Re: Kids Create Art at the Sequim Branch Library

Beginning Saturday, October 15, the popular Kids Create Art program series returns to the Sequim branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). These fun, introductory art classes will take place from 10:30am to noon every third Saturday of the month, October through May.

Led by local artists, each Kids Create Art session—recommended for ages 7 to 12—will offer participants an opportunity to explore various artistic media. All classes in the series are free, but with class sizes limited, preregistration is required. To register, visit the Sequim Branch Library events calendar at www.nols.org, call 360.683.1161, or send an email to youth@nols.org. All materials will be provided.

Fall Classes

In a collaboration with the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribal Library, the October 15 session will introduce Port Gamble S'Klallam graphic artist Jeffrey Veregge. The artist will share his portfolio, demonstrate illustration techniques, and lead participants in creating a comic book cover. There will be two sessions offered for this special program. The first session for children ages 7-12 will take place from 10:30am to 11:45am, and the second session for young adults ages 13-21 will be offered from 12:30pm to 1:45pm.

On November 19, returning artist Dani LaBlond will offer young artists an opportunity to create works in clay. Dani will discuss the technique and process of working with clay while participants shape and experiment, learning how to adapt and change along the way. A follow-up workshop on December 17 will focus on painting and decorating the clay creations.
