Tyce-Sappho News

By Mrs. J. E. MERRITT
Mrs. Clarence Engeshot entertained the Pinocchio Club at her home on Tuesday of last week...

Twenty-four years is a long time to be away from Longacres, particularly if you are a horseman and have made your living with horses for over 50 years.

Lawrence Kidd, who has rightfully earned the reputation for "developing excellent jockeys," is back at one of his favorite Thoroughbred tracks but says, "I've raced all over the country these past years but I seemed to keep getting too far away from Longacres to make the trip. This year I just made up my mind to come back and here I am. I've always liked this track and its management."

Letty always comes to a track with a new apprentice jockey and only one and this is no exception. This racing season he has one and only one—Roy Hyder, as his contract jockey. Roy comes from Los Angeles and is very rapidly learning his trade under the watchful eye of Kidd. Asked why he brought only one jockey, he said, "I think one is enough to work with during a season. With two there is too much foolhardiness and things don't get done and done right."

Other jockeys he has developed here at Longacres and other racing strips include Alan Gray of some 30 years ago. Otto Grohs was a Kidd protégé and he went on to become an apprentice rider this racing fame and fortune. Others included...

4-H Club

DOINGS
The 4-H Fairies met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Dorene Stephens...

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Price received a phone call on Friday from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Price of West, Calif., saying that their son, PFC Kenneth Price, was in a hospital in Japan, recovering from a battle wound. The young man had gone to Viet Nam in a hospital after receiving basic training, and was wounded in his first battle. From reports he must not have been in very bad shape as it was he who had written the news to his parents...

Card of Thanks

My SINCERE THANKS TO the doctors, nurses, and hospital staff for their kindness and care and to my friends for the beautiful cards and flowers that made my stay in the hospital such a pleasant one. Fred J. Germaux
