VOL. 6. NO. 52. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1896. PRICE FIVE CENTS

GOOD FISH STORIES,

And, What Is More to the Point, They Are True.

A TWELVE-POUND "BEARDSLEE"

Clallam County Can Boast of the Most Beautiful Lake Full of the Largest Trout Ever Caught—This Has Been Demonstrated Within the Past Week By a Couple of Ladies, Who Are Now Champions.

Rear Admiral Beardslee had best look to his laurels. He was immensely pleased last fall when he caught a ten-pound trout at Lake Crescent, and fairly hugged himself in the complacent contemplation that he was the chiefest of the chief when it came to landing a great big trout. But he has been outdone, thoroughly, systematically, and that by a woman, too, yea, even by two women. Of course, the gallant admiral would not have it otherwise. We are sure that if he has to confess to defeat nothing will please him more than to have the pleasure of placing the crown on the head of a fair and charming lady. Thus will the bitter edge of defeat be somewhat softened, but it is a "fair field and no favors" and we would adjure the admiral not to allow his characteristic gallantry to weaken a cruise which gave promise of much glory and renown. As a gallant tar he should know no defeat. A "Betsy" may be knocked off her feet, his Gatling guns may be smashed to smithereens, his ship waterlogged, with a growing tendency to take a header to the bottom of the sea, but a few well-directed broadsides may retrieve the waning fortune of battle and place the enemy hors de combat. And then he can find some comfort in the old adage that runs to the effect that there is as fine fish in the sea as ever came out of it.

On Thursday last Mrs. M. J. Carrigan and Miss Sara Beazley took a run out to Lake Crescent for a short visit with Mrs. Geo. Micheli.

The next day they all went fishing, and Mrs. Micheli caught a "Beardslee" trout weighing twelve pounds and measuring thirty inches in length and eight and a half inches in width.

The day following Miss Beazley caught a "Beardslee" weighing ten pounds and measuring twenty-nine and a half inches in length and eight in width; a speckled trout weighing eight pounds and measuring twenty-seven inches in length and six in width, as well as a handsome Rainbow, or Crescent, trout and two or three two-pound "Beardslees."

On Monday, the 19th, Mrs. Michell caught a "Beardslee" weighing eleven and a half pounds, measuring thirty inches in length and eight in width, and the same day caught a speckled trout weighing nine and a half pounds and measuring twenty-nine and a quarter inches in length and six and a half in width.

These fish were all caught with troll attached to a copper line.

It was a remarkable catch when it is remembered that the season has hardly opened, in fact they are the first fish that have been landed this year. The ladies were much elated over their success.

Notice.

We positively will not deliver washing until it is paid for.

Birthday Surprise.

Miss Nettie Beardsley was agreeably surprised last evening by a number of her many friends, who had gathered at her home in honor of her fifteenth birthday. The hall of festivities, the right wing of the Cooper building, was handsomely decorated with evergreens and flags. On the side wall a canopy of pink and evergreen was hung, under which was the following inscription:

MISS NETTIE BEARDSLEY,
We Wish You
Many Happy Returns of Your Birthday.
Sweet 15. April 23d, 1896. Sweet 15.

Cards and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Beardsley will leave in company with her parents for her future home in British Columbia, next Tuesday morning.

Farewell Surprise.

Miss Grace Grant, who left Monday in company with her parents for her future home at Sequim, was the recipient of a farewell surprise last Friday night. Games and dancing were the features of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served at midnight. All enjoyed a pleasant evening spent.

There were present: Misses Bertha Brandon, Edith Cook, Mabel Crosby, Anna Fields, Alice Nailor, Fronie Raymond, Hattie Feud, Iva Coolidge, Fannie Draper, Theresa Graham, Maggie Brown, Gracie Grant, Beatrice Malony, Messrs. Wm. Ware, Ray McClinton, Roy McClinton, Ray Richardson, Orin Babcock, Robt. Dick, Roy Dennis, Elmer Nailor, Lovey Evans, A. J. Cosser.

During the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin of Long Beach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a Cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grown in favor and popularity. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

H. C. STRONG,
PORT ANGELES

A RIGHT ROYAL GREETING

To Col. Coolican and His Party From St. Paul.

BANQUET SATURDAY EVENING.

The People of Port Angeles Will Seize the Present Opportunity to Testify Their High Appreciation of the Work Done By Col. Coolican and His Colleagues in Behalf of the City and County.

On Wednesday afternoon a meeting was held at the board of trade rooms to consult as to some arrangements for a proper welcome and reception of Col. Coolican on his arrival tomorrow with his party from St. Paul.

A telegram was received that he would reach here on that day with a party of twenty to twenty-five people, including several ladies. It was decided to meet him and his party at the boat and also to tender a banquet in the evening.

The members of the board of trade and of the Immigration Association, as well as all other citizens, will assemble at the board of trade room at 10 a. m. Saturday, and headed by the W. B. U. Band, will march to the dock.

It is especially requested that all those who do not desire to march down in line will be on the dock, as it is desired that as large a number as can shall be on hand to meet the party.

As the boat approaches the dock, the band will play a welcoming air.

After the party has disembarked and a welcome extended, a line of march will be formed and all will return to the board of trade rooms, where an informal reception will be held.

At 3 o'clock a formal reception will be tendered Col. Coolican at the opera house. Mayor Myers will preside and make an address of welcome. The city officials will have seats on the stage.

At 8:30 o'clock, Saturday evening there will be a grand banquet given at the Albany hotel to Col. Coolican and his eastern friends. There will be a number of toasts from which a clear idea of the significance of these doings will be gathered.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Immigration Association and the board of trade at 2 p. m. today.

The Washington B. U. Band will give an open-air concert Sunday afternoon.

The same band will also give a grand ball at the opera house Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Immigration Association, and it is hoped that every one will come out and meet the newcomers socially.

Simon S. Hartman, of Tunnelton West Va., has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than anything else has ever done for me." For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

At the Council.

The council met in regular session Wednesday evening.

Street commissioner reported that ditch at Albert and Front sts., had been completed at a cost of $4.50, also that ditch at Washington and Fourth streets had been completed but was not ready to give cost.

City Attorney was instructed to draw check for $20 on delinquent tax money in bank to cover cost of securing names of delinquents by John D. Hickok.

Council agreed to take a deed from Lewis Levy of lot 14, blk 63, old townsite, for payment of delinquent city taxes.

Capt. Bradley and Geo. Gale, as a committee, extended an invitation to the mayor and councilmen to participate in the reception to Col. Coolican on his arrival, which was accepted.

Moved by Lamoreux and seconded by Quinn that the mayor be authorized to turn certain summons served on him in regard to street warrants over to the city attorney within 24 hours.

The mayor told the councilmen that he would take his own good time in producing the summons, and it called out quite a heated discussion, every member taking a whack at the mayor for what they termed his obstinacy and arbitrary mode of acting.

Nothing Like It.

Travel where you will, visit every clime and then come to Washington and view the grandest scenery on the face of the earth, stand on the summit of the Olympic range and see the Pacific ocean on the west and Puget Sound and the Cascade range on the east. Witness a sunset from Mount Olympus, 8772 feet high, straight across the Pacific for five thousand miles, and then tell if Italian sunsets are equal to it. If you want to see lofty mountains clad eternally with snow, glaciers set deep in great mountain canyons, clear, swift, beautiful streams, green hills and grassy plains, Washington has them in abundance. Take your summer outing in Washington and it will be a joyous remembrance all your life.—Washington Immigrant.

The [illegible] wrote the above knows Clallam county by heart, only he forgot to mention Lakes Crescent and Sutherland in advising you to take an outing.

NEW FIELDS FOR WORK.

Col. Coolican Will Do a Little Proselyting In Indiana.

CLALLAM ORE ASSAYS $469 TO TON.

The Immigration Listens to Some Interesting Letters From Col. Coolican, Who Writes That He is Bringing Out About Twenty-five People to Port Angeles—Report of Assay Creates a Sensation.

The Clallam County Immigration Association held its regular weekly meeting last Saturday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms, with Vice-president Carrigan as chairman.

The committee appointed to look up statistics in the matter of the flour mill industry asked for further time, and it was granted.

Several letters from the president, Col. Coolican, were read.

One of the letters stated that a party of about twenty-five persons would leave St. Paul on the 21st for Angeles; another, thanking the association for its cordial co-operation and assistance to the St. Paul office in the labor of inducing people to make their homes in Clallam county; another, stated that the statistics gathered by the committee on sheep raising did not quite answer the questions which he desired, but that he would likely be in Angeles soon and could then investigate them himself.

He also sent copies of his correspondence with a number of railroad officials relative to working a large colony of immigrants for Clallam county from the states of Illinois and Indiana, particularly from the latter state. It had come to his knowledge that there were a great many families in Indiana who were ready to make a change and that it was a rich field for missionary work. He also wrote that he was working with the Great Northern officials on the proposition and that he would likely make a visit to Indiana and investigate the situation personally.

A letter from Admiral Beardslee was read, which enclosed a copy of a letter he had received from President Jordan, of the Leland Stanford University, on the subject of the blue-back and rainbow trout caught in Lake Crescent and sent him by Mr. M. J. Carrigan for a proper classification.

President Jordan pronounces them different from any he has ever seen. "This will, of course," he says, "necessitate them having a new name, and in this matter I should be glad to have you act as sponsor, and to suggest a name for one or both, if the two are distinct species, which seem not unlikely to be the case. Perhaps 'Crescent' and 'Beardslee' would make good names."

He has also asked for more information regarding their habits, color in life, etc., and that he would like to get specimens of the young and the female. He will then take the matter in hand and give it a thorough investigation and try to arrive at a proper scientific classification of the trout.

Mr. Carrigan then stated that he had received several specimens of gold quartz from prospectors and that he had sent them away for analysis. He had received the report of the assays of quite a number, most of which were of no value, but he wanted to read the report of sample No. 2, which, he stated, had been brought in to him by a man who claimed he had found it in Press valley, lying around the headwaters of the Elwha river.

The assay was made by J. M. Dawley & Co., assayers and metallurgists, Seattle, Wash. Their assay developed 22.7 ounces of gold to the ton, valued at $469.20 and is classed as free milling gold. The report shows also a trace of silver, but not enough to be of any consequence.

The reading of the report created a mild sensation; expressions of wonder and incredulity being heard on every side. The showing is indeed a magnificent one and if it is an honest find no one need to go to Alaska for gold mines. Mr. Carrigan would not divulge the name of the man who brought in the specimen, but stated that it came from Press valley. We have since learned that the one was found by John McLeod, about one year ago.

A letter from the northwest Immigration Bureau, Portland, Oregon, was read, requesting some views or photograph of Clallam county, to be used in making cuts for advertising the whole northwest county. It was decided to send the views as requested.

Meeting adjourned to meet next Saturday, the 25th.

COL. LEWIS FOR GOVERNOR.

As if to atone for its stupidity of four years ago, the Democracy of Washington, with an unusual unanimity, is turning to Colonel James Hamilton Lewis to lead it in the fight this fall. There is no one in the state so well qualified as Colonel Lewis for the leadership of the Democratic party. He is heartily in sympathy with the Western Democracy. He is always the friend of the common people. He stands for the Democracy of Jefferson, believing that a government for the people means a government of the people and by the people. According to the Democracy of Col. Lewis, when a public officer ceases to be the servant of the masses of the people, when, at the behest of a small class, he seeks to become a master to drive the people where they would not go, then it is no longer meet that he should occupy a position of trust in his party or in his country.

We need such a Democrat as Colonel James Hamilton Lewis as governor of Washington, and especially does the Democratic party need such a man as its standard bearer. The Democratic party has been misrepresented in recent years. Its servants have sought, and too successfully, to be masters, and as a result the old ship has drifted from her moorings. In the language of Colonel Lewis: "it is all due to those who of late have assumed to lead the party, not as Democrats, but in the way they chose as beneficiaries of a system they would use us to perpetuate."

Such being the condition of the Democratic party, it will take more than a platform to restore to it the confidence of the people. To stand on a truly Democratic platform a man should be nominated as a standard bearer who is known to be, without question, one who will obey its mandate.

No leader of any party in the State of Washington is so universally known as of the common people as James Hamilton Lewis. He is a Democratic platform in himself and one in whom the people have confidence.

A DAMNABLE OUTRAGE.

John Clark Ridpath, president of DePaw University, and eminent historian, has been writing a series of articles for the Arena magazine. Mr. Ridpath has taken a strong stand for free silver coinage and refers to the demonitization of silver in a way that is doubtless satisfactory even to Dick Bland and Ben Tillman. Mr. Ridpath says:

"Words are inadequate to describe the profundity and criminality of this scheme. It was carried into effect by the act of February 12, 1893. It was done by a turn of Shylock's wrist, so adroit and one might say devilish, as to be indescribable in the phraseology of this world. It was an act on which no king of the seventeenth century would have ventured without incurring the risk of revolution. It was an act which, instead of being misrepresented by those who have found it out and nailed it to the gibbet of public contempt, has never been adequately denounced. It was an act which positively blackened the honor of the American republic. It was an act which, though subsequently defended, on to the present day, by all the purchased ability of the world, is nevertheless condemned by the conscience and common sense of mankind, as the most cold-blooded, unjust, uncalled-for, unmitigated and damnable outrage ever done in this country to the rights and interests of a great people."

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

President Cleveland did well to select General Fitzhugh Lee to be consul general at Havana. The social and political standing of General Lee is such that it will add to the importance of the mission, and is strong evidence that the president has a policy to carry out in Cuba and wants vigorous and intelligent assistance from a man whose ability and integrity will demand immediate respect.

The American people without exception will approve of the appointment of the eminent Virginian to this important post and all will feel that the rights of Americans in Cuba are in good keeping.

At the celebration of Jefferson's birthday at Monticello, the orators were Ex-Governor Wm. E. Russell, of Massachusetts, a single gold standard Democrat, and Senator John W. Daniel, the eloquent champion of silver who represents Virginia in the United States senate. Russell made a strong speech for the single standard, and Daniel got back with a ringing free silver speech. It was noticed that, while the visiting statesmen from the East cheered the efforts of the boy governor, the multitude of common people were most enthusiastic over the declarations of the eloquent senator; and herein lies the difference between the adherents to gold and those to silver, the favored class stands for gold, while the multitude favors silver.

The Washington City correspondent of the New York Journal writing at a date before the recent state convention at Tacoma on the relative strength of gold and of silver advocates in the Democratic party, placed Washington in the doubtful column. He said that a "snap convention has been called in that state, which, it is expected, will be controlled by federal officeholders." "The best laid plans of mice and men, etc., etc."

The New York Journal, in summing up the situation on the silver question in the Democratic party, places the silver strength at 472, with 107 classed as doubtful. Amongst those called doubtful are Virginia, Kentucky and Washington. The latter has since declared for silver and Virginia and Kentucky are almost sure to do so. The Democratic party is for free silver.

The county press pretty generally approves of the appointment of Mr. Perry Wiley as county commissioner to succeed Mr. T. M. Graybill. The old Tribune alone set up a wail and objected on account of Mr. Wiley's politics.

The Republican Congress has at last about decided upon a patriotic course to pursue in this time of peril—it is about to adjourn.

McKinley's path is not an easy one to travel. In addition to the opposition of the combined bosses he now has the A. P. A. to deal with. This organization is out for his scalp in a manner that seems to mean business. Those tariff beneficiaries who have undertaken to make McKinley president have an expensive job on their hands.

Hon. John L. Sharhstein in an authorized interview says that while he is personally opposed to the free coinage of silver, he will represent his state as a delegate to Chicago. Jas F. Girton and Hugh C. Wallace have also promised to act in accordance with the platform of the state. Washington will cast eight votes for free silver at Chicago.

Where does the Courier stand on the silver question? The Tribune-Times has announced its position in pretty plain language and to be fair the Courier should show its hand. The Courier surely cannot be waiting to discover the color of the emblem that will appear in the Republican band wagon in this state, before announcing its position.

Hon. R. C. McCrosky of Whitman county who was selected as a delegate to the National Convention, writes "my Democracy extends to my backbone—and the same is true of silver doctrine." The selection of Mr. McCroskey as a delegate to Chicago was no mistake.

Senator Squire has announced himself as favorable to Allison for president. It is now in order for the Courier to place Mr. Allison's name in pica caps at the head of the editorial page. The Tribune-Times has already announced its favorite candidate.

The Tribune-Times need not worry about Mr. Thomas Malony's vote in the National Convention. Like the other seven votes of this state it will be cast first, last and always for free silver and a Western man for president.

Nebraska will offer Hon. Wm. J. Bryan for the Democratic nomination for president. The convention could not do better than to nominate the stalwart Western editor for president.

The Cubans assert that they will refuse the offer of home rule by Spain. Nothing less than independence will now satisfy the patriots. This seems like the spirit of '76.

And still the returns from municipal election in the East show heavy Democratic gains. The presidential election of 1896 is not settled yet by several removes.

Notice of Intended Application

By County Treasurer of Clallam County, Washington, to the Superior Court of said county, for judgment for sale for taxes, penalties, interest and costs, of lands and lots in said county delinquent for taxes thereon for the year 1892, and Notice of the Sale of lands and lots ordered to be sold for said taxes, penalties, interest and costs.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned County Treasurer of the County of Clallam, State of Washington, will, on the second Monday of May, 1896, to-wit, on Monday, the 11th day of May, 1896, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, apply to the Superior Court of said Clallam County, for judgment against the following described lands and lots situate in said Clallam County, for the taxes thereon for the year 1892, with the penalties and interest thereon, and the costs, and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that on the first Monday of September, 1896, to-wit, on Monday, the 7th day of September, 1896, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the Court house of said Clallam County, in the City of Port Angeles, in said County, the said lands and lots, for the sale of which an order shall be made, will be exposed to public sale for the amount of the taxes, penalties, interest and costs due thereon.

The following is a list of the delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes for said year 1892 remain due and unpaid. The names of the owners of the respective lots and tracts are stated in all cases in which such names are known. Opposite each description of real estate, is stated the total amount due on the real estate so described, including the amount of the taxes for the year 1892, the penalties thereon, and interest thereon to May 11, 1896. Costs are not included in said amounts.

A. B. DORSEY, Treasurer, Clallam County, Washington.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Don't forget the leap-year ball on the 8th of May.

The concert Monday night will be produced by the best local talent.

Dr. Edward George has closed the sale of his ranch property south of town.

Dr. Stanley has moved his office to the room in the opera block formerly occupied by Dr Strother.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Foster died last Sunday evening, having lived less than one week.

That placid smile that H. J. Lipsett is carrying around is explained when we tell you he has a new boy at his house. The youngster arrived Monday.

John McLeod, accompanied by Louis Levy, left yesterday on a prospecting tour in the Olympics. They expect to come back loaded with rich ore.

Walter Miller was out sailing in his new "Rob Roy" last Sunday. He made the boat entirely himself and is pardonably proud of it. It is a beauty and a good sailor.

Make your engagements for the leap-year ball on May 8th.

The proprietor of the "Pop" must have secured that load of wood, he has been singing for this last week—as we see the doctor has brought down a cross-cut saw, ready for business.

The musical entertainment at the opera house next Monday night promises to be good and prices are reasonable. Reserved seats, 20 cents; general admission, 15 cents; children, 10 cents.

The W. B. U. band gave another of its delightful outdoor concerts last Sunday. They did a little practise in marching and countermarching on Valley street and showed they can play as well in motion as at standstill.

The ladies are preparing for a great leap-year ball on May 8th.

The Sequim Irrigation Ditch Co., are making unusual preparations for a grand opening on May 1st. There will be all sorts of races, bicycle, horse, boat and otherwise, and to end up with a grand ball in the evening at Sequim.

Harry Lesure, of Forks, brought up three fine head of cattle Tuesday morning on the Garland. Two of them were for Townsend and one was bought by Thos. Watson, of this place. They were as fine looking cattle as one could wish and were in prime condition for beef.

Capt. Wm. Thompson, of the British Ship Arronmore, was a visitor at the meeting of the Immigration Association Wednesday afternoon. He was introduced by Mr. J. H. Young. A cordial invitation was extended to him to participate in the reception to be tendered President Coolican upon his arrival.

We hear from the "Court Reporter," that the eloquence of the county attorney and the thunder of the opposing counsel—in the cattle case—placed the jury in a somnambulistic state. One man however, recovered in time to render a verdict in favor of defendants—so as to enable them to partake of Pete's supper at the county's expense.

The ladies of Port Angeles are making arrangements for a leap-year ball on the 8th of May. They will assume all of the privileges of the "new woman" and will see that their male friends have a good time. They will bear the expenses of the affair themselves except payment for supper, the privilege of which they will gracefully concede to the gentlemen.

One of the most important real estate deals for some time was made yesterday by Mr. D. P. Quinn, as agent for Albert Draper. The latter sold to G. M. Lauridsen lot 3, tide land property, west of Laurel street. This is the lot on which stands what was formerly the Olympian hotel. Mr. Lauridsen will move his stock of goods to this building and will use the upper floors for living rooms.

The Republican County Central Committee met Saturday, April 18th and decided on May 7th as the day for holding the convention to elect delegates to the state convention to be held at Everett, May 14th. The committee also fixed on May 2, for holding the primaries. Those in the city of Port Angeles, will be held at 7:30 p. m., and it was left to the committeemen to select the place of holding them.

Dr. R. S. Vickery, a retired army officer, arrived yesterday. He is an old friend and comrade-in-arms of Capt. Bradley, who will entertain him during his stay in the city. He is quite an extensive owner in Clallam County realty and takes a great interest in our progress. His family is located at Washington City, where his three daughters are attending school. He and his wife would be half inclined to locate here would it not deprive his children of the advantage of the Washington schools.

The April term of the superior court opened on Tuesday, with Judge Jas. G. McClinton on the bench. The first case that came before it was that which came up from the justice court, in which Harry Steuk and Gus Mormann were tried on the charge of stealing a cow and killing her, the property of John Bell, of Sequim. The case was tried before a jury, which returned a verdict of not guilty as to Steuk and as the evidence against Morman was not nearly so strong, the prosecution dismissed the case against him.

Morris Fisher, P. J. Williams, J. Scott and Walter Dyke spent last Saturday and Sunday as guests of Mr. James Haswell, at Port Crescent. They were royally entertained and came back with glowing accounts of Jim's hospitality. On Sunday they all took a run out to Lake Crescent and had a ride around that beautiful sheet of water in the "Flyer," and during the trip called in to see Bro'r Sanborn, who is building a palatial cottage on his lake property. The party returned home Monday.

Port Angeles will have the largest turnout on May 8th that it has ever had. The best preparations are being made by the ladies for a grand leap-year ball.

EAST CLALLAM ITEMS.

The railroad enthusiasts arrived from the back country yesterday well pleased with the trip and country. Meetings were held at Sappho, Forks and LaPush, were well attended by the ranchers and one and all will do his best to assist the conpany and to raise the required subsidy.

The Quillayute board of trade will hold a big meeting at Fork's Prairie Saturday the 25th, for the purpose of raising the railroad subsidy. Everyone in the Quillayute valley is heart and soul in the movement and are all willing to contribute their mite.

Norman Smith and party are here from Port Angeles, but we're not able to say whether its a railroad this time or not.

A party of photographers and railroad men went out to that 84,000 log Wednesday afternoon and took several snap shots at it.

The following gentlemen took passage on Wednesday's Garland for up-Sound points. Messrs. Corson, Haggins, King, Kellogg and Merril.

Joseph Sands, of Gettysburg, left for home Wednesday after spending a few days on Dickey ranch.

Earl Peterson and family arrived in from the country last evening.

Chas. Haswell had a very exciting "walk" home from his prospecting trip up the Clallam river. Too bad the horse jumped the fence, ain't it Charles?

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fallihee spent Sunday on the Peterson ranch and report a very enjoyable time.

Schooner Wenomah.

The Seattle Times of last Saturday stated that the Wenomah, Capt. Guptill, had arrived that day from a fishing cruise, with about 22,000 pound of halibut.

The boat has been out four weeks and secured most of its catch up toward Rose spit, Queen Charlotte's Sound. She should have made the round trip in two weeks, but besides having to go so far after her fish had to lay up on account of bad weather. It was the first voyage of the Wenomah.

K. of P. Excursion.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias convenes at Seattle, May 10th. The members of the local lodge have made arrangements to run an excursion to the convention. They have secured a $2 rate for the round trip, good for three days.

The ladies' leap-year ball on May 8th promises to be a great success. The are all taking much interest in the event and are sparing no effort to make it the crowning success of the year.

Miss Julia Ferguson spent the week with her friend, Miss Merritt, of Townsend.

E. D. Elliott and wife, of Dungeness, have been stopping at the Albany this week.

Geo. E. Black, a commercial man from Seattle, was in the city this week, at the Albany.

J. C. Keenan, Indian agent at Neah Bay, came to Angeles upon the Garland Tuesday.

We understand that Jack Wilcox, of Dungeness, sent his son home Tuesday by steam.

Miss Harriet Elsie Clark returned home Saturday, after quite a visit with her brother.

A. A. Smith is in Seattle, having arrived there Wednesday by boat from San Francisco.

Mrs. N. R. Smith and her son Chester left Saturday for an extended visit with friends up-Sound.

Capt. Laurenson, one of Sequim's prosperous farmers, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

W. W. Felger, one of Townsend's well-known attorneys, was in Angeles this week on legal business.

Amos Turner, L. A. Blackwell and D. J. McDonald, of Seattle, were registered at the Albany last Monday.

Our good friend, Mike Minnehan, of Gettysburg, is in town performing some courtly functions this week.

Mrs. Carrigan and Miss Beasley returned Monday from a short visit to the lakes. They brought in a fine string of trout.

David Gastman, of Gettysburg, will accompany J. W. White to British Columbia, where they expect to remain for about one year.

J. H. Marlette, of Clallam, one of the old Republican Guard of Western Clallam is in town doing jury service. He is stopping at the Albany.

Joe Douglass, Martin Stevens, of Beaver, and Herman Kop, of Soldduck, took breakfast at the City hotel Tuesday morning on their way to Seattle.

W. C. Williams of Port Williams, who makes such fine cheese, was in town Tuesday. He has suffered much from rheumatism of late but is a little better at present.

Miss Merritt, formerly of this city, has accepted a position on the Port Townsend Leader. She is an expert operator on the Thorn type-setting machine with which that establishment is fitted.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

Clallam Bay Record.

Chas. Larsen, of Beaver left for up-Sound Wednesday.

Miss Lulu Keltner left on Monday to return to Seattle and resume her studies at school.

Henry Reese went to Angeles Wednesday to be made a citizen by the superior court.

W. D. Johns has been engaged to teach a three-months term of school on the west side, beginning on Monday.

The ghost dance given at Odd Fellows hall on Friday evening was well attended and being something new in the line of amusements was very enjoyable.

John and Dennis Kelley took their departure from town on Saturday last, going from here to Seattle. They have resided at this end of the county for nearly sixteen years.

Hans Hansen, formerly a politician at Boston on the Quillayute river, lately sold his ranch on the river to a man named Gleason, of Seattle, who passed through town on Monday going to the ranch.

George and Fred Haehnle, settlers in the Dickey country, have returned from up-Sound where they have been engaged in cutting shingles for the past year.

Settlers in the great Dicky pass are enthusiastic over the proposed railroad from Clallam bay to the Quillayute, and are willing to give the required bonus, providing the promoters of said road are acting in good faith. Well they should be, for transportation to them is everything; no transportation, nothing.

The opening of the money order office here has been delayed because the necessary blanks to conduct the business have not yet arrived from Washington. The blanks will probably not arrive before April 25th or perhaps later still, but the postmaster states that due notice will be given of the date of opening the money order business.

Jim Haine is now on his ranch at Dickey lake making extensive improvements.

Beaver Leader:

FORKS.

S. Baxter, president of the Washington Fur Company, brought in eighteen Bob White quails and turned loose near Forks. He asks that the people here protect them for two or three years and by that time there will be plenty of quails for all.

Miss Bessie Drabing is going to Twin River Thursday to remain for the summer.

James Henry, of Bogachiel, is at home once more. He has been working at Everett for the past year.

Wm. Drabin will leave next week for Gray's Harbor.

Allie Whittier has gone to Gettysburg to work in the camp.

QUILLAYUTE.

Most of the farmers have all their oats sown and their gardens made.

The Indians and the Hostons had a horse race Sunday. The whites won.

Miss Emma Wiler has gone to Seattle to work this summer. The fair sex are getting quite scarce in this vicinity.

Indian Jack was quite badly shaken up Sunday at the horse race. His saddle girth broke and Jack took a header that knocked him out on the first round. He was dead to the world for a few minutes and is too badly bruised and battered to carry the mail.

Get Keller's spraying liquid and kill the insects on your fruit trees.

Horses and cattle must have some condition powder in the springtime. Alterative condition powder cleans the blood, kills the worms and acts on the kidneys. 25 cents a package or 3 for 50 cents at J. C. Hansen's drug store.

Munyon's Homopathic medicines of all kinds to be had at J. C. Hansen's drug store.

B. C. Keller keeps the best spraying liquid in the market.

CITY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Adopts a Constitution and By-Laws—In Shape for Business.

The City Improvement Association held an interesting session last Saturday afternoon. Judge G. V. Smith presided and Wm. Ban[illegible]d [illegible]es of secretary. Judge Smith read a lengthy article on the plan of operation to be pursued, which was substantially the same as the [illegible] prepared by him and printed in a former issue of the DEMOCRAT-LEADER.

Following is the constitution and by-laws as adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The name of this Association shall be The Port Angeles City Improvement Association.

SEC. 2. The objects of this association shall be as follows:

First. To cause the removal or destruction of original obstacles, such as stumps, logs, etc. from the streets of the city.

Second. To cause the erection and maintenance of bridges, or the filling up of gulches, so far as may be deemed necessary to open up important thoroughfares in the city.

Third. To cause residents and non-residents to fairly contribute funds, labor, materials, or supplies by voluntary action, or by legal process of assessment if necessary, to accomplish reasonable improvements as aforesaid.

Fourth. To ascertain and declare and obtain remedial action upon what may be termed public nuisances on unimproved lots, in order that such nuisances may be effectually abated at an early date.

Fifth. To devise ways and means for aiding the local authorities and obtaining their aid reciprocally in further grading and beautifying the city without unnecessary delay, in so far as the same may be practicable.

SEC. 3. The business office of this association shall be in Port Angeles, Clallam county, Washington.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. Any resident or property holder in Clallam county may become a member of this association.

SEC. 2. Application for membership shall be made in such form and be accompanied by such evidence of residence or property ownership, as may be required by the board of trustees.

SEC. 3. Any person in good standing may be elected an honorary member of this association by a vote of two thirds of the members present at any stated meeting.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee shall be twenty-five cents, payable when the candidate for membership shall be invited by the board of trustees to subscribe to the constitution, and no person shall be deemed qualified to vote after the adjournment of this meeting until he or she shall have paid their initiation fee.

SEC. 2 All collections in money belonging to the association shall forthwith be paid over to the treasurer and shall be paid out by him only upon the warrant of the presiding officer of the association, countersigned by the secretary, whose action shall of course be based upon authorative action of the board of trustees as hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 3. The expenses of the association shall be paid from the funds in the hands of the treasurer upon the warrant of the presiding officer, countersigned by the secretary.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION. 1. The officers of this association shall consist of a president, seven vice-presidents, who shall take precedence in the chair according to the order of their election, a secretary and a treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by allot at an annual meeting to be held the first Saturday of January in each year, and shall hold their offices for a term of one year from date of election and qualification.

SEC. 2 The officers of this association at the time of the adoption of this constitution, who shall forthwith comply with Section 1 of Article 3 of the same, are hereby continued as officers of this association until the next annual election.

SEC. 3. There shall be a board of trustees consisting of a president, or in his absence of the acting president, the secretary, the treasurer, and eight members to be elected by ballot at the annual meeting and to hold their offices for one year and until their successors are qualified. Provided, that the trustees at the time of the adoption of this constitution, who shall forthwith comply with Section 1 of Article 3 of the same, are hereby continued as trustees of this association until the next annual election.

SEC. 4. A majority of the board of trustees shall constitute a quorum for business.

SEC. 5. In the event of the death, resignation, or inability to act, of any officer of the association or of any member of the board of trustees, the vacancy shall be filled by the board of trustees.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. This constitution shall go into immediate effect.

SEC. 2. This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any stated meeting of the association. Provided, That notice of the proposed amendment in writing subscribed by five members, be offered at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1. The president shall preside at all meetings of the association and the board of trustees of which he shall be ex-officio the chairman.

SEC. 2. The senior vice president and in his absence the next vice president in the order of seniority, shall, in the absence of the president, discharge the duties of that officer, and if none of them be present a president pro-tempore shall be appointed at the meeting and shall discharge the duties of president and sign as president pro-tempore.

SEC. 3. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings and of such other matters as the association may deem advisable. He shall notify officers, members of the board of trustees and committeemen of their election or appointment; shall keep a roll of the names of officers, trustees, committeemen and members; shall countersign certificates signed by the presiding officer; shall issue notices of all meetings when necessary, and shall conduct the correspondence of the association under its direction.

SEC. 4. The treasurer shall collect, and under the direction of the board of trustees acting in accordance with Sections 2 and 3 of Article 3 of the constitution, disburse the funds of the association. He shall report quarterly, and oftener if required; and shall render accounts, which shall at all times be open to inspection of any member of the board of trustees. His accounts shall be audited quarterly by the board of directors who shall then inspect and verify the amount of cash on hand as reported in the accounts.

SEC. 5. The board of trustees shall have control of all assets and property of the association; shall have power to order the payment by the treasurer of all expenses thereof; shall provide for, and have charge of rooms for conducting the business of the association, and shall have the general management of the affairs of the association, subject, however, to the limitations and provisions of the constitution and by-laws. The board of trustees shall meet at least once a month. They shall make a report at each annual meeting, and oftener if required by the association. They shall have no power to make the association liable for any amount of money beyond the sum in the hands of the treasurer, nor shall they or any one or more members of the association have power to make any contract binding personally on members of the association.

SEC. 6. The presence of nine members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the association.

SEC. 7. There shall be an annual meeting of the association on the first Saturday of January in each year at which the officers and trustees of the association shall be elected and other business transacted.

SEC. 6. A stated meeting shall be held semi-monthly on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month, the time and place of meeting to be fixed by the board of trustees and to be announced by them through the secretary At the stated meeting and at any regularly adjourned meeting thereof the full powers of the association may be exercised.

SEC. 9. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president or board of trustees, and shall be called upon the written request of nine members of the association.

SEC. 10. The order of business at the meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting.
2nd. Reports of officers
3rd. Reports of board of trustees.
4th. Reports of committees.
5th. Unfinished business.
6th. New business.

SEC. 11. The order of business prescribed by Section 10, maybe changed by the two-thirds vote of the members that are present at any meeting, but to be changed for that meeting only.

SEC. 12. These by-laws shall go into immediate effect.

SEC. 13. These by-laws may be amended by a two thirds vote of the members of the association present at any stated meeting of the association. Provided, That notice of the proposed amendment in writing, subscribed by five of the members, be offered at a previous meeting.
