The Effete East Being Deserted For the Glorious West.

SETTLERS BEGINNING TO POUR IN.

The Effects of the Long Labors of the Immigration Association is Showing Itself By the Constant Arrival of Settlers, All of Whom Say There Are Many More Coming.

The Clallam County Immigration Association held its regular weekly meeting last Saturday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms, with Capt. Bradley as chairman.

The committee appointed to select a lot of photographs for use by the St. Paul office, reported that it had made up the collection, but that not all the photographs had been finished. They would be in shape to send forward during the coming week. The whole matter was left in the hands of the trustees.

The subject of sending an official committee into the grass land country back of Port Angeles was then taken up and discussed at some length.

Mr. Carrigan suggested that it would be well to ask for volunteers in making up the party and from such number as were willing to go that the association select three whom it considered the best qualified to make a thorough investigation and an intelligent report. The suggestion was acted upon and the chairman announced that the association would be pleased to have volunteers give their names to Secretary Gale without delay, either at the meeting or during the week.

A communication from the state association was read by Secretary Gale, calling for information regarding local organizations and giving some information regarding the work of the state organization.

Mayor Myers was present and had a letter read which he had received from a man at Chattanooga, Tenn., who wanted to come to this country and asked for some information. The secretary was instructed to send him one of the immigration bulletins, recently issued by the St. Paul office.

The meeting then reverted to the subject of grazing lands and Mayor Myers told what he knew about them.

He did not think a wagon road at all necessary to make them available, but was sure that a good pack trail would answer for the present. He was convinced there were 100,000 acres of this sort of land back there and believed it was all in Clallam county. He states that there also grew in great quantities wild peas, which were very nutritious and an excellent cattle food. He found it much warmer there than here on the coast and considered it a most favored section for tourists and healthseekers. He found vegetation much more advanced than in Angeles. Looking southward the mountain sides would be covered with snow, but the view to the north showed one mass of green, with the grass swaying in the breeze and flowers in bloom. He considers it a fine country for stock and fruits, particularly the southern slopes and valleys.

Settlers Galore.

Another large contingent of homeseekers arrived here last Tuesday. The party is made up of George Blank, Geo. H. Blank, John Blank, Mrs. Charlotte Blank, Jas. H. Blank and wife, James H. Kinght and wife, Lewis Knight, Wenzel Koubert and Enoch Smith. They all hail from Baldwin, Iowa.

Their attention was called to this country by the St. Paul office of the Immigration Association and they were in correspondence some time before they decided to come here.

Mr. H. M. Miller was born and reared on a farm adjoining that of Mr. Blank and children of the two families grew up together. Mr. Miller has been writing them about the glories of Clallam county and largely influenced them to seek a new home here.

They are all farmers and it is their intention to devote themselves to that business in this county. They are perfectly delighted with our country and emphatically assert that not the half was ever told them.

From Minneapolis.

A party of Minneapolis people arrived Monday and are now full-blown citizens of Port Angeles. They are T. C. Griggs, C. A. Griggs, F. T. Griggs, Mrs. Griggs and one child.

Col. Coolican and Major Harding pursuaded them to come out and see what we could offer them, and they say they are here to stay. They have been engaged in the cigar and confectionery business in Minneapolis and will try to get into some business here as soon as they get settled. They have for the present taken the house lately occupied by J. C. Caie.

They came over the Great Northern Railroad, and had a very pleasant trip out, without a single break or delay in the entire journey.

Another Arrival.

Mr. George Spurr, of St. Paul, was among the arrivals Tuesday. He is a member of the syndicate that purchased the St. Paul addition.

He finds Port Angeles a much larger and more advanced city than he had expected.

Mr. Spurr is quite conservative in his views, but believes that with proper conditions that Port Angeles has a bright future before it, and is well satisfied as far as he has seen.

He expects to remain here for a month or two and if his report is favorable, fifty or more families from around St. Paul will come to Clallam county, and they will bring sufficient capital to start their own factories, mills and other branches of industry.

Mr. Spurr is an enthusiastic sportsman and before he returns east will visit the lakes and rivers and confirm the reports he has heard that Clallam county is the sportsman's paradise.

Arrival of the Monterey.

The coast defense monitor Monterey arrived here last Friday from San Diego, Calf., having made the run from San Francisco to Port Angeles in three days. It was the intention to leave Sunday afternoon, but in hoisting the anchor a shackle pin of the chain parted and the anchor found a resting place at the bottom of the bay.

It took the divers all Sunday and Monday morning to locate the anchor, but they finally found it and then it did not take long before it was on deck. The vessel steamed out of the harbor at 2 o'clock Monday bound for Victoria, where Capt. Ludlow goes to pay his respects to Admiral Stephenson, of the Royal Navy. She will then proceed up-Sound to test the U. S. dry dock at Port Orchard.

At the Council.

The council met in regular session March 18th.

The street committee reported an investigation of the condition of affairs up Valley street. They found several men at work fixing the street in front of the lots whose fences were out in the street, and that it would require but little more work to make the road passable all the way up Valley street. They thought it would probably be necessary to build a bridge above Third street.

The street commissioner reported to the committee that he had finished the work on the county road near Dry Creek at a less expense than was estimated.

The city treasurer was instructed to pay the city attorney seven dollars for clerk's fees in mandamus suit against County Treasurer Dorsey to determine who shall collect the delinquent city taxes.

The bill of Attorney Williams for $25, for acting on behalf of the city in the Mona case, was laid over until the case should be decided in the superior court.

On motion of Councilman Monroe, Frederick Lehman was granted a license to sell cigarettes.

Request of County Treasurer Dorsey for a return of his bond as ex-officio tax collector, was read and laid on the table without action.

A communication from City Attorney Marquardt relative to the preparation of papers so as to enable the city to pay its bills in cash was read, in which he stated that the Pierce county case had been appealed to the supreme court and he advised that it would be wise to remain passive until the high court passed upon the question.

On motion of Munro the city treasurer was instructed to give the city attorney one dollar to dismiss the W. C. Williams case.

Stewart stated that a stagnant pool was just east of the Nottage place and should be attended to; and also that the ditch on Washington and Fourth streets overflows and thus does considerable damage.

The street commissioner was authorized to investigate and fix up the two places.

On motion of Lamoreux the people on Valley street were allowed a team one or two days for fixing the street.

The council then adjourned for one week.

City Hotel Opening.

Invitations have been extended to a grand opening of the City hotel next Saturday evening.

Host Buchholz will have the use of the opera house for the dancing and will then ask his guests to the hotel for supper. There will be a number of visitors from up-Sound and the affair promises to be a swell event.

A large consignment of men's furnishing goods was received last week by the Dungeness Trading Co. Hats, caps, underwear, socks and stockings.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

Association to Be Formed to Take the Matter in Hand.

VOLUNTEER WORK AND MONEY.

Judge G. V. Smith Has Conceived a Plan By Which He Thinks the Streets of Port Angeles Can Be Improved Without the Formality of Contracts and Contractors, and the City Beautified.

During the meeting of the immigration association last Saturday Judge G. V. Smith brought up the subject of street improvements, and outlined a plan that he considered feasible and practicable.

The association did not seem inclined to take hold of the subject in its name, but after the adjournment those present resolved themselves into a meeting to consider the proposition.

Capt. Morrisey was selected as chairman and Mr. Carter as secretary.

Judge Smith explained at some length his ideas on the subject and suggested that a committee be appointed to devise plans for the formation of a "City Improvement Association," and to make a report at a meeting of citizens to be held at the board of trade rooms on the following Tuesday afternoon, at which meeting a permanent organization be effected.

The chairman appointed the following gentlemen as members of the committee: G. V. Smith, T. H. Carter, Wm. Banks, Alonzo Hunt and Captain Bradley.

The committee met at the appointed time on Tuesday, and the matter was discussed thoroughly in all its features, and it was decided to go ahead and make a strenuous effort to accomplish the ends proposed.

The general scope of the plan contemplates a city organization with sub-organizations such as streets, wards, districts, with a president, secretary, treasurer and board of trustees.

Its object is to secure volunteer city improvements, such as streets, bridges and setting out ornamental trees, under the authority of the city council.

The plan of operation is to procure the work and contributors of property owners, within the districts to be formed, the work to be performed, under the direction of the board of trustees and to enlist public opinion and cooperation of the city council.

The membership is to be composed of owners of realestate in Port Angeles, to be signified by signing the constitution and by-laws, or by signifying in writing to the society a wish to become a member. Judge Smith was appointed to draft the constitution and by-laws and to report the same next Monday, the 16th, at 2 o'clock, at the board of trade rooms.

Through the courtesy of the committee we are able in this issue to present the report as it will be made in the public meeting next week, and we would press upon our readers to give the matter consideration and be present at the next meeting.

As the plans here submitted must be directed towards and fitted as near as possible to the objects and aims of the association it seems necessary as an intelligent premise to give some outline of them.

Within the amphitheatre of our townsite nature's lines of beauty and convenience with her combinations of metropolitan advantages give a wide scope of action, and an equal stimulus to the pride and ambition of its citizens to build a great and attractive city here; already has a mighty forest given way to elaborate gardens and numerous homes, built mostly by the poor man's labor, with his industry, sustained and encouraged by the inspirations of natural beauty and advantages, but the work is yet in the rough; not only is the attractiveness of our city greatly marred by the ugly snags, stumps and logs, which line nearly all our streets and creeks, but the impassibilty of most of the streets on account of such unimproved conditions is the first suggestion of duty.

Street improvement, therefore, is now and for some time has been urgently demanded and those who have mostly felt this condition, the resident and homebuilder, have made many efforts at devising and working up plans to secure such improvement of their streets as to practically travel by vehicles to and from their homes and to do the necessary hauling along said streets.

Owing to the financial crisis that has so recently swept over the entire country and the continued depression in every line of business, our city governments have wisely deemed it inexpedient to incur any further obligations to improve our streets. Our people cannot look for help from this direction.

We are faced with great discouragements, therefore, in waiting upon public municipal improvement, in fact, it appearing that waiting upon such dependence is simply to await the time when we shall either have to surrender our homes to the expense or to pay for them again.

The question then has arisen to residents "how shall we overcome these difficulties, and when?"

It is a simple proposition. We cannot get along without some improvement to our thoroughfares, and we must have bridges, and sidewalks; these demands are absolute and urgent; we must find means to travel to and from our homes without imminent danger to life and limbs.

We have seen that we can get no help from the city, our only relief then is in our own work, which can undoubtedly be made effective and prompt by combination and organization under a thorough system and an intelligent plan of operations.

There are two very forcible reasons why our own voluntary work should be made available. First, because many of our property owners have ample idle time which would be made profitable by spending it in the improvement of the streets in front of their homes or lots; it would add value to their property and save great inconvenience in travel and transportation and would thus pay them good wages.

Second, it would prevent us from being ultimately robbed by street contractors or municipal extravagence, since our plan embraces the legal and final grading of the streets under municipal authority although by our voluntary work and expense, which would be merely nominal compared to the usual expense by the city.

If we would ever save ourselves of the enormous expense of public municipal improvement of our streets we shall never find a better time or opportunity than now, and especially should the work be done now because a new tide of immigrants and home seekers have just set in, and these greatest inconveniences of inaccessibility and the unattractiveness, defacing the whole area of our city, contrasting as it does the beauties and conveniences of nature, our boast and pride, and this ugly view is the first cause of disappointment to new comers.

There is much here to inspire and cultivate a love of city ornaments and improvements. Inducements for the necessary industry have already been exemplified in the clearing of a great forest into fine gardens, home improvements and a vast amount of voluntary street improvements, all done by poor men without other means than their own labor, amounting in the aggregate to an expense of several hundred thousand dollars, if counted in money.

There is much to encourage the plans and purposes of a City Improvement Association in the manifest industry, the love of home and the pride of our citizens not less than the force of necessity urgently pressing.

The plan of organization proposed for the City Improvement Association to secure the voluntary improvement of our thoroughfares are briefly outlined as follows:

The association should comprehend a general society to be composed of all residents and property owners of the city who may be willing, by their labor or means, to give voluntary aid to the proposed work.

It should be the duty of the general association first, to arouse public interest, awaken general understanding of the necessity and advantages of this proposed undertaking and to secure public unity and concerted action in this behalf.

Towards these ends correspondence should be opened at once with all nonresident property owners with a view to securing contributions from them by showing them the economy and other advantages secured by such voluntary work. It is possible that if such owners shall understand the advantages and profits to them they will contribute sufficient to employ a large amount of labor so that those who shall aid by their voluntary work may be further encouraged and maintained by dividing their voluntary time with time given for those who contribute money, and thus while improving their property they will find a means of earning their living and placing all in a better condition, adding to the general prosperity by the additional money in circulation.

It should be the duty also of the general association to manage and direct the general work through a board of trustees composed of five responsible men, capable and honest, whose duty it shall be to direct and manage the work of improvement upon the most economical basis without personal favor, bias or prejudice, combining strict business management with public enterprise.

There shall be no places for profit or personal advantage nor any special privileges allowed.

The trustees should follow plans which should be thoroughly matured by the association.

The work in different parts of the city should be done through district organizations authorized by the general society, subject to the general management of the board of trustees. The districts to be as small or as large as it shall be found to be practical to properly do the work. The rules to be liberal enough to allow every resident or property owner desiring the same, to have the street or streets abutting his property improved so far as the same can be done by the voluntary work and funds given.

The amount of work to be accomplished can only be ascertained by the amount of aid, the zeal, industry and

POOR Bill McKinley still thinks the McKinley bill the embodiment of all wisdom, and the one plank his followers propose is an endorsement of it.

JUDGING from the number of desirable immigrants to Clallam county, the Clallam County Immigration Association is doing more and better work than most of the associations of the state.

"FIRST BALLOT OR BUST," say the McKinleyites. Well, they have spent $100,000 already for the nomination and have levied an assessment on the robber barons for $250,000 more, so the chances are that they will go "bust" whether they make the first ballot proposition go or not.

THE New York Journal expresses a sentiment often enunciated by THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER. The Journal says:

"The New England statesmen who favor missionary rule in Hawaii and oppose humane procedure in the case of Cuba should take the floor and explain themselves.

SPRINGTIME suggests that it is time to get to work. Let the best efforts now be put forward to bring every and any industry to Clallam county that will give employment to labor. And let our citizens not forget that industry on their part will do more than anything else to woo and win prosperity for our beautiful country.

WHILE the people of the United States are devoting their energies to the election of a president it would be a good time for the people of this county to devote their energies to "sawing wood." By this means, we will be able to get nearly a year's start of other parts of the country. With a head start and our matchless resources nothing could prevent Clallam county from winning a sure hold to properity.

Clallam Not Alone.

WHY A REPUBLICAN?

The vacancy caused by the removal from the county and resignation of County Commissioner Graybill is causing quite a commotion amongst the lights of the g. o. p. Candidates galore are in sight, pulling wires, real and imaginary. The possibility of the commissioners and superior judge appointing any other than a Republican seems not to have occurred to most of these candidates. The Tribune-Times, though, seems to have dark forbodings. It has probably been struck with the seeming fitness of such an action, as it gives utterance to a half-column of words intended as arguments, showing the necessity of the appointment of a Republican. It rests its case on the fact that the appointing power is Republican.

President Lincoln did not hesitate to appoint Democrats to cabinet positions nor to places on the Supreme bench, and President Harrison appointed a Democrat to the Supreme bench.

Having a precedent established, it would be well to note the circumstances of this vacancy. The people of this commissioner district have twice spoken very distinctly as to the political qualifications of the man wanted for county commissioner. Both times they showed that they did not want a Republican. At the last election Mr. Graybill had 55 plurality over his Republican opponent and the Democratic nominee had 30 plurality over the Republican candidate. Now, if Mr. Harrison had sufficient reasons for appointing Judge Jackson to the Supreme bench to succeed Justice Lamar, it would seem that there would be an abundance of reasons why the county commissioner of this commissioner district need not be a Republican. In fact, as far as politics enter into the case, if the commissioner is not to be a Populist, he should be a Democrat The Republicans have a majority of the board in any event, and it does not appear why they should have more, even if the people had not expressed themselves in favor of another party.

THE McKINLEY PLATFORM.

The platform adopted at the Republican Convention in the McKinley district in Ohio is supposed to represent the McKinley idea of the proper platform to be adopted at St. Louis. In fact, it is claimed that McKinley wrote the platform, and, inasmuch as his immediate personal and political friends controlled the convention, the claim does not seem unreasonable. The financial plank in the platform declares for "honest money, to consist of gold, silver and paper," and there you are! This platform could be construed to suit anybody. It is what is advocated by gold bugs, free silverites, greenbackers, Democrats, Republicans and Populists. It means anything to anybody. It is a straddle, pure and simple.

Why Not at Once?

It is reported that congress will adjourn in May. Why wait till May.—P.-I.

ABOUT JINGOISM.

The Clallam County Courier follows the well-established Republican rule in the use of extravagant language. Referring to what it pleases to term the change in the attitude of the present administration as to foreign affairs since December, last, it says that prior to that time, "President Cleveland was devoting the entire power of this government to on infamous effort to restore a corrupt queen to a throne in Hawaii." Does the Courier realize what it has said? Has it a comprehensive idea of what "the entire power of this government" is? Is it possible that Mr. Cleveland was using "the entire power of this government" against President Dole's administration to no avail, when the very thought that he would so use it against Great Britain was sufficient to bring that country to terms? As a matter of real fact, does the Courier not know that if Mr. Cleveland had used one-half as much of "the entire power of 'this government" in an effort to restore the dethroned queen of Hawaii as his Republican predecessor used in his dastardly effort to dethrone that queen, Lilioukilani would yet be queen of Hawaii?

And then as to "an infamous effort!" Is there any one who does not really regard the Harrison administration in relation to the rebellion in Hawaii as one of the most infamous acts this government ever did? The actions of the English government in the Transvaal matter are not nearly so infamous. English citizens there tried to effect a revolution of affairs, and while the English government sympathized with Dr. Jamison, yet it not only disowned his action, but he is being tried by English courts for his crime. But when the few New England missionaries and ambitious politicians and their cohorts plotted revolution in Hawaii, an Amecican plenipotentiary plotted with them, lent them the use of the American flag and the bluejackets of the Philadephia with maxim guns were landed as a matter of persuasive (?) power to be used by the belligerents. When the government thus established, representing less than one-fortieth of the population of Hawaii, sought admission to this country, the entire Republican party, especially the New England branch of it, and a Republican president sought to make it a part of our country. Talk about the history of English aggression! Talk about infamy! Talk about our war upon Mexico! When did English aggression take on more offensive aggressiveness than assumed by these jingoes? Where in the history of modern times do you find more infamy? Compare the history of the Pacific ocean affair of 1893, with the Rio Grande troubles in 1845!

And if one-half of the stories told about the Dole government are true, and they are from as reliable sources as the charges against the queen were, that government is at least as corrupt as the royal government could be. It is certainly more expensive and does not represent nearly so large a population.

The Democrats are willing to compare records with the Republicans at any time on any issue.

THE McKinley platform: A high tariff and a low straddle.

THE DELINQUENT TAX LIST.

The question as to which newspaper should publish the notice of the sale of property for delinquent taxes for the year 1892 has agitated the people of this county to a greater or less extent for a week or two past. THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER had a contract with the board of county commissioners in 1894, to do this printing, and in 1895 the legislature, in extending the time for the sale for 1892 delinquent taxes, provided that the newspaper which had the contract to do such printing should retain that right. Besides this THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER is the official county paper, having again been awarded the county printing in 1895. These conditions the publishers of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER held, gave them the right to publish the delinquent tax notice. County Treasurer Dorsey held that he, and not the board of county commissioners, had the authority to let this printing. After arriving at this conclusion, Mr, Dorsey entered into a contract with the publishers of the Clallam County Courier to have the printing done in that paper. The publishers of THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER promptly instituted injunction proceeding to prevent the consummation of this contract.

It soon became apparent that the questions involved could not be fully heard and determined before the time for the publication of the notice will have expired. Then, as the mechanical work is of such magnitude that it will require the resources of both papers, it was arranged by the publishers that they should do the work jointly. This amicable settlement was satisfactory to Mr. Dorsey. In the absence of a ruling by the supreme court as to whether or not a publication of such notice in any but the county official organ would be legal, it was decided that the publication of the notice should appear in THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER. So the Courier waived its contract and the injunction proceedings were dismissed by the DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

IN CASE OF WAR.

A comparison of the relative strength of the American and Spanish navies show that the United States' navy is twice as strong as that of Spain. By calling on the separate states for the militia for home duty, the United States regular army of 25,000 men could be put into the field at once. To this strength could be added some of the best of the State National Guard troops. As, for instance, New York could put 10,000 well-trained men into the field—better soldiers, perhaps, than the regulars. All told, in ten days the United States could mobilize in the principal cities of the United States for foreign service an army of 60,000 of the best soldiers in the world. This army fully equipped with artillery and all the accontrements of war could be landed in Cuba or on Spanish territory within thirty days from the declaration of war. This country would still have 40,000 or 50,000 good soldiers in the state militia as a reserve, who could be put into the field for active service if necessary leaving home duty to be performed by volunteers. This does not augur well for Spain in case of difficulty with the United States. English papers, after discussing these conditions, all arrive at the conclusion that the United States could easily defeat Spain without asking for a single volunteer.

Speaking of politeness recalls a story of Bill Travers the New York stuttering stockbroker, who made more fun for his friends by his odd humor than any half dozen of his contemporaries. He knew the enormous value of his stutter from a humorous point of view, and that it in a way excused things which, if said by a man who could speak without stammering, would be thought rude. One day in a street car he was seated with his little son on his knee. The car was crowded and a very attractive young lady got in. No one offered her a seat, at length Travers stammered out: "J-J-J-Johnny, b-b-boy, whe-wh-wh-where's your p-p-p-politeness? W-w-w-why d-d-don't you g-g-get up and g-g-give the lady your seat?"—Seattle Times.

The ladies of the Methodist church netted about seven dollars at their supper Tuesday evening.

Word was brought to town yesterday that Tom Olson had met with an accident at Lambert's mill by which his leg was broken.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dorsey entertained a few friends last evening in honor of Miss Edith Delaney, of Townsend, who is their guest.

Tom Mona received notice the other day that his wife's brother, Joe Worth, had died at San Francisco. Joe was just about to start on a visit to his old home in Alsace-Loraine when he was stricken down.

The members of the G. A. R. cut over sixteen cords of wood last week, which was distributed among the widows of their comrades in this city. They deserve much credit for the way they look after the needy and suffering.

Quite a number of west enders registered at the City hotel yesterday. They were Mik Larson, Hoh River; A. Wentworth, Quillayute; J. C. Smith, J. McKeaver, East Clallam; Jno. Maronki, Beaver; Jno. Erickson, Gettysburg.

J. C. Hansen, the Druggist, has moved his store to the room on the corner of Laurel and Front streets, formerly occupied by Geo. W. Meagher. It is an ideal location for a drug store and looks bright and cheery in its new coat of paint and decorations.

Senator Squire has introduced a bill, which is now under consideration by the committee on public lands, granting to the county of Clallam, suburban lot number 26, in the townsite of Port Angeles, to be used for public purposes, and to the city of Port Angeles, block number 32, in said townsite, also for public use. It is provided in each case that whenever the city or county shall cease to use said lands for public purposes, the same shall revert to the United States.

The steamer Evangel, which has been in constant commission for twenty-one months, laid up this week for inspection and repairs. This is a pretty good record for a vessel whose route is over the straits. In this time she has missed arriving at Angeles on schedule time less than half a dozen times. Her run will be taken by the steamer Rainier, while the repairs are being made. Capt. Frank Meerwaldt has been selected to command the Rainier.

The Fireman's ball on Tuesday night was a success from every standpoint. The boys netted quite a snug sum and had a good time in the bargain. The opera house was well filled and the music, furnished by the Cyclone orchestra, was excellent. The boys had decorated the hall with flags and hose very artistically, which added not a little to the enjoyment of the evening. The dancing was prolonged until 3 o'clock in the morning.

A splendid program at the "What Is It" social. Don't forget the day—Monday night.

PERSONAL MENTION.

George Priest, of Sequim, is visting here.

Levi Cays, of Dungeness, was in town Monday.

J. H. Weldon left yesterday for Butte, Montana.

Mrs. B. C. Keller is visiting her mother at Seattle.

Geo. H. Gale has been in Seattle most of the week.

J. B. Reed was registered at the City hotel this week.

Earnest Boehrig, of Solduck, was in town this week.

E. J. White, of Townsend, is stopping at the City hotel.

C. Foster, a traveling man, registered at the City Monday.

J. C. Haswell, postmaster of Port Crescent, is in the city.

Del Cary Smith, of Townsend, put up at the Albany Wednesday.

Miss Hannah Draper is up-Sound laying in a stock of spring goods.

F. S. Townsend, of Seattle, was registered at the Albany hotel Wednesday.

John Bell returned from Victoria Tuesday after a few day's visit in that "blooming burg."

George A. Dunham, the handsome and genial purveyor of blankbooks, was in town this week.

James Dick, of Dungeness, spent several days during the past week among his friends and relatives in Angeles.

Sam Irwin and H. P. Mapes, of Twin Rivers, stopped over in Angeles Monday on their way home from Dungeness.

Cyrus F. Clapp, of Port Townsend, came over from Victoria on Sunday's boat and left for Dungeness on Monday.

Ben Smith has moved into his new house on his ranch east of the city and in the future will devote himself to chicken farming and the cultivation of spuds.

Ben Meagher, assistant lighthouse keeper at Tatoosh, came up Wednesday morning. He came up to see his wife, who has been ill for some time at her parents' home in this city.

Mr. Miller, of Sequim, came down yesterday on his bike. He made the run of twenty miles in two hours and five minutes. This is pretty good time considering the mud he had to flounder through along some sections of the road.

Miss Beazley, of San Diego, Calf., arrived Wednesday. She is an old friend of the Mead family that spent several month's here last summer, and comes to Angeles for a visit on their recommendation. She is, at present, with Mr. and Mrs. Carrigan.

Mrs. Beardsley and J. A. Wilson are the champion cribbage players in Angeles, at leaat, they think they are. They carried off the palm at a cribbage tournament at Mr. O. Shields' last Saturday, defeating Morris Fisher and Miss Ferguson, and also compelled Mr. and Mrs. Shields to lower their colors. They stand ready to defend their title as champions against anyone who has the temerity to tackle them.

Gus Morman, Mary Sullens, Harry Steuke and Fred Steuke have had a very serious charge preferred against them. They have been accused by Mr. James Bell, of Sequim, of stealing a cow worth forty dollars, and the two first named have been languishing in Clallam County's palatial jail for the past week, awaiting a chance to prove their innocence. Gus and Mary affirm that they are married, but as they could not produce a marriage certificate, Sheriff Dyke was compelled to separate the loving couple.

The parties were arraigned before Justice Brewster yesterday and were bound over to appear today at 2 p. m.

The New York World.

The twice-a-week edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes three papers of six pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week at the old price of one dollar a year. This gives 156 papers a year for one dollar, and every paper has six pages eight columns wide or forty-eight columns in all. The Thrice-a-Week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly. THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER and THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD will be mailed to any address at $2 a year.

McClinton Reception.

Honorable James G. McClinton and wife gave a reception Saturday night in honor of the 30th anniversary of their wedding.

Owing to a lack of facilites for entertaining a large number, invitations were sent out to only a small number of the many friends of Judge and Mrs. McClinton.

Their little home on the reservation was tested to its full capacity. Thirty years of eventful married life set lightly on the hearts of Judge and Mrs. McClinton. They have gone hand-in-hand through many a grievious hardship, but their perfect fellowship has sustained each other in every trial.

They were married thirty years ago at Latrobe, Eldorado county, California, near the place where gold was first discovered in that state. From Latrobe they moved to Aurora, Nevada, where their two eldest children were born. After living at Aurora twelve years they moved to Carson City, Nev., where Roy and Ray were born. They next went to San Francisco and lived there for several years and then came to this state nine years ago, locating near Port Townsend. It will be noted that they have seen much pioneer life, with all its attending deprivations and hardships, but they have come through it all with brave hearts and their natures as sweet as on the day they plighted troth at the altar. In all seven children have come to them of which four only are alive. These are all boys and make up two sets of twins, the oldest and the youngest of their children.

In speaking of the anniversary Judge McClinton was reminded of the fact that his grandfather and grandmother celebrated their diamond anniversary, or 75th year of their marriage, the former being 101 years old and the latter 93. They were natives of South Carolina.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The evening was spent in a social way, naturally turning to the past and recalling the stirring scenes of western life.

Judge and Mrs. McClinton were presented with a beautiful etching by the L. S. L. E. Society, of which Mrs. McClinton is a member.

A delicious luncheon was served during the evening.

Following is a list of those present: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ballou, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carrigan, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mallette, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Troy, Mr. and Mrs. A. N Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Worthly, Mrs. Edna Lewis, Mrs. C. C. Bowman, Mr. James Stewart, Miss Sara Troy, Miss Brandon, Miss Love, Miss Helen Love.

The Ladies' Aid Society on Lincoln Heights will give a social in the church on Tuesday evening, March 24th. Admission 10 cents, including lunch.

The following program will be given:

At Rest.

William, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Walker, died Wednesday at 1 o'clock. He had been seriously ill only about four months. The family reached here from Charleston W. V., just one week ago, and the parents were in hopes that the change would save their boy, but he had passed beyond the point where earthly skill could avail anything.

He was stricken with pneumonia, which rapidly developed into an abcess of the right lung.

He stood the journey from Charleston quite well and seemed to be improving after arriving here until Tuesday afternoon, when he was seized with a severe spell and continued to grow weaker and sink until the end came Wednesday afternoon.

He passed away as peacefully as a child dropping to sleep. He was concious to the last and bade his sorrow-stricken parents and sisters goodbye.

He was a noble, christian boy and his death comes with crushing force to the family. All good people will join in heartfelt sympathy for them in their deep sorrow.

Rev. Nelson conducted the beautiful burial services of the Episcopal church at the residence yesterday afternoon and the body was taken to Seattle this morning and will be interred in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker wish us to return their grateful thanks for the loving sympathy and assistance that have been so generously bestowed on them in their grievous affliction.

Mrs. Stockton.

Mrs. Stockton, the whilom, charming grass-widow, she of the beautiful blonde hair and elegant form, that was wont to set the Angeles' masculine heart all a pitapat, has been cruelly slandered by the council in the Dr. Brown case at San Francisco. The council goes so far as to intimate that the fascinating creature would take advantage of a kindness shown her.

She lived among us for some time and we venture to say that not one man in town would be found to confess that she was guilty of any such action, least ways with himself. Here's the way they talk about her:

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The council that is sitting in judgment on the Rev. Dr. Brown has acquitted the accused pastor on one charge. After a long debate, the councilmen came to the conclusion that Dr. Brown was not guilty of any immoral conduct with Mrs. M. A. Stockton. They based their opinion on the following facts:

First—That Mrs. Stockton was not a woman whose testimony could be taken for a truth.

Second—That there was no evidence introduced that was strong enough, in a legal sense, to convict the pastor.

Third—That he had shown Mrs. Stockton great kindness in the way that a Christian minister should, and that she had taken advantage of that kindness.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria Times, Calif., in speaking of the various ailments of children, said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

CHURCH NOTES.

What the Different Churches of the City are Doing.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Corner First and Vine Streets.—Rev. G. W. Nelson, Pastor.

Preaching every Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 o'clock or immediately after the morning sermon, Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting or mid-week meeting on Thursday eve at 7:30.

Rev. G. W. Nelson's sermon last Sunday morning from a text found in II Timothy 4:7, was an unusually good one. The subject, as the text implies, was "I Have Fought a Good Fight." The Christian life is one continual battle, a war against evil, and the victory is not always to those who profess to be Christians. Judas was a follower of Christ and one of the twelve deciples, yet he fell, conquered by sin. But Paul was of different material. Mr. Nelson showed how all true Christians might be as sure of victory as was Paul.

The evening service was also very interesting, the subject being "A Great Woman." The church was well filled with a very attentive congregation.

Mrs. Mallette proves to be an excellent Sunday school superintendent and the school is now a very interesting one.

Last Thursday evening the members held a business meeting to consider ways and means to raise the pastor's salary. It was suggested by some of the members that if the people, and especially the business men, fully understood the situation they would be more willing to contribute to the support of the church. The Congregational church is a mission church and if the people in Angeles show a willingness to do their part and help along with the support, the American Home Missionery Society sends to this church $400 annually, nearly all of which is spent here, so virtually it is a business proposition to support this church as fully double the amount asked of those outside the church membership is sent here from the east.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Rev. F. O. Lamoreux, Pastor.

Sunday school 10 a. m. each Sunday. Preaching, 11 a. m., Young People's meeting 6:30 p. m., preaching, 7:30. p. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

The Ladie's Aid Society of the Baptist church will give a "What Is It Social" in Odd Fellow's hall on Monday night, March 23rd. All are invited to attend and a good social time is assured. As this will be a departure from the usual programme it promises to be very interesting.

On next Sunday night Rev. F. O. Lamoreux will talk on the subject, "Our Duties as Christians to the Government." A general invitation is given to the public to attend these services.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH, First Street Between Vine and Peabody.—Rev. W. H. Wilson, Pastor.

Services every Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock; Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Epworth League services at 6:30 p. m.; evening preaching 7:30 p. m.; prayer meeting every Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

public spirit given. No complete system of grading and street improvement can therefore be arranged from the start; it may be possible to only clear away the stumps, logs, etc., and level the streets in detached districts and in such places as unconnected efforts might accomplish and many streets, possibly all, might be cleared and graded with the established legal grade. Our work and plans should therefore be regulated by circumstances to prevent unfinished and unavailable improvements.

A complete and responsible organization should be effected and should be composed of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and five trustees.

The treasurer to give bonds according to the amount of funds which shall come to his hands and shall be fixed from time to time by the board of trustees or by a vote of the association.

The treasurer to be the custodian of all funds of the association and to pay them out only upon orders by the trustees through the president or any general superintendent of work who may be employed by such trustees.

The trustees and their management shall at all times be subject to any order or resolution of the general association must make appropriations of all moneys before the same can be subject to any orders.

All officers of the association shall have such other duties as simply officers of other associations usually posses.

CO-OPERATION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Of course the association should secure full and complete co-operation of the city council, act with, through and by the proper city officers whenever and wherever necessary; to obtain authority in all cases where the authority of the city council is necessary; to secure and act with the city powers to carry forward any work which shall be found otherwise impracticable.

After the plans of the organization shall be fully matured conferences and communications shall be had with the city council to effect a plan of co-operation.

Easter Entertainment and Social.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will give an Easter entertainment and social at the church Monday, April 6th.

A grand program is being prepared which will appear in this paper next week. Fancy paper boxes of home-made French candies will be for sale. Refreshments consisting of coffee, bread and butter and eggs cooked in various ways will be served. Admission ten cents.

What Is It?

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will give a "What Is It" social at the Odd Fellows' hall on the evening of the 22rd of this month.

A most excellent program of recitations, music, etc., is being prepared for the occasion, and the ladies are going to serve refreshments. Everyone who attends is promised a good time.

Notice.

There will be a meeting for the permanent organization of the City Improvement Association at the board of trade rooms on Tuesday, March 24th, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m.

All citizens of Port Angeles are invited to be present to take part in the same. It is the only chance for the improvement of our streets. Come and show your enterprise and pride of home.

Chairman of Committee.

Not to be Trifled With.

(From Cincinnati Gazette.)

Will people never learn that a "cold" is an accident to be dreaded, and that when it occurs treatment should be promptly applied? There is no knowing where the trouble will end; and while complete recovery is the rule, the exceptions are terribly frequent, and thousands upon thousands of fatal illnesses occur every year ushered in by a little injudicious exposure and seemingly trifling symptoms. Beyond this, there are today countless invalids who can trace their complaints to "colds," which at the time of occurance gave no concern, and were therefore neglected.—When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effectual. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. C. Hansen, druggist.

DO YOU WANT $100?

If so Here is a Chance to Make it in the Pleasantest Way in the World.

The great prize story, for which the Chicago Record paid $10,000, and publication of which will begin in that paper on Monday, March 23, will also be printed in the daily and weekly Tacoma Ledger. It is written by Harry Stillwell Edwards, of Macon, Ga., and is a story of the old and new south. It is a story of mystery. After all but the last chapter is printed a week will be allowed for readers to guess how the story will end, and the Ledger offers $100 in cash to the reader who shall accurately guess how it ends. If nobody makes an accurate guess the $100 will be divided among the six persons making the most accurate guesses. Here is a chance for everybody to make money easy by reading a mighty good story. The price of the Daily Ledger is 75 cents a month, and of the weekly $1 per year. The DEMOCRAT-LEADER and Weekly Ledger for only $2 per year.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube reslored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

DUNGENESS ITEMS

Field peas and oats of several varieties for seed purposes for sale by the Dungeness Trading Co.

Capt. O. H. Morgan, who for seventeen years past has been at the Dungeness light is now stationed at Narrowstone point. The schooner Alice M took his furniture and belongings on Monday.

Walter Govan is on the sick list having an attack of the grippe.

Mr. Sam Irwin spent several days in Dungeness the past week, looking after his business interests. He left for Quillayute overland on Monday noon, expecting to reach home Wednesday.

Fresh milk cows with their calves for sale very cheap by the Dungeness trading co.

Mrs. Chas. O'Brien terminated her visit in Dungeness on Monday going to Townsend on the steamer Evangel.

The Evangel has been taken off the route for repairs, her run being taken by the steamer Rainier.

Mr. R. Robertson, a valued employee of the Dungeness Trading Co., left on the Evangel Monday, on a visit to his family at the ranch, all of whom are down sick.

The children of Thomas Downie left Saturday last in charge of the agent for the Indian school at Salem, Oregon.

Arrangements are being perfected to make the Easter service of exceptional interest in the M. E. church of this place. The parable of the 10 virgins will be represented by 10 of the young ladies of Dungeness, this, with the special pains the regular choir will take, and recitations from the younger children, will make Eastertide a gladsome day to all lovers of church life.

Mr. Hughes and family, who lately moved down from the mountains to gain greater privileges of church and school have been laid up with a severe attack of la grippe. Both parents and children are now on the way to renewed health.

Mrs. A. U. Davis has been afflicted, being compelled to leave for Townsend to obtain medical assistance. The sympathy of her many friends are with her in her sickness.

Mr. Seth Morford, representing a Seattle mortgage and loan company, spent the week end with the Rev. Mr. Lee, he being a warm friend of the pastor.

The little bird is singing thro' the air, the tenor of his song being, "June brides, June brides," who are they?

The Sunday services at the M. E. church were well attended, in the morning Mr. Morford, who is the treasurer of the conference board of the Epworth League, spoke on League work generally and gave quite an instructive and interesting talk.

Look out for the next Epworth League re-union and re-election of officers. Everybody ought to be present. The annual convention will meet in Seattle next June. Now is the time to hunt up your delegates and get to work.

Your correspondent has had the pleasure of reading the pamphlet issued by the Immigration society of our county. They are to be congratulated upon its makeup and matter. They give due attention to the magnificent fish resources of the county and whilst we would not decry any other point, we are forced to claim precedence for Dungeness on this line. Nowhere is there a finer site with greater facilities for the canning of fish, clams and crabs than here at Dungeness. The time is coming quickly when every foot of the tide lands, lying in front of us, will be occupied with industries of this kind.

In passing from place to place and seeing pit after pit of potatoes rotting on the farms, without a market at a fair price, the question arises, is there not some other use to which this product might be put? Why not build a starch factory? It can be done at little expense. Thousands of tons of potatoes could profitably be utilized in this manner. The process is simple, requiring little techincal knowledge, and its uses are many and various, some of which are thickening material for calico, dressing and finishing of textiles, for laundry purposes, adhesive paste and powder gum and starch sugar, for these potatoe starch is principally used, and no donbt, if the matter was given due consideration with the enormous production of the tuber, a most profitable revenue could be established at this point. It is to be hoped that among the claims of Clallam county to the capital of the Eastern cities this branch shall not be forgotten. Other equally profitable enterprises can be commenced and carried to success, suce as the cultivation and curing of prunes, the establishment of one or more creameries. Nowhere has the Almighty so blessed the land as on this Puget Sound Sound country, and some day the mighty tramp of millions of toilers will be heard upon its shores.
