Friday, August 23 at 6pm: Jenny Davis Quartet featuring Dmitri Matheny

Jenny Davis is a jazz vocalist, composer, arranger and international performing artist with a deep joy for music. Delivering powerful musicianship, lush vocals, and passionate honesty, Jenny Davis garners critical praise. "She is the kind of singer that gets deep into a song and makes you feel the lyrics." (Jazz Times).

A 25-year veteran of straight-ahead jazz she actively performs throughout the U.S., Europe, and Canada. Jenny will be joined by award-winning flugelhornist Dmitri Matheny, jazz pianist George Radebaugh and Seattle area bassist Ted Enderle. Dmitri Matheny has been called "one of the most emotionally expressive improvisers of his generation” (International Review of Music).

Friday, August 30 at 6pm: Ted Brancato

Jazz pianist Ted Brancato is a musician with four decades of experience in the music business. Since his early days, growing up in Seattle, Ted has been actively performing, composing, arranging and recording music. Ted has performed and recorded with Houston Person, Ron Carter, Christian McBride, Milt Jackson, Ernestine Anderson and Paquito D’Rivera among others.

“I am an unabashed fan of melody, as I think you’ll hear upon listening to any song on my albums. I also love music that moves you, either emotionally or physically, or ideally both. It is my hope that you will find songs here that move you.” (Ted Brancato)

This program is generously supported by the Friends of Sequim Library.
