

(School Board news con't)

Mr. Watson brought up the point of community use of school facilities. He felt the Board should look into the possibility of providing the gym space and lights and heating and perhaps the City Council paying the salary of recreation directors for evening use of these facilities for the youth and adults of the community. Many ideas were talked over by the Board and visitors. It was suggested the County Commissioners might be able to assist in some way. No action was taken at this time, but further study will be done and it will be taken up at the next Board meeting.

Letter from Mr. Stuart of Port Townsend was read in regard to the Forest Fund suit. A three judge district court has been set to hear the case and he felt this a victory as it points up the importance of the case. Mr. Hitchcock further reported on the reduced price of lunches and the section 11 program as outlined at the last Board meeting. After discussion with the Food Service Department in Olympia, it was found that we could not be under both programs and since we are able to offer reduced prices to all students under the section 11 program we would not apply for the new program which would offer reduced prices to only a few.

Mr. Watson moved to grant the age extension requests of Mrs. Hope Albrook, Miss May Belle I. Price, and Mrs. Mildred Lunden and to offer each a teaching contract for the 1969-70 school year. Mr. Gaydeski seconded the motion carried.

Mr. Watson moved to offer 1969-70 teaching contracts to all teachers now employed by the District with the stipulation of a personal meeting on Monday, March 24 at 7 p.m. with the two teachers discussed in executive session. Mr. Gaydeski seconded and the motion carried.

Special Lent Program Scheduled At St. Andrews Episcopal Church

Rector of St. Andrew's Church, emphasizes that all people are welcome to the evening meditations which will be held in St. Andrew's Church, 2nd and Peabody Streets.

Canon Schilling has chosen an appropriate theme for these Holy Week meditations: WITH JESUS THROUGH HOLY WEEK, (from popularity to rejection). In describing the series Canon Schilling notes: "I will hope to open a window into Jesus' own mind and show how basically important are the words He spoke in that setting. Naturally it brings out the always relevant principles for Christian living."

Soil-Water District Changes Name

Arthur J. Munson, Rt. 1, Beaver, President of the Clallam Soil & Water Conservation District announces the change of the District name from Olympic to Clallam.

The change was made by J. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State at the request of the Olympic Soil and Water Conservation District supervisors.

The name "Olympic" caused much confusion. No one knew who "Olympic" was or what area it serviced. The most frequent comment outside Clallam County was "Olympic, where is that? At Olympia?"

Even here in Clallam County it caused confusion. Only those closely connected with the work knew that it includes all the land in Clallam County outside of Federal land, Olympic National Forest, Olympic National Park, and the incorporated towns of Sequim, Port Angeles and Forks.

A joint statement by Sen. Gordon Sandison and Reps. Paul Conner and Charles Savage said the project was contracted Thursday by the State Department of Fisheries in Olympia.

FHS Drill Team Competes In State Conference Saturday

On March 29th, the FHS drill team, under the leadership of Pam Johnson, will compete in drill team State Conference in Bellevue. The girls will leave Forks at 9:30 a.m. and march at 10:30 a.m. approximately 20 drill teams from all over the state.

Forks is in the precision category, which means the maneuvers are military style. Judges watch for spacing, arm-swing, cadence, turning, difficulty and originality of the routine and overall impression of the girls. The other category is a combination routine of military maneuvers and dance steps. Each group has from 7 to 10 minutes to perform.

Last year, under the direction of Janice Brower, the drill team received a 13-54 score out of a possible 15 points which put them in the "superior" group. Forks has been the top "A" school for the last 2 years and has been competing against other "A" schools and "AA" schools.

Forks is the only entry from the Olympic League and the only "A" school to be placed in the superior group.

Members who are attending Drill Conference are: Pam Johnson, Drill Master, JoAnn Blomgren, Denise Rhyne, Linda, Shaw and Caris Washigen, front squad leaders and Julie Baker, Patti Gorham, Darlene Davids and Cheryl LaChapelle, back squad leaders.

Thomas Announces Expansion

Pay & Save Foods & Shell

Russ Thomas, owner of Pay & Save Foods, announced this week completion of plans for new equipment installations and construction at Pay & Save.

A new beverage cooler, walk-in freezer and other new display equipment will be installed.

Construction will consist of extending the coffee shop back, making an enlarged cooling area. New equipment will be installed in the kitchen.

A second level will be constructed for warehouse storage. A conveyor has been purchased to transport the supplies to the second level.

Another step in Pay & Save Foods program to keep up with customer demands and convenience.

Construction began this week at the Pay and Save

Shell Service Station on S. Forks Avenue and B Street. The construction, being done by Tom Deloy of Seattle, is an expansion of the present facilities offered by the service station.

The garage area is being expanded to accommodate the increased demand for car servicing. This new addition, 28 by 14 feet, will not have a service rack or a pit. It will be used for tune-ups, tire changes and general repairs.

In addition, a trailer-dumping facility is being installed. This will enable tourists visiting the Forks area to dump the sewage and waste from their campers.

About $8,000 was appropriated by the Shell Oil Company for these projects, repainting of the Pay and Save Shell, and general repair to the station.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The Golden Text that will be read at services in all Christian Science churches this Sunday is from Psalms: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God; in the mountain of his holiness."

Paraphs to be read from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with key to the scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following: "In the material world, thought has brought to light with great rapidity many useful wonders. With like activity have thought's swift pinions been rising towards the realm of the real, to the spiritual cause of those lower things which give impulse to inquiry."

The subject of the Bible Lesson-Sermon is "Healing" and services at V. F. W. Hall, A Street S. E., will begin at 11 a. m. All are welcome.

WHAT IS IT???????

How flying saucer stories got started. Is this a flying saucer or is it a flaw in the film? The object in the sky was not seen before the picture was taken. It comes as a great surprise to find this object so clearly outlined on the negative when it was developed. The shot was made with the intention of acquiring a good picture of the cloud--so an orange filter was being used. There is no apparent flaw in the negative that shows up under magnification. The picture maker and most others feel that it must be a flaw in the film--yet no one as yet has reported ever having seen this type of flaw in negative material before.

The shot was taken about 10:30 on the morning of March 9. What is it?

Shell Service Station on S. Forks Avenue and B Street. The construction, being done by Tom Deloy of Seattle, is an expansion of the present facilities offered by the service station.

The garage area is being expanded to accommodate the increased demand for car servicing. This new addition, 28 by 14 feet, will not have a service rack or a pit. It will be used for tune-ups, tire changes and general repairs.

In addition, a trailer-dumping facility is being installed. This will enable tourists visiting the Forks area to dump the sewage and waste from their campers.

About $8,000 was appropriated by the Shell Oil Company for these projects, repainting of the Pay and Save Shell, and general repair to the station.

DEAR JANE

Goodwill Day Pickup Set

Dear Jane:

The purpose of the pre-school P. T. A. are:
 (1) To promote and/or help the kindergarten out with its supplies such as paint, aprons and floor mats, etc., or any other thing the teachers ask us for.
 (2) Parent education of the pre-school child's behavior and how to deal with problems. A program was prepared with the school psychologist as speaker, (this should have been a big help to the "under age mother" --and any other interested parent); however, after he drove all the way from Sequim to speak, there were only 5 or 6 at the meeting!
 (3) Another objective is to get acquainted with other mothers of your approximate age. The more the merrier, and for that matter, how can a person enjoy something she has never attended or will never attend because she believes the false reports from former officers who do not attend at the present time.

In short, the pre-school P. T. A. has planned good and interesting programs that were so poorly attended there was little use to hold them. Discussion sessions were planned, they were to be about problems and characteristics of pre-school age groups--but where was everyone???? Notes were sent home from school to let parents know of the meetings and some of the members have spent whole afternoons calling mothers about the meetings and still no one seemed interested. Some of the projects were carried out but the response to even these was poor from all but a few.

The pre-school is for you and it is educational, fun and interesting. Come and find out for yourself, but you may find yourself involved if you wish to make a good thing better. However, don't look for the kind of "fun-night" you hint at, that may have been good for the Harper Valley P. T. A., but it's out at Forks pre-school P. T. A.

Dear Jane:

As a past member of Pre-school P. T. A., I feel "an under-age mother" is wronging a great many of this town's nicest, most community minded mothers.

What does little mother want? A socializing evening? Or a worthwhile project to give her children a better education before they go to school?

When I joined Pre-school there was one kindergarten class for the children of the forward thinking mothers who cared enough to support it. Does she think a state supported kindergarten class sprang out of the ground or something? This is the work of the Pre-school, which is both a community and statewide organization.

Now apparently what Pre-school needs is a pat-on-the-back and a steady hand to help it up, not a kick in the rump. So Mrs. Underage Mother, if you want a Pre-school P. T. A., go to the meetings and help them build it. Or shut up. I'm not ashamed to have my name connected with Pre-school and I'm proud of what our leaders were able to do in the past.

Also remember, whatever the members do after the meeting is their business--but what they do at the meetings is your business for your underage children.

Just sign me,

Proud Pre-schooler

Dear Proud:

To see the positive as we pass through life offers inspiration to all whom we come in contact with. Criticizing others, condemning actions and interposition of motives involves little mental activity. We simply show our mental void when we indulge in these false activities. If we (so-called) adults spent more time in positive action and less time with negative re-action our very lives would be more inspired.

Dear Jane:

What about the city dump (otherwise known as Forks Town Park)? When is someone going to clean it up? The kids left a mess from there snake dance last fall. Well, our little cub scouts just cleaned and cleaned but we can't even pick up the regular trash. When we put the trash in the garbage cans, the DOGS, everyone is complaining about, tip the cans over and spread it all over the park again!

In other words HELP!!!!!!

The Forum is really helping this little community and we need it.

• Tips from Monsanto

Hi Gals!..The subject of what to wear in drizzle weather and still look fashionable has been raised by a reader in the Midwest. Seems this little lady is "all wet" when it comes to dressing right for specific occasions.

Well, "weather or not," dear reader, the latest fad is the brightly-colored drizzle dress and pants in shiny, wet look, cire nylon...a slick new fashion-rightstyle for sunny days as well as shower-y ones.

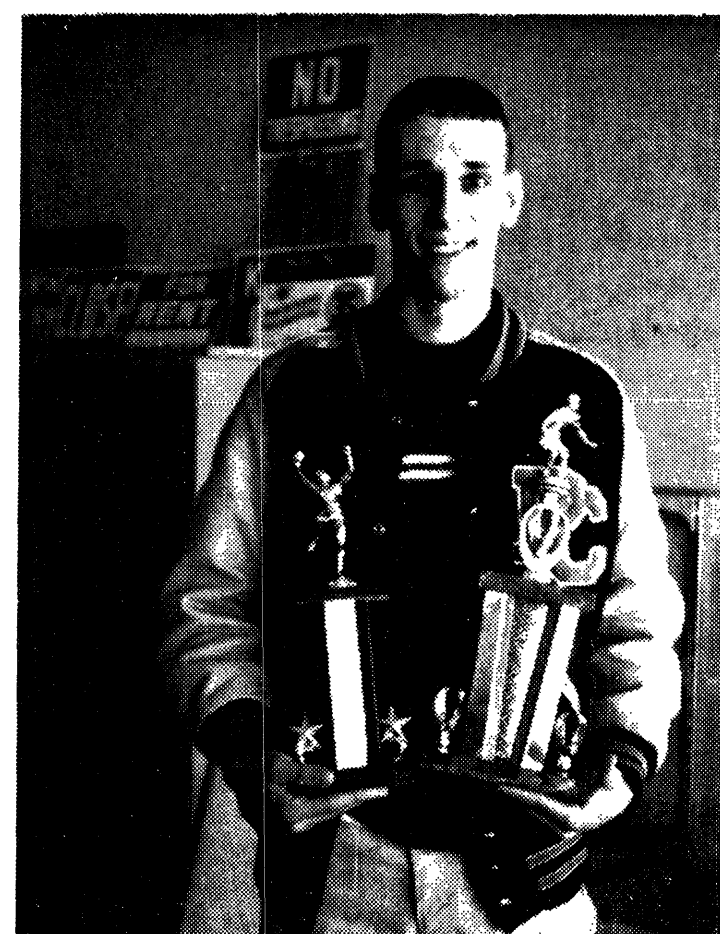

What's more, cire Blue "C" nylon clothes are so lightweight and packable they travel well...go from climate to climate...and because they're Monsanto WEAR-DATED, hold a one year guarantee for wearability.

There's no doubt about it. The cire slick-look upstages any other fabric this spring. Even the kids are getting into the act with sportswear, short-shorts, jumpsuits and short aviator jackets, so versatile and long-lasting they'll wear them all through school and later to the beach.

When it comes to skiing, ski enthusiasts will be happy to know that lightweight cire nylon is superbly comfortable. An airy, colorful cover-up is all that's required for spring and Western skiing.

So gals, come rain or shine or just pure fashion know-how, "put on the gloss" this spring in cire nylon...now in its shining glory in major department and chain stores everywhere.

An unusual situation occurred on the fishing scene last week. Two fishermen, with similar names, both caught 24 lb. 4 oz. prime buck steelheads, one day apart from the same stretch of the Bogachiel.

Bob Walton, Aberdeen, caught his fish Thursday. Walton was using roe.

Bob Waldron, Eugene, Oregon, fishing with Forks guide, Lee Meyers, landed his 24 lb. 4 oz. buck Friday. Waldron used a spin glow and it was the first winter steelhead he has caught.

What a way for a beginning steelheader to get hooked. Many ardent anglers have never recorded a 20 lb. steelhead. The fish were weighed at Pay & Save by Russ Thomas.

School Board Meets

Visitors occupied a considerable portion of the March 20th meeting of the Quillayute Valley Board of Directors meeting. John Leppell, P. T. A. President, requested the use of school buses for the swimming program sponsored by the P. T. A. each summer. The tentative starting date is June 7 and would run for 15 days exclusive of weekends. Mr. Watson moved the Board allow the P. T. A. to use the buses with the same payment arrangement as in past years. Mr. Gaydeski seconded and the motion carried.

Mr. Dickinson, English teacher, recommended the Board set aside a time that teachers could talk directly with the Board members exclusive of the local N.P.A. organization and principals and superintendent so that there could be a free flow of ideas both pro and con with no inhibiting factor such as administration heads present. There was a great deal of discussion. Administrators present indicated their "doors were always open" for the teachers for any ideas or discussion. The superintendent said that such a move could be a good one if not abused--normal channels would still be desirable for most communications. N.P.A. President felt the organization should be contacted first. The consensus of opinion of the Board was they were available at any time if given a call. Mr. Johnston appointed Mr. Watson and Mr. Gaydeski to have a meeting night on Wednesday, March 26 at 7 p.m. in the Superintendent's office for any and all teachers who would like to talk to them direct. Any interested were to call ahead of time to Mr. Watson so an appointment schedule could be set up.

The procedure of grievance or discussion was again outlined; first it should go to the grievance committee of the local teachers organization; they meet and decide on merit and wording of presentation; it is presented to principal; principal may act or present it to superintendent; superintendent acts and/or presents to the Board. All Board members present, if anyone for personal reasons, felt he could not follow this line of protocol, they should be able to talk to the Board direct.

Mrs. Lawrence Soderlind said several years ago she had requested the Board to present some type of continuing communication with the general public on the activities of the school system. She wondered if something couldn't be done at this time especially with a new building program under way and much going on at the school. She felt curriculum reports or general items of special activities in the classrooms were of much interest to the public. She also felt this should be done now so we would not be in the position Port Angeles was placed in their recent difficulties mainly because of lack of communication between the school and the general public. The Board discussed many ways of accomplishing this and felt it had much merit. Due to the lateness of the hour no action at this time, but further thought will be given to it and it will be taken up at the next Board meeting.

Mr. Hitchcock reported from his day spent in Olympia that the State next year anticipates supporting each student $397 per student. They also indicate raising teachers salaries 7% with increments although no action has been taken to date.

After some discussion with those members of the negotiations committee of N.P.E.A. present, a further meeting was arranged for Monday, March 31 at 7 p.m. and all Board members were to be present.

Mr. Hitchcock said the architect was working now and is on schedule with his plans. The Bonds have been delivered to the purchasing Bank in Seattle. Our Bonding attorney notified us that due to the delay in printing, the purchaser has paid an additional interest to the District in the amount of $1,654.67.

It is anticipated that a new matching formula will go into effect after July 1st through the Facilities and Organization Section of the Division of Administration and Finance of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Hitchcock recommended to the Board that we delay the letting of bids to August or September so that we could take advantage of the new regulations. It would mean about $55,000.00 more in matching funds to the district if this is done. There was some discussion as to how much this would delay the actual construction of the buildings. Since the Board felt it would be almost impossible to occupy the buildings before April or May 1970 at the earliest, it was well worth while to delay the bids.

There was general discussion about maybe not being able to build the proposed multipurpose room at this time due to the increase in building costs since the proposal was first presented two years ago. Mr. Hitchcock asked the Board's permission to look into costs and feasibility of a metal structure to serve. Permission was granted.

BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Here over the March 16 weekend to help their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scarlett, celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary were Diane and Roberta Scarlett, both of whom are employed in Seattle.

W. M. (Tex) Wallace, a former resident of Shuwah but now living in Port Angeles, is a patient in the Angeles Convalescent Center, formerly the Campbell House. Unfortunately, Mr. Wallace is unaware of his surroundings, so he would be unable to enjoy a visit from friends and former neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nelson from Mt. Hood National Forest in Oregon, visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Floe. Mr. Nelson worked at Snider Ranger Station as it was then called some 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman returned home Sunday after spending a week in Seattle. They attended classes at Virginia Mason Clinic from Monday till Saturday, and made their headquarters at the home of their son Arvid Nordman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore and children, Patrick and Kathleen, arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Moore's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Mason in Forks. They also visited her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Merritt at Tyece. They left Sunday morning for their home at Days Creek, Oregon, where Mr. Moore is principal of the high school.

baby son Aaron, came from Seattle to Sequim Tuesday to visit a friend. Her husband joined her there that evening after classes and the two of them came on to Tyece. They are visiting Mrs. Werner's parents and will remain until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Halvorson gave a dinner Sunday in honor of her husband's birthday, and had as guests their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorson and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Lucken.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Engeseth returned to their home at Seattle Sunday after a weekend visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Engeseth.

On Monday the senior Mrs. Engeseth's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Campbell arrived from Tacoma for a visit.

Constructor began last week on the last section of the Burnt Mountain Road project. Del Hur Construction Company, Port Angeles, was awarded the contract for clearing and cutting grade for approximately 2 miles of the Burnt Mountain Road from Highway 101 at Sappho to Beaver Creek.

Meditation

By Art Morlin

A story is told of a mother and daughter. It is in the spring of the year and school vacation will soon begin. Mary is seven years old. She has two long golden braids, big hazel eyes, and one front tooth missing. She is a delight to the eyes if not always to the heart.

One Saturday she helped me do the work all morning long. She washed dishes, ran errands, put the baby to bed, and set the table---all this without murmur on her part or scolding on mine. While we worked we talked. We planned things to do this summer. Some things that are work and needed to be done, and some things that are play and fun to do. We made lists of the things to do up on the bulletin board.

After dinner I saw that Mary was tired; and when she said,

"shall I clear the table Mommie?" I answered, "No, you've done enough for today. Run and play now." Presently I could hear her being her best big-sisterly self as she played with the little children.

We are something like Mary. God loves us, but we don't always delight His heart anymore than Mary does her mothers. Sometimes God and I have good days. Days when I do just what He wants me to do without murmuring on my part or scolding on His part. Days when I listen to His plans and He listens to my heart's desires. Days when I am able to show some of His love to others.

Have you considered of late your personal relationship with God. Have you had a real good talk with Him recently. It would be a wonderful day for you. Straighten out a few things with God and get ready for the Great Vacation in the sky.

One of the things we need to say to Him is, "So teach us to number our days that I may apply my heart unto Wisdom."

Tulips For a King

The lake is green today. Sparkling waves ripple across its surface, borne of the same gentle breeze that ruffles through my tulips. I walk among them, filling my arms with beauty, listening to the murmur of early morning.

Soon I gather up baskets of orange and scarlet, pale pink and lemon yellow and hurry to the church in the valley.

My heart is full. I'd come to this church, some months ago, burdened with sorrow. Here, I found comfort and purpose in the life and teachings of God's Son. Since then, I'd been happier than I ever thought possible.

Now, in the stillness, I whisper a long-ago psalm, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" And I lay blossoms gently among palm branches, as though in His presence.

Attend your church. Find the joy and happiness you've been seeking. Sing hosannas to the living Lord.
