David Smith Dead.

David Smith, who passed through here last week on his way to a hospital at Seattle died shortly after reaching that city.

Following is an account of the sad end of "Dave," taken from the Post-Intelligencer, of last Saturday:

David T. Smith, son of the old gentleman who is known by hundreds of people in this city as "Salvation Army Smith," died yesterday afternoon at Edgewater, age 32 years.

Smith has been living for some time on a ranch in Clallam county. Day before yesterday he came to the city with his brother, and when near the Windsor restaurant, 109 Main street, was taken ill with pains in his stomach. The patrol wagon was called and he was taken to his home at Edgewater, where physicians attended him. So far as could be learned, the exact nature of the disease which caused his death is not known. From the time he was a mere lad he has been afflicted with chronic stomach trouble of some kind.

The dead man's father will be recalled as the old man who went around with the Salvation Army, carrying an umbrella and selling War Cries. The old man is highly respected both here and at his home in Clallam county.

For the Gold Fields.

Dan Campbell, Wm. Ritchie, Peter McGoff, Alex Watts, Wm. Fowler and David Dick started for Ozette Monday at noon. They made the trip overland by horses. It is their purpose to engage in washing gold from the beach sands along the coast in the neighborhood of Ozette.

Don't think that the Little Gem Laundry can't wash your flannels. If we don't satisfy you it won't cost you anything. We wash all family flannel work separately, and by hand, so that your underclothes are not mixed up with other clothes.

Don't forget the ball at the opera house the evening of the Fourth of July.

CLALLAM COUNTY BEATS 'EM ALL.

Mr. Thomas Maloy Starts East to Attend the Democratic National Convention—He Gets an Early Start and Spends the Time in Comparing Some of the Sections He Visits With Clallam County, to the Latter's Glorification.

SIDNAW, HOUGHTON CO., Mich., June 11th, 1896.

John W. Troy, Editor Democrat-Leader:

FRIEND TROY—I have seen much of the world, traveled "several" miles and met many people of all conditions and all political parties since I saw you last in Port Angeles.

I have met with many disappointments in a way also. First, I was disappointed in the Frazier river valley. I expected to see a broad rich valley, well dotted with highly cultivated farms. I had heard many Englishmen praise it for its fertility, for its vastness and for its apparent wealth. Well my experience from Mission eastward would lead me to believe that all of the great things said of it were purely imaginary.

The Dungeness valley has more to commend it than all of British Columbia and other western Dominions of Canada west of North Dakota, combined.

This may be drawing it quite strongly, but that is my judgment based upon what I saw of it. But for all that, one should never die until he has taken a trip over the Canadian Pacific railroad. For scenery, sharp curves, rugged gorges, large and substantial works of masonry and solid, massive bridges and a barreness that knows no end, it is grand beyond description.

But what a change is experienced upon reaching North Dakota! Farms, farms, farms without number and acres upon acres of wheat.

One can easily see that middle and eastern Dakota is a much better country than the western portion. The condition of buildings, fences, horses, cattle, wagons, carriages and the difference in the features and dispositions of the inhabitants clearly portray the difference in the condition of the crops of the different sections. But as bad as western Dakota is, it is much better than anything to be seen on the other side of the line, between the United States and British America. Irrigation will make crops just as certain in Western Dakota as they are in the eastern portion of the state, and with good crops will come happy homes.

My second disappointment was the upper peninsula of Michigan. I had expected to find it a wonderful country in many respects—in its timber, its manufacturing and its mining. But when I tell you that Clallam county is worth more in real wealth than the whole of the upper peninsula of Michigan put together, you will probably imagine that I am "gone" on Clallam county, but for all that it is a fact. If it were not for its mines of copper and iron it would be worse than a barren waste. Its timber never was good and what little there was is about exhausted.

It has no farming lands, and its mines do the country but little good. They are all in the hands of New York and other outside capitalists, and so close is their organization that not one ton of ore more than the great iron companies of Cleveland and Chicago will purchase, is mined. If miners ask for more pay or better hours, or make any demand that is likely to take a dollar out of the coffers of the iron companies, down close the mines until the kickers are frozen out. The result is that the miners who do remain are of a class that will put up with anything and accept anything that is offered. This is the rule. There is an exception in the Ishpeming district. There is located one company who is not in the combine, but works a large number of men year in and year out; regardless of its market price, and for a wonder, this company requires a certain standard of intelligence of its miners and pays them much better than the other companies, and as a result the miners here are well organized and are becoming good politicians. They control the board of supervisors now and expect to control all other county positions at the next election.

They are some times Democrats, some times Republicans, but all the time "Workingmen." They are solidly for silver and will vote with the party that declares for it in its national platform.

But the upper peninsula has one thing of which it is very proud, and a thing of which our country may be proud—the canal and locks built and operated free of charge by the United States' government at the "Soo."

This is one of the wonders of the world. I am told that the locks at the "Soo" have no equal in the world. They too, must be seen. Mere description conveys no adequate idea of their assistance to commerce.

The "Soo" canal is one of the busiest places on the earth. Upwards of one thousand vessels per month pass up and down through the canal and locks. They are operated by a corps of experienced men night and day, Sunday and week day, in short, every hour of the time between the opening and closing of navigation on the great lakes.

So great is the commerce of the lakes that at times fifty or more are tied to the locks waiting their "turn" to go through. A new lock, which more than doubles the capacity of the canal, is about completed. The present lock accommodates vessels drawing 14 feet and under 1, while the new lock, when completed will be able to pass vessels drawing 21 feet.

Every patriotic American should make it a point to visit these locks. He wonders sometimes where the millions appropriated by congress go, but he will not hesitate when he looks upon this gigantic masterpiece of engineering, to declare that "here are millions well expended."

The canal and locks have cost the people of the United States over seven millions of dollars, and every dollar—whether greenbacks, silver, gold or what not—was an "honest dollar" for it received an "honest dollar's" worth of labor in return. I am informed by reliable authority that no scandal has ever been connected with the construction of the "Soo" canal and locks.

Oh, yes, this is a presidential year. This country is for Protection with a big "P." It is pretty nearly unanimously Republican and except when they become "tired" of voting the Republican ticket.

I think this will be one of the years when they will show that "tired feeling" very emphatically. They want Pingree for governor and the "bosses" of the Republican party do not want Pingree. They want Bliss—"Saginaw Bliss"—who owns such a large slice of Clallam county's timber. He is one of the millionaires of this state and he wants to be governor and has set his millions at work to get the regular nomination.

He will likely get it for Pingree is too much like a free lance silver Democrat to suit the keepers of the Republican party of this state. Pingree is not a politician, but as a vote getter he has no equal in the United States. The regulars have "doomed him" several times in their conventions in Detroit so far as the "regular" nomination is concerned, but when the votes are counted Pingree is always ahead, having more votes than all other candidates combined.

The first thing the "regulars" do is to buy up the newspapers. But notwithstanding that all the papers in Detroit have been against him, yet the voters are with him. Pingree is for silver. There is a movement on foot now to nominate him by petition and thus defy the "regulars."

I think it will be brought about. The "silver" forces of all parties want him and strange to say he is satisfactory to the "gold" men in the Democratic party. The populists, silver leaguers and Democratic parties will indorse him and will elect. He is a terror on corporations. The railroads, all corporations, will put up millions to defeat him, but their millions will not counteract the silver wave that is now passing over this country.

Pingree will be elected and so will the silver electors who will cast their votes for the regular Democratic candidates who are sure to be for silver and satisfactory to the "silver" adherents of all parties. Yours,

THOS. MALONY.

PILOTS AT THE CAPE.

The Tugs Must Look "a Leetle Out" in the Future.

A GREAT SAVING TO SHIPPING.

Captain Tom Powers Has Inaugurated the Movement of Sending Pilots Out to Cape Flattery—Incoming Vessels Will Not Have to Pay Towage Exactions But Will Be Enabled to Come Into Port Under Sail—Many Ships Will Come to This Port.

The schooner Eacrett put in to this port last Saturday night. This is a simple, innocent looking statement, but it contains much of importance to Port Angeles.

For several years the tugs have had a complete monopoly in handling vessels entering the Straits. The present trip of the Eacrett promises a revolution of all this business. She carried out to Cape Flattery four pilots, who are going to buck the tug monopoly, and in so doing will perform a signal service to this port.

In the course of a year a great many ships and vessels pass up the Straits. A large number of this craft could sail right to this port were they well acquainted with the entrance to the Straits and its shore lines and harbors. This is particularly true of foreign vessels. The pilot business is expected to meet this demand.

It is quite often the case that a ship is compelled to tack and stand out to sea again for lack of a tug when they near Cape Flattery, and several fine ships have been lost during the past two or three years, whose captains took too great a risk in trying to sail up the Straits without a pilot abroad.

The most important feature of this new movement, however, is in the fact that almost without exception every ship from a foreign port has orders to call at Royal Roads, in British Columbia for orders. Most of these ships are chartered to carry back a cargo from some of the American ports of the Sound. Yet they must call at Royal Roads, for the foreign shipping men know nothing about Puget Sound. Port Angeles even to this day is marked on all their charts as an "Indian village" and they know nothing whatever as to our matchless harbor or our facilities for a port of call. All they know is that a ship can sail right into Royal Roads with the ever-prevailing southeast wind.

Right here is the point of our great advantage. A ship can easily sail into Royal Roads, but it is utterly impossible for her to get out and up to an American port without the aid of a tug boat. So while she may be able to reach there without great expense, it will cost her from $300 to $500 to reach her final port. There is no earthly reason why she should be compelled to call at an English port, pay the customs duties and tug-boat expenses, when, if her captain only knew it, she could come strait to this port and get her orders from here. But as we have said the English owners are ignorant of our harbor and telegraphic facilities and they keep sending their ships over to Royal Roads.

Captain Tom Powers does not believe this is right and he is going to see that it is changed. He has been thinking of the pilot business for some time and he is now putting it into execution.

He has chartered the Eacrett for the purpose and was on his first trip when he called here Saturday. There will be three or four pilots constantly on the schooner and they will be picked up at Neah Bay after they have brought ships inside. Capt. Powers is a staunch friend of Port Angeles and says he will see that all of the ships are left here for orders.

There is no compulsory pilot law, but many sea captains, both foreign and domestic, will be glad to know that they can get a pilot when they arrive off the cape, and every foreign ship captain will surely avail himself of the opportunity of saving considerable expense by coming direct to an American port where he can get his orders just as well as at Royal Roads.

APPARENTLY the people have no rights the repudiated school board is bound to respect.

THE Democratic party still has a Thurman, and he is a worthy successor of his father.

AS THE DEMOCRAT-LEADER predicted, Allen W. Thurman will lead the Democrats from Ohio to the state convention. Calvin S. Brice will stay at home.

THE Detroit Tribune, the leading Republican paper in Michigan, has bolted the Republican party and will support the Democratic nominees for President and Vice-President if they stand on a free silver platform.

ILLINOIS, Indiana, Ohio and Texas have this week held Democratic conventions and declared for silver. This gives the silver men a large majority of the convention, without waiting for the action of the balance of the state conventions. The vote in round numbers at the Chicago convention will be 350 for gold to 565 for silver.

THERE is an old saw which runs: "Actions speak louder than words." "The people be damned," was once remarked bp an American millionaire railroad manager, when the people's rights were being urged to him. Who will interpret the meaning of the action of Port Angeles' school board in employing teachers after the people had repudiated the board by 109 majority?

SOME McKINLEY EFFECTS.

The nomination of McKinley has not aroused the enthusiasm amongst Republicans that was promised by the outlook of three months ago. Republicans are not nearly so sure of success as they thought they would be. The ratification meetings have been few and without the enthusiastic confidence that presages certain victory. The outcome is predicted by many brilliant newspaper correspondents.

Henry George observes that this may be the last Republican convention.

John J. Ingalls says the result is uncertain. The money question he says is the issue, and the people are against gold monometalism.

Murat Halstead says that McKinley's state of Ohio is good fighting ground. He is a Republican and a McKinleyite, yet, as a newspaper man, he says what he believes to be true.

Alfred Henry Lewis, who is, perhaps, the shrewdest political writer in the country, writes to the New York Journal of the situation as follows:

"The thousands of Republican men, whether delegates or manipulators, neither look nor feel like winners.

"These people go about with a half-sullen, half-fearful air, and as ones on whom no hope shone of the future. I asked several—they were men high in party place and of upper convention councils.

"It is remarkable as a fact that not one, so far as my questioning goes, looks forward to electing McKinley. They would not be quoted for reasons plain to all. But on the gloomy side they did not hesitate in face of direct query to express a belief that McKinley could not succeed.

"This black and blue condition of Republican anticipation is all the more remarkable as being the growth of the last three months. Ninety days ago not one of these doubted the coming of sweeping victory in November.

As one digs for reasons of all this unhope, one finds that the main fears of these people base themselves on the sudden tide of free silver, which seems flowing in.

" 'It would not surprise me,' said one, 'if this silver lunacy carried away such states as Indiana and Illinois. The West and South, without dissent, appear to be going silverward. I see scant sunshine ahead for McKinley.'

"Aside from any deduction of disaster to McKinley from free silver and its forces, these statesmen believe the Democracy will win New York. They look to see it brought about as the composite effect of the Raines law, the Greater New York law, which latter is expected to turn many a Republican Brooklynite from the errors of his ways, the mal-results of a Puritan "reform" in New York City and last, but not least, of Platt."

This, taken with the bolt of the silver men, which is gaining in its proportions each day, and which will be augmented and crystalized by the adoption of a free silver platform at Chicago, point unerringly to a Democratic victory in November.

He is pretty nearly a safe prophet who predicts McKinley's overwhelming defeat in November.

BOIES FOR PRESIDENT.

Horace Boies, ex-Governor of Iowa, is to-day probably in the lead for the Democratic nomination for president. Mr. Boies is one of the best men in the United States and would make an ideal president. He is a farmer and in sympathy with the producing classes. Before becoming governor of Iowa, Mr. Boies was a distinguished lawyer and a political leader, but always refused to run for office. He was offered nomination after nomination, but always refused to serve except as a private in the ranks. As a lawyer he amassed a comfortable fortune and invested it in farming lands. After serving as governor for four years, being the only Democrat to carry Iowa since the war, he gave his attention to farming until the people needed his services in the fight for free silver. He carried his state Democracy for silver by a tremendous majority, though it was claimed as surely for gold.

The free silver men have unbounded confidence in Mr. Boies and, if he is nominated, he will receive the hearty and enthusiastic support of all the free silver forces and the election to the presidency.

REPUBLICAN ENDORSEMENT.

Chas. Foster, the Republican Secretary of the Treasury who inaugurated the treasury policy which, followed by Carlisle, lead to the issuing of bonds in times of peace, says that Cleveland will have to vote the Republican ticket.

Chas. H. Grovesner, McKinley's Congressional Manager, says of Cleveland's recent gold letter, "It is a patriotic proclamation, full of Republican sentiment."

Russell A. Alger, one time prominent Republican presidential timber, says Cleveland cannot longer act with the Democrats.

Mark A. Hanna, referring to this gold letter, says, "It is all right."

This all goes to demonstrate that the Republicans have endorsed the Cleveland idea. If the people want a change they must vote for the Chicago nominees. The only excuse that can be offered for voting for McKinley, is satisfaction with existing conditions.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican National convention has completed its work. The expected has happened. Hanna run the convention to suit himself. He captured the National committee, which seated nearly all the contestants who were supporters of McKinley. His convention ratified the action of his committee. He adopted a gold platform, and nominated McKinley on the first ballot. He refused to make any compromise at all. He then proceeded to take the vice-president. This office has heretofore been conceded to the faction which was opposed to the candidate for president. In 1880, Arthur, a Grant man, was placed on to satisfy Conkling. In 1884, Logan was given to the Conkling element. But Hanna took everything for McKinley, and elected himself chairman of the National committee. And so it went.

But, as was also expected, a large element of the silver men bolted the convention, and refuse to support McKinley. These have been adding to their strength as days go by, until this movement in the Republican party promises to develop a revolution in political parties.

All eyes are now turned to Chicago, as much depends on the result there. Even now active preparations are being made to unite all free silver men in all the parties to the support of the Chicago nominees.

The next president will be a free silver man.

REPUBLICAN DESERTION.

Some of the Republican papers were taking great pleasure two or three months ago in referring to the occasional desertions from the Democratic party to the Republican party. If the Republicans had any cause for self congratulation then, the shoe is certainly on the other foot now. Since the adoption of the Republican gold platform and the nomination of McKinley, the dissatisfied Republicans who have said that they will support a free silver Democrat if nominated, includes three state senators, the veteran G. V. Calhoun, a leading candidate for the nomination for governor against McGraw in 1892, Judge Turner, of Spokane, one of the first lawyers of Washinton, Judge Wickersham, ex-city attorney and prominent political of Tacoma, Chas. H. Ayer, chairman of the Republican county central committee of Thurston county, and a host of others. If the free silver men support the same ticket, this state will be rid of Republican rule for four years and the McKinley electors will be defeated by 10,000 majority.

PROSPEROUS MEXICO.

The P.-I. may howl about the evil effects to follow the adoption of free silver coinage as an American policy, but so long as its news columns contain such information as is given below, its vaporings will not keep the people from voting for free silver and their own interest. The following press dispatch is from Saturday's P.-I.:

City of Mexico, June 19—News of McKinley's nomination and the bolt of the silver delegates excited great interest. Public opinion here, while strongly for silver, is also apprehensive of the United States going on a silver basis, as that would insure ruin to Mexico's growing manufacturing industry. Mexico fears her present prosperity would be imperiled by the competition from the United States were it on a silver basis.

FOR SILVER FIRST.

Populists Declare Silver to be of Paramount Importance—Fusionist Victory

The Populists of Western Washington held a district convention at Tacoma Tuesday and elected nine delegates to the St. Louis national convention. The following were elected as delegates: Jas. A. Smith, Clark county; Richard Winsor and Samuel Star, King; A. P. Tugwell, Lewis; J. H. Todd, Mason; Jno. R. Rogers, Pierce; Frank Wilkeson, Skagit; Henry W. Boyer, Snohomish; H. L. Forrest, Thurston.

A lively debate was quite generally participated in over the platform, fusionists urged that the platform declare the money question one of paramount importance, while the "middle-of-the-road" Populists demanded that all the planks of the Omaha platform should stand together. Those favoring making a leading issue of silver, and thus called fusionists, were successful by a decisive vote.

It looks as though the Populists of Washington are not adverse to a union of all the silver forces in the country in the war against gold.

I can now place loans on well improved farms. Correspondence solicited

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constition and assisting nature in doing its work. STATE OF WASHINGTON.

Official Publication of Its Agricultural, Industrial and Commercial Statistics.

Through the courtesy of Hon. J. H. Price, secretary of state, we are in receipt of the book of statistics, just issued by his office and in his capacity as ex-officio commissioner of statistics.

The opening paragraph of the introductory of the book recites the authority and scope of the work. It is as follows:

"The Bureau of Statistics, Agriculture and Immigration respectfully submits its first annual report of information and data collected, as required by section 4, chapter 85, session laws of 1895, which provides that 'the commissioner of statistics is hereby directed to prepare for immediate publication, from the reports of the county assessors, chambers of commerce, boards of trade and other authentic sources, a comprehensive report, setting forth the geography, topography, climate, natural and artificial resources of Washington, etc.

The work has been well done. The book is an invaluable contribution to the immigration work and the up-building of our state. The statements will everywhere be accepted as absolute authority and it is only necessary for outsiders to credit a statement of facts respecting our country and we will have no want of new comers or capital flowing toward us.

The present volume does all this. It is gotten up in an attractive literary style and reflects great credit on the state department.

Any one can secure a copy by writing to Secretary Price, at Olympia.

A Little Fracas.

Yves M. Le Bitoux was before U. S. Commissioner Lutz Thursday on a charge of assaulting Capt. E. F. Bucklin, of the tug Boyden.

Le Bitoux had been employed on the tug as engineer and there had been considerable feeling between the two men for some time. The captain had requested the tug company to find him a new engineer and Le Bitoux learning the fact was not in a very good mood. Last week as they were pulling out from Townsend, the captain gave some orders to the engineer which enraged him. He picked up an ax and struck the captain on the head, inflicting a serious wound and also dug his fingernails into the captain's face.

The tug proceeded to Port Crescent and on reaching this port the captain had Le Bitoux arrested. He was committed to the U. S. circuit court by Commissioner Lutz and sent up to Seattle in charge of Deputy Marshal Curtis.

COAST GOLD.

Donald McInnes and William Carey Have Secured Good Claims.

Donald McInnes was on the streets yesterday. Donald was looking rather weather-beaten, but he was immensely happy notwithstanding. He stated that he had just got in from a long tramp. He and William Carey had been to the coast gold fields. They tramped the whole distance, going by way of the cape and returning through the Solduck valley.

Their shoes were worn through, their clothes were in tatters, their faces unshaven and they were worn down to a good fighting weight, but that was all forgotten when they told about their prospects.

Each of them secured a good mineral claim about four miles north of Lapush. They feel quite elated over their good success in this respect, as they say that the claims are pretty well all taken up. They feel that they have secured good claims. They will put up a Banta machine at once, and are boiling with enthusiasm as the future of this coast gold mining.

Mr. McInnis stated that the Fresno crowd at Ozette expected to clean up at least $300,000 out of the few claims they had secured at that point, with unlimited possibilities for greater riches. He will go back as soon as he gets his hay harvested and will then go into systematic mining operations.

At the Council.

The council met in regular session Wednesday evening.

Councilman Quinn stated that the old school board would see that the new school board fixed up sidewalks in front of school property.

Petition of James Fitzgerald for a license to sell liquor was read and granted and his bond accepted.

The people on Lincoln street were allowed $25 to repair the street from Tenth street to the Boulevard.

T. Mona was granted the privilege of moving his saloon to the corner of Oak and Front streets.

The clerk read an invitation to the council and citizens to participate in the Fourth of July festivities at Port Townsend.

The clerk was instructed to acknowledge receipt and to reciprocate with an invitation to come up here on that day and join the 5000 people from Victoria that would be here to help us to celebrate.

The bid of the DEMOCRAT-LEADER to do the city printing was read and accepted.

Capt. Thos. H. Bradley was appointed to assist City Attorney Marquardt in warrant and other cases.

Peter Chambers was allowed $5 to open alley from his residence lot to Peabody street.

The council then adjourned.

Culprit Sanborn.

Mr. Robert Sanborn gave a house warming last Saturday at his newly finished cottage on Lake Crescent.

There were about sixty called during the day, being from all parts of the county.

It was the day set for the trial of Mr. Sanborn on the charge of trying to steal one of Geo. Michel's Plymouth Rock hens, on a warrant sworn out by John Church and P. J. Williams, issued out of Capt. Dawson's court, countersigned by Clerk Cherry.

The case against Mr. Sanborn was somewhat weakened by the absence of the chief complainant, Mr. P. J. Williams and the main testimony for the plaintiffs was given by Mr. T. T. Aldwell, who was in company with the accused when the alleged attempt to steal the chicken was made.

Judge Dawson's decision was to the effect that not a particle of evidence was produced to sustain the charge and that the cost of the case be taxed against the chief complaining witness, T. T. Aldwell, in the amount of a keg of beer and a box of cigars to be delivered in Judge Dawson's court on the evening of the 3rd of July and that he be remanded to the care of Sheriff Dyke until such costs are so paid.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier and for dyspepsia with benefit. It has also cured my son of salt rheum. "Mrs. F. Zahn, 1910 Ide ave., Spokane, Wash. Hood's pills cure indigestion, billiousness, sick headache.

Until after the Fourth of July Mrs. Phelps will sell goods at greatly reduced prices.

Log Boom Lost.

The Thompson & Morse logging company had a stroke of bad luck. Last Sunday they decided to form a boom. The tug Boyden was ordered and arrived that day. They went to work and sent down the chute about 100,000 feet in logs into the Straits. About this time a strong westerly wind sprang up and in spite of their most strenuous efforts the whole boom was soon drifting and scattered along the shore toward Dungeness spit.

Mr. Thompson does not think they will lose the logs entirely. If good weather continues he will be able to recover most of them.

The company has about 120,000 feet still on the land, which will be boomed as soon as settled weather comes.

LAND CRUISE WARRANTS.

County Sued to Force a Settlement for Warrants Issued to Louis Williams.

The Bank of Shelton, through Hastings & Stedman, of Seattle, has commenced suit against Clallam county and A. B. Dorsey, its treasurer, to compel the payment of $314.00 warrants issued to Louis Williams in December, 1890. These warrants were issued in payment of Mr. Williams' salary for appraising school lands in Clallam county, and payment on them stopped by the county commissioners following Mr. Williams in office. The state allowed most of the claim and paid the money into the treasury therefore in 1893.

The county commissioners thereupon ordered that these waarants be paid upon the payment to the county of the difference between the amount allowed Mr. Williams by the county and the amount approved by the state and paid to the county. The other commissioners, Messrs. J. S. Maxfield and R. W. Travers, paid in the difference in their cases, but Mr. Williams did not do so, so Treasurer Clump refused to pay the warrants issued to Mr. Williams, which are now in the possession of the Bank of Shelton.

Treasurer Dorsey's defense will be that this money paid by the state for the redemption of those warrants never came into his possession.

Anders Nylund was at the Albany during the past week.

A. S. Crawford, of Everett, was a guest of the City Tuesday.

L. B. Hastings, of Townsend, was in Angeles over Thursday night.

Jos. Hottowe, of Crescent, was in town the forepart of the week.

Alex Henderson and wife, of Dungeness, were registered at the City Tuesday.

J. G. Rounds, of Des Moines, Ia., was a guest of the City hotel during this week.

Robert B. Elder, of Pennsylvania, arrived during the week. He is out to see the country and if it pleases him he will settle here.

If it required an annual outlay of $100 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by J. C. Hansen, Druggist.

Lake Fishing.

J. M. Jordan returned Saturday from a month's sojourn at Lake Crescent. He assisted Mr. Sanborn in building his new and commodious lake cottage.

He states the fish are now biting finely. The three largeet they landed weighed 11 ½, 8 ½ and 8 pounds. Mr. Sanborn caught a 4-pounder from his wharf with a rod and fly, and Mr. Jordan's little boy was greatly elated over a 3-pounder he caught. Mr. Jordan brought into town a fine large fish which will be sent by Mr. Carrigan to President Jordan, of the Leland Stanford University for classification. It has several features different from any fish yet caught in the lake.
