Morgison Arraigned Released On Bail

Three criminal charges were filed Monday in Superior Court against Dennis C. Morgison. Forks assistant marshal, reported Nathan G. Richardson, county prosecuting attorney.

Morgison was arraigned at 1:30 p. m. Monday in Superior Court. He is charged with, one count of sodomy, one count of contributing to the delinquency of minors and one count of unlawful sale and furnishing narcotics to minors, Richardson said.

Bail was set at $5,000 on the first count and $1,000 on each of the others. Morgison was released on a reduced bail of $4,000 Tuesday. He has pleaded not guilty to all the charges.

No trial date has been set. Morgison was taken into custody by the Clallam County Sheriffs Department Saturday evening in Forks and held in Clallam County Jail until released on bail Tuesday.

Morgison was suspended as assistant marshal July 9, 1969. He was taken into custody July 8 and released on $500 bail as recommended by Brook Taylor, assistant prosecuting attorney, acting in Richardson's absence.

Town Council Hears Reports On Water And Street Conditions

Forks Town Council heard a report by Frank Lyda, water superintendent, listing water and street projects that need to be considered and Dick Haberman, park board member, discussed a proposal to construct a bowl type arena at the park at Monday's council meeting.

Lyda had prepared a complete list of line replacements, line extensions and general projects that have to be completed in connection with the water department.

Approximately 2000 feet of wooden main must be replaced on the Nelson Road and the wooden line running under the Peninsula Telephone and Telegraph Central Office must be replaced. This line services the telephone facility and the Shearer and Gorham residences and Sullivan's cabins.

Lyda also asked the council about seal coating of streets and black topping to be done this summer.

A meeting was set for Wednesday evening to review the necessary projects as to cost and necessity.

Haberman informed the council of a proposal to build a bowl-type arena at the park to use during the July 4th Celebration. Haberman pointed out that the accident at the demolition derby demonstrated the necessity of a better facility for crowd protection.

Erwin "Tiny" Aanderud, Don Quick and Richard Halverson were present to represent the request for building the arena.

Haberman also explained that plans are being prepared to expand and improve the baseball field.

Haberman asked Frank Platt, Town attorney, about information concerning employment of young people in park clean-up. Platt suggest they contact Hugh Rodman of the Department of Labor and Industries about Child Labor Laws.

Alpine Helicopter, Inc. representative, Carl Spee, asked permission to operate a fixed wing airplane flying service at the Forks Airport and to install a 10' x 40' trailer at the airport. This proposal corresponds with the councils plan to have a caretaker at the airport. Alpine has agreed to install a septic tank. Bill Bransfield, airport manager, has not been operating his flying service and plans to resign his position.

Alpine Helicopter, Inc. owns 5 helicopters and 4 fixed wing aircraft and will be on a trial basis with a flying service here.

Spee is presently operating a helicopter here on a state fire patrol contract.

In other business the council approved water applications for: Sanford Windle, meter connection to existing line on East Division; A.L. Willet, approximately 200' extension of 6" line on East Calawah Way at property owners cost.

Approved payment of vouchers, except 1183, Painting Service and 1191, Forks Motel post rental.

Approved building permits for: Lutheran Church parsonage, cost $25,000; Julia Stevens, Stevens Grove Trailer Park, new siding.

Mayor Earl Kennedy stated that Dennis Morgison was suspended as of July 9, 1969. No further action was taken at the meeting.

P College Listed In Publication

For the first time since it came into being in 1961, Peninsula College will be represented in the forthcoming publication of the Encyclopedia of Careers and Vocational Guidance. Instructor Robert Mausolf, Chairman of the Fisheries Department of Peninsula College is the author of a chapter on Fish Culture for inclusion in the Agriculture, Forestry and Oceanography volume of the Careers Encyclopedia.

In the chapter on Fish Culture, Instructor Mausolf shows the method of developing this type of program together with photographs of the facilities constructed at the college. To date this vocational training program has attracted wide attention throughout the United States to the extent that its inclusion in the Encyclopedia indicates a giant step forward in the new phases of community college vocational training methods.

Tourist Family Enjoys Community Hospitality

Forks Old Fashion July 4th tourist of the day, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson of Denver, Colorado and grandchildren, Cliff Pritchard of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Edward Steinsouer of Cypress, California, left the Forks area Thursday morning on the return trip home.

The Andersons' echoed, "We'll be back," as they expressed final farewell greetings with the staff at the Forks Forum Thursday.

Each summer the Andersons embark on a two-week vacation, towing their 25 foot trailer behind the big Chrysler with the family dog, Pix, riding shotgun on the rear window ledge. Last year the vacation trip brought them to the Northwest for the first time. They came as far west as Olympia and Seattle on the trip into British Columbia. They liked what they saw and decided to return again this year.

They were on a trip around the Peninsula when Trooper John McCauley met them in Bogachiel State Park and informed them that they would be the honored tourists of the July 4th Celebration in Forks. Mr. Anderson was still shaving when they arrived at the parade viewing stand with McCauley.

They were introduced to the crowd and presented numerous gift certificates and cash from Forks merchants. The Andersons made a special effort to personally thank each merchant.

During the parade, the Andersons noticed a young boy, Tim Rasmussen, wearing a cast that extended from his chest to the top of his head. Tim had just returned from Childrens Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle, where he had corrective surgery performed on the muscles of the neck. Among the list of gift certificates was a $25 savings bond from Forks State Bank. They decided at that moment to present the bond to Tim.

The Andersons and grandchildren left Forks Sunday and went to Victoria, returning Tuesday for two days in LaPush. Mr. Anderson had promised to take Cliff and Edward fishing and selection as tourists of the day had drastically altered these plans. They did manage a fishing trip at Lake Crescent on Wednesday.

The Andersons wish to express their thanks to the community for the wonderful friendliness and hospitality. Cliff and Edward will have big stories to tell when they return home. For Cliff it was his first opportunity to romp on the sandy beaches of the Pacific.

They enjoyed their vacation on the Olympic Peninsula and shall return for future vacations.

Letters To Editor

Community.
On behalf of the Hoquiam Ramblers Motorcycle Club Inc., I would like to thank you for your cooperation extended to our organization. Because of your news media outlets we had the community, as a whole, behind us. This in itself helped to make our Annual Olympic Tour a great success. We appreciated the kindness and cooperation shown to us by the many residents of your community during our three day stay, there in your area.

I trust that the friendships that were founded in June of 1969, will blossom and continue to grow in the years to come.

I realize that the word motorcycle, puts a horrified chill up and down some peoples spine, but with the actions of our club, and the many friends from the Northwest Motorcycle Association, and other American Motorcycle Association clubs, in your community, we hope that we have helped restore some faith in the people that happen to ride motorcycles. We know that there are still the one-percenters (Hells Angels type), which tend to make a black mark on our name, but with the work that we do for charity, and the pleasure we get out of riding our two-wheeled vehicles, we trust that the outlook is somewhat better.

We thank your Park Board for inviting us to your community. As a token of our appreciation we have sent a check to the mayor's office to help purchase supplies to build bleachers for the Forks Little League baseball team.

In closing may I again say thank you very much for everything that you did for us, and the kindness shown towards us. May the friendship between the community of Forks, and the Hoquiam Ramblers be strengthened as time goes by.

Yours very truly,
Louis E. Robohm, Pres.

Editor,

Racism of course should not exist in the United States and if the Constitution were enforced we would not need these race slanted laws. According to the press the last white household servant has recently been pressured into resigning his position in the White House by his Negro co-workers. I do not know if the railroad red caps have now been properly percentage wise infiltrated with white porters. See how silly racism could be? Once we recognize race as a condition of employment or a right to purchase, occupy or lease we are entering a danger zone. Civil rights should not be private rights but general or public rights. To tell a person whose occupation or service does not depend on a public franchise which in itself implies that there is constitutionally no particularization, that he has the right to certain concessions simply because of race or other factors is of course implementing racism. No law has ever yet been able to enforce tolerance or respect. We can only reach justice and equality before the law.

The purposeful segregation of Southern schools and the often inferiority of the Negro schools was of course wrong because here a public institution took account of race. The silly attempts of certain Northern schools to integrate classes on basis of race is of course equally deplorable, something our press seems unable to understand or our politics oriented legislature bodies to take into account.

It is constantly implied that the white race has in the past deplorably imposed on the Negro and that therefore we of the present generation are loaded with guilt and so abiliplace the races in direct competition with each other, especially in the North.

This special effort will work very well in our present opulent society but race war will inevitably result if economic disruption should occur and the white worker is purposely placed in direct competition with the black. When the railroads, when they were building across the continent, were faced with the impossibility of obtaining enough white workers, they imported Chinese to do the job. All was cozy until it was done, then what a flare-up and rioting and a chasing out of the Chinese who in capability were a direct competition to white labor. There is a book, "Totem Tales of Old Seattle", half history, half entertaining narrative, that tells this story very adequately as well as of other uprisings and rioting based on economic disruptions!

We had a depression in 1873 and another in 1893 each of which covered several years and any mature person will recognize how the sky fell in 1929 and only War II stopped it despite of deficiency spending which has today become inflation and a way of life with Leaving Mother and the girls still snoozing, I cruised over to Clark's this morning to load up on coffee and catch up on the latest news. Ran into Jim Klahn and Jerry Miles and cussed and discussed logging, politics, Vietnam, music, road building, dancing, women, old age, business and money business. Altho not necessarily in that order and it's your guess as to which subject was most thoroughly covered. No comments, please.

Understand John and Sally (Retired) Nagel left on their vacation trip to Alaska. Took their metal detector and gold pan with them. Maybe they'll start a new gold rush. Also, bet they took their bowling bags with them. Would sure like to have gone with them as I bet they have a ball.

Been an awful decline in the BPAA Summer Singles. Not just here, but in almost all the houses here on the Peninsula. Am afraid if it doesn't pick up, we might not have it anymore. A good tournament with qualifiers for the finals getting a shot at anywhere from twenty-five to two-hundred and fifty smackens. Better come down and give it a go, as the chances for qualifying get better each week.

In last weeks Tuesday Mornings Womens Doubles, Billie Bryan won all the marbles with a HI 10 of 212 and a HI 40 of 632.

Ma and Pa Jarvis got bumped out of the top rung in the Ma and Pa Mixed Doubles by Rex and Billie Crist. Well, you can't win them all. "Pa" Duke Streeter took HI 10 honors with a 224 and also picked off the difficult 4-7-10 split on his way to a 768 series.

Darrell "No-Pa" Thomas had a HI 40 of 781 and Billie Crist topped the women with a 192-662.

Mother picked off the 4-7-9-10 split. Anybody, good enough to pick that up should never have left it in the first place. O boy! Back to the doghouse for me!

There's finally going to be some money in this Sat. Nite's Monte Carlo Jackpot! Not going to tell how much so you can come down and find out for yourself. John Harris won nine free games last week and believe it or not OI' Dad finally caught Duke when he wasn't hitting too good and won our little sidepot. Been a long time.

Had the pleasure of watching Hank Bigelow bowl a 289 game Sunday nite. He and Ken Keeney were taking a shot at the Summer Singles. Hank started his big game with a spare, then strung 10 strikes in a row and then another spare. Biggest game ever here I believe, nice bowling, Hank.

Fiberboard Hands Forks 9-3 Loss

Hot bats and the steady hurrying of Evenstad carried Fiberboard to a 9-3 victory over the Forks Lions in Olympic Youth baseball action in Port Angeles Saturday.

It was one of those days where the Lions couldn't get rolling and Fiberboard could do no wrong.

Fiberboard scored one run in the first, three in the third, four in the fourth and added the final run in the sixth as they collected 12 base hits, 4 doubles.

Base hits by Brooks, Evenstad and Donely scored a run in the first.

Forks tied it up with a run in the second by Ray Maxwell. Maxwell walked, Bernie Nash walked, John Jacobson reached first on a fielders choice to load the bases. Ron Dimmel walked to force in the run. Jeff Blair grounded out to third to end the threat.

Fiberboard scored three in the third on doubles by Brooks and McCall, a single by Johnson and two Forks errors.

Fiberboard rapped four hits in the fourth scoring Early, Brooks, Evenstad and McCall. Donely's double scored Evenstad and McCall.

Bill Klahn got the only Forks hit, a single to left in the fifth, but Pruefert struck out and Maxwell grounded out to second to end the frame.

Brooks scored in the sixth for Fibreboard. He opened the inning with a single too right, advanced to second on an error; and scored on a single by Donely.

Forks scored two in the seventh. Mark Soderlind walked. Jeff Blair was safe on an error and Klahn walked to load the bases. Pruefert drove in Soderlind, Klahn was out at second on the play. Maxwell walked to load the sacks again and McCall came on to pitch. He fanned Nash but hit Robbie Jackson with a pitch to force in a second run. McCall got Ken Olson to ground out to the shortstop to end the game.

Donely and Brooks led the Fiberboard hitting with 3 each. Box Score

Meditation

By William E. Cross

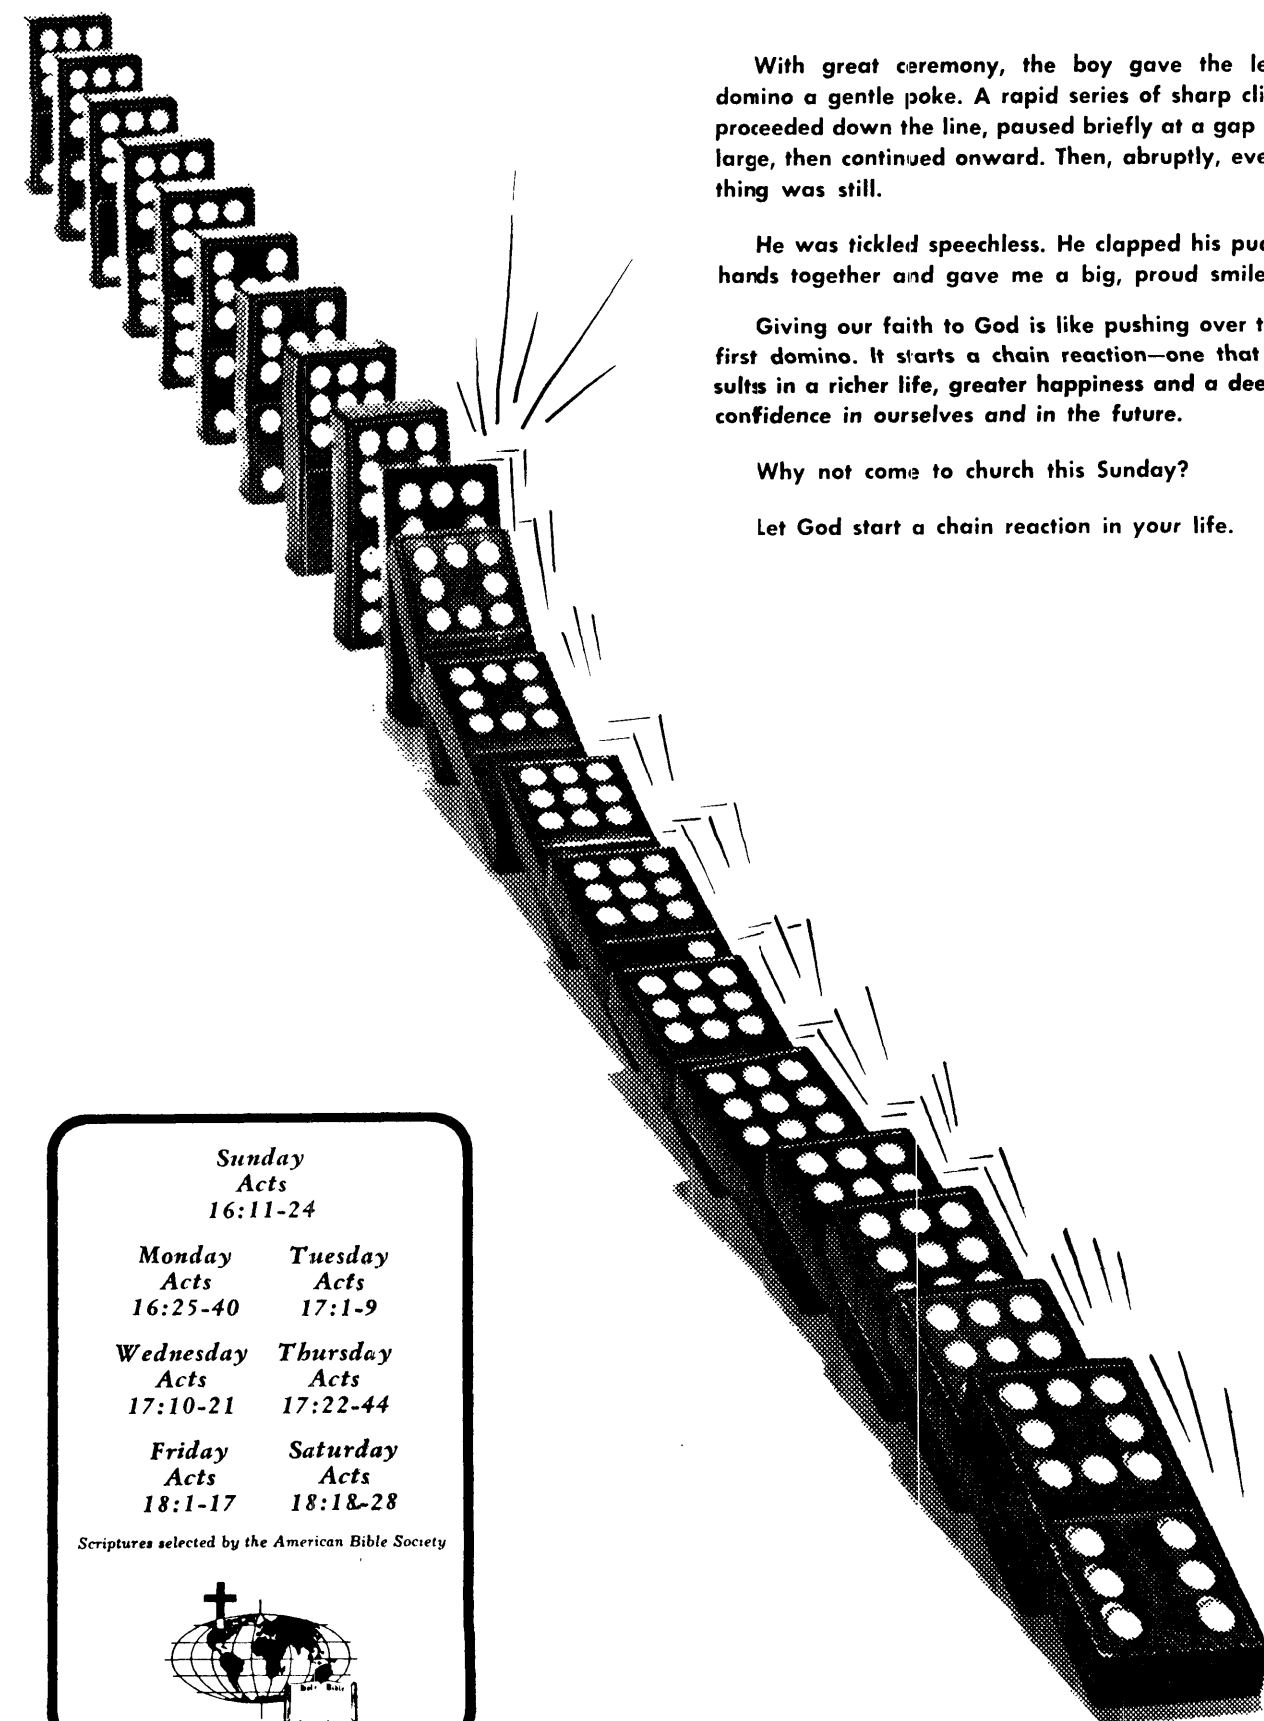

When I think of that which we call "chain-reaction" I think of the matter of influence and its power... The dictionary defines influence, in part, as follows: "Invisible or insensible action exerted by one thing or person on another"---"personal power independent of force or authority enabling one to produce effects or gain ends"... Quite often 'influence' is unconsciously exercised. As in the story below the boy only pushed over one domino. However, this started a reaction that ultimately caused all the other dominoes to fall down. So it is with us as individuals. We cannot prevent our lives, our actions, our responses to circumstances, from having an influence on others; especially those of our own house-hold!!!

How true this is in the matter of our relationship to God, and to His Son, and to the Church. If I don't need God, neither will my children!!! If I don't need to know Jesus Christ in His saving power, neither will my children!!! If I don't need the fellowship of the Church, neither will my children!!! A man once came to me in great distress, relating the fact that his teenage son had been arrested and was in jail. With much weeping and deep concern he asked this question: "Pastor, what happened? When he was a little fellow I sent him to Sunday School. He memorized a few verses from the Bible. He was always such a good boy; what happened???" I could only frankly answer: "My friend, the very fact that you didn't need the Sunday School, or the Bible, or Christ, or His Church, has had its influence, its reaction upon your boy. Because Dad didn't need a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, neither did the son."

The Bible says: "Train up a child in the way he SHOULD go ---" And the best way I know to so train a child is by example! If you are not now doing so, why not begin next Sunday to COME to Church with your family? Why not begin now to let your family and friends see you reading the Bible; hear you praying to God; witness you letting Jesus Christ have His way in your life?? Why not start a "chain reaction" that can only influence your family and friends for good?

Chain Reaction

With great ceremony, the boy gave the lead domino a gentle poke. A rapid series of sharp clicks proceeded down the line, paused briefly at a gap too large, then continued onward. Then, abruptly, everything was still.

He was tickled speechless. He clapped his pudgy hands together and gave me a big, proud smile.

Giving our faith to God is like pushing over that first domino. It starts a chain reaction—one that results in a richer life, greater happiness and a deeper confidence in ourselves and in the future.

Why not come to church this Sunday?

Let God start a chain reaction in your life.

Use of the lot is by agreement between the Town of Forks and the Odd Fellows.

New office building at Forks Motel nearing completion. The new office will provide a covered entryway for customers.

Planters being constructed at the junior high entrance at the school. The planters should keep the students from cutting across the landscaped areas.

New managers at the Town Motel are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bagby.

New home construction continues in the area with a Capp home under construction in Mansfield Third Addition and two homes being constructed at Valley View. Finishing touches are being added to the Lutheran parsonage on Second Avenue.

State Timber Sales High

"State timber sold in the Forks district continues to bring high stumpage prices" announced E. C. Gockereil, North Olympic Field Supervisor for the Department of Natural Resources. "Bidding reached a peak in April with bids averaging over $100 per thousand board feet, but fell off to a less inflated average of $67 per thousand in June", he added.

The Forks district sold 271,555,000 bd. ft. of timber the past 12 months (July 1, 1968 thru June 30, 1969). The 43 sales were bid up from $7,863,000 to $20,160,000 with an average stumpage of $74.24 per thousand board feet. This is up considerably from the previous fiscal year of $51.66 per thousand.

The annual cut of 300,000,000 bd. ft. was not achieved. The deficit will be made up in July and August. The new annual cut for Forks is 400,000,000 bd. ft. This is the volume to be offered between July 1, 1969 thru June 30, 1970.

The 43 sales require that 44 miles of high standard road be built. 16 miles of road improvement. 36 miles of loggers spur roads and numerous small bridges. These facilities will enhance the value of the State school lands by about $1,500,000.

The bulk of the timber sold was hemlock and silver fir making up 77% of the total volume. 18% of the total was western red cedar. 4% Sitka spruce and only 1% Douglas fir.

Roberta Richardson Becomes Bride

Forks Congregational Church was the scene of the wedding June 28 of Roberta Kay Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Richardson of Forks and Vaughn Lyn Hill, son of Mr. Gerald Hill and Mrs. Marguerite Van Hee of Seattle. Rev. J. William Hawk performed the double ring ceremony.

Floral arrangements of white gladiolus with white stock and ferns in baskets decorated the church.

Mrs. Hawk played the organ and Mrs. James Rich sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, George K. Richardson. She wore a white satin floor length gown with a train.

Maid of honor was Roberta

Scarlett. Bridesmaids were Bonita Burr and Diane Scarlett. Lorie Kennedy was the flower girl, ring bearer was Leslie Kennedy and candle lighters were Brad and Bruce Kennedy.

The bride's mother wore a pink and gold fitted dress with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink satin suit with pink accessories.

Best man was Gerald Hill of Seattle. Ushers were Dale Richardson of Forks and Jack Kennedy of Beaver.

A reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. Lee Hulber poured coffee, Mrs. Carl Klahn poured tea and Mrs. Earl Kennedy served punch. Mrs. Don Klahn cut the cake. Mrs.

James Hatton of Copalis Beach and Miss Anita Klahn of Forks assisted with the gifts. Mrs. Harold Kennedy attended the guest book.

The bride wore a yellow orlon three-quarter sleeve knit dress with ruffled collar, light green coat and white shoes for the honeymoon to Canada.

The couple are at home at 801 E. Harrison, Seattle, Washington.

NiWauna Homemakers News

Tentative plans for Clallam County Extension Homemakers to entertain the women of South Vancouver Island Women's Institute on Thursday August 7 at the Eagles Hall in Port Angeles were formulated by Mmes. Clifford Combs, George Dickinson, and LeRoy Kitzelman. They met at the home of Mrs. Kitzelman, July 2.

Clallam County members will serve a luncheon and have a style show, then provide a free time for shopping, short tours or visits in local members homes as individuals or groups desire.

THE SURE HANDS OF MR. AKER

At 86 years old I feel that the public is much safer if I ride my bicycle rather than drive a car. My bike does the job nicely.

After cleaning his 50 pound king salmon which he caught at Sekdu early that morning, Mr. Aker opened shop as he has for nearly 70 years.

By Lonnie Archibald

Yes, I have been barbering here in Clallam Bay since 1930. I was born in Norway on November 30, 1882. Why, when I first started barbering I received a nickel for a shave and whole dime for a haircut. Times have changed since I started my career back in Fergus Falls, Minnesota.

Ask Lou about his pool playing. He is the best in these parts. Not to mention pinochle and pan. Right fellows!

The sure hands of Mr. Lou Aker still cut hair and shave with the best of them. A warm friendly atmosphere exists here.

Top Profits From Douglas Fir Timber

Woodman, spare that young tree... for a few years longer... if you want a better profit. That, in essence, is the message of a new Pacific Northwest Cooperative Extension publication prepared by the Washington Woodland Council, in cooperation with Extension forestry specialists from Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

The title of the booklet is "What's the Most Profitable Cutting Age for Timber?" It's available now at the county Extension office, Clallam County Agent, Andy Kruswyk, reports.

Joseph Buhaly, WSU Extension forester, advises western Washington timber owners who are considering selling their stands to pick up a copy and study it carefully. "It could mean a much better profit for you," he suggests.

The sales price for Douglas fir usually becomes attractive when the trees are 40 to 50 years old," according to the booklet. At age 40, an acre at normal value might bring about $90 stumpage if it were clearcut. But ten years later, at age 50, the same timber would bring $340. And after 20 years later, it would bring $650. At present prices, an acre of 100-year old trees would bring more than $2500.

Since stumpage prices have changed rapidly in recent months, these figures should only be taken as illustration of relative growth in value. Buhaly noted. He suggests that individual timber owners contemplating a sale check current stumpage prices and adjust the data accordingly.

Besides recent demand and supply factors which have influenced stumpage prices upward, tree growth and quality improvement with age also affect tree values from one year or decade to the next, the foresters say.

Most people who cut young timber do so because they need money. But the specialists suggest that they might do well to consider a bank loan instead. The increase in timber value may be greater than bank loan interest rates, they point out.

Meanwhile, you can get some money from your trees without clearcutting. Thinning will produce some timber yield---and it's a good management practice. To get the best profit from your timber, Buhaly advises: 1) Know your stand; 2) Watch sale timing; 3) Pick your market; and 4) Get top value. Get a professional forester's opinion before you sign a contract, he adds.

CALAWA REBEKAHS RUMMAGE SALE STARTS FRIDAY

The Calawa Rebekahs are very busy getting everything set up for their annual rummage sale which starts Friday July 18 through July 26, from 10-4:30 every day except Sunday.

Twelve Rebekahs attended the Grand Assembly in Port Angeles, 5 of whom were in the choir. It was a wonderful session.

One of our sisters, Leta Klahn, received the Degree of Chivalry. It is the first time any member of the Forks Lodges has received this honor. We're all so very proud of her. Five more members came in the night of the Degree to see it.

We were all so very thrilled and proud to have sister Mildred Peterson of Sequim Lodge elected Warden of Grand Assembly.

Our best wishes to sister Pearl for a speedy recovery.

Most cities developed to serve commerce and industry. But the new town of Litchfield Park, Arizona is designed to give residents the most attractive possible environment. Parks, playing fields and landscaped pathways are everywhere. All homes are an easy walk from stores, and schools, a plan that sharply cuts auto traffic.

Your Family Finance WHAT IS TRUTH-IN-LENDING?

The truth-in-lending law, effective July 1, covers virtually all credit for personal, family or farm use up to $25,000, and even more in real estate transactions. It's bound to affect you.

How the new law will change America's whole credit vocabulary was explained recently by Kenneth V. Larkin, senior vice president of Bank of America and chairman of The American Bankers Association Credit Committee. His comments should prove valuable to anyone shopping for bargains in credit.

"Everyone should understand that this law doesn't change credit rates," he began. "Its primary purpose is to make sure that the customer is fully informed about all the costs and conditions of any credit contract. Among other things, it requires that all lenders use the same method of stating credit charges—either the annual percentage rate, or up to January 1, 1971, its dollar equivalent. This makes it much easier to comparison shop for credit."

"Before this law," he continued, "banks often quoted charges in terms of dollars per $100 per year, either add-on or discount. Those latter terms refer to two different ways of writing instalment loan contracts."

Mr. Larkin explained that "add-on" meant that the finance charge was added to the principal to arrive at the amount to be repaid, while "discount" indicated that the charge was deducted from the principal at the time the loan was made.

"Under the new law," he said, "a bank that used to quote $6 per $100 per year add-on on a one-year loan will now talk of an 11% annual rate, or $11 per year per $100 on the unpaid balance. The actual cost, of course, is the same."

borrower didn't have the use of the entire amount for the whole year. After six months of a one-year loan, half of it had been repaid, so the average amount outstanding was only about half the original total. Since the annual percentage rate is determined by dividing the finance charge by the average amount outstanding, the figure would be almost double that of the old dollar rate.

"Remember, only the language has changed," he cautioned. "The cost to the customer is the same. It isn't just a simple conversion from dollar rate to annual rate, however. When figuring the new rate, some items not usually covered in the old dollar rate must be included—service charges and fees for credit reports, for example, and credit life insurance when required by the lender. Still, the borrower has always had to pay these items, so there is no actual change in cost to him."

Mr. Larkin went on to discuss how the new law applies to bank credit cards and revolving credit accounts. Finance charges on these accounts have usually been expressed as a monthly rate—a percentage of the unpaid balance each month on the billing date. To arrive at the annual percentage rate required by the new law, this monthly rate is simply multiplied by twelve. Thus, a 1% monthly rate becomes an 18% annual rate.

"You will note that the rates quoted on this type of account are quite a bit higher than those on simple instalment loans," Mr. Larkin pointed out. "This is somewhat misleading. In the first place, the customer usually gets a grace period of at least 30 days—up to two months—during which he can pay his bill without any finance charge at all for the credit he uses. Since most people pay off this type of credit in six months or less, the interest-free grace period may amount to a third or half of the period when credit is extended, reducing the effective rate proportionately."

"Of course, the amounts involved in bank credit card and revolving credit accounts are usually smaller and the monthly processing expenses are proportionately much higher," he explained. "With an instalment loan, the only processing involved each month is recording your payment. With a credit card, the bank must record each individual purchase, then total these charges at the end of the billing period, compute the interest on any unpaid balance, make out your bill, mail it, and finally, record your payment."

Mr. Larkin noted that mortgage rates are lower than regular instalment loan rates because the average cost to the bank per dollar loaned is lower. The amounts of the loans involved are substantially larger, and the repayment periods are much longer. This helps to offset the monthly processing expenses, and the bank passes on the saving to the customer in lower cost per dollar borrowed.

The truth-in-lending law will have comparatively little effect on the description of mortgage rates, according to Mr. Larkin. "Mortgage rates have usually been described in terms of simple annual rates," he said. "Under the new law, however, if points, finder's fees or other charges are required, these must be included in the finance charge. Although the effect of this requirement is to increase the rate quoted to the borrower, the actual cost remains the same because the borrower has always paid these other charges."

"The truth-in-lending law should foster the informed use of credit by consumers," Mr. Larkin concluded. "The responsibility is still in the hands of the customer, though. Once he has all the information, it is up to him to make a reasonable decision, based on the quality of goods and the terms of the loan involved, as well as on the cost of credit."

"Banks are solidly behind this new law, not only because it will aid their customers, but for purely selfish reasons as well. We know that bank rates are among the lowest available anywhere. With the new law making it so much easier to compare rates, banks can't help but benefit."

Harry Kitzelman penned this verse while enjoying coffee at Butts Cafe in LaPush.

Now listen my friends and you shall hear
A tale of three waitresses, so sweet and dear,
Two are blondes and one's brunette
The three best waitresses you've even met.

Beautiful they are---the three of them
Not too heavy and not too slim
And put together in just such a way
That's most pleasing to the eye, I say.

But most of all, and I emphasize this,
Is the bubbling nature you cannot miss,
The laughing eyes, and a giggle or two
Goes along with everything they do.

Now you'll find these three most every night
At Butts Cafe, just climb up that flight
And you'll leave, not feeling near so sad,
And you'll say to yourself,
"It's not a bad day I've had."

I am an American. Do not fold, spindle, or mutilate.

Being an American is comfortable. After all, we do have more than any other country in the world. But sometimes we get too comfortable. We take our leisure and our prosperity and our freedoms for granted. Sometimes we have to be reminded that it wasn't easy for us to get where we are. That the freedoms we enjoy weren't handed to us on a platter.

Of course, the great majority of Americans have great pride in their country.

Millions of them show their pride by buying U. S. Savings Bonds. Through regular purchases where they work or bank, they've helped preserve our freedoms by investing in their country.

At the same time, they've been storing up quite a nest egg for themselves.

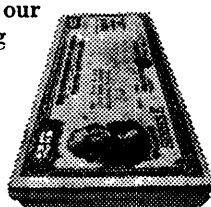

U.S. Savings Bonds pay a guaranteed return. And your investment is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America.

Also, the interest on Series E Savings Bonds isn't subject to state or local income taxes. You can defer federal taxes on E Bond interest until you redeem the Bond.

If your Bonds are lost, or stolen, or destroyed, we simply replace them without cost.

They're safe. They're easy. They're automatic. And they're also a reminder. A reminder that we all have to work hard to keep what we have. Investing in your country will do just that.

Think about U.S. Savings Bonds. It's a way to keep our country from getting folded, spindled or mutilated.

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.
