CONNIE JONES, QUILEUTE LOG EXPORTS QUEEN PATROL REPORTS SEVERAL ACCIDENTS

Gordon Otos, master of ceremonies of the Quileute Days Celebration and Connie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones, queen of Quileute Days.

Softwood log exports from the Washington Customs District totaled 440,8 million board feet in the second quarter of 1970, 33.5 percent above first quarter exports, according to U. S. Forest Service research economist John Austin, in Portland, author of the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station's quarterly marketing report "Production, Prices, Employment, and Trade in Northwest Forest Industries." However, Oregon log exports declined 13.4 percent in the second quarter to 134,7 million board feet. Taken together, softwood log exports from all ownerships in Washington and Oregon totaled 575.5 million board feet; and this was the largest quarterly volume ever exported from the two States, representing an increase of 18.5 percent from the first quarter of 1970 and a 27.6-percent increase from the second quarter of 1969.

Log exports through June 1970 totaled 1,061.2 million board feet, 15.8 percent above the 916.3 million board feet exported in the first 6 months of 1969.

Japan received 558.6 million board feet, or 97.1 percent of the second quarter log export total. South Korea received 8.8 million board feet and Canada 7.2 million board feet.

Douglas-fir made up 20.0 percent of second quarter log exports and Port-Orford-cedar, 1.5 percent. The remaining 78.5 percent was other softwood species, mainly western hemlock.

Total value of Washington and Oregon second quarter exports was $71.8 million. The average value of these shipments was $124.81 per thousand board feet. Douglas-fir averaged $122.54 per thousand board feet, Port-Orford-cedar $303.52, and other softwood $121.99.

Softwood lumber exports from Washington and Oregon remained level in the second quarter, totaling 107.2 million board feet. Softwood plywood exports increased 10.6 percent to 25.6 million square feet (3/8-inch basis), and pulpwood chip exports declined 13.4 percent to 349,000 short tons.

In Alaska, 5.6 million board feet of softwood logs and 86.2 million board feet of softwood lumber were exported in the second quarter.

The Washington State Patrol reported several accidents over the past few days.

The first in the series was August 7th at 5:50 p. m., when Kenneth W. Bushkoin, 24, of Seattle and his passenger, Patricia Knowles, also of Seattle, were north on Highway 101, at the Fiberboard Flats, riding a 1969 Yamaha motorcycle at approximately 60 mph, when the rear tire blew out throwing both subjects from the bike. The driver received bruises and the passenger received bruises and abrasions. This was the second accident for the couple in two days. The day before at approximately 20-miles north of Hoquiam another rear tire blew, causing the same type of accident.

A accident August 12, near Clallam Bay occurred as a vehicle driven by Diana J. Hergert, 17, of Sekiu, was parked on the left side of Highway 112 and was struck by a vehicle driven by David White, 21, of Clallam Bay. The accident occurred as the White vehicle attempted to pass another vehicle when he lost control striking the Hergert vehicle in the rear. The 1965 Jeep Wagoneer, driven by Miss Hergert, received $75.00 damage, the vehicle driven by White received $300.00 damage. There were no injuries.

Another accident occurred August 14 at approximately 8:30 p. m., when a vehicle driven by William Bouchard, 29, of Forks, left the road between the Forks Cemetery and Newton's Mill.

The driver told Trooper McCauley that he (Bouchard) was driving on Calawah Way when a 55 gallon drum of diesel fuel he was carrying in the back of his 1968, 3/4 ton pickup truck shifted, causing his truck to flip over.

Saturday, August 15, 12 miles south of Forks, at the Rain Forest Road and Highway 101 at approximately 8:40 p. m., when a vehicle driven by Pam Pemberton, 15, of Port Angeles, was north bound on 101 and failed to negotiate a curve to the left, causing the driver to lose control for approximately 400 feet. The vehicle came to rest in the trees on the opposite side of the road after rolling over several times. The 1969 Volkswagen fastback was completely demolished.

Passengers in the Pemberton vehicle, Laurie Pemberton and Nancy Alward, both 13, received cuts and bruises, Miss Alward was treated for shock.

August 16, at 4:20 p. m., about 2 1/2 miles south of Forks on Highway 101, Peter G. Dahlgren, 18, of Forks, was driving south on Highway 101 when he shifted down into third gear, attempting to make a turn into Campbells Bar Road, the vehicle went into a broadside skid, slid off the right shoulder, flipping over, coming to rest on its top at the bottom of a 10-foot fill. The only injuries to the driver and his three passengers were small abrasions. The vehicle received $1500.00 damage to the top and side.

Is a dog really man's best friend?

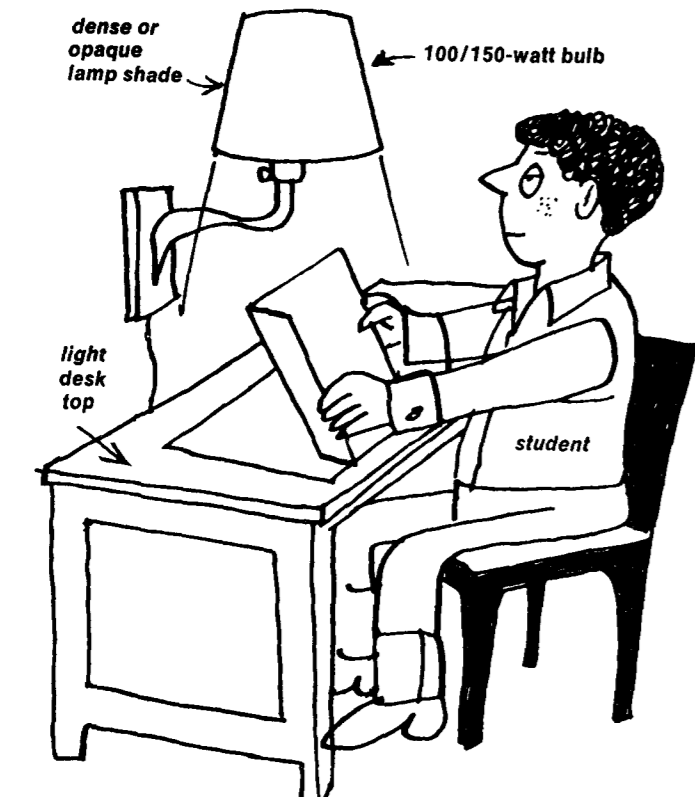

According to Jefferson County Sheriff's office, George Lytle, 18, of Forks, probably isn't convinced. What happened was George was hunting bobcats with a .22 caliber long rifle, when he returned home he parked his pickup in the driveway, stood the rifle against the truck and was sitting with his feet outside the door, reading a book. His dog apparently knocked the gun over, it discharged and struck George in the foot. He was taken to Forks Hospital, treated and released.

COPTERS TO PROVIDE SERVICE

Army and Coast Guard helicopters will provide emergency rescue service for civilians throughout Western Washington in a test program approved August 6 by the Departments of Defense and Transportation.

One phone call from the State Patrol on a "hot-line" will send the helicopters to the rescue in acute emergencies in a matter of minutes. The Army helicopter stationed at Fort Lewis is now on a 24-hour stand-by and Coast Guard helicopters will be dispatched from Port Angeles and Astoria. The service will operate mainly in non-urban areas where traffic or road conditions would delay assistance. (Please turn to page 5.)

bright ideas... for study lighting

For that important study area, here are practical suggestions to help your student see better—and easier:

- Use a light desk top (add a large, light blotter)
- Adjacent walls should be light, too
- Lamp shades should be fairly dense, or opaque in a light but not strong color
- Use lamp bulbs that are at least 100-watt, and perhaps 150-watt... for enough light, for study.

Sunset Highlites

By Fred Jarvis

Settled back to take a little snooze tonite, but couldn't keep my eyes closed, Boy! That's a switch. It's usually the other way around. Last week was pretty hectic with lots of company and not too much sleep, while now it's almost too quiet.

Sunset Lanes bowlers walked off with the lion's share of the prizes in the district finals of the Summer Singles held here over the weekend. Leta Rondeau pulled down second place for the women with a 612, and for the guys, Gordon McCoy was second with 646, Al Whitehead, third with 637, George????? Richardson, fifth at 619, Dick Suchodolski and Ed Rondeau tied for sixth at 617.

In the house eliminations for Port Angeles Lanes, Vern and Leta Rondeau led with 686 and 630.

John and Sally Nagel and Vern Rondeau and Reta O'Keefe really bowled up a storm as they whopped Duke and I last week in Beat the Pros. I think the only ones taking pity on us are our wives. John had a big 268 game.

Same old George winning the Friday Nite No-Tap. Had a 780 plus with John Nagel close behind at 740, Gordon McCoy won third place.

Won a little money off George Richardson and Glenn Gilmore at Saturday Nite Monte Carlo. Leta had the TV shot, choked up and couldn't get a strike.

The '70-'71 league season starts in a very few weeks, so if you are interested in bowling in a league, contact Darrell Thomas here at Sunset Lanes. And you team captains should be getting your team members all signed up and ready to go.

Time to hit the hay, so see you next week.

OUTDOOR LORE

By Lonnie Archibald

MILL CREEK CASCADES COMPLETED: Mill Creek, a tributary to the Bogachiel River near Forks, contained a 9-foot fall about 2 miles above its mouth which blocked access to about 5 miles of excellent spawning and rearing area for coho salmon. The creek was surveyed in 1966 and 1968 to determine the potential coho production. Adult coho were found below the falls and juvenile coho were abundant below the falls in July, 68. A survey also showed there were no other significant blocks in the stream. This fall was replaced with a cascade by the Washington State Department of Fisheries this summer. Containing approximately 22,600 square yards of rearing area for coho above the falls, Mill Creek should now produce an additional 8,000 coho smolt annually. The 8,000 coho smolt gained from Upper Mill Creek will result in a total production of 500 adult coho. Of these, 375 will be captured in the fisheries for a minimal value of $1,400 annually. The remaining 125 coho will find ample spawning area. Cost of this fish passage was approximately $15,000. This project will have a benefit cost ratio of 2 to 1.

FISH WELL DONE: I heard that wild Bill Bullock lost the interior of his smoke house last weekend when a neighbor, Bill Chaney, had ideas of smoking a few bluebacks in the structure. It seems that Mr. Chaney stepped out for a few minutes and during this period of absence, flames exploded from within the structure. After a fine fire-fighting demonstration by Mr. Bullock to save the form and exterior of his building, the smoke cleared leaving a display of one charcoaled smoke house and 200 fish, well-done.

WANTED: Knowledge concerning freshwater clams. There are several of these clams or mussels, whichever, clinging to the bottoms of the slower moving pools along the Sol Duck River. Are these shellfish eatable? If so, how does one cook them?

Here's a look at salmon fishing last weekend. LaPush was slow Saturday, picked up a little Sunday, and the report Monday was 2 fish per man. Sekiu is still slow. A few silvers were beginning to show Monday.

between the hours of ten o'clock a.m. and four o'clock p.m.

The State of Washington does not guarantee its published cruises of the herein described forest products, and purchasers thereof shall have no recourse against either the State of Washington or the Board of Natural Resources if the actual cut does not equal such published cruises.

Forest products must be removed prior to November 30, 1970.

Located approximately 18 miles by road south of Forks. Accessibility Via Department of Natural Resources Access.

Meditation

By Pastor Howard Stockman

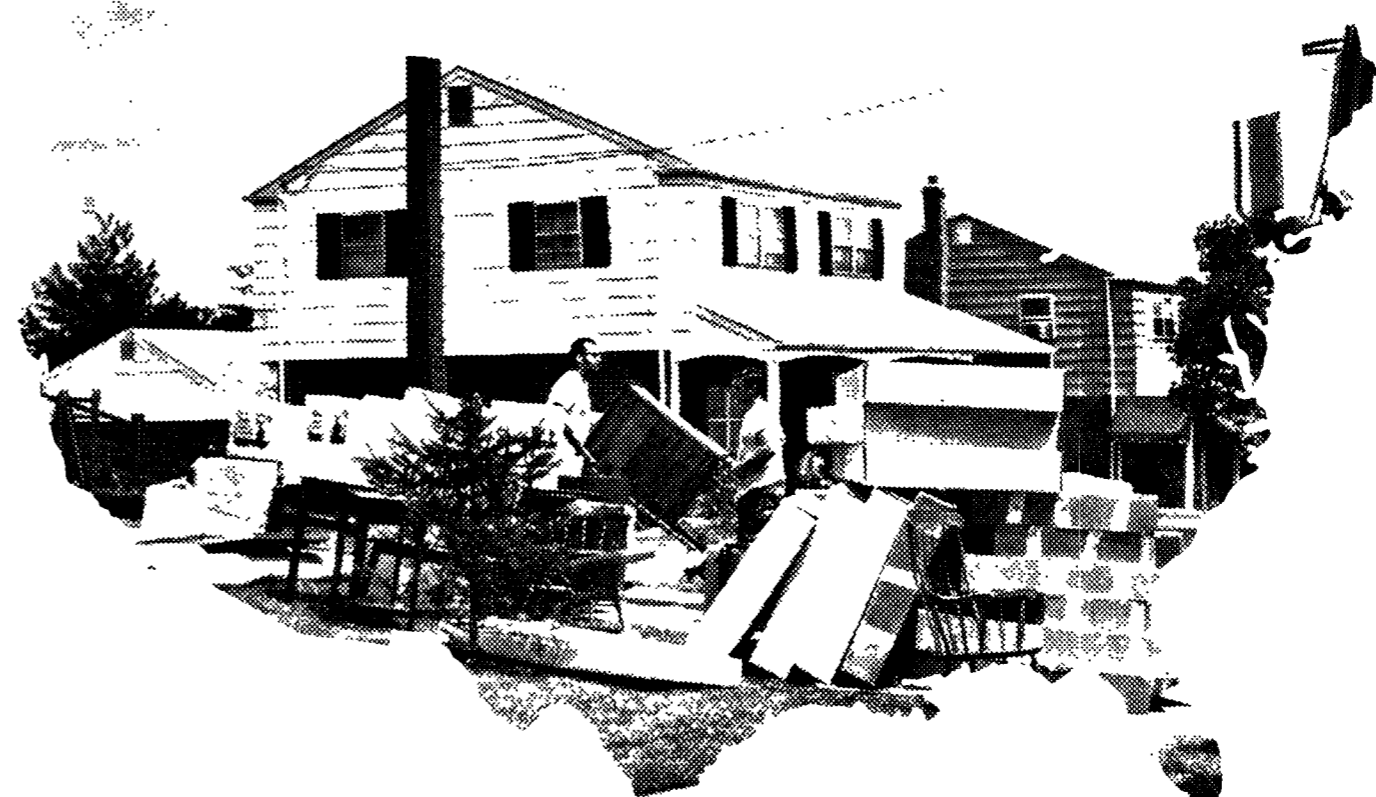

How we dislike to see moving day come. It means lots of work packing and unpacking when you get to your new location. It means saying goodbye to so many friends which you have, it means leaving behind all of the things that you have liked so well about the area you are leaving. It means that you will have to make a whole new set of friends in the new area. Then you wonder what people are like? Will it be easy to get acquainted? Will they be nice people? Will there be some good children in the neighborhood for playmates for your youngsters? All of these questions and perhaps many more buzz around in a person's mind as he prepares to move.

There is one thing that you do know and that is there will be a church in your new area. This is one place to which you can go to find people that are nice and who will welcome you. They will be glad to introduce you around the neighborhood and make you feel at home.

In fact where you are right now there is a church close to you where you can go to worship God. You will be welcomed by fellow sinners who know that each of us need Christ as we lead our daily lives. No matter if you are moving or staying in the same place go to church to find fellow Christians with whom you can share your lives.

WHEREVER WE LIVE

Harold assured Davie and Tommy that moving day did not mean the end of life for us. In fact, we were not going to the end of the earth. Many people would still be around us. Of course, not our same favorite people . . . whom we will keep on loving even though we don't see them . . . but new friends who would find places in our lives.

And that's the way it happened.

Our new neighbors opened their hearts to us. Our boys brought school friends home with them to play and sometimes to eat dinner.

Best of all, our family found a new church home — among people who welcomed us because they loved God. Anywhere we go in our country, there is always a church where we can worship with other people.

You, too, can find one wherever you move — and right where you are now.

BEAVER — TYEE — SAPPHO NEWS

BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

About three weeks ago a letter and its most interesting answer by "Dear Abby" appeared in the Port Angeles Evening News. I was so impressed by it that I wrote to "Dear Abby" Abigail Van Buren, asking if I might use it in my news column. The following is her answer.

DEAR ABBY: I caught your radio program and heard you rattle off a long list of things a person stands to lose if he is arrested for possession of marijuana. I'd like to show them to a few kids I know. Thank you very much. Sign me...

"Sixteen and No Dope" DEAR SIXTEEN: He stands to lose: The right to vote. The right to own a gun. The right to run for public office. The right to become a licensed doctor, dentist, C.P.A., attorney, architect, realtor, private detective, pharmacist, school teacher, barber, or any of a number of career job opportunities.

He may be forbidden the opportunity to work for the city, state or federal government. He cannot be admitted to West Point, Annapolis or the Air Force Academy. He would be permitted to enlist in the military service, but would not have a choice of service.

Not to mention the loss of approval of family, friends, potential friends and society at large.

This is a high price to pay for "trying grass"... or even agreeing to "hold it for a friend," which is often the case. Think about it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman went to Seattle on Thursday, August 6, to take their granddaughter, Lisa Nordman and her friend, Laurie Harland, home after the girls had visited here for a week or two. The Nordmans visited their son Arvid, and Mrs. Nordman, also their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Werner, before returning home that night. Lisa is the second daughter of the Arvid Nordmans in Seattle, the other two being 17-year-old Christine and Lorna, who is almost 13.

While Lisa and her friend were visiting Grandma and Grandpa Christine was in London, the first stop on a tour, which included Paris, Salzburg, in the Austrian Alps, and Rome. She is to leave Rome for home (the United States) by jet plane this coming Sunday, August 23. The Nordmans' youngest daughter, Lorna, who will be 13 in October, spent the week her sister was at Tyee at a music camp.

On Saturday, August 8, the ladies of Sappho held a potluck farewell party at the Sappho Community Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laswell, who left on Tuesday to make their home in Fulton, Missouri. Friends received word written Friday from Abilene, Kansas, that the Laswells expected to reach Fulton the next day. They have a host of friends in the Tyee-Beaver-Sappho area, and in Forks who will miss them very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith completed their studies Friday, August 7 at the summer session at WWSC in Bellingham, and on Saturday, the 8th, they arrived for a visit at the home of Ken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith. They left on Wednesday of last week for their home in Edmonds. On Saturday, the Smiths had as guests her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Norris of Kingston, and on Sunday Mrs. Smith visited them at Butler Cove on Lake Crescent where the Norrises have been camping out.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Baker spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. "Buck" Eckerkamp in Port Townsend. While there they all attended the VFW Post #4760 picnic in Sequim, the Eckerkamps are members of that post and auxiliary.

Also attending from Forks were Mr. and Mrs. Bill James and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sharpes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goakey, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Thrush, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Thrush and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keys and family. All the men and women, including the Foxes and Bakers, are members of VFW Post 9106 and Auxiliary.

Mrs. Elsie Browning had as guests last week her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Jacobs and Mr. Jacobs of Sacramento, California. Mrs. Jacobs is a sister of Mrs. Browning's husband, the late Mr. Harry Browning. The visitors arrived Friday and stayed until Sunday, when they went to Seldu, where they expect to spend some time fishing before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler of Parkerville, Vancouver Island, arrived Saturday for a week's visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Klepps went to Seattle Saturday to meet their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Klepps, who arrived that evening at Sea-Tac Airport from Brenard, N. C. The young people expect to remain two or three weeks, visiting his parents and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Maxine Holeman returned Saturday to her home at Edmonds after spending a week in Forks visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoke, and other relatives and friends in the area. On Thursday she was a luncheon guest at the Sanford Floe home and that evening she accompanied Mrs. Floe to the meeting of Forks Prairie Grange where she met quite a few friends all of whom were happy to see their friend and former neighbor.

FREE PHONE TO CONSUMERS DIVISION

A citizen anywhere in Washington State may call the Consumer Protection Division at no charge beginning today, Attorney General Slade Gorton announced.

The number is 800-552-0700. Gorton said the new service will be operated primarily as a message line. After a caller identifies the nature of the complaint or inquiry, a specialist on the consumer-protection staff will return the call on a state line.

Persons in Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and Olympia should continue to call the attorney general's offices in those cities, however.

Gorton credited community leaders in Everett and Yakima with prompting the new service. Both communities have requested part-time representation from the Consumer Protection Division, and a monthly visit to Yakima was tired for a time.

"The telephone service is a great improvement," Gorton said, "because it applies to all citizens in the state and because it is available full-time during normal business hours."

MEETS TO VISIT FAIR

Congressman Lloyd Meeds arrived last Friday evening, August 14th, and began a whirlwind schedule in the Second Congressional District. During the August Recess of Congress, Congressman Meeds will tour the District in order to meet with as many people as possible, exchange views, and discuss the activities of Congress. Here through Labor Day, September 7th, the Congressman will then return to Washington, D.C. to resume his active role as a legislator.

On Saturday afternoon, Congressman Meeds began his first week back home by visiting the Skagit County Fair in Mount Vernon. From there he went to the opening of the Democratic Headquarters in Everett, at 3001 Colby Avenue, where Congressman Meeds' own campaign offices are found. The Congressman and his wife, Mary, next attended the Annual Police Ball at the Elks Club in Everett.

Congressman Meeds' first week home includes a speech to the Bothell Chamber of Commerce, a talk with the Young Democrats of Snohomish County, and a lunch with senior citizens in Bellingham. Picnicing at the Snohomish County Democratic Picnic and breakfasting with the Everett Chamber of Commerce also rounded out the week's activities.

Visits to three fairs during the week help fill in the Congressman's busy schedule: the San Juan County Fair, the Northwest Washington Fair at Lynden, and the Clallam County Fair in Port Angeles.

On Friday, August 21st, Congressman Meeds will give a major address at the Washington Vocational Education Conference in Ellensburg.

Congregational Church news

Vacation Bible School is being held this week, beginning Monday, August 17th through Friday, August 21st. Next Sunday, August 23rd the children will present to the congregation some of the results of their week's work in the Bible school. The church picnic will be held around noon at Rialto Beach, weather permitting.

The "Adventure in Dialogue" group will meet again Monday, August 24 at 8:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

The Reverend King of the Seattle Fauntleroy Church called this week to tell of the passing of the Rev. Clifford Rich, former pastor of the Forks Congregational Church. He indicated that a special Memorial Fund is being established for Mrs. Rich who will be in need of financial help. Rev. King felt that there would be friends here who would want to participate in establishing this fund. Checks should be made out to the Seattle Fauntleroy Community Church and marked for the Rich Memorial Fund. Mail to: 9280 California Ave., S.W., Seattle 98116.

A sensible speed is one at which the driver can see and be able to maneuver the car clear of it under all conditions, warns the Allstate Motor Club. Since ability to spot hazards decreases as speed increases motorists will protect themselves by driving only as fast as vision and road conditions allow.

ARTIFACTS DISCOVERED

Indian artifacts dating to 2,500 years ago are being recovered this summer at a site known as Little's Landing near the confluence of the Wenatchee and Columbia Rivers north of Wenatchee.

Excavation work is being carried out by a 16-man archaeology crew from Washington State University in cooperation with the State Department of Highways. The highway department has provided $38,000 in state and federal funds to support the project.

Under an agreement with WSU known as the highway reconnaissance program, sites which contain historic and pre-historic materials are preserved from possible damage by highway construction projects.

The site being excavated is where the new Olds Bridge will span the Columbia River, about one-half mile north of the mouth of the Wenatchee River. The State Highway Department notified WSU of the possible historical significance of the area after a number of stone tools and weapons were discovered during construction work.

Harvey S. Rice, highway reconnaissance archaeologist from WSU, said the site lies along the Rock Island Dam reservoir, which was flooded in the early 1930s. Amateur archaeologists have dug at the site for years, finding arrowheads and tools, Rice said. The project now under way is the first professional excavation to be undertaken, he said.

"So far we have recovered projectile points, scrapers, drills, mortars and pestles," Rice said.

Excavation work was started July 27 and will continue through mid-September, the WSU archaeologist said.

Lucky Sew & So's

A busy summer for the Lucky Sew & So's 4-H Club. In July the club picked up litter in the parking area and on the beach at Beach Trail One at LaPush. Afterwards, all were treated to root beer floats at the home of Mrs. John Boggs.

The club met August 8th at the Boggs home for a brief meeting and work party. "Wishing (and work) Will Make it So" was the theme set for the club's booth at the Forks 4-H Fair, and members spent the afternoon making and painting cardboard shakes and flowers for a wishing well.

(Special thanks to "4-H Dad" John Boggs for assembling the frame.)

Cathy Claussen, Ann & Kay Stockman, Linda Boggs and Debi Otos presented a skit for the fair program, and Kay Stockman played a piano solo. All members entered exhibits at the Forks Fair and will now be getting ready for the Clallam County Fair.

Air-Sea Rescue

The U. S. Coast Guard Station at LaPush will conduct sea rescue exhibition for the public Saturday, August 22 at 1 p. m.

The Coast Guard will have a small skiff with 3 persons aboard capsized in the surf off Beach Trail #1. The 44-foot motor lifeboat will affect the rescue of the persons and tow the skiff in to the station.

This training exercise is open to the public. Both motor lifeboats will also be open for tours after the exhibition.

School Board Meeting Held

The meeting of the Cape Flattery School Board was held August 10, in the Home Ec. room at the Clallam Bay School.

The minutes of the last meeting were read, and one correction was made. In the statement concerning suggestions on topics to be discussed at the Washington State School Directors' Meeting in December, the sentence concerning making School Board positions more readily available, should read "without penalty". Minutes were approved after this change.

A written resignation was received from Mr. and Mrs. Goheen.

Mr. Willison requested the Board to consider including the Neah Bay building on Mr. Burkhard's contract. On the contract that was signed, only Clallam Bay was mentioned.

Mr. Willison reported on the A. A. Cleveland Building Conference held in Pullman July 15-17. Superintendents and architects discussed tax reforms etc., for financial aid for schools. It was stressed that there should be flexibility in new school structures, to allow for maximum usage.

Lois Jarret was hired for Neah Bay principal's secretary. The elementary secretary position is now open.

Ruby Jacobson was hired for Clallam Bay remedial reading position.

The meeting was recessed to be reconvened at 7:30 p. m. at Neah Bay on Friday, August 14th. Next regular meeting will be September 14th at 7:30 p. m. in the Neah Bay High School library.

The meeting was called or order at 7:30 p. m. in the Neah Bay High School library on August 14.

After talking with the applicants for principal, the Board decided to hire David W. Whitener as principal, and Mr. Donald Buckingham as coordinator of special programs.

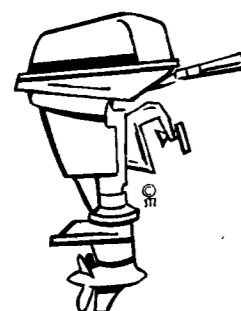

The Board discussed the possibility of having the dental clinic trailer located on school property. There was no formal motion but it was agreed if the trailer could be put on school property temporarily, it would be alright. The site in front of the high school building was suggested as a possibility.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p. m., the next meeting will be September 14 at 7:30 p. m. at the Neah Bay High School library.

Bids were opened for propane gas deliveries for the 70-71 school year for both schools. Far West Propane bid 16.7¢ per gallon, Petrolane Blue Flame bid 13.7¢. The low bid of 13.7 from Petrolane was accepted.
