VOL. 6. NO. 28. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1895. PRICE FIVE CENTS

A VERDICT OF "GUILTY"

Again Returned By the Jury In the

SECOND TRIAL OF EX-TREASURER

M. J. Clump on the Charge of Embezzling Clallam County Funds—Defendant's Attorney Will Make Motion for New Trial—Clallam County Finances.

The Superior court, of Clallam county, Judge James G. McClinton, was occupied with the trial of the somewhat notorious case of the State of Washington vs. M. J. Clump, the defendant in the cause being tried on the charge of embezzling the public funds while treasurer of Clallam County, from Tuesday morning until Wednesday evening, when it went to the jury.

This is the second trial of the case, the first having come on to be heard the 17th of September, last, the case having gone to the jury Saturday, September 21st. The jury were unable to arrive at a verdict until the following Monday noon, when they gave a verdict of "guilty" as charged in the bill of information.

The attorney for the defense, Jno. Trumbull, of Townsend, appealed to the court for a new trial on a motion that certain county records had been improperly exhibited to the jury in the jury room. The judge granted the motion for a new trial, and set the day for hearing the case on Tuesday, October 22, and or substantial reasons extended the time of hearing until Tuesday, Nov. 5th.

The period of duration of the second trial has been far more brief than that occupied by the first, as the attorneys for the state were enabled through the experienced gained in the former trial to greatly simplify the pleadings in the latter.

The petit jurors panelled to try the cause were: C. A. Bork, Geo. Lotzgasell, B. G. Wilcox, C. B. Randall, A. H. Nottage, N. S. Stone, P. F. Kiernan, E. Dermul, Marlin A. Alexander, David Ferguson, J. W. Craig and Edwin Ware.

The case went to the jury at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon, and a verdict was delivered in the court to Judge McClinton at 8:15 o'clock, which upon being opened proved to be "guilty" as charged in the bill of information.

The attorney for the defense has already notified the court that a motion for a new trial would be filed.

COUNTY TREASURER'S

Financial Statement for the Month of October.

The following is County Treasurer Dorsey's financial statement for the month of October. The statement is worthy the perusal of all taxpayers and citizens, as it very forcibly suggests that as the money is collected from taxes it is applied, as it properly should be, to the liquidation of the county's indebtedness. The statement also most positively sets forth the fact that Clallam county is slowly but steadily liquidating, under the efficient and honest administration of County Treasurer Dorsey.

Three more years of as able, honest and conscientious service in that office as is being rendered by the present incumbent, and the finances of Clallam county will be with, of course, the continuation of the present economical administration of county affairs, in that condition, county warrants will command, as they now should, quite their face value.

THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER will regularly with each succeeding month publish these statements, and it is the paramount duty of every citizen and taxpayer to carefully peruse each statement keep thoroughly posted as to the condition of county's finances, by this means they will not become forgetful of valuable public service when rendered and will be far more likely to rebuke conscienceless rascals should ever again any such appeal to them for their suffrage:

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by ocal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TWO BURGLARS BOLD

Enter the Residence of Capt. Enos Raymond

WHILE THE FAMILY IS AT CHURCH,

And Carry Away Valuable Furs—They Escape in Small Boat Taken From Schooner Jessie With Some of Vessel's Effects—Captured Near Townsend

Last Sunday evening while Captain and Mrs. Enos Raymond and their little daughter, Jessie, were at church, their home was entered and burglarized of many of its valuable contents. An entrance was effected through the pantry window at the rear of the house, which had been left open sufficiently to easily admit being raised. The window is elevated some six or seven feet from the ground, but the burglars had secured an entrance through the window from some large boxes which had been left standing immediately under the window. When the family returned home from church Mrs. Raymond discovered that the window curtains had been closed. Fully realizing that she had left them open her suspicions were aroused at once that something was wrong. She asked Mr. Raymond if he had closed the windows before going to church. He replied that he had not done so. This led to an investigation which disclosed the fact that the fears entertained that the house had been entered were not ill-founded. The first article which was discovered missing was a large, handsome, black bear skin which was used in the parlor as a rug. Further examination of the house disclosed the fact that other articles had been taken. The burglars seemed to have a weakness for furs. Miss Jessie's Esquimo suit, Mr. Raymond's seal coat, several suits of underwear and his pants, Mrs. Raymond's two fur muffs, seal skin cape and fur tippet were among the articles missing.

The burglars; however, had unconsciously left traces behind them, which furnished a very positive clue as to their identity. In packing the articles wrongfully appropriated they had used a piece of tarpaulin rope which was too long for the service required of it and they cut a piece of the rope off, and carelessly and thoughtlessly threw it aside. In the piece of rope had been tied a knot—such a knot as only a sailor could tie. This clew was sufficient to satisfy Mr. Raymond that the burglars were seafaring men, and the piece of rope left behind them gave every evidence of having been freshly cut from a coil of rope used aboard a vessel. Consequently the burglars were undoubtedly seafaring men who had access to a vessel, possibly lying in the harbor, and would make their escape on the vessel.

Soon after they retired, but Mr. Raymond could not sleep. His mind naturally reverted to the piece of rope found in the house. It could not possibly be that the burglars were the sailors aboard his schooner, the Jessie, lying at anchor in the harbor. Sleep, was, however, utterly impossible, under the stimulus of the excitement. Consequently to satisfy his apprehensions, he arose at 4 o'clock, dressed himself and started for his vessel to see if all was well there. Upon arriving at the vessel all was found to be calm and quiet. On boarding the vessel and entering the cabin he discovered that the sailors had disappeared. But remembering that they had told him the day previous that they were going in the ship's boat to the head of the bay and from thence overland to Edgewood, to see if they could obtain work in the shingle mill, he thought that possibly they might have decided to go the night before. However, he proceeded to examine the vessel to satisfy himself that all was safe aboard. First the coil of tarpaulin rope was examined. This led to the discovery that a fresh cut had been made, and not remembering having used the rope for some time, this gave foundation for the suspicion that the sailors were the burglars. Further examination revealed the fact that the ship's compass, pilot's log line, spy glass, oars and row locks, a pair of rubber boots, one coat, sou'wester, and dishes, pans and all the provisions aboard were missing. Also the fine new sail boat belonging to Wm. Martin, valued at $100, was missing. These discoveries pretty thoroughly grounded the suspicions in the mind of the captain, that the sailors were none other than the burglars, and that they had skipped by the light of the moon for Victoria or the islands.

It appears that these sailors, who had developed in bold, daring and somewhat successful burglars, came to Port Angeles about three weeks ago, giving their names as Joe and Jim, and claiming to have deserted from an English ship at Tacoma only a few days before. They appealed to Capt. Raymond for a berth on the Jessie, and were engaged for a few days' work. While the Jessie was temporarily out of service, Capt. Raymond told them that they might remain aboard the schooner. This they did, and finally evidenced their appreciation of the kindness shown them, in altogether too demonstrative a manner.

While many theories are advanced as to the objective post of the dual pirates and burglars, the one generally accepted is, that they sailed for Victoria, where a responsive market awaits them for their furs. Then possibly they will row to some secluded spot along Vancouver's coast, and re-paint the boat, having taken paint and brushes from the Jessie, and then maybe offer her for sale.

As soon as Capt. Raymond could reach Victoria he telegraphed to the authorities to apprehend the runaways, and immediately put out on the Jessie for that port. He was accompanied in the pursuit by Geo. Moore, Will Martin, Will Crockett and John Weldon. It is sincerely to be hoped that the capture of the fugitives will be speedily effected, the stolen property recovered and the wrong-doers brought to justice.

The capture of Jos. Pannett, one of the Raymond burglars was effected on Whidby island, just under cover of Admiralty inlet, where they had landed for the night, by the U. S. customs' launch, which steamed in Wednesday evening in search of smugglers. When discovered Pannett and his companion were cooking their supper on shore. Both attempted to escape, but Pannett was apprehended and taken to Townsend. It appears Pannett is a notoriously bad character, having served a three-months' sentence in the Townsend jail last spring for obtaining money under false pretense.

Sheriff Dyke returned yesterday morning in charge of Pannett, also bringing back nearly all of the stolen property.

Pannett's preliminary trial was held before Judge Carusi yesterday afternoon. The prisoner admitted being a witness to the crime, but declares that his companion took the property, and he only was an unoffending eye-witness to the wrongdoing.

He was bound over to appear before the superior court for trial in the sum of $500, and in default of the bail, languishes in the county jail.

Taffy's Delightful Reign.

Last Wednesday evening a number of the young friends of Miss Grace Grant assembled at her home on Front street in response to invitation to participate in the festivities of a taffy-pull to be given on that evening.

The evening's entertainment consisted of games, music and etc., and the delightful task of taffy-pulling afforded not a little amusement for a period of half an hour.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Hatch, Misses Grace Grant, Fanny and Emma Draper, Mabel Crosby, Theresa Graham, Blanch Hitch, Anna Fields, Emma McLaughlin, Maude Hamilton; Messrs. Wm. J. Ware, Orin Babcock, C. Elmer Nailor, Walter Miller, A. J. Cosser.

The council adjourned.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETS

And Transacts Important Business—The Gown Contest to Be Held Soon.

The Clallam County Horticultural Society met in the board of trade rooms at the usual hour last Saturday and held a most interesting meeting, transacting much important business.

The fair committee not being ready to report on the financial question, it was deferred until Saturday Nov. 9th and a special meeting will be held on that date by the society.

A letter from Mr. C. H. Ross and certificate appointing P. W. Gallup, fruit tree inspector for Clallam county, was read by the secretary. It stated that the appropriation made by the state, for the purpose of inspecting orchards and fruit trees, had been reduced by the last legislature, also that the commissioner for this district (comprising four counties) was only allowed a salary of $25 per month which hardly covered his own expense and did not permit of his hiring deputies for the different counties.

It was moved and carried that all applicants for membership hereafter pay an initiation fee of fifty cents in order to create a small reserve fund. It was also decided that all members of the society, pay quarterly dues amounting to $1 per annum, commencing from Oct. 1st, 1895. It was also further decided that the annual meeting for the election of officers take place in November, at the next regular meeting the first Saturday in December, the committee and officers for the second annual county fair will be elected, and all persons interested in the management of the exposition and a creditable display of the county's products should be present and have a voice in the election of officers by becoming members of the society.

A committee was elected to prepare an address to the citizens of Clallam county regarding the importance of county fairs and the work already accomplished by the society. The committee comprises T. T. Edwards, E. H. Stanley and M. J. Carrigan.

Mr. Banks gave some facts regarding a potato known as the "American Wonder," and pronounced it a veritable wonder and the most prolific bearer he had ever seen.

The ladies gown contest which happened to be omitted during fair week will be given at an early date, and a committee of five has been appointed. It will probably be given as a masquerade ball, ladies particularly to wear home-made gowns, and an entrance fee of fifty cents will be charged. The prize which will be awarded to the successful contestant is a handsome silver pitcher valued at $15. The proceeds from the ball will be devoted to the benefit of the society. An effort will be made to have the ball take place in the opera house on or about Thanksgiving Day.

ANY citizen genuinely honest in pursuit of reform, must have learned an invaluable lesson from his unprofitable experience with the prolific crop of rattle-brained agitators abroad in the land during the past few years of the country's industrial and financial depression, who unsought assumed the role of leaders of the people. Prolific in professions of reform doctrine these designing and unscrupulous leaders succeed for a time in deceiving and misleading the people. They are elevated to positions of public trust; their true character is then revealed; nothing for the true cause of reform has been accomplished, and too frequently a record of public dishonor and party betrayal is the result of the participation in public affairs of these visionary, impracticable and vacilating agitators.

THE present city administration has not only practiced genuine reform during its term of office, but it has positively and unequivocally declared for more sweeping retrenchment during the incoming city government. Taxpayers should not remain indifferent to these declarations.

THERE appears to be a remarkable falling off in the large Populist vote of only a year ago. Wonder if you searched for the cause if you would find it in desertion of the party by unfaithful leaders?

TOWNSEND appears to have the champion foot-ball team of the Northwest League. As "kickers" Townsendites were always a phenominal success, anyway.

MARYLAND has done herself proud in repudiating United States Senator Gorman, for the shameful betrayal of his party in the last Democratic Congress.

THE duty of citizens is to unite and nominate honest and capable citizens to represent them in the incoming city administration. Then elect them.

CITIZENS will see to it that anyone bearing an unsavory reputation is not entrusted with the affairs of the municipal government.

JUDGING from the returns the Republican majorities of a year ago show strong symtoms of quick consumption.

THE election returns suggest that there were Democrats abroad in the land last Tuesday.

THE Populists of Clallam county have suffered most shameful and outrageous treatment from a man whom they honored by electing him to a high and responsible position of public trust. First he betrays then deserts his party. As an example of perfidy and dishonor it has no equal in the annals of political history.

DUNGENESS ITEMS

Last Sunday morning and evening the Rev. Dr. Ford preached in the M. E. church of this place, to a well filled church on both occasions. The evening service was very impressive and as the Rev. Dr. preached home to the thoughts and hearts of the people, the vital truths of the gospel of the Lord Jesus, you could plainly perceive that the force of attraction in the faith of Christianity upon the people was yet—unabated. The doctor closed one of the best sermons ever preached in this church with a marvelous word picture illustration of the light of the world—after the sermon—the sacrament of the Lord supper was administered and partaken by the majority of those present. Before closing the reverend gentlemen took occasion to express his gratification at the great advance in church life, as well as village sentiment the past year. "To go through your streets and see the quietness, and order and decency that exists, and compare it with a year past, shows work and faith. And after again thanking the people for their kindly reception to himself and wife he pronounced the benediction upon the best quarterly conference, in many respects. ever held in the Dungeness charge.

Last Friday evening marked a distinct advance in the social life of Dungeness. It was the occasion of showing to the Rev. Dr. Ford and wife the respect in which they are held.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Seal was thrown open both to them and the people, and there gathered the representative element of good order and good morals—more than fifty of the best people of the community were present. Almost filling the spacious and tastefully furnished home. During the evening an extended and enjoyable program was rendered in a remarkably creditable manner. The program given as below:

Instrumental solo, "Love Conflict".....Prof. Brown
Recitation, "Don'ts".....Ethel Hunt
Vocal duet, "Good Bye".....
.....Miss Mina and Mrs. Semple
Soprano solo, "Killarney" Mrs. Dr. Croft
Piano duet .....
....Prof. Brown and Miss Ethel Hunt
Recitation, "Asleep at the Switch"
.....Miss Slack
Soprano Solo, "Leonore".....
.....Miss Miner
Piano duet .....
.....Jno. Brown and Miss Hunt
Tenor Solo, "A Dream of Love"..
.....Mr. Semple
Recitation, "Christening the Baby"
.....Mrs. Johnson
Song, "The Warrior Bold".....
.....Rev. Lee
Piano Solo, "Trailing Arbute"....
.....Prof. Brown
Baritone Solo, "The White Squall"
..... Mr. Seal

Interspersed with this refreshments were served by the fair ladies of Dungeness, of whom, by the way, there are many—and by a felicitous speech of the doctor's—in which on behalf of himself and wife he feelingly expressed his appreciation of the reception given in their honor—winding up his speech with a very humorous illustration.

It would be in bad taste, and extremely unjust to select from the program any piece for special mention, all of which were excellent, but we are forced to express our appreciative enjoyment of Prof. Brown's talented performance on the piano. The only ludicrous part, and that was enjoyable, was to see the Rev. Lee stand clothed in clerical garment and his well known plegmatic temperament, sing in a lusty voice, "Iv'e fought for love and died," and declaring that he "was a warrior bold," and every inch of his 5 feet, 2 inches looked it, too. The evening was spent in thorough enjoyment, and every one went home feeling it had been good to be there, and wishing that in the near future similar gatherings may be brought together.

The Rev. Dr. Ford and wife were driven to Sequim Prairie by A. U. Davis, Sunday afternoon, where he preached in the pastor's regular place to an appreciative audience. Four children were baptized and the sacrament was administered. This is the second time that service has been held at this place, and is a remarkable advancement upon the past.

"Have you any plans for the future year, Mr. Lee?"

"Plans! Yes; chock full. Why?"

Oh, we were just desirous of hearing what you contemplated."

"Well, you may put it down that we contemplate a great deal. 1st. We are going to have the biggest revival of religion right here, that this place ever dreamed of. There are many men in this community who ought to be saved and live a Christian life; men whom I have prayed for every day since I arrived on this charge. They are going to be converted. 2nd. The parsonage is even now nearing completion and will be a source of gratification to any pastor who comes here in the future. 3rd. We are going to build a church at Sequim. They need one. They have got to have and shall have one. 4th. These outlying places such as Blyn, Last Mountain, Burnt Hill and others must have divine services, and will have. 5th. The debt on the church property has existed long enough and must and will be paid. 6th and last. Keep your eye on Dungeness for Christmas. She's going to have the biggest and the best celebration that you have seen."

"Any more?"

"No. Iv'e talked long enough."

Going home from the reception given to Dr. Ford Friday night the Rev. Lee was asked, "Well, what do you think of the evening?" When he replied, and that very emphatically, "That's religion," and there's no doubt but what he is more than half right; if religion don't take hold of this life, its heaven help the next.

DICTIONARY OF U. S. HISTORY.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact,
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought.

The man who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it,
In Historic Research has reached the extreme:
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it: no one can repel it;
At homes, schools and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small introductions,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking with this book than with anything else they ever sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to

A Remarkably Dry Month.

This has been a most phenomenal month for its dryness, foggy and smoky days and light variable winds. While the mean temperature was 48 degrees, which is the average for the past eleven years, the total rainfall was only fifteen hundreths of an inch, while the average rainfall for eleven years is 2.57 inches, the deficiency is 2.42 inches for October.

Total number of dense fogs recorded, being ten, or ten days foggy, besides a number of light fogs and light smoky were not included. The record of fogs for the five previous years, all the fogs included, do not exceed this month for fogs. The wind was exceptionally light. This dry month was undoubtedly due to the high atmospheric pressure throughout the month, and the lack of rainfall and no wind scarcely, seemed to be the required conditions to cause fog.
