RETURNS FROM PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES ARE TRICKLING IN

HARDING RECEIVES OHIO'S SUPPORT FOR PRESIDENCY

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, O., April 29. — Although Senator Harding, Ohio's "favorite son" received the presidential preference endorsement at the hands of the Republican voters Tuesday, his campaign manager, Harry Daugherty, apparently has been defeated for delegate-at-large to the party's national convention at Chicago by Wm. H. Boyd, a Wood candidate.

Indications early today were that at least thirty-nine and probably forty-two of the forty-eight delegates to the Republican National Convention will be pledged to Senator Harding, while the remainder will be pledged to General Leonard Wood.

RECOUNT LIKELY.

NEW YORK, April 29.—If General Wood is leading Senator Johnson by a few votes in New Jersey, Johnson's managers announced today a re-count would be asked in Essex, Morris, Gloucester and Camden counties.

WOOD'S LEAD 590.

NEWARK, N. J., April 29.—Returns today at four o'clock with forty-four districts missing, showed General Leonard Wood leading with 590 over Senator Johnson in the New Jersey preference presidential primaries. The votes were Wood 51,809; Johnson, 51,219.

STEAMSHIP FREIGHT RATES WILL SLUMP.

(By Associated Press)

LIVERPOOL, April 29.—Speaking today at the annual meeting of the Cunard steamship company, Sir Alfred A. Booth, chairman of the company said it was quite prepared for a slump in freight rates and that the sooner the storm was over the better.

Sir Alfred added that he hoped the slump would result in a definite break in the "vicious circle of rising wages and rising prices."

MODERN BLUEBEARD'S WORK IS UNCOVERED.

(By Associated Press)

CAIRO, Egypt, April 29.—The work of a modern Bluebeard has been discovered at Tanta, 54 miles northwest of Cairo, noted for its Mohammedan festivals and fairs. Women enticed into a certain house on the pretext of meeting a wealthy admirer have been robbed of their jewels and then murdered. Their bodies were burned, except heads, 20 of which were found.

OUR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

OUR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

THE BANK OF CLALLAM COUNTY has reached its twenty-fifth milestone, having safely passed through war periods, booms and panics during the past quarter of a century and at the same time assisting its customers and many new enterprises besides assisting the government with bond subscriptions during the Spanish War in 1898 and the war with Germany in 1917 and 1918.

THE BANK OF CLALLAM COUNTY always appreciated the patronage it received and at the same time extended every courtesy possible to all other new financial institutions that entered its field, believing it only added to the growth and development of the city and the community.

Our deposits have grown from a few thousand for the first few years to over a million dollars in April, 1920.

We Thank You.

D'ANNUNZIO IS GENEROUS IN CAUSE-MAKING

(By Associated Press)

FIUME, April 28.—Gabriele d'Annunzio's foreign office gave the Associated Press today the text of a message to be dropped from airplanes on the next council of premiers.

d'Annunzio planned to shower the San Remo conference but did not start soon enough. The message reads:

"The league of Fiume, a coalition of peoples oppressed and wronged by Anglo-Saxon hegemony; by the pseudo—league of nations and by the peace conference, has been constituted.

"Gabriele d'Annunzio, defender of Italy's eastward march, is its chief. He has already the adherence of Ireland, Egypt, India, Persia, Afghanistan, the whole of Islam and the oppressed peoples of the imperialistic Belgrade government, including the Croats, the Montenegrins, Albanians, Bulgarians, and Macedonians. In contrast to the pseudo—league of nations, it will cause the rights of nationalities to prevail.

"The peoples enslaved by the British Empire and by the United States must be delivered. The Germans made subject by hateful governments thirsty for revenge must be restored to their country. The monstrous edifice built by the international bank over the bodies of ten million dead must be destroyed.

McBRIDE LEADS FOR COMMITTEEMAN

(By Associated Press)

JUNEAU, Alaska, April 29.—John C. McBride, Juneau, was leading Charles Harron, Anchorage by 659 votes late yesterday in the race for republican national committeeman, on the face of incomplete returns from yesterday's primaries in Alaska. George C. Hazelet, Cordova, and T. M. Reed, Nome, topped the list for delegates to the republican national convention, and Dan Sutherland appeared to have secured the republican nomination for delegate to Congress. John Rustgard, republican candidate for attorney general, had apparently been nominated by a large plurality.

Lack of contest resulted in a small democratic vote being cast. George B. Grigsby, for delegate in Congress; J. C. Murphy, for attorney general, and Thomas J. Donahue, for national committeemen, were renominated without opposition. Governor Thomas J. Riggs, Jr., will head an uninstructed delegation of six to the democratic national convention.

Partial returns from the first and third divisions, which include the cities of Juneau, Cordova, Valdez and Anchorage, late yesterday gave the following results:

For republican national committeeman: McBride, 1,523; Harron, 864; Jack Chovin, Anchorage, 181.

For delegates to the republican national convention, (two to be elected) Hazelet, 1,422; Reed, 1,214; Emory Valanting, Juneau, 1,080.

One hundred eight-one republican votes were cast at Nome, (second division) but no figures on candidates had been received. The votes in the fourth division, (Fairbanks) was light with figures not yet available.

ENORMOUS PROFITS OF WOOLEN CO. "EXPLAINED."

BOSTON, Ajril 29.—William M. Wood president of the American Woolen company has issued a statement in explanation of the company's annual financial statement which was made public yesterday and showed a net profit for 1919 of $15,513,415, less reserves for taxes and contingencies.

"The profit of this company on cloth that goes into an average suit of clothes selling at retail from $60 to $65 does not exceed $1.50 per suit," he said.

EDUCATORS ASK CABINET OFFICIAL

(By Associated Press)

SPOKANE, April 29.—One thousand prominent educators from various parts of the United States will attend the Republican and Democrat National Convention this summer to present a demand that a plank for a national department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet, be included in their respective platforms, it was announced today by Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, state superintendent of public instruction of Washington, and president of the national educational association.

Mrs. Preston declared the proposed movement while it has the support of people prominent in the educational affairs of the nation, is entirely separate from the national Educational Association.

SCHOLARS ARE TOLD OF THE SOUTH SEAS

The four classes of the Seventh and Eighth grades in Old Central School enjoyed a treat yesterday afternoon when Rev. R. M. Stevenson, missionary from the South Sea Islands told them of his life and adventures in this far off clime.

Rev. Stevenson's talk included a journey through Polynesia, stopping at various groups of islands to describe the people and their strange customs, also of the bewitching beauty of the coral atolls, clear lagoons and mountain peaks, of the bread fruit and cocoanuts and many other strange plants and animals.

The journey then led us to the ishands of Malaysia where we learned of the natives of New Zealand, the wonderful pearl fisheries, rubber forests, and natives of New Guinea.

The eager faces at the close of the two hours' talk and the hearty applause at the suggestion of a future talk on South America gave ample proof of the appreciation of Mr. Stevenson's splendid talk.

GERMAN PROPERTY OWNERS GIVEN A CHANCE IN B. C.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 29.—German holders of Vancouver property will be given a fair chance to avoid foreclosure and the right to redeem, according to a ruling made here today in supreme court by Mr. Justice MacDonald. Before the war Countess Mira Dornhoff, Countess Elsa Dornhoff and Count Regislaw Dornhoff of Berlin, Germany, purchased an apartment house in this city for $90,000 paying $36,000 cash and assumed a mortgage. The amount remaining unpaid is $22,000 and today a local firm asked for foreclosure. The defendants through the British charge d'affaires in Berlin have cabled asking for delay to enable a defense to be entered and this, the judge was inclined to grant.

Band Will Open Up Clam Bake At 7 P. M.

In anticipation of a crowd of four or five hundred people at the outdoor clambake to be held under the auspices of the "Dirty Dozen" at Ninth and Oak Streets this evening, clam diggers have been busy across the bay today securing a supply for the occasion and to make sure of a sufficiency several sacks were received by the committee on the noon train from Washington Harbor.

In addition to steamed clams, coffee and sandwiches will be served. If parties wish to make more of a picnic of the occasion there are planks on the lots, from which seats and tables may be improvised and lunch baskets may be brought to help out the feast.

Cups, spoons, etc., must be brought, as the committee will have no tools on the ground.

The band will strike up at seven o'clock sharp and things will move lively from then on, so that people having other evening engagements may get away early. Every resident of Cherry Hill is expected to attend.

ANGELES MERCHANTS PLAN BIG EXCURSION TO SEQUIM FESTIVAL

After considerable debate pro and con the merchants bureau of the Commercial Club decided late this afternoon to close their places of business all day tomorrow in honor of the May Day celebration at Sequim, and it is announced that no stores, with the exception of the druggists, will be opened either morning or afternoon. The closing will permit the merchants to attend the celebration in a body and the party will leave town at 1:30.

The merchants, in making the announcement, expressed regret that they had been unable to reach a decision earlier and so give longer notice to the public. The decision really was reached on receipt of a last minute message from Sequim urging this action.

Tomorrow will be the chief day of the celebration for which an excellent indoor and outdoor program has been prepared. May pole dances and various carnival features will be provided on the grounds and smokers and dances in the pavilion. Saturday will be Children's Day and the Elks plan to attend in force to help the children play.

The banks announced half an hour later, that they had decided to follow the example of the merchants and would be close dall day tomorrow.

THE PARK IMPROVEMENT.

The city council is to be congratulated upon its decision to make a definite move towards improving and utilizing the city park. The council is ready to appropriate $1,000 to begin clearing, or whatever work is first needed in order to facilitate the establishment on the grounds of the county fair buildings, for which some county funds will be available. With this beginning it is possible to get park improvement well under way by next fall. The city park is capable of development into a recreational asset worth untold gold to this community. There is room on this tract of city property for the aviation field, which certainly will be required before very long, for the county fair grounds, for golf links, for baseball park and also for general park purposes. The land is susceptible of development into a very picturesque park, and the improvements can be made gradually and in accordance with financial ability of the city. Probably this development can be greatly speeded up by cooperation with the associations engaged in promoting the various recreations for which the land is suited. Park development should be taken in hand firmly and encouraged by all public-spirited citizens.

HOOVER ON THE CAMPAIGN ISSUES.

Replying to a query of the New York Tribune as to what he considered the most important issues of the presidential campaign, Herbert Hoover points out that many of the planks in the party platform will be identical and that the people will demand something more than mere declarations for this, and against that, which promise no solution of the problems they enumerate Mr. Hoover says that the Republican platform in order to satisfy the electorate must be definite and specific in relation to the principle causes of unrest and dissatisfaction which have become so widesrpead, and adds that the "solution of the problem of profiteering must be economic, and that the "attorney general's policemen" cannot overtake an economic force.

Mr. Hoover also goes further and indicates that the party, to win support outside of its avowed following must give evidence of conscientious and patriotic effort to meet the requirements of an "indefinitely deeper movement of the waters" than that to be stirred by even a specifically developed solution of the common problems. Mr. Hoover does not make very clear just what he recognizes in this movement but he refers probably to a new moral conception of government and its responsibilities, which is reaching out towards a higher plane than that heretofore occupied by the paraphernalia of party politics, the old time stage effects, the platitudes of office-seeking politicians and the effort to create enthusiasm by appeals to the lower instincts of selfishness and fear.

The Republican party needs a leader with a real message which will appeal to the hearts as well as the pocketbooks of the people.

ESTABLISHED 1895.

"Yolande"

by Marion Brunot

THE NECKTIE LUNCHEON.

My old love of Emmy returning, though, I added. "You'll like her better on Firday. She'll be the chumiest and simplest thing imaginable."

This was when Lowell and I were on the drive and he had just admitted that he hadn't liked "Lady Nash" at close range as well as upon the stage.

"She was that on Sunday," he responded. "But her trouble is she mixes her chumminess with a certain subtle Mona Lisa air which spells danger for any man."

"I wanted you and Emmy to be inseparable," I said, disappointed.

"We may be—who can say," he answered, and the conversation drifted into other channels, Lowell directing it.

Friday, at the Ritz, Emmy and I met in the dressing room. It was a little early, and she smoked a cigarette. Again she was gowned beautifully. Her dress bordered on the purple and was startingly contrasted with yellow and blue

"You are most astounding every time my hungry eyes fall upon you," I admired.

"And how about yourself—you little minx?" she laughed. "You're as busy as a nailer and doing more art than almost anybody around here; yet you act as if you were a nobody. Such modesty isn't becoming to the present century."

She gave herself but one fleeting glance before leaving the dressing room to join Lowell.

"Don't you ever primp?" I asked.

"Only while making my toilet," she said. "I never touch myself afterwards—I spend so much time doing it that it's enough of my day gone."

How like Emmy—practical and yet artistic she is, in a perfect blend.

Lowell awaited us before the door of the dining room and we proceeded to a table exquisitely laid out for us in the far end of the huge room. All eyes were upon us, and well I knew it was Emmy at whom the people were looking. New York is always hungry for the sight of a new flame and Emmy's light was still soaring high in its fresh glory. Lowell enjoyed our prominence. I was the gooseberry—that was plain from the first.

Our host had corsage bouquets for each of us, mine pink rosebuds tied with pale yellow maline, and Emmy's orchids and pink narcissus tied with gold. The lunch had been ordered in advance and was wonderful, as is everything in which Lowell manages to put a real effort.

"I've never tasted better food." Emmy said, as we reached the salad course. "I fairly could love a man who can think of such viands," and she gave Lowell a very sweet glance

Now something happened right here that I never before witnessed. Lowell blushed. Moreover, he didn't answer. This was also a new departure, for always has he had the most ready masculine tongue I've ever known.

Again I felt that peculiar sense of loss I had experienced the Sunday night before, when I had caught Lowell watching Emmy so furtively when he was at our piano.

This made me say: "Lowell, what was that music you gave us Sunday—the first selection?"

"I don't know the name of it, Yolande. Partly improvisation. The theme is Russian, however," he responded.

"It was superb," said Emmy. "My dream is music—I do everything, act, speak,—everything to music. Not audible, of course," and she laughed.

"Positively," Emmy went on. "I've never been able to blame Nero for fiddling while Rome burned. The performance needed an orchestra, that was all. And he had an artistic soul, even though he was a rotten king."

Lowell purred even more distinctly.

Tomorrow—Yolande Gives Up Gracefully.

Daily Editorial Digest.

THE SUPREME COURT "LEAK"

Supreme Court decisions are the final law of the land, and they frequently have a tremendous effect on the stock market. Securities go up or down according to the rulings of the highest bunch, and of course any speculator who can get advance information of court decisions may easily make a fortune at the expense of less informed persons.

There have been suspicions for some time that information about pending decisions was "leaking" out of the austere court chamber, and at last the "leak" is thought to be located. Indictments have been returned against several persons supposed to be implicated, one of them a former secretary to a Supreme Court justice, another a former attorney of the Department of Justice, and these persons are awaiting trial for "conspiracy to defraud the United States of its rights to secrecy" regarding court decisions.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch (Ind.) calls this "an amazing charge," and has its doubts as to the ability of the government to maintain it. It fears that the culprits will get off; it says, "we should have a statute specifically covering such cases, if we have none now," and asks: "Could not the punishment so well deserved be inflicted through contempt of court proceedings?" The New York World (Dem.) feels the same way. "Here is a crime" it says, "closely akin to espionage, and yet is is a crime without a name."

"For many years past," the World continues, "tipsters have constituted an important element of the population of Washington. They profess to give from inside sources accurate information, valuable chiefly to speculators. Most of them ,of course, are frauds, but on several occasions there has been reason to believe that collusion existed. The records of the Stock Exchange bear scandulous testimony to the trustworthiness of some of these revelations in advance of court decisions, and the same thing is true of certain disclosures affecting the executive departments."

The particular decision on which the "leak" is alleged to have occurred was rendered last November on the Southern Pacific oil lands case, and, says the New Orleans States (Dem.) "certain speculators in stocks in Wall Street made considerable fortunes." The States holds that "there can be no question that there are constantly at Washington tipsters seeking to get, by hook or crook, inside and advance information on high court decisions to be sold to speculators. Sometimes their information is wrong, and the speculators who work with the disreputables are themselves plucked Sometimes it is right, and third parties are robbed."

"If the defendants are found guilty, they should receive heavy sentences, and no doubt will," says the Daily Oklahoman (Dem.) . "it is to the interest of the public as well as the members of the Supreme Court to make the punishment of any guilty persons severe enough to discourage the repetition of the offense."

"One of the most distressing features of the case," as it appears to the Harrisburg Patriot (Ind. Dem.), "is that the tipster received $600 for his work on which the stock gamblers realized more than $1,000,000." And, the Patriot adds: "that is the way of it usually. The man who holds the bag, who takes the risk, invaariably gets the small end of the winnings. The men who play safe always get the big return."

"Wall Street, or certain favored denizens of that street," says the Wichita Eagle (Ind.) "always enjoy advance tips on what the U. S. Supreme Court is going to decide. And what the Court decides is of vital important in The Street. If one had known in advance, for instance, that the Court was going to decide that the profiteers need not pay their income taxes, but may distribute piled up war profits as 'stock dividends,' what a fortune could have been made! For the big profiteering companies' stock shot skyward the minute the news was given out."

SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu, Thin, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(By Dr. Valentine Mott.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.

Baker City, Oregon:—I was taken with influenza and also had a nervous breakdown. My stomach was so bad I did not retain my food for three or four weeks and I was troubled with sourness and gas. I doctored with my two favorite doctors and a Chiroprator. One day I sent for a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (price, 50c.), which I read and decided to make a trial of the "Medical Discovery." At that time I was only able to stay up a few minutes at a time. After taking two bottles I was able to be on my feet all day. I am now able to eat anything without discomfort and never have the dryness in my mouth in the morning nor any bowel trouble. I walk 18 or 19 blocks at a time now and feel no ill effects."—Mrs. Wm. Hoggard, 2630 Church St.

"A NOTE TO THE WISE."

Having returned on Saturday from Seattle where I went to get what information I could from the wholesale houses, and purchase stock and instruments of the latest, I was shown a letter received while there from the Glass Factory of what the price on glasses are to advance at ance, and that is 33 1-3 per cent.

This price is like many other things, outrageous — but we will have to stand it. I shall not raise my prices until May 1st, but after that not the full increase if I can live without. Take advantage of the present rate before the first.

PORTLAND, April 29. — Although Portland made seven hits off Jim Scott yesterday while the Seals could get but three hits off Sutherland, San Francisco won, 1 to 0.

Stupid and careless base running cost Portland any chance it had for a victory. The Seals made their lone run in the ninth on a pass to Corhan, Caveney's sacrifice and Fitzgerald's single to right.

Portland	0	7	2

Batteries: Scott and Agnew; Sutherland and Koehler.

Oakland, 6; Sacramento, 2.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Oakland hits Mails with almost clock-like regularity yesterday, defeating Sacramento, 5 to 2. Hamilton for Oakland got four hits out of five times at bat.

Sacramento	2	9	1

Batteries: Mails, Kuntz and Cook; R. Arlett and Mitze.

CHILD'S PLEA DRIVES THIEF TO SEEK DEATH

CHICAGO, April 29.—The accompanying picture by wire is that of little Miss Carolyn Kupper, whose reproachful gaze unnerved F. E. Rogers, who confessed to twenty-six robberies aggregating $100,000 on plunder. Her necklace had been stolen and she was begging him to return it.

"If you don't take this child away I will kill myself," the prisoner moaned. "Take her away."

Rogers leaped to his feet and tried to jump from the window of the state attorney's office where he was being questioned. The act was prevented by a guard who was near the window. Not once did the prisoner meet the innocent gaze of little Carolyn again but held his head low to avoid her glance.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29. — A plot against the lives of a score of federal and state officials on May 1 has been uncovered by secret service men of the department of justice, Attorney General Palmer announced today.

The department further states that radical demonstrations are being urged by the communist labor party and other organizations preaching "direct action" in every industrial center of the country.

Information in the possession of the department, it is said, shows that preparations have been made by the radicals for the first "real" international labor day celebration" next Saturday in both America and Europe. Workers are being urged to lay down their tools and join in the labor day exercises.

The Aftermath of Flu

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's VapoRub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.

Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 231 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.
