The film will be shown October 27 and 28, and further information will be available soon. The proceeds will be used to set up a Community Center Fund.

The work on the arena is nearing completion, Winney Construction donated a grader and operator and the area is now ready to be seeded. This will be done sometime this week.

The dinner and dance for the 4th of July Committee will be held soon, plans are being made at this time.

The company printing the brochures have asked for a partial payment on balance owed. The Chamber will pay $500.00 on account, leaving $500.00 to be paid.

Jon Erickson introduced the guests of the evening, Stu Carlson, assistant superintendent of Olympic National Park and superintendent of Park Maintenance, Sherman D. Knight. A discussion of the Storm King Visitor Center was held. The land was acquired from Mrs. Alan Longfellow as an opportunity purchase, according to Carlson.

MINI SQUAD TO START

The Girls Mini Squad will start Saturday, October 11th at 11:30 a.m. Any girl age 7 to 12 wanting to bowl then can sign up at Sunset Lanes.

A plan has been established for the renewal of the center. Carlson said, "I will be glad to come before the Chamber at a future meeting to explain this further." There were 2 million people visiting the Park this year.

Olympic Peninsula Travel Association will meet October 22, at Moclips. The meeting will start at 11 a.m. at Cartwrights' Resort. Election of officers will be held at that time.

A nominating committee to appoint officers for the coming year was chosen, they are, Russ Thomas, Bob Rosmond and Warren Paul.

On the recommendation of Mr. Oscar Wahlgren, the Chamber will request the State Highway Department to renew the white line on Highway 101 at Crescent Lake.

LSD: Will it Turn You On or Will It Turn on You?

No drug has caused more controversy, with the possible exception of marijuana, than the strange compound known as LSD.

Is LSD dangerous? Definitely yes, says the National Institute of Mental Health. Federal agency focus of a new nationwide attack on the abuse of dangerous drugs and narcotics.

Hospital and other medical studies show that LSD can cause panic, paranoia, and accidental death.

Reactions to taking LSD range from worry, panic, and depression to severe mental derangement.

Days, weeks, even months after a dose of LSD has been taken, the things the user thought that he saw and felt may recur in his mind and make him feel he is going insane.

The physical effects LSD can produce are far from pretty.

Eye pupils dilate, hands and feet shake and tremble uncontrollably, palms turn cold and sweaty, the body shivers and turns chilly, goose pimples pop out, breathing is irregular. There is loss of appetite and nausea, and the pulse and heart rate rise, as does blood pressure.

Eye pupils dilate, hands and feet shake and tremble uncontrollably, palms turn cold and sweaty, the body shivers and turns chilly, goose pimples pop out, breathing is irregular. There is loss of appetite and nausea, and the pulse and heart rate rise, as does blood pressure.

Despite this soaring start, LSD was little explored in following years as far as definitive pharmacological studies in man were concerned. The weird compound lay around, studied by some drug researchers but ignored by most. Then the wave of far-out experence seekers washed up a few years ago.

LSD became the darling of the daring. It was claimed to give you great feelings and come from research, not from fantasy and rumor.

Studies have shown that LSD is more likely to decrease sex interests than to increase them. Paintings, writings, and other works by LSD-users fail to show greater talent; rather, the works are poorer when done "under the influence."

Worse, LSD is dangerous. It can cause panic (fear of losing one's mind), paranoia (suspicion that "they're after me!"), mental derangement, and accidental death.

It has been called the most powerful drug in the world. No wonder: 25 micrograms is an amount almost invisible to the naked eye. Yet this amount will produce an effect in most people.

Classed as a hallucinogen and psychedelic--which mean mind-affecting or mind-altering--LSD is a member of a group of drugs which include other compounds like marijuana, peyote, mescaline, psilocybin, DMT, and STP.

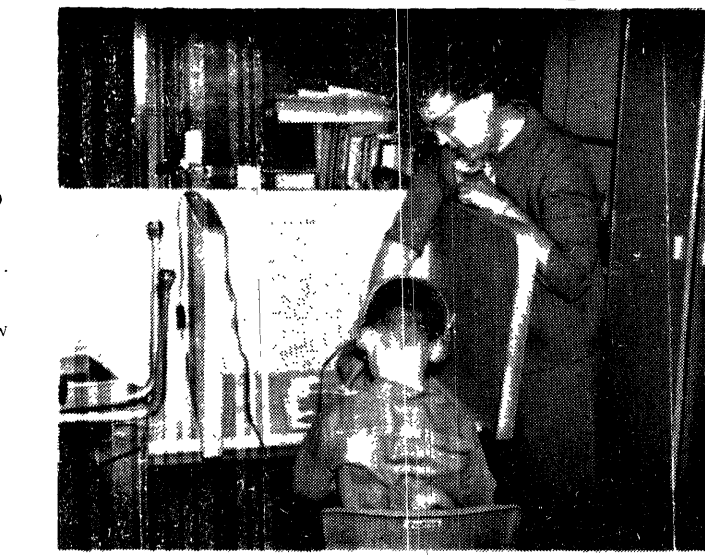

Except for government-approved use for research, LSD is illegal in the United States. Because LSD is dangerous when not used for careful research under close medical supervision, it is closely regulated by Federal and State laws. These provide stiff penalties for illegal production, sale, other disposition, and, in some cases, for possession or use.

Because more knowledge is needed about this powerful compound, broad-scale research is underway to learn fully about its chemistry, animal and human effects, and whether it can have any medical or other real values.

This is another part of the national attack on abuse of narcotics and dangerous drugs of all kinds. On the educational side, newspapers, magazines, radio, and television are enlisting in the fight in a new campaign to provide everyone with accurate information.

Forks Elementary Offers Reading Improvement Program

Mrs. THOMAS WINSOR demonstrates reading improvement equipment.

Forks Elementary School, under the sponsorship of the Federal Government Title One program, is offering a reading improvement program to students from the first to sixth grade under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Winsor, assisted by Mrs. Bob Joutsen and Mrs. Larrene Gaydeski. Mrs. Winsor's Title One classroom teacher.

Letters are being sent home to parents of children being considered and for the signature of both parent and child if they are willing to participate. This program is being implemented to provide help over and above the normal classroom study. The teachers will use several new methods of teaching, including Visual Aid, Language Master, overhead projector.

Students for this program will be chosen after a reading test is administered. The testing started this week under the direction of Mrs. Jane Waters.

Those chosen will be the youngsters who read one year to one year and a half below their grade level. Also those who are recommended by the classroom teacher.

J. A. Traver, director of the Title One Project said, "This program was started in 1965 and at that time were allotted $30,000.00, but that amount has steadily decreased, until this year we are only able to take 45 students in the first six grades."

"Congress is in the near future going to review this project and if they find the results have been satisfactory, quite possibly they could make more funds available."

Peninsula Conducts Coronary Course

Peninsula College, in cooperation with the Olympic Memorial will conduct a course in Coronary Care Nursing. Scheduled to start Thursday, October 9, this evening class will be held from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in Room 5119. Registration will be held the first evening of the course.

Developed as part of the Coronary Care Unit Coordination Program for the Washington/Alaska Region, one of the aims of the program is to provide common standards of excellence for Coronary Care Unit Nursing education. Evalu-

Foresters to Meet

Identification of pot and extent of the narcotics problem in Clallam County and law enforcement in remote areas will be the 2 subjects of the regular monthly meeting of the Society of American Foresters, Friday night, October 10, 1969.

The meeting will be held at Fairholm Resort, Lake Crescent, Port Angeles, with a no-host dinner at 7:00 p.m. and the meeting starting at 8:00 p.m.

Hospital Issue Termed "Matter Of Life & Death"

Forks Chamber of Commerce heard from Russ Thomas concerning the hospital bond issue. Thomas said, "At the present time we have a most outdated hospital, we have one doctor who is about to retire. Out of the last 19 doctors we have interviewed 19 have refused to come to Forks because of the inadequate facilities. If any of us had a serious heart attack or a serious accident we would have to be transported to Port Angeles, and there might not be time enough! At the present time we have an adequate first aid station, nothing else. And if we do not make a drastic change we will have no facility at all. The hospital board has decided the present facility must be re-modeled and added too. The plan the board advanced is now available. The board met last week and a proposal was drafted. The hospital board wants you to vote on November 4th to float a bond issue of 5 mills.

Three hundred thousand dollars will be spent to improve the facility, and approximately $400,000 will be used for the new addition. Improvements include adding 19 beds, a new surgery and new kitchen facility and will also include a intensive care unit. A new roof would have to be put on, for the present roof is inadequate. The plumbing and electricity will be put overhaul.

It was also noted that Burton funds might be available. The Lions Club has gone on record to equip one room at the approximate cost of $2500.00, if the addition is built. A model of the new building will be on display at local stores shortly. The Forks Chamber of Commerce agreed unanimously to support the bond issue. Gordon Otos recommended the Chamber set up a Community Center Fund. Herb Smiley, programs chairman for the Chamber approached the group with a nature film to be shown as a benefit performance for the Community Center. Mrs. Estene Fletcher

Editorial . . .

As we figured would happen, a person well-qualified has expressed an interest in being the mayor of Forks, and we feel he could do a good job.

We're speaking of John Rosmond who lives in the Mansfield Addition. John seems outwardly to be a very mild-mannered man, but underneath he has an understanding of right and wrong and what needs to be done for our community. Because he is from Mansfield Addition, the people there have representation in the City Council.

The candidates for City Council, by the way, are all well-known men and any would do a good job. The most important thing is that there is a contest for each office. This is the democratic way and should be applauded and encouraged.

UGN Benefits Forks Families

Rev. Arthur Morlin, chairman of the Forks-Beaver-Lapush United Good Neighbor Drive reports that due to the bad weather in September, funds are slow in coming in. To date about $100 has been turned in. This is only 1/8 of the goal of $4,000.

The few nice days last week did make it possible for most solicitors to get out. It is hoped all areas will be covered by the deadline, October 15 and that the total goal will be raised. Morlin states, "We have to raise the total goal as 19 agencies are depending on us."

One family in Forks which has benefited from two of the 19 UGN agencies is the Sam Quigley family. Three of their boys have been involved in Scouting and both Sam and his wife Mary have assisted in the Scouting program in this area. Their son Allan has been under the care of the Childrens Orthopedic for two years now and their son Steven just recently got out of the hospital. This was the second time Steve has been at the Orthopedic. Mrs. Quigley stated, "From the very beginning they told us Allan's care would be very expensive. To date it has totaled over $1,000 but we have had to pay only one third of this." The UGN help paid the rest.

The children of the Richard Haberman family have also benefited from several of the UGN agencies. They have taken swim lessons at the Port Angeles Municipal Pool through a PTA sponsored program. The UGN aid in the maintenance cost of the pool. Their boys have also been active in Scouts and the Forks Little League programs. The Forks Community Council, a UGN agency, financially aids the Little League.

Mrs. Fred Loushin, president of the Beaver Parents Club, states some 50 children in the Beaver area used the facilities of Camp David Jr. through a day care program sponsored by the Beaver Parents Club. Among them were her two daughters Dena and Traci. The UGN Funds make it possible to have this recreational area at only a small fee to those who use it.

THIS IS NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

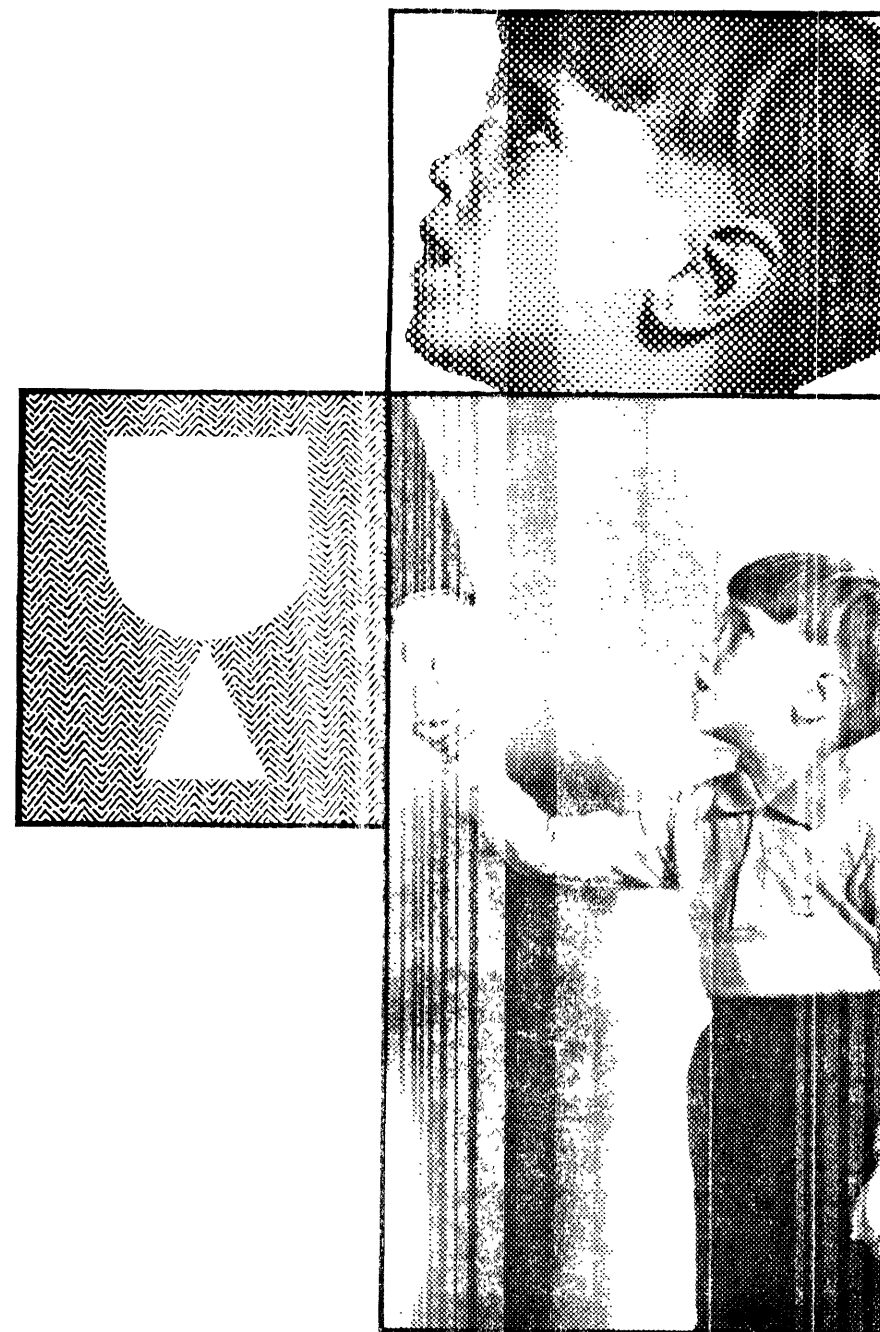

Meditation

By Canon Walter W. McNeil, Jr.

Little children have a way of asking interesting questions. They also have the knack of "hitting the nail on the head". Here we have such an example. In his disarming way this lad has penetrated to the very heart of one of the great truths of the Christian religion.
 Christianity is 'down to earth'. Our Lord came down to earth. He was seen and known and loved by real people. Before He died He gathered His friends around a table and fed them a meal that they never forgot: "This is my body which is given for you. . . .", He said as He broke and distributed the bread.

 "This is my blood which is shed for you. . . ." He said as they sipped the wine.
 Thus He instituted the Lord's Supper, the Mass, the Holy Communion, the Eucharist, the Divine Liturgy. It is called by many names; it has various emphases by our respective Christian churches, but it is the same meal. It is the heart of our common Christian life.
 The little boy knew, in his simple trusting way that to receive Christ's cup was to receive Christ Himself. He loved His Lord.

"What's in the cup, Granddad?"

Not many bother to answer the countless questions he loves to ask. But usually he can count on Granddad.

"What was in The Cup at church this morning?" It's a question many people ask — people sincerely wanting to know its significance . . . people who like to argue. (Is it wine or grape juice?) Theorists . . . theologians . . . people older and wiser than a little boy.

"Why can't I drink The Cup, like you and all the others, Granddad?"

"You're a little young, Sonny. It's one of the important things in life . . . a privilege . . . a part of growing up!"

"What does it mean, Granddad?"
 "It means remembering . . . remembering what God gave us — what Christ did for us — what the Church is to us. It means being truly sorry that we have failed to do our very best."

"I don't understand, Granddad."
 "But you will. That's why we all go to church . . . to learn . . . to understand . . . to remember . . . to love our Lord."

"Maybe I do understand, Granddad, about The Cup — 'cause I already love the Lord."

Tyee - Beaver - Sappho News
BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Attending the Forks-Vashon High School football game from the Tyee-Beaver-Sappho area were: Fred Orr, Merle Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holz. They arrived home at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, declaring the game well worth the long trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eaton went to Sappho Friday evening, and the visited Mr. Eaton's mother, Mrs. Al Koske, and sister, Mrs. Velma Kidd, while he attended the Rayonier ITT award dinner at Harrington's Skyroom.

The Eatons spent the weekend in Satsop, visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Comfort. They returned home Sunday, in time to enjoy a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Turner, who were on their way to Forks to visit several of their friends. They stayed overnight Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Logan Kaas, on Monday evening they attended Eastern Star meeting, were overnight guests at the home of Mrs. Signy Udd, and left Tuesday morning for their home in Shelton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Merritt were business visitors in Port Angeles Friday afternoon, and that evening Mrs. Merritt attended the meeting of VFW

Good News Club

Final plans are taking shape now for the opening of the Good News Clubs in the town of Forks, under the direction of Mrs. William Rich. The clubs will start their meetings on the first Tuesday in October.

Mrs. Rich held her final meeting with the teachers at the Forks Bible church, those present were: Mrs. Larry Klahn, Mrs. Hoyt Laney, Mrs. Gerald Miles, Mrs. William Tubbs, Mrs. William Rich, Mrs. Joe Gienty, and Mrs. Steve Wasankari.

Mrs. Rich gave a short resume on "What Good News Clubs Are", and showed some of the pictures of the missionaries the Good News Club supports. Pointers were given on prizes, contests and so forth. The songs to be used this year, were sung and the visual aids were demonstrated.

There will be four clubs this year in the Forks area. One at 11 a.m. at the VFW Hall with Mrs. Gerald Miles and Mrs. William Rich in charge. Another will be held at 11 a.m. in the Almar building, apartment #2, with Mrs. Hoyt Laney and Mrs. Steve Wasankari in charge. At 2:30 p.m., Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Miles will hold another club in the VFW Hall, and at 3 p.m. one will be held at the Joe Gienty home with Mrs. Larry Klahn, and Mrs. Joe Gienty in charge.

Substitutes teachers for this year will be Mrs. William Tubbs and Mrs. LeRoy Malin-

Auxiliary 1124, while Mr. Merritt was at the Rayonier ITT award dinner in Harrington's Skyroom.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Konopaski had as guests over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schot and four children of Seattle. The Konopaskis had met Mr. Schot when he was food and beverage manager at the Olympic Hotel, and later at the Sheraton Hotel. He now instructs a class in hotel and restaurant management at Shoreline College.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holz received a letter from their daughter (Mrs. John Sexton) in Phoenix, Arizona, saying the temperature that day was a MERE 102°.

Mr. Sexton graduated from UW last June and is now taking a course as Bank Executive Trainee in Phoenix.
Mike Holz has taken over the interest of Mike Price in the Richfield Service Station in Forks, as Price has entered Columbia Basin Junior College at Pasco and had to give up the station. Mike Holz was married August 16, in a Lutheran Church in Tacoma, to Betty Johnson, whom he met last year while they were freshmen at WSU, in Pullman. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holz of Beaver.

Winners of ribbons were: Bernie Nash, 2 red; Dan Shearer, 1 red, 1 white; Ron Paul, 1 blue, 2 red; Delis Otos, 1 red; Carolyn Ellis, 1 blue; Sue Shearer, 6 blue; Linda Shearer, 2 blue, 1 white; Nancy Whitehead, 1 blue; Susie Johnson, 3 red; Patti Tuttle, 1 blue; Donita Parker, 1 blue; Karen Kelso, 1 blue; Kathy Archer, 2 blue, 2 red; Peggy Zepeda, 1 blue; Kim Borde, 1 blue; Mary Engle, 1 blue; Carmen Floke, 1 red; Agnes Zepeda, 1 blue; Shannon Chambers, 1 blue; Richard Fulman, 1 red; Doreen Miller, 1 white; Kristie James, 1 red; Colleen Fuhs, 1 red; Jill Blattner, 1 blue, 1 red; Cheryl Ulin, 1 blue; Ramona Tuttle, 1 red.

Marian Club Meets

St. Annes Marian Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Soderlind. President Mrs. Phil Jaspers opened the meeting with a spiritual reading.

The clubs annual sale of Christmas and greeting cards is now underway. Anyone interested in looking at the cards may contact Mrs. Lawrence Soderlind or Mrs. Richard Haberman.

The annual church cleaning and repair was planned for this fall when the weather permits. Mrs. Richard Haberman and Mrs. Fred Cline will head this committee. All the women of the parish are asked to donate either a couple hours work or $3. The money will be used to purchase cleaning material.

The club voted to send old religious magazines and books to missions in South Korea.

Missionaries have asked for this material to help combat communism. Anyone having material may either bring it to church or to the monthly Marian Club meetings.

A tentative parish dinner for early December was discussed. Details will be worked out and announced later.

The club also voted to donate money to the church high school religion classes to be used for rental of films.

The possibility of conducting adult religion classes or discussion groups was discussed. Any adults in the community interested in such a class should contact Mrs. Phil Jaspers.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jaspers have volunteered to attend the Religious Education Congress being held in Spokane October 18 and 19 as representatives of St. Annes Mission. They plan to tape record many of the sessions so others may hear them later.

HOSPITAL GUILD TO MEET

Forks Hospital Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Cline, with Mrs. Ray Burr, as co-hostess, Friday, October 10th, at 12:30. Mr. Willard Perry will attend to talk about the hospital bond issue.

Don't worry if space is limited in your home. With the many choices of flameless electric washers and dryers on the market today, finding space for a total electric laundry isn't much of a problem.

A carefree electric washer-dryer side-by-side combination can fit into a space 30 inches deep and up to only 5 feet, 3 inches wide. Or, install a stacked washer and dryer (or a combination washer-dryer) in the space provided by an average 30-inch closet.

And remember... you'll need only connections for water and electricity. No fuel line connections or venting are required.

By Fred Jarvis
Hunting season is upon us again. Most guys grab their rifles and head for the brush looking for that elusive deer, but this old guy's legs, life and old grey hair, ain't what they used to be. So, spend my time looking for ways and means of throwing a better ball so that someday maybe I'll come across that elusive perfect game. I can't close a few times, but choked up in the last frame.

Sunday Mixed, September 27, showed Joann Hjelmseth taking 1910 and 106 with 18-46's. Willis Bryan topped the men with a 211. He also tied with George Richardson for series with a 338.

Margaret Windle took everything on the day after noon with her 185-633. But she lost a 115-95.

Frank Coes banged out a 216 in the Sunset League and Arden Prussel kept his 119-400 with a 11-9-81.

Joyce Blair's 213-413 and 210-305 in Wednesday Powder Puffs. Paul Lyda had a 144-19 game.

Doris Markham's 203-121 off her porch in the Hoop Owl League with a 205-111. Jerry Kellebuss had a 191-398 last Thursday. Tom's Club ever had a 110 and Ray Johnson had a 68.

Barb Kalso latched onto the high game of 299 in the Thursday Nite Women's League and Sally Nagel and Paula Lyda tied for the high score with a 227. Colleen Woods had a 196-521. Irene Goos had a 177 and Vera Bondeau a 192-562.

Friday Mixed: Willis Bryan had 187 and Maurice Anderson a 455 for the gals, and Cranshaw Jarvis a 201-633 for the guys.

Missed Saturday Nite Monte Carlo. One thing about it tho, Duke didn't win any money from me. Jean had the big Jackpot shot and missed and she missed for half the pot, so guess this week there'll be some money to shoot for. Gordon McCoy won six free games.

Billie Crist gathered up all the marbles for the women of the Sunday Nite Mixed with her 192-522. Brenda Middleton had a 185 game. Jerry Richardson tossed a 217-551 while Willis Bryan garnered a 454.

The IFAA Mixed and Women's League eliminations are now going on, so grab a couple and give it a try. Some pretty good prize money await you. I'll be around to be getting paid.

Chris Anderson's 184 and 175 and 11 White had a 102 whopper on Monday's 1st Ladies League. Fred Jarvis had a 225 and Willis Bryan a 211. Forks State Bank and Brazer Bros. won 25 out of a possible 30 points.

Hunting Prospects for 1969

According to the State Game Department this is not the year to invite your father-in-law from Maine out here to hunt deer. Deer herds on both sides of the Cascades were reduced by the severe winter, and hunting opportunity has been reduced accordingly. In the popular Okanogan county, the hunter will find fewer deer, and a most noticeable absence of young bucks. This will also be true in many other areas of the state. Elk herds suffered some winter loss in certain portions of the state, but the hunting opportunity for bulls will be about the same as in the past. With a reduced number of either-sex permits issued, however, the competition for bulls may be higher this year.

Pheasants look good. Chukar and quail hunting prospects are best in southeast Washington. Waterfowl promise to offer excellent hunting this fall, and it is already established that this is a very good year for the grouse hunter. Generally speaking, 1969 seems to offer excellent overall bird hunting opportunity, somewhat spotty prospects for big game hunters, and the usual variety that can keep a man out hunting every weekend from now to the end of the year.

Following is a report on Region 10 (Clallam, Jefferson, Grays Harbor, Mason and Pacific counties).

GENERAL COMMENTS-- both deer and elk populations are lower than in previous years due to weather conditions that prevailed this past winter.

The northern portions of the region were much harder hit than the southern portions. Wildlife Agents indicate good numbers of deer and elk at lower elevations (these areas are heavily brushed up), thus the hunter will have to expend more time in the field per animal harvested.

The deer harvest will be substantially lower than last year when 9,700 deer were harvested in Region 10. Virtually all either-sex days have been eliminated in Region 10 this year.

The elk harvest will also be reduced, mostly in the harvest of antlerless animals, for the antlerless permits have been reduced approximately 30 percent. This reduction in antlerless permits will reduce the hunting pressure which inadvertently reduces the harvest. It is estimated the elk harvest will be in the neighborhood of 2,700 animals.

Deer--following areas should be fair producers:

Clallam county--Lake Dickey, Forks Burn and Bear creek areas in the newly logged areas will be fair producers. The lower Dungeness, Palto Alto and Blynn Peninsula, being very brushy, will require heavy hunting pressure to get the deer to move.

Jefferson county--The higher areas are not expected to produce well. The lower areas of Coyle Peninsula, Tarboo and Lake Leland will produce deer. Again, these areas are heavily brushed up but are holding good numbers of deer.

Mason county--the low brushy lands of eastern Mason county should be fair producers; however heavy hunting pressure is needed to get the deer moving.

Grays Harbor county--the lower Satsop and Wishkah areas will be fair producers; also, the Clemons and Capitol Forest areas, even though very brushy.

Pacific county--good populations of deer have been noted in the lower North River, Falls creek and Squally Jim areas. A fair producer will be the Naselle-Knapton area.

Bear--the bear is no longer classified as a non-game after October 11, 1969. A hunting license is required and a bear tag is required for each bear harvested. Concentrations of bear are the highest in cascara and salal patches of the logged-off areas.

Elk--Clallam county--the elk to date have been noted mostly in the lower areas. Thus, the Hoko, Lake Dickey and Goodman creek areas should be the best producers. However, the hunters will have to be willing to hit the brushy areas. In Jefferson county the Hoh and Clearwater areas should produce well. Mason county, though never a high producer, should provide fair hunting around the Matlock-Deckerlyville swamp area and the lower Skokomish areas. Pacific county should again be the best producer. The elk herds are widely scattered throughout the county. Bear river, Palix and South Fork of Willapa should produce well. Grays Harbor county, heavily hit by the past winter, will only be a fair producer. Lower Satsop and Wishkah areas will be the best producers but only fair.

All hunters should keep their hunting pamphlets for boundary changes in hunting units, for both deer and elk.

Rabbit--common to this region of the state are the Washington hare, or coast brush rabbit, closely related to the snowshoe found in the high Cascades and eastern Washington, although the coast hare does not change to white in the winter. These rabbits occur in deer country and their flavor is said to be very good.

Grouse--transects run early in September indicate a higher grouse population than last year. However, hot dry weather conditions affect the counts and harvests. To date, the hunters are having to work harder for birds harvested.

However, an excellent harvest of grouse throughout the region is expected. Some of the better grouse areas: Delezena Creek area, Black creek and Donovan-Corkery areas in Grays Harbor county; Brooklyn-Flass creek area, Nemah and Naselle area in Pacific county; Snow creek and Penny creek in eastern Jefferson county; Sol Duc burn, Dickey area in Clallam county and Lake Pleasant area.

Pheasant--as a whole, there is little pheasant habitat in this region. Planted birds will tend to supplement the wild production. The pheasant areas are the upper Chehalis valley (Elma to Oakville) and the Sequim-Dungeness valley and the Johns river area.

Joyce Turns Back Spartans
Forks JV, 26-6

The Forks Spartan JV's fought a gamely battle last Thursday only to be beaten 26-6 by the Joyce Loggers.

Playing under 3-man football rules and with only 13 players participating, Forks JV's could only muster one scoring drive against the strong Logger defense.

John Richards' 50 yard touchdown pass to Randy Goos registered Forks only touchdown for the afternoon.

After the Forks touchdown Joyce came back behind the running of Pice Moreland, Joyce's 225 pound fullback, to score in every quarter to defeat the Spartans.

John Richards, Fandy Goos, Steve Foster, and Jim Blankenship all made key tackles in preventing the Loggers from scoring more.

GOLD HELMETS

Why do some Spartan football players wear the Gold helmet and others the traditional Blue?

It seems the Spartans are rated on every aspect of their game performance and offensive and defensive records are compiled weekly. To gain the right to wear a Gold a Spartan must compile 200 competitive points in his playing career.

These points are carried over from year to year and two of the '69 Spartans already wear the badge of honor. Pete Dahlgren and Rich Liles earned their Golds in '68. Dave Beebe, senior center, passed the 200 point barrier against MoClips and has also joined the Gold helmet league.

By Vashon, 20-6

The Forks Junior High Spartan Babes led over the Port Angeles Stevens Junior High last Saturday in Port Angeles, 36 to 0, by scoring 30 points in the first half.

The Spartans found a very unfriendly bunch of Pirates on Vashon Island last Friday night and were sent home with their first league defeat, 20 to 6.

After a scoreless first quarter, Vashon took a recovered fumble and drove 55 yards to score and take command of the game.

The Spartans had to be "hard luck Harry". Injuries to two key players and the loss of 5 fumbles told the story of the game. Just when it seemed like the Spartans would get something going, a fumble or excellent defensive play by the Pirates would stop them.

Only after the game was out of reach could Forks finally register a score. Eddie Jackson picked up a loose ball on the 40-yard line and raced to the goal line for Forks only touchdown.

Pete Dahlgren, John Dahlgren, Rich Liles, and Dan Payne looked good defensively for the Spartans.

Next Forks will play North Mason here Friday night.

Bechtold Romps in Giants' 26 to 6 Win Over Sequim

Harold Bechtold's race for three touchdowns on runs of 87 yards, 50 yards, and a 16 yard pass to lead the Forks Little League Giants to a 26-6 victory over the Sequim Eagles, here in Forks last Sunday.

The Giants scored on their first offensive play with Bechtold running 87 yards around left end. Jim Blair made the score 7 to 0 with a point after touchdown plunge over left tackle.

With 0:34 left in the first quarter Jackson sweep left end to make the score 13 to 0.

In the second quarter after driving 50 yards, Jim Blair lofied a 16 yard scoring strike to Harold Bechtold. Jim Blair's sweep around right end for the points after touchdown was stopped a yard short of the goal line.

Late again in the second quarter Bechtold notched the Giants' other touchdown on a 100 yard run around right end. Jim Blair ran the extra point over right tackle to finish the scoring for the Giants.

Next the Giants play the Forks Packers Saturday at Forks.

Bechtold Romps in Giants' 26 to 6 Win Over Sequim

Harold Bechtold's race for three touchdowns on runs of 87 yards, 50 yards, and a 16 yard pass to lead the Forks Little League Giants to a 26-6 victory over the Sequim Eagles, here in Forks last Sunday.

The Giants scored on their first offensive play with Bechtold running 87 yards around left end. Jim Blair made the score 7 to 0 with a point after touchdown plunge over left tackle.

With 0:34 left in the first quarter Jackson sweep left end to make the score 13 to 0.

In the second quarter after driving 50 yards, Jim Blair lofied a 16 yard scoring strike to Harold Bechtold. Jim Blair's sweep around right end for the points after touchdown was stopped a yard short of the goal line.

Late again in the second quarter Bechtold notched the Giants' other touchdown on a 100 yard run around right end. Jim Blair ran the extra point over right tackle to finish the scoring for the Giants.

Next the Giants play the Forks Packers Saturday at Forks.

Spartan Babes 36, Spartans Stunned
By Vashon, 20-6

The Forks Junior High Spartan Babes led over the Port Angeles Stevens Junior High last Saturday in Port Angeles, 36 to 0, by scoring 30 points in the first half.

The Spartans found a very unfriendly bunch of Pirates on Vashon Island last Friday night and were sent home with their first league defeat, 20 to 6.

After a scoreless first quarter, Vashon took a recovered fumble and drove 55 yards to score and take command of the game.

The Spartans had to be "hard luck Harry". Injuries to two key players and the loss of 5 fumbles told the story of the game. Just when it seemed like the Spartans would get something going, a fumble or excellent defensive play by the Pirates would stop them.

Only after the game was out of reach could Forks finally register a score. Eddie Jackson picked up a loose ball on the 40-yard line and raced to the goal line for Forks only touchdown.

Pete Dahlgren, John Dahlgren, Rich Liles, and Dan Payne looked good defensively for the Spartans.

Next Forks will play North Mason here Friday night.

SECURITY IS FOR THE BIRDS

Bird-watchers might think a robin has flipped his feathers when they see him pecking away at a shiny hubcap. Not so. It could be a male defending nesting territory and confused when seeing his own reflection in the shiny metal surface. He thinks it's another bird. An enemy.
