SEASONS END-A feeling of loneliness exists here at Sekiu in the summer-fall fishing season comes to a close. The harbor will soon to hit by harsh winds and waves. Gone are the fishermen from the cities who flooded motels and restaurants on summer weekends. Gone is the laughter of children. The scolding of the harbor birds as they fought for the fish left on the docks has vanished. Summer brought warmth and laughter. Now winter brings cold and silence.

INGREDIENTS IN A RECIPE FOR DESTRUCTION-Waters rush to shore as dark clouds gather over the Pacific. Foam begins to build up covering the polished rocks scattered here. An uproar makes it's last stand against Mother Nature's ever-changing ways. Today the powers of the Pacific will challenge the stability of Rialto Beach. Erosion will destroy the old and introduce the new. A favorite recipe used by nature for years here at Rialto consists of 100 parts water and 1 part wind. Trees will fall from cliffs as the soil beneath is engulfed by the sea. Driftwood will be swept away by the outgoing tide. Today brings a storm, tomorrow will bring silence and new composition to Rialto.

Local Man Killed in Accident
The Washington State Highway Patrol reported several accidents the past few days.
Theodore Hudson, 64, life long resident of the area, was fatally injured in a two-car accident, November 25, one-half mile south of Neilton.
Mr. Hudson and his wife, Pansy were northbound on Highway 101 when the Hudson vehicle crossed the center line and side-swiped a truck driven by Clarence Lutton, 40, of Tacoma, who was southbound on 101.
The 1968 Ford pickup driven by Mr. Hudson was totaled and the 1955 International flat-bed driven by Lutton received $1,000.00 damage.
Mrs. Hudson received bumps and bruises and Lutton was not seriously injured.
In local accidents, Richard Streeter, 23, Forks was northbound on 101 near the Bogachiel State Park when he failed to negotiate a curve and drove off the right shoulder. The vehicle then traveled back across the road, ran off the left shoulder and struck a pole.
The 1969 Dodge hardtop received $1,500 damage.
Streeter was not seriously injured.
Also, November 21 a vehicle driven by Kenneth L. Cruse, 31, of Forks, on leave from the U.S.S. Bennington, was southbound on 101 entering Sappho when his vehicle left the roadway on the right shoulder, and struck a P.U.D. pole.
Cruse sustained lacerations of the face and his passenger, Peter L. Sparr, 23, of Long Beach, California sustained a fractured right arm and a deep laceration of his forehead.
Sparr was transferred from the Forks hospital to the Naval hospital in Bremerton.
The 1964 Chevrolet driven by Cruse was totaled.

November 30, approximately 4:30 p.m. a car driven by Sharon Giger of Forks was southbound on 101 at the end of Faithholm Hill when Mrs. Giger hit ice on the roadway and went off the right shoulder, rolled over and came to rest on the wheel.
Riding with Mrs. Giger was her daughters, Robyn 4 1/2 and Rhonda 2 1/2.

Meditation By Pastor W.E. Cross

I would never imply that I am a carpenter. However I have had enough experience to know that you cannot drive a crooked nail into a piece of wood. All things being equal it will continue to bend and can be discarded as useless. We often say of a man who seems to be without character that he is "spineless"; that is to say that, under pressure, he will only bend; he doesn't have the moral fibre to enable him to stand.

Several years ago when God blessed our home with a baby boy, circumstances were such in our little house that we couldn't put him down on the floor; to cold and drafty. Consequently he spent most of his time in his bed and crib. The result of such "soft" treatment was a weakened back which, as frightened young parents, we diagnosed as a "crooked spine". After a thorough examination by the doctor we were instructed to put a blanket on the floor and let him begin to develop the muscles in his back. You see, there was nothing wrong with his spine; his back muscles were just weak and under-developed.

What does a crooked nail and my baby son's weak back have to do with the Bible and Church? It is quite simple.. The Bible says that we are to "train up a child in the way it SHOULD go".. That simply means that parents are to instill in the heart and life of their child the moral and spiritual traits that form a strong character. Only from the Word of God, the Bible, can one know the precepts of a holy life as they are revealed by the God Who made us.

Church? Well, "church" and Sunday School are the places where families come together to share in and learn from the Word of God those eternal truths that enable us to grow ourselves and to train our sons and daughters in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. How many "crooked nails" and "weakened backs", (misspent and useless lives), there are simply because they were not instilled with the proper ingredients. You need God and His Church and God wants you. We are just not wise enough to do all that is needed by ourselves. God wants to help us! The Bible says the "fear of God is the beginning of wisdom". See YOU in Sunday School and Church!!

No heartache surpasses that of earnest parents trying to mold the character of their child... and seeing daily the ominous signs of failure. But all the urging, pleading, coaxing and punishing we can muster is unlikely to change the course of a life that lacks spiritual backbone.

Who can drive a crooked nail?

The sooner religious training begins, the earlier its results become evident in a child's attitude and behavior. Your child's readiness to respond to parental encouragement and discipline is merely the reflection of those deeper qualities of personal integrity which spiritual growth will foster.

Let the Church help you raise your family. God never meant you to try it alone!

Protect Your Home from Wintering Insects

If you want to supply nice snug winter quarters for insects, you may very well have a chance.

But, if you're not feeling too hospitable toward the winter invaders, now's the time to do something about it, suggests Andy Krusysyk, Jr., Clallam County Extension agent.

The types that are seeking shelter during early fall days are harmless for the most part, Krusysyk noted, and they're unlikely to damage house or furnishings. They're looking only for a warm berth for the winter. If they live, they'll try to get back outside in the spring.

Insects most likely to show up in Washington homes at this season include grasshoppers, elm leaf beetles, lady beetles, box elder bugs, face flies, strawberry root weevils, clover mites, house flies, and cluster flies. Millipedes, ants, spiders, and tiny spider mites may also try to move in.

Even though these are harmless, they can become a serious nuisance if they invade in large numbers. Any good household surface spray containing two percent Malathion or materials such as Diazinon can control most of the unwanted pests.

He recommends applying a control spray around base-boards of rooms, at doorways, and on window ledges. Treated rooms should be well ventilated and the family and pets kept out of treated areas for several hours after application.

The Extension entomologist urges caution in using pesticides of any kind. Such materials as Chlordane leave long-lasting residues and are hazardous to humans and domestic animals if applied recklessly. He warns persons handling pesticides of any kind to avoid breathing the chemical or permitting contact with the skin. Any portion of the body exposed to the chemical should be thoroughly washed with soap and water.

Jehovah's Witnesses Receive Assignments

Jehovah's Witnesses in Forks have received a list of special assignments in convention operation for their forthcoming circuit assembly in Sequim. Charles Meinzer reported that most convention departments have begun preparations for the gathering to be held December 12 to 14, and that many of the local congregation's members will be volunteering to assist in the assembly operation.

The list of special assignments included the following. William Penell of Sequim will be Assembly Supervisor, with Marshall Hatch of Poulsbo as his second-in-command. Gary Frye of Port Angeles is to manage Installation and Construction, Al Williams of Aberdeen will be in charge of the Cleaning Dept., Charles Meinzer of Forks supervises Field Service, and Gary Bisbee of Hoquiam will manage Literature.

In all, there will be over 300 persons volunteering their time and skills in 22 departments to make the assembly a success. The Witnesses claim that all this activity not only provides for a convention now, but is training them to work together efficiently and in harmony for future activity after Armageddon, the final war of God. This great world-changing event they predict is coming within the next few years, and the opportunity of surviving it and living forever under Christ's perfect government constitutes the major part of their present preaching work. They are going from door-to-door world wide inviting others to share this "good news."

The assembly in Sequim is open to visitors and will begin on Friday evening at 6:45 with singing. All sessions will be in the high school gym, with hot meals and refreshments available without leaving the school area.

Wash. and Ore. Log Exports Total 498.8 Million Bd. Ft.

Third quarter 1969 log exports from all ownerships in Washington and Oregon totaled 498.8 million board feet according to U.S. Forest Service research economist John Austin, author of the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station's marketing report "Production, Prices, Employment and Trade in Northwest Forest Industries." Third quarter exports were up 10.6 percent from the second quarter but down 5.5 percent from the third quarter of 1968.

Shipments to date in 1969 total 1,415.1 million board feet, 7.1 percent lower than the 1,524.1 million board feet shipped from Washington and Oregon in the first three quarters of last year.

Log exports from the Washington Customs District totaled 356.4 million board feet in the third quarter, up 8.5 percent from the second quarter. In Oregon, quarterly shipments were up 16.4 percent to 142.5 million board feet.

Japan received 478.8 million board feet or 96.0 percent of the third quarter total; Korea received 11.2 million board feet and Canada, 7.1 million.

Douglas-fir made up 24.1 percent of third quarter shipments and Port-Orford-cedar 1.5 percent; other softwoods, primarily western hemlock and true firs, accounted for the remaining 74.4 percent.

Total value of Washington and Oregon log exports in the third quarter was $59.8 million. The average value of these shipments was $119.93 per thousand board feet, about $4,000 higher than the second quarter average.

Log exports from northern California were up 26.8 percent from the second quarter to 61.0 million board feet. Shipments in the first three quarters of 1969 totaled 190.9 million board feet, 5.5 percent above last year's figures.

Third quarter Alaskan log exports totaled 10.2 million board feet bringing the total for the first three quarters to 22.3 million board feet. In 1968, 39.2 million board feet of logs were exported from Alaska during the January-September period.

Lumber exports from Washington and Oregon totaled 89.8 million board feet in the third quarter, down 1.8 percent from the previous quarter. Plywood exports rose 50.3 percent to 52.9 million square feet in the third quarter.

Varsity 94, Junior Varsity 41

The Forks Spartans gave the Forks followers their first look at this year's team last Saturday evening with the Varsity defeating the Junior Varsity 94 to 41.

Since it was early in the season the Varsity had to rely on superior height to down the Junior Varsity. After a very rugged three quarters the Varsity showed signs of getting together in the fourth quarter.

The Spartans first real test will be Friday night at Rainier, they also play Saturday night at Bainbridge. Both games will begin at 8 P.M.

The Junior High School Spartans also start their season Saturday morning at 10:30, traveling to Stevens Junior High in Port Angeles.

MICHIGAN HUNTING

This is a letter written by Mrs. Louise Hurd about hunting in Michigan.

"We get up between 4:30 and 6:00 a.m. or before the chickens go to bed.

"We've seen lots of deer, but for some reason they're always one field ahead of us. You wouldn't believe what they call hunting back here.

"Wearing red is not just suggested, it is a necessity if you want to live. So far nine hunters have died in Michigan and thirty-four have been wounded. In this light you can imagine how I'm dressed when I step outside; red pants, red coat, red hat, red gloves and red stripes on my shotgun. Yes, you have to hunt only with a shotgun and slugs! Anyway, no wonder the deer always see us, here they give the deer every chance possible to get away. Another rule is having to wear your deer tag number on the back of your jacket at all times, nothing like walking around with this huge number slapped on your back. Guns have to be in cases or locked in the trunk as well as unloaded, of course. So if you did happen to see a deer on the road you best run over it or have a rock handy!

"All this is fine but the worst part is where you hunt. As you know trees and hills are scarce, so all hunting has to be done on people's land which means you either have to ask permission or know a lot of people.

"Then on top of all this, is the beautiful Michigan weather. I love snow, but hunting is not my idea of what to do in it! It does make tracking easy but with all the clothes I have to wear to keep warm I can hardly pack the gun, let alone get it up to my shoulder to shoot it!

"One deer sure would make up for all this though. So we'll keep trying."

THE CROWNING OF SPARTAN FIELD-Spartan football field was under heavy construction over the weekend. Volunteers are working to place a crown on the weather beaten gridiron. By Lonnie Archibald

Workday at the Football Field

A group of men organized by Gordon Allen spent Saturday, November 29, working on the football field.

The labor, materials and equipment were donated.

The purpose of the workday was to replace the crown on the field. It was to quote some, "in pretty tough shape".

The field was graded and leveled, then gravel was spread to eighteen inches in the center to zero degrees at the edge. As soon as the excavation starts for the new school building they plan to use the fill dirt, mixed with river silt, to top the field. The field will then be seeded.

The group hopes in the near future to be able to fence the field and to construct restrooms.

We wish to say a big "thank you" to all who helped.

Those who donated equipment were: Campbell's Trucking, Inc. donated and drove his dump truck, Frontier donated a cat, Olson and Miller donated a cat. Frontier donated two dump trucks, Braithwaite donated their dump trucks, Jack Hillcar donated and drove his own truck.

The following companies donated dump trucks: Clallam County, three trucks, N.P. Anderson, Winney Construction, Spoelstra, Koidahl, Clark Browning.

Clallam County donated a loader and grader, the Town of Forks donated their back-hoe and dump truck. Emmitt Treichel donated a cat, ITT Rayonier donated a loader, Joel Dahlgren donated the equipment used to haul the equipment. Del Gott also donated trucks to transport equipment. D.J. Caulkins had donated his trucks but was not notified of the date.

ITT Rayonier donated all the gravel.

Those donating fuel were: Wes' Chevron, Henry Geist Union Oil, Pay and Save Shell and Bob's Texaco.

Special "thanks" to Tom Mansfield, Robert F. Cunningham, Jim Scarlett, Norm Bagby, Walter Baron.

The Little League mothers ran a refreshment stand, and we wish to say a special "thank you" to Pat Russell and Earlene Anderson.

Following is a list of the people involved, Gordon Allen, Bert Maris, Don Hutt, Harold Liles, Jim Gorham, Les Roark, Arvil Silcox, Joe Blomgren, Clayton Russell, Leon Golden, Bill Peterson, Roy Mohondro, James Bolin, Ralph Hill, Jim Campbell, Wes Schumack.
