten days longer, a fact which will be, of course, governed largely by the weather, as the intention is to complete the practice determined upon, before the vessel's departure.

A Birthday Party.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carrigan last Monday evening, in honor of the birthday of their guests, Miss Powers.

Among the pleasurable features provided for the entertainment of the guests were music and dancing. A dainty luncheon was served at 11:30.

The guests were: Mrs Geo E Michell, the Misses Crooks, Ella L Guptill, Ruth Cook, Rose E Pitts, Kate Carrigan, and C Cotten, Jr., H E Ester, R Z Johnston, —— Bannon, of the Philadelphia, and Alf. Simmer and Louis R Cole.

The New York World.

The twice-a-week edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes three papers of six pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week at the old price of one dollar a year. This gives 156 papers a year for one dollar, and every paper has six pages eight columns wide or forty-eight columns in all. The Thrice-a-Week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily wite the attractive special features of a weekly. THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER and THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD will be mailed to any address for $1.75 a year.

RICH IN AGRICULTURE.

A Vast Empire Lying West of the City.

THE SETTLERS LONG FOR THE DAY

Which Will Bring Them Railway Communications With Port Angeles, Their Natural Trading Point—Homes For Thousands of Settlers.

County Surveyor E. A. FitzHenry and his efficient corps of assistants, Messrs. Hiram Love, James Stuckey and Frank Sullivan returned last Saturday morning on the Garland from East Clallam, having reached there the evening before after a tedious three-days' tramp from Queets, covering in that period a distance of 90 miles, the greater portion of which is through an unbroken and trackless forest. As will be remembered Mr. FitzHenry and corps left this city the 9th day of last June for Bogachiel, situated about 130 miles from this city on the western boundary line dividing Clallam from Jefferson. Their mission thither was to prosecute the survey for the government of township 27 north range 11 west, situated in Jefferson county, and township 24 north range 11 west, situated in Chehalis county and along the border line of Jefferson county, about 12 miles from the coast, 40 miles from Gray's Harbor and 160 miles from Port Angeles.

They began with the survey of township 27, the northern portion of which is mountainous, rugged and practically worthless for agriculture, although it contains much valuable timber. Gradually sloping to the southward the surveyors traverse a country better adapted to agriculture, until the Hoe river valley is reached which is a veritable garden spot, the soil wonderfully fertile, the valley quite extensive, sufficient unoccupied government land is available in this township for hundreds of settlers. There are at present only 12 settlers on the Hoe river.

In prosecuting the survey, however, of township 24, which is situated entirely within the limits of the Queets river valley, a beautiful and fertile valley was discovered. This magnificent—in fact incomparable stretch of rich unoccupied agricultural country, extends through the township and beyond a distance of 20 miles, maintaining, apparently, the same wonderfully rich agricultural conditions, the topography of which is comparatively level, the entire distance. The valley is broad, bench lands accessible, and the foot hills gently sloping, affording in the entirety a veritable empire possessing sufficient unoccupied government land for thousands of homesteaders. The only settlement in the township is along the Queets river which contains about 25 settlers. The timber, hemlock, spruce and larch, unsurpassed for its merchantable quality, abounds in vast belts, and will some day prove to be an inestimable source of wealth. The valleys are covered with spruce, hemlock, alder, soft maple and vine maple. Quite a number of prairies, containing from 20 acres to 50 acres, were discovered in prosecuting the survey of the latter township. The country, Mr. FitzHenry declares is a veritable sportsman's paradise, elk, deer, and wild fowls, including pigeons, pheasants, and grouse, are very plentiful—to say nothing of the bear, cougars, panthers and wild cats which roam at will throughout the width and breadth of their forest home, the vast expanse of which hitherto had never been invaded by man.

This magnificent stretch of country, at present isolated and removed from the commercial highways, offers incomparably better inducements, advantages and opportunities to the homesteader, to build a home and to secure a competency for the future, than any other section of the state, and with an outlet to the markets which the building of a railroad from this city will give it, it will become one of the most productive agricultural districts in the the state or the country for that matter. Dairying and stock raising, with the vast area of fertile land peculiarly adapted to these branches, are destined to become the principal agricultural pursuits.

As an illustration of what can be done by the courageous, industrious settler, confronted by the grave obstacles and disadvantages lying in the pathway of a settler in a new country far removed from the markets, the accomplishments of Mr. Glover of Queets valley, serves admirably. Settling on one of the rich claims of that valley only a few years ago this undaunted settler has cleared three acres of land, which is so productive, that he has raised sufficient produce for himself and family and considerable to sell besides.

The settlers of the Queets raise their own tobacco, and Mr. FitzHenry pronounces the leaf A 1, both as to quality and flavor.

But above and beyond all other considerations a railway is required to stimulate the development of the rich agricultural, timber and mineral resources of the country, and to Port Angeles the settlers are longingly and wistfully looking for deliverance from their isolation.

Mr. FitzHenry says that the experiences of himself and party, are replete with hardships and privations encountered and thrilling incidents occurring, which resulted in making otherwise a quiet expedition, exceedingly interesting if not altogether pleasant. For days they were compelled to live on unleavened bread and beans, a bill of fare not calculated to tickle the palate.

The climate is far more congenial and free from rain, than a person is lead to believe, judging from the reports which are circulated about the continuous rain storms prevailing in the country bordering on the coast. The past summer has been, however, an ideal one.

The following is a copy of a letter of instructions written by the Supervising-Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service, Washington, D. C., to the medical officer in command of the marine hospital at Port Townsend, and forwarded to Deputy Collector Wm. K. Clark of this port by Customs Collector James C. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26, '95.

Medical Officer in Command, Port Townsend, Wash.:

SIR:—Referring to your letter of February 21st, 1895, and subsequent correspondence touching upon the subject, namely, quarantine inspection at Port Townsend, I have to inform you that after careful consideration of the whole subject your recommendations, contained in letter of April 18th, 1895, are approved as follows:—

Vessels entering at Port Angeles should be admitted on the local quarantine officers' certificate, provided their port of destination is Port Angeles, or any port situated on the waters of the straits of Fuca or Washington Sound, but if the vessel's destination is any point on said Sound, while making one of the above named places a port of call for orders, said vessel must in that case call at Port Townsend for the inspection of the U. S. quarantine officers.

Vesseels from foreign ports other than those of British Columbia, bound for any port on Puget Sound, shall be subject to quarantine inspection at Port Townsend. Vessels from British Columbia carrying persons, or effects of persons, non-resident in America for sixty days next preceding arrival, shall also be inspected.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by ocal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

THE death of ex-Governor Elisha P. Ferry, which occurred in Seattle last Sunday, removes one of the most conspicuous public figures and distinguished citizens of the state. An eminent lawyer, he occupied first rank at the bar, his services were always eagerly sought in important cases as few practictioners had a clearer, more extended knowledge of the law, than he. His public services, however, embrace many brilliant achievements, which steadfastl evidence a devotion and loyalty to the better interests of his state and country which proclaims in the man the highest type of citizenship. Twice appointed governor under the territorial regime, the people whom he had so faithfully and devotedly served when they had no voice in elevating him to the position he had filled with such signal ability, justly and eloquently attested their appreciation and recognition of his valuable past public services, by electing him by a decisive majority, the first governor of the state of Washington. In all of his official acts, Governor Ferry evidenced exceeding conservatism—that degree of discretion and temperance, which marks the safe, conscientious public officer. Having rounded the seventieth mile-stone twenty-five years of which were spent in this state, a useful career draws to a close, while the sun is passing beyond the western horizon.

THE decision of Rear Admiral Beardslee, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Squadron, in designating this port as the permanent practicing grounds for the vessels of his fleet, is recognition, from an expert source, of the superior natural advantages possessed by this harbor. In fact, the distinguished gentleman in question has no hesitancy in pronouncing this to be the most perfect commercial harbor, that it ever has been his privilege to visit. And this opinhas been strengthened, too, with the results of the Philadelphia's maneuverings round the harbor in prosecuting target practice, when the fact was satisfactorily demonstrated that the harbor in area, depth of water to shore, was adequate for the greatest facility in the movements of the vessel; and in other requirements, more particularly an unobstructed stretch for long-range shooting, which is as a matter of fact an ideal range, and it is to be doubted if another port on the coast possesses the advantage of so perfect a range. The opinion of Admiral Beardslee simply substantiates what has so frequently been claimed by citizens for this harbor. That the opinion entertained at home has been confirmed in ever essential particular, by the expert statement from so distinguished an authority completely vindicates every claim made by this people.

IN another column is published County Treasurer Dorsey's quarterly report. Under the efficient, wholesome and honest administration of Mr. Dorsey, the finances of the county are steadily assuming a more healthful condition.

PORT ANGELES is steadily advancing to the position of commercial supremacy, its superb position justly entitles it.

WHAT perfect weather! It is, indeed, an ideal Indian summer.

AT THE CANNERY.

The Scene a Veritable "Bee Hive" of Industry.

During the past four days the scene in and about the Nrtional Packing Company's cannery and packing houses, has indeed been one of activity and bustle. During that period 20,000 salmon have been received and submitted to the curing process absolute in the preparation of the delicious, tempting and palatable canned salmon.

The management of the cannery has been forced to submit to a most vexatious and trying ordeal, all for the reason that it has been utterly impossible to secure sufficient help to properly and expeditiously handle the immense amount of salmon caught by the cannery's fishermen. Every effort has been put forth to secure suitable—in fact help of any kind—which has proved unavailing. While the management frankly confesses that the wages paid will not permit of princely earnings, yet they will compare very favorably with those paid in other local industries, while the work is incomparably lighter. The labor problem has become so serious and the ability of the management to command the help required so questionable, that the greatest precaution has to be taken to guard against an unusual quantity of salmon arriving at any one time as serious loss might follow. Had the management been able to count with any degree of certainty on commanding at short notice sufficient additional help, the company's boats undoubtedly could have delivered double the quantity of salmon handled during the past two weeks. But for the reason of this uncertainty the boats have been laid off much of the time. In future the management will guard against the serious consequences resulting from inadequate labor even if it has to resort to the extreme measure of sending abroad for the help required, as the company cannot afford to have its business jeopardized by the indifference of the labor at home.

A conservative estimate of the season's pack will undoubtedly be, 15,000 cases, the value of which will exceed $60,000.

In establishing the cannery here the undertaking was purely experimental. The manager, Mr. J. W. Hamp was confident that salmon abounded in these waters in inexhaustible quantities, but the question of catching them was purely problematical, and as a matter of fact has by no means been satisfactorily solved as yet. But the management is confident that in the end it will satisfactorily accomplish as much.

The pluck, enterprise and courage evidenced by Messrs. J. O. Hanthorn and Jno. Fox, the former one of the largest and oldest salmon packers on the Columbia river, the latter president of of the Astoria foundry, and both prominent and public spirited citizens of Astoria, is indeed commendable and deserves unqualified success which, it is to be sincerely hoped their effort will receive.

COUNTY TREASURER'S

Financial Statement For the Quarter Ending Sept. 30, 1895.

The following is County Treasurer Dorsey's financial statement for the quarter endig September 30th, 1895.

In an examination of these statements the taxpayer is impressed with the fact that the county treasurer is properly applying the receipts of the county in the liquidation of its indebtedness. This, of course, is a new innovation in the administration of Clallam county finances. Hitherto the custom sometimes prevailed amongst the people's trusted servants in whom was reposed the grave responsibility of receiving and accounting for public moneys, of depositing the funds in receptive vaults, which, through the practice of fin de seicle financial legerdemain, were diverted into private channels, which flowed on and on out into the waters of the dead sea, which, the prophets of old tell us, "never gives up its dead."

Strict integrity and conscientious fidelity in the administration of the duties of his office have steadfastly characterized the course pursued by Mr. Dorsey since he assumed his official duties. And his public service so worthily administered will meet with universal public endorsement.

For the greater portion of the week the weather has been simply perfect for the Philadelphia to proseeute target practice.

The local lodge of Good Templars will give a social and entertainment in their hall over the postoffice, next Wednesday evening, October 23rd. An excellent program will be tendered and refreshments served. Everybody is invited to attend.

Rev. G. W. Nelson, of Kalama, has accepted the pastorate recently tendered him by the directors of the First Congregational church of this city, and says, in his letter of acceptance that he will arrive here within a few weeks to begin his ministerial duties.

Judge Hanford, of the U. S. District Court, Seattle, has released Anderson, on the grounds that his court has no jurisdiction in the case. It is understood that the superior court of this county will take no action in the matter and Anderson, held on the charge of murdering an Ozette Indian will be given his freedom. The trial of Anderson was transferred from this court to the federal court at Seattle, for the reason, held by Judge McClinton, that the crime was committed on the Indian reservation, consequently the local court had no jurisdiction in the matter. Benton Embree, atterney for Anderson, appealed from the decision of Judge McClinton, and Judge Hanford held that his exceptions were well taken, so he recommitted Anderson to the local court for trial. The decision of the latter court to take no action in the matter gives Anderson his freedom.

E. Greenberg, of New York City, is a guest of his brother, Chas. Greenberg, of the U. S. Clothing & Dry Goods House, of this city. This is Mr. Greenberg's first visit to the Pacific Northwest and he expresses himself as greatly surprised over the varied resources and the grand scenery of the country. In his judgment the future holds great possibilities for Washington.

The French Dramatic Company will begin a three-days' engagement in the opera house in this city next Monday evening, with the production of the "Golden Giant." The scenes depicted in the "Golden Giant," are pitched in a typical Western mining camp, and are realistic of frontier life, in all its simplicity and intensity. Mr. French is deservedly one of Seattle's most popular actors. His company is also an excellent one.

A BRILLIANT EVENT.

Ball Given in Honor of Admiral Beardslee and the Officers of the Philadelphia

The ball given in the opera house last Wednesday evening in honor of Rear Admiral Beardslee and the officers of the flagship Philadelphia, was undoubtedly the most brilliant, harmonious and successful social event of the season.

Everything essential to the success of the event seemed to have been contributed, as the evening passed away without anything occurring to mar the pleasure of the brilliant company, or to interrupt the harmony of the dance.

The opera house had been tastily decorated with evergreen and bunting, the bright colors of which, softened by the brilliant, piercing electric jets, contributed, if possible, to a scene already radiant with youth and beauty, dignity and age.

The grand march was formed at nine o'clock sharp, Admiral Beardslee and Mrs. Chas. E. Mallette leading.

Through the courtesy of Admiral Beardslee the Philadelphia's excellent marine band furnished the music, which was, indeed, an inspiration to those fond of dancing and a genuine pleasure to anyone privileged to listen to the really delightful music produced.

At 11:30 a splendid supper was served in the old Board of Trade rooms. After refreshments had been served, dancing was resumed and continued until 2:30.

The following is a list of those to whom invitations were extended and the persons who attended:

Rear Admiral Beardslee, Capt Cotton, T S Phelps, P G Werlick, H E Field, C Y Fox, M C Gorges, E H Campbell, F D Keains, Harris Laning, J J Raby, J P Morton, M G McCormick, N H Hall, R Z Johnston, H S Cochran, A S MacLemore, Dr R K Smith, F H Conantz, H E Esters, S W Simonds, — Bannon, — Shoemaker, — Sawyer. The Mallette Party.

Last Friday evening Mrs. C. E. Mallette, assisted by Mrs. H. E. Lutz, entertained a number of the officers of the Philadelphia and a few personal friends at the charming and inviting home of the former on the plateau between Oak and Cherry streets.

The evening was enjoyably spent with music, cards dancing.

A tempting and delicious luncheon was served at 11:30, after which the pastimes which had been so skillfully arranged for the pleasure and the entertainment of the guests, were resumed and continued uninterruptedly until 2 o'clock, when, to the regret of all, a delightful evening spent with gracious hostesses drew to an end.

The guests were: Admiral Beardslee, Capt. Cotton, Cadets J P Morton, R Z Johnston, —— Bannon and C Cotton, Jr, Senator and Mrs R C Wilson, Mr and Mrs H E Lutz, Mr and Mrs C P Brown, the Misses Ella Guptill, Rose E Pitts, Nellie Esworthy, Ruth Cook, Edith Haswell and Louis R Cole.

The French Dramatic company will be one of the strongest and best companies ever visiting Port Angeles. The popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents should insure a well-filled opera house every evening.

A RINGING LETTER

Addressed to the Populists of Clallam By the People's Party Club.

At a recent meeting of the People's Party Club, of Port Angeles, held for the purpose of correcting a false impression which has been created against the party by the unpartisan action of a number of the members of the party who have signally distinguished themselves for embracing every ism which momentarily disturbs the body politic. The members of the party and club who again affirm their allegience to the fundamental principles of the People's Party, will be found subscribed to the following declarations:

TO THE POPOLISTS OF CLALLAM COUNTY.

The impression has been spread abroad throughout this county that the People's Party, as it exists in Port Angeles, has become absorbed by a secret organization known as the A. P. A. It is to correct this mistake, and to set ourselves in the true light before our fellow populists, that we, the active supporters of the People's party principles, after several enthusiastic meetings, have decided to address you.

Much of the misunderstanding regarding the inconstancy of Port Angeles populists to true party principles has come from the fact that the heretofore populist organ, "The Simoon," regardless of the non-consent of stockholders, and the wishes of its populist readers, has been given over to serve as an A. P. A. mouth-piece. Consequently we must use this form of circular letter to make the beginning of a rally to the people's cause, which knows none of the differences of religion or race.

We wish to declare to all sympathizers that we more firmly than ever believe in the cause of the people, and the principles of the Omaha platform, and that we are willing and anxious to labor more ardently than ever for the upbuilding of the masses against ignorance, greed and oppression.

We realize that progression in governmental affairs can come only through the united efforts of the people; and we shall discountenance all efforts made by monopolies and political schemers to divide our forces by any trumped up theories, which their fertile brains are, and will be ready to invent.

We refuse to be turned aside by the burning questions of religion whose discussions and hatreds belong to the 15th century. We believe in fighting the evils nearest home, and look with distrust upon any effort made to turn back the tide of the century's progress and revive the barbarisms of religious persecutions.

We most heartily and especially uphold the constitution of the United States, in its guarantee of religious freedom, and we fear, as dangerous to the cause, any who profess to be working for the good of the people, and yet would tear into shreds, any of the rights upheld by the constitution of our forefathers, who planted this republic as a land of freedom.

We earnestly counsel all those who may sympathize with the people's cause to prove themselves too wise to be duped by all the conflicting things which will be placed before them between this time and the campaign of '96. Let others fight about what they may, and let cunning office-seekers solicit votes under false pretences, we will not consent to lose sight of the great questions of finance, prosperity and honest government; which are the vital issues of the day, and we will use all our strength to have the next national election fought out on these lines.

Let us not be fooled by any temporary and fanatical crazes, for attacks on religion or non-religion, but cling steadily to the cause of the oppressed and win the great victory of reform government, which is so much dreaded by those whose greatest aim will be to set brother against brother, and divide the masses in their sincere effort to better their conditions.

Fraternally submitted,
THE PEOPLE'S PARTY CLUB,
of Port Angeles.

Following are the resolutions passed at a meeting of The People's Party Club of Port Angeles, Clallam County, Wash., October 4th, 1895:

Resolved, 1st. We reaffirm our allegience to the People's Party platform as adopted at the city of Omaha, Nebraska, July 4th, 1892.

2nd. We declare there is no room in our platform—it being full of good principles—for any secret association that conflicts with the rights or liberty of American citizens, on account of religious belief, nationality or race; as guaranteed by the constitution of the United States of America. See Article 6, Sec. 3, which reads: "but no religious test shall be required as a qualification to any office or public trust, under the United States of America."

3d. See amendments to the constitution, Article 1: "Congress shall make no law, respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievance."

DICTIONARY OF U. S. HISTORY.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact,
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought

The men who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it,
In Historic Research has reached the extreme:
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it; no one can repel it;
At homes, schools and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small inducements,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking than this book than with anything else now to be sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to

A SPLENDID GAME.

Dungeness Defeat the Philadelphians in an Exciting Contest.

The match game of base ball played in this city last Saturday afternoon between the Philadelphians and the Dungeness team, was undoubtedly one of the best, most interesting and closely contested games ever played in this city. The score, 11 to 12, resulted in favor of Dungeness.

It is understood that another match game will be played in this city next Saturday between these clubs, and it is not altogether improbable that a number of changes will be made in either nines with the view of strengthening either with the object, of course, if possible of playing a better game.

The following is the official score by innings:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Philadelphias	0	4	1	1	1	1	0	2	0--11
Dungeness	0	7	0	1	3	0	0	1	—12

G. A. R. Reception

The reception given last evening in Masonic hall by the officers and members of Pacific Post No. 48 G. A. R., in honor of Rear Admiral Beardslee, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Squadron, Capt. Cotton and the officers of the Philadelphia, was a conspicuous success

The invitation was responded to by Admiral Beardslee, Capt. Cotton, and nearly all of the officers of the Philadelphia. Only a limited number of special invitations were issued to citizens. The evening was most enjoyably spent in an interchange of reminiscences of the war laughable incidents and anecdotes of that memorable event, which so delights the veteran of the late civil war.

Light refreshments were served, as the hours swiftly passed away, and the heart of the old soldier grew softer and lighter and kindlier for the few hours spent with a past holding so much to awaken the noblier sentiments of the human heart.

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but no where can they make so much within short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stocks.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can by made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States, who by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.
