PORT ANGELES OLYMPIC LEADER

VOL. 29. No. 25. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1913. 5c THE COPY.

EAST END HEARING SET FOR JULY 22

Grade of Railroad Avenue Set at Six Feet Above High Tide. License Not Revoked.

A full house greeted the council at its Tuesday night session. All members were present and considerable business was transacted.

The ordinance committee, Messrs. Fisher and Dustman, moved that the proposed grade for Railroad avenue be changed from 18 to 15 feet above datum, or three feet above high tide. Fisher moved that the record of the committee be adopted, seconded Dustman and failed, all others voting no. The ordinance fixing the grade of Railroad avenue was then adopted by unanimous vote. According to its provisions the grade of Railroad avenue is level clear through six feet above high tide. The former ordinance fixed the grade at 18 feet above datum at Oak and Lincoln, then a .31 gradient to Francis, where the height was 28 feet above datum. The new grade will not conform to the Francis street fill, though it possibly can easily be made to do so.

The street committee named specially to go over the East End improvements contemplated, reported against the resolution for the improvement of the north and south streets in the district stopping at the foot of the hills. This was adopted and the date of hearing on same was fixed for July 22.

Estimate of engineer for additional work done on Eighth street bridges, $2,93.94, making a total payment to contractors of $21,104, was allowed.

Attorney Smith reported verbally that he was unable to bring in ordinance for East End grades for reason that data was not at this time available. He reported further that he had 20 complaints ready for filing in delinquent sidewalk assessments, most of parties residing out of the city. He recommended that matter be held in abeyance for present, as parties pay when notified. He has collected assessments on ten cases. If council desires cases filed they will have to advance $5 filing fees in each case. No action.

Claim of State Workmen's Liability Commission for $129 for work in connection with lighting plant of city for past year was read and referred to light committee and attorney.

E. W. Merrill also asked that obstruction in alley in rear of his property be removed. Council thought this a little premature, but referred to street committee.

A supplemental petition for the taking away of the Day & Abbott saloon license was read also a counter petition signed by a large number of citizens.

Dustman moved that the license of E. E. Day be cancelled upon the ground that he had violated the laws of the city and state and was therefore no fit person to conduct a saloon, seconded by Wilcox. This made Myers, who was one of the original proposers of the action squirm. He arose and stated that it is a hard place to be in. He had been seen several times and they promise to be good. He moved to amend that action be postponed for 30 days. Mr. Wilcox said a corner was no place for a saloon anyway. After considerable discussion, Elliott moved that action be postponed for 60 days, seconded by Myers and carried; movers, Fisher and Swanson voting aye.

Wilcox introduced an ordinance fixing the boundaries for fire limits in which, the building of anything but fire-proof buildings will hereafter be prohibited. The ordinance is nearly a duplicate of the one under consideration some months ago, but fixes no boundaries. Referred to Fire Wardens, Ordinance Committee and attorney.

Ordinance for issuance of bonds for Eighth street improvement was read and referred to ordinance committee.

W. J. Taylor, M. D. was named for health officer vice F. T. Hyde, resigned. Upon motion Fisher nomination was confirmed.

Wilcox called attention to thickly settled section at 7th and Chambers, residents of which desired and were entitled to a fire hydrant. Referred.

Street committee was directed to look into matter of opening street west from Cherry on Fifth, also to gather uncollected debris, which it was agreed would be carried away

Bond of Webster Publishing Co. was approved.

Plats of additions in surburban blocks 35, 157, 51 and 149 submitted to council some months ago by H. C. Peet, were again submitted to council for approval, the city engineer asking them as to widths of streets and alleys only. Council wanted to know if they conformed to streets and alleys of city, but engineer was gone and the plats were referred to him for report as to this fact next meeting.

Specifications for work on Third street west were taken up and discussed. Swanson called attention to lumber used on Eighth street bridges and points where planed stuff was one half inch shy of thickness ordered. He wanted these specifications to show the thickness of plank after sized and laid and a motion to that effect was carried, the specifications going over for further investigation.

STATE FISH MEN HERE.

Lake Crescent Hatchery Will Likely Be Located on South Side of the Lake

It is believed that the Lake Crescent trout hatchery will be located near the Forest Service cabin on the south side of Lake Crescent, as the result of the visit here Wednesday of State Fish Commissioner Darwin and State Superintendent of Hatcheries Mayhall. The gentlemen would give out no information on the subject, but they seemed to be favorably impressed with the south side of the lake. They also favored the location of the Salmon hatchery at the Olympic Power Co.'s dam, saying that fish ladders of such height have never proven practicable. They were accompanied by Senator Troy and Representative Sims, the party being joined here by Ex-Representative Fisher, Representative Beam, Sheriff Gallagher and Game Warden Pike. A visit was also made to the Sol Duc to look into the alleged violation of the law by the Sol Duc mill. It was found the sawdust pile was fully three hundred feet from the stream and that no refuse is getting into the water at the present time; the case will doubtless be dropped. The gentlemen returned to Townsend yesterday by way of Dungeness and Quilcene, to visit the hatcheries there.

ANGELES DAY AT SOL DUC.

All Enthusiastic Over Splendid Entertainment Afforded by Management.

On account of the threatening weather only about 25 went from Angeles to the Sol Duc Hot Springs last Saturday to celebrate Angeles Day and about 17 went from Port Crescent. Among those going from Angeles were: Mr. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ritchie and Miss Ritchie, John Cain and son, Miles Earles, Miss McCaffrey, the Misses Weeks, Miss Flora Stakemiller, Miss Francis Hoare, Miss Mary Stocklin, E. G. Lowry and wife, Miss Lowry and brother, Mr. L. M. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Dann, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dann, Lewis Levy, Mr. Hanford. All report a delightful time and were very enthusiastic over the granduer of the scenery and the splendid entertainment afforded them at the Sol Duc. Saturday evening was held the first dance of the season in the spacious dancing hall, but recently completed. Excellent music was furnished by the Sol Duc orchestra, consisting of 4 pieces. The grounds surrounding the hotel are looking their prettiest and they also have the finest kind of a vegetable garden. Hundreds of guests have already visited these famous springs this season, but the next two months will see the largest crowds.

GRADED TO TUMWATER CREEK.

New Contractors Take Up Work on Morse Creek Hill; May Bring Shovel.

The Morse creek hill railroad contract was taken over this week by Cervien & Miller, contractors of wide experience, who say they will make short work of the mile and a half grade. The contractors who started the work, making the fill across the flat, are at work on the bluff along the straits. Mr. Cervien said Monday they were undecided whether to bring their steam shovel or not; they estimated the cost of getting it in position ready to work at $500 and doubted if there was enough grading to be done there to make it profitable.

The Erickson outfit has extended the grade this past week from the Little River railroad to tide water east of the Geist mill, where piling will have to be driven across Tumwater creek. The grade on the flat is about six feet high and twenty feet wide on top.

Contractor McInnes brought in twenty teams of horses and mules this week for his work from the Elwha to Piedmont. They were taken to the camp at Salt Creek.

FOUR CENTS THE BOX.

McBurneys sold 25 crates of strawberries in less than half an hour yesterday at 5c the box; they have 50 crates this morning at 4c the box, 90c the crate, the first time berries have ever been sold here at Seattle prices.

MUST HAVE FACTORY SITES.

Number of Inquiries Daily Received Show Eyes of Public Are Riveted on Port Angeles.

The Commercial Club held a well-attended meeting Wednesday evening. Many of the prominent members of the organization were present and several matters of supreme importance to the city were discussed.

Letters from several gentlemen who contemplate locating manufacturing industries in Port Angeles, provided they can get sites at a reasonable figure, were read. The communications were referred to the proper committees who will see that no effort is spared in securing the sites if possible.

That the eyes of the public are riveted on Port Angeles is clearly indicated by the numbers of inquiries being daily received by the Commercial Club and prominent business men of the city and the Club is bending every energy towards making provisions for and securing such locations as the investors desire.

A movement, which is evidently a wise one, has been inaugurated for the purpose of enlisting the co-operation and support of large non-resident property owners in contributing towards the funds required in purchasing locations for manufacturing concerns.

The citizens of Port Angeles have already given generously to the industries thus far secured and are willing to contribute further to as great an extent as their financial strength will allow, and is is only right and equitable that outsiders who hold land here and who naturally have the material advancement of the city at heart, should do their share in encouraging and fostering the new industries which are vitally essential to the city's growth.

It may also be mentioned that the membership of the Commercial Club is steadily increasing and its sphere of influence is rapidly expanding.

CELEBRATED WEDDING DAY.

The W. L. C. held their regular meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. John McKee of Pine Hill. It was whispered around that this day was the fortieth anniversary of the hostess's wedding day so the club members got together and bought her a handsome black silk dress pattern. This was presented to her at the afternoon meeting as a token of love and remembrance from the ladies with whom she had spent so many happy hours. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant afternoon.

A SPOILED RAID.

All thought of panic or depressed financial or business conditions in this country has vanished, according to reports from New York, which say that money is easy, and charges for it declining.

Eastern newspapers attribute the present improved state of mind to the announcement of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo that emergency money to the extent of $500,000,000 will be available for crop movements.

The Eastern press appears generally to admit that folks on the Street had made up their minds to raid the market and start trouble. Whether or not the credit for spoiling the scheme is due McAdoo is the only point in dispute. The Sun says not. It is noticeable, however, that the decision of the National City Bank to loosen its hold on its large reserve surplus came on the afternoon of the day the announcement was made from Washington of McAdoo's intentions and was made only after his intentions had become public property.

Crop conditions were never better, and basically, the country was as sound as ever —sounder, if anything. Wall Street, however, proposed to change all this, and financial ghouls stood around licking their chops in anticipation of the feast. The great demand for money to move crops was to be the excuse of the trouble. Then McAdoo announced his intentions. The New York World, discussing these intentions and the conditions that prevailed both prior and following their announcement, says:

"It was a master stroke, and the best evidence that it has struck home has been the churlish resentment with which it has been received in Wall Street. The bank figures of yesterday show that it has had the effect of releasing millions of the cash that had been hoarded by many of the leading institutions in expectation of the high money rates that the fall stringency would produce. It has opened the avenues of credit to the hard-pressed merchant and manufacturer in a way that it likely to revive commercial courage in a marked degree.

"One Wall Street institution alone on Thursday last invested $7,000,000 of its hoarded resources in commercial papers. The cash surplus of the Clearing House banks during the week increased $8,824,100, while their reserves increased $10,973,000."

The incident serves again to call attention to the obvious fact that the sooner the country is released from the control of Wall Street and its gamblers with other people's money in other people's prosperity, the better. If there ever is another "Black Friday," somebody ought to go to jail, and the whole Wall Street system to smash. That's exactly what will happen, moreover. The day can't come any too soon for the welfare of the country at large.

The attorney general has ruled that the new game law covers salt as well as fresh water.

SOME WILD RADICALISM.

Hardly ever in Louis Fourteenth's long reign any subject venture, to remonstrate with him; but a notable exception occured in 1670. Twelve women of Normandy had been convicted of witchcraft and condemned to be burned at the stake. Louis pardoned them on condition that they would forthwith leave the kingdom and never return. This amazingly radical act, so plainly destructive of morality and social order, emboldened the provincial parliament to adopt a solemn protest, beseeching the king to withdraw his pardon "for the glory of God and the relief of our suffering subjects." It is reassuring to know that, though the stiff-necked monarch persisted in refusing to let the women be burned, French civilization was not subverted.

In the reign of George the Third, Englishmen convicted of treason were hanged, but cut down before life was extinct, then eviscerated, partially roasted, beheaded and quartered—the quarters being set up for public inspection in different places. A wild-eyed radical, named Romilly, started a pupular agitation to have traitors dispatched by simple hanging and thus brought upon himself bitter denunciation by law officers of the crown, who declared that he was seeking to "break down the bulwarks of the Constitution." The ingenious embellishments upon a simple death sentence disappeared, but the Constitution has survived to this day.

So we hope those standpat senators who think that American civilization will be subverted if protective duties are reduced from forty per cent to only twenty-five per cent will cheer up. Horribly radical things have been done in the past, but nations have survived them.—Saturday Evening Post.

President Wilson, in his currency message delivered personally to the senate and house in joint session Tuesday, made it plain that legislation must be enacted at this session. The president said that party is about to set the business men of the country free by removing the trammels of the protective tariff, but it must not leave them without the tools of action when they are free. He said, we must have a currency, not rigid as now, but readily responsive to sound credit, the normal ebb and flow of personal and corporate dealings. The only question is, when shall we supply it, now or later, after the demands have become reproaches that we were so dull and so slow.

In response to a telephone message, Sheriff McGuire of Port Townsend, hastened to Ludlow Sunday and arrested a man who was running a dice game, the judge later assessing him $20 and costs. The Leader says that under a ruling recently made by the attorney general, all games of chance to win or lose constitute gambling under the state law, and said further that, in his opinion, shaking dice or playing cards for refreshments constitutes gambling.

OFFERS TO SETTLE AT $2.00 PER THOUSAND

Looks as Tho Government Is Attempting to Hold Up Sol Duc Springs Co.

Michael Earles, explaining the government's suit against the Sol Duc Hot Springs Co. to recover $6,000 for timber cut on the reserve, says:

"We own 320 acres at Sol Duc and we have been anxious to have at least a part of it cleared. We built our mill there and at the time were under the belief that it was on our own ground. Agents of the forest service were on the ground many times during the construction of the mill and after it was in operation and they at the time believed that we were building and working on our own ground. After we had cut about 500,000 feet of lumber a complaint was filed and local agents of the forest service ordered the land surveyed.

"It was then found that our mill was 70 feet on the government reserve and that we had cut a great deal of the timber from the government reserve. The next thing we heard of the case was the filing of the suit. We have offered to settle the case by paying the government $1,000, which would be a stumpage rate of $2 a thousand. This is more than timber is selling for on the the stump on the Puget sound coast at present and the timber which we cut was twenty-five miles inland.

"Another example of persecution: Sometime ago I built a 15-mile automobile road through the same section and almost entirely through the Olympic reserve at a cost of more than $100,000. This road is graded thirty feet wide in a mineral soil and is a natural firebreak. The forest service has the free use of this road at all times. When this road was under construction I was compelled to furnish a cash bond of $500 as a guarantee of good faith in burning brush and in other ways living up to regulations. When the road had been completed and my part in the arrangements had been fulfilled, I applied for the return of my cash bond of $500, but instead the forest eserve sent me a bill, stating that the price of the timber which I had cut in the construction of this road was $507.

"That is a good example of the treatment that we have been receiving, but there are others. When we built the Sol Duc Hotel we first thought of making our electric light by water power. An investigation developed the fact that it would be impossible to use the water power which was going to waste all around us and today with water tumbling down the mountains to waste all around the Sol Duc Hotel we are making our electric light in the old fashioned way with a battery of boilers.

George A. Lee, formerly chairman of the public service commission, takes issue with tre assertion of the prosecuting attorney of Skagit county in a recently published interview to the effect that the latter had discovered a "joker" in a tax law passed by the recent legislature which will cause the state to lose at least fifty per cent of its taxes heretofore collected from public service corporations. Mr. Lee says, in part: "Not only will the state not lose, as Prosecuting Attorney Beagle asserts, but ultimately, if not immediately, the state will gain by expansion and development of these public service and railroad properties and by taxing them year by year on their face values. Railroad and public service properties should be valued as the constitution requires and as all other property is valued. The new law gives the state tax commission full power to ascertain earnings and all other facts and factors and to fix a fair market value for taxation just as in the case of other property in the state."

A St. Petersburg dispatch says President Woodrow Wilson has declined Russia's request for a renewal of the treaty on commerce, except on the absolute condition that American Jews are allowed to enter Russia freely.

"Why does that darned old hen always want to roost on a letter-box?"

"She was hatched from a parcel-post egg."

He advised that line be run on west boundary of city and on M street, boulevard to water and monuments placed. This would give something for the additions to tie to and they then could easily be checked to conform to conform to streets and alleys. Some heartless councilman suggested that possibly those wanting additions would help pay this cost and council adjourned without taking any action.

The owners of the City Dock have purchased from the Stetson Estate in Seattle the City of Long Beach, a steamer formerly used in Californian waters, and will probably put her on a tri-weekly run, alternating with the Albion. The steamer, which will be known as the City of Port Angeles, is 135 feet in length, has 500 h. p. and twin screws.

The traveling salesman had four minutes in which to catch his train.

"Can't you go faster than this?" he asked the streetcar conductor.

"Yes, the bell-ringer answered, "but I have to stay with my car?"

THE PLAYGROUND ASSOCIATION

(From page 1.)

Mr. Anderson is just the man you want for the work.

Very cordially yours,
JOSEPH K. HART.

MEETING SATURDAY EVENING.

The new playground supervisor, Mr. Herman Anderson, from the University of Washington, is now here and will begin the work immediately. A few words by way of introduction of Mr. Anderson may be necessary. Anderson has been principal of a high school and has had a great deal of experience with young men and young women and also with children, in play and in instruction, so it will be well worth while for all the young folks in town to join in the work. Mr. Anderson is an athlete of considerable prominence, being the captain of the University of Washington football team for next year, as well as being a track athlete.

He wants every boy ten years of age or over to meet with him in the old high school building next Saturday evening, July 5 at 7 p. m., where he will talk to the boys and give his plans. The high school boys are especially urged to be there. A plan for a big track meet will be given out then as well as other announcements. Let every one join and boost for this work and make it a success, especially since Port Angeles is leading the other small towns in this work.

Parents can aid this work very materially by becoming members of the association, the membership fee being $1.

Mr. Anderson will be very glad to consult with parents at any time regarding the welfare of the children.

PLAYGROUND COMMITTEE.

NO TIME FOR JAPS

Townsend Leader Has Visions of Clallam County as Storm Center of Japanese Trouble.

According to a story in the Townsend Leader, which paper is generally long on war scares, Washington is about to take California's place in the lime light in the Japanese affair, and all because the good people of Sequim are a little particular in regard to their associates. The Leader says:

"Several Japanese made their appearance at Sequim last Sunday, seeking employment. The Japs stopped at a hotel and ordered a lunch put up for them to carry with them in their search for employment. Before the hotel proprietor could put up the edibles a committee of citizens waited upon the Japanese and notified them to continue their journey as they were not wanted and they should lose no time in making their exodus from that section. The Japanese realizing that the committee meant what they said did not tarry, notwithstanding they had paid for the lunch ordered. The hotel man, when he finished filling the order, hired an auto and overtook the Japs, delivered the lunch and returned to his place of business.

"Sequim is one of the most promising agricultural centers in Clallam county, and at present is enjoying an era of prosperity as a result of the construction of the Port Angeles, Lake Crescent and Seattle railroad. It is claimed that this prosperity attracted the attention of the Japanese and runners were sent there to look over the conditions with a view of establishing a colony to compete with the farmers and others. The citizens deeming it advisable to take the matter in hand at the start and give the advance guard of the race to understand that they are not wanted, and also that it would be a much easier matter to prevent them from coming than it would to get rid of them after a colony has located. This incident will be reported to the Japanese and the administration will be called upon to explain, and will assist in kindling the smouldering fire, which may result in the severing of diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan."

THE PRINTER'S PERIL.

When one remembers, says an ex-printer, that in a newspaper column there are 10,000 pieces of type, that there are seven wrong positions each letter may be put in, and there are 70,000 chances to make errors, besides millions of chances for transpositions, he will not be too critical. In the sentence, "To be or not to be," by transposition alone it is possible to make 2,759,022 errors. So you see the perils that beset a printer!

One of the most informal and yet one of the pleasantest evenings of entainment was spent last Wednesday night by the couples at Sportsman Park on Lake Sutherland, when they all joined in a little dance at Swanson's "Lucky Lodge." Eighteen were present and the fact that everyone was in camp attire and not a razor in camp only added to the jollity of the occasion.

It is a pleasure to announce that the visitors to Port Angeles from outside points during the festivities here will be well taken care of in the food line, a dairy lunch being opened for two days—the Fourth and fifth—and will be located on Laurel street on the ground floor of the Morse block.

A National Hymn For July Fourth

JOHN E. DOLSEN

[Copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.]

A PEOPLE free from sea to sea,
We look across the years and bless
The men who wrought through years of stress
To lay the nation's blood bathed base
For the uplifting of the race.

O God, to thee we bend the knee
As now along the upward slope
We press with never dying hope
Of better day, of greater good,
Of broader, closer brotherhood.

O God of life and peace and strife,
Grant that the coming years shall be
Greatest in human history
In the achievements of the mind
That make for good of mankind.

God, give us peace and large increase
Of all that makes a people great.
Grant to the leaders of the state
An outlook broad, with power of brain
To render vile temptations vain.

Help us, we pray, to truly say
That the great fabric of our laws
Is free from fraud and hidden flaws,
And let our institutions be
The models for humanity.

EAST END.

The reception given by the Rebekahs and I. O. O. F. last Saturday evening in honor of Brother and Sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Severn, was well attended by both lodges and a few near friends from the outside. The wedding cake was cut for the occasion with a fine lunch of ice cream, strawberries and cake. After wishing the very happy couple a very long and happy life, at midnight everybody said they had all had a jolly good time and all said good night and departed for their homes.

The whole east end of the county was very badly shocked Tuesday morning, when the news was flashed over the telephone lines that Guy Attwood was dead. He died Monday evening at a hospital in Tacoma. He leaves a father, mother and two brothers; one, Charley Attwood, lives in Happy Valley. He belonged to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges and will be greatly missed by his brothers and sisters in the lodges. He was very highly respected by everybody and was greatly beloved by his friends who knew him best. He was to have been installed as Vice Grand in the I.O.O.F. at their next meeting. Everyone greatly sympathizes with his father and mother with whom he lived. He was a great comfort to them.

Friend after friend departs:
Who hath not lost a Friend
There is no union here of hearts
That finds not here an end;
Were this frail world our only rest,
Living or dying, none were blest.

The American Flag.

Let us, standing by our fathers' graves, swear anew, and teach the oath to our children, that with God's help the American republic, clasping this continent in its embrace, shall stand unmoved though all the powers of slavery, piracy and European jealousy should combine to overthrow it; that we shall have in the future, as we have had in the past, one country, one constitution and one destiny; that our sons may gather strength from our example in every contest with the despotism that time may have in store to try their virtue, and that they may rally under the stars and stripes to battle for freedom and the rights of man, with our old time warcry, "Liberty and union, now and forever, one and inseparable."—John Jay, July 4, 1861.

WHARFAGE RATES CUT 150 PER CENT

Will Be Greatly Appreciated by Shingle Manufacturers and Dairy Farmers.

The People's Wharf Company announces a big cut in wharf charges to take effect next Monday, July 7th. On and after that date the new rate on feed, flour and merchandise will be 15 cents per ton, with a minimum charge of 5 cents. On kiln dried shingles in carload lots the rate will be one cent per thousand. This is a big cut and will be appreciated by those engaged in the dairying and shingle manufacturing business in Clallam county. The rates at present in effect are 35 cents on feed, flour and merchandise, with a minimum charge of 10 cents; on shingles 2½ cents net.

This is the first time in the history of Port Angeles that the management of a wharf company has seen fit to materially reduce the charges on wharfage. It indicates a spirit of business sagacity and progress, a desire to do business in a business like way, and at a rate that means a willingness to live and let live, a rate that means much to the dairying and shingle industries of the county, and our business men should not be slow in recognizing the fact.

The largely increased business in these lines and in fact in all lines and consequent largely increased shipments and business at the wharfs, has made this cut possible. It indicates that Port Angeles is growing and Clallam county's leading industries are prospering.

It is a matter for congratulation by all of our people that the management of at least one of our business enterprises is wide-a-wake and ready to grasp the situation, especially when prompt action means so much in a business way at this time.

KIRSCHBERG OPENING LEADING FEATURE OF THE WEEK.

In response to the cordial invitation extended by Mr. Julius Kirschberg to attend the opening of his handsome new store, Monday, hundreds of citizens both male and female, called during the afternoon and evening. The store presented a most attractive appearance with immense bouquets of handsome roses and carnations in evidence on all sides, also ferns, vines and greenery, artistically used. On the ladies side, the dainty, brightly colored materials and handsome gowns displayed added to the genelar attractiveness. Jensen's four piece orchestra delighted everyone with their beautiful selections. Each and every caller was presented with a carnation and courteously shown about the store. Besides the usual force of clerks Mr. Kirschberg was assisted by his wife and Mr. Mullertywie. 750 carnations, fresh from Seattle's green houses, were given out.

It was a beautiful evening and Ole, who had screwed up courage to take Mary for a ride, was carried away by the magic of the night:

"Mary," he asked, "will you marry me?"

"Yes, Ole," she answered softly. . .

He lapsed into silence that at last became painful to his fiancee.

"Ole," she said, desperately, "why don't you say something?"

"Ay tank," Ole replied, "they bane too much said already!"
