blamed Dempsey for making up the charges just to get Morgison fired."
Clausen also stated the statements given to Wade Chatfield in Portland "were false".
The State then called William Perry, 20, of Forks. Perry refused to testify.

The trial of Dennis Morgison resumed in Superior Court, Tuesday.

William Perry resumed the stand and chose to testify. He stated, "he had imported the marijuana from Korea, where he was stationed in the service." He also stated his parents found the marijuana in their home and demanded he "get rid of it".

He also stated he took it to the Morgison home and placed it in the attic with the full knowledge of Morgison.

Morgison allegedly moved the marijuana to a hiding place near Elk Creek. Perry found where it was hidden and moved it to the place near the A road where it was subsequently found.

The State then rested its case.

Both Robert Dempsey and William Clausen were recalled to verify statements.

During the morning recess one of the juror members suffered what appeared to be a mild heart attack. He was able to continue when court reconvened at 1:30 p.m.

The defense called a Mr. Lochman, an attorney from Portland.

The second witness was Phil Riebe of Forks. Riebe testified concerning the character of the State's witnesses.

The defense then called

Blood Drive Successful

Sixty one (61) units of blood were donated by Forks area residents on Thursday, November 13, in the Social Hall of the Forks Congregational Church. The annual event was coordinated by the Forks Hospital Guild. The ladies provided coffee and cookies for those who came to donate blood.

Any Forks area resident who was unable to donate blood on November 13 can donate at Olympic Memorial Hospital in Port Angeles between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Wade Chatfield, a private investigator, who took the statements from the witnesses.

Chatfield was cross-examined by the prosecution. Court was adjourned for Tuesday.

UGN Campaign Officially Ended

The UGN Drive for 1969-70 in the Forks-Beaver and LaPush area has officially ended. Any solicitors having material or money, please turn it in to Rev. Art Morlin at the Assembly of God Church as soon as possible.

Anyone who has not been contacted by solicitors can still make donations at Forks State Bank.

A full report of the drive will be given at a later date but it appears the money raised will fall short of the goal of $4,000.

MORGISON TRIAL INTO SECOND WEEK

The trial of Dennis Morgison, former Forks Marshal, goes into the second week. The trial in Superior Court, Clallam County, started November 12. Judge Robert Bryan, presiding, Judge Bryan is from Kitsap County.

Morgison is charged with sodomy, contributing to the delinquency of minors, and furnishing narcotics and bribery.

Most of the opening day was spent picking a jury. Ten men and two women were chosen.

Opening summations did not begin until after 2 p.m.

In his opening statements, Prosecuting Attorney Nathan Richardson outlined the State's charges against Morgison. Dates, names and witnesses giving testimony were given.

Morgison's attorney, Thomas Brueker, stated he would show statements given to Sheriff's Deputy Jay Lewis and Sheriff Harley Bishop were false.

In his opening statements, Richardson charged Morgison with "having illicit relations with William Clausen, and allegedly furnishing narcotics to Robert Dempsey and William Clausen. The contributing to delinquency charges stem from Morgison's allegedly furnishing beer to minors. Robert Dempsey and Larry Messenger."

Robert Lee Dempsey, 20, testified that on "March 7, he, Larry Messenger and Morgison came to Port Angeles. Morgison allegedly bought beer at Goodies Tavern in Sappho."

The trio then resumed their trip to Port Angeles. Dempsey and Messenger dropped Morgison off at the Elks Lodge. According to Dempsey, "we then drove around town - we were stopped by a Port Angeles policeman. He issued a citation for negligent driving. We got a little mart and he took us down to the police station. The officer then charged us with minor in possession. We called Morgison at the Elks. He came down and bailed us out."

Dempsey and Messenger appeared in court and were found guilty of minor in possession. They were fined $54.00 each.

Dempsey was then asked to identify several plastic bags filled with what appeared to be a green substance, similar to grass clippings. He identified the contents of the bags as marijuana. He said, "those bags of marijuana were the same ones he had seen hidden in the attic in Morgison's house."

The bags in question were found under an abandoned car on the A road, in the latter part of July.

Dempsey was also shown a pipe and blue velvet bag. He said, "he purchased them to use for smoking marijuana." When asked where he got the marijuana, he said, "on some occasions I got it from Morgison."

Dempsey then testified on the bribery attempts. He stated, "I rented a car at Sea-Tac Airport so I could get to California and hide out. I then returned to Seattle a few days later to pick up the $1,500 he had promised me. Morgison only had $300 of the money for me."

Dempsey and Morgison allegedly met in Portland, where Dempsey gave a statement to Wade Chatfield, a private investigator. "The statement said in part, "The statements given to the Clallam County Sheriff were false."

Dempsey said, "He (Morgison) made me feel sorry for him, so I signed the statement after barely glancing at it."

Morgison's attorney, Thomas Brueker then read portions of the statement given to Chatfield. His statement appeared to indicate that Dempsey was resentful of Morgison's reticence on his activities the reason for alleged "bribe" of Morgison.

For Judge entering the State of Clallam, Clausen, 18, Forks, did not testify concerning the sodomy charges against Morgison. He said, "I intended to inform the authorities because at the time I was a ward of the court. I didn't want to go back to jail."

Clausen gave a lengthy statement concerning the bribery charges. His testimony agreed with earlier testimony given by Dempsey.

Clausen stated, "I signed statements in Chatfield's office denying statements I made to the sheriff, because I was scared he would buy me a new car. The statement given in Portland

Lost Hunter Walks Out

Larry Eyle, 23, of Toledo, had quite an experience this past week. He and his partner were hunting in the Undi Lake area when they became separated. Eyle injured his knee and was unable to travel through the woods satisfactorily.

He and his companion had entered the woods on the Upper Bogachiel on the Bogachiel Trail. Eyle became lost about 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He said, "I walked about 25 miles, spent the nights in a dry creek bed and under a log. The only food I had was a candy bar and an apple for two days."

Eyle had no compass, only his rifle and a cigarette lighter. The U.S. Coast Guard helicopter flew over him Thursday, he fired his rifle into the air to attract their attention. They apparently could not see him for the shadows.

Eyle came upon Bear Creek and followed it to Undi Road.

According to Doug Howell, "He and Ray Ellis were driving along the Upper Bogachiel Road around 5:30 p.m. Thursday, when they stopped to examine some deer antlers lying along the road, when suddenly Eyle walked out of the brush. He was cold, tired and hungry but otherwise in pretty fair shape."

Search and Rescue Units from Port Angeles, and several hunters joined in the search. The U.S. Coast Guard helicopter was also used.

Woman Arraigned On Assault Charge

Lela Mae Owens, also known as Lela Mae Smith or Lela Mae Sullivan, age 33, was arraigned on second degree assault charges. Mrs. Owens is charged with scalding her 10-year-old son in a hot shower. Her son, Arthur Smith is now under treatment in a Seattle hospital.

Do We Need Another Deputy?

The Clallam County budget recently passed, allocated the Sheriff's Department funds to provide additional help for the West End. If housing is not found the deputy will have to live in Port Angeles or he could refuse to come to this area entirely.

Therefore, we need to find a suitable place for him to live.

If you live in the Sappho, Beaver, or Tyee area and you have, or know of someone who has a house to rent, please call the Forks Forum, 374-5130.

We need this extra law enforcement desperately. Lets find a place for the new

THE FIVE-BEET TOTTER.

No one was seriously injured in the collision of two log trucks Thursday morning, November 13, about a mile west of Fairholm.

The collision occurred when a 1966 Mack truck, driven by Roger Trice, 29, of Port Angeles struck a 1969 log truck and trailer driven by Donald A. Cline of Sequim.

The Mack vehicle was westbound and struck the of the log truck, the Priest vehicle continued across the road, turned over in the ditch, and came to rest on its side.

The Priest vehicle was totaled and the driver vehicle received minor damage.

Priest was taken to Olympic Memorial Hospital and treated for injuries to his right arm and leg and a bump on his head.

By Nedra Reed

The people of the West End are to be commended on their passage of the hospital bond issue. This shows that a area can accomplish when they really believe something should be done.

We on the Peninsula are suffering "growing pains". We are no longer the rough logging area we were once considered to be. We have grown into communities that really care. We have our churches, schools and community projects. We are becoming increasingly interested in the world around us.

The 1970's will bring many changes, but as long as we work together we should have no fear of what the future may bring. The passage of the hospital issue by the margin recorded shows that.

Community Shelter Plan

The Community Shelter Plan in preparation for almost a year is now ready to be delivered to the residents of Clallam County. According to Bernard Lynne, Director of Clallam County Civil Defense, the plan is designed to save the maximum number of lives by informing the County residents where to go and what to do in the event of emergency.

The Clallam County Community Shelter Plan which allocates the population of Clallam County to the best protected space currently available, has been approved by the County Commissioners. The plan will be mailed November 20th to all box holders in the County. Every resident is urged to watch for it, read it, and save it for future use.

Throughout the County,

Civil Defense has located a total of 28 buildings meeting public fallout shelter criteria, and 13 are already stocked with survival supplies, including food, water, sanitation kits, medical supplies and radiological instruments. Allowing 7 square feet per person, 11,105 people can be sheltered in the 15 public facilities.

In addition to these public fallout shelter spaces, 4,025 shelter spaces for the use of residents were located in their private homes during the Washington State Home Fallout Protection Survey conducted last summer in conjunction with the Bureau of Census.

In the event of a nuclear emergency, approximately 17,460 residents of Clallam

Letters To Editor

Editor,

Having been associated with the Hospital District in your area for some years, I was particularly interested in the outcome of the vote on the financing of improvements to the hospital. I must confess to having had serious doubt about the passage of the bonds and was delighted to learn that they not only passed but passed with an overwhelming majority. This peaks well indeed for the West End community. It takes active, aggressive civic-minded people to take on a project of this magnitude for the benefit of the community in which they live. The whole area will be better off for it. Heartly congratulations to all of you.

Very truly yours,
Stanley A. Taylor

County will need to improve shelters in their own homes, according to the plan. Additional copies of the plan are available at the Clallam County Civil Defense office, in the courthouse at Port Angeles, City Hall, Sequim, Port Angeles and Forks.

Say, "Good Morning World" with the Bud Howard program, early morning on KVCAC.

Anthropologist Mead Thinks "Marijuana Is Harmless"

She said picture this-- an adult standing there "with a cocktail in one hand and a cigarette in the other-- saying 'you cannot' to a child." For Dr. Mead, the attitude this image conveys is "untenable."

Pressure to restrict the use of drugs, said Dr. Mead, comes from what she defined as an "old puritan protestant ethic" stating you should meet all the ups and downs of life without resorting to liquor or narcotics.

"On the whole," said Dr. Mead, "this is nonsense."

She said it's not because marijuana is addictive, that its users turn to harder drugs. In Dr. Mead's view it is because of laws against its use that make a marijuana user reason--"Well, if I am to jail, I might as well go for something worse, not for something ridiculous like smoking pot."

What is harmful, she said, are the overly harsh drug laws which have produced what she termed "an exceedingly dangerous situation."

Dr. Mead added, "Only the substitution of medical measures for punitive measures can cope with it."

Meditation

By Canon Walter W. McNeil, Jr.

My wife and I celebrate our birthdays in the month of October. This year we had a joint celebration, and our college son gave us a joint present--the PRAYING HANDS as pictured on this page.

These praying hands are moulded from clay by a great artist. The artist not only understood the moulding and expression of the clay, but he understood God. Each detail in this masterpiece points to faith in God and Christian service to man. It doesn't take a great leap of imagination to identify these hands with Our Lord Jesus Christ. We think about how He went out "long before dawn to pray". We think about these raised hands in the Garden of Gethsemane. We recall how He laid them on the eyes of the blind man and said, "receive thy sight". We offer him thanks for the use of his hands in breaking the bread and administering the cup in the Lord's Supper and making them his body and his blood in the sacrament of the altar. With these hands He blessed his disciples and sent them into the world to preach the Gospel to all people.

His hands can become our hands if we are his.
Do you remember the words of the well-loved hymn written by F. R. Haergal in 1874?
"Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
Take my moments and my days, let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of thy love;
Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King;
Take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.
Take my will, and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee. Amen"

The concert is over. The artist takes a bow. Or, perhaps the curtain rings down on a smash hit. And hands slap, smack, pat, or tap.

Hands do other things besides applaud. Some write on blackboards, others perform miracles of surgery -- some type, some sew, some plant. Hands drive trucks, make music or diaper a baby.

There are crippled hands and wrinkled hands, soft ones and smooth; hands flung up as a shield; others stretched in supplication.

In God's Church are praying hands. These hands translate compassion into action. They find homes for the homeless and food for the hungry. They teach, as well as preach, and bring hope to hearts long lonely. They, literally, become the hands of God.

Many Violations of Gun Control Law

Already 24 indictments have been returned in Washington State cases of violations of the Gun Control Act of 1968, Elroy W. Travis, IRS Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Chief Special Investigator for Washington, reported today.

Mr. Travis also pointed out that, nationally, 12,977 gun violation cases were recommended for prosecution in the first six months of 1969 under the Gun Control Act, compared to only 359 cases in the last six months of 1968 under both the National and Federal Firearms Acts.

Mr. Travis said the Gun Control Act was passed by Congress to assist the States in control of firearms within their borders. The IRS administrators and enforces the 1968 Act as it did with the previous gun laws.

The Gun Control Act, Mr. Travis said, expanded controls on commercial and private transactions involving firearms and ammunition, and on their transportation, shipment and receipt in interstate or foreign commerce.

He said, among other things, the Act:

--Channels interstate and foreign commerce in firearms through Federally licensed importers, manufacturers, and dealers;

--Provides for a licensing system with meaningful standards to assure that licenses will be issued only to responsible persons actually engaged in business as importers, manufacturers, and dealers, and provides for licensing collectors of curios and relics;

--Prohibits sales of firearms by Federal licensees to persons under 21 years of age, except that sales of rifles and shotguns can be made to persons at least 18 years of age;

--Permits a Federal license to sell a firearm only to persons who are residents of the State where the license is doing business, except in special circumstances;

--Prohibits sales of firearms by licensee when they know or have reasonable cause to believe that the purchaser is a convicted felon or under indictment for a felony, a fugitive from justice, a narcotics addict or user, or a person who has been found mentally defective or who has been committed to a mental institution;

--Provides for more emphasis on the recordkeeping responsibilities of licensees and for authority to furnish record information to state and local law enforcement authorities; and

--Bans the importation into the U.S. of surplus military firearms.

Mr. Travis said the law covers "Gangster-type" weapons and destructive devices, Machine guns, sawed-off and short-barreled shotguns and rifles, mufflers and silencers, he said, were covered in the old National Firearms Act, while the newer law further covers machine gun frames and receivers, so-called "conversion kits" for turning other weapons into machine guns, and any combination of parts from which a machine gun can be assembled.

Destructive devices included in the law are explosive, incendiary or poisonous gas bombs, grenades, rockets, missiles, mines or similar devices, plus weapons with a bore more than one-half inch in diameter, such as mortars, anti-tank guns and bazookas.

The Act also eliminated an unconstitutional element involving self-incrimination by providing that registration data may not be used in a prosecution.

UGN Quota Short

Rev. Arthur Morlin, United Good Neighbors area chairman for the West End of Clallam County, reports he is about $300 short of the amount collected in this area last year. Not all solicitors have reported and he is hopeful of reaching the $4000 quota.

UGN is people helping people and you can help by contributing your dollars and letting the UGN agencies act as your representative.

The nineteen agencies need $73,450 for operating funds for another year and Campaign Chairman D.M. (Mike) Phillips is optimistic about reaching this goal if the outlying areas and the unreported divisions do not drop below last year.

In addition to the gun law, the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 makes it unlawful for convicted felons, mental incompetents, dishonorably discharged servicemen, unlawful aliens or persons who have renounced their U.S. citizenship to receive, possess, or transport any firearm in commerce or affecting commerce. The penalty for a violation is a fine of as much as $10,000 or imprisonment of up to two years or both.

Tyee — Beaver — Sappho News

BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Mrs. Ed Lewis went to Winslow on Monday of last week to meet her husband who had been a patient at Veterans' Hospital in Seattle for about two weeks. On the way over, Mrs. Lewis went to Port Ludlow to hunt up an friend, John "Bull" Meyers, a former Shuwah resident. She found him at Beaver Valley and had a pleasant visit with him. "Bull" sent a "hello" to all his former friends in the West End.

Mrs. Elsie Frowning and Mrs. Keith Shirley were guests at a surprise birthday party, given by the ladies at the Shirley's home at Smithville on Wednesday of last week. Present were: Misses, N.C., Wes, and Gerald Gooding, Ernest Hietala, Dale Dawkins, A.M., Nordman and the two honor guests, Misses, Browning and Shirley.

Refreshments of birthday cake and coffee were served, and the two ladies received a number of nice gifts. Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Nordman returned home Monday evening after spending the weekend in Seattle, where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Werner and their small son Aaron, who was one year old on October 31. The Nordmans also visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nordman with their three daughters, Christine, Lisa and Lorna.

A busy weekend was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Orr of Tyee. The occasion being a combined birthday dinner for six paralytic sons, Jack G., Leslie Harlan, fiancee of Stephanie Orr, Patricia

Forks Prairie Gleaners

Mrs. James (Margaret) Helmick was hostess Monday afternoon at her home to the Forks Prairie Gleaners. As the Gleaners Women's Activities Director is automatically president of the Gleaners--the women's auxiliary, that officer is never elected, Anita Tuttle was elected vice-president and Shirley Sharpes was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The three will take office in January.

Plans for the annual bazaar and bike sale were discussed, and several pieces of yarn for aprons were distributed among the ladies present. The sale will be held Saturday, December 6, at Paul's Store. Plans will be for a Christmas dinner at the December meeting, which will be at the Anita Tuttle home at 7:30 p.m., December 11.

Mildred Tolles of Jack G., Leslie Harlan, the two hosts Jack and Don Orr, and the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Helmick, parents of Lesie Harlan, and Jack G. From Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Middleton and son, Jim, parents and Professor Patricia from Gig Harbor, Stephanie Orr Leslie and Patricia from C.W.S.C., Ellensburg.

Buffet dinner guests besides the weekend guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Dooley, Bernadine Brown and Merle Durham all from Port Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. William Pirnke of Sappho and Henry Eckenberg. Mr. and Mrs. I.A. Tolles of Henderson Bay were weekend guests at the Sander Swalling home. Mrs. Tolles and Mrs. Swalling taught school together in Raymond.

Children's Book Week

Children's Book Week, November 16 to 22 gives adults an opportunity to remember what books and reading have meant to them and to consider how they may pass on the pleasure to children, grandchildren and young friends.

Speaking as a grandfather, Mr. William Welsh of Lake Crescent writes, "Grandparents know the joys, satisfactions and dividends in taking time to read children's good books to their juniors. It's a little like walking the lake shore or a forest path and introducing youngsters to birds and animals, flowers, ferns and trees they have never met before. And very soon, this kind of relationship grows into a joy and a dividend for the young of all ages."

Mrs. Ed Helmick of Sekiu recalls her own experience: "Adding may be entertaining and instructive or both, but it is not enjoyable if it is a mere exercise of life. In my opinion, children should be encouraged to read at home, so they become interested in books at an early age. Good reading becomes a habit when you are like old friends reading aloud, with members of the family taking turns, helps to stimulate interest in books. As an only child who grew up at Lake Cushman with no near neighbors, I will remember how much enjoyment I received from reading. No doubt there is good, entertaining T.V. programs, but they should not be viewed to the extent that good reading finds no place in the young person's schedule."

To give us a glimpse into the excitement of story time at school comes this word from Mrs. Holly Swalling of Forks. "What happened to Charlotte?" asked our anxious young listeners when "Charlotte's Web" was being read. Snatches of conversation at lunch time and on the playground as to how Charlotte would overcome the next problem. Every small person listening intently as adventure after adventure was being read from this interesting book. Joy unbounded is to be primary age and have a good story read to you!"

Mrs. Harriett Lawson of Monroe kindergarten writes: "Enthusiasm is contagious. What better way to initiate love of books than for parents to read to their children, not only for pleasure but for information. It is a rewarding experience for the parents as much as for the child (what they have known this enthusiasm for reading in the home. Miss Margaret Howard of Crescent School supports Mrs. Lawson's viewpoint when she comments, "It is highly important that the pre-school child be exposed to a variety of learning experiences so that he will have developed an eagerness to learn before he faces his formal education. Miss Howard, reporting Crescent School's reading development program notes the importance of preparing pre-school children to face the experiences of formal education and of building stronger communication lines between home and school."

The parent's point of view is provided by Mr. Alan Russell of Fairview District and by Mrs. W.S. Traylor of Cedar Park. Mrs. Traylor writes, "We started reading together at our house as soon as the girls were able to understand the stories. The next step was the treat of visiting the public library and belonging to the book club each summer. We still read together, only they read to us! It's great fun to watch them grow through their books."

Mr. Russell adds an important comment, "Children's natural curiosity and desire to learn is greatly enhanced through reading library books." Add to your children's knowledge and enjoyment of books by bringing them to the Storybook Parade at the County Library on Saturday, November 22, at 11:00 a.m. Here they meet storybook characters they have never met before and so be introduced to a new book to explore.

Pre-School PTA Addressed By Education Director

Forks Pre-school PTA held its meeting November 12th. The membership drive was concluded this month. However, pre-school mothers may join at any time. The membership has now grown to 28. Judy Fraker won the $10 prize for bringing in the most paid members. Zinnia Lato was second in the competition.

The membership has decided on a visiting Santa again this year. Co-chairmen for the "Santa" are Mary Ulin, Joyce Smith and Cindy Rollins. There will be three Santas available for the dates December 22 and 23. More details will be available next week, however if there are questions call 6741.

In mid December a party for pre-school children and their parents has been planned. There will be a Santa at the party and pictures will be taken. More details will be available during the first week of December. Chairman for the event is Judy Fraker. Serving on the committee are Beckie Sjoggaard, Katly Barger, Jancan Canaday, Jancan Kelm, Carole Lea, Sherry Kellye, Katy Silves, Louise Stewart and Judy Sullivan.

The program of the November meeting was highlighted by an enthusiastic talk by Audrey McKnight. She is the parent-education director from Olympic College. She spoke on cooperative pre-schools; their format, importance, benefit to parent and child and overall effect.

As a result of her talk and guide lines for setting up a pre-school, the group is in the process of investigation. Hopefully a cooperative pre-school can be established after the first of the year. Members of the research committee are Betty Blakely, Katy Silves and Karen Canaday.

Zinnia Lato entertained with several vocalizations, accompanying herself on the guitar.

The next meeting of Pre-school PTA will be held December 9th, 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. John Hitchcock will present a short talk with the main emphasis of the meeting on Christmas. All are invited to bring something home-made to display and perhaps sell. Also $1 gifts are to be brought for a gift exchange. Jancan Kelm will play Christmas music on her lary and Katy Silves will accompany the Christmas carols.

Zinnia Lato entertained with several vocalizations, accompanying herself on the guitar.

The next meeting of Pre-school PTA will be held December 9th, 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. John Hitchcock will present a short talk with the main emphasis of the meeting on Christmas. All are invited to bring something home-made to display and perhaps sell. Also $1 gifts are to be brought for a gift exchange. Jancan Kelm will play Christmas music on her lary and Katy Silves will accompany the Christmas carols.

The program of the November meeting was highlighted by an enthusiastic talk by Audrey McKnight. She is the parent-education director from Olympic College. She spoke on cooperative pre-schools; their format, importance, benefit to parent and child and overall effect.

Sunset Highlites

By Fred Jarvis

Looks like Ol' Man Winter is with us again. In fact, I'm sure of it. Been so cold, some of the pins have frozen solid to the pin decks, making it impossible to knock 'em over. Not all of them tho, just the ten-pin, the eight-ten, the four-pin, and the five-seven. Funny part of it is tho, not everybody is having that trouble as there is still some mighty fine bowling going on.

Kathy Decker was the queen bowler Tuesday Afternoon with a 188-528. Janet Joseph and Gwen Genson both picked up the 5-7 split.

Larry Lindeman and Jo in Nagel had the hot hands of the Sunset League Larry banging out a 235, and John a 601.

Wilma Engeseth gets her name back in the column again by tossing a 202 Hi 10 in the Powder Puff League. Leta Rondeau had a 504 and Helen Thomas a 572.

Joanne Hjeltneset had a 200 and a 200 and tied with Leta Rondeau at 543 in the Hoot Owl League. Harriet Tryon rolled a 190 and Pat Hannell picked up the 6-7-10 split.

The Thursday Beginners are hitting pretty good. Bev Johnston having a 70-82 and Lenora Oliver a 60-100. One of the team captains, Wilma Engeseth, tossed a 194.

Dot Vedder picked up the 6-7 split and Jean Streeter rolled a 200 game as Coast-to-Coast won four from Lefler's to take over first place in the Thursday Nite Women's League. Leta Rondeau won both Hi 10 and Hi 30 with her 204-525.

Darrell Thomas' 228 was the high game for the West End League. John Nagel had a 214, Willis Bryan's 578 was the high series with Fred Jarvis at 574.

Bob West rolled a 213 game for the men of the Friday Nite Mixed, but must take a back seat to Marvin Olson's 213, his first league game over 200. Fred Jarvis had the Hi 20 of 561. Mother Jarvis and Billie Ryan both had a 192 with Billie tossing a 535 for high series.

Theresa Decker, of the Mini Squad, capped both Hi 10 and Hi 20 with 146-235. Debby Skewes, with a 50 average, bowled a 105 game.

Jeff Blair topped the Junior Traveling Team with a 200-547, and Mark Henry had two real good games, a 190 and a 195. They bowled two-three game sets at Port Angeles.

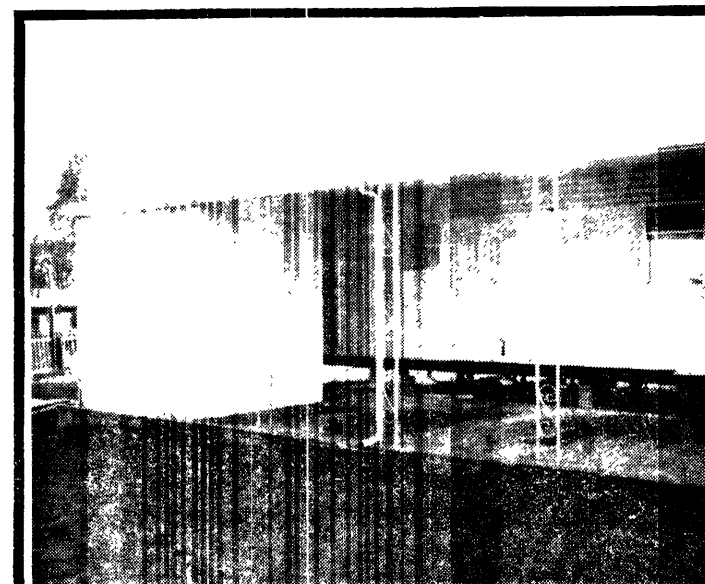

George Richardson's 223 and Willis Bryan's 229-636 topped Sunday's Mixed League. Bernice Richardson had 186 and Billie Crist a 486 for the girls.

Chuck Anderson really raised his average in the Forks Prairie League by ripping out a Fig 250-020. Where you been, Chuck?

Bowlers of the week: Larry Lindeman and his 235, Willis Bryan and a 636. 204-543 for Leta Rondeau, and a 543 for Joanne Hjeltneseth.

Ken Olson and Kent Thomas Win Awards

A dinner was given last Friday night for the two Little League teams from Forks in the Grade School all-purpose room.

An overflowing crowd saw Ken Olson and Kent Thomas awarded inspirational awards for their respective teams, the Packers and Giants. The two players, both quarterbacks, helped lead their teams to an identical 5-win and 2-loss record and second and third in the play-off in Port Townsend.

Other awards given were: Gary Simmons was awarded the coaches award from the Packer coaching staff. Edna Leppell and Pat Russell received awards for being number-one rooters of the two teams. Claude Clark was awarded a trophy from the Giant team in thanks for coaching their team. The Packer coaches also received tie tacks from the Packer team. The final award was given to Coach Bagby and his Packer team, for winning the regular season final game against the Giants, 20 to 6.

The evening was topped off with the showing of the Giants 7 to 6 victory over the Packers in the League play-offs.

By Larry Thomas Spartans Finish Season With Tie

The Forks Spartans finished their season last Saturday afternoon by tying the King's Garden Knights in Seattle. The Spartans completely dominated the game behind the rushing of Pete Dahlgren and Dennis Perry and the defense of Dave Beebe, Dahlgren, Bruce Dunlap, and Dan Payne, but could neither find the combination to avert a 18 to 18 tie.

The game marked the final high school performance of seven Forks seniors. Pete Dahlgren, Dave Beebe, Dennis Perry, Rich Liles, Randy Goos, Randy Oros, and Al Wood ended their playing careers at Forks High School, but the Spartans can look forward to the return of 17 juniors, 8 sophomores, and a host of freshmen players from the unbeaten Junior High team for next year's team.

Against King's Garden, Forks rolled up a total offense of 267 yards, 257 of these yards coming from a strong ground attack, while holding the Knights to 164 yards. King's Garden found running against the Forks front wall of Beebe, Liles, Mike Simmons, and Chuck Rondeau difficult and could gain but a total of 29 yards. Pete Dahlgren scored all three of the Forks touchdowns with short blasts up the middle of the Knight's defense. Dahlgren, Forks candidate for All-League fullback, scored on runs of 4, 3, and 5 yards. Perry meanwhile was running wild, rushing for 109 yards in six carries in the second half.

Huskies' Closing Game

This Saturday the series which began in 1900 will close out the 1969 football season for the University of Washington Huskies and the Washington State Cougars, as it has every year since 1949.

Since the series began, the two teams have played 61 games with the Huskies winning 37, the Cougars 18, and there have been six ties. WSU has been shut out 22 times, while Washington has been blanked 11 times.

The Cougars began the 1969 season on a winning note, coming from behind to beat Illinois 19-18. Then the tide turned and they lost their next seven games, including five conference defeats.

However, the WSU offense has been able to move the ball. In seven games, the Cougs had four men with over 200 yards rushing.

Chuck Hawthorne (5-9, 170), a quarterback the first half of the season but now a safety, had 295 net yards; fullback Bob Ewen (6-0, 207) had 250 yards; tailback Dick Smith (6-3, 205) picked up 286 yards; and second string fullback Ken Lyday (5-11, 195) had 206 yards.

The defensive unit is led by middle guard Don Engler (5-11, 201), who had 70 total defensive plays to his credit through seven games. On central parts are linemen Joe Ricier (6-0, 197) and tackle Terry Durst (6-8, 225).

Probably Washington offensive starters are tight end Ace Bulger (6-4, 231) and split Al Maurer (6-1, 192); tackles Ernie Janet (6-4, 241); and Augie Rios (6-1, 238); guards Lare Ronnebaum (6-0, 242); and Wayne Sorun (6-0, 221); center Ken Ballenger (6-0, 224); quarterback Gene Willis (6-1, 200); halfbacks Joe Bell (6-0, 205) and Buddy Kennamer (5-11, 195); and fullback Bo Comell (6-1, 217).

Starting defensively for the Huskies will be ends Rob Rink (6-5, 214) and Mark Hannah (6-2, 227); tackles Lee Brock (6-2, 252) and Tom Failla (5-10, 205); linebacker Bob Lovlien (6-3, 215); Clyde Werner (6-3, 228) and Tom Verti (5-11,

Mason Members Hold Rededication School Students Attend Publication Conference

Mt. Olympus Lodge #298, F. & A. M., held their regular meeting November 12, 1969, Worshipful Master Lowell Nash presiding.

This meeting was primarily devoted to the rededication of the members to the ideals of Masonry. Ceremonies were conducted by Worshipful Brothers Scott Walling and Russell Veen.

Mt. Olympus Lodge was honored to have among its visiting brothers Frederick Allen of Seattle and Walter Scott of Port Angeles. Port Angeles Lodge #10 extended an invitation to Mt. Olympus Lodge to conduct their First Degree Initiation on December 2, 1969. This invitation was accepted and plans were formulated to conduct the initiation.

It was unanimously agreed that Mt. Olympus Lodge should take an active part in the completion of the new wing of the new Community Hospital. A committee, consisting of Worshipful Brothers Al Nagel, District Master, Robert Cunningham, and Brother Vincent Callahan, was formed to investigate the needs of the hospital, and to recommend the specific plan in which the lodge can make a significant contribution.

All members were urged to attend the December 12th meeting for very important reasons: to elect officers for the coming year, and to share in the finalization of plans for the lodge's contribution to the Forks Community Hospital building program.

Shortly after the formal meeting was adjourned, the brothers regrouped around tables in the Baymond Cafe for informal discussions on "world affairs" over pie-ala-mode and coffee.

School Students Attend Publication Conference

The annual School Publications conference, held recently at the University of Washington, attracted more than 500 high school publications advisers and student staff members.

Professionals from newspapers, radio and television, advertising agencies, and film studios, as well as photo-journalists and public relations experts took part in the career clinics for students.

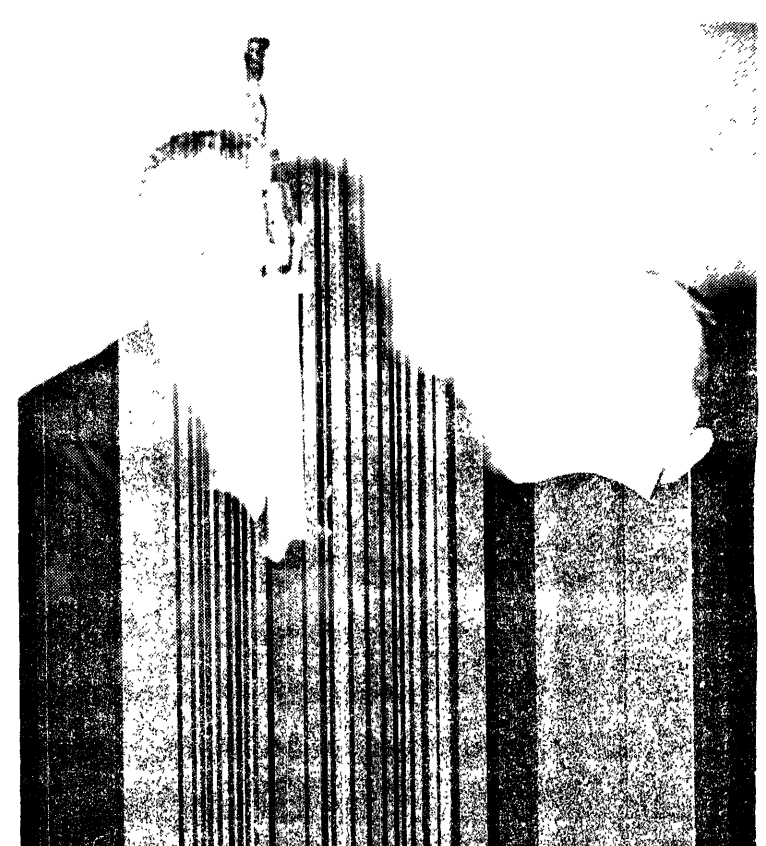

Demonstration classes in high school yearbook and newspaper publication were presented by master teachers. In addition, the Washington Association for Journalism Directors conducted workshops for new publications advisers.

Students also attended an open house at the University of Washington Daily. Those attending from our area were: Terri Bechtold, Darlene Dawkins, Christine Stanley and Jennifer Blomgren.
