COUNTY OFFICIALS AT HOME IN NEW COURT HOUSE

OFFICIAL OPENING JUNE 14TH

Those who have not yet visited the new court house surely have a most pleasant surprise in store; a feeling of awe comes over one as he first enters its stately vestibule and becomes impressed with the quiet dignity and elegance of his surroundings.

The main entrance opens with a handsome outer vestibule, which contains the bulletin board and automatic self-locking umbrella stand. At the foot of wide stairways, leading to the second floor, are provided, on either side, platforms, constructed of terrazo marble and scagliola, on which are to be placed palms or decorative shrubs.

Mounting three wide terrazo steps, one enters a large rotunda with massive plaster beam ceiling and open well. The walls and pilasters are of scagliola, which is an imitation of Italian Seana marble, and is set off by a base of vird antique marble which runs all around the rotunda and vestibule.

The main features of the rotunda are the terrazo marble floors, scagliola walls and tasteful plaster design and cornice, the latter being high lighted in gold leaf. Looking up thru the well one can see the art glass skylight, which sheds a soft tinted light and is very pleasing to the eye.

Evidently the force in the Auditor's office have become accustomed to the bright sunshine, and rather like it, or possibly they couldn't think of being deprived of their view of grand old Mount Angeles, for we find them installed on the south side of the new building, as before. And truly they have pleasant rooms.

Over the door you note a brass panel of generous size, bearing the words "Auditor's Office," and stepping in are confronted by a heavy broad-topped counter of highly polished birch resting on an olive green base. Beyond are immense desks and inviting chairs, all of highly polished quarter-sawed oak, a portion of the new outfit of office furniture for which the auditor has just made out a warrant for $8,522.89. You would think that amount of ready cash should buy some furniture—and it has. Every piece is a perfect beauty and every office is well equipped.

Those handling the recording are not to be bothered by the rabble hereafter; a private room has been provided for their use. Neither are the abstract men to be allowed to butt in—another room has been furnished for them and their stenographers. And there is the two-story vault, one of five in the building, lined with the latest in steel cases, common now, to all the offices in this new home.

In the southeast room the Board of Commissioners will hold forth. An immense glass-topped table, fully a rod in length, in which will be placed a county map, is the distinguishing feature of their "private office" behind the railing—a railing of intricate design and in polished oak too, mind you, when it was only yesterday that every man of them was splitting out shakes for his first home in Clallam county. Ample seating capacity is provided by several long settees, which have the appearance of affording a very comfortable place to spend an hour.

Across the rotunda the treasurer and assessor have their offices, Mr. Prickett and deputy feeling like regular nabobs in their suite of three rooms—rather more than his share perhaps, but then one of them was provided and specially furnished for the Board of Equalization which is in session a few days once a year.

Treasurer Wood, too, has been given room according to his strength, a special feature being the ample lobby and a big steel lattice-work cage, rather more imposing than that of the average city bank. Herbert recommends the early morning as the best time to call, for then the morning sun, which shines thru the east windows, is reflected in the good spirits of his office force and you feel it a real pleasure to part with your $40 per.

The feature of the second floor is the court room, with its connecting private offices for the judge and prosecuting attorney, the jury room, etc. The court room is beautiful in its lavish display of rich mahogany, contrasted with French grey tinted walls and olive woodwork. A feeling of solemnity comes over one as he enters this room; the mahogany finished pews and the judges bench, somewhat resembling an altar, giving the appearance of the interior of a church. The lighting system here is also on a more elaborate scale. Judge's bench and chair, upon a raised platform, are backed with mahogany panelling, filling the end of the room. Large tables and broad chairs are provided for the attorneys; the witness's chair, exhibit board and a wardrobe are also included within the railing, while to the right on a separate raised floor twelve large chairs are furnished for the jury. The seating capacity is about 120.

County Clerk Cosser, Engineer Remp and Superintendent Geisness will be found on the north side, their offices being rather less imposing than those on the main floor, but more accessible to the general public. As the Superintendent's office is not convenient for holding the teachers' examinations, the jury room is utilized for that purpose.

The sheriff's office, matron's quarters and jail are to be found in the basement, which is nicely finished and well lighted and heated. The office furniture in the sheriff's office is of the same handsome type as that in the other offices. The jail, six cells in addition to the women's cell, was installed by the Stewart Iron Works of Cincinnatti. All cells are fitted with automatic locking device, controlled from one central cabinet. There is a padded cell for prisoners of a violent disposition, shower baths, and other interesting features.

Special attention was given to the treatment of the office floors, all flooring in the rooms, including the court room, being finished with a composition of dessicated and silicated asbestos. This kind of floor is easy on the feet, has the wearing qualities of concrete and the appearance of cork linoleum with the defects of neither. The rotunda, vestibule and corridors all have terrazo chipped marble floors witn neat border of terrazo of different color.

Many of the doors are fitted with chipped plate glass and equipped with patent door stops which hold them fast in any position.

The electric lighting has been made a feature in the building, all lighting features being of the semi-direct type. The rotunda and vestibule are equipped with especially handsome pendant fixtures. In the court house tower is installed a large clock having all the latest improvements. It is electrically wound and automatically lights the four dials at night. It also controls and regulates a secondary system of electric clocks installed thruout the various rooms, and strikes the hours and half hours on a massive bell weighing 2200 pounds.

Among the many noteworthy accomplishments to the credit of our Board of County Commissioners, particularly during the past two years, this handsome new home, for our County officials and court of justice, stands out pre-eminent and will be a lasting monument to their business forethought and judgment. For the money expended it is said to be the best court house in the state.

Those who helped to make it:
Architect, F. W. Grant.
Superintendent Construction, O. T. Webber.
Contractor, Sound Construction Co.
Heating and Plumbing, E. A. Jacobs.
Electric Wiring, Rainier Electric Co.
Lighting Fixtures, Gleason and Co.
Vault and Office Furniture, Pioneer Bindery.

HELP MAINTAIN THE BAND

This city has one of the most accomplished musical organizations in the state, but it has not been sufficiently appreciated in a material way to supply it with funds to maintain it. The Port Angeles Marine Band is and has been maintained chiefly by the public spirit and sacrifice of its own members. They have not only contributed their time and talent to sustain its reputation as a band organization of very high rank, but they have individually provided for the payment of all the maintenance expense, such as the payment of the director, the purchase of new music, uniforms, instruments, etc.

The Olympic-Leader has therefore decided to open a subscription appeal in its columns to help provide a permanent fund sufficient to maintain the band. It is hoped to obtain monthly subscriptions for one year, beginning and including the month of May, 1915, and amounting in the aggregate to $100 per month. To do this will require many small subscriptions, of from 25 cents per month up. This subscription list will be kept standing in the Olympic-Leader until a sufficient amount has been raised, or until failure to produce it shall have been demonstrated. If you want to help the band, come in and sign up, and the more of your subscription that you pay up in advance the better it will be appreciated, as the organization is already considerably in debt for current expenses.

THE PORT DISTRICT PROJECT AND LOCAL DOCKS

The Port District project to provide deepwater docks and a cold storage plant for the accommodation of over-seas business has been misconstrued by owners of small docks in Clallam county as proposed public competition with private enterprise. At first glance this would seem to be true, but it is not. The proposed dock facilities would undoubtedly increase the business of the existing small docks by bringing commerce and industry to Clallam county for which there is now absolutely no accommodation. Port Angeles dock owners were at first flatly opposed to the Port District project on the ground of public competition with their local docks. Investigation, however, has fully convinced them that instead of being a possible competitor and something to be feared and fought, the public deepwater dock and cold storage plant would be the greatest possible element in bringing increased business to all the local docks of Clallam county. Of course, the Port District would be empowered to also build local docks in any harbor in the county, subject always to the direct vote of the people of the county or district.

ANACORTES EXCURSION A DELIGHTFUL TRIP

The second excursion of the year, being the run to Anacortes on Sunday last, was such a delightful trip that those who managed to go along with the Marine Band and the Port Angeles Baseball team were indeed well repaid for the small fee charged. In the neighborhood of 300 boosters and fans managed to "stow away" on the two boats chartered for the occasion. The baseball team embarked on the City of Angeles and the Marine Band made themselves at home on the Sol Duc.

The fact that the crowd was separated on the trip did not stop them from having a joyous time and everyone speaks of the trip in terms of highest praise.

Rain was encountered at Anacortes but this did not stop the sightseeing or the baseball game.

Angeles lost a hard fought game in the first inning when a high fly dropped behind second base and let in two unearned runs. The grounds were wet and plenty of mud and water made it a hard row to dig for both teams. A load of sawdust was spread over the diamond but did not help the visitors in the least. Many clean ball suits were bespattered with the wet earth in falls, slips and slides.

Anacortes having made three runs in the first inning, added one more to the total in the fifth inning when a long fly got past Riley. It was good for three bases. Angeles made a rally in the first of the ninth inning when the bases were full and errors and a hit brought home two runs. Pike, of the local team there, seemed to lose his arm and doubtless would have long before had the day been ideal. Pete Reardon of the Angeles team also was out of form and let a couple of bases on balls beat him. The final score was 4 to 2.

EAST END WORK ORDERED

Harry Cotton Awarded Both Sewer Contracts. Extension Secured for Spit Roadway.

There was a full attendance at the city council Tuesday night and much business was transacted with dispatch. The big East End improvement was ordered, and ordinance introduced for the Lincoln street trunk sewer with its laterals.

Mayor White at the outset reported in regard to the trip of himself and the city engineer to Portland in relation to the sandspit improvement. Col. Beck has been transferred to North Carolina, but in his stead is a very courteous gentleman, Mr. Warrock, formerly associated with the office and very conversant with the details of the city's lease and its requirements. They found Mr. Warrock very accommodating and willing to do anything under the law to make the burden of the city as light as possible. An extension of one year for the completion of the roadway was secured, which is a very necessary and important item.

Engineer Filion reported as to the engineering features of the conference to the effect that the terms of the lease and its requirements are very indefinite, and he had therefore, knowing that government requirements would have to be met, planned for a road bed and covering that he thought surely would be accepted. This had included a thirty foot roadway, with double macadam surfacing. They had suggested to Mr. Warrock, however, that for a long time to come, few other than the lighthouse people would have use of this roadway and that until a more substantial roadway was needed that same be only temporary. It was agreed that the roadbed be cleared full width, but that same need only be surfaced 15 feet in width and that with single course macadam, with one barrel of oil to 1000 square feet. This concession will save the city at least $5,000 in the construction of the roadway, or nearly one-half. Plans have been forwarded to Washington, and further action in the matter has been postponed until June 15 to allow time to hear from the government.

Petition of residents asking that Valley street, Second to Eleventh, be put in passable condition was referred to the street superintendent with power to act under his discretion up to $50 or $70.

A. L. Johnson petitioned for a crossing on Fifth street across Oak. Granted. It was stated that Mr. Johnson would have a two plank walk put in if given a crossing.

J. H. Dalton was granted right to repair his building on lot 16, blk 23, N. R. S. Sub. between Francis and Race street.

Frank Garvey was granted permit to build at 5th and F, building to be 24x38, and to cost $300.

Assignment of the franchises granted to the Seattle, Port Angeles & Lake Crescent Railway to the Seattle, Port Angeles & Western Railway, were filed and read to council.

City Attorney was given free lights in his office, council first appropriated $2 attorney had on deposit.

The Bungalow Inn was again reported maintaining unsanitary conditions and same was ordered abated.

City Engineer reported First street sewer complete and total cost $1637.-34; due contractor $1262.34.

The engineer also reported the final estimate on Lincoln street improvement with a total cost of $21,-875.62. The contractor has been paid some $13,000, and claims have been filed against him in sum of $564.38. He was allowed $5,000 on account.

Ordinance ordering improvement of the east end district by grading, sidewalking and bridging was reported back with recommendation that same do pass. The city attorney offered an amendment which was accepted, to the effect that each street improved be a separate improvement district and a separate assessment district. This he said was simply to assure the property owners that they were getting just what they wanted. The ordinance was adopted. In answer to inquiry the engineer stated the cost per lot in the district would be approximately $50 per lot on east and west streets, and $70 for corners north and south with only minor assessments against the inside lots. He also stated that tentative grades had been agreed upon contemplating cuts of approximately one foot on each street. These tentative grades have been practically adopted as the basis of this work.

Resolution No. 36, Lincoln street sewer, hearing had, no protest, Specifications were changed to provide for alternate bids for terra cotta and cast iron pipes. Plans and specifications were adopted and ordinance read twice and referred.

C. P. Brown appeared before the council relative to the reassessment of Railroad Avenue to take up the deficiency. He asked that a rebate

FERRY LAUNCHING AND TRIAL TRIP NEXT SUNDAY

Two o'clock Sunday afternoon is the hour set by the Board of County Commissioners for launching the big ferry at the end of the county road, alongside Crescent Hotel wharf, Piedmont. The Board extends an invitation to everyone to be present and participate in the celebration, which will include the trial trip and christening.

Autoists can make the trip thru to Piedmont by way of the new Elwha bridge, Eden and Joyce, giving an opportunity of sizing up the twelve miles of new highway thru the dairying region south of Port Crescent. This road is not to be recommended, however, should there be heavy rains before Sunday, as gravelling is only begun.

The ferry Marjory will make three trips between East Beach and Piedmont Sunday, to accommodate those who auto or drive out via the lakes. Only passengers will be carried over to Piedmont on these special trips.

W. G. HOPKINS NEW OWNER OF THE DREAM

W. C. Hopkins of Spokane, a very prepossessing young business man, who has had four years' experience in the moving picture business, purchased the Dream of E. G. Abbott on Saturday.

Mr. Hopkins has engaged a practically new set of films, retaining only the Famous features being shown on Tuesday nights, and believes he has a week's program lined up that will please all patrons. He will also make a feature of amateur nights and "prize" nights, the latter to be introduced next Wednesday as country store night, when 15 or 20 different prizes will be awarded. Judging from his description, it will afford considerable merriment.

The programs for tomorrow and Sunday include Selig, Edison and Biograph features, old favorites with the movie fans.

DODGE BROS.' NEW CAR HERE

Many Visit Salesrooms of Fred Farmer, to Inspect Long Awaited Car of Mystery.

Dodge Brothers car has arrived! To hundreds of Angeles motorists, the above message that was flashed along automobile row yesterday, was the signal for an excited dash to the salesrooms of Fred Farmer, local dealer for Dodge Brothers on Laurel street. Probably never before in the history of the automobile has the advent of a new motor car been awaited with interest equal to that shown by thousands of automobilists in all sections of the country.

In the first two hours, following the opening of Mr. Farmer's salesroom, yesterday, a constant stream of visitors poured thru the entrance, anxious to secure their first glimpse of the car which has been appropriately called the "Car of Mystery." Judging by the universal comments of the critical visitors and rival dealers in the city, the new car is all and more than the public had expected from the builders.

"In bringing out their new motor car, Dodge Brothers wisely determined not to court an advance appeal" says Mr. Farmer, local dealer. "No whit of information was to be divulged until Dodge Brothers' idea of a motor car stood complete in every detail. That the automobile dealers of the country reposed an immense confidence in the big Detroit Company is shown by the fact that over 14,000 dealers wrote in for the privilege of selling the car, before any detail of price or specifications had been released from the factory. In Angeles as elsewhere, we have taken orders from customers merely on the confident belief that Dodge Brothers would establish a new standard of value in the automobile industry."

Dodge Brothers' new automobile is a real car in every particular. Freakish design has been carefully avoided and the beautiful streamline body is combined with a powerful 30-35 horse-power motor, to make an ideal car for five passengers. It is a big roomy car in every sense of the word, having a wheelbase of 110 inches and wheels 32 by 3½ inches. The motor is cast en bloc and has a bore of 3⅞ inches and a stroke, 4½ inches. Electric lighting and starting apparatus is included, and the equipment in every way suggests the car of $2,000 rather than one of $875, the price which Dodge Brothers have made. Real leather upholstry and the latest type of self lubricating springs makes the car one of the easiest riding machines that has ever been marketed. Among the unusual features on the car is the speedometer drive, which is connected directly to the transmission, and is therefore practically trouble proof. The arrangement of the transmission gears is also a novel one, no gears except the third being in operation when the car is driven on direct drive.

100 PEOPLE ON THE PROGRAM

Flower Show Entertainment Next Month Promises to Be of Exceptional Interest.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Commercial Club Tuesday afternoon, further arrangements for the Flower Show and entertainment were made, and from reports of committees everything points to a bigger and better show in many ways than has been held in previous years. The date of the Flower Show will have to be definitely decided upon a little later as weather conditions must largely control that, but it will probably be between June 15 and 20. The committee in charge of the Flower Exhibit consists of Mesdames E. E. Hopkkins, F. T. Hyde, Lillian Wright, H. M. Fisher and R. D. Willson. The entertainment committee consists of Mrs. Jessie Webster, Mrs. H. M. Brock and Mrs. Burkholder. Complete arrangements have been made for the program which promises to be one of the prettiest performances ever staged in Angeles.

Almost a hundred children and people will take part and they are already being drilled so as to attain the highest degree of perfection. Among the pretty things being arranged for are a Tom Thumb wedding party, with the children all dressed to represent flowers, a variety of little folk dances and choruses by tiny tots, some fine musical numbers, drills and songs by the Campfire Girls and Boy Scouts, with a number of other special numbers which we will tell you about another week.

Anyone wishing to donate a prize for the premium list will kindly notify any member of the committee.

NORWEGIAN OUT OF WORK HALF STARVED AND REPORTED CRAZY

Monday evening Sheriff Bishop returned from Clallam Bay with Louis Skjalsta, a Norwegian, who was supposed to have gone crazy. The foreigner has lived in this country over a year and has lived around Clallam Bay the past few months, working in the logging camps. He appears to be well educated and is very proud, as indicated at the examination held here. It was reported by citizens that he had not proud, as indicated when an inquest was held over him here. It was reported by citizens that he had not worked for some time and had eaten but very few meals during the past month. He could not pay his board bill and was discharged from his lodging place, sleeping in the tall uncut for several weeks. At night he claimed someone would come out and shoot a gun to scare him. This made him suspicious and caused him to make the statement that he would get "that someone."

After being brought to Angeles by the Sheriff and a witness, Bernhard Osterberg, he put up at the Angeles Hotel and at all times showed common sense. He appeared to be in need of work, food and clothing.

The examination held by the sheriff, attorney and doctors proved him to be sane and he will go back to Clallam Bay where work has been found for him and where he will be taken care of by Mr. Osterberg.

AGAINST PORT DISTRICT

Resolutions Adopted at a Meeting of Sequim Citizens Held at the Sequim City Hall.

Resolved, that this meeting of citizens is opposed to the proposed formation of Clallam county into a Port District at this time for the following reasons:

First:

It means the creation of a new taxation district in Clallam county with an extra board of three commissioners authorized to provide general plans of harbor improvements of every kind and nature to be paid for by taxpayers until such time as the income from the harbor improvements are sufficient to re-imburse the taxpayers. King county has already found to its cost that the repayment part of the scheme is a beautiful dream.

Second:

Taxation in Clallam county is now almost confiscation. Real property pays over $40 per thousand. Personal property over $40 per thousand valuation. We do not believe Clallam county should be taxed further to invest in wharves, docks, sea walls, jetties, ferries, canals, locks, tidal basins, and other harbor improvements, rail and water transfer and terminal facilities, as the law permits.

Third:

Clallam county is close enough at the present time to the legal limit of indebtedness. It is proposed, if possible, by an election, to bond the county to the limit to provide funds for the port district. We are opposed to any further bonding for any purpose at present.

Fourth:

We believe there are enough wharves in Clallam county to do all the business there is to do and then some. None of these wharves appear to be paying propositions. Every wharf we have could transact ten times the business it is now doing. All of these wharves are under the supervision of the public service commission and by law must treat the public fairly and squarely .

Fifth:

In conclusion, we believe that there is no profit to be made on an investment in wharves and other harbor improvements in Clallam county by taxpayers' money, and we propose to do all in our power to defeat the Port District scheme and the calling of an election for its formation.

C. F. SEAL, Chairman,
R. W. SCHUMACHER, Ser.
G. W. O'Brien,
W. H. Schumacher,

J. N. Johnson, who has had a shoe repair shop in Angeles for the past winter, sold his machine last week to the Harness Shop, and left for Tacoma. The addition of this machine to the splendid equipment the repair department of the Harness Shop had, makes it possible for them to repair your shoes while you wait, and to do the finest kind of work.

R. D. Kilmer, who recetly entered the express and baggage business with his auto truck, is building up a good business in general hauling. He expects to handle a considerable share of the lake freight this summer.

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS

The following circular is sent by the County Superintendent to all school officers of Clallam county this week touching the proposed Directors Meeting and the Joint Teachers Institute:

TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CLALLAM COUNTY:

In accordance with a request of a number of school directors of the county, a Directors Meeting is hereby called to be held in the Court House, Port Angeles on the 5th day of June, 1915, at 2 p. m. C. L. Babcock, Clallam County's representative in the last legislature will be present and will address the meeting on the school laws of 1915 legislature. County Auditor J. W. Warren will be in attendance at the meeting and will be glad to give to school clerks desired information touching the financial side of their duties.

As one of the Directors of the schools of Clallam county your presence is earnestly desired.

The date for the Joint Institute with Jefferson county has been set for September 1 and 2 and 3, 1915. School clerks will therefore as far as possible date all contracts with teachers September 1st in order that every teacher in Clallam county may get the benefit of attendance at the Institute.

Teachers' Examination is being held this week and the number of applicants for certificates is unusually large.

The next State Eighth Grade Examination will be held thruout the county May 20 and 21, 1915. The questions have already been sent to the different teachers with directions not to be opened until May 20th. The County Board of Education will be in session May 22, 24 and 25 for the purpose of grading the eighth grade manuscripts and for the purpose of preliminary discussion of text book adoptions which will take place June 5.

Superintendent Edith Delanty of Jefferson county called at the office last week to discuss plans for Joint Institute and a proposed Joint Field Day at time of the Peninsular Fair. A school fair at that time was decided impractical on account of the difficulty of getting material so early in the school term. It is possible that a joint school fair may be held next spring.

THOS. GEISNESS,
County Superintendent.

NO SUCH THING AS HARD TIMES NOW

The telephone wires in the vicinity of Dungeness were kept hot on Thursday last by the Dungeness Co-operative Creamery Company at Sequim, trying to locate its teams that were out gathering cream. The cause of this flurry was a special order from Seattle for a large shipment of butter for Alaska. Owing to the unprecedented demand from other quarters for the creamery's output, it was impossible to fill the Alaska order without hurrying in the teams at noon with the cream. The bookkeeper, butter-maker and helper never waited for lunch; all worked at churning, salting, cooling and cutting it, and which had to be done before the Sol Duc called at Port Williams. With the energetic action of the boys it is perhaps unnecessary to say that the steamer which left for Alaska that night carried as part of her cargo a large consignment of butter from the Dungeness Co-operative Creamery at Sequim.

The Union Label

A customer asked us, the other day, to put the union label on his work. We replied that the Typographical Union has not now, and never has had, a branch in Port Angeles.

"But," said he, "other shops here have been using the union label."

They have not. They would be subject to prosecution if they had. Individual workmen have been putting their card numbers on the work they turn out, which numbers simply show that they belong to unions in the cities.

It is not the fault of the proprietors of the shops that there is no local; doubtless everyone of them would welcome the union. But there are not printers enough here to obtain a charter.

We employ union men. Union men are capable; they have had experience; they know their business. When we need a printer we send to headquarters for a man.

Yet there are just as capable men, usually more so for country office work, who have never lived in a big city and hence have never joined the union. Others, locating in country towns, have no longer any interest in the particular big city union they once belonged to and have allowed their membership to lapse. To them the use of a subterfuge "union card number label" appears to be manifestly "unfair."

The Olympic-Leader does not make a practice of advertising itself at the expense of its customers by putting an imprint on their work, but if customers think they must have the kind of union label that has recently been in vogue in Port Angeles we will be pleased to accommodate them.

If you wish your work done by men who belong to the union, you will have to go where union men are employed. You can reach one "union shop" by phoning 44. Our Mr. Stockmar, a union printer of several years' experience with Williamson & Haffner, Denver, and Lowman & Hanford, Seattle, will call at once for your work. You will find him an artist in his line.

COUNTY FAIR SEPT. 23, 24, 25

S. M. Earling Advocating the Raising of a Big Publicity Fund.

Adjourned regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Commercial Club, Tuesday, May 11, 1915, 4 p. m. Present: President Craig, Vice-President Aldwell, Directors Cain, Fisher, Grubb, Levy, Lindsay, Phillips, Walton, Ware, total 10 directors, the secretary and Mr. J. H. Dalton.

Minutes of the regular meeting of April 19 were read and approved.

MEMBERSHIP

The secretary reported having received membership contributions from non-resident property owners under the provision of the amended by-laws qualifying such memberships for $10 a year. Non-resident property owner memberships secured up to date were obtained by Thomas T. Aldwell by solicitation among the clients of his company, the latest member being Adam Paulus of Marshfield, Wisconsin.

PHOTOS FOR EXHIBITION

On motion of Mr. Aldwell the secretary was authorized to expend not to exceed $10 for photographs for exhibition at the Seattle Public Library and the Automobile Club of Seattle, in co-operation with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Co., and other interested organizations.

PORT DISTRICT CAMPAIGN

On motion of Mr. Lindsay, a special committee composed of Messrs. Aldwell, Cain and Dalton was appointed to interview influential concerns relative to the proposed Port District enterprise.

The secretary was directed and authorized to prepare and have printed a circular letter or phamplet presenting all the salient facts and features of the Port District, to be mailed to the voters of the county.

A long letter from Chairman F. H. Lamb of the Port of Grays Harbor Commission discussing the obvious benefits of the Port District law for the smaller cities and seaports, was read and ordered placed on file.

PROMINENT MEN INVITED

The secretary reported having invited U. S. Senator Wesley L. Jones to include Port Angeles in his itinerary when delivering his illustrated lecture descriptive of the city of Washington the coming summer. He was directed further to invite and urge the Senator to include Sequim also for a speaking date.

The secretary reported that Secretary of Agriculture David Francis Houston, Associate Forester Albert F. Potter, and Solicitor Francis G. Caffey of the Department of Agriculture are now in the west for the purpose of visiting all the National Forests. He was directed to invite them to visit this city.

PUBLICITY PROPOSED BY S. M. EARLING

Mr. Dalton submitted a proposition from S. M. Earling of Chicago, offering to subscribe $125 toward a fund of $3,000 to be spent in display advertising in the Seattle papers during the coming summer. After discussion the secretary was directed to write to Mr. Earling thanking him for the suggestion and the proposed contribution and that the project is considered impracticable at this time.

COUNTY FAIR, SEPTEMBER 23, 24 AND 25.

After discussion of the subject, on motion of Mr. Fisher, September 23, 24 and 25, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, were named as the dates for the Clallam County Fair and Industrial Exhibit. The secretary was directed to prepare a circular letter for circulation among those who exhibited products at the 1914 fair, as well as prospective exhibitors.

WASHINGTON FEDERATION OF COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATIONS

The Washington Federation of Commercial Organizations was organized at a state convention of commercial club secretaries held at Everett on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Fourteen different cities were represented at the convention by the secretaries of their commercial organizations. The officers elected were:

President J. A. Haradar, North Yakima; Vice-President W. W. Blain, Everett; Secretary-Treasurer H. L. Whiting, Olympia; Directors, O. C. Soots of Walla Walla, Frank C. Teck of Port Angeles, H. M. Robinson of Centralia, H. W. Soderling of Wenatchee.

Among the principal speakers at the convention were Secretary of the State I. M. Howell, State Statistician H. F. Giles and Manager W. A. Mears of the Transportation Bureau of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

The entire two days' session was given up to detailed study of development thruout the state, and at the suggestion of Secretary Teck of the Port Angeles Commercial Club a special committee was appointed to make a thorough study looking toward the standardization of development work in this state, to have the state and counties officially supervise and take part in such work, and to report a comprehensive plan or system to that end at the next meeting of the Federation, to be held in North Yakima on September 8, 1915.

In a circular letter sent out under date of May 11, addressed to the commercial organizations of the state, Secretary of State I. M. Howell says:

"I was so much impressed by the possible value of this organization that I am taking it upon myself to heartily commend it to every commercial club in the state, and to say that, in my opinion, no secretary can afford to miss the next meeting; not for himself alone, but for the benefit that must accrue to his own club and to the entire state."

be allowed on the overhead charges, alleging that the original work ordered aggregated $30,000, which by reason of the change in plans was cut to approximately $8,000, but the same overhead charges retained. In addition to this he asked in behalf of the tideland owners that the harbor area be included in the reassessment, but the late legislature had passed an act whereby they may be assessed after the law goes into effect in June. They are as much or more benefitted as the tideland owners he said. Council laid the whole matter over until June to take in the harbor area, but no action was taken as to the lowering of the charges.

CHANGE MADE ON U. S. R. C. SNOHOMISH

Wednesday, May 12th, Chief Engineer Eaton of the Revenue Cutter Snohomish was transferred to the cutter Bear, which departed for Alaska from this port at noon on the same date. The Bear came up from Seattle, and took the outside passage to the far north, going around Vancouver Island.

The large cannery ship Costa Rica also arrived on Wednesday morning and cleared for Nanimo, B. C., where she will coal. She follows the Bear to the Alaskan country and puts in five months in the vicinity of the Yukon river. The Costa Rica was used in winter service out of San Francisco.

Captain Hall came up on the Sioux the 12th to pilot the Santa Cecilia to Anacortes. This is one of the largest freighters in the coastwise shipping fleet. She loaded most of her cargo in Portland and will finish up in Anacortes. Her destination is San Francisco.

LOU. H SMITH, PIONEER HAS PASSED AWAY

Mr. Lou H. Smith, one of the early pioneers of Port Angeles, passed away at the General Hospital Wednesday evening, after a long, lingering illness with cancer of the throat. He had been in the hospital since the first of March.

Mr. Smith came to Angeles with the Colonists about 28 years ago and for many years was a tinner and plumber, having a shop down town until the past few years. His wife died a couple of years ago and his adopted daughter went back to live with her own mother in California several years before, so he has no immediate relatives, except a neice in Seattle who is expected to attend the funeral.

The services will be in charge of the Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Smith had long been a member, and will be held at the Fulmer Undertaking Parlors Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock. Deceased was about 62 years of age.

PARENT TEACHERS' MEETING MONDAY, MAY 17TH

On account of the small attendance at the Parent-Teachers' meeting last Monday evening it was thought best to postpone it until Monday, May 17, when a good attendance is earnestly requested as election of officers must be held and other important business matters discussed. Superintendent White will give a talk on Compulsory Attendance at School, Miss Wiggins will give a reading and Miss Reed, the new music teacher, a vocal solo. Please keep this date in mind and show your interest in the school your children by attending the meeting.

THE MOUNTAINEERS

A party of Olympic Mountaineers spent the week-end at their new lodge. On Saturday Mr. MacNeal acting as guide, several members successfully scaled the heights of Mt. Angeles. Interesting specimens of rocks and mountain flowers were brought back but all else was forgotten, when we neared the lodge, save those festal "boards" round which we eagerly gathered, and feasted.

The evening was spent in true mountaineering style, around the camp fire. Songs and stories of the day's adventures made gay the hours, until candles were ordered, and all retired to fir bough beds, to dream of mountain sleigh rides, dizzy heights, and bears that were not bears, but whistling marmots.

Those of the party making the climb were: Mr. MacNeal, Miss Meeks, Miss McKibben, Mrs. Phillips, Miss Pazandak, Miss Reddington, Miss Wiggins. *

The Board met pursuant to adjournment, all members being present.

The Board received a letter from the Seattle, Port Angeles & Western Railway Company agreeing to donate the sum of $500.00 towards the construction of a county road at Blyn, and the Auditor was instructed to reply, accepting said offer.

The Auditor was instructed to draw a warrant on the Current Expense Fund on the first Monday of each month in payment of salary of janitor for the new court house.

"Whereas, necessity demands that the road from Blyn to Sequim on the line of the Port Angeles-Jefferson County Road, two trading points, be improved under the provisions of Chapter 35, Laws of 1911;

"Therefore Be It Hereby Resolved: That said road be so improved."
