PORT ANGELES OLYMPIC LEADER

VOL. 29. NO. 36. PORT ANGELES, CLALLAM COUNTY, WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1913. 5c THE COPY.

ALDWELL BLOCK SOLD

The Aldwell stone block, corner of First and Laurel, was sold this week to Duncan Shank, a capitalist of Portland, Oregon. Mr. Shank also bought the property on Front street occupied by Dale's cigar and news stand and the Times Mart, which was also owned by T. T. Aldwell This constitutes the biggest sale made in the city for some time and it certainly speaks well for the future prospects of Port Angeles when a man of Mr. Shank's standing in the financial world will make so large an investment in our city. The Aldwell Company refused $35,000 for the stone block some time ago and while they are not giving out the consideration in this instance, it is well known that it exceeded this amount. Real estate is certainly picking up lately, a number of good sales being reported as well as options taken on a considerable number of lots, while rumors of another boom seem to fill the air.

TARIFF BILL PASSED.

Long Struggle in Senate Ended and Bill in Hands of Conference Committee.

The Democratic tariff revision bill passed the senate at 5:43 o'clock Tuesday amid a burst of applause that swept down from crowded galleries and found its echo on the crowded floor of the senate.

Its passage was attended with surprises in the final moments of the voting, when Senator La Follette, republican, cast his vote with the democrats, and was joined a few moments later by Senator Poindexter, progressive.

President Wilson tonight expressed great gratification over the end of long struggle in the senate.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, who had piloted the bill through the finance committee, the democrat caucus and the senate predicted that its passage would bring immediate stimulus to the business of the country.

As it passed the senate, the tariff bill represents an average reduction of more than 4 per cent from the rates of the original bill that passed the house, and almost 28 per cent from the rates of existing laws. In many important particulars the senate has changed the bill that passed the house; and a conference committee of the two houses will begin work Wednesday or Thursday to adjust these differences. Leaders of both houses predict that the conference will consume less than two weeks' time.

THE COUNTY FAIR

Ladies of the Episcopal Church Will Present Novel Entertainment.

The "County Fair", which will be put on in the opera house next Thursday and Friday by Miss Bock under the auspices of the Guild of St. Andrews promises to be the biggest amateur production of the year. Miss Bock has made a specialty of drilling and producing home talent plays, and all the clever young people of Angeles will vie with each other in putting on a realistic production of the real old time county fair, with its balloon ascensions, racing, side show attractions and pumkin exhibits.

T. F. Rixon bought, this week, the Geist residence on Pine Hill, one of the largest and nicest homes in the city. Mrs. Rixon has been spending the summer at the Lakes, but will take possession of the new home November first.

The Snohomish, of the revenue cutter service, was sent to Bremerton for repairs last week, expecting to be gone ten days.

ANGELES GETTING CITIFIED

Two Holdups in One Week, the First Ever Known in this Section

While rounding the turn from the "race track" to Front street at the ball park Tuesday night about nine o'clock, on his way home from a visit to town, Frank Robinson, of Dungeness, was confronted by a large stranger in a gray suit with a huge gun pointing at him and commanding him to stop. Mr. Robinson, who was in his auto and accompanied by his daughter, had no intention, however, of stopping, but instead opened the gas valve and the machine sped forward, leaving the stranger by the roadside. Mr. Robinson stopped at Willis Chambers and phoned in to Sheriff Gallagher of his experience. No arrests have as yet been made. Messrs. Dave Law and Howard Hart reported being held up on the flat to the west of the city last week by two strangers who escaped after a lively skirmish. Truly the peace which has reigned supreme in the county has at last been disturbed.

TRANSPORTATION MEN COMING

Angeles Can Show Committee Best Steamer Service of any Port on Puget Sound.

A committee of a dozen members from the Transportation Bureau of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce will visit Port Angeles next Friday, the 19th, on their trip around the Sound ports. Secretary Pearce of the Commercial Club is arranging for their entertainment while in the city. They will arrive at 6:30 p. m. and after dinner will be given an informal reception at the club rooms and the following morning will be taken about the city and down to Earles mills.

It is believed they will find Port Angeles, with six passenger steamers on regular runs between here and Seattle and Victoria, pretty well provided for in the transportation way, thank you.

IT CAN'T BE DONE

Grade Question Can Never Be Settled By People of Any One Section of City.

It is reported that there is to be another meeting of the powers that be to "settle" again the grade question favorable to the lower district and the railroad company. There is one way to really settle this matter and that is to take into the conference all those really entitled to be heard or their duly authorized agents. That is the way to "get together." All have the best interests of the city at heart, but when one faction of property owners persists in ignoring others who have equal rights in the matter there can be no harmony.

It is agreed or should be agreed that any street which has to tie to another has something to say as to the grade to which they have to tie and there should be some consistency expressed in the argument. There is none in the statement that Front street can only afford an assessment district of $24,000 for street improvements, while the same people are willing that other streets may be assessed at from 100 to 500 per cent of their assessed value.

TIES FOR THE RAILROAD.

The building of the S., P. A. and L. C. Ry. is furnishing work for a considerable number of men cutting ties along the right-of-way. The hewn ties are said to be more durable than those sawed at mills. West of town two or three areas, each as large as a good-sized farm, have already been cleared of standing timber and the ties are now being piled by the hundreds along the temporary track. At Discovery Bay, a Townsend man, having a contract for 85,000, has established a camp, the ties to be used between the bay and Sequim. Another contract for 40,000 has been let to a Seattle party, these also to be cut in the East End.

HEARING SET FOR THE 7TH

Council Considers Ordinance Creating Third Street North and Improving Same.

All members, except Myers and the vacancy in the Sixth, were present at Tuesday's council meeting. Considerable work was accomplished, tho possibly not all with due consideration.

Quite a bit of time was spent in the consideration of the ordinance for the creation of Third street north, and the improvement of same. As will be remembered it is the intention of the council to extend Third street through the Sampson tract now opened by Mr. Laird and others. This takes a strip about 1300 feet in length through tracts A, B and C. In consideration of the vacation of Railroad avenue and other concessions, Mr. Earles deeded to the city a strip 70 feet wide along the south side of tracts D, E and F. of said Donation claim. This is to be designated Third street north, varying in direction to the north from Third street proper. The improvement also contemplates opening of K street to Railroad avenue, making a continuous roadway from the end of the extension no wbeing built on Third street to the water front at K street on the other side of the Earles holdings. According to the ordinance, as amended upon motion of Dustman and Fisher, it is the intention of the council to assess the cost of this improvement, 40 per cent, against the abutting property to the equal of the middle of the block on either side, and 60 per cent to that property in an enlarged district, including all the Sampson Donation claim and the following blocks not otherwise assessed: 118, 123, 124, 125, 130, to 140 inclusive, 145, 146, 147 and A, B and C, being all that property bounded by 4th, F, M. and the waterfront. Said improvement to consist of the work of grading, piling, planking, etc., to a width of forty feet. The day of final hearing on the intention to improve is set for 7:30 p. m., October 7, and the engineer and clerk are directed to get out the necessary data therefor.

The Cherry street improvement ordinance was killed unceremoniously, through the failure to get enough votes to carry same. Dustman and Fisher, of the five present, voting not to disturb the street at this time.

Estimate of engineer for work done by contractors on Francis street was allowed at $675.

Engineer reported that work was not complete on Third street extension in specified time, but nearly so. Upon motion of Elliott ten days additional time was granted.

Health Officer Taylor reported as to the very unsanitary condition of certain sections of the business district. Someone suggested reference to health committee. Chairman Elliott protested that he had tried to get action for three years, and that it is health officers duty to act. Attorney Smith stated that it was undoubtedly within the power of the city to fill all low places and charge same to abutting property if necessary. Dustman thought water could be drained off with a ditch. Referred to health committee and health officer with power to act.

Violation of building and repair ordinance on lot 17, block 15, and also in the old Morse building on First and Laurel were referred to marshal to report to council.

Recommendation of electrician of purchase of 25 meters and 3 transformers of various sizes was adopted.

Fisher and Dustman, named during week as special light committee, reported having arranged with E. O'Brien for 300 cords of first growth wood to be delivered at once at $3.25 per cord. Action approved.

Dustman called attention to completion soon of the Francis street contract, and the impassible condition the new work is put in by rains. Should be gravelled at once to protect the work done. Referred to street committee and engineer for one week.

John A. Peters, republican, was elected to fill vacancy in Maine's representation in congress, receiving 15,106 votes. Pattangall, democrat, had 14,553 votes.

FELL FROM BIG TREE

Stunned and Unconscious for Hours, But Now Recovering.

Harry Truedell of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey was brought to this city on the Snohomish Saturday, suffering from internal injuries sustained in a fall of forty feet from a big fir tree in the vicinity of the mouth of the Hoh river.

With other members of the service, Truesdell was working along the west coast and was ordered to place a survey signal in the tree. He was gone so long on the trip that a searching party was sent to find him and he was discovered at the base of the tree. Dr. Woods from Neah Bay was brought to him after considerable difficulty and he was taken out to sea and later picked up by the Snohomish and brought to this city. In coming out of the Hoh into the ocean the small boat in which he was being transported was swamped in the heavy surf.

Mr. Truesdale is reported as resting comfortably and hopes of his recovery are entertained. His father has been spending the week from Marble Mount.

HOPKINS HAS SOLD GROCERY

Fred Hensen Leaves Olympic Power Company's Office to Engage in Business

A number of business transfers have taken place this week, one of the most important being the change in ownership of the Hopkins' Grocery, E. E. Hopkins having sold out to Fred Hensen. Mr. Hensen is well known to all the old timers of Port Angeles, as he grew up here from boyhood, removing to Alaska with his parents several years ago. But the lure of his old home caused him to be among the first to return when business picked up, a year ago, and he has since been working in the offices of the Olympic Power Co. He is a young man of excellent habits and good business ability and is sure to make a success of his new undertaking. We bespeak for him a full share of patronage.

Mr. Hopkins isn't stating what he will turn his attention to, but we hope to see him reengaging in business here, as he has proven to be one of Angeles' most successful business men.

ROAD CAMP ESTABLISHED,

Number of State Convicts Have Already Arrived at Hoodsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Norby and son arrived last night in the power boat Pejual, of the Townsend Motorboat club, from a fifteen day outing on Hood canal and at Lake Cushman. Mr. Norby announces that the road camp for the housing of the convicts who will be employed on the Olympic Highway has already been established near Hoodsport. A number of the convicts arrived Friday and supplies and road-building equipment is already being received. Work will begin at once on the stretch of road between Hoodsport and Lilliwaup, a portion of which has already been constructed.

While at Lake Cushman Mr. Norly had occasion to gain an idea of the amount of traffic which will be developed into this section by the construction of the road down the canal. One day fifty-three automobiles arrived at the lake, bearing parties of tourists. Almost as many made the trip every day the local people were at the lake. This, it is predicted, is only a small proportion of the traffic which may be expected when the peninsula is thrown open to tourists.—Townsend Leader.

The new social hall connected with the Methodist church was thrown open to the public last Friday evening, when a banquet was served to a large number of guests at one dollar a plate. A nice little sum was realized from theb anquet which will help in paying for the hall and everyone reported a fine dinner and good time.

READY FOR CLOSING ACT

Sides of Canyon Will Be Blown Into River, Making an Immense Dam of Rock and Concrete.

The last row of sheet steel piling has been driven this week across the Aldwell canyon just above the Olympic Power Co.'s dam, and the compressor and drills are putting down the last of the rows of holes which have been driven every ten feet or so apart both above and below the dam, ready for the final shutting off of the water.

Mr. Mead of the engineering firm of Mead & Seastone, who have charge of the new work, is expected today, when after an inspection a date will be set for the dynamiting of the upper portion of the canyon walls.

Two rows of piling have been driven to bed rock below the dam and an immense concrete caisson weighing four million pounds built up in the bed of the river, dividing the already narrow stream into two slender threads of water, mere cracks between the high rock walls. It is estimated that something like ten million pounds of rock will plunge down into these chasms when the blasting is done, completely filling the lower portion of the canyon and making a solid mass, confined between the walls of the canyon, dam, caisson and steel piling.

Above the dam, where an accumulation of sunken logs and rubbish prevented the driving of piling prior to the blowout, two rows have now been driven to bedrock, one close up to the dam and the other a short distance upstream. The blasting will hurl seventy-five thousand yards of rock and dirt down into the river, entirely filling the canyon, giving a structure more solid than any reinforced concrete wall could possibly be made.

The force has been considerably reduced of late, only seventy-two men now being employed by the company; most of the minor alterations and repairs have been completed and power can be furnished within a comparatively short time after the blasting is done.

PRIZE MONEY NOT PAID

Auxiliary Ladies Overlooked When Division of Funds Was Made.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Commercial Club was held in the library building Tuesday afternoon. A very encouraging report of the library was given by the librarian, Miss MacClure, who has been active in advertising the fact that we have a public library and thus securing new patrons for it. She also reported $2 rental from the Auxiliary card tables. It was decided to light the library with electricity, as the city promised some time ago to furnish the juice. A contract was let for wiring the room at once.

The success of their first library tea encouraged the ladies to give another, which will be held in the library room Friday afternoon, September 26. Mrs. W. A. Stoval, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. McGillivray will have it in charge.

Then followed a discourse of what was best to do about securing a site for library purposes. Several different propositions were suggested, and committees appointed to look into them. A special meeting of the Auxiliary will be called if anything feasible presents itself or if the committees obtain favorable information.

In the meantime if any of our citiens have any suggestions to make relative to the securing of a favorable site, the officers of the Auxiliary will be glad to hear from them.

The president reported that as yet the $25 prize money awarded to the Auxiliary's automobile in the Fourth of July parade had not been received, but that members of the Fourth of July committee have promised to look into the matter and see that the ladies get it at an early date.

BRAKEMAN'S LEG CRUSHED.

First Serious Accident on Trains of the Lake Crescent Railway.

Mr. Robinetto, brakeman on the Erickson Construction Co.'s train at Dry Creek, was crushed between two cars Tuesday afternoon and seriously injured. Dr. McGillivray was called and brought him in to the General Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate one leg. There are other serious injuries and the young man lies in a very critical condition. His mother lives at Kennydale, Washington, and was notified of her son's accident.

FOUND DEAD IN BOAT.

An autopsy was held Tuesday evening at the Fulmer undertaking establishment over the body of an Indian woman, who was found dead in a boat east of Lincoln street wharf Tuesday morning. The doctors decided death was due to alchoholism. Her name was Mary Jenyon, wife of James Jenyon, and she leaves one little girl. Burial was at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

DUNGENESS AGAIN LEADS AT FAIR

Clallam County Alfalfa Raised Pig Nearly Starved at Seattle Fair.

Consternation prevailed among live stock officials at the King County Fair yesterday forenoon when President Donald McInnes received the report that his enormous porker, Dungeness King, one of the biggest hogs in the world, had gone on a hunger strike with the determination of a Pankhurst disciple. President McInnes was skeptical at first, but investigation proved that Dungeness King had eaten nothing for almost twenty-four hours, although choice corn and ground barley had been placed in his trough.

"Where's the alfalfa?" asked President McInnes.

"All gone," replied the attendant.

"That explains it," said the owner of the Brobdignagian pig. "He does not know what grain is, because he was raised on pasture. Many persons have doubted my statement that this big hog was not a grain-fed product, but here is the proof."

Some green alfalfa was found, and after he had devoured it, Dungeness King condescended to take a drink of milk.

"He's never been pampered," said President McInnes to L. H. Lindbarger, of North Yakima, who has a splendid herd of Poland-China swine at the fair. Experts were amazed that Puget sound pastures could produce a hog like Dungeness King, which weighed 950 pounds yesterday and is adding adipose tissue at the rate of five pounds a day.—Seattle P. I.

65 DAYS ON COUNTY ROAD

Cornelius Jacobsen, a woodsman, was sentenced Monday to 65 days on the county road, for resisting an officer. Jacobsen was celebrating Friday night and eluded the marshal. Early Saturday morning Policeman H. D. Clark attempted to jail him. When at the entrance of the jail, Jacobsen wanted to explain that he had an important engagement, and fought to release himself. Clark had his chain around Jacobsen's wrist, but Jacobsen pried himself loose by getting his knee against the officer's body, tearing the grips through Clark's hand and badly lacerating it. It seems he then consented to him fulfilling his engagement, but later repented and with assistance jailed Jacobsen. Jacobsen states that he was perfectly sober when arrested, but remembers nothing of the charges of the night before.

Preparations for the Annual Church Fair are being made by the Ladies' Catholic Social Club. As in other years it will be held about the last week of October. Everything points to another success, and as the purpose is a laudable one, and one that helps the community in general it is deserving of the little financial aids that it solicits.

It is easier to economize after a vacation than before, for the reason it is generally compulsory.

It is estimated that it cost $2,400 to kill each of the 400,000 slain in the Balkan war. War, besides, being something else, is very expensive.

From the lack of interest taken in the Panama exhibition at San Francisco the belief is becoming general that it will probably be the last of world fairs.

Judging from the late press reports Huerta seems possessed of an inclination to listen to reason. Very possibly he has been studying the profile of the Wilson jaw.

It must be quite a relief to president Wilson to have his attention called from the tariff bill, the Mexican situation and the currency bill, to some backwoods post office.

It is getting so now that if a newspaper uses more than four lines in telling of the death of an aviator it is considered a waste of space and an infringment on the reader's time.

While at North Yakima to attend the state fair and deliver an address on "governor's day" Governor Ernest Lister will, upon the request of citizens, break ground for the new North Yakima armory. The ceremony will occur October 2.

Actual co-operation between the industrial insurance department and the labor commissioner's office has become a fact. The labor department has underlaken an investigation of numerous mills and factories which have reported more than the average number of accidents under the compensation law.

The election of Prof. William Howard Taft to the presidency of the American Bar Association came as a compliment to a great lawyer and a good citizen. Let us hope that the American bar will prove not to have made such a mistake as did the American people when they elected him to the Presidency of the Union.

The administration and its Democratic support in congress stand firm for government control in the currency bill. All pressure and all devices have failed and must continue to fail, to shake this pupose of the Administration. The people by a large majority are backing the president and congress.

SOMEWHAT REMINISCENT.

Fifty-two years ago today, September 12, 1861, this scribe was sworn into the service of his country as a private soldier, for three years, or during the war. What mighty changes have been wrought in this country in so short a period of time, figuratively speaking. Then a dark cloud of civil strife hung like a pall over the land. Now all is peace and tranquility—a united, prosperous and happy people. And what great strides in all lines of endeavor! Then the great subways in our large cities were unknown; there were no elevated railways, motor boats, nor gasoline engines, and the use of electricity was only in its infancy. No great transcontinental railroads traversed the country. The super-dreadnaught and the hydro-aeroplane had not been dreamed of as mighty messengers of peace. Dr. Cook and the great Norwegian explorer, Amundsen, were unknown. Angeles existed, if at all, only in the imagination of a hand-full of sturdy pioneers. Who can tell what the coming fifty years will bring forth? Port Angeles will then be the leading metropolis of the great Northwest, and the Olympic Peninsula the favorite resort of the tourists of the world!

When the Bulgars and Servians got to fighting and deserted Adrianople, Turkey sent a large army there and occupied the place and then announced her intention of holding it at all hazards. Now the powers have notified the Truk to get out and go back to the territory designated by the council at London. Turkey can do nothing but obey. This leaves her with only a small strip in Europe, a strip about one hundred and twenty-five miles long by about fifty miles wide at the extreme east which includes Constantinople. Thus Turkey ceases to be a power in Europe.

Four billion cards will be required by the post office department during the next four years and Postmaster General Burleson has asked for sealed proposals for furnishing that number. The contract now is held by the government printing office, but previously was executed by a private printing concern.

The post office department supplies the plates from which the cards are printed and it may change them at any time. Engravers now are working upon a portrait of Thomas Jefferson which is to be substituted for that of William McKinley on the new issue.

If our fashions continue to progress as they have recently it will not be very long until the charge that a man is "hiding behind a woman's skirts" will be prima facie absurd.

A great many will incline to the belief that, for inexcusable waste of public money, there could be hardly a more glaring example than is seen in spending thousands of dollars to bring Thaw back to the United States.

The aggregate value of personal property in the state, as returned by the various county boards of equalization, is $155,657,759, an increase of 3.7 per cent over last year's figures, which were $149,978,181.

The Strand magazine says there is a race of people in West Africa believing that every man has two souls. Some men may have two, but we've met many who we're ready to gamble haven't any soul at all.

Governor Lister has assured Asotin county citizens that he will urge a straight legislature to make good the $30,000 Lewiston bridge bond issue, held invalid by the attorney general.

Statistics show that there are in Missouri over 500 country editors who incomes are less than $12 a week apiece. Well, what would an editor do with more than $12 if he had it?

Scientists tell us that nothing is wasted; but it appears to us that all those speeches against the tariff come pretty nearly constituting a waste of energy and lung power.

ENCAMPMENT COST $1,520.

Other Side of Ledger Shows Advertising Value to Several Times That Amount.

The secretary of the Bremerton commercial club has just prepared a statement showing the receipts and expenditures of the club in entertaining the G. A. R. convention. The encampment cost the people of that city $1,520.70, an investment that doubtless returned several fold before the closing day. Among the large items given are three amounting to some four hundred dollars for the rental of cots, bedding and quarters. Practically all of the balance went for labor, which simply meant a transfer of funds locally and not an expense to the city.

The Grand Army encampment could have been pulled off in Angeles just as easily and as satisfactorily to all concerned as at Bremerton, and then we would have had something for our money, as well as a financial statement to show whose pockets it went into—which is more than we can say for our recent Fourth of July celebration.

SITE NOT SATISFACTORY.

State Cannot Make Proper Display at Exposition on Ground

That the Washington committee sent to San Francisco to choose a site for the state's building at the exposition was "jobbed," is the assertion made by Frank L. Hale of Tacoma, member of the fair commission appointed by Governor Lister. Owing to the dissatisfaction with the ground offered for the Washington building, the commission has rejected it, and has also objected to a substitute site offered. Commissioner Hale said it is now up to the governor and the Washington legislature to decide whether the state will withdraw entirely from participation in the big fair.

"We went to San Francisco under the order of Governor Lister and found that there were not four and a half acres of ground awaiting us for the state's exhibits, as had been represented," said Mr. Hale. "As a matter of fact, it is only a small piece of ground, on which we cannot construct a building with more than 11,200 square feet of floor space.

"The officials of the fair seemed dissatisfied that we had no more money to spend at the exposition. They urged us to get our legislature to appropriate more. We believe with Gov. Lister, however, that a proper display can be made for $175,000.

"It is the commission's desire to erect a building with 25,000 square feet of floor space. The 11,200 feet offered would not be at all satisfactory and we could not show the Washington products which we desire to show. A building erected on the site would not be larger than 80 by 140 feet, which anyone can understand would not be sufficient.

"The site offered us in place of this is not in any degree acceptable. It is away out of the location of the other large buildings, back in the jungles, you might almost say.

"As far as the rumor that we will not exhibit at the fair—that we will withdraw, I do not believe this will be done. It is our opinion that we could not do so without the legislature and the governor took action. The money was appropriated and it is up to us to spend it.

"We have left it to the chairman of the commission to select an architect who will go to San Francisco and see what can be done with the site."

A NEW EMPIRE.

War has ceased in the Balkan states, the armies have returned home and the powers are busy with the question of dividing the territory. One thing has been settled that is pleasing to Austria. It has been determined that Albania, the western province, shall become an independent nation, with a hereditary ruler to be chosen in six months. For a great many years Albania has been under the heel of Turkey, a rich country that was robbed by taxes, kept down and humiliated in every way. Her people are quiet and industrious and when left alone have always been thrifty. Whenever they did not pay up their taxes quickly Turkey would send over an army that would kill a few thousands. The territory of Albania will be cut down somewhat, giving Montenegro a small slice, yet there will be enough to make an empire larger than a number of European kingdoms. It was through the instrumentality of Austria that this was brought about and Austria expects Albania will become her strong ally.

Proceedings of Board of Clallam County Commissioners

Tuesday, September 2, 1913, at 9 a. m.

The board met on Tuesday, September 2, 1913, not being able to meet on Monday, September 1, that being a holiday, all members being present.

A petition having been filed for the incorporation of that portion of Clallam county known as Sequim, as a town of the fourth class, and the same having more than sixty (60) signers as provided by law, and having been duly published in the "Sequim Press" for three consecutive weeks, as evidenced by an affidavit of publication, the board proceeded to hear the same.

The proposed boundaries of said town were described in said petition as follows: Starting at a point known to be the Section corner of Section 17, 18, 19 and 20 in Township 30 North, Range 3 West of Willamette Meridian, and running westerly to the Northwest corner of the Northeast quarter of Section 19; thence South across said section to the Southwest corner of the Southeast quarter of said section; thence east to the Section corner of Sections 19, 20, 29 and 30; thence North across said Section to the Northeast corner of the Northwest quarter of said Section; thence west to the Section corner of Sections 17, 18, 19 and 20, the point of beginning.

Upon said hearing, the Board deemed it advisable to withdraw from said territory to be incorporated, the North half of the Northwest quarter, and the Southeast quarter of the Northwest quarter, and the East half of the Southwest quarter of said Section 20, and established the following boundaries of the territory proposed to be incorporated: Beginning at the Section corner common to Sections 17, 18, 19 and 20 in Township 30 North, Range 3 West, W. M., thence Westerly to the Northwest corner of the Northeast quarter of Section Nineteen; thence southerly across said Section Nineteen 19 to the Southwest corner of the Southeast quarter of said Section 19; thence easterly to the Southeast corner of the Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 20. thence Northerly to the Northeast corner of the Southwest quarter of the Northwest quarter of said Section 20; thence Westerly to the Southwest corner of the Northwest quarter of the Northwest quarter of said Section 20; thence northerly to the Section corner common to said Sections 17, 18, 19 and 20, the point of beginning; and the Board being satisfied that said territory has a population of more than 300, ordered the Auditor to publish notice, according to law, for the holding of an election within the above described territory on Tuesday, October 14, 1913, to determine whether said territory shall be incorporated as a fourth class town.

The Board appointed the following to act as election officers at said election; J. B. Knapman, Inspector, and J. S. Bugge and F. D. Babcock, Judges; and designated the G. A. R. Hall as the Polling place.

The Board approved the following bonds: Thos. Geisness, superintendent of schools; Sloane Bros., contractors on road from Morse Creek to Siebert's Creek; and Amore Myers, George Myers and Charles Fitzgerald, contactors on Permanent Highway No. 2.

The Board adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, heretofore, on February 6, 1906, and February 28, 1907, this Board entered an order vacating portions of the plat of the West End Syndicate Addition to Port Angeles, which orders are entered in Commissioner's Journal No. 7, at pages 276 and 440, and

"Whereas, said orders were made without jurisdiction in the premises and are illegal, and

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 10.—Interesting sidelights upon the changes that are occurring in the agricultural and commercial life of the State of Washington are afforded by a comparative study of the returns made by the 39 county assessors to the state board of equalization.

The marked increase in the number of automobiles reported, more than 50 per cent., has been referred to before, also the fact that a large proportion of the new motor cars are reported from agricultural counties, In comparison with this the production of horses appears to be virtually at a standstill. There were 258,023 listed this year as against 254,134 a year ago, and practically all of this increase came in work horses. Horses used for driving and as saddle animals actually showed a decrease, thus tending to prove that the automobile is rapidly supplanting the horse for pleasure purposes, but not for actual work.

This is pointed out even more clearly by two other items in the returns. The total number of drays, wagon and trucks shows an increase from 65,218 in 1912 to 66,265 this year, but on the other hand, the lighter vehicles, such as carriages, buggies and cabs, show a falling off from 40,708 in 1912, to 39,073 this year.

Washington is becoming more of a state for stock and dairy cattle. Stock cattle showed an increase from 122,922 to 138,978, more than 20 per cent in a year, while the number of yearlings showed an even more significant increase, from 51,328 to 67,510, or 30 per cent gain. Milch cows increased from 141,573 to 149,140.

The raising of hogs also is an industry that is gaining by leaps and bounds. Last year there were 108,593 porkers listed, this year there are 132,696, showing increase of better than 20 per cent. Mules also show a good gain, principally from the farming communities, 13,963 being listed as against 12,121 in 1912, a 15 per cent increase.

On the other hand, the sheep industry is falling off slightly, though not enough to show that the free wool proposal will be of serious inconvenience. There are 407,577 sheep listed this year as against 409,336 a year ago.

The state board of control has under way important work on new buildings for state institutions. At the northern hospital for the insane, near Sedro Woolley, contractors already are at work upon four new ward buildings, which, with plumbing, heating and ventilating plants, will cost complete close to $230,000. Contacts will be awarded September 15 for building at the state veterans' home at Orting that will cost in the neighborhood of 80,000, including two cottages, a barracks building, a laundry, an assembly hall and a commandant's residence.

Plans have just been prepared and approved for new buildings at the state institution for the feeble minded at Medical Lake, which will cost in the vicinity of $230,000. These include a custodial building, a superintendent's residence, a school building, a cottage for inmates and a combination storehouse and employes' dormitory.

When completed these improvements will increase the capacity of the institution by about 175 pupils and the waiting list can be reduced by this number.

The principal object of the change, however, is to provide farm work and outdoor life for the boys. The new buildings for the boys will be located on a new tract of land more than a mile distant from the present location, where the girls will remain. Governor Lister believes the fact that the boys will be employed during the day, cultivating the new land, will be of immense value to them, besides which the agricultural products which will be raised are expected to reduce materially the cost of maintenance.

Through the efforts of A. B. Ernst, new member of the industrial insurance commission, use is to be made at last of the idle state money in the accident fund under the workmen's compensation act. The amount of money in this fund ranges from $350,000 to $400,000 and to date not one cent of interest has been obtained from it, though the reserve fund, consisting of those sums of money set aside to pay pensions under the compensation act, is practically all invested. The state board of finance last week made arrangements to purchase $112,000 worth of Seattle port district bonds out of the accident fund and it is anticipated that in all about $200,000 of this fund may be invested without hampering the operation of the department in any way.

Condemnation and destruction of potatoes infested with tuber moths, which has been followed vigorously at Seattle by agents of the state department of agriculture, has not been halted by the filing of a suit for damages against formen horticultural inspector F. A. Huntley. California growers whose potatoes were destroyed by Huntley's orders seek compensation of $1300. Commissioner Perkins of the agricultural department, though exercising care to to interfere with no good shipments, continues to insist that no potatoes bearing dangerous pests be allowed to gain a foothold in the state.

Here are a few interesting facts gleaned from the 1913 tax rolls:

Whitman county has more work horses than any other county in the state.

Yakima county has more stock cattle than any other, 13, 095, of which 5,459 are yearlings.

King county has the most milch cows, 18,712, and Snohomish county, with 11,644, is second.

State Forester E. W. Ferris, last Saturday made about a 50 per cent reduction in his forces of rangers and if the weather is favorable September 15will let the rest of his men go on that date. The records this year, which will be completed at the end of the month, will show less loss and also less expense than in 1912.

What was thought to have been hemorrhagic septicemia a deadly cattle disease, appearing at various parts of southwestern Washington, may prove to be merely stock poison. Analysis made at Washington state college, at the instance of the department of agriculture, fails to show trace of septicemia germs.

Washington's first convict "honor camp" was established on the shore of Hood's Canal this week. Thirty prisoners from Walla Walla set to work without guard, bound only by their written promise on the "word of honor" of each to make no attempt to escape and to obey their foreman. They are working on the Olympic highway.

SPREADS THE GOOD WORD ABOUT PORT ANGELES

W. S. Pearce, Secretary of Its Commercial Club, Tells of Its Progress.

With extensive municipal improvements under way which will add largely to the attractiveness of the city, the citizens of Port Angeles are reaching out in their efforts to extend the facilities of their progressive community, according to Secretary W. S. Pearce, of the Port Angeles Commercial club, who was in Tacoma yesterday, says the Tacoma Ledger.

"Port Angeles is particularily fortunate from an industrial standpoint," he said, "and with its 4,000 population, it is making rapid strides towards the 10,000 mark within the next few years.

"This statement is not extravagant when it is taken into consideration that the Milwaukee railroad will be running trains into the city next summer. With both rail and water transportation, coupled with minimum freight rates which will be enjoyed by lumbermen and other manufacturers, some of the largest lumber interests in the country are now erecting great saw mill plants in Port Angeles and others are soon to fol low.

"The hydro-electric power plant, which is being built at an outlay of $1,500,000 in the Elwha river, six miles from Port Angeles, will be completed and ready to furnish light and power to the Olympic peninsula within four months; 8,000 horsepower will be developed at present, and plans have been made to increase to 25,000 horsepower when there shall be a demand for it.

"The Olympic Hotel, an imposing structure of three stories is rapidly nearing completion. The hostelry will be modern in every particular, and is being built at an expenditure of $90,000. Its doors will be thrown open to the public on September 15.

"Several thousand guests have passed through Port Angeles this season to the Sol Duc hot springs near the city. This famous resort, together with the beautiful lakes and mountain streams alive with all varieties of trout, offers an allurement to the tourist in search of health or pleasure."

Claiming that the Olympic Peninsula country just now is undergoing a development and business activity hardly to be equaled by any other part of the state, W. S. Pearce, secretary of the Port Angeles Commercial Club, in an interview Saturday in the Seattle Times, pointed to the fact that more than $2,500,000 is being expended in Port Angeles and immediate territory in the construction of immense saw and shingle mills and other improvements. This is outside of the Olympic line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway system, which is to penetrate an empire of magnificent virgin standing timber and on which work is being vigorously prosecuted.

"The aggregate of money now being invested in large improvements in and about Port Angeles exceeds $2,500,000, said Pearce. "For several months past work has been under way on the immense new saw mill of the Puget Sound Mills & Timber company, of which Michael Earles, Seattle banker and owner of Sol Duc Hot Springs Hotel, is president. The saw mill plant and shingle mill of this company will represent an outlay of close to $1,000,000, while both mills will be among the largest, if not the largest, in the world.

"Work on the hydro-electric plant of the Olympic Power Company is being rushed, and the Olympic Peninsula country will have electric power available for manufacturing, farming and other purposes with a few months. The plant is located on the Elwha river near Port Angeles and the mammoth masonry and steel dam by means of which 8,000 electric horsepower will be developed is almost completed. This undertaking represents an expenditure of close to $1,500,000. Ultimately the plant will be developed to produce 25,000 horsepower.

"The new Olympic Hotel, built of brick and masonry and costing $90,000, is soon to be opened, filling a long-felt want.

A few days ago Jim Maddock decided to build about a hundred feet of concrete walk from the gate of his house. Therefore he ordered a lot of cement. At the same time, and from the same dealer, he ordered a load of chopped feed for his cows. In the delivery, four sacks of the cement found its way to he barn and four sacks of feed was delivered where the concrete was o be mixed. Jim innocently fed the cement to some of his cows, and they are now turning to stone. The first noticeable effect on the cows was shown in the milk. Customers discovered that there was some substance to the milk which had been lacking before. The limbs of four of his cows have already become like concrete and the cows cannot bend them at the knees. If the damage had stopped here the mixup would not have been so bad, but W. H. Vallad, who built the walk, mixed the four sacks of feed in the concrete and now the rats are eating the walk.—Quilcene Megaphone.

WASHINGTON STATE NEWS

SEATTLE, Sept. 10.—Seattle is getting around to the belief that the only way it can improve its city government is to adopt the Commission form of government. The agitation in favor of a commission to succeed the present city council is going quietly on and it is generally admitted that within the next few months the sentiment will have crystalized to the extent of making its adoption imperative. Seattle used to elect its city council by wards, but a few years ago it came to be very unpopular with the result that the policy was abandoned and councilmen, nine, are now elected at large. This change for a time improved city conditions somewhat, but for some time past there has been a strong and growing sentiment that the councilman-at-large system is in no sense what it should be, and the more progressive people of the city are now demanding that the commission form be introduced. It is conceded to be a question of only a short time when this change will be brought about.

Official information received from Norway is tothe effect that with the opening of the Panama canal close to 2,000,000 settlers will come to the cities and states of the Pacific coast. It is stated that to date 76,000 tickets have been purchased at Berlin alone for Pacific coast ports These settlers are among the very best of the Europeans. Many of them are farmers who are coming to the coast for the purpose of taking up agricultural lands. Most of the settlers will come from Germany, and it is stated that they will come prepared to buy land and establish themselves in the farming business.

The Washington Monument Society, largely through the efforts of Governor Lister, has brought about the use of Washington stone in the Washington monument at Washington, D. C. Dispatches received from the War department during the past week confirms the news that Washington stone will be used. The stones, with proper inscriptions already imbedded in the monument, are to be found at intervals along the winding stairway leading to the apex.

Did you, as a Port Angelesite, ever stop to consider the distance that separates you from your friends who reside in the far away East and South, and yet of the nearness in sympathies, love and tenderness that exists between yourself and those friends? We were forcibly reminded of this today when C. C. Bradshaw called to square the books for the three copies of the Olympic-Leader he is paying for. One copy goes to his home in Eden Valley, another to the address of a brother-in-law in eastern Tennessee and the third one to another brother-in-law in far away Texas.

ASTIGMATISM OF THE EYE

When the eye is said to be astigmatic, the meaning is that the eye has a double focus. This annoys the brain and the eye will strain unconsciously to bring about a clear focus; this strain usually causes headaches.

Astigmatism is usually congenital or so at birth—it is remedied by wearing glasses ground from the segment of a cylinder. These glasses, if rightly made, bring images to a focus on the retina and thus relieve all strain.

Children, as well as adults, suffer from astigmatism. I am prepared to correct all common or complicated errors of sight —my examinations are free.

NO COBWEBS ON THEIR DOORS

Once upon a time (but this is no fairy tale) Mark Twain was the editor of a weekly paper in Missouri. One day a subscriber came into the office and stated that he had found a spider in his paper when he took it from the mail. He wondered whether that was the sign of good or bad luck. Mark Twain answered as follows: "Finding a spider in your paper means neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over the paper to see which merchant never advertises, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

It is a sure thing that no webs will be spun over the doors of The Leader Department or The Phelps Dry Goods and Millinery Stores. Note their Fall Opening announcements in this issue of the Olympic Leader. Nothing indicates the progressiveness of a town more than its wide-awake business men, who do not hide their light under a basket, but let it shine forth proclaiming their wares.

The attention of the city council is called to a pill peddlar who has been operating in the city the past week. This fellow, like others who have been here, has been distributing kidney pills by throwing them into the yards of homes throughout the city. It is natural that children pick them up and being sugar coated in most instances eat them with painful results. In each one of these distributions some child gets and eats some of these highly colored pills and a stop should be put to the practice.

"The County Fair," a very popular stage production, is to be given here next week under the auspices of St. Andrews Guild. It is quite an undertaking to stage 300 children but that is what will be done in some of the choruses. The entertainment is under the management of a professional and promises to be great.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Sophomore class held a meeting Wednesday for the purpose of electing new officers. Norman Nelson was elected president; Frank Fisher, vice-president; Florence Pettitt, secretary and Bernice Campbell, treasurer.

Mr. Gilmore, with the aid of some of the pupils, has been reorganizing the high school library, which has been in a state of confusion since moving to the new building.

The chemistry laboratory has been furnished with an excellent equipment and Mr. Failor has a class of nine in that subject.

The music room has been furnished with seats and Miss Hazel Morse has been hired for a new primary teacher. Part of the seats for the auditorium have been received and the rest will come Monday. They will be put in directly and the high school students will use this as a study room.

ELIMINATE THE ELEVENTH ONE.

At the Congregational church last Sunday morning, the pastor spoke in reference to the new life that was coming into our city and evidences of the spirit of progress, improvement and prosperity with which our people are imbued. He spoke of the change that had come over the people for the better within the year. One could walk down Front street at the present and find ten boosters where there was one kicker, a reversing of the figures of a year ago.

But while this is true the shame of it is that there should be even one kicker in all Angeles at any time.

With Pastor Smith, this paper believes that what we want here in Angeles is a little more of the spirit of the brotherhood of man, of progressiveness, of the spirit of unity of action — a get-togethertiveness — "a tighter grip on the word of God," if we expect to eliminate the eleventh one—the knocker.

Lou Shomar and Billy Dippold have rented the Morse building, corner First and Front, for use as a garage.

MICHAEL GERATY DEAD

At One Time a Prosperous Business Man and Owner of Valuable Property.

Michael Geraty, a pioneer resident of this city and a striking character of this section, died Tuesday noon at the General Hospital of alcoholism, which during the last two days developed into pneumonia. The end of this aged man is one of the sad inevitable occurrences of a careless life. He was once a respected and influential citizen, the owner of one of the most valuable and accessible farms in this vicinity, and valuable residence and business property in this city. For many years, from 1888 to about ten years ago, he was the proprietor of the Old Crow saloon, still in existence here and still at the old stand. He built the first brick building erected in Clallam county, now owned by A. A. Richardson. He was always a jolly, good natured Irishman, and would help his friend with his last dollar, never thinking of himself, always taking it for granted that everything would come out all right. He could not break away from his old surroundings in his old age, and preferred to be among, if not one, of the boys, living as chance might present the opportunity rather than remain at the Westphal Home where comfort and plenty at least were provided. He died with many friends of small means who would often assist him, but found himself deserted at the last by those who profited most from his generosity. Peace be to his ashes.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis and the latter's little daughter, left Wednesday for a month's absence in the East. Dr. will attend to business matters in Washington, D. C., and then will visit New York City and other prominent cities before returning.

OTHER GOOD ONES TO FOLLOW

HIT BY EARTHQUAKE.

E. E. Doyle narrowly missed a pair of crutches on the occasion of the recent earthquake, which, in view of the fact that he has not been principal factotum in an accident for some time back, was the more surprising. Two 300-pound tanks of oil, toppled over by the tremor, rolled against the Senator, who affirms that, had he not been standing with his legs well braced, would surely have had one broken.

C. J. Farmer was a returning passenger to Seattle Wednesday.
