Cotton-Rouse Fight Tonite

When Roger Rouse and Eddie Cotton battle in Seattle's vast Coliseum tonight, the man they both want a crack at—Jose Torres, the lightweight champion—probably will be there to watch them.
George Panassau, promoter of the Seattle fight, has extended Torres a personal invitation to attend the bout. Jose, unless he springs some legal ingenuity, will have to defend his title against the winner of the Cotton-Rouse battle.
Rouse is ranked the No. 1 contender for Torres' title. Cotton is No. 3, but might well have been top dog if he hadn't lost the 15th round, and with it the decision, to Torres in Las Vegas two months ago.
It has been the practice of the World Boxing Association to require a champion to defend his title at least twice a year. Torres eliminated one of the lower-ranked contenders when he knocked out Chic Calderwood in Puerto Rico. So now, as Panassau points out, Torres has no excuse for ducking a bout with the Seattle winner.
Torres, an unpredictable angler, might even wind up as the referee between Eddie and Roger. Both the Montana and Seattle warriors have said it is O.K. with them is Jose officiates.

Summerrun Catch Soars

The 1965 catch of summer-run steelhead in Washington State rose to 62,375, as compared to 35,250 taken in 1964, announced Game Department Statistician A. O. Nelson.
Nelson attributes the increase to improved supply of fish brought about by expanding Department summer steelhead programs and more angler interest in summer steelhead fishing.
Figures come from the now completed analysis of 1965 steelhead catch as computed from Fishing Permit cards submitted by the anglers themselves.
Total steelhead harvest in 1965 was 236,250—a slight decrease from the 1964 catch of 240,900. The 1964-65 winter season catch also showed a decline from the very high take of the previous winter season.
The Skagit reported as the number one river for winter steelhead anglers in terms of number of fish caught. Others of the top five were the Green, Cowlitz, Pruyallup and Skykomish. Tops in the summer run take were the Columbia and Snake rivers.

With the passage of Initiative 233 TWO MEN will ride in the cab of Washington's freight trains. These two men are the engineer and brakeman.
Two men have operated passenger train locomotives through the entire history of railroading. National statistics prove that per-mile passenger travel by rail is thirty-four times safer than by automobile.

Two men in the cab safely operate freight trains in forty-three states throughout the nation. On January 1, 1967, Oregon's repealed train crew law will leave Washington as the only state in the West requiring a third man (fireman) in the cab of freight trains.
National statistics filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission on the record of all train accidents, injuries and fatalities for the years 1964-65 prove:
1. States not requiring extra crew men have fewer accidents, injuries and fatalities on the average than those states requiring extra crew men.
2. Injuries and fatalities decreased in states not requiring extra crew men and increased in those states requiring extra crew men.
Repeal of the train crew law is consistent with the railroads traditional policy of "Safety First." Safety is assured with passage of Initiative 233.

Blowouts At High Speeds Continue Gain

You ever given some thought as to what you would do if your car had a blowout while traveling at freeway speeds? Also, how would you cope—a rear tire or a front tire blowout? These questions should be of deep concern to all drivers. For to have a blowout—especially at today's high speeds—poses a potentially dangerous situation even to the so-called expert driver.

State Troopers, whose job it is to know these things, have found the answers to these and other questions to all drivers. For to have a blowout now is in good condition at all times; although all tires should be maintained in such condition. A front tire blowout can be dangerous, of course; but the most trouble is caused by the rear tire blowing out. When a rear tire goes down, it becomes a matter of strength—that of holding the car in a straight line. With power steering, this does not present such a problem as it once did. The Troopers point out that the proper way to handle a car if a rear tire goes down, is to first let the engine resistance slow down; then, while all lines should be held taut, the steering wheel to be turned in the direction of the blow. A slow and gradual steering with the brake being used sparingly, will usually get the car stopped safely.

Although the highway accident toll is still a disaster, wouldn't have much of an argument for safe driving without it.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 22 PART 1

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Ballot Title as Issued by the Attorney General:

ESTABLISHING COMMON SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION FUND

Shall Article IX, section 3, of the state constitution be amended to establish a common school construction fund to be used to finance common school construction, with funds to be derived from (1) certain proceeds from timber and other crops from school and state lands, (2) certain interest, rentals and revenues from the permanent common school fund and from lands devoted to the permanent common school fund, and (3) such other sources as the legislature may provide?

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 45; No, 5; Absent or not voting, 2.
HOUSE: (99 members) Yes, 84; No, 8; Absent or not voting, 7.

Exploratory comment issued by the Attorney General as required by law

The Law as it now exists:

Under the state constitution as adopted in 1889 there exists a fund known as the common school fund. The primary sources of this fund include money obtained (1) from the sale of lands and other property granted by the federal government to the state for the support of its common schools, and (2) from the sale of timber, stone, minerals or other property from school and state lands which have not been granted to the state for some specific purpose.

The present constitutional provision declares that the principal of the fund shall remain permanent and irrevocable. It permits interest accrued to the fund, as well as rental or other revenues derived from lands or other property devoted to the fund, to be used for current support of the common schools. However, neither the principal of this fund nor any of its income can presently be used to construct school buildings or other school facilities.

Effect of Senate Joint Resolution No. 22—Part 1—if approved into law:

If this constitutional amendment is approved, the principal of the common school fund as the same existed on June 30, 1965, will remain permanent and irrevocable. The fund will continue to receive money from all of its former sources except certain of them which will become sources of a new fund. This new fund will be known as the common school construction fund and will be available to be used for financing the construction of common school facilities.

The sources of this new fund will be (1) the interest accruing on the permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967; (2) all rentals and other revenues obtained from and after July 1, 1967, from lands and other property presently devoted to the permanent common school fund; (3) certain proceeds from the sale or appropriation of timber and other crops from school and state lands subsequent to June 30, 1965; and (4) such other sources as the legislature may direct.

The proposed amendment further provides that the first of these four sources, the interest accruing on the permanent common school fund after July 1, 1967, may be used only to pay off such bond issues as may be authorized by the legislature for construction of common schools. The remainder of the new common school construction fund may be used for direct financing of common schools.

Leastly, who amendment provides that in the event there should be money in the common school construction fund in excess of amounts needed to fulfill its purposes, they shall be available for deposit in the permanent common school fund or for current use of the common schools as the legislature may direct.

COLDS...

This is the season of the year when the American Medical Association reminds one again that you can't cure a cold. And if anyone tries to sell you the latest version of a so-called "cold cure" you can save your money.

Many of the classic diseases of adults. There still is much discussion among experts as to the relationship of becoming chilled or exposure to dampness to "catching" a cold.

What can you do for a cold? No specific treatment, so far as available, is effective against the cold virus. Any treatment is directed toward relief of the discomforts produced by the virus, such as sneezing, watery eyes, sore throat, slight fever and the other symptoms of the cold. Penicillin has no effect on colds.

If a cold persists or seems unresolvable by your physician for usually seven days, see your doctor. Cold secondary bacterial infections, such as pneumonia and the early rest, or at least inactivity, is helpful. Your physician may suggest mild medication to help relieve the discomforts that require medical attention.

Cold vaccines have yet to be proved of much value. There is no evidence that any particular foods, vitamins, supplements, special liquids, or other substances are of any benefit.

Victims of Consumer Fraud

The nation's low income groups are the prime victims of consumer fraud, Senator Warren O. Magnuson, D. Wash., asserted today.

Recent Congressional enactment of programs designed to eradicate the causes and conditions of poverty are frequently frustrated by unscrupulous operators who engage in unethical and deceptive trade practices directed primarily at the poor.

Magnuson's comments came upon receipt of a Federal Trade Commission survey of consumer fraud in Washington, D. C. This study was initiated in response to a suggestion by Senator Magnuson that the FTC establish a model program in the District of Columbia designed to identify those types of consumer fraud commonly perpetrated against the poor.

Implementing Magnuson's suggestion, the FTC established a local office to receive complaints from consumers either by telephone or in person. To date 500 complaints have been received by this office.

Unfair practices which have been reported include deceptive pricing, referral selling, bait and switch, and misrepresentation of price and terms of payment. Several formal FTC complaints have been issued as a result of this investigation.

In addition to receiving complaints from affected consumers, the FTC is monitoring local advertising and interviewing some businesses which file a large number of complaints.

Senator Magnuson, Chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, praised the imaginative work being done by the FTC. He said, "The knowledge gained from this study will assist Federal and state enforcement in combating the evils of consumer fraud throughout the United States."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 25

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Ballot Title as Issued by the Attorney General:

PORT ENTRENCHMENTS—INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT—PROMOTION

Shall Article VIII of the state constitution be amended to declare that the use of public funds by port districts, in such manner as may be prescribed by the legislature, for industrial development or trade promotion and promotional hosting shall be deemed a public use for a public purpose and shall not be deemed an unconstitutional gift of public funds?

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 42; No, 6; Absent or not voting, 1.
HOUSE: (99 members) Yes, 89; No, 5; Absent or not voting, 5.

Exploratory comment issued by the Attorney General as required by law

The Law as it now exists:

Present state constitutional provisions prohibit the expenditure of public money for promotional purposes. In a recent decision the supreme court ruled that port districts could not receive public money for the purpose of acquiring and developing industrial plants or other facilities in their respective port districts. In its decision the court stated that industrial development is not a public purpose.

Other state constitutional provisions prohibit the state and its political subdivisions from making gifts of public money or property to private individuals. The state supreme court has recently interpreted these provisions to mean that port districts in our state cannot expend public funds for a certain type of promotional or advertising activity known as promotional hosting.

Promotional hosting is the practice of offering individuals or groups of individuals a lunch or dinner for the purpose of cultivating trade relations and promoting business for the port.

Effect of Senate Joint Resolution No. 25 if approved into law:

The proposed constitutional amendment would permit port districts to use public funds, in such manner as the legislature may specify, for both industrial development and trade promotion and promotional hosting.

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 45; No, 5; Absent or not voting, 2.

This new fund will be known as the common school construction fund and will be available to be used for financing the construction of common school facilities.

The sources of this new fund will be (1) the interest accruing on the permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967; (2) all rentals and other revenues obtained from and after July 1, 1967, from lands and other property presently devoted to the permanent common school fund; (3) certain proceeds from the sale or appropriation of timber and other crops from school and state lands subsequent to June 30, 1965; and (4) such other sources as the legislature may direct.

The proposed amendment further provides that the first of these four sources, the interest accruing on the permanent common school fund after July 1, 1967, may be used only to pay off such bond issues as may be authorized by the legislature for construction of common schools. The remainder of the new common school construction fund may be used for direct financing of common schools.

Effect of Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4 if approved into law:

The proposed amendment would allow those persons who meet all the above qualifications for voting except for residence and who shall have resided in this state at least sixty days immediately preceding a presidential election or the date of making this state their permanent residence, to vote in such election for presidential electors or for United States, as the case may be, but for no others.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 20

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Ballot Title as Issued by the Attorney General:

REMOVING LIMITATION ON LAND OWNERSHIP

Shall the limitation on the ownership of land in the State of Washington by certain noncitizens be removed by repealing section 35, Article II, as amended by Amendments 24 and 29 of the state constitution?

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 42; No, 1; Absent or not voting, 6.
HOUSE: (99 members) Yes, 94; No, 4; Absent or not voting, 3.

Exploratory comment issued by the Attorney General as required by law

The Law as it now exists:

There remains in our state constitution a limitation on landownership by certain noncitizens who have not made a declaration of intention to become citizens of the United States. However, the constitution presently permits some noncitizens (including noncitizens) to own land.

(1) If acquired by inheritance, mortgage foreclosure, or in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts;

(2) If acquired by a corporation;

(3) If the land contains certain mineral deposits, is necessary for mills and machinery to be used in developing those minerals and in manufacturing products from such minerals;

(4) If the landowners are Canadian citizens of provinces which do not prohibit the ownership of provincial lands by citizens of Washington.

Effect of Senate Joint Resolution No. 20 if approved into law:

The passage of the proposed amendment would remove the existing limitation on landownership by noncitizens.

Out-of-State License?

If you have an out-of-state license on your automobile and are driving on Washington's streets and highways, the chances are good that you may be stopped by a State Trooper or other law enforcement officer. That is, unless you are a visitor to this state.

Now that the summer tourist season is over, Troopers are again starting to be more alert for those drivers who are driving on out-of-state licenses. During the summer months it was not practical for the Troopers to attempt to rigidly enforce the license laws because of the number of tourists visiting this state.

For the benefit of those people who have recently moved to the state of Washington, the law requires that you purchase a Washington license and Driver's License if you are a resident of this state. If you are gainfully employed

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Ballot Title as Issued by the Attorney General:

INVESTMENT OF PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND

Shall Article XVI, section 5, (Amendment 1) of the state constitution, restricting investment of the state's permanent school fund to national, state, county, municipal or school district bonds, be amended by removing this restriction and thereby permitting the permanent school fund to be invested in such manner as may be authorized by act of the legislature?

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 44; No, 1; Absent or not voting, 4.
HOUSE: (99 members) Yes, 84; No, 8; Absent or not voting, 4.

Exploratory comment issued by the Attorney General as required by law

The Law as it now exists:

Article XVI, section 5 (Amendment 1) of the state constitution presently restricts the state in investing money in the state permanent school fund (derived from the proceeds of issues or sales of lands granted to the state by the federal government at the time of statehood for the support of public educational institutions) to investments in national, state, county, municipal or school district general obligation bonds.

This proposed constitutional amendment would eliminate this restriction. Additionally, it would expressly permit the permanent common school fund to be invested in such manner as may be authorized by act of the legislature.

Effect of Senate Joint Resolution No. 22—Part 2—if approved into law:

The proposed constitutional amendment would eliminate this restriction. Additionally, it would expressly permit the permanent common school fund to be invested in such manner as may be authorized by act of the legislature.

Wear Your Seat Belts...

Recently an accident occurred in which two teenage girls received serious injuries. In fact, each now in body casts and will remain so for several months. This fact in itself is not so startling, because many others have suffered an equal or worse fate due to having been involved in automobile accidents.

There is, however, another aspect to this story—the most important part. The two girls were not wearing seat belts at the time of the crash, even though the auto was equipped with them. If they had

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 39

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Ballot Title as Issued by the Attorney General:

PUBLICATION LAWS AUTHORIZING STATE DEBT

Shall Article VIII, section 2 of the state constitution, requiring the publication, in a newspaper in each county for three months prior to the election, of the text of any law to be voted upon by the people, be amended so as to require only that notice of the law be published at least four times during the four weeks preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state?

Vote cast by members of the 1965 Legislature on final passage:
SENATE: (99 members) Yes, 82; No, 9; Absent or not voting, 4.
HOUSE: (99 members) Yes, 85; No, 11; Absent or not voting, 4.

Exploratory comment issued by the Attorney General as required by law

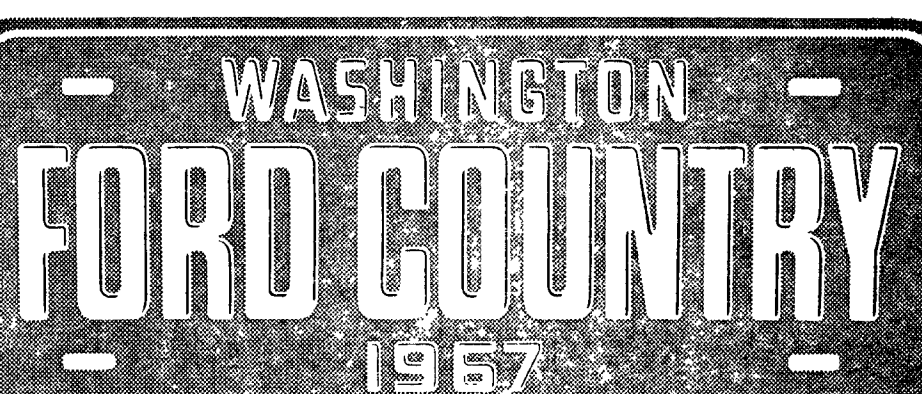

The Law as it now exists:

Article VIII, section 2 of the state constitution presently requires the full text of any law to be voted upon by the people to be published in at least one newspaper in each county where a newspaper is published for three months immediately prior to the election at which the law is to be voted upon.

This proposal would substitute for the above publication procedure a requirement that notice of submission to the people of a law authorizing the contracting of state debts be published in every legal newspaper in the state at least four times during the four weeks immediately preceding the election at which the law is to be voted upon.

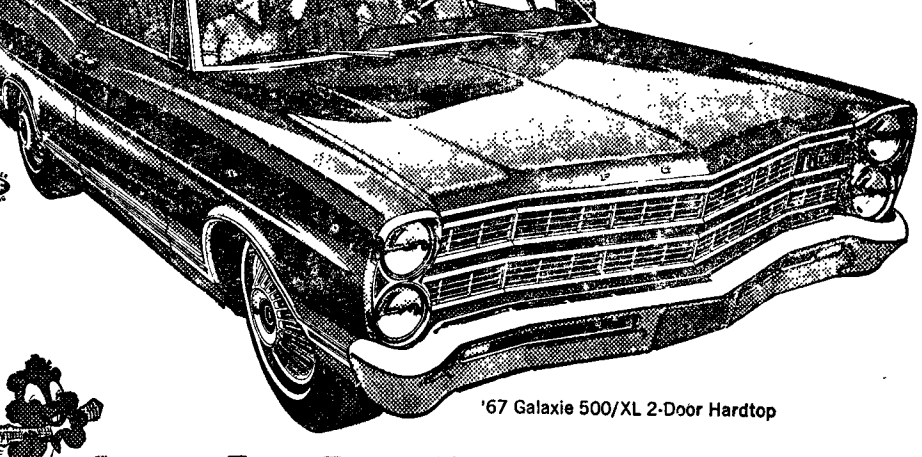

Effect of House Joint Resolution No. 39 if approved into law:

This proposal would substitute for the above publication procedure a requirement that notice of submission to the people of a law authorizing the contracting of state debts be published in every legal newspaper in the state at least four times during the four weeks immediately preceding the election at which the law is to be voted upon.
