Subject: Seven-Year-Old Hannah Lowe Publishes Book About Public Library

Celebrate the work of a young local author at the Port Angeles Main Library! Tuesday, May 16 at 10:45am, seven-year-old author Hannah Lowe will sign copies of her self-published work, Jennifer, Jennifer, and Jennifer. A limited supply of books will be available for purchase, and additional copies are available on amazon, or for check-out from NOLS. The event will follow Kindergarten Express Storytime where the book will be highlighted. Preschool-age children will also have an opportunity to create their own book and receive information on how to self-publish. Light refreshments will be provided.

About the Book

Inspired by her regular visits to library storytimes with her family, homeschooler, Hannah Lowe, wrote, illustrated, and self-published a book about her experiences at the Port Angeles Main Library. The book, entitled Jennifer, Jennifer, and Jennifer after three real-life “Jennifers” who work in the Youth Services department, is based on a visit to the library when Hannah’s younger sister became upset, and how “the Jennifers” helped. After Hannah completed the book, her parents helped her publish it on Amazon, where it is currently available for purchase. Library patrons may also check out the book from the North Olympic Library System.

This local author event is made possible with the generous support of the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. For more information about this and other programs for youth, visit www.nols.org, contact Youth Services at 360.417.8500 x7705, or send an email to youth@nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles.
