

Two New Foresters For Soleduck Ranger District

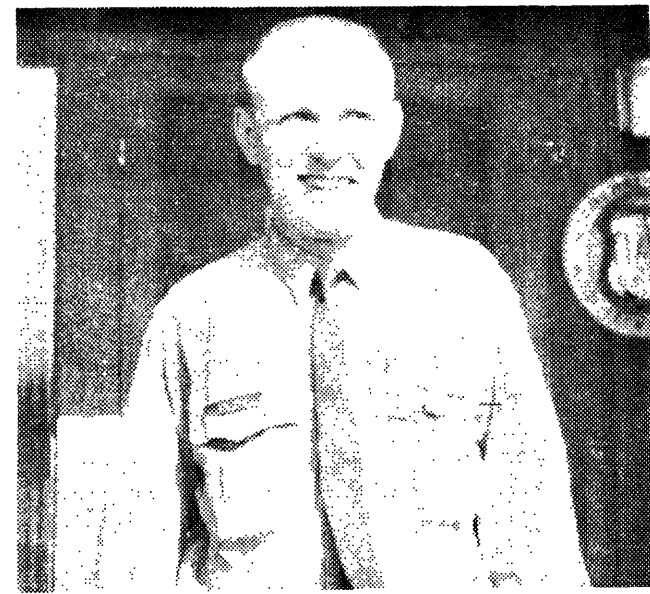

The Sol Duc Ranger District of the Olympic National Forest has two new personnel added to the staff; Mr. Dave Fraser, pre-sale forester, and Mr. Philip Jaspers, tree management forester.

Dave Fraser is a pre-sale forester for the Sol Duc Ranger District. He came here from the Sweet Home Ranger District of the Willamette National Forest where he was in sales administration. Dave is a native of Flint, Michigan, and is a 1962 grad of the University of Michigan school of forestry. He began permanent employment with the U.S. Forest Service in 1962. Dave and his family - wife, Ann, and son, Timothy, five months - live in headquarter housing at the ranger station.

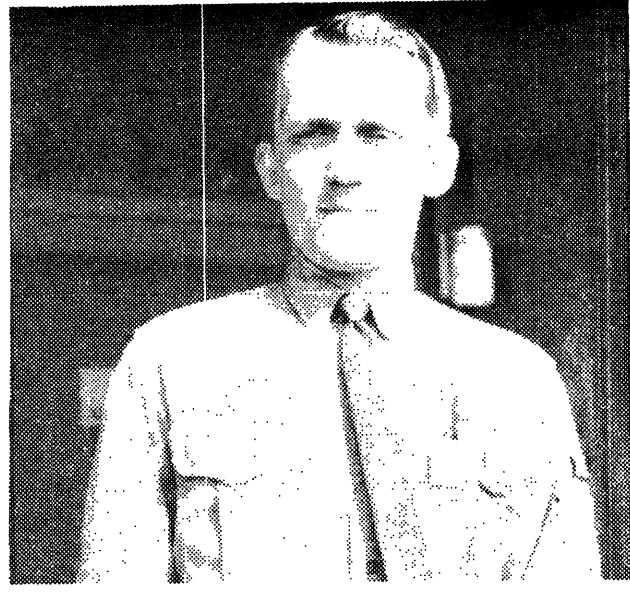

Philip Jaspers is the new ranger in charge of civil culture - in lay terms, tree management. This involves reforestation, pre-commercial thinnings and second growth management. Philip moved here from the Rigdon Ranger District of the Willamette National Forest, Oakridge, Oregon. The position of pre-sale forester he held after graduation from the University of Idaho in 1962. The Jaspers are newlyweds. Philip hails from Lewiston, Idaho, and his wife, Kathleen, is from Eugene, Oregon. Kathleen is a R.N. and will be working at Forks Community Hospital. The positions here for Dave and Philip were promotions to supervisory foresters. The Sol Duc Ranger District is smaller than the districts they advanced from. They both admitted the climate and rainfall will be a slight change from what they are familiar with, and it's an element of the job one must be accustomed to.

Short Comings

A correction in the Doug Foster funeral notice: Rev. Ron Roberts, Pacific Beach, officiated at the funeral and not Rev. William Hawk as previously reported.

It's only 28 miles from Forks to Clallam Bay and the journey can be made in 35 minutes. If you haven't been over the new section of the Burnt Mountain Road, and are looking for a scenic Sunday drive, then take this scenic drive.

The editor makes the jaunt to Clallam Bay once a week, and every trip has proven rewarding. Last Friday a bobcat was spotted running along next to the road. The week before it was a bear, two coyotes and a 3-point buck.

The Pysht Valley gives one a panoramic view and the new section of road is flanked by a bright green grass planted along the road cut to help prevent erosion.

The Forum has subscription drives underway in Forks and Clallam Bay. In Forks, the high school journalism class is conducting the drive, and in Clallam Bay, it's the athletic department. The subscription rate is $4.80 per year. The groups receive $1.00 for each subscription (not renewals) sold.

We see by the Port Angeles paper that the city of Port Angeles is cracking down on noisy vehicles. Many of the logging trucks were within the legal 95 decibel city ordinance. Six logging trucks were ticketed Friday.

The anti-noise move by the city came without due warning. Trucks with large diesel engines and several thousands of pounds of logs will make quite a little noise pulling the First Street hill. The noise will be even greater if they have to stop for the light at 1st and Lincoln.

Logging trucks carry the "life line" of Port Angeles industry. Be reasonable, Port Angeles.

Disaster Committee Assists Burn Outs

Mrs. Helen Burdick, Community Council Disaster Committee Chairman, presents $250 UGN relief check to Mrs. Jennifer Swartsel. Mrs. Kate Campbell and Mrs. Sharon Jensen look on. The Swartsel and Jensen families were burned out in a fire at Mill Creek Cabins.

The Community Council Disaster Committee is made up of volunteers responsible for assisting needy families in times of distress, such as floods and fires, when personal belongings have been destroyed.

Helen Burdick is chairman of the committee and Kate Campbell is co-chairman. Committeemen are: Roy Black, Sr., LaPush; Bill Pirnke, Sappho; Darlene Counterman, Shuwah; Theodore Hudson, Hoh; and Dolores Edwards.

The committee, represents the Community Council and actually represents, in this area, the services of UGN and Salvation Army in addition to the Community Council. The Calawa Rebekah's supply clothing through the Council.

On September 22, two families were burned out in the fire at Mill Creek. All personal belongings of the Jensen and Swartsel families in the house and those of a friend, Mr. Ron McCabe, were destroyed. The Community Council Disaster Relief Committee presented the people with a $50 check to purchase groceries, and clothing from the Rebekah's. The UGN relief sent a $250 check to the Disaster Committee to present to the families.

The families receiving help were residents here for a short time, but they will certainly remember the help this community has given them.

The Community Council Disaster Relief Committee is just another example of Forks people's volunteer efforts.

Citizens Show Support For Local Schools

Quillayute Valley School District 402's $600,000 bond issue for elementary construction has officially passed.

1030 votes were counted on the bond issue election; 643 votes for, and 389 against. The final count shows better than 62% favorable. The final absentee count was 38 for and 29 against. The issue needed 60% favorable vote to pass and 40% of the vote in the previous general election. The local precincts had one of the highest voting percentages in the state.

The board will now meet with the architectural firm, Charles Rueger and Associates, to reaffirm plans and finalize details of roof design and construction costs.

The board will also discuss the sale of bonds and other details with the legal advisors.

October 17 is the date of the next regular board meeting and final details may be known and presented at that time.

A Place In The Sun

Business enterprises that move with the tide of change generally prosper and continue to grow. A brochure of the nation's largest express company tracing its history from the early 1800's to the present clearly shows how one business took change in stride during a century that witnessed the greatest material progress in human history.

During the express business' formative stages, wheelbarrows and carterbags comprised the heart of a "pickup and delivery" fleet. Horse-drawn wagons were the next step in modernization. The horse provided express motive power for more than half a century. As the rail network extended across the country, express became synonymous with speed and reliability, and the express business along with the jobs that depended upon it appeared established for all time. But, technology upset the applecart, and new metropolitan areas sprang up virtually overnight. The transportation network expanded by land and by air.

Once again the express business is fighting for a place in the sun, so far as transportation is concerned. Its new Hub city system for handling shipments is but part of the new scheme of things. When the dust of change momentarily settles, chances are excellent that express, like other enterprises that are determined to move with the times, will be carrying on stronger than ever before. The moral is plain. There is no alternative to moving ahead, and for this we are fortunate, or we might be still living in caves.

Presidential Election

With several national polls showing Hubert Humphrey running behind third-party candidate George Wallace, Wally Turner, GOP nominee for Congress from the Second District, warns that "A vote for Congress this year could well be a vote for president." He pointed out that in a close three-way presidential race the election could be thrown into the House of Representatives.

"If no presidential candidate receives a majority of the votes cast by the electoral college -- or at least 270 -- the Constitution provides that the House of Representatives which convenes next January select the president from among the three top candidates," Turner noted. "This means that, although Hubert Humphrey may run third nationwide, he could still be elected president by the House which is presently controlled by the Democrats."

Pointing out that the Republicans need control of 26 state delegations in the House to make certain Humphrey is not elected president, Turner emphasized, "The nation cannot afford another four years of permissive extravagance. It is vital that we get started on real solutions to the nation's problems, and a Republican administration backed up by a Republican Congress is the answer."

"The American people can assure themselves a working team in Washington next January by voting to back up Dick Nixon with a Republican Congress. They also can head off the possibility that a candidate who places third will be elected president -- just because his party happens to control the House of Representatives."

Dividend For The Future

Quite frequently refugees from nations where the people are subjected to political oppression quickly become loyal supporters of the U.S. system of government and private enterprise. Another source of support has now been reported, which is encouraging.

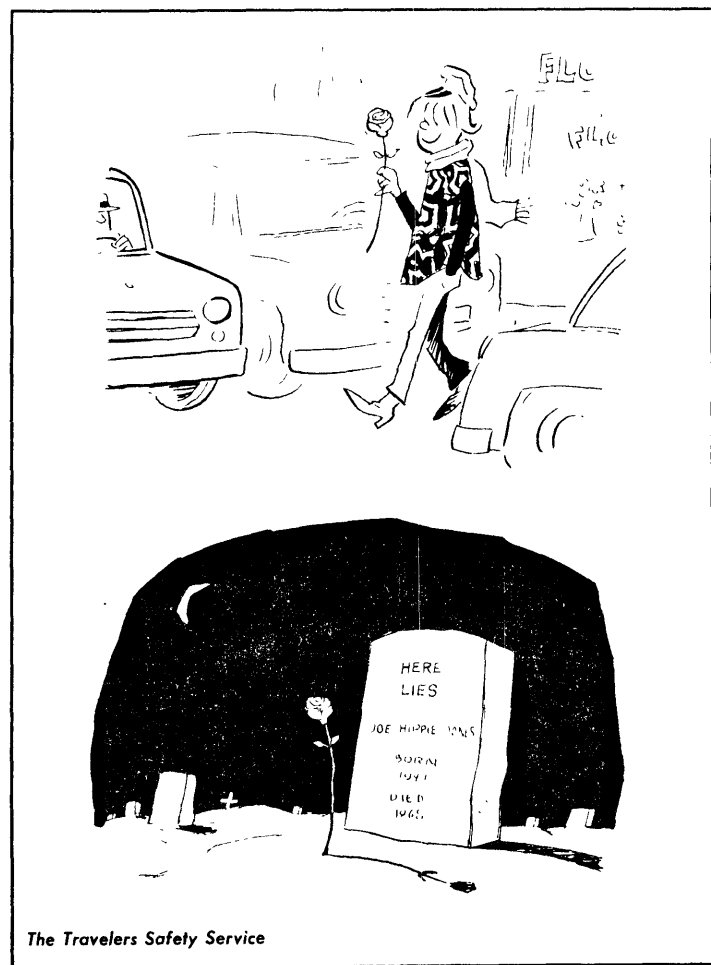

About 12 per cent of Peace Corps volunteers returning to this country head straight for business. It is said that their experience with American business firms in underdeveloped nations of the world has impressed them favorably. These volunteers end up wanting very much to be part of such organizations, and they are coming back to go into banking, into manufacturing, into technical services training. According to the report, the Peace Corps is now feeding into industry and business about as many recruits as there are students with business major graduating from American colleges.

The Peace Corps, in the opinion of many, has been one of the more worthy programs. Its members have helped promote international understanding and the well-being of underdeveloped areas. The fact that they return to the U.S.

with a greater appreciation of its institutions is a dividend that may have a telling effect on the future of our nation.

THE UNINVITED!

CONGRESSIONAL REVIEW NEEDED

The National Labor Relations Board, in judging the relationship of unions, management and employees, "displays such flagrant bias that our free-bargaining system is seriously impaired," say authors George Denison and William Schulz in the August Reader's Digest.

In an article entitled, "Let's Enforce Our Labor Laws Fairly," they cite case after case to prove that the Board shows "unabashed bias" in many decisions, and they cite the opinions of leading experts as to the devastating effect of these rulings.

Sen. Robert Griffin, co-author of the Landrum-Griffin Act and a top labor expert, says: "Those who suffer from the Board's twisted and distorted rulings are individual workers, small businessmen and the public at large."

Guy Farmer, former NLRB chairman, says that the intent of Congress has been systematically thwarted by the Board in sanctioning union abuses while restricting management rights. In fact, says Farmer, the delicate balance between labor and management has been so altered that "the process of free collective bargaining is rapidly approaching a complete breakdown."

Dr. Herbert R. Northrup, industrial relations professor at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, says: "In its zeal to enhance the power of no-longer struggling unions, the Board has ignored basic justice and trampled cherished freedom."

There is sufficient evidence in the Reader's Digest article to warrant a full-scale review by Congress of labor law to determine how it can more effectively serve the public interest.

SPORTS WANDERINGS . . .

Spartans of the week have to go to two big Forks linemen - Rick Liles and Gary Gaydeski - for tremendous offensive and defensive play.

Gary, 6'1", 185 pound, senior tackle, was all over the field. He recovered a fumble and returned it 12 yards to the Bainbridge 10 to set up the second Forks score. He recovered a fumbled kick to keep Forks out of the hole before the half.

Rick was a tiger on defense and teamed with Gary as the leading blockers for the sweeps of Mike Price.

Richard Liles - Gary Gaydeski

Denny McLain failed in his bid to win his 32nd victory, and is faced with the task of stopping the likes of Brook Flood Maris & Co. of the Cardinals.

This column's choice for rookie of the year goes to Jerry Kosman of the New York Mets. He wound up the season 19-12 as the Mets clinched a tie for 9th on his three-hitter against the Phils.

Our picks for most valuable in each league go to Denny McLain of Detroit and Lou Brock of St. Louis. For a non pennant team, our pick is Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs. Biggest disappointment of the season has to be the finish of the Chicago White Sox.

Fishing for salmon and cutts in local streams has hit a peak. All streams are full of fish waiting for the anglers lure. The Quillayute is the hot spot for salmon - both kings and jacks. The Hoh is also a good bet.

Silvers and the occasional king are providing excellent fishing out of Sekiu and should continue thru the first part of October.

Forks Drops 20-14 Game

Spartan football was packed with excitement here Friday as the Forks Spartans dropped a thriller to the Bainbridge Spartans 20-14 on a fourth quarter 80 yard pass play from John Godfrey to Larry Smith.

Forks took an early 7-0 lead after the opening kickoff when they marched 62 yards to score. The half ended with Forks ahead 7-0. Bainbridge marched 61 yards early in the third quarter to tie 7-7. Forks tallied in the fourth and led 14-7. Bainbridge answered that with a 60 yard touchdown pass 27 seconds later. The next time Bainbridge got its hands on the ball they completed an 80 yard scoring pass for the final 20-14 victory. It was all Forks in the first half as they controlled the ball, running 38 plays to 27 for Bainbridge. Big Mike Price gained 86 yards rushing the first half and had a total of 117 for the game.

Forks scored on the first drive of the game after a 62 yard march behind the running of Mike Price and fullback Pete Dahlgren. Price scored from the 6 with 7:52 left in the first quarter behind the blocking of Dahlgren, Rich Liles and Gary Gaydeski.

Early in the second quarter, Bainbridge had a score nullified by a clipping penalty. After an exchange of punts, Forks faced a situation of 4th and 1 on their own 29. Forks failed to pick up the 1st down and Bainbridge marched to the 2 yard line, where Dave Beebe recovered a Bainbridge fumble to halt the drive. On third down, Bob Seigle got a 20 yard quick kick. Bainbridge fumbled, Gary Gaydeski recovered for Forks. Forks fumbled after two running plays. Bainbridge attempted 3 passes and had a 23 yard run by John Godfrey for a 1st down, but the half ended. After an exchange of punts, Bainbridge launched a 61 drive to paydirt behind the running of Dwight Sakuma and John Godfrey. Sakuma ripped off the right side from 4 yards out for the touchdown and added the extra point to tie the score 7-7.

Early in the 4th quarter, Gary Gaydeski picked up a Bainbridge fumble and carried it 12 yards to the Bainbridge 10. Dahlgren went up the middle for 2. Price off right tackle for 3 yards. Face mask penalty placed the ball on the 4. Price hit right guard for 2 yards and Dahlgren plunged the final 2 yards for the score. Price added the extra point.

Bainbridge struck back and scored two touchdowns within a minute. Godfrey hit Larry Smith with a 60 yard scoring pass with 5:47 left in the game and at the 5:37 point, hit Smith with an 80 yard scoring pass and run. Forks drove to the Bainbridge 38 after the kick, but failed on a 4th and 2 play.

Bainbridge held onto the ball to run out the clock. Next week it's on to the Key City to battle the Port Townsend Redskins.

JV Game Here Sat.

Forks has picked up a ballgame for the junior varsity to be played here against Joyce, October 5, at 7:30.

Joyce is a member of the North Olympic 8-man league. The Spartans play at Port Townsend Friday, and all sophomores and some juniors not seeing action in that game will play against Joyce the following evening.

Tentatively, the game will be a mixture of 8 and 11-man, Joyce playing 8-man on offense and Forks 11-man offense.

SUNSET HIGHLITES

FROM YOUR LOCAL BOWLING CENTER
By FRED JARVIS

Should be out fishing or beachcombing on a day like this, but went down and bowled a few lines instead. Wouldn't you know it, just started hitting pretty good and the dad-burned lights went out. Sure need the practice after last week. Really went all out last Tuesday night. Had a big 116 game and a whopping big 445 series.

The way some of the women are bowling lately, am going to have to go to them for instructions.

Sure easy when you're bowling good, and it's nothing but hard work when you're bowling bad. Back to the practice sessions.

Tuesday afternoon's Hi 10 and Hi 30 belonged to Kay Sunburn with her 179-466.

John's Motors team is out in front by two in the Sunset League. Bob Andrea slapped 223 pins around for Hi 10 and D.J. Caulkins' 579 was high series for the night.

Leta Rondeau had a 202-552 to lead the Wed. Powder Puffs. Sally Nagel had a 528.

Tops for the Wed. night Hoot Owls was Kathy Hamby who had a 206-477.

The Thursday night Women's League has Coast-to-Coast out in front by one. Lotus Huling led all bowlers with 215-527.

Harry Lefler had a 216 and Willis Bryan a 525 in the West End League.

In the Early Fri. Night Mixed, Jerry Beebe topped all women with 171-510. Wayne Cline had a pretty husky 231 for Hi 10 honors for the men: and Fred Jarvis rolled a Hi 30 of 575.

Joyce Blair really had her ball rolling as she beat all bowlers on the Late Fr. Mixed with a 221-581. Lana Thayer received a pin from Sunset Lanes for her first 200 and Barb Kelso had a 202.

Darrell Thomas' 211 and 578 was best for the men. Maher-Thomas-Jarvis still lead this league.

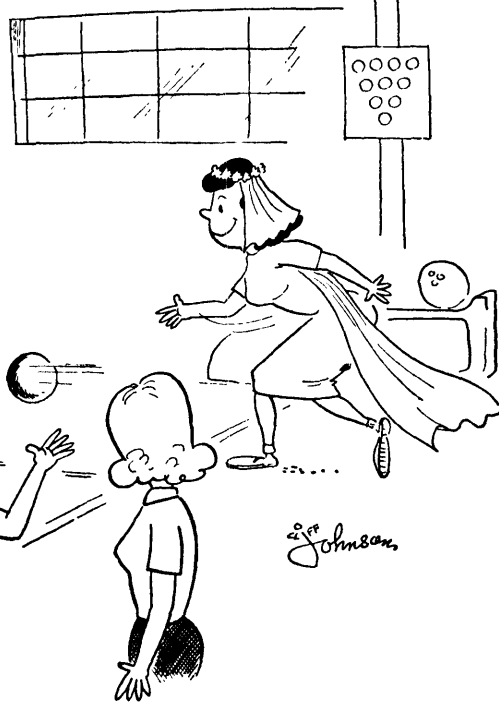

Well, the Mini Squad did it again. Seems like every Saturday they have one of those impossible leaves. Last week was no exception. Penny Vail rolled her ball down the alley and knocked down the 1-2-3-6-7-8.

The ball came up against the 4-5 and stayed there. Really has the soft touch, hasn't she? At last reports, the team of Judy Riebe, Candy Estabrook, and Tina Birdwell was leading the league by one and a half points.

Darlene Engeseeth had Hi 10 of 144 and Hi 20 of 258.

Looks like Ken Keeney is a money bowler. He won the Jackpot at Sat. Night Monte Carlo plus a couple other money shots. Pops Jarvis won eight free games plus a hamburger and milk shake.

Sure a big crowd there. Eleven of us in all. The place was really jumping.

"She's a real dedicated bowler. Guess what she interrupted to be with us tonight?"

Monday's Forks Prairie League standings are as tight as the paper on the wall. One point separates the first six teams. Only three points between first and last.

Pen. Tel. and Tel. went berserk as they posted games of 1034-1092-1128, the latter a new high for this year. Their 3194 also is high for the league.

They were led by Dick Streeter with a 201-553. And Big Al Genson with a 138 average. bowled a 543 series. Finally got away from those splits. Al?

Their low scratch game was 98 pins over their team average. Nice bowling, fellas.

The Early Fri. Mixed League needs two couples to fill out its roster and the Late Fri. Mixed needs one couple to fill out a team.

Tuesday Night Sunset League is looking for two or three steady men bowlers. Contact Darrell at the alleys.

Bruins Crack Acorns 32-0

Clallam Bay Bruins continued their winning ways with a 32-0 non-league victory over the Oakville Acorns in the harbor town Saturday.

Allen Hamilton had a field day for the Bruins, scoring three touchdowns. He opened the scoring with a 25 yard pass from quarterback, Dan Wilson. He ripped off a 65 yard run up the middle to score the third touchdown. Lee Hopkins recovered an Acorn fumble early in the third quarter, and Bruin quarterback didn't waste any time as he hit Hamilton with a 50 yard scoring pass. Jim Murray ran the extra point, and the Bruins led 26-0.

In the fourth quarter, Brent Youlden intercepted an Oakville pass and danced into the end zone for the final tally of the game.

Jim Murray scored the second Bruin touchdown with an 8 yard run off tackle in the second quarter, and he ran the extra point after the third period tally by Hamilton.

Bruin quarterback, Dan Wilson, had a good afternoon passing. He hit two touchdown passes and was on the button for important completions to end, Brent Youlden, that kept Bruin drives going.

Coach Ty Gill had high praise for the offensive efforts of Allen Hamilton and the fine defensive work of Don Heikkila, Bill Hopkins and Youlden.

"Efforts by many of the younger players like Lee Hopkins, are going to help from here on in," added Gill. The Bruins face a tough contest this Saturday as the Neah Bay Red Devils come to Clallam Bay for a league contest at 2 o'clock. The Neah Bay team is always tough when they tangle with Clallam Bay. This should be a dandy for sportsfans looking for a good contest. They usually throw away the records in this one.

Don Wilson and Brent Youlden give the Bruins two good pass receivers. Wilson was hurt in the Quilcene contest and will be out for a couple of games. Youlden carried the load against Oakville catching several passes to keep drives going and had one interception run back 40 yards for the final Bruin score.

Community Council Activity

The Forks Community Council met Tuesday, Sept. 24; presiding Rev. Eldon Iverson, presiding.

Mrs. George Campbell of the Disaster Committee reported on the burn-out in the Mill Creek Cabins, Sept. 22. Two women, three men and a 4-month old baby lost all their belongings. The Council donated money for food, and appeals for clothing were made over the radio. The Good Neighbor Relief was also notified. The Disaster Committee has also aided two other minor cases the last month.

Mrs. Edna Haag reported on the Blood Bank, another Community Council sponsored service in the Forks area. A woman in Port Angeles is scheduled for open heart surgery Oct. 30, and is in need of blood donations. Any type can be given in Mrs. Sandra McHardy's name at Port Angeles Memorial Hospital before Oct. 23.

The annual Blood Drive in Forks will be held in early November. This year it will be held in the Congregational Church Hall.

Mrs. Richard Haberman made an appeal in behalf of Cub Scouts for their need of a Cub Master. The Cub Scout program is in the process of being set up for this year. There are about 50 boys interested. Any man interested in boys and a good cause, contact Henry Rehtold, Cub Scout Committeeman.

Mrs. Haberman also reported on the UGN Drive now underway. Solicitors are now out in most areas. Those not contacted by Oct. 15, the deadline on the drive, may make donations directly, to the Forks State Bank.

The need for another doctor in Forks was discussed. Mrs. Willard Perry reported the hospital has been advertising in the medical publications but so far no success. She stressed more community interest in finding a doctor. Anyone knowing of a possible doctor, contact the Forks Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson of Port Angeles were guests at the meeting. Olson, director of Clallam County UGN drive, showed the film "Charlie makes the Pledge" - a locally created slide film explaining the UGN. This film is available to local clubs. Contact Mrs. Haberman for reservations.

DEAR JANE

DEAR JANE:

How can I deal with neighbors who throw their grass clippings and sod into my yard? I try to keep my yard mowed and tidy but it is hard when they blow all the trimmings and rake all the dry grass onto my lawn. They are real nice neighbors but for this one fault.

Neat

Dear Neat:

Whoever has a foot that fits this shoe, let us hope that they wear it! Have you ever tried returning all the trimmings and dry grass to its original owner?

DEAR JANE:

I am a troubled babysitter who desperately needs advice. I need my babysitting job to help with my school and clothes expenses. A certain couple has been engaging my babysitting services for some time. I know something wrong is going on but I just don't know what to do about it. I can't tell my folks because they wouldn't let me work for them anymore. When this couple has me babysit, they leave together when they go out. But for the past few months, the wife comes home with a different man than her husband, and he spends the night with her. I don't know where the husband goes or if he knows about his wife. I'm afraid to say anything for fear I'll be fired.

Babysitter in a pickle

Dear Pickle:

In this case I think it would be best if you were canned!! If people want to live this way that is their business, but to subject innocent people to this activity is despicable. You must confide in your parents -- there are numerous babysitting jobs available to a good sitter.

DEAR JANE:

I have a party line on my phone. Every time my phone rings, someone on my line picks up my phone the same time I do and listens to all of my conversations. I've told them off when they do this and every other thing I can think of but it still continues. What do you do with creeps like that?

Bugged Party Line

Dear Bugged:

Contact the business office of your phone company; they can help you. Whoever it is that has nothing more to do than to listen to private phone calls, open private mail, engage in sneaky gossip are definitely lacking mentally!

CONFIDENTIAL TO PRICE:

It is going to be expensive no matter what way we go! I think I'd better diet.

CONFIDENTIAL TO IN LOVE:

Your heavy heart will produce more weight than that if you continue with this relationship.

The Forks Seventh-day Adventist pastor, Frank Wyman, spent three days this week in a ministerial retreat with 50 other clerics and their families at the Free Methodist Warm Beach Camp north of Everett.

Reserving some time for recreation, the ministers spent most of the three-day camp discussing ways to make effective their ministry in a changing world. William L. Murri, President of 8,594 Adventists in Northwest Washington, noted that, "Times like these call for a dynamic ministry which focuses on a practical religion. "Christianity today," he explains, "calls for re-entering the world of social responsibility and sharing another's concerns." Other speakers during the cleric convocation were R. Alan Anderson, ministerial consultant from the church's world headquarters in Washington, D.C.; Willis J. Jackett and R. J. Hoffman from the five state Northwest; Richard Fearing and Paul Grove of Walla Walla College.

Pastor Wyman will give a short report of the retreat at the 11 A.M. Saturday services of the church.

Christians of all faiths are invited to share the service at the local Adventist church.

A "new sound" for youth on radio will hit the airwaves in the near future as a result of a special offering being taken at the Forks Seventh-day Adventist Church, Saturday, October 12, at 11 A.M.

The "new sound", explains pastor Frank Wyman of the local congregation, will be a national youth radio program which will present moral guideposts for the 'now' generation.

"Millions of youngsters today have their ears almost literally glued to their transistor radio sets catching the newest sounds in music and language of their generation," notes Pastor Wyman. "Along with this intake of pure entertainment, we feel a keen obligation to expose young people to sounds with definite moral quality; sounds which will help counteract the morally spineless presentations of many of today's song writers and performers."

The local minister said funds received from the Saturday offering will be forwarded to the denomination's international radio broadcast headquarters, The Voice of Prophecy, at Glendale, California, where the new youth radio show is to be produced.

Part of the funds from the Saturday offering will also be used to sustain the regular broadcasts of The Voice of Prophecy which are now heard on over 650 radio stations throughout the U.S. and Canada. Locally, The Voice of Prophecy is heard on KVAC Monday through Saturday at 10:30 A.M.

Giants League Leaders

The Forks teams split in action Sunday. Jeff Blair paced the Giants to a 13-0 victory over the Sequim Lions to maintain their league leadership. The Packers ran into a tough bunch of Eagles at Sequim and dropped a 19-7 contest.

Dear Jane?

Packers vs. Eagles:

Some fine defensive play by the two Eagle ends contained the sweeps and reverses of the Packers. John Jacobsen was a big ball carrier for the Packers, with most of his ball packing up the middle. He cut the Eagle lead to 13-7 in the third period with a two yard plunge off right guard.

The Packers were without the services of Bill Klahn and Kevin Hinchin, two valuable ends.

Giants vs. Lions: Jeff Blair and Harold Bechtold handled most of the ball packing duties for the Giants, but Jim Blair set up the second Giant score on a 26 yard reverse to the 3 yard line. Jeff scored on the next play for the second Giant touchdown.

With Jeff sweeping the ends for long runs and Harold hitting the middle, the Giants moved on a 62 yard first quarter score. Jeff ran the final 4 yards off tackle. He also added the extra point.

Ron Archer, John Leppell, Mark Henry, Harold Bechtold, Dennis Coats and Jim Blair played outstanding defense for the Giants.

By MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman visited in Seattle from Wednesday till Saturday, Sept. 21-23, attending the meeting of the Red Cedar Shingle Bureau. The headquarters of the organization was at the Olympic Hotel but the Nordman's chose to stay with their son, Arvid Nordman, and his family, also visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Werner. They returned by way of Renton, and visited Mrs. Charlotte Bentley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Earley returned home Monday from an overnight visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Clara Yunker, in Centralia. Mrs. Yunker had suffered a heart attack, but was much improved when the Earley's arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Konopaski returned home Thursday night after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Storms of San Gabriel, whom they met in Carson City, Nevada. Olger Sandberg brought his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sandberg, out from Port Angeles one day last week to visit relatives and friends in the Forks-to-Bear Creek area - among them Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hull at Beaver Creek. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sandberg had suffered strokes, but are well on the road to complete recovery.

John Merritt was among the former employees who attended the dinner given Friday night by ITT Rayonier at Harrington's in Port Angeles to honor their 5-10-15-20-25 year employees, and others already wearing pins for those years.

Mrs. Merritt accompanied her husband and while he was at the dinner, she visited with Mrs. No'a Cave. She also had the pleasure of visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McGrew of Puyallup, Phil Atkinson of Bellingham and a number of other former Sappho residents, who were attending the dinner.

Mrs. John Merritt and Mrs. Walt Mason have a new great grandson, born Saturday, Sept. 28, in the Moscow, Idaho, hospital, to their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, of Bovill, Idaho. Exact details as to name and weight were not available at this writing.

4-H News

of the beauty and the peace, of the rice paddies of Viet Nam.

It's hard to believe that death and destruction is in this beautiful valley, full of rice paddies in Viet Nam.

Though you don't see him there,
nor hear him walking around,
Charlie is out there, in the rice paddies of Viet Nam.

He is a little fellow, not too tall, nor too big around,
but give him a chance he will take your life,
or grind it into the ground.

So we fight back, for our lives, against Charlie, who is not too tall nor big around,
and grind his life into the ground.

Yes, it is so hard to believe that through the peace and beauty and calm, that DEATH lurks in the rice paddies of Viet Nam.

Will man ever learn!!!
to leave beauty as beauty is?
