City Will Endeavor to Comply with Requirements as to House Numbering and Street Signs.

All members of the city council except Mr. Hooker were present at the meeting Tuesday night.

City Engineer Filion submitted his final estimate as to Lincoln street improvement, which was approved. Council fixed Wednesday at 10 a. m. to view said street and open same for travel.

Marshal Dustman named C. L. Miller as poundmaster and dogcatcher in place of A. W. Banks, removed. Confirmed.

Fred Mandau asked privilege of dumping gravel on Laurel street near Railroad avenue, for use in putting concrete piers under the McNutt blacksmith shop. Granted, provided same is to be kept free of traffic.

C. E. Gordon was granted permission to do certain grading in front of block 163 under direction of city engineer.

Lewis Levy filed a claim against Anderson & Co. for sidewalk material taken in the tearing up of Lincoln street.

Milford Harrison applied for the position of city health officer, vice W. J. Taylor. Filed.

Chas. Owens applied for and was granted a license as sanitary plumber and official sewer connector under ordinance, and his bond for $1,500 approved.

A communication was received and filed from the Commercial Club signed by F. C. Teck, secretary, asking that hereafter clauses be inserted in all contracts made with the city, giving preference to local residents and preferably resident taxpayers. Attention was called to the fact that council had been demanding these provisions in contracts and the communication was filed.

An outside advertising concern, wishing to write up the city, appealed to council for an endorsement of their scheme. Mr. Bigelow thought the Commercial Club the proper one to give endorsement. Mr. Filion stated he would endorse it if they told the truth, but he wanted to see the work before its endorsement. It was filed.

Fire Chief F. Dilling reported new chimney placed in Cooper building, and asked that one "Pyrene" extinguisher be purchased for the fire truck. So ordered. The Pyrene costs $8 and is particularly adapted for oil and gas fires.

The Commercial Club addressed council in a communication asking that early action be taken looking to the proper numbering of buildings and the placing of intersection signs, looking to preparing the city for inspection by the postoffice department, and qualifying for city mail delivery. Postmaster Lewis also appeared before the council in this matter, reading a communication from the department as to the sending of an inspector. He had met with a government agent now in the city and had learned the requirements, certain specifications of sidewalking in certain districts, in addition to the numbering and the signs being necessary. Attorney was directed to bring in necessary ordinance after consultation, and steps will be taken to qualify city for city delivery, the main condition as to volume of business done in this office having already been reached.

G. M. Lauridsen, J. G. McClinton and other property owners of vicinity of Second and Lincoln streets, protested against further assessment for Lincoln street sewer on ground that they had already been assessed for the construction of a sewer on this street. In this matter the city engineer reported that no part of the Lincoln sreet sewer constructed between First and Railroad avenue had been assessed in the roll filed for the trunk sewer on Lincoln street. In his opinion a part should go on the enlarged district. Matter was referred to a special committee consisting of Fisher, Wolverton and Fowler. Hearing on the Lincoln street

LOCAL VS. ALIEN LABOR

Strong Public Sentiment Essential if Clallam County People Are to Be Given Preference.

The "Local vs. Alien Labor" problem was the principal subject under discussion at the regular meeting of the Commercial Club Monday evening, being brought up by E. A. Jacobs, who submitted the following resolution:

"Resolved that the Port Angeles Commercial Club request both city and county officials to embody in all calls for bids on county and city work in which labor is employed a clause providing that the successful bidder will be required to sign an agreement to employ in such work, (1st) residents, preferably taxpayers, and (2nd) citizens of the United States, to the exclusion of aliens."

Is the discussion, City Attorney Smith said that it would be extremely hard to enforce such provisions. He stated that strong public sentiment is the essential power, and that seems lacking here, as all the carpenter work on such private buildings as the Warren Morse and the Postoffice blocks was done entirely by non-residents, while of the seventy men employed by Lewis, Wiley & Morse on city work, thirty were residents of the city. He also stated that more work has been laid out by the city this year than last year. L. J. Leonard thought that the contractor alone could be the judge as to the efficiency of the men he employed. Mr. Jacobs stated that in Seattle, contractors claimed that such restrictions increased the cost of labor 5 per cent, or about 1 per cent on the total average contract cost.

Upon motion of D. J. McCarthy, seconded by Peter Grubb, the motion was adopted.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13, "SHORE ACRES," DREAM

An all star picture from Hearn's drama of New England shore folks. We have at last secured this intensely interesting photo play and can safely recommend it to old and young alike. The scenes taken on board the schooner, making its way out to sea, plunging its prow into the whitening billows, is especially beautiful. This play is familiar to all and needs no further recommendation. Coming to the Dream on Friday, the 16th of April, "The Spoilers." It will also be shown on Saturday afternoon and evening the day following.

TO TERRACE LAUREL ST. HILL

Ancient Eyesore to Be Transformed with Steps, Terrace, and Bungalow Bandstand.

At a joint meeting of a committee from the city council and one from the Woman's Auxiliary to the Commercial Club last Saturday afternoon, Mr. Wolverton submitted a plan for the improvement of the Laurel street zig-zag which met with the hearty approval of all present.

Mr. Wolverton's estimate of the cost was $150 which amount was appropriated by the council at their Tuesday night's meeting, upon the presentation of the plans by Mr. Wolverton and Mr. Fisher. The supervision of the work will remain in the hands of the same committee from the council and auxiliary. As outlined by Mr. Wolverton, the plan is for a bandstand 14x20 to be erected some ten feet above the sidewalk on the south side of First street, the front to extend over the sidewalk some six feet but permitting travel for present thereunder. The approach to the stand will be from the east by an easy staircase, and after passing thru the stand, pedestrians will again rise slightly to the present first landing. The rest of the zig-zag will remain as now with the possible exception that the top course will be rearranged. The bluff will be terraced with four or five terraces, and as formerly outlined, the ladies of the Auxiliary will have the same beautified with ferns and flowers. Later it is proposed that possibly a sanitary public toilet can be arranged below the bandstand if the necessary sewer connections can be had without too much expense.

"THE SPOILERS," A STORY OF THE NORTHWEST

"The Spoilers" is a story native to the soil of these States. It is typically American. It covers a period in the development of the Puget Sound country and Alaska wherein adventurers of all sorts, noble and otherwise, struggled with savage tenacity for fortune. It is now retold in moving picture form by W. N. Selig in nine reels with a fidelity to detail that is truly satisfying. The film drama is intensely interesting. Nothing like the hand to hand fight between Glenister and McNamara has ever been shown on the stage before. It would be impossible in speaking drama. No gladiatorial combat of Ancient Rofe was fiercer or bloodier, and this struggle has the added virtue of a true dramatic situation, the world old struggle between right and wrong, good and evil, condensed into the forms of two characters of the story who have become familiar through previous presentations in the plot. It is the story of modern American frontier life. This most wonderful picture is to receive its initial presentation in Port Angeles at the Dream Theater for an engagement of two days and Saturday matinee, starting Friday, April 16, at 6:30 and 8:45. Matinee Saturday 1:30 and 3:45. The owner of these 9 reels demands 15 and 25 cents admission.

DEPOT AT FRANCIS STREET

That the passenger depot is to be located at the foot of Francis street with a freight depot between the present office and Earles' mill, and that the shops and engine house are to be at Ennis creek, was the word brought back from Mr. Earling by the committee from the Port Angeles Improvement Club.

The committee, consisting of Messrs. Craig, Ritchie and Hooker, reported further, at the meeting held at the Olympic Hotel last evening, that Mr. Earling spoke very favorably of the future of Port Angeles, saying there is absolutely no question about the big things to come off

EDITOR BOOMER OF FREE PRESS CALLED HOME

Mr. G. W. Boomer, editor of the Peninsular Free Press, a socialist paper, passed away at his home early Monday morning after a severe illness of a couple of weeks duration. Mr. Boomer was a well known newspaper man in the state, but had lived in Angeles less than two years, coming here for the purpose of publishing the socialist paper. He was an able newspaper man and a good talker and was highly honored and respected by the local socialist party. Public general services will be held at the opera house next Sunday afternoon, the principal address to be made by Bruce Rogers, a prominent socialist from upSound. Brother Gray is making all arrangements for the funeral services. The sympathy of the community is extended to the widowed mother and little girl left to fight life's battle alone.

SIXTY DAYS IN COUNTY HOME

Rutton's Tale of Destitution Elicits Sympathy from Both Court and Attorneys.

Owing to illness and accumulated business Judge Alston of Everett could not come as proposed Monday, but will be here Saturday, April 10, to hear the Talbot case.

Judge Ralston has been here since Monday morning, and leaves today (Friday) after cleaning up the docket.

In estate of Arthur B. Kingsley, final accounting was had, and Administrator G. V. Smith discharged.

Fred Spaulding and Cecil Jeffers were brought before the Court on Monday charged with delinquencies, and after examinations the former was given in the care of his grandfather Frank Balch, and the other is still at the county home pending the receipt of passage to his father in Nebraska. Otherwise he will be given a job and placed under a guardian. The boys are but 16 years of age each, have been practically taking care of themselves for some time past.

Nelson Ruttan was arraigned on the stand charged with burglary in the Second Degree, and pleaded guilty to the charges, though he did not believe his act constituted burglary. He gave a tearful story and elicited the support of Attorney's Trumbull and Lindsay. He believed, he said, the cabin from which he took the few small items, to have been deserted and he was in search of food, and could get no work though he offered to work at his trade of carpenter at $1.25 per day. His son fished, and sometimes they ate and sometimes had nothing. His wife and family are destitute, and live on the other side. The charge was changed to petit larceny and he was given 60 days at the county home where he will be able to recuperate. Ruttan is 52 years of age.

Upon motion of Attorney Allen Weir of Olympia, County Clerk Cosser was named a special commissioner to transfer certain property in the case of Priest vs Petridge, wherein the court ordered a reconveyance of land given in trade for an auto truck. Defendant failed to reconvey hence this order.

Robt. Baker, arrested some time since charged with family and wife desertion, was arraigned and entered a plea of guilty "in a way." Prospect of a long wait for trial prompted him to enter a plea of guilty, and he explained that he wanted to care for his family. The court gave him a chance. Upon his agreement that he be released to work and that his wages be given to his wife, he was ordered to resume his work with Road Supervisor McDougall and that his wage be paid to his wife, he to be given credit for such store account as he can get along with.

Judgment was entered against W. C. Gibson for $775 on promissory note given in 1908, to J. D. Meenach.

SMUGGLERS AT WORK HERE

Undesirables Smuggled Across Under Cover of Darkness; Four Are Arrested.

During the past eight months or more a gang of smugglers have been operating between this city and the Canadian port of Victoria, smuggling undesirables and prostitutes into this country. Four men have been arrested, namely Samuel Maugiri and Michael Maugiri, business men of this city being engaged in the grocery trade, and L. Smith and William Lawrence, fishermen, located here also. Smith and Lawrence, owners of the power boat with which the smuggling was done, confessed and pleaded guilty but the Maugiri brothers absolutely deny that they had any part in the job.

For the past month secret service operatives sent here from upSound, have been busy securing information and weaving a net around the lawbreakers, and after securing all the needful evidence made the arrest of these four men.

During the middle of March, two undesirables and one prostitute were brought across, Mike Maugiri leaving here in a small launch for that purpose. They left Victoria in the dead of night and the launch breaking down, they drifted into Kanaka Bay, on the San Juan Islands, where they secured another boat and completed the trip to this city the following evening.

It was not long after this, altho the authorities knew about this particular trip, that the officials gained the desired information, and which later led to the arrest of the smugglers. The launch has been seized and held by the government secret service men.

Thos. L. Wycoff has been stationed here two months, being transferred from Blaine, and has found plenty to keep him busy.

CUT-OFF ROAD AT SEQUIM BAY

Built Jointly by Two Counties that Clallam's New Highway Around Bay May Be Available.

Commissioners Hansen, Dick and Clark and Deputy Auditor McLaughlin visited Port Townsend this week, making the trip by auto, to confer with Jefferson county officials in regard to the completion of the Olympic Highway between Sequim and Discovery bays, and make arrangements for a temporary north and south road, connecting up the eastern end of Clallam county's new road to the old mountain road still in use in Jefferson.

Jefferson estimates the cost of their portion of the water level route, which is to eliminate the bad hill east of Blyn, at $30,000. This improvement was included in the estimates last year, a sufficient levy being provided to raise $15,000 for work this year. This will be expended, building as much of the

PORT ANGELES ILLUSTRATED

D. Romain Young of Seattle, prosperity promoter, is here this week, submitting to the business men of the city a proposition for the publication of an illustrated review of Port Angeles and Clallam county, to be gotten up in pamphlet form and to contain about forty-eight pages of fine halftone cuts with appropriate text, the latter to be reviewed and endorsed by the Commercial Club before publication.

Aside from all advantages certain to accrue to the city in the way of publicity from a creditable publication of the kind, there is, with the greatly increased population, large-

BOY RUN OVER BY AUTO AND APPARENTLY UNINJURED

The son of Geo. Houston, oil man, was badly hurt on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 p. m., when an automobile, driven by A .Anderson, and belonging to the Christopherson Hardware Company, passed over the abdomen of the child. The accident occurred in front of the Angeles Meat Market on Front street. From all indications the boy was standing in the street and did not heed or mind the horn of the oncoming automobile. Anderson it is stated, wanted to stop at the hardware store and had slackened the speed of the machine to about 4 miles an hour. The car hit the boy and knocked him down, a rear wheel of the auto passing over his body. The boy is not internally injured as far as the doctors can learn. The Houston's are at present living in the Angeles Hotel.

ANGELES TRIMS BELMONT DYE

Belmont Dye Works Team Proves Easy Prey for Fast Angeles Boys, Score 14 to 0.

With old Sol doing his very best, about 300 fans turned out at the local ball park last Sunday to witness what proved to be a very one-sided affair, between the home-guard and the supposed-to-be fast team, Belmont Dye Works, of Seattle. They worked like a tree loaded with fruit and fell to the first, real easy "pickings" of the season. Rowley worked in mid-season form, stricking out five of the dyers. Reardon, who replaced Rowley in the latter part of the game, struck out four of the same aggregation.

Franks and Icks pitched for the Seattle boys and found poor support at all stages of the game. In the last few innings the visitors seemed unable to throw a ball straight and a real comedy was the result. Many fans think that the climate had something to do with the slump of the visitors. Let us hope that the cli-

LILLIAN RUSSELL IN "WILDFIRE" AT THE STAR

On January 18th the World Film Corporation presents the five part photoplay "Wildfire" in which Lillian Russell plays the lead.

This is the first photoplay in which Miss Russell has appeared and she has chosen as her vehicle the play in which she made a great success on the regular stage in 1907. The story concerns the death of Bob Barrington by foul means in the West. The murdered goes East; changes his name; and by the aid of documentary evidence obtains possession of the late Mr. Barrington's racing stable, and becomes infatuated with Henrietta Barrington.

She, however, suspects him and she is joined in her suspicions by Garrison, who out West, was the sheriff at the time and place of Mr. Barrington's murder. Between them Henrietta and Garrison hold documentary proof of Duffy's guilt, and when the latter finds that his villainy is suspected he plans to flee the country.

Before doing so, however, he plans to pull off a grand final coup. His horse, Wildfire, is the favorite for the great handicap, and Duffy instructs the jockey to lose the race, so that he, Duffy, can win money over another horse. Henrietta discovers the plot and, beating down all opposition and obstacles, climbs to the flag and by holding it up reverses Duffy's instructions to the jockey, who thus wins with Wildfire. Duffy disappears and Henrietta and Garrison who are lovers are made happy.

The famous actress is seen thruout the film play, which is replete with striking sensations, the race-track scenes being full of realism and excitement.

LATE LEGISLATURE LEFT STATE IN VERY BAD WAY

Olympia, April 4.—Hearings of cases involving the effectiveness of the new fish code and the availibility of appropriations made by the recent legislature totalling more than $4,000,000, were given by the supreme court Wednesday.

Three cases were presented, one involving the fish code, the second dealing with road construction appropriations amounting to $1,800,000 and the third with contested general appropriation items totalling more than $2,300,000.

In each case State Auditor C. W. Clausen, on the advice of Attorney General W. V. Tanner, had declined to issue warrants for purchases, the attorney general ruling that the acts did not become effective until June 10. In this respect Mr. Tanner took exactly the opposite ground from that which he assumed in the land board case, when he contended that this act, reorganizing the land board so as to take it from the Governor's control, became effective immediately.

Governor Lister contends that the acts which are now the subject of litigation come within the constitutional provision of being "necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions."

In the fish code case, it is recited in the complaint that 110,000,000 eggs and young fish in the 27 state hatcheries will be destroyed if the act does not become effective until June 10, inflicting perpetual loss on the fishing industry which has products valued at $20,000,000 annually. Food fishing licenses expired on April 1, and unless they can be collected prior to June 10, the state will lose this revenue.

In the other suits, involving appropriations for road construction and maintenance of state institutions, the complaints contend that irreparable loss will be inflicted upon the state if no money is available for maintenance purposes until June 10, while in the case of the road appropriations it is set forth that immediate work is necessary if the entire program of road building outlined for the new biennium is to be completed, as only the summer seasons are available in many localities.

As the attorney general represented Auditor Clausen in contending that the fish code and appropriation acts were not immediately effective, according to the terms of the acts, Governor Lister made arrangements for presentation of the opposite side by Preston M. Troy of Olympia, who won the land board case, Fletcher & Evans of Tacoma and E. S. McCord of Seattle.

The supreme court Wednesday also heard arguments on the jitney bus and Renick bill cases. The Washington State Referendum league is seeking to refer both measures. Secretary of State I. M. Howell refused to accept the filings on the ground that the acts were not subject to referendum. Attorney General Tanned in these cases contended that the emergency clauses were valid and that the acts went into effect immediately.

The state department of agriculture has detailed a milk inspector to Skagit county to investigate charges that some dairymen have been "watering" their milk before selling it to local condenseries and evaporating plants. Prosecutions probably will result.

Frank Meredith, for the last eight years secretary-manager of the Oregon State fair, has been engaged by the department of agriculture as permanent inspector of the Washington state fair. A better fair than ever before is predicted for Nort Yakima this year.

The state of Washington started its new fiscal biennium April 1, a million and a quarter dollars better off financially than it was two years ago, the monthly statement of State Treasurer Edward Meath shows. When Governor Lister and the new state treasurer were inaugurated the state general fund was not merely exhausted but considerably overdrawn, this overdraft totalling 555,039 April 1, 1913.

In addition the most extravagant egislature in the history of the state appropriated nearly $800,000,000 from the general fund, making it necessary for the state board of equalization to increase the general fund levy to three mills, the extreme statutory limit, in 1913.

Even this levy would have been insufficient to have brought the general fund out of "the red" had all appropriations been expended. Careful and conservative expenditures, however, made it possible to save a considerable portion of the money appropriated, this money reverting to the general fund at the end of the biennium.

As a result the general fund now shows, instead of an overdraft, a cash balance of $727,938. The total cash balance of all state funds now amount to $3,384,565.

The attorney general's office has upheld the contention of the industrial commission that the "60 per cent rule" cannot be interpreted as reducing the compensation of injured workmen below the following schedule:

Single workman, $20 per month; married, no children, $25; married, one child, $30; married, two or more children, $35.

The result of this stand on the part of the commission will be increased compensation for poorly paid workmen, whose awards have been reduced below the schedule quoted by operation of the 60 per cent rule in the past.

Joint agreement with the states of Oregon, Idaho, California, Utah and Nevada has been ratified by the advisory board of the state department of agriculture, by which these states and Washington agree to prohibit all importations of cattle, sheep and swine from Eastern and middle western states, to keep the Pacific Coast free from the foot and mouth disease, which has recurred in the east.

Commissioner of Agriculture, H. T. Graves, who originally entered into the agreement with commissioners from the other states named at San Francisco, declares one effect of the agreement will be that live stock men of Washington will be given an excellent chance to compete for the prizes offered by the San Francisco management, with no danger either of competition from cattle from the Eastern stock shows, or of foot and mouth disease infection.

The state fish hatcheries during last year have turned out 135,000,000 fish, 20 per cent more than the greatest production of any previous year. Collections of the department, the report of Commissioner L. H. Darwin shows, were $41,000 greater than during any previous biennium. Fines collected from violators of the fishing laws during the biennium, were greater than those collected during the entire previous history of the state fish department.

The report of Washington members of the American commission, which during the summer and fall of 1913 studied rural credit systems of European countries, has been printed by State Printer F. M. Lamborn and farmers unions, local granges or other organizations or persons desiring copies may obtain them free of cost by addressing Secretary of State I. M. Howell.

Ever see a sign reading something like this, "For Rent, apply to—and giving the name of some real estate dealer doing business in some obscure office?" Ever notice how long time that sign remained in the window before someone who wanted to rent happened to pass that way, or before someone in need of a house hunted up the agent in the obscure office?

A "For Rent" advertisement in the Olympic-Leader's classified columns would have cost 25c, or 5c a line, if more than five lines a would have been read by every house hunter in the town. As a usual thing, houses have been rented within two or three days after the first publication of the "ad."

THE HOME MERCHANT

The Home Merchant—who is he?

He is the man who gives you credit when you are short of cash, and carries your account until you are able to pay.

He is the man who meets you at the door and on the street every day in the year and takes a neighborly interst in your family and your affairs. He is your fellow-townsman, your friend.

He is the man whose clerks and book-keepers live in Port Angeles and spend their money with you and other Angeles people. He is the man who pays heavy taxes to help support Port Angles schools, and build Port Angeles streets, and to maintain Port Angeles fire department and police department, and all public service.

He is the man who helps support Port Angeles churches and hospitals and charity organizations and lodges and commercial clubs, and talks for Port Angeles and boosts for Port Angeles every day in the year.

He is the chap who visits you when you are sick, sends flowers to your family when you die, and follows your body out to Ocean View, as far as human feet may travel with the dead.

He is the home merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your helper in time of need.

Also—in about seven cases out of ten he is the fellow who after he reads this and feels puffed up over the nice things his Home Paper has said about him, ought to reflect on the scant advertising he is doing and resolve to use his Home paper to get more closely in touch with his customers. Then they wouldn't feel so much like patronizing the mail order houses or trading in Seattle.

Sunday the Victoria league team will give Angeles a chance to show their real strength. The grounds are being put into shape and a fast game is predicted by the supporters of the Gate City team.

Angeles has made a find in Anderson, umpire. He gives a fair and square deal to all and it will doubtless be but a short time before he receives a call to advance to the faster baseball world.

A party of the teachers spent their Easter vacation at the Sutherland Hotel at Lake Sutherland and returned to their work enthusiastic over the beauty of the scenery and the splendid treatment of their hosts Mr. and Mrs. McIvor. The time was spent in boating, tennis and trips over the lovely trails and mountain roads. On Monday the party visited beautiful Marymere Falls, going to East Beach and then by ferry to the Singer resort, where they were met and shown over the grounds by Mr. Sandmeyer. They returned by trail at the foot of Storm King, visiting the rangers cabin and fish hatchery on the way. They can surely recommend this as an ideal place for a vacation, and would express their gratitude to all for the many courtesies received. Those who were there are the Misses Wiggins, Brown, Watson, Meeks, Neumen and McKibben.

IT'S TOWNSEND'S MOVE

City is Requested to Spend $50,000 to $75,000 in Grading a Steep Hill.

Port Townsend will be the eastern terminal of the Seattle, Port Angeles & Western, or the Milwaukee's Olympic peninsular railway, if it accepts the proposition of paying the expense of grading Water street within the limits of Port Townsend. This proposal was made to attorney A. R. Coleman of Port Towssend, yesterday by Contractor C. J. Erickson, trustee of the Port Angeles line, says the Seattle P.-I.

Since the work of constructing the peninsular railway began officials of the Milwaukee have been searching for the most advantageous terminal for the eastern end of the line. Oak Bay, Port Ludlow and Port Townsend at one time were equally favored, but in view of the leasing by Mr. Erickson of the old road from Port Townsend to Quilcene and its value as a subsidiary in reaching Puget Sound Port Townsend has lately been favored.

To comply with the company's request the city will be compelled to grade down a hill at an expense of from $50,000 to $75,000.

The Seattle, Port Angeles & Western tracks are now within twenty-two miles of Port Townsend. If a junction is made with the old line near Discovery Bay, west of Port Townsend, as is planned, the Milwaukee will use the tracks of the leased line into Port Townsend and thereby save construction of about twelve miles of track and shorten the time of completing the railway and installing the operation of trains and the barge service between Port Townsend and Seattle, with which will also go the privilege of Coast terminal rates on lumber shipments. Should Port Townsend fail to perform its part of the work other terminals will be sought.

The Port Townsend & Puget Sound, for thirty years operated by the Northern Pacific as a detached line under the name of the Port Townsend & Southern, was leased by Mr. Erickson a year ago under favorable terms. His plan was to build a saw mill at one of its stations and operate the road for logging off the timber on his lands abutting on his line. The route at one point on Puget Sound near Port Townsend is the only one available for railroad tracks and the Milwaukee was desirious of securing running rights in order to eliminate heavy expenses of construction.

To the readers of your paper, I would like to state my side in the matter of suit brought by Councilman Bigelow against Mr. Lauridsen. In February Bigelow and myself made a hurried inspection of the city and named the property on the corner of First and Lincoln streets, among many others, and recommended as a matter of protection that conditions existing there be abated. To this I testified at the trial. At the time my report was made the water in lots at First and Lincoln was several feet deep, since then the water has practically disappeared. When the suit was commenced, I was consulted in the matter only after the summons had been issued; then Bigelow met me on the street and said, referring to Lauridsen, "I want to get him and if you back me up I can." From his remarks I felt that Bigelow was actuated by personal feeling in the matter, and from what I have since learned I have no hesitation in saying that he was using his position to further a private spite and gain also a certain amount of cheap notoriety.

To cover up his failure to "get" the man he was after he has now proceeded with the help of the City Council to "get" me. If Bigelow were as zealous of protecting the health of our citizens as he pretended to be he could easily find numbers of places in the city where there would be far better grounds for having citizens arrested and prosecuted but to all appearances he don't want to "get" them. Thanking you for the space I am respectfully,

W. J. TAYLOR.

Oxfords and Dress Shoes

for summer wear

When you want a new suit you don't go to the shoe store, do you? No, you confer with the man, or woman, who KNOWS clothing, who understands quality, workmanship and style. I don't "know" the clothing, nor the dry goods, nor the millinery, nor the table and bed linen and carpet business. But I DO KNOW shoes. My knowledge of footwear, a knowledge gained thru years of experience with shoes alone, is at your service. The lines of goods I carry are the best to be had. If there were better I would have had them years ago. So why experiment. Why take chances so long as here is a store where the element of "chance" has been eliminated.

Puritan Undermuslins

Puritan undermuslins are well tailored garments. They are designed according to the most advanced styles and the workmanship is so good that it would scarcely be duplicated in home sewing.

Puritan undermuslins are very inexpensive, but the makers do not skimp the garments in any way to see how cheaply they can produce them. Puritan undermuslins comprise all grades, from the very fine to the least expensive, only stopping at a point where any article would cease to be good merchandise.

We have a large stock of dainty snow white Puritan undermuslins for this sale—you will enjoy coming to our store if for no other reason than just to see and handle those beautiful Puritan garments.

Clallam county has built, between Sequim and the Clallam-Jefferson line, one of the finest stretches of roadbed and probably the most delightful from the point of view of the tourist, of any in the county. The old road is narrow, a succession of ups and downs, full of stones on the former and full of holes on the latter and altogether as poor as could be imagined. To cut out as much of this as possible and also to give the advantage of the scenic route around Sequim Bay, the commissioners of the two countics, after personal investigation made Wednesday, agreed to join in building some 4,000 feet of ordinary wagon road connecting the old road at the Craig place with the eastern end of Clallam's new highway. The cost is estimated at something like a thousand dollars, which would be amply justified in that it gives three or four families a direct outlet, even were it not to serve as a direct cutoff for two years. It is believed the road can be completed in thirty days.

MAYOR WHITE WILL PITCH FIRST BALL

On Sunday, April 11th, the Port Angeles baseball team will play a game of ball with the Victoria Northwestern League team at the local ball park on Front street in the east end of town. Mayor White will pitch the first ball and Sheriff Bishop will hold down his own behind the bat. A large crowd is expected to attend this game as both teams are in good shape. You will be sorry if you fail to see the best semi-professional team in the state in action on Sunday afternoon.

ly from the east, a real demand for an illustrated pamphlet that will give Eastern friends an idea of this section of the country, its scenic and climatic advantages, industries, resources and prospects. In other words, there is a demand for complete and detailed information, not otherwise to be obtained, and Mr. Young should have no difficulty whatever in disposing of several thousand copies. The price of single copies is to be 35c, or three for $1. Each resident and property owner interested in boosting the town would do well to remember not only his friends but also to subscribe for a few extra copies for distribution by the Commercial Club.

WELKER WON CLALLAM CONTRACT

Chas. Welker was granted the contract for the road near Clallam, his bid of $5,509.30 being the lowest. Louis Hahn was his closest rival with a bid of $5,662.20. On the graveling alone Hahn was the lowest, $2,376, as against $2,808 bid by Welker. This, however, was more than evened up by Welker's lower bid on the grade.

Engineer Remp was ordered to locate road from Clallam-Forks road to Shuwah school house and Soleduck river.

Theodore Brewster was employed as assistant on ferry Marjory at $75 per month.

Captain Covell of the Snohomish, with his wife and three little children, are pleasantly located in the Delabarre home. Mrs. Delabarre expects to join her daughter Margaret at Los Angeles soon and together they will visit the exposition and other attractions in California.

THE LAST, BEST WEST

By O. Stockmar

Here where a smile dwells a little longer,
Where friendship's grasp is a trifle stronger,
Where the sun that shines is a little brighter,
Where the snows that fall are a little lighter,
Where the bond of home ties are a wee bit tighter—
This is the Last, Best West.

Here where the skies are a little bluer,
Where friendship ties are a little truer,
Where the ocean rolls on the beaches roaring,
Where there's music in every streamlet flowing,
Where there's more of reaping, less of sowing—
This is the Last, Best West.

Here where the world is still in the making,
Where fewer hearts with despair are breaking,
Where there's more of singing, less of sighing,
Where there's more of giving, less of buying,
Where a man makes friends without half trying—
This is the Last, Best West.

Mrs. Stephen Smith will fill the pulpit for Mr. Smith at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. The subject of her talk will be "Consistency and Christianity," with particular reference to the colored people of the south, where Mrs. Smith worked for a number of years as a missionary.

Mrs. F. E. Warner went to Seattle last Friday and has been the guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Diffenbacher all the week.

Rev. and Mrs. Smith enjoyed a visit last week from Mrs. Smith's uncle, Mr. Johnson of Seattle.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

Wm. Martell was appointed executor of the will of Mrs. Jane McQueen, as provided in the will.

Tobias Johanson of the Snohomish, Frank Zelia, formerly of Dungeness, now of Adna, Herman K. Zweekhorst of Dungeness, and Frank Zaccardo of Blyn were examined by the court and admitted to citizenship.

Judgment was rendered in favor of mortgagee A. Stange, and for all lienors, Filion Mill Co., C. L. Baker, J. I. Kirschberg, Chas. Owens, in case of Filion Mill vs E. N. Peacock, mortgagee having first lien on home of Mr. Peacock, Mr. Owens being for labor, second, others for balance. Home will pay all claims, but there will be little or nothing left for Mr. Collier, who recently had Mr. Peacock's equity transferred to him.

Ernest V. Lyttaker was granted a decree of divorce from Jennie Lyttaker on ground of desertion.

Citation to R. A. Whitcomb to appear in re certain exhibits taken from Court by mistake, was continued until the 27th inst. Mr. Whitcomb through his counsel, Mr. Trumbull, stating that he was willing to return same to Mrs. Whitcomb if wanted, as they were of no value to him, and of little to her, the property being given to her by order of court.

One mother's pension petition was denied on the ground that the new law soon to go into effect bars any receiving this pension except a mother of three years' residence in the state, and whose husband is either dead or totally disabled. This law bars divorcees.

Commissioners claims for special compensation for March were allowed as follows: Commissioner Dick, $44.00; Commissioner Hansen $44.00; Commissioner Clark $80.00. The board met twice this month, and bills include considerable outside work.

Mrs. Ida Johnson was named executrix of the will of Herman Johnson, without bonds as directed in said will.

Patrick Sheehan was brought before the court on Wednesday to answer the charge of insanity, and he was committed to the hospital at Steilacoom with the view that he will be discharged within six weeks or two months and that the care he will receive there will be of considerable benefit to him. Sheehan is the man who was resently taken from the land of Robt. Brown at the east county line. He claimed he had settled on the land, and paid his filing fee which had not been returned to him. The land has been patented 40 years and he was clearing up the same.

In the case of V. C. Bordon vs. H. J. Bugge and Sam McGee, judgment was given against McGee for 85 cords of wood at $200 per cord. Court stated that he had stretched the law in this case to give justice. He found that Mr. Bugge did not act as Mr. McGee's agent, and he was therefor dismissed with his costs if any against him. He found the whole transaction somewhat loose, but inasmuch as Mr. McGee practically accepted the wood when he took it from Washington Harbor, and admitted that it was worth $2 per cord and that according to his measurement there were 85 instead of 93 cords, judgment was given accordingly.

All day Thursday the court was occupied with the case of G. F. Hendee vs. Irvine Nichols, et al, in the matter of a tax foreclosure had some time ago, and upon which the county treasurer's deed has some time since issued. The defense moved for judgment without offering any evidence upon the resting of plaintiff's case, and after lengthy argument on both sides motion was granted, seemingly on the ground that all parties have had their day in court, in foreclosure proceedings, in which deed has issued. This is an interesting case, but space prevents a detailed account.

Three local boys were brought before the court charged with delinquencies, given a good talking to, and ordered to report each Saturday to Prosecutor Rose. Each asked to be given another chance and promised to do better.

Owing to conflicting dates the court will not be here on the third Tuesday this month. His next visit will be Tuesday, the 27th, remaining balance of the week.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. White entertained the seniors and Mr. McNeal at their home Tuesday evening, March 30. Everyone had a jolly time with games and contests. Dainty refreshments were served and soon after the party broke up.

The Juniors are planning to entertain themselves by going to the movies Monday evening in a body. Since the class is not allowed to give a dance it did not seem practical to attempt another high school party this year so they decided to use the money for their own enjoyment.

The schedule for base ball games with the Sequim and Port Townsend high school teams is as follows: With Port Townsend, at Angeles, April 24, at Townsend May 1. With Sequim, at Angeles May 8, at Sequim May 22. Sequim and Port Townsend have both asked to have a tennis tournament with the Angeles tennis players. It has not been positively decided as yet whether we will accept Sequim's challenge or not but the students refused to play Townsend.

The fire alarm Sunday evening caused considerable excitement at the churches, picture shows, etc. until it was learned that it was only the barn at the Dr. Dobb's residence, which had been set on fire from bonfires the children had made in the yard during the day.

W. C. Nelson is enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. Nelson and sister, Mrs. Hudson of Victoria, who will remain with him about ten days.

He was 78 years old and had been in fairly good health until the past few weeks, when he entered the sanitarium, realizing that he might be called on his last long march. Besides Mrs. Stoval he leaves a son, Arthur Quay, who is residing here and a son in Texas.

One of the best and most interesting lectures ever given in Port Angeles was delivered at the high school auditorium last Friday evening by Dr. Thomas Green, it being the last number of the Entertainment Course. For some reason the attendance was very small, considering the ability and fame of the man who spoke. He talked first on the Peace Conference of which he is a prominent member, and then the great European conflict occupied the remainder of his time.

the opera house having been engaged for Monday, the 31st. Upon application of Commander H. W. Doty and Adjutant R. R. Harding for co-operation, the Club appointed E. J. Walton, H. H. Van Brocklin and Andrew Severyns a special committee to assist with arrangements for memorial observance.

Free Delivery of Mail

D. J. McCarthy, L. J. Leonard and E. J. Walton were appointed a special committee to cooperate with Postmaster F. S. Lewis in his application to the city council for necessary action to meet the requirements of the department regarding sidewalks, crossings, street signs and house numbering before city delivery service can be established.

Secretary Teck also reported a new and promising line-up on which he hoped to secure the routing of mail for Forks and Mora via Port Angeles.

An Advertising Pamphlet

The Club approved a scheme submitted by D. R. Young of Seattle to put out an illustrated pamphlet to be entitled "Port Angeles Illustrated," it being agreed that the reading matter therein should be subject to approval by the club's secretary and that the pamphlet should be printed in Port Angeles.

Proposal of Joel Shomaker to deliver lectures in the city was referred to the publicity committee, as was also a letter from The Manufacturers Association of Seattle offering space in the Stewart, White and Henry buildings for a permanent display of state products.

Monthly Report of Commercial Club

Report on the work of the Commercial Club for the month of March, 1915, as follows:

Correspondence

Letters and communications received, 123; letters and communications written, 135; literature sent out 161.

Publicity

A large amount of desirable publicity was obtained for the city and county during March, the copy for practically all of which was furnished by the Club. One of the most noteworthy examples was a two-column article descriptive of recreation resources and tourist attractions, which appeared in the Christian Science Monitor of Boston on March 4. The policy of the Club in the preparation of copy for publicity purposes has been and is to emphasize the tourist attractions and undeveloped resources only.

Forest Service Reports

Thru the courtesy of Olympic National Forest Supervisor R. L. Fromme and Forest Ranger Chris. Morgenroth, the secretary has been supplied with copies of the thoro reports compiled by the Olympic Forest management in furtherance of the plan of Forester Henry S. Graves, to have the Olympic Forest aid the affected counties in the building of needed wagon roads. These reports consist of most thoro studies of all phases of area, resources and development, together with analyses of taxation and its distribution, and are illustrated with five different maps of each county. The thoro character and uniform accuracy of this work render this contribution of the greatest value to this office.

Port District Project

The general discussion of the project to create a port district in Clallam county reached the petition stage during the latter part of the month and a petition asking the county commissioners to provide for a public hearing on the question and the legal creation of such district is now being circulated. The district boundaries prayed for comprise all that country westward from McDonald creek. This matter is in the hands of the Port District Committee, J. W. Lindsay, chairman; F. L. Plummer, G. M. Lauridsen, H. M. Fisher, and J. W. Hooker.

Berry Growers Organization

As a result of efforts of this Club thruout the past winter, in co-operation with local berry growers, especially Mr. E. D. Guthrie, a mass meeting of growers and prospective growers of berries and other fruit was held in the Club rooms on March 29 and a temporary organization was effected with Stephen Land as temporary president and Frank C. Teck as temporary secretary. A committee on permanent organization composed of E. D. Guthrie, Frank P. Fisher and Frank C. Teck was directed to report at a final organization meeting to be held here on Friday afternoon, April 9. State Horticultural Inspectors Henry Huff of Sumner and J. H. Brislawn of Everett attended the meeting March 29, and urged the growers to organize. Mr. Huff declared that he knows of no berry field in the Puyallup or White river valleys than can be favorably compared with the stand of loganberries on Mr. Guthrie's farm.

War Department Data

Among the exacting work accomplished by this office during March was the preparation of authentic data covering the northern part of the Olympic Peninsula as an aid to the compilation of a military geography of this region.

Another was the task of compiling authentic descriptive and statistical data of Port Angeles harbor for the annual shipping guide, North Pacific Ports, which now for the first time recognizes this harbor as one of the impartant seaports of the Pacific Coast.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK C. TECK, Sec.

SECRETARY APPROVES GRAVES' FINDINGS

The secretary of agriculture has advised Senator Jones of Washington that he has approved all of the findings of Forester Graves and recommended to the secretary of the interior that a proclamation effecting the proposed exclusion of some 300,000 acres from the Mt. Olympus national monument be transmitted to the President at as early a date as possible. In his memorandum Forester Graves says:

"The Mount Olympus National Monument was established to accomplish certain public purposes. The primary purpose was to protect the Olympic elk. For some time, however, there has been a movement looking to the establishment of a national park. The protection of the natural scenic features was an additional reason for creating the monument.

"The present problem is to determine upon a form of jurisdiction which will accomplish these objects and at the same time consider the use of other resources now within the monument.

"Of the total area of more than 600,000 acres within the monument about one-half carries a heavy stand of excellent timber aggregating between six and seven billion feet, on a conservative estimate. In my opinion the bulk of the timber should be held in the Olympic National Forest as distinguished from a monument, national park or other withdrawal.

"The principal demand for the removal of the monument withdrawal comes from the mining interests. Territory prospecting has been carried on each year, but the location of mines is prohibited in the monument. Most of the prospects heretofore made are within the timbered and less rugged portion of the mountains. The chief mining problem would be met with by lifting the monument on these areas and placing them under national forest jurisdiction. In case a portion of the higher ranges were to be set aside as a national park, mining might be undesirable in those sections because of the embarrassment to the park administration.

"My own opinion is that even in the areas where a park would be located mining could be carried on without jeopardizing the scenic interests, provided it is conducted under the control and under regulations of the government.

"Some attempts were made in the hearings to show that the monument is interfering with agricultural development. This argument, however, was soon admitted to be without any ground. Therefore there is no real agricultural problem involved that would not be met by the adjustment made to meet the other problems.

"One of the principal purposes of the monument was to protect the breeding grounds of the Olympic elk. There are probably fully 5,000 elk in the Olympics today. A recent estimate of local forest officers placed the number near 7,000, but the first figure may be accepted as conservative. There is a state law prohibiting the killing of elk until 1925. The elk are increasing and will continue to increase.

"It is my understanding that the crux of the elk problem is to protect the breeding grounds. The proper way to handle this situation is to withhold from listing any lands for agriculture at the upper reaches of the rivers where such action is necessary to protect the Olympic elk.

"The Olympic Mountains have certain scenic features that are distinctive and unique. In my judgment a certain portion of the area now in the monument should be devoted primarily to recreation purposes. It may be wise to establish a national park to comprise the main mass of more rugged peaks centering about Mount Olympus.

"Water power development should be encouraged. The reduction of the area of the monument would permit of such development under national forest authority.

"In order to meet the public needs of the region and to better carry out the purposes of national forest administration, I make the following recommendations:

"1. That the boundaries of the Natiosal Monument be at once changed by executive order to permit the following sections to revert to unrestricted national forest status, Willamette meridian and base being intended in each case:

"Township 28 N., R 9 W.—Unserveyed sections 4 to 9, 16 to 21, 28 to 33, inclusive.

"Township 28 N., R. 7 W.—Unsurveyed sections 1 to 3, 10 to 15 inclusive.

"Township 28 N., R. 6 W.—Unsurveyed sections 1 to 18, inclusive."

(The above eliminates practically all of the monument in the townships adjacent to the Elwha river north of the Clallam-Jefferson line; and includes all the land eliminated in this county.)

"The total area of the Mt. Olympus National Monument is approximately 608,480 acres. The proposed elimination is approximately 309,000 acres.

"2. That the balance be retained under the National Monument withdrawal, pending a report by the National Park authorities of the interior department upon the wisdom of establishing a national park, and subsequent consideration by Congress of these recommendations if they are favorable to a park.

"3. That a complete working plan be developed by the forest service, with the co-operation of the biological survey for the protection of the elk, such a plan to include the procedure necessary to safeguard the breeding grounds."

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Dated, April 9th, 1915.

WILLIAM MARTELL,

Executor of the estate of Jane McQueen, Deceased.

Date of first publication, April 9, 1915.

THE CITY COUNCIL

trunk sewer was postponed until next week.

Mr. Bigelow reported the incline up Pine Hill from Valley on Sixth street was dangerous and the street superintendent was directed to put same in safe condition.

Mr. Filion made a like report as to walk up Tumwater Hill via the brewery and like action was ordered, though it looked for a while that the old controversy of crossing private property would bar such action.

Upon motion of Mr. Fowler $10 was appropriated to fix culvert at Chase and 12th streets.

On motion of Mr. Fowler, Street superintendent was directed to put in good repair roadway on Second street at Laurel to planking near Lincoln.

Mr. Fisher brought up question of dumping garbage on beach, protest having been made that same was not carried away by tide. The street superintendent thought the beach cleaner than when he dumped same. City attorney protested that it was against the law to dump garbage or anything else in the waters of the bay.

This brought out the fact that the street department had gathered great quantities of garbage from all the alleys and streets of the city, and that more had been placed for gathering since. Hereafter such garbage will be removed at the expense of the parties placing same.

Marshal Dustman called attention t o gravel on Carolina street being badly cut by ruts, which street grader could put in good repair at small expense. Referred to street committee.

Street superintendent reported further as to draining district of Front and Albert. Referred to street committee with power to act.

Harry Cotton called attention again to big ditch at 12th street extending to Valley gulch from Cherry street. It is four feet deep and four feet wide and of no use, carrying no water, and a menace in view of the fact that he is to build several buildings in vicinity. Referred to street committee with power to act.

Mr. Cotton also asked privilege in behalf of Mr. Bork to enclose lower portion of building to keep boys and others from trespassing. Attention was called to fire limits ordinance requiring that such be en closed with corrugated iron.

Mr. Fisher offered a resolution, which was read giving the intention of the council to create an assessment district of the entire city for the improvement of Ediz Hook Reservation, with a roadway to cost approximately $3,000. Hearing on the same was set for April 27. Inasmuch as the cost per lot for this will be trifling, and that to order the mode of payment on the five or ten year payment plan would be expensive, it has been suggested that any tax assessed for this work be on the immediate payment plan.

Mr. Huddleston appeared before council to protest against cutting off of Oxford rooms from light service. Electrician took the stand that inasmuch as party had complied with ordinance only enough to get lights into building and then proceeded to violate ordinance, by attempting to spread wires thru building without knowledge or consent that he was not entitled to reconnection until the wiring had been done in conformity with ordinance. Mr. Huddleston stated that two lights asked were in conduits as provided by ordinance. He was ordered connected with two lights only with the understanding that if he again attempts to evade the ordinance, he will be permanently cut off.

Messrs. Fowler, Fisher, and Wolverton were appointed a special committee to look into practically a reassessment of District 11, there being quite a sum coming back on the old assessment, and if this is fixed before payment comes in it will aid greatly the collections and bookkeeping.

"What proportion of the population of Port Angeles and tributary country enters your store, in the course of a month," was the question put to a Port Angeles merchant the other day.

"Probably fifty a day," was the reply. "But that includes your regular customers?" "Oh, well, put that way, I don't suppose five per cent of the people of town and county enter any store in town in the month," he replied.

"Then, how are the rest of the people going to learn the merits of your stock, make your acquaintance or learn of your manner of doing business? They are buying now at other stores, possibly of Seattle stores, or of Sears & Roebuck. How are you going to get them to change?"

"You will never get their trade unless you seek after their business; get them into your place of business. To do that three things can be done: you can send a salesman around from door to door; you can use circulars or phamplets, or advertise in the newspaper."

'Newspaper advertising is the most effective and least expensive—particularly if you don't waste part of your appropriation on papers of little circulation."

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS

The Musical Club held an open meeting Tuesday evening at the new Mason Music House in the Warren Morse building. About fifty invited guests were present who enjoyed to the utmost the excellent program rendered. Piano selections were given by Mrs. Hyde, Mrs. Mason and Miss Stoval, and violin solos by Miss Elliot and Miss MacMillan. The vocal selections were all very pleasing and consisted of solos by Mrs. Luppen, Miss Robertson, Miss Taylor and Mrs. Fisher Cole. The latter in her younger days was an opera singer and her voice is still wonderfully sweet with its deep, rich tones. She sang "That I Alone Can Know," and "Then You'll Remember Me." Two orchestral selections by Miss MacMillan, Mrs. Mason, Mr. Benj. Phillips and Dr. W. H. Taylor were beautifully rendered. A touch of the ridiculous in so much that was sublime was appreciated in the two humorous readings so cleverly given by Miss MacMillan, who is certainly an artist. The Musical Club hope to entertain their friends again soon with another open meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Commercial Club will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 6, at 2:30 o'clock in the Commercial Club rooms. This is the date of the annual election of officers and all members are urged to show their interest by attending this meeting. Plans for the annual Rose Show will be discused, also the advisability of holding a Dahlia Show later in the summer. There is a great deal of civic improvement work to be done in our city and the help of the women in all parts of town is needed. Won't you come to our meeting and offer suggestions as to what is most needed to improve and beautify your part of town? All that is necessary to become a member of the Auxiliary is to pay your monthly dues of ten cents and give what assistance you can in our work. We are anxious to make our little city one of the cleanest and most attractive spots in Washington. Will you help us do it? Many members are in arrears with their dues; please come and pay up.

Mrs. John Willson was hostess to the P. A. Reading Club last Friday afternoon, and the ladies were delightfully entertained with a very scholarly and interesting paper on "The Classic Literature of England" given by Mrs. H. M. Brock. The club anticipates another treat at their next meeting, April 16, when Mrs. Stephen Smith will give a review of Zangwill's famous book, "The Melting Pot," considered one of the best stories ever written on the immigration question. Mrs. Jessie Webster will be the hostess.

A crowd of sixty people attended the Whist Tournament in the Catholic Social Hall on Wednesday evening. Eighty tickets were sold but owing to the sudden rain storm that came up in the early evening, only sixty attended. Ray Best won the gentlemen's prize and Mrs. Grogan the ladies. The tournament will be continued on April 28th. A very delicious supper was served after the prizes had been awarded.

The members of the Camaraderil Club were most pleasantly entertained at a "Sunshine Tea" last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. John Willson. Covers were laid for seven and the dining room was bright with daffodils and jonquils. The color scheme of yellow was skillfully carried out in the supper. Those present were Mrs. Benjamin Phillips, Mrs. Charles Filion, and Misses Mary West, Anna Filion, Jolliette Glen and Jessie Gilmore.

Miss Catherine Vipond of Vancouver, B. C., has been a guest the past week of Miss Sarah Fowler. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Cora Faires entertained a few young people in her honor and on Thursday evening Miss Fowler entertained for her. She returns to Vancouver Saturday.

The regular monthly Brotherhood supper will be held April 19th and a good speaker from Seattle will be on hand to give a talk on one of the many interesting subjects of the day.

Miss Sonter was hostess to the Fortnightly card club Tuesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Jensen.

Mrs. Willis Mathewson entertained the Cherry Hill Club Thursday afternoon.

RELIEF FUND FOR WAR SUFFERERS

In response to the call for contributions for the relief of Christian Scientists in distress by reason of the present war in Europe, the sum of $82,104.02 has been received by the Treasurer of the Mother Church. Of this amount $77,595.51 has been disbursed to the relief committees organized by Mr. McCrackan in England, Germany, France and Switzerland, as called for by them.. Much gratitude has been expressed by the Christian Scientists in these countries for the help extended to them by their brethren in America.

In addition to the $82,104.02 collected for the relief of Christian Scientists, there has also been collected the sum of $29,154.90 for the relief of war sufferers other than Christian Scientists. This entire amount has been disbursed to relief committees of Christian Scientists in Holland, England, Germany, France and Switzerland. The total amount received to date for these funds is $111,258.92, of which but $4,503.51 remains unexpended. As the need for help still continues, this small balance will not last long; therefore Christian Scientists are given the opportunity to continue to send contributions to the Treasurer of the Mother Church for this relief work. For the future, it is proposed to maintain but one fund, and from this both Christian Scientists and others will be assisted.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH

A series of special Evangelistic Services will commence at the M. E. Church on the evening of April 16. The pastor has secured the services of the Rev. J. C. Harrison of Ferndale, for these meetings. Mr. Harrison is a magnificent worker and well fitted in every way for this line of work.

Mr. Frank McCarty and Mrs. Baker will have charge of the music. These splendid workers need no introduction to the people of this city. A very cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

BENEFIT DANCE FOR MR. PRICKETT, A SUCCESS

The Benefit Dance held in the opera house Wednesday evening, March 31st, 1915, by the citizens of Port Angeles for the benefit of Shirley E. Prickett, who sustained very serious injury in falling from the Morse building several weeks ago, was well patronized and all seemed to have an enjoyable time. The gross receipts of the evening were $100 and after paying the necessary expenses of music and printing there was left a net balance of $83.50. This sum together with the sympathies and best wishes for recovery, were presented to Mr. Prickett. The opera house was donated by the owners.

HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED WITH USEFUL GIFT

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Haynes have presented the high school with Appleton's Cyclopedia of American Biography. It is a fine work in six large volumes, bound in full Russian Leather, and beautifully illustrated, and it will be a very useful addition to the reference library of the high school.

The question of a suitable dumping ground for garbage is becoming a serious one and must be decided by the city in the near future. The objection to dumping it in the bay is that the tide washes a lot of it back on the beach and keeps it strewn with all sorts of old cans, boxes, etc, which is very offensive to those living near and mars the looks of the city. We hope the council will further agitate this question and try to work out some scheme for disposing of the vast amount of garbage constantly accumulating which cannot be burned up.

NEW LAUNDRY AT FOURTH AND LINCOLN

A new laundry building, constructed entirely of concrete, is being built on two lots adjoining Fourth and Lincoln streets, and is to be one story with full basement. Mr. Gordan, the builder, expects to have the building completed in two months. It will be first class in every respect and is located in a suitable locality. A little difficulty is being experienced in setting the foundation, as the ground is not very hard and is caving.
