Drug-Law Problems Discussed At Forks Chamber Of Commerce Meeting

Large crowd at Forks Chamber of Commerce meeting listens to talk by Sheriff Harley Bishop.

Large Turnout To Hear Law Enforcement Officers

A discussion of law enforcement and drug problems attracted a standing room only crowd at the Forks Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday evening.

Washington State Patrol trooper John McCauley outlined his sphere of law enforcement.

McCauley told of the difficulty he is encountering in covering his territory. The Forks area trooper must cover the territory from Quetz to Fairholm and across Burnt Mountain to Neah Bay.

McCauley sighted an example that took place last week. In the morning he was called for an accident near Neah Bay. He arrived back in Forks late in the afternoon and received a call concerning a fatal accident near the Clearwater School.

Sheriff Harley Bishop introduced the new Forks resident deputy Jay Shewes and presented a resume of the Clallam County Sheriff's Department. The Department consists of sheriff, under sheriff and twelve deputies. Salaries for deputies range from $565 per month to $560.

He pointed out the Department is carrying on an extensive training program. Each year two deputies attend a special law enforcement training school held at Olympic College in Bremerton and one deputy each year attends a special school dealing with drug problems.

Mr. James Traver, high school principal, discussed the problem of drugs in the schools. He pointed out the fact that drugs are being used by high school and junior high students.

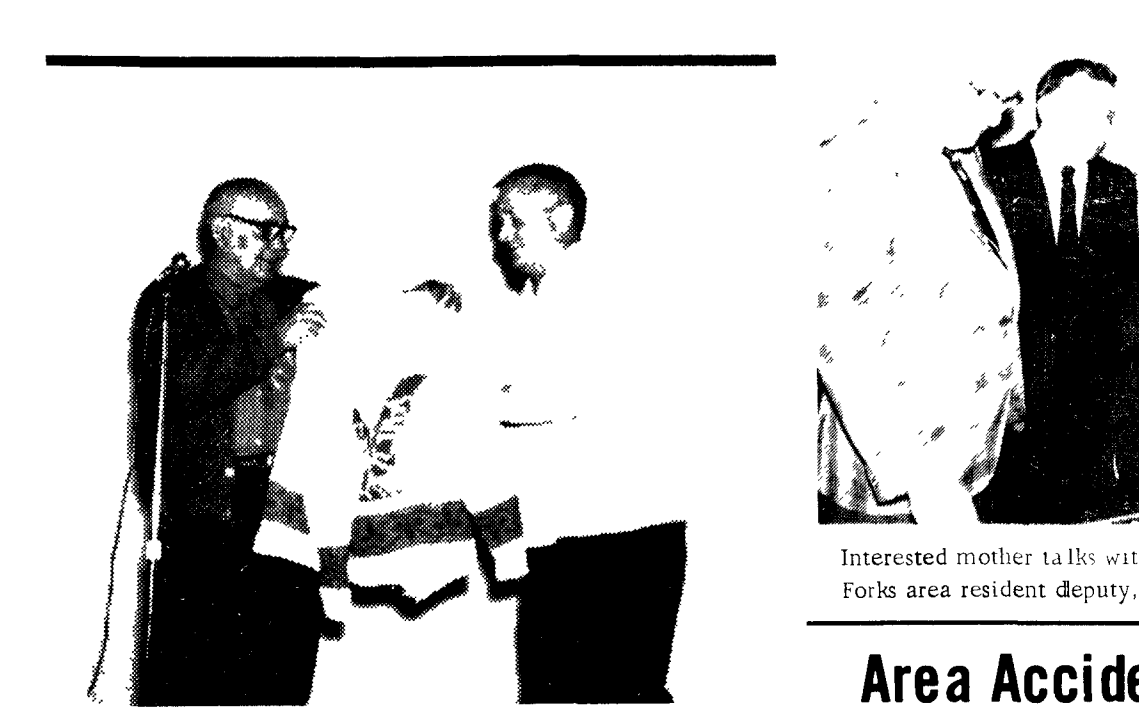

He stated the school is attempting to do what it can in presenting the drug problem. Films have been used in group situations and discussions are held in health and contemporary problems classes.

Marijuana is the drug most commonly used locally at this time, but recent incidents of LSD use point out the increasing serious problem developing. The use of marijuana initially tends to lead into the more dangerous drugs such as speed, LSD, and heroin.

It was pointed out that the problem of dealing with drugs center around people not wanting to become involved. Young people involved in using drugs will not name the supplier. Parents knowing information have been reluctant to cooperate with school and law enforcement officials.

Some adults use forms of dangerous drugs in diet pills. The medical profession must make use of many dangerous drugs in prescribed situations. This society has become a pill using society.

Education of parents and children concerning the use of pills and drugs is necessary.

Area Accidents Reported

A log truck owned and operated by Jim Howard of Sequim failed to negotiate a curve near the Bogachiel River bridge at 8:15 a.m. Friday.

The truck and trailer traveled approximately 100 feet along the ditch. One of the logs went through the top of the cab guard. Damage to the truck and trailer was estimated at $5,000 by the State Patrol.

Four persons escaped injury in a one-car accident Sunday approximately 1 1/2 miles north of Ruby Beach on Highway 101.

The 1963 Buick driven by Melvin K. Appington, age 19, Forks, failed to negotiate a curve when the right rear tire blew out. The car traveled an estimated 100 feet coming to rest on its top.

The passengers in the car were Mark McCann, 16, Forks, April Welches, 16, Forks, and Karol Bechtold, 15, Forks.

The car was a total loss.

A two-car accident occurred at about 1:30 p.m. Sunday, 1/2 mile north of the LaPush Road on Highway 101.

Lloyd G. Johnston, Forks, was attempting a left turn with his 1960 Ford when struck by a 1967 Rambler driven by William Thompson, Forks, which was attempting to pass.

Damage to the Johnston car was approximately $300 to the left front and approximately $200 to the Thompson car.

PUBLIC NOTICE

CLALLAM ROAD PROJECT

The Washington State Highways Commission is planning the improvement of State Route 112, between the Town of Clallam Bay and the Clallam River Bridge.

This improvement will consist of the construction of a new two-lane roadway extending from Clallam Bay southeasterly through the Clallam River Valley, terminating at the northerly end of Clallam River Bridge No. 112/20, a total distance of 2.01 miles. This project will also include the construction of two concrete bridges over the Clallam River, two channel changes, plus the installation of riprap to prevent bank erosion. This new section of State Route 112 will allow approaches to and from the roadway.

Should any interested person desire that a Design Public Hearing be held to discuss and exchange information concerning this improvement, he may request a hearing by writing to the District Engineer, Washington Department of Highways, P.O. Box 327, Olympia, Washington 98501, before May 22, 1969. In the event that requests are made, a separate notice of public hearing will be published in ample time for interested parties to arrange to attend. Regardless of whether a hearing is held, all interested persons may inspect maps, drawings and other pertinent information concerning this project by coming to the Project Engineer's office, located at 816 South "C" Street, Port Angeles, Washington. This notice is in conformance with Federal-Aid Highway Act, 23 U.S.C. 101 et seq., 128-515, sections 2 (a), 2 (b) (2), and 9 (a) (1) of the Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C., 1651 (a) and (a) (2), 1657 (e) (1); 49 CFR 1/5 1.4 (c); and 23 CFR 4/5 1.22. Washington History on TV Sunday

The Sunday evening, May 11, television program, "Washington, D. C., Mirror of America," is designed to be both educational and entertaining. Of particular interest will be photographs taken when famous national shrines such as the Washington Monument, the Capitol, and the Lincoln Memorial were being built. The program, which will be on NBC-TV, will trace the 175-year history of the nation's capital. It will show how the mood of the country is often reflected in the events and attitudes in Washington.

Up Tax

State government is having a difficult struggle with the promised tax revision program. Most citizens of the State of Washington do not object to a state income tax provided changes are made in the present sales tax system. To add an income tax for the sake of more taxes is taboo.

The American taxpayer toils in excess of 3 months per year for the government and 9 months for his own needs. There is no reason to believe this ratio will ever change for the better. It undoubtedly will increase due to public demands for government services which the people must pay.

The struggle in the income tax proposals by the House and Senate continues. The House approved a single rate income tax bill. The Senate was working on a graduated tax bill, but finally passed a single rate tax bill of 3.5 percent after tacking on several amendments.

A Senate approved amendment by Martin Durkan to authorize a local sales tax of three-tenths of one percent for counties and cities is a significant addition to the overall tax structure.

The sales tax seems to be here to stay on most items. The exceptions will be drugs and groceries. This will present real problems for the drug stores and supermarkets across the state.

The tax reform question will be settled before the legislators go home. The people of the State of Washington can count on one important factor; higher taxes.

EMPLOYEE'S HOME DEFENDED

Is the American worker's right to privacy in danger?

It looks that way from some recent developments. For example, a federal district court recently sustained a basic ruling by the National Labor Relations Board by ordering a textile company to give the NLRB the names and addresses of employees eligible to vote in a union election. Both the NLRB and the court ignored the strenuous objection of more than 200 workers that such action would violate their right of privacy.

One possible result of this infringement of personal rights is that union organizers—who obtain such lists from the NLRB for representation elections—may harass and coerce employees in their own homes.

But when the NLRB insisted that a Boston manufacturer provide a list of employee names and addresses, which a union could use for an organizing drive, the New England firm got its Yankee dander up. It went to court to protect the employees' right to privacy—and the Court of Appeals in Boston upheld the company's challenge on the ground that the NLRB rule was improperly adopted.

The court accused the NLRB, "to put it bluntly, [of designing] its own rule-making procedure, adopting such part of the Congressional mandate as it chose and rejecting the rest." It also said the NLRB "has chosen to disregard Congress."

The case has been appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court. We hope that an early decision by that high tribunal will affirm a fundamental American right—freedom from invasion of privacy.

In addition, we believe it's high time the NLRB be required to abide by regulations for carrying out the laws of Congress.

Sunset Highlights

By Fred Jarvis

Back in the T-Bird again, Mober and I, with Dale and Jean, heading for the wide open spaces yonder over the mountains to Yakima.

The girls are bowling in their State Tournament this weekend. Sure be nice to see them all come back with some loot. Besides us, there are Herb and Jerry Beebe, Russ and Dorothy Vedder, Don and Judy Kallman, Andy and Maureen Anderson, Hank and Lou Bigelow, Clara Maher, Anne Lehman and Anita Osburn.

Sunday P.M. On the way home finally. The girls didn't bowl too bad, although nobody can retire on the money they made, except maybe Ora Lea, who bowled up a storm, 158 average for the nine games. Pretty good when you consider she only has a 120 plus average.

Bowled with Darrell and some of the girls last week. Would you believe I had an 86? Or Darrell an 87? I bowled left-handed and Darrell right-handed. Try it sometime. Margaret Windle tossed a 278 in a nine-pin top game. Can you remember how you did it, Margaret?

In the Sunset Eight's Mixed, Patty Lawwell continues to lead the girls. She had a 144-385. Terry Hutton rolled a 175. Bob Hutton a 170 and Jeff Blair took H.I. 30 with a 492.

Frank Coos, with 214 and Darrell Thomas with a 574, led the Tuesday Nite Sunset League. For the Powder Puffs, Phyllis O'Brien had a 187-600. Vay Archibald led a 185 game.

Jerry Beebe warmed up for the State Tournament with a 189-502 in the Hoop Owl League.

Paula Lyda smacked out a 199-507 for the women of the Early Friday Mixed and Jean Keeney as 52 pins over her average with a 175 game.

Willis Bryan topped the men with a 224-552. Fred "The Barber" Gline scalped all the contestants in the BAAA Singles Zone Finals held here last weekend. He took first place with a 646. Frank Smiley placed fifth with a 605 and Willis Bryan tied for sixth with a 604.

Leta Bondani was third on the woman's side of the fence with her 699.

Next Zone is at P. A. Lanes, May 17-18. That's money in their star pins. If you can knock over enough of them. All you need is a little confidence, lots of luck and the nerve to come down and give it a try. Maybe the next prize list will have your name on it.

Ed Huling topped all bowlers Monday nite in the Forks Prairie League with a 233-583. Frank Coos had 225, Vern Rondeau 221, and Stan Fenn a 260.

With one week to go, Irager Log remains three games out in front of Spostrha Bros. Log.

Wonder who rolled a 183 game playing low-ball the other day? And who threw all the gutter balls trying to learn how to bowl left-handed? Was anybody ever fast enough to count how many steps Darrell took when he threw right-handed?

It'll bet the girls bowling on the Forks State Bank team rode all the way home with the windows down, trying to get enough fresh air. Seems like the bunch they bowled against. All had jungle mousth from parrying the nite before.

SPORTS WANDERINGS . . .

Umpires are needed for the Little League baseball season. Anyone interested in helping with the program should call Bill Peterson at 374-5131.

Babe Ruth baseball is being organized this year with Ralph Hilt scheduled to do the coaching. Anyone interested in helping out should contact him.

A complete schedule is presently being worked out. Babe Ruth is open to boys in ages 13-15.

The Forks Spartan dindeklads will compete in the final Olympic League meet of the season at Sequim Friday. The Wolves and Port Townsend Redskins will provide the competition.

Sequim is currently leading the league and should gain another victory in the meet.

Forks should score heavy in the long jump, triple jump, high jump, 880 run and has an excellent chance to win both the 880 and mile relay events.

Sequim and Townsend have two of the top individual stars in the league. Al Miller of the Wolves and Mark Prill of the Redskins will lock horns in both hurdle events.

The Spartans will counter with Bob Seigle, a standout in the long jump, triple jump and high jump. Bob is the top point scorer for the Spartans.

Bat's Belfry

By Betty Otis

Just ran across an amusing statistic: Men favor pajama tops 5 to 1. Men who wear only half a pajama have long caused shopping problems for their wives. Since virtually no store sells tops or bottoms alone, wives are forced to buy the whole outfit and either keep the useless half indefinitely or throw it away. A unique firm, Haf-A-Jama of Brookline, Mass., has come to the rescue and offers either tops or bottoms by mail order. The firm's growth indicates sleepwear separates fill a long-felt need. Their files provide entertaining insight into the bedroom fashion preferences of U. S. males. Five times as many men sleep in the top half as prefer the bottom. Customers include a nursery farmer in Maine, an executive in Los Angeles, a priest in Utah, and many famous political and theatrical figures. Many women, having worn their husbands' tops for years, order Haf-A-Jamas for themselves. Seen Around: John Boggs sitting pretty... Frank Coon liking the shape of things... John Leppell with pictures of something-or-other... Virginia Clayton with the cleanest lint in town.

Postal Rate Hike Scheduled

An "inherited" postal deficit of $1.2 billion is responsible for the proposals to raise the postage bill for residents of Forks, Postmaster Bechtold said today.

Mr. Bechtold said he had been advised by Postmaster General Winton M. Blout in Washington, D. C. that the record $1.2 billion 1970 deficit compelled President Nixon to seek postage rate increases. Without higher rates the Department will be left with a staggering deficit that would become an added public tax burden.

In addition to increasing letter mail from 6 to 7 cents, as proposed by the Johnson Administration, President Nixon also asked that second and third-class mailers help reduce the large postal deficit which would otherwise be paid by taxpayers, the Postmaster said.

For bulk third-class mail and most magazines and newspapers, the rates would be increased 16 percent to 20 percent above today's levels, he notes. These percentages include rate hikes already scheduled by previous action of Congress.

The President's recommended increases will reduce the 1970 postal deficit by more than $600 million.

The postmaster listed these other details on the proposed increases:

First-class mail: Letters and post cards would be increased one cent, to 7 cents an ounce and 6 cents a piece, respectively, on July 1, 1969. Air-mail postage would remain at 10 cents. This will yield $557.2 million in new revenues.

Second-class mail: A handling charge of 3/10ths of a cent per piece for circulation outside home counties would become effective July 1, 1969. This would yield $15.3 million annually and would represent a 12 percent increase in addition to the 8 percent rise scheduled to take effect January 1, 1970.

Third-class mail: For single pieces, rates would be increased one cent per piece. This would yield $12.4 million. For regular bulk third-class, the minimum would be increased to a uniform rate of 4.2 cents January 1, 1970, as contrasted with the present rate of 3.6 cents. The 1970 increase would lift revenues by $46.8 million annually.

CZ Presents Forestry Bookshelf

Sets of six books each dealing with conservation, forestry and the forest products industry have been presented to the Neah Bay and Clallam Bay High Schools by Crown Zellerbach's Neah Bay Tree Farm.

The presentations were two of 22 being made this spring to schools in areas in Washington and Oregon where the company has operations.

"With forests and the products derived from them playing such an important role in the development and future of these communities we believe the wide range of material contained in this 'Forestry Bookshelf' is of particular value and interest to students in these schools." D. R. McMinn, manager of the Neah Bay operation, commented.

In compiling the bookshelf careful attention was paid to providing a broad range of information. The books cover the history of logging and sawmilling in the Northwest, the development of the conservation movement in America and career possibilities in forestry and conservation.

Also included in the new edition of "Making Pulp and Paper" which was published by CZ's Camas Mill Division for use as a text in its paper school.

The other volumes are: "Head Rig" by Ellis Lucia; "This Was Sawmilling" by Ralph Andrews; "Careers in Conservation" and "Origins of American Conservation," both published by the Society of American Foresters, and "Forests and Forestry in the American States," edited by Ralph R. Widner.

BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Loushin received word by telephone on Monday, April 28, of the birth, that day, of a baby boy, Bradley Lewis, to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dawkins in the Hamilton, Montana, hospital. Mrs. Loushin and Mr. Dawkins are sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Munson and son, Greg, went to Seattle Saturday to attend the Ice Follies matinee. They were accompanied by their daughter, Linda, who is attending WWSU at Bellingham and came down to Seattle for the day.

Following the matinee the Munsons attended the wedding of Mark Rhyne and Miss Joanne Stroud, after which they had dinner at the Captain's Table, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smiley of Forks and Dale Therman, a former Forks High School teacher, but now principal of the Oakville (Grays Harbor Co.) High School.

The Munsons arrived home at midnight that night.

John W. Johnson left Sea-Tac Airport at 12:30 a. m. Saturday for Richmond, Va., to visit his brother, M. R. Johnson and family. Mr. Johnson arrived in Richmond at 11 a. m. in time to attend the wedding of his niece, which was at 4 o'clock that afternoon. He plans to spend a week visiting relatives in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lea visited her son, Roger Smith and family, also her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. David Carlson and family in Mount Vernon from Friday till Sunday. Saturday was the Lea's Silver Wedding anniversary, and the Smiths and the Carlsons gave a dinner that evening in the Mount Vernon Elks' Club to honor the occasion.

The former neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamby when the Hambys lived at Sylvia's Cabin Court (now Rouses) a number of years ago were shocked to hear of his sudden death last week. The family has the sincere sympathy of all their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and baby son, Richie, arrived Saturday afternoon from Shelton for a short visit with Mrs. Clark's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Mason in Forks. On Sunday Mrs. Clark's other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.

John Merritt were dinner guests at the Mason home, and the Clarks left Monday forenoon for their home at Bovill, Idaho. They stopped for a short visit with the Merritts, then went on to Enumclaw where they visited relatives.

The Masons took Mr. Clark clamming at Kalaloch Sunday and Monday mornings, and because of the unusually low tides all got their limits in a very short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Darel L. Maxfield and son Darel C. Maxfield of Spokane visited recently with relatives in this area. It was the first time they had been here in eight or ten years.

The Beaver Volunteer Firemen were called to the Junior Micheau residence on Saturday evening because of fuse box trouble. It was quickly corrected with little damage.

Marked Fish In Crescent

Superintendent Bennett T. Gale of Olympic National Park announced today that fishermen should be alert for fin-clipped Kamloops rainbow trout in Lake Crescent. A marking program is under way to test stocking effectiveness and growing conditions for trout in Lake Crescent.

Mr. Gale reports that over 100,000 of these marked trout were planted in 1967 as fingerlings and over 50,000 in 1968. Fishermen are already catching the 1967 fish. Those seen April 20, 1969 were all over fourteen inches in length and weighed over a pound. Each fish has two body fins removed; however, those with one fin missing should also be reported. In succeeding years different combinations of fins are clipped. Kamloops rainbows are known for the size they attain in deep, cold lakes and their fighting ability.

Please notify Park Rangers or resort managers of both large and small marked trout that you catch and give their length and weight.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone who sent cards, flowers, and money during the loss of our beloved husband and father, Arthur L. Hamby. Meditation

By Art Morlin

MOTHER'S DAY is a wonderful day for all of us, whether we remember her as one who loved us for a while and has gone on ahead; or as THE DAY, HER DAY that we still can honor her and tell her how much we appreciate her love, her years of loving care, her sacrifices and her counseling. Charles Dickens, famous English author, wrote: "I think it must be somewhere written that the virtues of mothers shall be visited on her children as well as the sins of the fathers."

The nearest thing to God's love is the love of a mother. Even though her child may at times cause her great heart-ache and sorrow, yet her love sees beyond every shortcoming to recognize potentials that no one else in all the world can see.

The poet came near the truth when he said, "The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world." You mothers may not realize it, but the dreams you dream for your children could well determine the destiny of the world, as you blend your dreams with God's dream for them.

Mothers have an unprecedented opportunity to direct the lives and aspirations of their children through early Christian training in the home, and continuous love and Christian influence throughout their lives. If there is any group of people in the world today who should lay hold of the great undergirding principles of God, it is the mothers; for their vision, their hopes, their longings and their dreams; for their children can best be fulfilled in the establishing of the kingdom of God.

Mothers, we salute you! God has given you a holy charge, may you be diligent in fulfilling it.

Just For You

Who doesn't like to be remembered? It's natural to feel a certain glow when you receive a greeting card. It means that someone has thought of you, that someone cares.

Yet how foolish it would be for any of us to ever believe that we are alone or friendless. There is always Someone who cares, who cares very deeply . . . who cared enough to sacrifice His only Son for us.

At times we are all lonesome. Yet we are never really alone. There are few places in the world where we cannot, if we but look, find a church that will welcome us wholeheartedly. God's house is not like other houses. There is always room in it for one more. And when that one more has entered, there is room for yet another.

Start taking part in the life of the Church today!

SOLITUDE-Here on Blatto beach one finds solitude in the morning hours during a gentle tide. Only the muted sound of the surf and an occasional sea gull are heard during this morning tide. A soft breeze picks up gently as the tide rises. It is here one hears the sounds of nature. The sound of solitude.
