DAILY HERALD INAUGURATES GREATEST PRIZE-GIVING EVENT EVER DREAMED OF IN LOCAL NEWSPAPERDOM—NOMINATIONS MAY BE MADE NOW AND CAMPAIGNS STARTED

FINE PRIZES FOR EVERYONE —THERE'LL BE NO LOSERS HERE

The Campaign Has Been So Planned That Every Man Woman, Boy And Girl Participating Will Receive Either a Big Prize or a Cash Dividend.

The Herald today make an announcement that will be of interest to every Herald reader and to the whole community of Clallam county. There are few people who do not know the strides that have been made in popular esteem and support by the Herald since it was established, the pioneer daily of the territory on December 6, 1915. But the work accomplished is after all only the beginning of this enterprise which has as its ultimate aim the publication of a daily newspaper carrying the full Associated Press news report as well as a complete daily survey of the news of the city and the county. This cannot be accomplished all at once. It has taken a great deal of work and considerable money to get The Herald where it is today—the undisputed leader in prestige and news-value of all newspapers on the Olympic Peninsula and with the largest list of paid subscribers.

Five years ago a contest was staged by the then management of The Herald which resulted in the obtaining of approximately 600 new subscribers. This contest, which starts off this week, will bring more than 1,000 new subscribers and if all the friends of The Herald throughout the territory lend their aid the close of the contest will mark another great forward step in the development of Clallam county's leading newspaper.

This is a project in which every citizen and especially every business and professional man of Port Angeles and Clallam County should be geratly interested. The development of The Daily Herald, the newspaper which stands first of all for progress and development of the city and county, means the development of the most powerful influence possible for the upbuilding of the communrty.

The Herald therefore now launches a $2,500 profit-sharing, circulation-building campaign, with the hearty co-operation of many of the most influential men and women of the county, the purpose of which primarily, is to further increase the influence and prestige of the Herald through its readers and friends, each of whom will be given the opportunity of becoming the owner of valuable prizes without the investment of one penny. Anyone is eligible to join—men and women, young or old. Once a candidate, you are given a rare chance to make use of any spare time that you may have to secure for yourself any of the $2500 worth of splendid prizes and cash commissions—its size depending entirely upon the interest you have taken in the campaign.

A magnificent new 1920 model Ford Sedan Touring Car, costing over $1100, a beautiful Piano Player, a Talking Machine, a Washing Machine, a College Course, and several other prizes including 25 per cent commission—these are among the prizes offered to keen competitors in this contest.

The plan adopted for distributing the gifts is the fairest and most impartial imaginable. Friends and readers of this paper are to decide the winners of all prizes, even the big automboile. Free votes will be the means by which the big winners will be determined. Every candidate will find the ground broken for him or her, and the plan of this entire campaign is so simple that it will appeal to you once you have read the announcement in the big advertisement in this issue. The Herald has provided that every participant who takes active interest in the campaign shall be handsomely compensated for the time and effort expended.

NOMINATE YOURSELF.

As you will discover by reading the announcement elsewhere in this issue, you can nominate yourself as a candidate—and your nomination counts for votes right at the start. If you do not wish to nominate yourself, you have the privilege of nominating a friend and thus helping him or her to win a valuable award. It costs nothing to become a candidate or to secure even the biggest of the prizes, the 1920 Ford Sedan. You are not bound by any specific requirements—and it is not required that you be a subscriber to the Herald. You can devote just as much or as little time as you please to the pleasant efforts in vote-getting, with the assurance that you will be paid by the Herald either with a handsome prize or a sum in gold or silver. All of the prizes are worth going after. You simply cannot lose in this proposition.

TWO ELECTION DISTRICTS.

The city of Port Angeles will be designated as District No. 1, and the territory outside of the city of Port Angeles (including the rural routes and small towns) will be designated as District No. 2.

OUR SLOGAN, "EVERYBODY WINS"

The prizes are almost fabulously valuable, considering the extreme shortness of the time in which they will be distributed. Imagine securing a prize which would cost you over $1100 in cash to buy for a few days' pleasant effort in vote-getting. And that is all that you have to do to secure any one of the big awards — simply gather in the votes.

But one of the best features of all in this big prize distribution is the fact that there will be no losers, as a cash commission of twenty-five per cent (one-fourth of every new subscription collected) will be paid to all active non-prize winners, which, in itself, is an excellent business proposition for you.

This is not a "something for nothing" scheme—in fact it is no scheme at all. Neither is it a charitable undertaking on the part of the Herald. It is a business proposition pure and simple. Its object is to advertise jointly this newspaper and the splendid qualities of the new 1920 model car, to secure new and renewal subscriptions to the Herald, to collect old subscriptions, and last but not least, to win a welcome for the Herald in every home in this community. In short, the Herald will reward many ambitious people right here at home very liberally indeed for their assistance in introducing this paper into more homes in the city and community, instead of employing outside solicitors at fancy salaries to accomplish the same result.

WILL IT PAY?

Will it pay? That is a question that will naturally occur to all who read this announcement. Yes, it will pay. Not in dollars and cents, but there are dividends that newspapers want and derive other than those expressed in terms of money. During this campaign many new subscribers should be added to our lists, the fair, square policy of the Herald will be thoroughly advertised and there will be a great amount of satisfaction in all of that besides the general good feeling engendered and the prestige gained for this newspaper will be almost inestimable.

SHORT AND SNAPPY.

This campaign will not be a long-drawn-out affair of several months duration, but extends over a period of only a few weeks, closing Saturday, night, August 14. Think of being able to secure in about six short weeks, prizes and awards that would ordinarily require months, yes even years, of self-denying and saving to acquire—and these are all given you in exchange for your spare time and a little interest in helping extend our subscription list.

This campaign will be more interesting and more profitable to the participants than any ever undertaken in this section. The prizes are not only rich in material value and dollars and cents, but are in keeping with the broad and liberal lines along which the whole enterprise has been drawn. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success in it.

WHY THIS CAR.

The entire Herald gift distribution enterprise has been planned with the idea of making it unusual and unusually generous. A glance at the prize list is splendid evidence of this statement.

The special attention of our readers is called to the beautiful Ford Sedan car. A car of lesser value could have been purchased by the Herald and offered as a grand prize—but that would have broken the policy of the management in making the enterprise worthy of the interest and the effort of all, one in which our readers would be proud to participate and one that the Herald would take pride in fathering.

Beautiful, luxurious, handy, the Ford Sedan is the ideal car for the girl, the mother with children, or the professional man or anyone who likes comfort.

How long would it take you to save enough money out of your earnings to purchase any one of the big gifts awaiting you in this Herald gift-distribution? Figure it out yourself and you can readily see the generous op-

FARM HAND ARMY MOVING NORTHWARD

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8. — An army of 100,000 farm hands recruited and organized by the Department of Agriculture, is moving northward across the western wheat belt harvesting the nation's grain crop in better time than in many years, according to reports today at the department.

Attracted by a wage of $7.00 for a ten hour day, thousands of workers from the Atlantic and Alleghany regions have gone west of the Mississippi River to join the harvest drive, according to department officials.

POLISH FRONT IS REPORTED COLLAPSING.

(By Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 8.—The Polish front from the Pripet to the Carpathians has completely collapsed and the situation is most serious, the semi-official Allgemeine Zeitung learns authoritatively. The Russian push southward from Kiev and Rovno has met with only slight opposition.

A Warsaw dispatch to the Frankfurt Zeitung says the Bolshevik have begun an offense on the norte front, to the north of the Molode Chino-Polotsk railway, but their first attempt to break through has failed.

OHIO LEADERS URGE HARDING TO CIRCULATE

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Julyy 8.—Ohio republican leaders who conferred with Will Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, were reported to have disapproved of the "front porch" plan for Senator Harding. They favored a "swing around the circuit," for the republican candidate, instead of the passive campaign that has been advocated in some quarters.

Among those who conferred with Mr. Hays were Harry M. Daugherty who was Senator Harding's campaign manager, and George H. Cook, chairman of the Ohio republican state committee, A. T. Hert, national committeeman from Kentucky, and I. A. Caswell, Minnesota committeeman, also took up the situation in their states.

"We haven't the slightest apprehension about Ohio," Mr. Cook said.

A BREAK IN THE RANKS.

(By Associated Press)

FARGO, N. D., July 8. Thomas Hall independent republican and former leaguer defeated the Non-Partisan League candidate, J. I. Cahill, for the nomination for secretary of state, returns tabulated today from the primary of June 30 show. Hall has 54,494 votes against Cahill's 47,978, with 110 precincts missing.

GERMANY IS GIVEN TIME TO CUT ARMY

(By Associated Press)

SPA, Belgium, July 8.—Premier Lloyd George, on behalf of the Allies offered the Germans this afternoon to extend to August 1, the time for reduction of the German army to 150,000 men and until January 1, 1921, to the 100,000 men provided by the Versailles treaty and also to allow the Germans to retain certain troops in the neutral zone temporarily.

DANGEROUS FOR NEGROES TO CAST REPUBLICAN VOTE

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 8.—The senate committee investigating campaign expenditures completed its work at Chicago today by examining Henry Lincoln, Johnson, negro, national committeeman from Georgia, and manager of the Lowden campaign in that state.

The committee will leave tonight for St. Louis where investigation of Attorney General Palmer's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination will be opened tomorrow.

The committee questioned Johnson about lynchings in the south and elicted the statement that negroes who voted the Republican ticket have "disappeared" and never have been heard from again.

COUNTY NURSE WORKING HARD

In her first monthly report to the board of county commissioners Miss Marie Puls, county nurse, who commenced work in the middle of June, reviewed what she had done in that time. This included the giving of advice in a number of cases in hygiene and sanitary living conditions, bringing patients under proper care, where such was lacking, and some actual bedside nursing. The total visits made were 62. The aid of county and city medical authorities was acknowledged.

The number of tuberculosis patients was given, at 11 of which one was an arrested case. Two patients died during the month. Many office interviews and three public talks on health were given.

Miss Puls dealt at some length with the condition of the local Indian colony where there is a serious problem in housing and sanitation, and as a result great prevalence of tuberculosis. She found children of 9 and 10 years unable to speak English—evidence of truancy from school. The problem of improving the condition of the colony will be seriously considered on Miss Puls' return from Yakima.

G. Ripin went down to Seattle yesterday on a business trip and returned this morning.

MUST LIMIT RAIL TRAFFIC

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8. — Priority of service in favor of the more essential commodities is necessary to relieve the present transportation congestion on the railroads, Daniel Willard, chairman of the advisory committee of the association of railway execptives declared today before the interstate commerce commission.

COMMONER UNEASY BECAUSE "WETS" OBTAINED CONTROL

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—William Jennings Bryan, who was in Portland for a few hours today, declined to make a statement as to whether he would actively support the Democratic ticket this fall. Mr. Bryan refused to discuss the candidate nominated.

The convention leaders have only themselves to blame for the creation of a condition which enabled the wets to take charge of the convention, although in a minority, as was shown by the vote on the wet plank, Mr. Bryan said in conversation.

He remarked he intended to take his time before making any statement regarding his support of the ticket.

DRYS WANT STATEMENT.

DAYTON, Ohio, July 8.—Governor Cox today received a telegram from Richmond Hobson, anti-saloon leader in Alabama, asking him for a strong statement opposing any effort of Congress to modify the Volstead act to permit a greater alcoholic content in liquor. The governor staated that he would answer the Hobson telegram in due time.

TRANSPORT IS OFF THE BEACH

The U. S. Army Transport South Bend, after several days' scieurn on the beach off the Elwha river, was floated last night at high tide through the efforts of the three powerful tugs sent there for the purpose.

With her 600 laborers for Alaska aboard, the transport resumed her voyage none the worse, it is said, for her mishap. She ran aground in a heavy fog.

PINCHOT ON PILGRIMAGE TO LaFOLLETTE'S HOME.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Amos Pinchot, of New York, a member of the Committee of 48, which meets here Saturday in a national convention, went today to Madison, Wisconsin, to confer with Senator LaFollette who is mentioned at headquarters here of the committee as one of the leading candidates for a third party presidential nomination.

LaFollette has just returned from Rochester, Minn., where he underwent an operation.

WILSON SUMMONS LEAGUE ASSEMBLY.

LONDON, July 8.—President Wilson has accepted the invitation of the league of nations to call a meeting of the assembly of the league early in November, it was announced in the House of Commons today.

RAILROAD UNION HEAD TO GATHER

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8. — A special meeting of the general chairmen of sixteen railway labor organizations has been called for July 19 at Chicago so that they may consider the wage award of the railroad labor board as soon as it is made. It is expected on or about July 20.

If the labor board's decision is accepted by the convention, it will be submitted to a referendum vote of the Union, it was said at labor headquarters today.

HARDING WELCOMES JOHNSON'S SUPPORT.

(By Associated Press)

MARION, Ohio, July 8.—After several weeks spent in preliminary preparation, Senator Harding today began the actual writing of his speech to be delivered on July 22, accepting the republican presidential nomination. He expects to complete it in about ten days during which time he plans to see but few visitors.

The announcement made by Senator Johnson of California, that he would support the republican ticket greatly pleased Senator Harding when informed of it today. The statement did not come as a surprise however.

"I am glad Senator Johnson is going to give the ticket his support," the republican nominee said. "I am glad to know of everybody's support," he added, "and I would much rather have support on the grounds that our platform is appealing than on the grounds of interest in the nominees."

Pine Hill People Start Work On Fine Playground

A model park and playground, produced chiefly by community effort, is the plan of a number of property owners on Pine Hill who have organized the Pine Hill Park Association, with Deputy Sheriff Cole as president and Mrs. E. O. Brown, secretary, and who commenced operations last night with axes, saws and hammers on the fine lots adoining the Pine Hill schoolhouse.

The school board has under consideration a proposal to turn over this property, which consists of several lots, with fine trees, and all fenced in to the city for playground purposes and the neighbors have taken time by the forelock and commenced the work necessary to bring the property into use for public welfare. Last night rubbish and brush was piled up and four or five big bonfires soon removed all traces of it.

Coffee, lemonade and doughnuts were served out to the volunteer workers. The association already numbers 75 members and promises to be an important factor in the improvement of the city.

City and County Chit-Chat

The Epworth League of the Methodist church had an ice cream stand by the Leader Department store on the Fourth of July The young people cleared $80.00, enough money to finish paying for the piano they bought last year. The members feel very proud of the achievement.

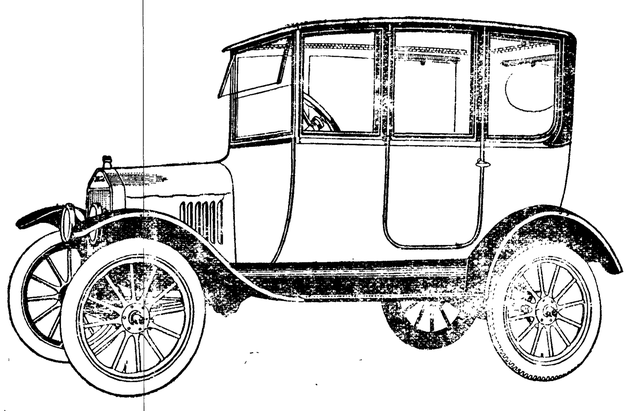
First Grand Capital Prize



Ford Sedan

The Ford Sedan with electric starting and lighting system, demountable rims with 3 1-2 inch tires and tire carrier, is the ideal family car, because of its all around utility and refined and comfortable equipment. Finely upholstered. Plate glass windows. An open car in spring, summer and early fall. A closed car in inclement weather and winter. It is rainproof, dust-proof. In the city or country a family car. For theatre parties, social visiting, touring and for taking the children to school it is just what you want. The low cost of operation and maintenance is not the least of its charms. It is a regular Ford car, simple in design, strong in construction, and durable in service.

THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1920

Editorial

PRACTICAL HUMANE SCIENCE.

The work now in progress by Miss Marie Puls, the county nurse, under the auspices of the Red Cross and the County authorities, must appeal with force to all humanitarians. A study of the figures contained in Miss Puls' first monthly report, which covers only the first two weeks of her employment, will convince everyone that there is a great field for helpfulness and that the young woman appointed to the work is both capable and energetic. Underlying the report itself, which made a strong impression upon the county commissioners, is suggestion of the existence of conditions which call for immediate attention. Miss Puls has gone to the state convention of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association at Yakima, for the purpose of learning what is being done in other counties to care for such conditions as those existing in the local Indian colony here. Something must be done and when a satisfactory solution of this problem is offered, The Herald will do everything possible to aid prompt action. That we have in the little Indian colony a constant menace to the health of our children is shown by Miss Puls' report and for the benefit the whole community as well as the Indians, of whom so many are victims of the White Plague, we owe to ourselves and our children to see that a remedy is found.

SEATTLE NEWSPAPER MAKES QUICK DECISION.

After taking about one glance at the Democratic National Convention Col. Clarence B. Blethen, editor of the Seattle Times, rushed via auto to the nearest telegraph office, and there hammered out a front page editorial in which he makes it plain that the Times will support the Republican ticket with as much, if not more energy than any of the strictly party newspapers. His editorial sizzles, not perhaps with very carefully digested thought, but with an abundance of energy. He declares that the campaign motto of the Republicans ought to be. "Cox and cocktails; Harding and the Home." That is a fine, alliterative phrase. It is likewise catchy. And it has the great advantage of being meaningless.

NEW ACTIVITIES ON THE IRISH FRONT.

With war clouds as dark and scenes as bloody now as ever shadowed Londonderry's dark and bloody ground, the Irish problem has waked wide comment in the American press, the burden of which, however, seems to be "hands off America." Few agree with the British policy and many predict that the future holds little hope. A number of newspapers consider that the showing of nationalist strength in the heart of Ulster is a sign of the pitch to which the Sinn Feiners have moved the country as a whole.

The Chicago Post (Ind.) sounds a warning to American politicians:

"America can only do harm by seeking through her political parties or her Senate to interfere in the internal affairs of the British empire. But those who see the essential need of friendship between the two great English-speaking nations can and should urge England for that common object to end as soon as possible the Irish problem which daily stirs hatred between us."

The fact that the recent riots have given proof of "insurrectory organization" leads the Boston Transcript (Ind. Rep.) to the conclusion that it was "largely equipped, and organized, as well as commanded, from American soil," and if it resulted in great cost and bloodshed we shall likely be furnished with a bill such as we presented to Great Britain "for equipment of Confederate cruisers in our Civil War." The purely internal aspect of the recent outbreak, the Philadelphia Press (Ind.) believes, "justifies the silence of the Republican platform on Ireland and must give pause to the Democratic platform makers," for all are now confronted by fact, not theory.

This "fact," linked with "the plain, unvarnished truth," as the New York Evening World (Dem.) puts it, that "the United States will not go to war with Great Britain even for an object so dear to the heart of many Americans as the freeing of Ireland," leaves but one effective remedy, namely, the League of Nations.

In the opinion of the Canton News (Dem.) "the troubles in Ireland cannot be dignified by the name of revolution," and resolution by "the House of Representatives or the political parties and the raising of money to secure the freedom of Ireland can only add troubles to that suffering country." To this assertion the El Paso Times (Dem.) agrees. "These differences," it remarks, are an argument against "the United States taking any part in the controversy, regardless of sympathies with any faction or factions, even if we were justified in any way in interfering in the affairs of a friendly nation."

So far, the Syracuse Post Standard (Rep) believes, the statecraft has been anything but remarkable; "the antithesis of colonial management and its results have been the antithesis of British Colonial success." The New York Evening Post (Ind.) feels that England should be respected for her attempts to satisfy Ireland, but points out that she cannot escape the results of past errors. It urges the Dominion plan for which its author, Sir Horace Plunkett, hopes to find sympathy in America. The Post concludes:

"In any event England will be false to herself and to her hopes if she allows the Londonderry affair or any other circumstance, however discouraging, to weaken her efforts to devise a solution for a problem that sometime, somehow, must be solved, and with her active cooperation."

That this solution will be worked out is the opinion of the Akron Beacon Journal (Rep.), for "there is a spirit lose in the world that cannot be exercised or denied," and the Salt Lake Tribune (Rep.) believes that meanwhile "Great Britain is traveling at a tremendous pace to a climax" in her relations with her "other island."

The Parnells Are Two of the Most Talented and Versatile People on the Platform

"The biggest two-people company on the platform"—that's the Parnells. There are no exceptions. They both sing and read and impersonate, play 'cello, saxophone, piano and accordion. And they do every one of these many things with finished musicianship and ability. There is not a dull or uninteresting moment in their two programs on the sixth day. If you miss them you miss one of the big events of Chautauqua.

ROOSEVELT PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO STEFANSSON

Theodore Roosevelt said to Stefansson, the famous Arctic explorer who is to lecture at Chautauqua this year: "Stefansson, there are few men in the world whom I envy, but you are one of them."

Harpers' Magazine said recently: "All the world's heroism has not been concentrated on the battlefields during the past years. While the war has engrossed the world's attention, this explorer has dared and won important bloodless battles against snow and ice and darkness. For five years Vilhjalmur Stefansson was extending the boundaries of the scientific world, his progress only guessed at by those who waited eagerly for news of him. For over a year he was given up for lost until the good news traveled southward that he was still alive.

"His success marks a new era in Arctic explorations. Like great military commanders, Stefansson has solved the problem of supplies. Heretofore explorers have been limited in their trips by the amount of food they could carry—depending upon eating their dogs on their return. Stefansson, traveling with a minimum of provisions, has lived off the land for months sions, has lived off the land for months dogs in good health.

"He has explored and sounded 100,000 square miles of the Polar seas and has discovered new lands which will alter the map. In recognition of this service to the world, Stefansson has already been awarded gold medals by all the American Geographical Societies."

PROBLEMS OF THE RECONSTRUCTION ERA

Discussed at Chautauqua by Chamberlayne of New York.

Carlton Chamberlayne, associate editor of one of New York's big dailies, is coming to talk to Chautauqua audiences on the second afternoon on the problems of reconstruction days. Chamberlayne is known as one of the most progressive thinkers and forward-looking men of the country. He is the type of man needed today to help "steady the boat." He has a wide and comprehensive grasp of conditions, is an eloquent speaker and a constructive builder through and through.

SEATTLE MARKETS.

SEATTLE, July 8.—Slight declines in the prices of certain commodities marked the opening of the wholesale produce market this morning after the two day holiday, and ample supplies were on hand to meet the rush of retailers to replenish their stocks. One cent was clipped off the price of new potatoes which are now offered at 9 1-2 cents a pound. Butter and eggs were firm, but no immediate change in the quotations is predicted.

Advices were received that Kennewick has shipped three cars of new spuds on the basis of 7 cents a pound f. o. b. Western Avenue jobbers protest the price is too high for successful movement. California new Whites are selling here for 9 cents. Red raspberries are coming, but it is believed that canners will control the bulk of the crop, bidding 20 cents a pound. The egg market was well cleaned up on Saturday with indications of a rise of one or two cents this week.

The week closed with empty bins at the stock yards. Hogs firm and cattle steady.

Cards Beaten.

St. Louis.—The local defense crumpled in the eighth today and Chicago broke the tie, scoring five runs off of two hits, three errors, a walk and a hit batsman and defeated St. Louis, 8 to 5. Two spectators were escorted from the park by policemen when Paskert, after engaging in an argument with Dilhoefer, became the target of the fans' remarks and started to climb into the grandstand.

Make Triple Play.

Pittsburgh.—The first triple play in more than two years on the Pirates' home field, according to local sports writers, occurred yesterday in a pitchers battle in which Philadelphia was defeated 2 to 1. Cooper caught Zack Wheat's fly with first and second occupied. Caton and Grimm completed the play.

THE POET says a rose.
BY ANY other name.
WOULD SMELL as sweet.
AND THAT'S all right.
BUT CALLING.
SOMETHING ELSE a rose.
WON'T CHANGE its smell.
OF COURSE not.
AND I'M not knocking.
BUT JUST telling you.
RIGHT OUT.
THAT THERE are only.
THREE GRADES.
OF TURKISH tobacco.
FIRST, GOOD Turkish.
WHICH IS mighty good.
AND ALSO expensive.
AND SECOND.

POOR TURKISH tobacco.
WHICH IS less expensive.
AND NOT so good.
AND THIRD, tobacco.
CALLED TURKISH, which.
NEVER SAW Turkey.
BUT GREW thousands.
OF MILES away.
AND DOESN'T even.
TASTE LIKE Turkish.
AND IT'S the good Turkish.
THAT'S REALLY from Turkey.
THAT YOU get.

PALMER SCOFFS AT PROPOSED PROBE.

PORTLAND, Or., July 8.—"You are welcome to investigate me until the cows come home," declared Attorney General Mitchell Palmer, here today on his way home from the Democratic National Convention, when informed that the senate committee investigating pre-convention campaign expenditures proposed taking up his campaign next. "None of my money was spent," the attorney general said, "what is the use of investigating now?" Mr. Palmer said he could not take the proposed investigation seriously.

HE GUESSED IT RIGHT THE VERY FIRST TIME.

OLYMPIA, July 8.—Is George Hazzard, the old time Democrat politician, a Ouija Board expert or else where did he get his dope? Several months ago Hazzard was in Olympia and, speaking to Republican acquaintances here, said: "You Republicans will nominate Harding for president and we Democrats will nominate Cox of Ohio." At that time neither of these candidates was prominently considered as having a ghost of a show by the bulk of political prognosticators.

Incidentally, Hazzard concluded "and Louis F. Hart will be nominated and elected Governor of Washington."

IS EVEN PRAISED BY HIS PRINTERS.

MARION, Ohio., July 8.—Senator Harding was up bright and early this morning and spent the day working on his speech of acceptance, writing copy with a pencil. His printers say the nominee makes "clean copy."

COX DOES DAILY STUNT AT HIS DESK.

DAYTON, Ohio., July 8.—Governor Cox, Democratic candidate for the presidency, after working a few hours at his newspaper office this morning, piloted a number of visiting newspaper men about the home and haunts of his early boyhood at Jacksonberg, near Middleton, Ohio. The trip was made by automobile.

PRINCETON BEATS OXFORD.

LONDON, July 8.—Princeton defeated Oxford in the dual field and track meet today, Princeton winning in six events and Oxford four.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS

TAXPAYERS TO MEET.

Every taxpayer in the sttae is invited to attend a state conference to be held at the Hotel Frye, Seattle, June 27 at 8 p. m. to continue in session from day to day until the work is finished. The purpose of the conference will be to consider legislation to be proposed to the next legislature and to secure the nomination of men who will carry out the wishes of the convention in this regard. The convention is called by the State Taxpayers League. Among the things to be considered will be a readjustment of state commissions, adoption of a state budget system, extension of bond period to reduce interest rate, state contracts, appropriations, proposed bond issues, tax elgislation and revision. Representatives are expected to attend from every county in the state.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT.

Through the Highway Commission the state of Washington has expended since March 13, 1911, the sum of $11,804.410 for highway improvement. Of this the Pacific Highway received $2,918,210 for 49 miles of paving and 33 miles of grading. Sunset Highway 47 miles grading and 20 miles paving $1,180,291. Inland Empire Highway, 129 miles grading and 19.7 miles of paving, $3,175,994. Olympic, $1,453,358; 11.7 miles of paving, 47.5 miles of grading. National Park, $412,247; 2:5 miles paving, 15.2 miles grading.

TO INSPECT COAST SITES.

Five senators and five members of the house of representatives will be in Seattle about November 9 for investigation looking toward establishment of an aviation base at Sand Point and of a submarine destroyer and naval aviation base at Port Angeles, word to this effect reaching the Chamber of Commerce in a letter from Congressman Fred A. Brittain.

In a report of the Civic Bureau of the Chamber, it is urged that steps be taken at once to secure a squardon for Sand Point, in connection with the Coast Artillery, and also that an immediate campaign be undertaken for establishing an aerial forest fire patrol with its base at Seattle, in order that this service may be assured in 1921. Development of a regular aerial mail route also is emphasized as an urgent undertaking.

IRRIGATION DEVELOPMENT.

Burton L. French, ranking member of the House appropriations committee, who is taking a rest at his home at Moscow, Idaho, says: "$7,000,000 is available for irrigation projects in the West and that the $100,000,000 Columbia River Basin project is being given serious thought, but will have to wait its turn."

Mr. French will join other members of the Committee in a tour of the irrigation projects of the Pacific Coast. They will look over projects in California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and will probably inspect the Okanogan and Yakima Valley projects. Every project must have the approval of congress.

AIR MAIL TO VICTORIA.

Inauguration of air mail service between Seattle and Victoria, the first service of its kind between an American and Foreign city, has been authorized in a communication from Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, to the Seattle postal officials.

LABOR SHORT IN ALASKA.

The Alaska Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has received an appeal from the Alaska Publicity Bureau at Juneau for men to work in various parts of Alaska where a shortage of labor is reported in many of the mines and other industries. The ready sale for home grown wheat in Alaska has resulted in increased acreage being sown. Most of the crops were in by June 15. The Fairbanks Farmers Association is building a flour mill at that point.

YAKIMA WOOL PRODUCTION.

The year's clip of wool in the Yakima Valley is estimated at two million pounds. Mr. Coffin says the cost of running each ewe for the season has advanced from $2.50 five years ago to $8.50 with no corresponding increase in wool values. It is expected that 7,000 spring lambs will be shipped to market in July.

JAPS SEEK HEARING.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Representatives of the Japanese Association of America, representing 10,000 Japanese in Northern California, Nevada, Utah and Arizona, were seeking an opportunity today to appear before the house committee on immigration and naturalization which is here today to investigate the status of Asiatics in the western states. The committee is headed by Congressman Albert Johnson of Hoquiam, Washington. The first hearing may be held Saturday.

portunities that this campaign offers.

LITTLE EFFORT REQUIRED.

And there is so little required of you to win out in this Herald election. All that you have to do is to ask your friends to save their votes for you when they pay up their subscriptions to the Herald. The main thing neecssary for you to win is that you let your friends know that you are in to win—and that you want their votes.

YOU CANNOT LOSE.

And you cannot lose, if you try to; every active non-prize winner is given an absolute guarantee that he or she will be paid for their time—one fourth of every new subscription is yours if you fail to land one of the big awards. That is not a bad business proposition in itself for we all have some moments after work that could be turned into cash.

Information and Assistance.

In order to give everyone who participates in this big campaign the greatest possible assistance and to properly handle the circulation so that each new subscriber will get his paper promptly and there will be no confusion, the publishers have secured the services of a circulation manager, who is thoroughly experienced in this line of work, and who will give his entire time and attention to those who desire to take part in this distribution.

If there is anything at all about the entire proposition that is not perfectly clear to you, come to the Daily Herald office or write or telephone 220 and secure first hand information how to go about winning the prize of your choice. Or better still, clip out the nomination blank appearing elsewhere in this issue and send it in, and we will gladly see that you are fully informed regarding the entire plan.

The election opens Saturday, July 10. The first vote coupon appears today. Nominate yourself or some friend at once. You will have the "jump" on the rest if you start now.

OPEN EVENINGS.

For the convenience of those who cannot call during the day, the Herald office will be open evenings until 9 o'colck. Telephone 220.

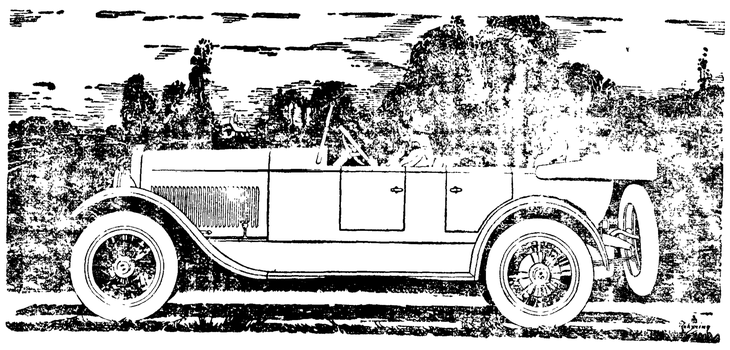
CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor



The Chandler Gives You the Service You Demand

THOUGHTFUL men, in selecting an automobile, find in the history of the Chandler Six a source of real confidence.

The Chandler motor of today is the development of the Chandler motor of seven years ago, embracing refinements and improvements which have been the natural development of these years of service in the hands of thousands of owners, and the constant application of the engineering skill and the sincerity of its builders.

Motors of one type and another have been heralded and retired within these years. But the Chandler motor, its true superiority proven in service on every roadway in America and in many nations abroad, has lived and gone forward into a place of distinction.

Men who have owned and driven many cars, men from coast to coast, will tell you the Chandler is the leader of all sixes. Over the long mountain roads or on the trails of the desert or in crowded city traffic, anywhere, the Chandler will give you the service you demand. Its power, its flexibility, and its sturdy endurance are not surpassed.
