saving millions in not having to build institutions to care for these youngsters.
Evans explained that schools for the mentally retarded are not keeping pace with those needing the services, there is a waiting list of over 1200 for the schools we have. In 1969 the idea of a group home for the handicapped was instituted, as we know one of these is the Outlook Inn in Port Angeles.

These homes are to care for a special type of individual, the type that can partially function in society but do need special help.
These are just a few of the problems. Are we doing a better job of handling them? And after all of these new programs are instituted how do we pay?
Governor Evans explained that one the 1970 ballot there would be something entirely new for the state of Washington, a single rate income tax. We have the privilege of doing something rare: voting for ourselves. We have the right to choose our own way of taxation. A single rate income tax would, according to Evans, reduce property tax and sales tax, this would relieve somewhat the burden imposed on the elderly. The business and occupation tax would also be lowered. This would allow for a far more equitable tax burden and relieve pressure on the property tax. Under the new tax structure we could better provide the education needs of our youth as well as the other programs we so desperately

Pen-Ply successful bidder

The Peninsula Plywood Corporation of Port Angeles was the successful high bidder for the Indiar Valley Salvage timber sale, sold by the Sleduck Ranger District of the Olympic National Forest.
The total bid value was $34,711.55 for 770,000 board feet.
This sale was initiated to harvest dead and dying, wind-thrown timber found in the landscape management area above Late Sutherland.

Crucial Test
Uterine cancer is curable in almost 100 percent of cases if diagnosed early. The Pap test makes early detection possible. The American Cancer Society urges every woman to have a Pap test as part of a regular health checkup.

According to Governor Evans, the single rate income tax would be based on the gross income. Each individual would be given an automatic $1000.00 deduction, and the rate of tax on all over the gross taxable income would be 3 1/2 percent. This would greatly reduce the burden on the low income groups. For example, a family of five would automatically receive a $5,000 deduction and could make a total of $7200.00 without paying any tax at all.
The single rate tax would also reduce the sales tax from the 4.5 we now pay to 3.5 and reduce the assessed property evaluation from 50 percent to 25 percent.
If this measure fails, according to Evans, we could expect the sales tax to jump to 6 and possibly 7 or 7 1/2 percent.
The choice is up to us in November 1970.

Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Fredrick Rosmond. The Governor and Mrs. Evans and their son Mark, who if you will remember was born on the date of the Governor's last visit to Forks, were introduced by Art Munson. Entertainment was provided by the Rainbeat, they sang "This is My Country" and "Hello Dolly". They were accompanied by Mrs. Art Munson on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Woody Raber from Port Angeles also presented several numbers, one of those was by Mr. Raber playing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" on a saw. His wife accompanied him on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Raber were joined by Art Munson, playing his saxophone they gave a swinging rendition of several numbers from the past. They also played "The Last Waltz" and dedicated it to Governor and Mrs. Evans.
The dinner was catered by Clark's Vagabond.

GOVERNOR EVANS EXPLAINS TAX PACKAGE

Welcoming Governor and Mrs. Daniel Evans to Forks were Fred Rosmond, Governor Evans, Mrs. Evans and son Mark, Art Munson, Mayor Earl Kennedy and Commissioner Tom Mansfield.

By Nedra Reed

The Governor of Washington, Daniel J. Evans, was in Forks April 23. He spoke to a crowd of over 220 people. The Fellowship Hall of the Congregational Church was filled to capacity.

The Governor was in Forks at the request of Art Munson. Munson asked the Governor to explain the tax reform package that will be on the ballot in November. There has been a lot of controversy and comment on this proposal and it was hoped the Governor's address would clarify this matter.

In beginning his address the Governor stated that he had the utmost faith in the youth of today. He related some of his experiences encountered on his visit to Spokane and Pullman for their Earth Day celebrations. The Governor told of asking a group of third graders if anyone knew why we were becoming so involved in problems of the environment. One of the youngsters said, "I think it is because you will soon grow old and die and we will still be here."

The Governor said as Washington residents we care more about our state, community and we care more about that we have, the wonders of nature, the ocean, forests and mountains. He stated that he feels the key element in this ecology battle is individual concern. He also stated much can be done through group efforts at the local level.

The Governor said we hear a lot of talk about other things but most of the talk is about taxes. The question of taxes lies at the heart of all we can or fail to do. He said that the government of the state is the trustee. Their responsibility is to find the highest priority needs, and at the same time insure the most equitable tax system.

In the analysis of education, the care of those in need the Governor said, that more than ninety cents out of every dollar is spent on these programs.
The question of why education expenses are at an all time high was answered by Evans. He said we have a population of youth that staggers the imagination. He also stated that for the first time we have had to put a limit on enrollment in several of our colleges. We can't provide enough financing to take care of all those who are seeking a college education.

The Governor went on to explain the Public Assistance Programs. He said there are a lot of problems in public assistance as we all know but by and large the percentage of those who receive assistance are the aged, those with no resources at all, the foster children and the disabled, those prevented from ever joining the work force. But according to Evans, the largest percentage of public assistance goes to the Aid to Dependent Children programs.

Town council approves preliminary plat

The Forks Town Council met Monday at the Town Hall, Mayor Kennedy, Clerk Herb Beebe and Councilmen Cline, Hall, Smiley and Swerin were present.

A building permit was granted to A. B. Walker Construction Company to build a house at a cost of $15,000. Mr. Walker was present to explain to the council his plans for building a roadway to town specifications. A building permit was granted to Edward Richardson to build a house at a cost of $16,000 and a permit was granted to Russell Holt to build a house at a cost of $16,500.

A public hearing was held on the Thomas Addition to the townsite of Forks. The council discussed streets and draining for the addition and after discussing various conditions that would have to be met, it was decided to accept the preliminary plat with the stipulation that the streets will meet the town's street specifications and the water lines will

Man arrested in tavern incident

A man entered the Bear Creek Tavern near Sappho April 23, he had been drinking and became belligerent. He was told to leave, he left but returned in about a half hour and came to the back door. The owner went to the door and found he had a gun, she tried to reason with him but to no avail. He fired the gun once through the door and once thru the roof. At that time a customer sitting at the bar grabbed a pool cue and struck him on the head.
The man was disarmed but had to be constrained until Sheriff's Deputy Jay Skewes and an ambulance arrived.
The suspect was taken to the Forks Community Hospital, treated and transported to Forks city jail. A short time later he complained of being ill, and was taken to the county jail and booked and then transferred to Olympic Memorial Hospital.
Edward E. Lammers was arraigned in Port Angeles Monday and charged with second degree assault in connection with the incident. Lammers' arraignment was continued until he can secure an attorney.

Couple injured in hiking accident

A day of hiking enjoyment for Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tibbetts and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Seguin of Hoquiam was almost turned into a day of tragedy, according to Ranger Neil Smith of the Kalaloch Ranger Station.

It seems Mr. and Mrs. Tibbetts and Mr. and Mrs. Seguin were on a six mile hike on the north fork of the Quinault when Mrs. Tibbetts slipped on a icy foot log crossing a creek and fell about 15 feet. Mr. Seguin walking near her jumped into the water to pull her from the deep pool into which she fell. In doing so, Mr. Seguin received a fractured leg. He and Mrs. Tibbetts, who suffered a fractured pelvis, were then pulled from the water by the other members of the party. The accident occurred about 5:30 p.m. The injured stayed and Mrs. Seguin hiked out for help. The ranger station was notified about 9 p.m. A man was sent into the area, he radioed the position out to the station. Sunday morning a party of six men and horses went into the area. The injured were transported to an area where the helicopter from Forks picked them up and transported them to the ambulance, which took the injured to Community Hospital in Aberdeen.

The airlift in the helicopter was made by Lee Rosys, Alpine Helicopters Inc., in Forks. The injured were placed in Stokes litters, wrapped in evacuation bags and strapped to the skid racks.

Beach accident claims life

According to the Jefferson County sheriff's office Mrs. Doris Slegger was fatally injured at Kalaloch, 4 p.m., Saturday, April 25, when the log she was standing on to watch the waves rolled over and threw her into the water. She received a severe blow on the head as a result. Ranger Neil Smith was called to the scene of the accident, he found upon arriving, her grandson Lynn Woodwards giving mouth to mouth resuscitation on the victim, the efforts to revive her were unsuccessful.
Mrs. Slegger and her family were vacationing in the area from Alaska.

THE GREAT GARBAGE MYSTERY

By Nedra Reed

It was bright and early Monday morning, and there on the sidewalk in front of the Forks Forum were two huge bags of garbage, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas took pity on us and hauled it away. Inside the door was the following letter. . . .

Attached are two plastic bags, one contains garbage collected on a hundred yard stretch of road randomly chosen on the way to Rialto. The other was filled on a hundred yard walk along Rialto Beach. An examination of the contents will show that the greater content is pop and beer bottles and cans or fragments thereof. Extend this little sample to the hundreds of yards actually taken up by roads, park, think of the garbage cans overflowing and the dumps loaded with non-returnable beverage containers.

The returnable pop and beer bottles can be recycled 50 times. That means when we buy non-returnable containers we are creating 50 times more bottles in our dumps and along our roads.

Some will say that those who litter will whether they've paid a deposit or not. I don't think so. Those pennies paid on deposit will add up sufficiently to make a difference to some and the rest that do it, as a child throws a tantrum for the attention, it doesn't matter. If it is returnable bottles with a refund deposit on them, you have a natural and delighted clean up committee in children looking for extra money. I used to pick up my spare change in scavenging and returning bottles and inquiries of local children convince me that they aren't ill-disposed to following the practice. As it is now some of them go down the road breaking non-returnable bottles by throwing rocks. A pastime enjoyed by all passing bare feet, horses hooves and car tires.

Let us help where we can. Insist on returnable bottles at your store.

The store will tell the supplier. Its time we all did what we can about garbage. Clallam County is too beautiful to be buried under a layer of beer and pop cans.

Signed,
A Visitor

It is too bad the writer of this letter didn't sign their name. But you will notice it is signed, a visitor. If a visitor can see the conditions of highway and beach litter, why can't we?

Several weeks ago a 4-H group, The Prairie Dogs, picked up garbage, bottles and cans along a 2-mile stretch of Highway 101 from the Wahlgren ranch to the Bogachiel bridge. The boys, Ron Paul, Bill Brager, Dan Shearer, David Oros, Bernie Nash, Ron Archer and Steve Shaw, assisted by Mrs. Charles Archer, Mrs. Warren Paul and Ron Shearer, collected approximately 1400 pounds.

Isn't it about time we started to do something about it?

EARTH DAY

We received this letter from a Forks school student pertaining to Earth Day, and thought we would pass it on to you.

N.R.
WHAT HAVE WE DONE FOR EARTH DAY?

Better yet what is Earth Day? Earth Day is one day when we take time out to notice the pollution around us. Now back to the original question. What have we done for Earth Day? Some of the students and teachers walked or rode bikes to school and after school a few students picked up litter along the roadsides. This is all very well for one day, but what about the rest of the year? Pollution doesn't stop just because Earth Day is over. Pollution is a constant job in which you must continually work. We've taken the first step now let's follow through.

I hope that through Earth Day the general public has been made aware of the pollution problem.

I believe that it should be of much concern that container manufacturers are expanding natural reserves by manufacturing containers that now are a litter and a waste which could be remanufactured, thus eliminating both litter and waste with a very important bonus of conserving these very limited natural reserves of nature.

If this flagrant waste persists Earth Day will assuredly become Dooms Day.

CHURCH NEWS Eastern Star meets with new officers

At present the Women's circles of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Forks are busy preparing the kitchen for the dedication service, which will be held on June 7. The cupboards have been sanded and painted.

A coffee hour was held on April 5 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haapala, who left the following week for Olympia. The delicious cake was made by Mrs. John Lep-pell Sr., and Mrs. John Lep-pell Jr.

Traveling to Tacoma for the 10th Annual Conference Convention were Mrs. Ben Lonn and Mrs. Paul Lingvall. The main speaker for the event was Dr. Clarence Sol-berg, the new president of the North Pacific District of ALC (American Lutheran Church).

Mrs. Gordon Oros and Mrs. Paul Lingvall spent the 10, 11 and 12 of April at Pilgrim Firs for a retreat, which was both relaxing and inspiring. Despite the fact that the trip from the highway turnout to Pilgrim Firs usually takes fifteen minutes, they managed to get lost and wound up in the car for an extra hour or two. Bible studies were led by Pastor La Verne Nelsen from Port Angeles and the sing-alongs by Helen Lands-verk, a folk-singing minister's wife with a guitar on her knee, wit, gentle humor and a heart in the right place.

On April 18, the Couple's Club held their monthly get-together with a Chinese dinner, complete with fortune cookies, chop-sticks and Chinese words of "wisdom". In charge of the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Borde.

On April 19 the people of Forks had the pleasure of watching the play "Christ in the Concrete City", which had previously been shown in Port Angeles and Sequim during the Easter season. Those individuals, who participated in the play, gave a magnificent performance. They were Mrs. Lewis Sample, Mrs. Lawrence Welch, Pastor Richard Wendt, Mr. John Woods, Mr. Scott Shriner and Mr. James Buchanan. The play, which was written in England by P.W. Turner, was directed by Mr. Lawrence Welch.

Meditation

By Pastor Howard Stockman

What will your children grow up to be? A good responsible citizen? A Hippie? A drop out from society? A campus rebel who is always against everything and particularly against the institutions? I am sure you have all asked yourself this question hoping that the answer will be good. We have a lot to say about how they will act when they grow up. In order to be a good influence on them we have to start right now.

The first thing that children need is love. Love which is self-giving and not love which is out to get something. They need to feel that you love them as they are rather than that you'll love them if they perform according to certain standards. So often adults fall into the trap of, if not saying at least hinting, that if they don't do this or that they will not receive love. This leads the youth to the idea that they will always have to perform in order to be loved. It gives them the idea that you have to buy love. By this they don't know how to love spontaneously but are caught in the trap of always having to produce to be loved. If they ever fail in a task it is like the end of the world. Love has not come their way because they have failed.

One way to help them in coming to better understand self-giving love and to experience it is to bring them the message of Christ. The central message of the Gospel of Christ is that we cannot buy the love of God but that He gives us his love whether we deserve it or not. Even when Christ was dying on the cross he asked that those who placed him there be forgiven. This is love given with no hope of return. This is what we all need to feel and experience in our lives.

When children are brought up in this love they know that they are accepted as people with worth or value. They have self-insurance which enables them to go into society facing many of the pressures of life. If they don't have this feeling of self-worth which comes from self-giving love they find that they aren't able to stand up to the many pressures and have to become a dropout or a rebel. By far the greatest number of youth are good and can face society and yours can also do this if you can bring the Gospel of love to bear in their lives.

In a nation as big as ours there is always a tendency to overlook the individual and to think only of groups. Youth gets the brunt of this generalizing.

Many of our boys and girls are delinquent. But some folks would have us believe that every child is a potential delinquent.

Time we realized that children aren't chicks! They don't grow up by the drawerful to have the same characteristics and habits.

Children respond to love, parental example, religious guidance. They possess an ever-increasing aptitude for responsibility, trust, and faith.

Most of our boys and girls will grow up to assume their rightful place in an orderly, Christian society. Some will populate our jails. But the destiny of the individual youth is not a matter of chance and percentage...

It is determined primarily by the conscientiousness of loving parents, and by the persistency with which his natural religious interests are cultivated.

May Day, Why?

How many children of this generation know why some of us oldsters have a sparkle in our eye when we mention May Day? As youngsters, we fashioned baskets from scraps of paper, made from an old wall-paper sample book, picked flowers for the baskets, or made just a bouquet and took to our Grandma's, or made one for the dear lady down the street. And at the schoolhouse, a big event was the Maypole dances, Maypole dancing is still a big event in some cities, a beautiful sight, held in a park, and with the crowing of a May Day queen.

Why May Day? The name is derived from the goddess Maia, to whom sacrifices were made to insure crop growth. The first day of May has been celebrated through the ages as the arrival of the season of new vegetation. May Day ceremonies are the remnants of ancient agricultural and fertility rituals which were celebrated universally during seasonal changes. The European countries are especially noted for their all day celebration of May Day, festivities centering around the Maypole. The Maypole is a high pole wreathed with flowers and streamers around which merry-makers dance.

No, the members of the Bogachiel Garden Club aren't going to dance around a Maypole for you in the Orville Nink yard. But to celebrate May Day, they are holding a plant and garden sale, with the derived funds gained to be used for further beautification of Forks, for everyone to enjoy. A few of the projects that the garden club is responsible for are planter boxes at the hospital, plantings at the high school, Tillicum park, library and city entrance signs. And many fine books on gar-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Senate has passed and sent to the house a bill authorizing members of the House, Senate, governors, state legislative leaders and big city mayors and wives to take a two weeks trip to Russia.

The sponsor says, "The goal is a simply to bring about greater understanding." The trip is of course at you, the taxpayers, expense!

I would further suggest they take a trip around America for a greater understanding that the taxpayer is fed up with government waste and planned inflation as an excuse for higher taxes.

I would further suggest you, the taxpayer, inform your congressman so.

I would further suggest that if the bill does pass, and who would not vote themselves a free trip, that the $5 million be cut in half and one way tickets be purchased!

dening and related subjects at the library. The items at the sale have been donated from Forks gardens. If you haven't taken a ride around town lately, do so, and see the beautiful yards, many of the plantings originally coming from previous Garden Club sales. The Nink yard is across the street from Sackett's store, you can't miss it. In case of rain, the sale will be held on the sun-porch. We hope you will come to help celebrate May Day.

Dad's Night at Pre-School

Dads were honored at Pre-School's potluck dinner at the school. The menu consisted of ham, turkey, various hot dishes, rolls and a cake decorated by Willena Richards. Approximately 40 people attended the annual event. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Traver, Woods, Bishop, Skewes, and Hitchcock.

The centerpiece were done with bright colored fishing gear on pieces of driftwood. After the dinner, Mary Swanson gave a brief talk on what Pre-School has done this past year. Judy Fraker, next year's president, gave a few ideas on what she plans for next year. Kate Silves played "Laura" on the piano, followed by a comic skit done by Judy Fraker and Cindy Rollins. The program for the evening was on narcotics with Jay Skewes, Ken Woods and Harley Bishop forming a panel for questions and scape project. Mr. Watson was to represent the Board.

School Board

Mr. Merle Watson announced his resignation from the School Board effective June 3, 1970.

Randy Queen was granted a special dispensation to leave school earlier than Board Policy to hold a job, since he lives so far from the school it would be a big problem otherwise for him. He was to keep his grades up in the classes he attends and make an effort to be a good citizen or this special privilege would be denied him.

Credentials were presented to the Board on various applicants that are being considered for positions in the system. The Board recommended that contracts be offered to Gayle and Christopher Held, John J. Jaeger, Helen Perrigo, and Stephen Kerley.

Several teacher evaluations were presented to the Board.

The teaching contracts for Luwana L. Clark and Diane L. Stillman for the school year 1970-71 were approved.

On or before May 11th, 1970, at 10:00 a.m., each bidder must make a minimum deposit of $100.00 in the form of cash, money order or certified check. Said deposit shall constitute an opening bid at the appraised price. Upon award of this sale, the respective deposits shall be returned to the unsuccessful bidders. On the day of sale the purchaser must pay the balance between the bid deposit and the full bid price plus a $5.00 bill of sale fee. This balance may be paid by personal check. All checks, money orders, etc., are to be made payable to the Commissioner of Public Lands.

Mrs. A. M. Nordman took Mrs. Dale Dawkins to Seattle last Wednesday to visit Mrs. Dawkins' daughter, Darlene Dawkins, in Swedish hospital, returning home that night. Mr. and Mrs. Dawkins went to Seattle on Saturday to visit their daughter and returned home Sunday night. The doctors were to decide Monday whether to operate or to put Darlene in a cast, but, as of Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Dawkins had not heard what decision had been made. Darlene's brother, Randy Dawkins, who is working at a service station in Rosemead, California, near Los Angeles, left there on Monday for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and Mrs. Richard Lohneis, with their daughters Heidi and Heather, spent the April 18-19 weekend at Brinnon. While there Mr. and Mrs. Fox attended the banquet honoring VFW District Commander Harold Lemley and District Auxiliary President Esther Boettcher, held Saturday at Quilcene.

Other Forks members of VFW Post and Auxiliary 9106 attending the banquet were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Black, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sharpes, and Msrs. Irwin Thrush and David and Teddy Klahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Pihlman were weekend guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Munson. Mrs. Pihlman (nee Linda Munson) a senior at WWSU, Bellingham, had a straight A grade for the quarter ending in March. Congratulations, Linda!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Konopaski were business visitors in Port Angeles Saturday, and that afternoon they attended the Republican county convention, held in the Peninsula College auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Munson also attended the convention, and he was elected a delegate to the State Convention, which will be held August 8, in Yakima.

Mrs. Signy Udd of Forks, and her daughters, Mrs. James Scarlett of Sappho and Mrs. Wiley Duncan of Forks, with their husbands and children, were called to Seattle Thursday to attend the funeral on Saturday of Mrs. Udd's sister-in-law, Mrs. Selma Mercer, who was the sister of the late Victor Udd.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goakey spent the weekend in Forks, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and Mrs. Edith Goakey. Mrs. Goakey remained here to live with her parents until her husband is discharged from the Army May 6.

Mrs. A. M. Nordman and Mrs. Dale Dawkins went to Port Angeles Monday and visited Mrs. Belle McDaniels and Mrs. Herb Haubrick.

On Sunday a gentleman stopped at the John Merritt home to ask directions to the Paul Bos home which were given. In the ensuing conversation it developed that the man was Frank Page of Port Angeles, a former resident of Forks. One of his sisters, Mary Page, is married to Fred Germeaux, and another sister, Elinor, was engaged to Mr. Merritt's brother, Ward Merritt. Unfortunately, however, the wedding never took place.

Heidi Lohneis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lohneis, celebrated her fifth birthday with a party at her home Saturday. Those attending were: Lesa Brown, Billy James, Brad Klahn, Darren Sackett, Steven Medsker, Mary Rodd, Shane and Aleta Anderson and Heidi's sister Heather. Heidi's grandmothers, Mrs. Charles Fox and Mrs. John Lohneis, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Leta Klahn were also present. Games were played and Billy James and Darren Sackett took home the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman have learned that their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nordman are moving from Boise, Idaho, to Chicago in the near future.

Witnesses hold assembly

Unsettled weather and cold wind did not halt activities at the circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Port Orchard over the past week-end. Returning members of the Forks congregation reported that they enjoyed meeting many friendly people in their door-to-door ministry in spite of the weather. Charles MeInzer, local presiding minister, said that the sessions were attended by record crowds with the peak attendance being reached on Sunday afternoon when 1,623 persons listened to H. C. Good of Brooklyn, New York discuss the subject, "Withstanding the Pressures of Our Day."

Mr. Good, the district supervisor for the Pacific Northwest, began his ministry in 1940, and brought his 30 years of experience into developing the point that "our day" is like no other in the recent past. For that reason we have problems that are unique to our time and take special measures to meet successfully. Good noted, "If we pay attention only to pressures, we would be concerning ourselves with symptoms, not the disease. Satan wants to occupy people so fully with pressures and worries that they will not take a stand for God."

Opening sessions on Friday

Sunset Highlites

By Fred Jarvis

Pretty hectic day. Traveled to P. A. with Duke and Jean in their new T-Bird to bowl in the last session of the Olympic Traveling League. Quite a thrill to watch Darrell hit a 214-232-257-703. What bowling. He received a trophy from Laurel Lanes for it. Then in our last game of the first set, we started clicking as a team. I had a 244, Darrell 257, Claude, a 242, D.J., a 212, and Duke a 194 for a 1149 scratch game. That's a 229 average per man. Nice, huh?

Darrell ended up with high average, 193 high series, 703 and the team captured both high game and high series.

To clear up a few questions on Thursday Nite's Bear the Pros; you put up your handicap scores against our scratch scores. Bowl as often as you wish, whenever you wish, and then on Thursday Nites at 7:30 Duke and I bowl against all scores posted up til then, including the teams bowling that nite. Every time you beat us, Darrell pays you and your partner five dollars each. When we win, the prize money goes into a fund for the last week in August. All depending on the amount of entries, one out of ten top scores qualify for the finals. $100 for first; $75 for second; and $50 for third is guaranteed. So grab yourself a partner and give us a try. Kathy Decker and Barbara Windle have a 1222 that we've got to try to beat tonight. Wonder if we're up to it. Come down and see for yourself.

Kathy Decker hit a 202-510 in Tuesday afternoon league. Dot McCoy rolled 185-477, and Sally Nagel a 497.

Jeff Blair had 206-517 while Mark Henry hit games of 194-198-159 for a 551 in the Junior Mixed League. Patty Laswell had a 163-415 and Patty Sullivan a 167.

The summer mixed saw Vivian Morris hit a big 213, her first, and Lotus Huling posted a 206. Mopper banged out a 526, Billie Crist a 515, and Duke topped the guys with a 214-574. Phyllis Whitehead picked off the 4-5-7 split and Bob Clark the 3-9-10.

Joyce Blait of the Powder Puffs with a 194-524, Fern Johnson picking off the 4-7-9-10, and Florence Ninke the 5-6.

Jodie Keeney with a 174-457 for Thursday's Beginners and Anita Bumgarner a 442. Barbara Allen led the captains with 189-504. Spoelstra Bros. will bowl Forks State Bank for the title.

Boys Bantams: Jim Rondeau 159-290, Tony Suchodolski got a 90 with his new ball and Mitch Lamb hit 131 with a 99 average.

Kathy Hamby 188 in the Jr. Sr. Mixed, Leta Rondeau 485, Darrell 219, and Ed Huling 211-579. But the kids stole all the glory as Randy Henry hit a big 192 and Mark Henry a 190-524. Rocky Colfelt had 171-452 and little Theresa Suchodolski, five years old, and the only girl in the Juniors had a 27 hi game and a 67 hi 30.

Bowlers of the week: Vivian Morris 213, Mother Jarvis 526, Darrell 219, Ed Huling 579.

Fifth grade soccer team

The Hot Tamales, led by Jimmy Leppell's speed, power, and accuracy, have claim of first place of the fifth and sixth grades soccer division with three wins and no losses. The Tamales now play the tough sixth grade team of Mrs. Bull's in one game of soccer finals.

The Tamales team is made up of forwards: Ken Bechtold (captain), Jimmy Leppell, Sam Windle, Larry Wentworth, and Marty Sunberg. Half-backs: Wayne Lacosse, Brian Borde, Steve Weed, Fullbacks: Brad Kennedy and Roul Rauome. Substitutes: Matthew Beers, Mike Leavitt, and Rick Burwash.

Scoring for the Tamales:

	Goals	Assists
Jimmy Leppell	2	0
Sam Windle	1	1
Brad Kennedy	1	1
Larry Wentworth	0	1
Brian Borde	0	1
Steven Weed	0	1

George Parker Bidder, a 19th-century Englishman, was a human computer. Typical of the problems he could solve in his head is this one: If a pendulum swings 9 3/4 inches in one second, how many inches will it travel in 7 years 14 days 2 hours 1 minute and 56 seconds if each year consists of 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and 55 seconds? Bidder had the answer—2,165,925.744 3/4 inches—in less than a minute!

SCHOOL BOARD DISCUSSES BUS PROBLEMS

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Quillayute Valley Schools met April 16. Board members present were Fred Fletcher, Darrell Gaydeski, Merle Watson and Jon Erickson.

Visitors were Dell Thayne, Terry Sullivan, Mrs. Eileen Penn, Casey Jones, Pastor Whaley, Dick Lohnes, Julius Baker, James Traver, Miss Shirley, Dan Lea, Mrs. Roy Queen, Thomas Winsor, Joe Newbry, Leon Golden, Robert Hall, Phillip Borde, Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham, Mrs. Iola Williams, Harold George, William Penn, John Perkins, Ron Thompson, and William Thompson.

Miss Shirley asked, on behalf of Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, if the school could set aside one period a day per week for the meeting of these groups. There was much discussion as to the problems that could arise, Miss Shirley's reasoning in asking this privilege was, with the proposed split shift, that their meetings would be later and interfere with family supper times in some cases. No action was taken at this time, but the Board promised to think about it.

Mr. C. Jones asked if something could be done about the driver on the LaPush bus run. He was very concerned over the safety of the children. Mrs. Williams also expressed concern, but felt she had taken more time to look into the problem and felt it was not all the driver's fault, but partly the children who ride the bus. Mrs. E. Penn expressed her concern and also confidence in the driver. Both ladies felt she was competent in her driving, though she had made a mistake in one instance. Mr. George felt the driver was incompetent and abusive to the Indian children and even prejudiced against them. Mrs. Penn, who works for the School District at the Grade School, said she had spent some time with the driver and felt this was not so. The driver was deeply concerned for the children. Mrs. Penn and Mrs. Williams felt the parents who were so upset should learn to call the principal and the superintendent of the schools to find out exactly what is wrong instead of talking among themselves.

Mr. Watson said he felt the driver had been talked to and deserved more time on the run. He said if the people at LaPush would like to meet with the Board, the Board would be willing to go to LaPush if this is what they want. No further action was taken at this time.

Mr. W. Penn thanked the Board for their time in discussing the matter and their help.

Many facts and figures were presented to the Board by Mr. Hitchcock for the Board to consider in placing a dollar amount on the proposed Special Levy. Some of the figures had not come to the office yet. Resolution No. VIII was passed, it read, let it be resolved that the Board of Directors of Quillayute Valley School District No. 402, Clallam County, Washington, hereby advise the Clallam County Auditor of its intent to submit to the qualified electors of the district at a special election to be held therein on June 3, 1970:

A proposition or propositions authorizing the levy of an excess tax for the purpose of paying part of the general expense of supplies and materials and capital outlay of this district. Exact title and amounts of said levy to be as established by resolution at a special meeting of the Board of Directors to be held Thursday, April 30, 1970.

The salary schedules as accepted by the certificated and classified groups were adopted. No bids were received on the Beaver school site. No further action was taken.

The resignation of Mrs. Sue Holt effective as of March 25, 1970 instead of June 3 was accepted. A contract for Judith M. Beebe for the balance of this school year was approved.

Contracts for Mary Eliasson and Cheryl E. Floe as elementary teachers for the 1970-71 school year were approved.

A letter was read from George Bratt, Dean of Education, Washington State University, requesting names to receive an invitation from Governor Evans to attend a Special Levy Study Commission meeting to be held in Port Angeles, on May 16, 1970. Ron Thompson, Jon Erickson, Hal Canaday, Darrell Gaydeski, John Leppell, Mrs. Richard Haberman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, Warren Paul, Fred Rosmond, James Scarlett, Arthur Munson, and David Anderson were suggested to be sent to Dr. Brain.

Mr. Traver made a report to the Board on the continuing student vandalism and untidiness in the buildings. He stated there had been direct challenges to authority, discourtesies to staff, defacing of school property. Since the Board had taken a direct stand on the problem, there have been very few instances brought to his attention and he felt if the Board would take a positive stand on this he might be able to slow some of the problems down.

The Board assured Mr. Traver they stood behind him in suspensions if he felt it was the only means left to him. They also wanted to reaffirm their stand behind the staff one hundred per cent in any responsible disciplinary action against any person not obeying the regulations and policy of the School District.

The hearing of the Preliminary Budget will be held at the next regular meeting, May 21, 1970. The Board will have an opportunity to discuss the budget at its special meeting on April 30, 1970.

The Board of Directors will hold an informal coffee hour with the Certificated Staff April 22, in the school library.

A representative of the State will be at the school on April 23 to study the District's insurance policies. Any Board member, who can, is welcome to attend.

It was noted that a dogwood from the H. Halverson's had been planted in the Japanese garden by the landscaping class in memory of Fritz Klahn. A Flowering Plum has been donated by the Bogachiel Garden Club in memory of Caroline Hull, mother of Maurice Hull, and planted in the Japanese garden.

It was announced that a class of students from Sedro Woolley would use the multi-purpose room for an overnight stay on May 17.

The A. S. B. report was noted. Suspensions from the high school were mentioned.

Mr. Winsor reported the School Boy Patrol trip is tentatively scheduled to go either to the Science Center in Seattle or to Everett and then by train to the Blaine Peace Arch for a picnic. He requested the use of a school bus for this trip. The Board approved the use of a bus.

Mr. Erickson stated that KVAC would make available to the school the fourth Monday of each month on Breakfast at the Vagabond for any news items or whatever the school would like to discuss. April 27th, William Thompson and a couple of his students would discuss their land-

OUTDOOR LORE
By Lonnie Archibald

Greetings from the steelhead capital of the world and the home of the Olympic elk, I wish at this time to introduce this new column to you, the sportsman. Whether your choice be hunting, fishing, beachcombing, hiking, camping, clamming, smelting or any outdoor sport in which the Forks area is famous, I will try to cover it in this column "Outdoor Lore". Fishing hot spots, fish plants, hunting outlooks, hiking trails, clam tides, and much more will be found in this column as they occur throughout the season. "Outdoor Lore" will cover the area from the clear waters of Lake Crescent to the sandy beaches of Kalaloch. From rugged Mt. Olympus to the fishing ports of LaPush, Sektu, and Neah Bay.

Here is a look at last week's action. Steelheading picked up somewhat as green waters flowed past the banks of local rivers. Two of my fishing partners from Edmonds country picked up three nice ironheads in the Lower Bogachiel bettering themselves the following day with a limit each from the middle drift of the Sol Duc. Hotshots did the trick. Skip Zapfee and John Monk wound up the steelhead guiding service for the season and found that left over steelhead eggs work nice in Lake Pleasant, each catching a limit of 10 to 12-inch cutthroat.

It was clams for everyone at Kalaloch over the weekend. A little humor, no? Next minus tides will run May 3-10. See you at the beach.

Beebe only winner for Spartans

Dave Beebe won the high jump event in Seattle last weekend as the Forks Spartans trailed Lakeside and Vashon in a triangular meet.

The Lions from Lakeside could only muster a total of five first place finishes in the meet, but with great depth took many second and third places to edge Vashon and the Spartans 87 1/2, 71 1/2, to 22.

The Spartans next outing will be Friday, May 1st, when they travel to Sequim.

Forks scoring:
HJ: Beebe, first; Mike Simmons, fourth.
440: Dennis Perry, second.
LH: Byron Windle, fourth.
Discus: Curt Maxfield, fourth.
880: Eddie Jackson, third.
Javelin: Chuck Rondeau, fourth.
Danny Hitchen, third.
Pole Vault: Dave Beebe, second.
100: Dennis Perry, second.

Bobcat and raccoon become game animals

The State Game Commission has recently revised the classification of many Washington animals.

Added to the list of "protected" wildlife were the gray wolf, sea otter, fur seal, flying squirrel, golden-mantled ground squirrel, chipmunk, cony or pika, white-tailed jack rabbit, pigmy rabbit, fox squirrel, and all western Washington turtles.

Sea otter had previously been protected with a closed season under the classification of "furbearing" animals.

Given full "game animal" status were the bobcat, raccoon, black-tailed jack rabbit, and yellow-bellied marmot, better known as the rock chuck.

Bobcat and raccoon also remain under furbearing status and may thus be either hunted or trapped during appropriate seasons.

Increased public concern over abuses to certain animal species led the State Game Commission to reclassify them. The reason for this is that now the State Game Department has the authority to regulate "time", "place", and "manner" of their taking.

Although it is unlikely that severe hunting restrictions will be placed on the new game animals, several of the state's hound hunting groups are proposing a spring closure on raccoon hunting. Hunting closures or "limit regulations" were not possible for these animals in their previous status.

An equally important reason for reclassifying these animals is the increased pressure imposed upon them by greater numbers of outdoor recreationists. Protection can now be extended to these important game as well as non-consumptive species of wildlife.

The change in status brought about by the Game Commission action acknowledges the fact that--with present and projected public use levels--even those animals which are not hunted in Washington sometimes need regulations to protect them from the outdoor recreationists.
