

Sports Wanderings

July 1st is an important day for anglers interested in river fishing. Portions of local rivers not previously opened will open to angling for salmon and other game fish not less than 10 inches in length, not more than two of which may exceed 24 inches in length.

Cutthroat and salmon will dominate catches from the local streams with a few summer run steelhead available in all of the streams.

Razor clam season is open 24 hours per day through July 15 and closes completely effective July 15 through September 15. Butter and steamer clam season is closed on Pacific Ocean beaches. This season is open from November 1 through March 31.

Smelt fishing on Pacific Ocean beaches is one of the many interesting and exciting beach activities. The smelt are dipped from the surf with a small mesh net.

The season is open year around on Pacific Beaches. Late winter and summer are the best times to locate them.

The Forks Babe Ruth team will play here Saturday, July 5 as part of the 4th of July celebration, in a seven inning game with Fibershead of Fort Angeles.

Salmon anglers looking for some early success should try La Fish after the weekend results recorded at Harley's. Sixteen members of the Drifters Club of Seattle boated 54 fish up to 35 lbs., fishing near the Whistler. The fish averaged 14-16 lbs., with kings dominating the catch.

Silvers averaging 5-6 lbs. are in the area outside the Whistler and charters have been limiting each trip.

Sequim Drops Forks 10-1

Forks opened with a one-run lead that held until the roof fell in in the 3rd inning as Sequim took a 10-1 victory Saturday in action at Sequim. Jeff Blair opened the top of the first with a sharp single to left and later stole second. Bill Kialm flied to the shortstop and Cliff Pruefert worked Ludke for a base-on-balls. Blair scored on a passed ball and Pruefert advanced to third after stealing second. Ludke struck out Bernie Nash and Ed Hilton to end the first.

Fen Olson held Sequim in check until the third. Baumak hit a shot to third and Peterson tossed to bubble Jackson to get Baumak at second. Riggs popped to short and Thompson walked.

Newton stole second and advanced to third on a passed ball. Thompson stole second. Ludke drove a hit into centerfield to score Newton and Thompson and advanced to second on the throw to the plate. Bills rifled a double to right scoring Ludke. Bills scored the final run in the inning on a single by Kaminski.

Sequim scored twice in the fourth, the big blow a triple by Riggs off Ray Maxwell. Bills opened the Sequim half of the fifth with a triple and scored on a fielder's choice by Vetter. Vetter scored on an error.

Ludke scored the final run for Sequim in the sixth when he drilled a line shot to left and the fielder made a bad play on the ball, letting it get through for a roundtripper by Ludke.

Forks threatened in the seventh but mental errors kept them from scoring. John Jacobson led off with a single and was out trying to steal second. Soderlind walked and Blair was safe on an error by

WHAT MAKES STOCKINGS RUN?

To a woman who's at a party, or at a restaurant, or just out shopping, nothing is more irritating than a sudden run in a stocking. But the fashion experts say there are ways of preventing such crises.

First, the hosiery designers report that your chances of getting a run are much greater if your hosiery doesn't fit properly. If it's too tight the threads may be forced to give, if it's too loose, it can catch and snag more easily. Secondly, garters should be fastened only to the welt, not the sheer part of the stocking. Thirdly, and most important, carry a spare! Clever women used to buy two matching pairs at a time so they could carry an extra in their purse. But today you can buy a pair with a spare. Fruit of the Loom now packages them in threes and even includes a small plastic envelope for carrying the spare in your purse. The idea is called "A Little Extra" because the stockings are also made with a little extra length and a narrower waist at the top to accommodate today's shorter skirt lengths. Stockings should stretch to the size of the wearer and should fit like a second skin, with no sagging at the ankle or the knee, say the Fruit of the Loom designers. This not only prevents runs but, more important, it guarantees the most beautiful leg look. And in today's fashion, with legs taking up one third of woman's total look, the experts say that hosiery is no longer an accessory but a wardrobe in itself.

Fortunately, a hosiery wardrobe can be the least expensive part of your fashion picture. With science's development of such fibers as Enkashere, the economy-minded woman can get longer wear and an elegantly sheer fit for less than the cost of a good handkerchief.

Council Approves Painting Service Bid

The Forks Town Council approved a contract for painting the Town Hall and selected to purchase a CB communications system for the water department at the regular council meeting Monday evening.

Painting Service, Forks, owned by M.R. Schoeneman, will paint the exterior of the Town Hall and Fire Hall. The contract calls for painting exterior walls, clean, spot prime and paint trim and fire doors at a cost of $342.34.

The council has been conducting a study to purchase suitable radio communications equipment for the water department. They approved the purchase of a Johnson Messenger 225 base station radio and two mobile units at an estimated cost of $650.

The following building permits were approved: David Allen Jr., Calawah Way, garage at residence, $750; builder-Peterson & Son, Fred Cline, 131-6th Avenue N.E., patio and roof, $300; builder-Mair Brothers, Dudley Maxfield, $17,000 house in Campbell Addition, to be constructed by owner.

The town will install a 1000 gallon tank and conditioned pump at the water department site to use in facing town equipment. The council approved the tank purchase, $144 and pump purchase, approximately $200, from Union Oil.

Mayor Kennedy reported that the recently completed section of S.E. 1st will be seal coated this summer and the drainage ditch behind the Forks Motel would be extended to the driveway of the original motel units to provide adequate drainage during the rainy period.

The council was informed that the street sweeper did not operate Monday morning because of the large number of vehicles parked along Main Street. Many loggers apparently worked early Monday due to the warm weather and the excessive number of vehicles make it impossible to use the sweeper.

Councilman Ron Shearer presented a topic of discussion in behalf of the Park Board. The council was asked to discuss the idea of installing a trailer house in the park, just north of the restroom facilities. The Park Board feels that vandalism problems would be greatly reduced with a caretaker.

The council discussed the idea with mixed emotions and suggested the Park Board make a decision subject to council approval.

The next regular council meeting will be held Monday, June 23 at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall.

Answering Skeptics

Space flights capture the public's imagination. But, they also raise the ancient query that has plagued explorers, inventors and pioneers since the dawn of time. What good are they? The answer is a great deal of good. The billions of dollars that have been spent toward putting a man on the moon have not been rocketed into space at many people seem to think. They have been spent here on earth. Like an iceberg, space flights are but the visible tip of massive advances in knowledge that can be turned to the resolution of earth problems.

A top participant in the space effort and a company that has aggressively applied space technology to commercial manufacturing, North American Rockwell Corporation, notes in one of its advertisements that, "Every time we take on outer space, we learn more about how to tackle the problems on earth. Already, the nation's space program has sparked breakthroughs in field like medicine, electronics, materials and weather forecasting. And we've hardly gotten off the ground." The head of the company, Mr. Willard F. Rockwell, Jr., in recommending specific cooperative action on the part of government and industry to prevent man from dismantling and "destroying his environment," says that, "Industries with high technical potential should be called upon to increase their commitment to perfecting conservation and antipollution devices and procedures. . . ."

The effort that has gone into the space program has infused a large segment of science and industry with new life that could be the salvation of the country in years to come.

ALWAYS HOLD THE FLAG HIGH

FLAG DAY 1969

Of the thousands of words written about the flag some stand through the ages:

Woodrow Wilson, in 1912: "I cannot look upon the flag without imagining that it consists of alternate stripes of parchment upon which are written the fundamental rights of man, alternating with the streams of blood by which those rights have been vindicated and validated."

And five years later in 1917 Theodore Roosevelt: "We can have no fifty-fifty allegiance in this country. Either a man is an American and nothing else, or he is not an American at all. We are skin by blood and descent to most of the nations of Europe; but we are separate from all of them . . . and we are bound always to give our wholehearted and undivided loyalty to our own flag, and in any international crisis to treat each and every foreign nation purely according to its conduct in that crisis."

Over the years, the American flag continues to have profound meaning for most Americans. When we celebrate Flag Day on June 14, let us pay homage to the flag of freedom.

Let us fly it proudly!

Library Books

Attention bird-watchers or those looking for an interesting and inexpensive hobby. Your Forks Memorial Library has many books on this fascinating subject.

One of the most famous is Roger Tory Peterson's "A Field Guide to Western Birds" which was donated by the Bogachiel Garden Club to the local library. This book is in its 2nd edition having been revised and enlarged in 1961. It covers the birds of western Canada and Alaska with a section on Hawaii as well as the western United States. More than 700 species are included. The illustrations and text are cross-referenced for rapid and easy use. Mr. Peterson's system of species identification emphasizes the distinguishing characteristics of birds seen at a distance.

Perhaps you would prefer a book called "Birds of the Olympic Peninsula" also donated by the Bogachiel Garden Club. It was written by E. A. Kitchin and published in 1949 by Olympic Stations of Port Angeles.

Although you may be a veteran bird-watcher or only a beginner, stop at your Forks Memorial Library where your librarians Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Miller will be glad to assist you locating material in this

Polychrome Quotations Assumed by the Health Insurance Institute, 277 Park Ave., N. Y., N. Y. 10017

See a recent magazine article I read something about a new type of community health plan being set up in conjunction with Harvard University. We could use something like this in our neighborhood, so I wonder if you could fill me in on the details? Are there similar plans elsewhere?

A. The Harvard Community Health Plan is an innovation which will be implemented late this year. It is expected to provide a valuable new dash about the problem of many cities — of how medical care can become accessible to more people and better organized. It is the nation's first university-sponsored, prepaid medical care program of serving comprehensive health services to people in a metropolitan area.

Specifically, the Harvard Community Health Plan will operate independently of Harvard University, although it will enlist the resources of the Harvard Medical School, some of its teaching hospitals, major insurance companies and the Massachusetts Blue Cross to offer a total health care program. Subscribers to the plan will be provided with comprehensive care — ranging from diagnostic services to treatment in the doctor's office, full hospital and even post-hospital care. Emphasis will be on the prevention and early detection of disease.

It is hoped that the organized health care setting will permit more efficient use of medical manpower and equipment.

Destruction

Vandalism is a costly problem to any business, public or private property.

Recent incidents of vandalism at logging operations point out the need for locking gates on roads leading into private logging areas. Sometimes a locked gate doesn't deter the act.

Each year people begin to complain about the locked gates keeping the good citizen from fishing that favorite trout stream or getting to that secret blackberry patch.

The logging companies can't distinguish between those that may have vandalistic instincts. The result is a few spoil the use for many.

Recently two logging companies suffered extensive damage at their logging sites due to vandalism over the past couple of weeks.

West End Little League has suffered vandalism at the refreshment stand located at the school baseball field. This is on a small scale money wise but it is of extreme importance to the Little League financial status.

Vandalism cost the taxpayer in the millions with destruction to public property, but one cannot overlook the cost of vandalism to business and private property.

Vandalism seems to be an unavoidable act of a minority for a suffering majority. The majority can help win the program by giving information to the authorities when information is known, rather than taking the avenue of not wanting to become involved.

Hail To Summer

Every season of the year has its special features—blossoms in spring, autumn colors in fall, the magic of Jack Frost in winter and the azure skies of summer. However, summer, which begins its tour of the Northern Hemisphere on June 21, also features the full blooming of our national curse—the litterbug. And this year, as on each succeeding year, there will be more evidence of this blight than ever before.

Those who value and respect natural beauty can but watch helpless outrage as the veritable sum of the human race strikes swiftly and usually unseen—throwing beer cans and pop bottles from speeding cars or wandering without a trace from ravaged campgrounds and picnic sites. Often this creature we have dubbed the litterbug passes unobserved in the night, leaving in his wake whole boxes of garbage, as well as cases of cans and bottles. Laws are becoming increasingly stringent but to little avail. What is the threat of a $200 fine to these depollers of the countryside that no law can catch, except in the rare instances when their badness overcomes their natural cunning.

The scourge of the litterbug will get worse each summer, judging by recent estimates that put the production of 12-ounce containers by 1982 at a possible 900 million gross. Since a gross is 12 dozen, it is not hard to figure out what the landscape will look like in the summer of, say, 1985, if litterbugging continues uncurbed.

Sunset Highlites

By Fred Jarvis

Not too much going on this last week. Couple summer leagues got started and a few people down practicing. Still trying to figure out what they'd been doing wrong all winter. Guess its the same all over.

Looking thru some of my old records the other day and it figured out that I've knocked over close to a half million pins in league play. That's a lot of timber. You'd think out of all those pins all the open play and tournaments, a guy could get 300 pins in a row, but no such luck. Damn! If I had, maybe. Some pretty high games bit this year, topped by Warren Paul's 271, Darrell Thomas' 268 and Fred Jarvis' 267. For the girls, Leta Rondeau's 235, Kathy Hamby's 233 and Barb Yelko and Gwen Genson at 232.

Claude Clark hit the season's high series with 681, followed by Darrell's 678 and Fred's 267. Joyce Blair rolled the women's high of 661, and Yvonne Kettel tossed a 574.

The men's averages were down this past season with only two 130's or better being posted. Darrell had a 156, followed by Fred's 184, John Nagel and Duke Streeter both had 178.

Leta had tops for the girls with a 160, and Yvonne Kettel a 161.

Seems like it runs in cycles, down this year and up the next, so next year should see higher averages and possibly higher series. Games too, we hope.

In the Women's Doubles, started a week ago last Tuesday, Kathy Decker had 197 hi ten and high 40 of 625. The girls bowled four games across all eight lanes.

Jeff Blair had the high average in the Sunset Elites Jr. Mix-ed with a 160, and Patty Lanwell led the girls with 132.

Thursday Nites Ma and Pa League is also four games across eight lanes and last week Willie Bryan led the bunch with a 226 high game and a 703 high forty.

Ma Jarvis topped the girls with a 181-865, Jean Streeter had the big money shot at Sat. Nite Monte Carlo but missed and Woody Hamby struck at the crucial time to pick up half of the pot. Leta was able to get her fingers in her ball this time and won ten free games.

Duke tossed a 620 series and took my money in our side pot. Nice bowling, Du'e.

Monday Nites Jr. Sr. League started this week. Hi 18 and Hi 30 for adults were Duke Streeter with 211 and 605, Ed Rondeau with 215 and 602, Leta Rondeau had a 212 and 574, Hi 10 and Hi 30 for the Jrs. were Rocky Colfelt with a 169, Terri Genson had a 151 and 380 series, Mark Henry was high with a 417 series.

NiWauna Homemakers

Mrs. John Singhose, State Extension Homemaker Council 4-H Chairman, was the guest when the NiWauna Extension Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Howard Trimble on June 14, 1969. Mrs. Roland Anderson and Mrs. Larry Hammel were hostesses.

Reporting on a recent trip for 4-H to Arizona, Mrs. Singhose stated, "The 4-H program is now branching out from middle class to reach the underprivileged children. This includes the low-income, handicapped (physically and mentally), migrant workers and the Indians. These groups should be aware of the educational value of 4-H. Leadership should be given back to teens; the adults are there in an advisory capacity only. This develops confidence in responsibilities."

The State Chairman will contact the parents of Indian children thru the program-aids hired by the County Extension Service, and then will train the parents to aid their children in 4-H. Especially in recreation and crafts.

As Extension Homemakers we can help the 4-H program by learning and helping judge at competitions. Anyone interested in judging for 4-H should contact Mrs. Singhose and a judging school will be given here in Forks shortly.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Howard Trimble, president, encouraged the club members to get articles ready for the Clallam County Fair. The Club also voted to send $15 to the local 4-H council to help defray expenses for a leader to 4-H Camps.

Mrs. James Helmick, reported the State Convention will be in October and following the convention will be College Days for Women at Pullman, Washington. Any women interested in attending the College Days can contact Mrs. Helmick. This is open to all

Any resemblance of a clean-up program of the Forks area prior to the 4th of July celebration appears to have failed to get off the ground at this stage of the game.

Some organization will probably have to take the bull by the horns and promote a clean-up program.

Persons interested in forming a horse trail club or re-activating the Wrangler Club are invited to a meeting June 14 at 7:00 p. m. at the Glenn King home.

For further information call 374-5605.

College Music Group To Perform Friday

The Carillons, a musical group from Northwest College of the Assemblies of God, will be featured in a concert of sacred music at the Assembly of God Church on Friday the 13th of June.

This exciting group of young people will present a varied program of music that will be enjoyed by both adults and youth. Some of their presentation centers on the older hymns of the Church, while other numbers relate the Christian faith in contemporary fashion.

Members in the group include Ina Rae McGhee, senior; theology student from Maple Valley, Washington; Trudy Wellman, junior pre-music major from Reedsport, Oregon; Susan Brown, sophomore pre-music student from Coulee City, Washington; and Rosie Nordby, junior pre-religion major from Spokane, Washington.

All students at Northwest College, located in Kirkland, Washington. The Carillons have traveled throughout Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Utah in musical concerts. They have been featured in Dave Wilkerson meetings, and various youth rallies. Two record albums have been released featuring the group. It is not unusual to see them singing in restaurants and drive-ins, surrounded by a crowd of teenagers.

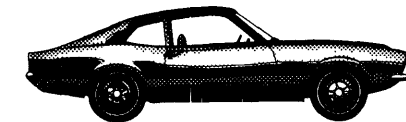

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this special concert. The program will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Our family picnic will be held at Tumbling Rapids on June 6.

Bat's Belfry

By Betty Otos

"Hawaii or Bust" set the theme for a surprise party given for Clara Goakey on Wednesday, June 4th, at the Richard Lohnets home. Mrs. Goakey will spend a week in Hawaii with her husband, Howard, who is there on an R&R from Vietnam. Taking part in the surprise party were: Mrs. Edith Goakey, Mrs. Charles Fox, Mickie Klahn, Ann Medsker, Joyce Anderson, Margaret Lohnets and Kathy, Babe Klahn, Sharla Fox, Lee Brown, Lenna Johnson and Martha Lewis. How often have you heard the expression, "They sure don't make things like they used to." It's usually meant as a slur on modern product quality. Sometimes we tend to agree. However, things weren't always as great in the past as the generalized praise might indicate.

For instance, how about auto tires? A half century ago punctures and blowouts were considered a normal occurrence on any trip. Distances we now cover easily in an hour or so were then an all-day journey. A round-trip between Cleveland and Los Angeles in 1914 produced 175 flats and 17 blowouts. Yet tire prices were higher than they are today.

You need not look back 50 years to see the tremendous improvements in tire safety and economy. The latest wider, tougher tires are designed and built to provide nearly twice the mileage possible just 10 years back.

Who deserves credit for the safer, more dependable tires we now use in all types of weather, road conditions and driving speeds? America's tire companies and the firms that supply their modern machinery, such as McNeil Akron, manufacturer of tire curing presses. Through constant research the tire industry has developed new materials, improved designs and better manufacturing techniques.

Next time someone says modern products are unlike those of the past, maybe you should reply, "Thank goodness."

Meditation

By William E. Cross

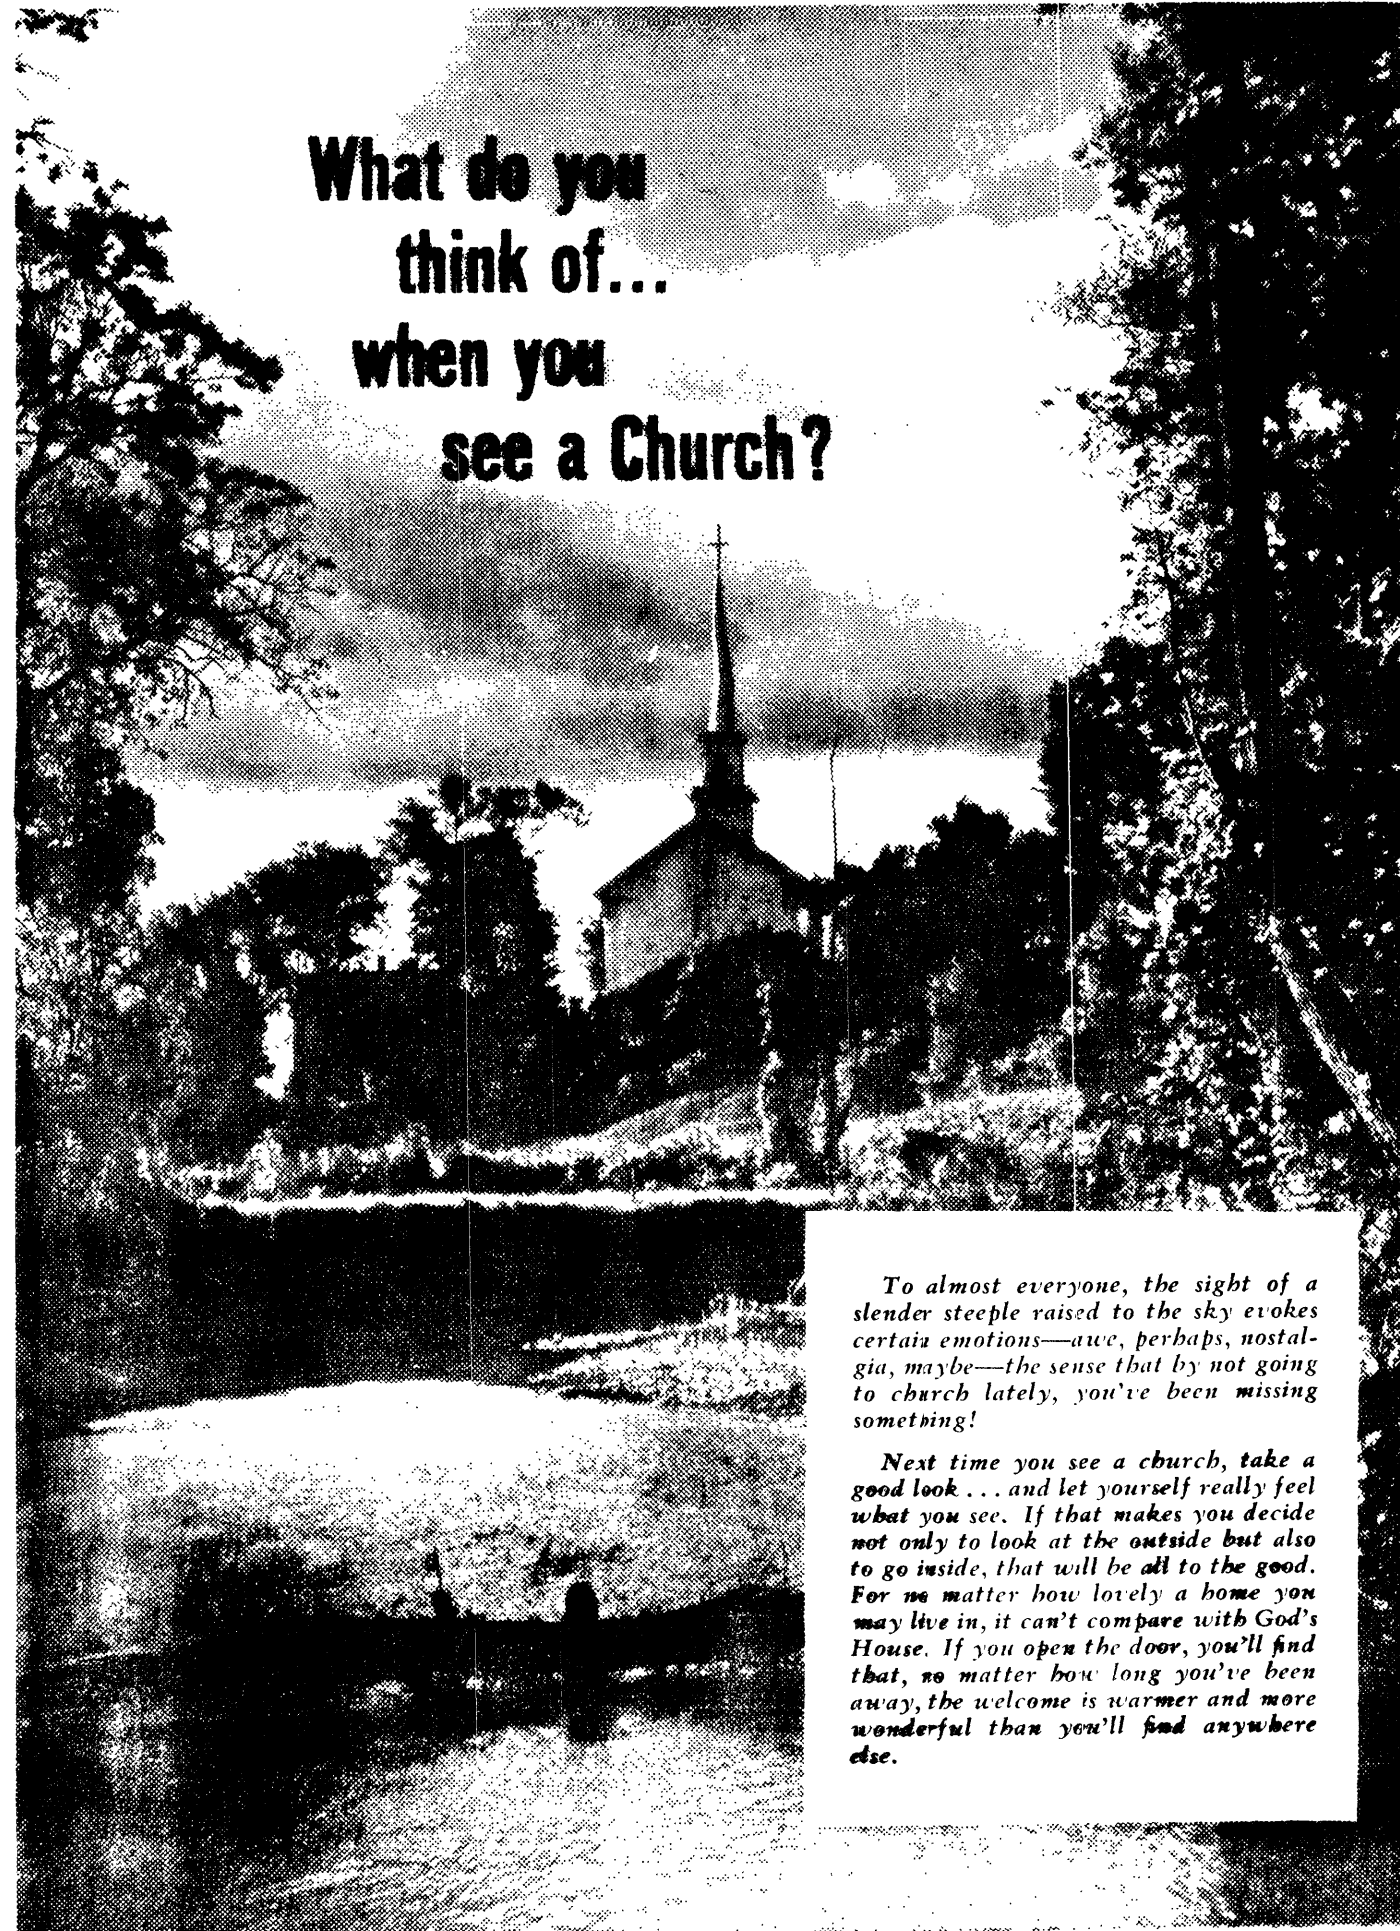

What do you think of when you see a Church? No doubt individual answers to this question would be varied and interesting. We so often speak of "our church", or "my church", and almost without exception we are referring to a building. We take much pride in the "building"; we try to keep it clean and in good repair; we enter quietly and reverently for we are now in the "House of God".

There is much in the presence of a "church building" in the Community which speaks quietly, often too quietly, of peace, stability and security. It stands as a memorial in a complex and multiple way. Primarily it reminds us all that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Secondly, it reminds us that God desires to meet with us and fellowship with us, not only as individuals, but as a group of believers. Thirdly, we are reminded that Almighty God, Creator of Heaven and Earth, is to be worshipped by His creatures and all of His creation.

Then again we are perhaps reminded of happy, carefree, childhood days when we attended Sunday School, youth meetings, and perhaps stayed once in a while to listen to the "preacher". Now life has become involved: full of cares and anxieties pregnant with frustrations and disappointments and overwhelming with responsibilities. Time has become so filled with pressing, materialistic needs that there is little or no time to even relax, certainly no time to pause and really worship God or consider His Son and His sacrifice for our souls. As a result we drive by our Churches with a nostalgic feeling, a sense of guilt and a conviction that our lives are not all they should be.

Perhaps if we could just re-arrange our busy schedule this next weekend; perhaps if we would just take the time to go to Church; perhaps the God of all peace and comfort would whisper to our tired, confused and burdened hearts—"Peace, be still."

What do you think of... when you see a Church?

To almost everyone, the sight of a slender steeple raised to the sky evokes certain emotions—awe, perhaps, nostalgia, maybe—the sense that by not going to church lately, you've been missing something!

Next time you see a church, take a good look... and let yourself really feel what you see. If that makes you decide not only to look at the outside but also to go inside, that will be all to the good. For no matter how lovely a home you may live in, it can't compare with God's House. If you open the door, you'll find that, no matter how long you've been away, the welcome is warmer and more wonderful than you'll find anywhere else.

VFW News

Reports of a very successful Buddy Poppy sale were given at the June 2nd meeting of Fletcher-Wittenborn Auxiliary, by the chairman Shirley Fox. Fletcher-Wittenborn Post #9106 and Auxiliary would like to thank each individual that bought a Buddy Poppy—the symbol of the sacrifices made by the nation's war dead in the great conflicts for peace. This is the best way to personally show our gratitude for the sacrifices of our disabled veterans. For each 1000 Poppies sold, $90.00 is used to aid disabled and needy veterans and their families through our own Post and Auxiliary relief funds. Thirty-four dollars goes to provide counseling and assistance services to disabled veterans in obtaining benefits provided by law. Ten dollars goes to the VFW Home for orphans of deceased veterans in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

Four dollars is paid to the hospitalized veteran who assembled the Poppy. Twelve dollars covers the cost of the materials, promotion, postage, shipping costs and other expenses of the program. (This is figured at the average of 15¢ per Poppy). Feel proud that you, too, have helped our servicemen!!! And a hearty thank you!!!

Committee reports and bulletins were read by each chairman. Discussions followed.

The installation ceremonies were reported upon by the members who attended, they all agreed it was an enjoyable evening and a well planned one.

The Auxiliary was very proud to be able to take part in the Memorial plot dedication in the cemetery, on Memorial Day. The Post and Auxiliary want to thank each person who contributed plants or flowers or helped with the program in any way. Plants and shrubs are welcome if you would care to contribute a plant or shrub please call Jeanne James, 374-5228 or Daisy Klahn, 374-6614. More work will be done by the members of the Post and a work day is planned by the Auxiliary.

A guest book was presented to the Forks Library as the first one presented by the Auxiliary is now filled.

A meeting will be held to audit the books of the Auxiliary before the 15th of June.

June 16th is the next meeting of the Auxiliary, initiation will be held then, please plan to attend.

Department convention will convene in Bellingham this year, June 18th to the 21st. Try to attend.

Adventists

Donate Money

At a time when schools across the country are hurting for finances, members of the Forks Seventh-day Adventist church will dig deeper into their pockets Saturday and contribute to three schools that are three thousand miles away and on another continent.

Mr. Jerry Wood, Superintendent of the Adventist Sabbath School, reports that the schools slated to receive aid are the church's Northeast Brazil College at Pernambuco, Brazil; Chile College at Chillan, Chile; and Espirito Santa Academy (high school) at Celetina, Espirito Bante, Brazil.

These are three of the 4,800 schools supported by the denomination. One of the local schools is the Olympic Peninsula Church School located at Sequim.

The funds collected Saturday will help to erect new dormitory facilities for the Espirito Sante Academy and the Chile College. They will also help to build a chapel for the Northeast Brazil College.

The Chile College, Mr. Woods says, has been limping along with 260 young men jammed into a dormitory designed to accommodate 150.

Superintendent Woods states that he expects the goal enabling this construction will be reached.

"Our members believe in Christian education. We submit that as excellent as the public school system is, there is something missing when God must be left out. This the privately operated school can supply and we feel that we must do it even though it is costly. Young people need that special relationship with God during their formative years."
