Spartan Babes Win 3 of 4

The Forks Junior High School Spartan Babes fought off a late rally by a strong Fort Worden team in the fourth quarter to down the Worden team, 48 to 47 two weeks ago in Port Townsend.

The Babes, behind Bernie Nash's 18 points and Mark Soderlind's 11 points, popped thru 5 of 6 free throws to down the Worden team.

Last Saturday the Babes ran into an impressive Roosevelt team and were downed 55 to 27 in Forks.

Bernie Nash again was the Babes leading scorer with 13 points but could not equal the fire power of the Roosevelt team.

In 8th grade action the Babes, behind Harrison Davis, downed the Fort Worden team, 42 to 36.

Davis did a little of everything in registering 27 points on 13 field goals and one free throw.

Against Roosevelt the 8th grade won a real thriller, 55 to 52, with Davis again leading the scoring with 26 points but getting help from John Soderlind who pitched in 11 points.

Council Discusses Problems

The Forks Town Council met Monday, 8 p.m., at the Town Hall.

Building permits were granted to A. E. Fletcher, for remodeling the Almar Building, the permit was for $1,000.00. The Quilley Valley School requested a permit for the new school building, but since the area is out of the city limits the school was advised to go to the county for their permit.

The Ordinance for Resolution, for the street lights in Mansfield Additions was discussed. There seemed to be some problem about who would obtain the easements. Attorney Frank Platt will contact the PUD concerning this matter.

The extension agreement for gravel purchase from Rayonier was agreed upon by the Council.

A letter was read from the Association of Washington cities concerning the insurance for city employees. The town will be contacted by representative from Ema Insurance Company.

Leases for the airport property were discussed. Maps showing existing property lines were drawn up by Bert Maris. The descriptions will be prepared by Maris. Frank Platt will draw up the legal lease agreements. They will be 5 year leases with a 5 year option to renew.

A sick-leave plan for city employees will be under study by Councilmen Swerin and Hall.

The purchase of the master map of the city from Bert Maris was authorized. The maps may be purchased at the Town Hall. Councilmen Anderson and Swerin will be on the street committee.

D. W. I.

Raymond E. Dilly, driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, speeding, driving on the wrong side of the road, 30 days in jail, suspended. Recommend license suspended for 30 days, fine $244.00. Charles Coates, driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, fined $194.00.

School Bus Problems Discussed by PTA

The expected problems of shortage of buses was discussed when the PTA met Wednesday, January 21.

With the expected completion of the new school this fall, there will not be enough buses to transport the 1200 plus students expected to be enrolled. Several suggestions were made by members of the School Board, who were present to explain the problem. The suggestions were: the limiting of students allowed to ride the bus to outside 2 miles from town, the calling for a special levy to purchase buses, the suggestion that all secondary school students within Forks provide their own transportation to school, and the last suggestion and the most acceptable one to the majority of the people present was the staggering of the pick-ups for children. Under this plan, the high school students would be picked up first, then the buses would make another run to pick-up the elementary school students.

The busing home of the students would work the same way, with the high school students being dismissed earlier than the elementary students. This plan might possibly allow the students living in the country to participate in the practice sessions of school sports, perhaps they might be allowed to ride the later bus home.

A summary of the recent school board meeting was given by Ron Thompson, PTA president. Mrs. Richard Haberman reported on the summer library program. Tentative plans are for the library to Maps of the blacktopped streets and maps showing dry wells will be drawn up after the study is completed.

Frank Platt will write to the Association of Washington cities concerning their plans to handle the "dog" problems. There have been numerous complaints in the last few days. At the present time Forks does not have an ordinance covering the problems being experienced. Forks does have an ordinance that requires dogs to be licensed and has the authority to dispose of any vicious or dangerous dogs, impound dogs for 4 days and impose a $25.00 fine for any violations.

Representatives from the local Scout troops met at the Jim Bolin home to discuss the possible changing of the date of the Scout-A-Rama. Apparently there are too many events scheduled for the previous date. It was decided to change the date to April 4. It will be held at the school multipurpose room from 6 to 9 p.m.

Ways to better promote the event were discussed.

DOLLS ON DISPLAY AT LIBRARY

A collection of dolls belonging to Mrs. Vern (Karen) Henifin of Forks are on display at the Forks Memorial Library.

Mrs. Henifin started collecting the dolls when she was eight years old. The first one of her collection was purchased at the Forks Variety Store. It was a doll imported from Poland, she found the mate to it in California about seven years later.

Mrs. Henifin has on display a Greek doll. It is a Greek man in native costume. She bought it at the Empress Hotel when she was touring Victoria as Miss Forks of 1967. There is also a doll from India, dressed as a bride, which she bought at the Congregational Church rummage sale, there was a mate to the doll but someone else had bought it. Mrs. Henifin said, "I would love to have the mate to this doll, if anyone in Forks has it."

Mrs. Henifin said, "My favorite dolls are the ones from the Black Forest in Germany. They were made during war time and were the only source of income for many people. I still have family in Germany so they are especially precious to me."

Forest Service Presents Garden Club Program

A good attendance was noted at the January 15th meeting of the Bogachiel Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. Walter Fulrman, with Mrs. Gordon Marsh and Mrs. Vester Sexton assisting. At each meeting, designated members provide house decorations for the hostess. At this meeting, Mrs. Fred Walgren brought an attractive arrangement of pussy willows and heather in a natural container fashioned from a large tree branch. Mrs. Henry Halverson's contribution was an arrangement of flowering cherry blossoms from her yard, Hail Spring, in our Forks banana belt.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Hal Canaday, president, a unanimous vote was given for Mrs. Terry Klepey to be a delegate to the Community Council.

Mr. Frank Olson, an employee of the United States Forest Service, presented an interesting program. The first section of his program was devoted to color slides and Mr. Olson told what work has been accomplished on the once devastated Forks Burn. 15,000 acres of that are being National Forest. The 1969 accomplishments were also shown, in regards to grass and tree planting in slide and erosion areas, in this Soleduck District, of the Olympic National Forest. Mr. Olson then showed a beautiful color movie, entitled, "The Forest and Its Many Uses". The Garden Club members wish to publicly thank Mr. Olson for presenting such an interesting program.

The February 19th meeting of the Garden Club, which is a Silver Tea, will be held at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Harley Witherow.

Would you like to sound off about something or other?

SEAT BELTS SAVE LIVES

Approximately 11 out of every 12 motor vehicle occupants who meet death on Washington roads die without any seat belt protection, according to Glenn L. Crawford, acting director of the Washington Traffic Safety Commission.

Crawford said this low use of seat belts among motor vehicle fatalities in Washington was revealed in a 12-month survey of collision investigation records. From December 1968, through November 1969, a total of 811 persons were killed on Washington roads and highways. Among the dead, only 49 had been wearing seat belts. In 263 cases, belts were available, but not used. Belts were not even available to 216 motor vehicle occupants. In 116 instances seat belt information was not on record.

The remaining 167 deaths involved pedestrians, motorcyclists or other highway users for whom seat belt use would have been impossible.

The ratio of 11 not using belts for every 12 fatalities was approximated by applying the rate of usage of the "known" cases to the 116 cases in which seat belt use was "not known, Crawford said.

He noted that the word "ejected" was one of the most frequent terms found in collision reports of non-belted fatalities. For the 12-month period, 164 of the fatalities were thrown outside their vehicles--and virtually none of these had been wearing seat belts.

"Scores of lives could have been saved by buckled belts," Crawford said. "You realize this when time after time you read that the ejected occupant's car ran over him, rolled on top of him, pinned him or threw him into two or three feet of water."

However, he pointed out that the 49 deaths among seat belt users are reminders that seat belts do not eliminate the need for alertness and driving defensively. In one case, a trailer carrying a bucket loader broke away from its truck, crossed the center line and crashed into a pickup truck. The bucket loader rolled over and crushed the cab of the pickup truck. The driver died, even though his belt was buckled.

Crawford added that the survey had demonstrated the need for more complete collision records. "If 116 people can die in traffic and we are unable to determine whether or not their seat belts were fastened, our records system has a lot of room for improvement," he said.

Traffic records, on which safety programs must be based, are covered in one of the 16 performance standards issued by the National Highway Safety Bureau. The Washington Traffic Safety Commission is charged with the responsibility for seeing that this state meets the national standards.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,

I have just finished reading the editorial by Gordon Otos in the copy of the Forum for January 22nd, in which Mr. Otos reports that some are criticizing the policy of the paper relating to carrying Port Angeles advertising. Strictly as an individual member of the Forks Community I want to go on record as one who is grateful for the good job done by Mr. Otos and the entire staff of the Forks Forum and Radio Station KVAC.

When my wife and I moved to this Community a little over two years ago there was no radio station and the Forks Forum was something to behold! Now, under the able direction of Mr. Otos, we have a news and advertising media, via radio and paper, that plays a vital role in the entire Community life of the "West End".

As for the criticism relating to Port Angeles advertising I am sure that the majority of the residents of this Community are thankful for it. Due to the size of our town we recognize that our merchants cannot carry enough merchandise to meet the immediate needs of all the people all of the time. It is a big help to know beforehand if and where some of these needs can be met in Port Angeles. Further than this, and perhaps of much greater importance, is the additional income received and employment provided by these two expanded enterprises.

From a comparatively "newcomer" to Mr. Gordon Otos and all the staff of Radio Station KVAC and the Forks Forum: congratulations on a good job well done! Wm. E. Cross Forks, Wash.

Editor, Russ Thomas and other local Merchants,

In regard to the I. G. A. advertisement I received in the mail on January 22, 1970. As a customer I think Mr. Thomas is looking for a scapegoat for business problems caused by himself and other local merchants. I'm sure Mr. Thomas is business minded enough to know that our local paper needs advertisement to exist. I'm sure what few merchants we have in this area couldn't or wouldn't buy enough space in the Forum to make it worthwhile operating.

If Mr. Thomas and other merchants would be competitive with out-of-town stores I'm sure he wouldn't have a complaint or a worry about outside advertisers. Until prices are brought down most of us will continue to shop out of town.

Instead of worrying about out-of-town competition Mr. Thomas and other merchants, why don't you check the parking situation in your area? How many times have I been forced to park a couple of blocks from a merchants store while his car or his employee's car were right outside his door.

Mr. Thomas and other merchants, extend your right index finger and swivel your wrist to the left as far as it will go. Let's put the finger on the real cause of people shopping out of town. And Mr. Thomas, thank you for another piece of junk mail, V. A. King Forks, Wash.

Editor,

Most of us may agree there should be some sort of planning for the future of cities and perhaps some land use. But unfortunately the planners think they have to take everything from everybody to make everyone alike and have the same things. We do not all want the same nor need the same. By now people must realize that the planning of trouble is big business for federal agencies. Then the old cliché, "the only way to solve the problems is more government money and naturally more government control", the control goes with the money as everyone knows. So around and around we go. People in areas have problems that can best be solved locally with common sense and judgement which seems to be lacking so much now days.

In Thursday's P. A. E. N., Richard Hemstad legal assistant to Governor Eyans, said of the opposition to House Bill #57, housing act, "It will not take us down the road to massive state housing authorities." But the recommendations made by the Governors Task Force on Housing, the same ones I wrote about last week, are for state, regional and federal control, Sec 2 (3) of the housing act says, "the act can be used for the purpose of implementing Acts of Congress or Executive Orders of the President." In case of national emergency, Executive Order No. 11004-Housing and Finance Authority to relocate communities-build new housing with public funds, designate areas to be abandoned as unsafe and establish new locations for populations. (Complete integration will be enforced hereby under presidential order against discrimination in housing built with public funds.) So regardless of what the politicians say the related bills are for super urban renew and the end of private property completely, as I see it. Eleanor Thornton St. Rt. Forks, Wash.

Community,

After reading Gordon Otos' editorial in the January 22 issue of the Forks Forum, I could not help thinking back to the year 1964, when we moved to Forks. The Forum then contained mostly ads and social columns, and if I remember right, it also contained fewer pages. Now I realized how much it has grown and how many interesting things you can read in it. It made me feel good to see the people of Port Angeles take such a deep interest in our local paper. Forks is a growing town and we should be proud of it. Today when you mention Forks to people on the other side of the Peninsula, they know where it is. I think it is wonderful and I think we owe our biggest thanks to the Forks Forum and KVAC. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely, Ingrid and Paul Lingvall Star Rt. 1, Box 226 G., Forks, Washington

Meditation By Pastor William Cross

The heading on the picture below immediately brought nostalgic memories of my boyhood. How well do I recall those interesting days of multi-partied, country telephone lines. One particular ring and you could, in a few moments, make an announcement to a large segment of the community. Or, you could spread, or get caught up on, the latest gossip! However, when you really needed the phone you often found the "line was busy"....

In this day of modern electronic advancements most of this exasperating delay has been abolished. However, because of all that is involved it is imperative for more than one party to be assigned to the same line so that often one will still find the "line is busy"....

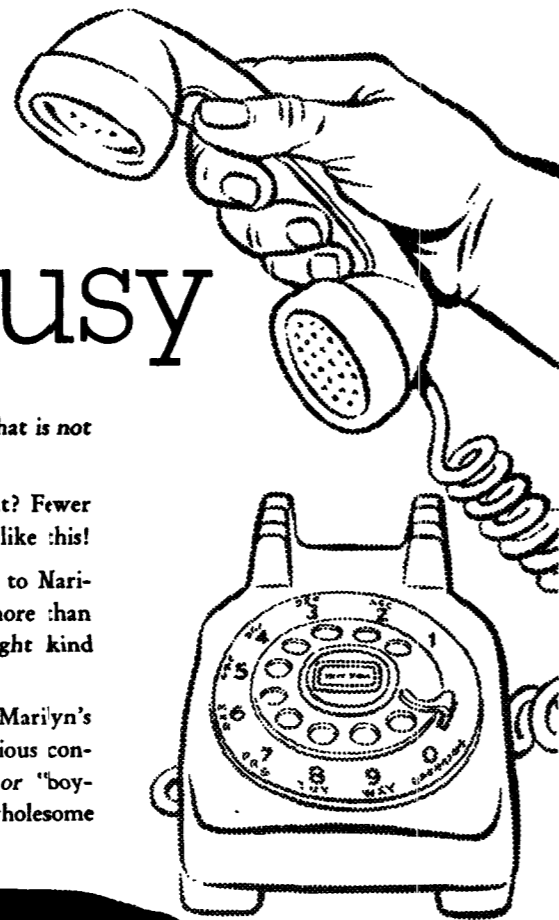

At our Church we have come to know about a "line" that is never "busy" or closed to us! It is the "prayer-line" to the throne of grace. Millions are using it throughout the world at the same time. Still every call is received, recorded and responded to. We never pick up the 'telephone of prayer' wondering if the line is busy, or if there are so many incoming calls at the throne of grace that ours can't get through. But ours is not blind faith: it is a faith founded upon the truth of God's own Word and the experiential knowledge of the sufficiency of His grace. He said, "Call unto Me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not." "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "The Lord will hear when I call unto Him." "Call upon Me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee." "For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plentious in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee." And so we could go on: Scripture after Scripture; promise upon promise, and "God is not a man that He should lie."

Because of this we know that we can "call upon" God at any hour of the day or night: in every test and trial; in our suffering and sorrow and in our times of rejoicing and victory.

We believe that this is one of the fundamental purposes of the "Church": to assemble ourselves together; to share in His promises and to encourage one another in His Word for, truly His Word is "a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." May I encourage you to keep the "prayer-line" open!!

Our line is always busy

Marilyn deserves an "A" in Communications. Unfortunately, that is not one of her courses.

Do you suppose when we were young we had less to talk about? Fewer opinions worth stating? Quieter friends? Anyway, home was never like this!

Still, apart from the inconvenience, I have no strong objections to Marilyn's monopoly of the wires. Indeed, it has served to remind me more than once of the tremendous need of this youthful generation for the right kind of friends and the right sense of values.

Fortunately, our church has been an important influence on Marilyn's life in both areas. Religious education has fostered moral and religious convictions which are shaping her character. Whether it's "girl-talk" or "boy-talk" that is keeping our line busy—it's just part of the normal, wholesome growing-up of a teen-ager.

Credit Ceiling Injuring Business?

Recent complaints about the passage of Initiative 245 require an answer from us. We have not retreated from our basic position. Statements that the 12% credit ceiling has injured business in Washington leaves us cold. If business in Washington is hurting, and we are not convinced that it is, there are ample causes other than Initiative 245.

Since the passage of Initiative 245, Boeing has reduced its work force by almost 17,000; the national administration has deliberately set out to increase unemployment as an anti-inflationary weapon; construction starts have declined some 30 percent, and inflation has cut into the wage gains received by the working men and women of the State.

Despite charges that the 12% limit on credit ceilings is causing a slump, it is interesting to note that wholesale and retail trade employment increased 5.1% in the first 10 months of 1969, compared to a 2.7% increase in all other Washington employment, almost double the increase for all employment.

Early indications are that department store sales for December match or exceed those of 1968. This does not indicate that retail business in Washington is suffering any onerous burden under the 12% limitation.

Equity between cash and credit buyers is a nebulous concept and endlessly arguable. It is our contention that credit buyers have far too long been subsidizing cash buyers and even at 12% are still paying more than their proportionate share. On a 3-year contract, 12% gives the seller 30% of the selling price merely for servicing a contract. We think 25% of total receipts is adequate compensation for merely opening mail and depositing checks. And despite the protestations of businessmen, most installment contracts require no more effort than this. Until we are shown some statistics which indicate that cost-of-goods-sold has declined as a percentage of net sales, we remain unconvinced. Such figures have not even been suggested by proponents of 245's repeal.

Economic measuring techniques are not yet so refined that a single variable's impact in the market place can be measured. Most of the hue and cry over the effect of Initiative 245 is, and will continue to be nothing more than self-serving speculation.

IMPROVEMENTS IN FILM RATING SYSTEM

The motion picture industry's voluntary film-rating system has in one year demonstrated "a gratifying success," and is being further strengthened with clarifying and improving amendments.

This announcement, based on a national scientifically sampled impartial survey and on intensive re-evaluation by theater owners, was made today, in behalf of the three organizations sponsoring the system: Eugene Picker, president, National Association of Theatre Owners; Munio Podhorzer, member, Governing Board, International Film Importers and Distributors of America; and Jack Valenti, president, Motion Picture Association of America.

There joint statement said, "When the system went into effect on November 1, 1968, we said we would keep it constantly under review and would make a re-examination at the end of a year's trial period.

"We said we would not hesitate to make changes if they would improve the program. We have now made such revisions and we have acted in the light of facts developed in a national public survey and a nation-wide exhibitor survey.

"The essence of the system remains unchanged. The purpose is to rate films for children, to furnish guides to parents to decide on the movie-going of their children. The system does not rate for adults, nor does it pass on the quality or artistry of a film.

"There are two principal revisions. First: The M rating is changed to GP. The rating GP means ALL AGES ADMITTED, PARENTAL GUIDANCE SUGGESTED.

"This was done because the M category was found to be the least understood by the public in a nation-wide survey of 2600 people (2000 over 18 years and 600 from ages 12 to 17) conducted for MPAA by Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, New Jersey. The survey reported that fewer than one in 13 persons had accurate knowledge of the speculation. We do not look forward to another initiative campaign. But if it becomes necessary to again throttle credit gougers at the ballot box, we will not hesitate to do so.

We call upon all consumer organizations to restate publicly their determined opposition to the greedy credit grabbers and hope that those who intend to remove the 12% credit ceiling will heed their voices.

We repeat: 12% IS ENOUGH!

specific admissions policy for M films. Public confusion and misunderstanding over the word "mature" tended to result. The GP rating seeks to bridge the knowledge gap by making it unmistakable that the theatre will admit persons of all ages, but parents may still choose to obtain more information on the movie to guide the attendance of their younger children.

"Second: The age limit for the R category is raised from 16 to 18. This obviously also necessitated designating the same age for the X category.

"Again, the purpose is to strengthen the rating program.

"The movie ratings under the program now read:

G ALL AGES ADMITTED, GENERAL AUDIENCES.
GP ALL AGES ADMITTED, PARENTAL GUIDANCE SUGGESTED.

R RESTRICTED, UNDER 18 REQUIRES ACCOMPANYING PARENT OR ADULT GUARDIAN.
X NO ONE UNDER 18 ADMITTED, (AGE LIMIT MAY VARY IN CERTAIN AREAS)

"The Code and Rating Administration will immediately start using the revised ratings and the entire program will become effective on a nation-wide scale on March 1, 1970. As in the past, the ratings will be carried in advertisements and will be posted at all participating theaters.

"A survey conducted by Young NATO, a group of younger executives within the National Association of Theatre Owners, reported, on the basis of returns from 3,164 theaters throughout the country, that 89% "always" or "usually" use the rating symbols in their advertising.

"There can be no doubt that the program is a gratifying success when it attracts such support on the part of

Assembly of God Training Course

Understanding the Times of Christ is the textbook to be used by the Assembly of God Church in their annual workers training course which will be held on February 3, 5, 10, 12, 17. According to Pastor Art Morlin, the sessions will begin at 7:30 each evening.

Understanding the Times of Christ is the 1970 Workers Training Text prepared by the Workers Training Division of the National Sunday School Department of the Assemblies of God. It is designed to enable the average Sunday school and church goer to more fully understand the situations influencing Christ's life and ministry.

Comprehending the conditions of Jesus' day helps to associate the Scriptures of the New Testament with the past and to find greater relevance in God's Word for today's world. The text gives insights into the religious, social, cultural, political, and economic conditions which confronted Jesus in His ministry on earth.

William W. Menzies, professor of Bible and church history at Central Bible College, Springfield, Missouri is author of the 1970 book. He brings some 10 years of teaching and study into focus and seeks to answer such questions as: "What was going on in the 'silent years?' Who were the Maccabees? Where did the Herods come from? Everyone is welcome.

Some interesting slides were shown by Elder Joe Newbry and refreshments were served.

SPARTANS SHELL REDSKINS

The Forks Spartans raced to an early lead last Friday night in Port Townsend and never looked back in posting their seventh consecutive league victory, a 66 to 46 shelling of the Redskins.

It was Jerry Price and Rich Liles again providing the fire power for the Spartan victory with Price getting 37 points and Liles contributing 13 points.

Defense played a big part in the Spartan victory as the three big guns from Port Townsend were held to a total of 21 points. Price limited Gasfield of Port Townsend to 8 points, Dennis Perry limited Harper to 8 points and Bruce Allen, who finally came into the limelight for the Spartans, held Brown to 5 points for the evening.

Allen played one of his finest games of the year in doing almost everything right. He held one of Port

YA GOT IT PETE? Yes, I have it Jerry. Get that Redskin off my back Rich. Break Randy, we got it. Pete Dahlgren (23) and Jerry Price (45) go high for the rebound as Rich Liles (43) and Randy Goos (25) look on. The Spartans, of Forks, proved too powerful for the Townsend Redskins Friday night in Skin country. When the clean game of basketball proved too much for Townsend to handle they went into a fighting defense. This only brought technical fouls to both Townsend players and rooters. Sunset Highlites

By Fred Jarvis

Drove to Sequim Sunday to bowl with Clark's Vagabond in the Olympic Traveling League. Duke and D.J. both had a 223, but Claude banged out a big 237 and a 588 to top all Forks bowlers. Dick Suchodolski rolled a 533 with his 149 average, which ain't too bad.

Kathy Decker with a 177 and Leta Rondeau and her 493 were the best of the Tuesday Afternoon League.

Ken Keeney rolled a 211 and Willis Bryan and Claude Clark headed Tuesday Nites Sunset bunch.

Billie Crist got her ball in high gear and posted a 196-557 in Wednesday Powder Puffs. Kathy Decker came thru with a fine 194-524, and Avanel Baker rolled a 502. Paula Lyda converted 23 spares in her three game series. What happened to the other 13 frames, Paula?

For her first 200, Brenda Middleton banged out a good one, a 223, high game for the Hoot Owls. Nice bowling. Leta Rondeau had a 533 high series.

Jody Keeney led the Thursday Beginners with a 159-388, and Suzanne Olson had a 138. Anita Bumgarner converted the 6-7-10 split, and Capt. Wilma Engeseh tossed a 188-485.

Leta Rondeau again in Thursday Nite Women's with 193, and Jerry Beebe knocked off a 538 series. Welcome back, Jerry.

For the West End, Ken Keeney blasted out a 231-610, and Darrell Thomas rolled the high series of the week, a 628.

Ed Duncan topped the Early Friday Nite regulars with a big 220 game and Willis Bryan subbed a 247-576. Leta Rondeau shot a 206-566 and Jean Keeney with a 130 average, bowled a 195.

Barbara Rasmussen got a shot at the T.V. at Saturday Nite Monte Carlo, and Sanford Windle had a try at converting the 6-7-10 split for ten dollars. Both missed so we'll have a try at it again this Saturday.

George Richardson topped the men of the Sunday Nite Mixed with his 197-542, but Billie Crist beat everyone with her 202-570. Should hit that in the coming tournament, Billie.

Darrell Thomas had high everything in the Forks Prairie League with a 231-582. Dean Helfrich had a 212-579 and Ed Huling also tossed a 212.

Bowlers of the week: Brenda Middleton 223, Billie Crist 570, Willis Bryan 247, and Darrell Thomas 628.

Little Leaguers in Action-Packed Games

The 76'ers found the Celtics to their liking in Little League action Saturday to eck out a 12-11 victory. The last ditch effort by the Celtics failed as Lane Richards let fly a shot from mid court with only seconds to go on the clock. It was "oh-so-close", hitting the rim and bouncing off. Chris Chambes led the 76'ers attack with 6 points while Richards had a like number for the Celtics.

Elsewhere, Bob Morgan's Bullets continued on the winning trail, picking up a 20-10 win over the Pistons. Don Perry had perhaps his finest hour in netting 10 points to lead the Bullets. Steve Burge had the hot hand for the Pistons, getting 6 points.

Butch Eastman took individual scoring honors for the day and the league by rattling the twine for 15 big points as the Chiefs from LaPush found the Sonics a tough opponent. The Sonics, led by Eric Stohl's 10 points, hung on 8, Olsen 3, Kreaman 4. Since the Town Team is now being sponsored by Bob's Texaco and Clark's Vagabond they will now be named Clark's Skychiefs instead of the Town Team.

for a 22-17 victory over the fast charging Chiefs. Brad Mast hit for 8 in the winning Sonic cause.

Bob Seigle's Hawks found the win column as they downed the previously unbeaten Lakers, 24-20. Mitch Lamb and Rocky Coifelt spelled defeat for the Lakers as they tossed in 10 and 6 points respectively. Delton Beebe led the Lakers team with 9 points.
