VOL. 7. NO. 2. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1896. PRICE FIVE CENTS

A "PROXY" CONVENTION.

Clallam Republicans Elect Delegates to State Convention.

THE "RING" SLATE GET THE PLUMS.

The Convention of the Clallam County Republicans Have Their Work Clearly Outlined for Them by the "Boss" and He Touches the Button and They Do the Rest.

The Clallam County Republican Convention called to elect delegates to the state convention was called to order yesterday in the opera house at 1:30 p. m. by W. E. Burnside chairman of the county central committee.

Mr. Purvis and Mr. Burnside were put in nomination for temporary chairman. Mr. Purvis declined and Mr. Burnside was elected by acclamation.

Thos. Penniman was elected temporary secretary by acclamation. The chair appointed the following committees:

Credentials—J. E. Beam, O. A. Tiffany J. W. Souther, G. H. Randall and Moses Ackles.

Permanent Organization and order of business—W. E. Ellsworth, Joe Fenn, W. W. Crockett, J. G. Banks, E. D. Elliott.

Resolutions—L. Williams, H. E. Lutz, C. D. Ulmer, H. J. Lipsett, J. S. Laurenson.

The convention reassembled at 3:20 p. m. The committee on credentials made its report.

It brought out some curious facts. The chairman of the central committee had twelve proxies safely stowed away in his inside pocket.

Mr. Embree, the mouthpiece of the "ring" had also only five proxies and several other of the "ringsters" held from one to three each.

C. D. Ulmer rose and stated he wanted to protest against such wholesale proxy business; that it was not in accordance with true Republicanism or honest representation.

He then made a motion that no one delegate be allowed to cast more than one vote as a holder of a proxy, or in other words he could represent but one proxy.

Of course the "ring" didn't want anything like that, so in accordance, with instructions from Louis Williams and Benton Embree, they voted it out of sight. They then adopted the report as it came from the committee.

The committee on organization and rules then made its report by which the temporary organization was made permanent and James Haswell was elected assistant secretary.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which was adopted:

Resolved, By the Republicans of Clallam county in convention assembled, that we re-affirm our allegiance to the principles of the Republican party and pledge our united, earnest and enthusiastic support to the nominee of the Republican national and state conventions.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the present able and efficient Republican administration of the state of Washington.

They then resoluted in favor of Cuban independence, rigid economy in county affairs and condemned Grover Cleveland for several bad things he has been guilty of in their estimation.

The chairman then announced that nominations for seven delegates to the state convention was in order. Benton Embree, W. L. Church, Frank Balch, W. E. Ellsworth, J. M. McBride, W. E. Burnside, S. L. Hall and C. W. Thompson were nominated.

Delegate Carrigan stated that he had been requested to put in nomination the names of seven men who would represent the party in the fullest sense of the word, but as it was evident that they would stand no show against the "ring" nominees that he would refrain from naming them.

The "ring" nominees, which did not include C. W. Thompson, then went through with a whoop.

The selection of alternates was then taken up and C. D. Ulmer made a motion that the chairman be allowed to name them. It was agreed to and the chairman picked up a printed list of the "ring" nominees and read it through from beginning to end. It was hoped that the opportunity thus given to the "ringsters" to concede a little bit to the opposition would be acted on with some liberality for the sake of the party, but it would not go. The alternates are as follows: J. W. Souther, Thad Wagner, J. M. Laurenson, Geo. Lamb, P. W. Gallup, Joe Henderson and C. E. Maxfield.

The convention then adjourned.

Canned Clams.

The National Packing Company, of this place, is now putting up canned clams of a very superior quality. Mr. Hume, the manager, says they will beat any brand in this country. He has sent samples to most of the important cities of this western country, as far east as Salt Lake City, and they have been universally commended for their delicious flavor.

The bulk of the clams used are from Sequim Bay and from around the Port Angeles spit.

All Honor to Them.

Most of the Republican free silver papers which note the signs of the times now agree that the indorsement of sound money by the national Republican convention is inevitable, but that doesn't make them any less loyal to the white metal.—Post-Intelligencer.

CITY WARRANT MATTER

City Treasurer Pays Out Money For Current Expenses

AND STIRS UP A HORNET'S NEST

Benton Embree, Representing the Parties Who Hold Some Old City Warrants Charges Krueger With Being Disregardful of His Pledged Word in Paying Out Money and Has Him Enjoined.

On April 30th, 1896 J. E. Krueger, city treasurer, commenced to pay out moneys in the general fund on warrants drawn on said day for expenses of the city incurred in December 1895 and during the year 1896. Benton Embree represents the oldest outstanding general fund warrants of the city issued in March 1892. The city treasurer declined to pay the same, and Embree claims he had an understanding with Krueger that none of the moneys would be paid out on warrants issued subsequently to Embree's warrants without first notifying Embree of the same so that he might apply to the court for an injunction restraining such payment.

But on the morning of April 30th while Embree was engaged in the superior court, Krueger, in violation of his alleged promise to Embree, began paying out moneys and continued to pay until May 1st when Embree procured a restraining order prohibiting the same.

Krueger paid out about $700 before a restraining order could be procurred.

Embree will sue his official bond to recover back the moneys so paid out.

The last legislature enacted a law making it a penal offence for any city or county treasurer having in his hands, to the credit of a given fund, the sum of $500 or more, to refuse or neglect to make a call for the oldest outstanding warrants on that fund, or to refuse to pay such warrants when presented, or for paying warrants out of the order of issue.

The object of this law is to prohibit treasurers of municipalities from keeping on hand public funds while there are outstanding warrants drawing interest.

As soon as Embree found that Treasurer Krueger was violating the law in paying warrants out of the order of their issue, he applied to the prosecuting attorney to file a criminal information against Krueger, and upon his refusal to do so Embree laid the matters before Judge McClinton, who, upon considerating, made an order requiring the attorney to proceed against Krueger for violating the law in the manner above indicated.

The prosecuting attorney then made a written report to the court on the matter giving his reason why the case should not be prosecuted and upon his application to the Judge therefor, the former order was vacated. The prosecuting attorney was very averse towards pushing the case.

Embree thinks the policy of the law prohibiting treasurers from retaining public funds in their hands, should be up-held, and when public officials deliberately take the law into their own hands they should be made to suffer the penalties.

The late decision of the supreme court on appeal from Pierce county, holds squarely that all outstanding warrants must be paid in the order of their issue, and that the holder of a warrant has the right to see that the funds are not diverted from such purpose.

Embree will bring a mandamus suit against the treasurer to compel him to pay the money yet remaining in the general fund upon the warrants held by him. This suit will test the status of the city's financial condition.

In this connection the following communication of City Attorney Marquardt to the city council on Wednesday evening, will be read will be read with interest:

PORT ANGELES, Wash., May 6th. 1896.

To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of the City of Port Angeles:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to report that the State Savings Bank of the state of Iowa has brought suit against the city treasurer for and injunction restraining said treasurer from paying the city's expenses in cash. This is the kind of an action we have been waiting for for the last four months, and which no one seemed disposed to bring. Your action and that of the mayor at the last meeting has forced the bringing of this suit and I think we are to be congratulated that things are so shaping themselves that we are to be enabled shortly to know just where "we are at."

I believe in this case we are to be enabled to set up the entire history of the city and shortly get the determination of this court and of the supreme court that will point out to us a way by which this city government can run. It is the only way in the world I can see to help us out of our difficulties. I think it is all important and I am very much pleased that the opportunity is now afforded us to bring the matter before the supreme court.

We have the benefit of the decisions made by the supreme court in three other cases in which this matter was attempted to be brought before the court, and where in each case the supreme court has dodged the main question in issue. I will endeavor in this case to have the issues so raised that they will not be able to dodge the question.

Very respectfully,
W. L. MARQUARDT,
City Attorney.

Townsend's Tactics.

There's a whole raft of Indian sailors marching up and down Front street breathing forth wrathful indignation, not unmixed with something stronger. It's all about the way the Port Townsend seal inspector has been treating them. There are two Indian sealing schooners in the bay, the C. C. Perkins, the Puritan and the Jesse, Capt. Raymond, whose [illegible], amounting to about [illegible], 600 was sold to Boscowitz & Sons of Victoria.

The Indians say that Seal Inspector Fowler came down from Port Townsend and got all his statistical data as to their catch and told them they would have to go to Townsend before they could dispose of their skins. They knew better than this and refused to do as he ordered them. As a result they were kept here until Wednesday afternoon before they got permission to dispose of their skins They assert that Fowler told them they must hereafter bring their skins to Townsend and not stop here at Port Angeles.

They claim that they can get about $2 50 more per skin here than they can at Townsend, that there is a combination at Townsend, which compels them to take whatever it pleases to pay when a sealing schooner enters that port. They say they want to do all their business here at Port Angeles and that it is a dirty imposition on this port the way the Townsend gang tries to pull all business away from here.

They claim they have a perfect right to enter their boats at any port they please and this last act of trying to make them go to Townsend is on a par with many other contemptible methods adopted by those wolves up there to destroy the business of this port.

They do not hesitate to scorch Inspector Fowler for his bull-dozing tactics, but say he cannot come his dirty work over them.

There is some satisfaction in the business, however. It has served to enlist the sympathies of these sealers for Port Angeles. They swear by all that is bright and holy that they are hereafter going to bring all their business to Port Angeles, that this is logically the proper rendezvous of all the sealing craft in the waters of the Pacific and that they can get better prices and quicker sales here than anywhere else, and here is where they are going to come.

We would suggest to the Townsend clique that the next time they want to work their little game that they send another man in place of Inspector Fowler. He may be a "beauty," but his work is too coarse.

Notice.

We positively will not deliver washing until it is paid for.

COUNSELS CO-OPERATION

Col. Coolican Presides At the Immigration Meeting.

POLISH COLONY AN ASSURED FACT.

Mr. Lewandowski, Representing the Polish Immigration Society, Met With Clallam's Association and Gives a History of What He has Done in His Line of Labors and What He Expects To Do

The Clallam County Immigration Association held its regular weekly meeting last Saturday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms.

Col. Coolican, the president was present and presided over its deliberations. On taking the chair he made a few remarks, thanking the association for its assistance in promoting the work on the outside and the energy which had marked its existance from the beginning. He had been very watchful of its actions, and although he had never before attended one of its meetings, he had taken as deep an interest as though he were present and took part in the proceedings.

He referred to the almost insurmountable difficulties he and his associates had to contend against in directing the flood of immigration to the state of Washington and in particular to Clallam county. He said that hard times and the great movement to the southern states were the principle foes that had to be met, but thought that their work at St. Paul was sure to result in great success, as they had aroused great interest among the people around St. Paul and Minneapolis in our section of the country, and that the movemont, now begun, would grow in volumn, and that the chief difficulty had been overcome—that of getting the first 100 people out here. The rest, he thought, would follow. The St. Paul office had on its books 158 families who were preparing to come to Clallam county.

He stated that the Guttenberg brothers and Mr. Bass, who were out here some time since, were getting their affairs into shape and would soon be out with their families and all their worldly possessions to become one of us and help advance the interests of Clallam county and Angeles.

He made a strong plea for united action and sympathetic co-operation; that we were now on the up-grade and it only needed a strong pull and a pull-all-together and we would land at the top of the heap.

After some routine business, Mr. Lewandowski, the Polish Immigration agent, was introduced and he outlined his scheme for planting a large colony of his countrymen in Clallam county. The gentleman has been in the business for a long time and has been instrumental in sending many thousands of Poles to Brazil and other countries.

Mr. Lewandowski speaks English with a decidedly foreign accent, but well enough to be thoroughly understood.

He stated that he would want about 10,000 acres in all and that he would like it in large tracts, if possible, as his people were disposed to settle together, so as to be of aid to each other in building bridges and opening up roads

He said he could have about 100 families settled in Clallam county by next winter. It was explained to him the different ways he could get hold of the land, as by relinquishments, homesteading and by direct purchase.

He said that all the people he would bring out would have some capital and he thought the greater number would want to purchase the land outright if it could be secured on reasonable terms. They were every one of them, practical agriculturists and would prove good, law-abiding, peaceable citizen, men who know how to work hard and were willing to do it.

Mr. Carrigan stated that the associates had on its books quite a number of tracts of land very desirable and available for such a purpose, and it was finally decided, on the suggestion of Mr. Lewandowski, that the association furnish him a list of such lands and he could see the owners personally.

He said his first batch of colonists would all be countrymen of his who had lived in various parts of the United States and who could speak the English language and who were well acquainted with the institutions and customs of our country. After he had exhausted the United States he would proceed to Europe and form colonies there for Clallam county. They would come here prepared to enter into all branches of farming, such as dairying, fruit raising, etc. He thanked the association for its kindly expressions toward him.

He stated that he had looked the state over thoroughly and thought Clallam county the best place of all to recommend to his people; that his attention was attracted to it by his friend Stanley Karroll, who formerly resided in Port Angeles and that he, no doubt, could thoroughly satisfy every man who settled within the county.

Chas. Peters, Dr. Chas. Foglesong, Dr. Vickery were elected members of the association.

Prof. Thomas Edwards was elected as additional committeeman from Eden precinct.

Mr. Hans Walby stated that he was looking for a friend of his on Monday who was coming down here to investigate potter's clay which abounds in this vicinity and asked someone who understoood the subject to volunteer to assist him in showing up the clay and explaining the subject. Mr. N. R. Smith was named as the best man in the county to perform the task and Mr. Walby said he would see him.

Meeting adjourned to meet next Saturday, the 9th.

This gives 156 papers a year for one dollar, and every paper has six pages eight columns wide or forty-eight columns in all. The Thrice-a-Week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly. THEIR ACTION INDEFENSIBLE.

No excuse entitled to a moment's consideration can be offered by the majority of the board of School Directors for their action in engaging Prof. O. A. Tiffany as superintendent of city schools for a term of three years. Less than a year ago A. C. Hatfield and Richard Eacrett were protesting because a retiring board had hired a few teachers for one year. They took the ground that such action was not only illegal but wrong in principle. They gained much sympathy for themselves by taking this position, but they have at last proved that the sympathy was as undeserved as they are unfit for the position to which they have been elected.

Their action could not be justified even were there no opposition to Prof. Tiffany as city superintendent. They know that they have no moral right to act in the premises. Mr. Hatfield will retire in about sixty days and now presumes to fasten upon his successor for his full term a man for the highest office in our city schools whom he might not want. The trouble Seattle had over the employment of a city superintendent for a long term should be sufficient for an intelligent and an honest man to avoid the possibility of like difficulties here.

But these once highly esteemed gentlemen know that there is a strong opposition to the employment of Prof. Tiffany. They know that the next election for director will turn on the question of the selection of the city superintendent. They were evidently certain as to the result of the election, too, as they have given pretty good evidence that they are afraid of the result.

A FIT SELECTION.

The selection of Andrew F. Burleigh at the King county convention as the choice of that county for delegate to the Republican National Convention is not surprising. It is quite fitting that the party which has done so much for the large railroad corporations in this state should send the receiver of the Northern Pacific to the National Convention. The Republican party of King county has now endorsed the action of their faithful men in the last state legislature.

It will be remembered that last winter the members of the legislature from Eastern Washington prepared and had introduced the Helm railroad bill, reducing freight rates to the farmers East of the Cascades. They had great hopes of securing the adoption of their bill. The Republican platform had pronounced in favor of lower freight rates, and that party had 75 per cent. of the members of the legislature. The bill passed the house alright, but when it reached the senate Mr. Andrew F. Burleigh appeared on the scene, and it is alleged that he had in his grip $30,000 to put where it would do the most good.

It is not known that any of this money was returned to the railroad companies who it is said furnished it. Mr. Burleigh had the freedom of the capitol, and when a vote was taken the Helm bill was defeated; the sagebrush statesmen still pay the freight rates and Mr. Barleigh draws the old salary and more. Mr. Burleigh will be a very good man at the Republican National Convention. He will well and truly represent his constituents, and more than likely meet men of congenial occupation and habits there—Thurston, perhaps, and Depew.

THE MAJORITY DEFEATED.

Michigan is the worst Federal office ridden state in the Union. Besides her quota of postmasters, Michigan has two of the principal customs districts in the United States. Her long Canadian border is lined with inspectors, detectives and what not, all drawing pay from the United States government, and all owing their position to Don Dickinson, the Cleveland apostle of gold in that silver state. The part these men took at the late state convention in that state is shown by the following sentence from a World's dispatch from Detroit just prior to the convening of the convention:

"The administration men are fighting under directions from Washington. Every officeholder that can be reached is here at work, and, while Mr. Dickinson does not appear himself, he is known to be directing the battle."

No wonder that, though they represent more than 75 per cent. of the Democrats of Michigan—and honest gold men concede it—the representatives of silver were turned downed in that state. The silver men can congratulate themselves that the majority was so small.

PLATFORMS do not count for much with Republicans. The last Republican State Convention declared for free silver and for railroad freight reductions. Senator Squire voted for free silver and Andrew F. Burleigh defeated the bill reducing freight rates. The Republican party honors Burleigh for nulifying their platform, and turns Squire down for obeying the behest of the people.

THE Chehalis Nugget reprints without comment an editorial from the Omaha Bee, critising Washington Democrats for endorsing the Cleveland administration and demanding free silver coinage. The editor of the Nugget should have good reason to know that the Cleveland administration was not endorsed in so far as its record on financial matters go.

IF Mr. Cleveland vetoes the river and harbor bill he will do a great thing for the administration that follows his. The next administration will be harder pressed for funds than the present unless there is a change in the attitude of Congress toward appropriations.

THE Tribune-Times does not seem to be running the Republican party of this county. At least it is not a platform maker.

WHAT is to be done with those editors who wrote springtime editorials about six weeks ago.

AFTER all, is it not as much due to Hanna's money as to McKinley's financial straddle?

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SILENT ON SILVER.

The Republican County Convention passed resolutions on all the affairs of the government from the removing of the American flag from the staff on the state house of a foreign nation to the veto by President Cleveland of a bill granting a pension to a photographer.

They referred in their platform partially to the interests of the laboring men. They touched upon nearly every subject under the sun, in fact, but the one question that, above all else, occupies the attention of the people. They never said a word about the money question. They did, however, pledge their support to their nominee for president no matter what the platform nor who the candidate.

THE Centralia News and the Willapa Harbor Pilot are the latest to join in the demand for the nomination of Hon. James Hamilton Lewis for governor. Editorial articles from these able journals will be found in another column. They, like other newspapers which have joined in this demand, reflec the views of an intelligent public.

THE Tribune-Times says: "Mr. Carlisle is a statesman of recognized ability, a Democrat in political belief, but an American when the financial institutions of the country are menaced." Very good. It will be remembered that this American is amongst the foremost of the opponents of the Republican protective tariff policy.

ILLINOIS Republicans have followed Ohio and Wisconsin by adopting a straddle money plank and Washington Republicans, it is alleged, have a straddle plank in the incubator to be sprung at Everett on the 14th inst. Republicans have but little room to talk of courage and convictions.

IT is not the fault of the Beaver Leader that Port Angeles and the East end do not oppose the development of the West end of Clallam County. That paper has done its best to precipitate a conflict between the people here and in the West end.

IT will be noticed that nearly all the votes against considering the resolutions for the investigation of the bond sale were Republicans and nearly all those voting for consideration were Democratic votes. Democrats are not afraid of the light.

THE Courier will have to wait until another convention meets to get its cue on the money question.

HAVE the the people no rights that Prof. Tiffany's school board is bound to respect?

THE administration succeeded in endorsing itself in Michigan.

An Ideal Candidate.

Those who attended the state Democratic convention at Tacoma last week could not fail to observe that Col. James Hamilton Lewis is the undoubted choice of the great mass of Washington Democrats as the candidate of the party for governor the coming fall. It was due largely to the influence of the friends of Col. Lewis that the silver men were so moderate in their demands and were willing and did concede so much to their opponents. The sentiment of the convention was so strong in favor of silver—which was the only question on which there was any issue—that they might easily have controlled and sent an instructed delegation to Chicago. But they desired a harmonious and united party and to obtain that result were willing to concede much to those who differed from them on the money question. Had the same wise counsels prevailed at Olympia in 1892, there is no question that Col. Lewis would have been the nominee and that he would have been triumphantly elected. It is useless now to discuss the causes which led to dissensions in the party ranks at that time. Enough to know that they resulted in the loss of a golden opportunity for a success that would have proved of great advantage to the Democracy of Washington. What we want to do is avoid like mistakes in the future. We therefore hail with satisfaction the good feeling and desire for unity exhibited at Tacoma. We are strongly of the opinion that Col. Lewis' candidacy for governor would do more to cement and strengthen this desire than any other candidate that can be brought forward. The peer of any Democrat in the state, whose loyalty to his party has never been questioned, an eminent lawyer, a brilliant orator, a man who possesses the love and esteem of the laboring classes and farmers as well as the confidence of the business men, James Hamilton Lewis is the ideal candidate for the Democratic party for governor this fall.—Centralia News.

Can be Elected Govenor.

Four years ago the Democrats of Washington were strong and well organized, and assembled at Olympia, to nominate a state ticket, full of hope and full of confidence. The Republican state convention had met, but a short time before, and after a stormy session had made the egregious blunder of introducing a disturbing element into their canvass in the way of the Seattle "ditch." The Democrats, abundantly forewarned by the error of the enemy, met at Olympia, resolnted, wrangled, fought and finally tumbled headlong into the same "ditch."

James Hamilton Lewis was, at that time, the most popular Democrat in the state and the strongest candidate for governor, and but for the blundering stupidity of this convention, by which a platform was adopted upon which Mr. Lewis could not stand, he would, without a shadow of a doubt, be the governor of the state today.

During the four years which have elapsed since that memorable campaign, James Hamilton Lewis has lost none of his popularity, but has rather gained in the respect and confidence of the people of all parties. He stands for the prevailing sentiment of the people, of all parties, on the one great issue of the hour. He has nothing to explain, nothing to apologize for. He is honest able and fearless, and if the Democracy of Washington has the acumen to profit by the errors of the past and to read the signs of the times, James Hamilton Lewis will be the next governor of the state of Washington.

The time is as opportune as it was four years ago. The enemy, lulled by security, wrangling over successions and divided on the money question, is in no condition to face a united opposition led by a man in whom all classes have the utmost confidence. Shameless extravagance has characterized the state administration for years, and it has apparently had no objection in view but the spoils. The tax-ridden people are still yearning for "a change." James Hamilton Lewis is the right man; give the people a chance to put him in the right place.—South Bend Pilot.

Spring is still lingering in the lap of winter. We wish she'd get a move on herself. Our old winter clothes are getting mighty seedy and we want a chance to blossom out.

W. D. Parker has recently added a new rotary washing machine to his laundry and will soon be in shape to turn out any amount of first-class work on short notice.

All persons having wheels, or soon expecting to get one are requested to meet at Carsten's meat market next Saturday evening at 7 p. m. to perfect arrangements for the organization of a bicycle club.

M. J. Carrigan received a telegram from Major Harding yesterday saying that the Dugan party would arrive at Seattle Saturday and suggesting that Col. Coolican meet them on their arrival there. They will probaby arrive here on Monday.

Rev. Horace W. Houlding, Congregational state evangelist, will preach at the Congregational church Sabbath, May 10th, morning and evening, and at Pine Hill at 3 o'clock the same day. All are cordially invited to come and hear him.

The school board at its meeting Wednesday night elected Prof. Tiffany as city superintendent at a salary of $800 per year, for a period of three years; and R. G. Trumbull, as principal of the high school for a period of two years at a salary of $75 per month.

Chief Peter, the most emminent, high Tyee, King of the Siwash, proceeded to load up clear to the gunwales Wednesday and was taken to jail to sober up and get a chance to calmly reflect on the mutability of human life. His little child would not be separated from him so it was given a berth also.

Chief Pearson in order to give his boys a little practice, rang a false alarm Monday night after the [illegible] to elect officers. Most of the boys were well on their way home, but they all responded in fine shape with a quick run to the hydrant at the corner of Front and Laurel streets and soon had a stream of water directed down the street. Our volunteer department is as fine a one as in the state.

Charles Gilmur has the contract to construct a large float 20x40 feet, to be used as a landing place at the foot of Morse's wharf. The means to build the float was raised by contribution from business men. It will be finished by the middle of next week. It is badly needed and will be of great convenience to the public and to shipping men.

The British warships were hard at it luring the afternoon and evening of last Tuesday. They were evidently practicing well out in the straits, as the boom of the guns could be heard quite distinctly here. During the evening their search lights were turned onto the spit, bringing it into bold relief to those who happened to be watching along our bluffs.

"Salmo Crescenti."

There has been on exhibition in the show windows of Keller's Drug store this week what is probably the largest trout ever caught in North America.

It measures thirty two inches in length is eight and a half inches wide and weighs fourteen pounds. It was caught by Mr. Ben Lewis in Lake Crescent, who was so proud of his achievement that he brought it to town for exhibition. It is of the blueback species, called by President Gordon, of Leland Stanford University "Salmo Crescenti."

Mr. Lewis thinks that a forty-pounder will yet be taken from Lake Crescent. He caught this monster with a double wing spinner and it took him some time to tire him out before attempting to land him in his boat.

Help the Railroad Along.

The railroad is worth trying for. A few settlers refuse any donation toward the subsidy for the reason that they fear the railroad will never amount to anything. But the man who refuses to offer anything should consider that it costs him nothing to try. He will lose nothing in any event. If the road is not constructed he has not lost any of his land and if by his donation he brings the road into the country he has really made an investment that will bring him in good returns. The country about us is so heavily timbered that only a railroad can remove this native product and develop our resources. There is no other outlet for the vast body of timber at the west end of this county except by way of the ocean and the latter outlet is so expensive and dangerous as to be practically out of the question at the present time. A railroad is the only hope of the country to bring business and prosperity here and every resident will share in the good results of such an enterprise. In fact he cannot help but share it. The expenditure alone of the big sum of money necessary to construct 40 miles of railroad could not help but infuse new life into the whole county and start a business activity down at the west end, at least, such as Clallam county has long been a stranger to. The railroad is a good thing. Push it along!—Clallam Bay Record.

Sequim Irrigation Association.

The opening of the Sequim Irrigation Ditch last Friday was a great success. There was a good crowd present. Port Townsend and Port Angeles both being represented by quite a number.

R. J. Chard made the opening address and was followed by speeches from Col. Coolican, M. J. Carrigan and Dr. Foglesong.

There were all kinds of races, the Port Townsend Bicycle club being very much in evidence.

The ditch was built under the supervision of Mr. Jones, who has purchased fifteen acres along it on Sequim prairie.

It will irrigate about 1,200 acres of land which has heretofore been useless, but will now fairly revel in luxuriant growth. The ditch has been built by contribution of labor and money by the people owning land along the route.

It was finished about the 25th of last month, so that sufficient time has elapsed to demonstrate its usefulness.

Fire Department.

The members of the Fire Department held their annual election May 4th with the following result:

Fire Department—Chief, Joseph Pearson; assistant chief, Charles Beam; secretary, Will T. Rex; treasurer, Walter J. Dyke.

Hose Company—Foreman, W. W. Crockett; first assistant foreman, Nat Hawkins; second assistant foreman, Jas. Stuckey; secretary, J. A. Wilson; delegates, W. T. Rex, Will Fend, John McLeod.

Hook and Ladder Company—Foreman, Will Fowler; first assistant foreman, Albert Wilson; second assistant foreman, E. Morgan; secretary, C. F. Merritt; delegates, W. J. Dyke, Albert Wilson, Wm. Fowler.

Another Theft.

The Earl of Dunmore, an English ship, passed up the Straits yesterday in tow of the tug Holyoke.

She was ordered to report here and there is a large batch of mail here awaiting her, but she fell into the clutches of the Townsend Tug Company and, of course, was towed off to that port. This is a sample of the dirty work that is practiced by the people of Townsend wherever they get a chance to give a blackeye to Port Angeles. They are getting fairly desperate in their insane jealousy of our city and resort to the most contemptible means to belittle its standing and besmirch it in the eyes of the world.

Her busy (?) citizens stand around on the corners of her streets and breath forth imprecations laden with venom and bad whiskey into the ears and nostrils of every stranger that they think is interested in Angeles. Even the steamboat company, whose owners live in Townsend, and which is growing rich off the Clallam county business, allows its officers to indulge in the most despicable lies to its passengers on their way to Angeles. The time is coming, however, when all this is going to be different and the people of this city can regard such methods with piteous contempt.

Several street fund warrants order[illegible] transferred to the general fund.

Report of the electric light manager for the month of April was read, showing receipts $169.10 and disbursements $163.15, leaving a balance on hand of $5.95.

Thomas Galeitch, road supervisor of road district No. 24, asked the privilege of renting a plow from the city, the matter was left to the discretion of the street commissioner.

The officers elected by the fire department were confirmed.

C. L. Brant was granted permission to erect a stand on the southeast corner of Front and Laurel streets to sell berries from June 10th to August 15, 1896.

Communication of Geo. T. Ulmer read and the council allowed him 1,000 feet of lumber to build a float at the end of Laurel street wharf.

The council adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening.

An Assured Fact.

The Gray's Harbor & Northern Railroad Company has been organized with H. C. Heermans, Geo. E. Emerson and C. A. Congdon as incorporators. The purpose is to build a line from Hoquaim to Aberdeen at once and eventually a line is to be built into the magnificent peninsula north of Gray's Harbor. The building of the line will open up rail facilities to the east for the Northwestern and the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, and largely increase the traffic on the Northern Pacific, as the latter firm has never done any shipping by rail. It will also give rail facilities to the J. M. Weatherwax Lumber Co. without teaming over the Wisktah.

The project necessitates the building of two bridges—over the Wasktah and the Hoquiam rivers. It has required unceasing effort and hard work to bring this about and secure the money for its construction and to Geo. E. Emerson is the credit due. The scheme becomes another important link in the progress of the Gray's Harbor country.—West Coast and Puget Sound Lumberman.

W. C. Williams and his wife, of Sequim, were assaulted last Tuesday by two Italians, who had done some work on the road under Williams direction. The road supervisor requested Mr. Williams to held out of their wages four dollars to pay their poll tax and it greatly angered them. They knocked Williams down with a club and also struck Mrs. Williams and would probably have killed Williams if help had not come just then. Sheriff Dyke is up there now after them.

What [illegible] nt Churches of the [illegible] re Doing.

FIRST CO[illegible]ONAL CHURCH, Corner First [illegible] Streets.—Rev. G. W. Nelson, Pastor.

Preaching every Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m., and [illegible] 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 o'clock or immediately after the morning [illegible], Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting or mid-week meeting on Thursday eve at 7:30.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society meets at 2:30 p. m. every Saturday.

Rev. G. W. Nelson preached a very interesting sermon both morning and evening last Sunday. The morning sermon was especially so, and was intended as much for the members of the church as for those who make no profession of religion.

Miss Fuller presided at the organ and proved herself to be an excellent organist.

The evening sermon from the text 'Why Stand Ye Here all the Day Idle," was also well rendered.

People give many excuses why they are not at the Lord's work, and in this sermon Mr. Nelson showed how weak and poor are the best of excuses.

Rev. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Smiley and Mr. Lawson went to Seattle on the Evangel Monday to attend the state association.

The state evangelist is to preach in the congregational church Sunday morning and evening and will doubtless conduct a series of evening meetings. We congratulate the members of the church in securing so interesting a speaker and we would say to all come early if you want seats as the house will doubtless be crowded.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH, First Street Between Vine and Peabody.—Rev. W. H. Wilson, Pastor.

Services every Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock; Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Epworth League services at 6:30 p. m.; evening preaching 7:30 p. m.; prayer meeting every Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Rev. F. O. Lamoreux, Pastor.

Sunday school 10 a. m. each Sunday. Preaching, 11 a. m., Young People's meeting 6:30 p. m., preaching, 7:30. p. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Seamen's Bethel.

A meeting was held at the city hall Monday evening to organize a Seaman's Bethel. There was quite a crowd out and much interest was manifested.

Prof. Tiffany presided and Miss Estelle Fletcher acted as secretary.

All the churches appointed delegates to attend the meeting.

Prof. Tiffany, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley represented the Episcopal church; Mr. Edwin Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haynes, the Congregational; Mr. and Mrs. Bekingren, the Baptist church, and Miss Nellie Hoare, the Lincoln Heights Methodist church.

The meeting was devoted to a general discussion as to the best methods to attain the desired end. It was thought best not to form a permanent organization until the next meeting, which will take place next Monday evening.

Dr. Stanley, Edwin Ware, Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Fletcher were appointed a committee to see what could be done in the way of securing a room, furniture etc., for use of Bethel and to report at the next meeting.

Boy Baptised.

Mrs. R. R. Harding, Mrs. J. D. White and her little boy Gerald, took lunch on board the British ship Arronmore Tuesday with Capt. and Mrs. Thompson. On returning to shore about 5 in the afternoon they had what might have proved a very serious accident.

Capt. Thompson, on disembarking at Morse's wharf, started up the steps with the boy in his arms. One of the boards in the stairs gave way and the captain fell backwards in the water, with the boy clinging to his neck.

There was some pretty lively hustling around there for a moment or two. The captain can't swim a lick, but managed to keep up till the sailors in the boat got hold of him. There was a pretty rough sea at the time, which made the task more difficult. Sam Morse also came to the rescue and both man and boy were soon out of the water.

It was the youngster's first baptism and he will not soon forget it.

If you write letters you should write them on good paper, which is just as cheap as poor paper, at J. C. Hansen's drug store.

[illegible] ed.

J. C. [illegible] of the Th[illegible]rst [illegible] Association has received [illegible] from Geo. P. E[illegible]ton. [illegible] tion. The [illegible]:

As a [illegible] received under another [illegible] pamphlets issued by or in [illegible] Clallam county immi[illegible]ation I understand that 20 000 of these pamphlets were issued [illegible], and that the Great N[illegible]ern railway company, recog[illegible] of the publication for general immigration purposes, has issued another edition of 50,000 for distribution through its agencies. The Clallam county immigration has also opened an office in St. Paul and is working day and night to show peole that they can better their condition by going to Washington. Already over 100 people have settled in Clallam county since the work began. If the different counties in the state will get out and hustle in that way the population of the state can be doubled in the next two years.

What We Inherit

We are not to blame for. We cannot be held responsible for the dispositions and tendencies which we derive from our ancestors, nor are we responsible for the germs of disease which may manifest themselves in our blood as a heritage from former generations. But we are responsible if we allow these germs to develop into serious diseases which will impair our usefulness and destroy our happiness. We are responsible if we transmit to our descendants the diseaae germs which it is possible for us to eradicate by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. This medicine has power to make rich, red blood and establish perfect health in place of disease.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

Gleanings From the Press of Western Clallam.

Clallam Bay Record.

Harvey Dunn is employed at Nakusp, B C.

Tom Welch arrived from Seattle Monday evening.

J. Merrick, of the Sekiou, left for Seattle, Wednesday.

J. L. Sweet returned from Ballard on Wednesday evening.

Walter Smith returned on Wednesday from Port Angeles.

David Eitersch was a visitor here from Quillayute several days this week.

N. T. Lanphere is engaged in clearing two lots on Frontier street for Henry Poole.

John Birmingham, James Masters and Heinrich Lehn made final proof of their claims, on Monday.

John and Dennis Kelly, late of this place, are now working at Michael Earls camp at Maple Valley.

Al. Fairservice and a gang of men with a camp outfit went down to the Hoko in a boat Tuesday, to get out boom sticks near the mouth of the river with which to raft a boom of logs to be taken out soon.

Several pre-emption settlers in 32-13 changed their claims into homesteads, here during the week. These were John H. Clarkson, Mrs. E. Camp, Miss Carrie Russ, George Lamb and William H. Rowan.

A report came in from Forks within the past few days that agents of a Gray's Harbor railroad company were out there making arrangements to buy claims. It is further reported that there is some excitement among the people there in consequence.

Mr. Kelly, of the Crawford Logging Company, was here Monday on his way to Seattle. The Crawford Company has nearly completed a substantial log boom at the mouth of the Hoko river.

Edward Hast made complaint to Justice Troll last week that his daughter Edith was incorrigible and that he had no control over her. There being no opposition the Justice sent the girl to Superior Judge McClinton, who will dispose of the case. Edith went up to Angeles on Monday evening accompanied by Mrs. C. Snyder and Constable Walter Smith, of Clallam.

A fleet of revenue cutters sailed out of Townsend harbor a few days ago for a summer cruise in Behring sea.

Beaver Leader:

Jake Lochbaum, of Forks, was in Beaver Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Eiholzer came in from East Clallam Tuesday.

F. W. David, of East Clallam, was transacting business in the valley last Saturday.

Miss Katie Simpson will leave today for Seattle to be absent two or three months.

Christopher A. Gorder and W. F. Hopkins were down from the upper Solduck one day this week.

Wm. Behner, of Forks, passed through Beaver Wednesday on his way to Gettysburg, where he goes to work in the logging camp.

The settlers of the Quillayute should not allow talk of a railroad from Gray's Harbor or Port Angeles to interfere with contributing to the Clallam Bay Quillayute subsidy. The Port Angeles railroad boomers would like to see this scheme fall through, and they will work against it—and work hard.

Over 1,000 acres were raised at Forks Saturday towards the railroad subsidy, making in all 10,000 contributed up to date. That is a good showing for only one week's work, and it is to be hoped the good work will proceed as fast as possible, for the sooner the required subsidy is raised the sooner the construction work will begin, which will give employment to many who now have to go up Sound looking for a job.

LAPUSH.

Tal-cus' little boy died last week after the Indian doctors had had him in tow for about a week. The ta-man-a-mus is enough to kill the devil. It is no wonder that the sick die. The Indians had a row over the child's death. They want the doctors put in the skookum house. Tal cus, the father of the boy, has gone to see the agent.

One Indian wanted to shoot one of the doctors.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pullen, Miss Mildred Pullen, Miss King and Mr. [illegible] attended the board of trade meeting at Forks last Saturday, and they reporta good time and that everybody were enthusiastic over the railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Balch, of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. John Hagadorn, of Quillayute, and others too numerous to mention helped to swell the ranks of the railroaders. Business is business and when the people turn out something will be done.

It is fine growing weather at Lapush. The cows are fatening up and giving lots of milk.

H. B. Smith, of Quillayute, has sheared a last year's lamb. The wool was from 10 to 12 inches long. The sheep got their own living most all winter and are in good order. People raising sheep can afford to wear flannel and have a good time occasionally. The people have a craze about spinning their own wool, and many are making their own wheels after the old fashioned flax wheels, and they are making a success of the business. A. W. Smith has built a loom and he has a nice piece of rag carpet in that he is weaving by the yard, but which will be worn by the foot. Make your own garments of wool or flax.

The great prize story, for which the Chicago Record paid $10,000, and publication of which will begin in that paper on Monday, March 23, will also be printed in the daily and weekly Tacoma Ledger. It is written by Harry Stillwell Edwards, of Macon, Ga., and is a story of the old and new south. It is a story of mystery. After all but the last chapter is printed a week will be allowed for readers to guess how the story will end, and the Ledger offers $100 in cash to the reader who shall accurately guess how it ends. If nobody makes an accurate guess the $100 will be divided among the six persons making the most accurate guesses. Here is a chance for everybody to make money easy by reading a mighty good story. The price of the Daily Ledger is 75 cents a month, and of the weekly $1 per year. The DEMOCRAT-LEADER and Weekly Ledger for only $2 per year.

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.)

First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by J. C. Hansen, druggist.

Call at B. C. Keller for your spraying liquid.
