DEDICATION GEORGIAN CIRCUIT WILL BRING 2,500 PEOPLE

MEN OF PROMINENCE TO SPEAK

Reports from the Seattle Automobile Club and from the Victoria and Island Development Association would indicate that Saturday will see one of the largest crowds of people ever gathered together in Port Angeles.

All arrangements for the entertainment of those who attend the dedication of the Georgian Circuit are now complete, and Secretary Teck of the Commercial Club promises that the celebration will go down in history as one of the big events in the upbuilding of Port Angeles. Both the Seattle and Victoria papers have given considerable space to advertising the event and a big crowd is expected.

The Princess Adelaide, one of the largest of the C. P. R. steamers, will bring over the Victoria delegation; arriving here at 3:15 p. m., they will remain until 8:00. They will be met at the People's Wharf by the Marine Band and the more prominent of the visitors will be conveyed to the ball grounds in private automobiles. The Seattle Automobile Club will arrive in Angeles at 4:00; they will be piloted from Sequim by Donald McInnes, going at once to the ball grounds.

The dedicatory services will not begin until 4:30, but at 4:00 will be pulled off an interesting and novel feature in the way of an automobile obstacle race between a Ford and a Metz car. Everyone will want to see this.

The program proper will open with an address of welcome by Mayor Horace White and will be responded to by Mayor Alex Stewart of Victoria and Joseph Blethen, president of the Seattle Automobile Club.

Word has been received that Thaddeus Lane, president of the Inland Automobile Association, of Spokane, will be here and will talk on "The World East of the Cascades." Other prominent speakers will be A. E. Todd of Victoria, originator of the Georgian Circuit, Sir Richard McBride, Lieutenant Governor Hart, Secretary Howell and W. R. Roy, state highway commissioner.

The Marine Band will be on hand to enliven the occasion with music and under their auspices a dinner will be served on the ball grounds for the convenience of the Victoria people, who will not have time to stop at a hotel or restaurant.

A banquet will be given at the Olympic Hotel at 6:00 to the speakers and other notables. The members of the Seattle Automobile Club will remain over night, proceeding to the West End in the morning.

The celebration will close with a ball at the same place in the evening, at which the decorations are to be very unique and in keeping with the event—all symbolical of motoring. The young ladies who are to act as hostesses will have charge of the decorating and something very artistic may be counted upon. The public in general is invited to the ball and tickets will be sold at $1.00 the couple. The hostesses include the Misses Frances Hoare, Cecil Smith, Mae Webster, Nell Mason, Laura Hopkins, Irma Lindsay, Angeline Ritchie, Helen Hooker, Leah Babcock and Bernice Campbell. These young ladies have promised to assist in the sale of tickets and will take orders by phone.

E. D. Guthrie, whose loganberry juice made such a hit with the newspapermen, has promised to provide a quantity of the fresh juice to be made into punch for the ball; a buffet supper will also be served.

WELCOME TO OUR GUESTS

Port Angeles extends a hearty welcome to her guests who meet here today to dedicate the Georgian Circuit.

The initiation of this project by Alderman Todd, of Victoria, was a master stroke. The instant response to the idea by the people of British Columbia and the State of Washington attests to the merit of the proposition.

Its possibilities are illimitable. Its international character lends a charm wholly absent from any other motor routes on this continent.

Nature has lavishly scattered her choisest gifts along the entire routes and we have only to search them out and revel in their beauty and charm.

British Columbia has been making an energetic and highly successful campaign of education as to the merits of the Georgian Circuit as a popular motor route. Good roads reach every point on the circuit.

Today we dedicate the circuit to the use of the public, and it now remains for us to bring its wonderful possibilities to the notice of that public and it will then accomplish its own popularity.

We of Clallam County welcome you co-workers for the general good. Let us all pull together as one man and success will surely crown our efforts.

HORACE WHITE,
Mayor.

NAVAL LODGE NOW READY TO PROCEED WITH BUILDING

DUES RAISED 100 PER CENT

At a prolonged and interesting session of Naval Lodge, B. P. O. E. last evening it was finally decided to increase the annual dues by 100 per cent, thereby making possible the immediate erection of a lodge building on the north side of the splendid site already prepared at the corner of Lincoln and First. The proposal to increase the dues sufficiently to raise an extra $2,400 per year aroused a somewhat heated discussion but the advocates of immediate building operations carried the day and everything was satisfactorily and amicably settled before the close of the meeting this morning.

The plans and specifications will be presented by the building committee next week, the same consisting of H. M. Fisher, chairman; C. L. Babcock, H. A. Cotton, Chas. I. Filion and P. J. Wold. It is proposed to expend about $12,000 in the building, which will be two stories with club rooms below, and $3,000 on lodge and clubroom furnishings. Work will be commenced within two weeks.

I STREET RESOLUTION HEARING TUESDAY

The respective merits of K and I streets, as prospective avenues from the Earles mill to the residence district of Lincoln Heights, will be taken under consideration by the city council next Tuesday evening, the hearing of the I street resolution, several times postponed, having been set for that date by the council last Tuesday.

Reassessment resolution No. 2, applying to the property specially benefitted, lying between Oak and Chase streets, was passed and date of hearing of objections set for Tuesday, the 31st of August.

Hearing on Resolution No. 38, which aims to provide sewers connecting with the trunk sewer on Francis street, was had and there being no protests the city attorney was ordered to bring in ordinance approving plans and specifications and ordering the work.

City Engineer Filion reported that the P. J. Woods contract, known as L. I. D. 24, was completed and recommended same be accepted subject to the terms of the contract. The total assessment for this improvement, Front street extension, is $30,466.20; total cost of work $28,229.02. Paid contractor to date $21,456.18; due contractor in 30 days $6,772.84. Contract accepted.

After considering the request of John A. Coleman, adjuster, that the city advance check of $500 covering its share of the $2500 offered in settlement of the McKinney cases, (Lewis, Wiley & Morse paying the remaining $2,000) it was decided to await mandamus proceedings as the proper method of procedure.

Ordered that Front street from Albert to ball grounds be sprinkled in preparation for the Georgian Circuit dedication Saturday.

Council accepted C. C. Donovan's proposal to put in poles and wiring at expense of railroad company, in order to secure service at the depot, City being unable to make extension.

An order of 300 pounds of wire and 100 brackets authorized for the lighting department.

Health committee reported standing water underneath west side of Opera House block, also unsanitary toilet; sewer pipe on C. P. Brown Front street property broken; agents and owner ordered to place property in sanitary condition at once.

Upon request of H. C. Miller it was ordered that City co-operate with ranchers in opening road on Q street from Boulevard to 26th. county road work in that vicinity having cut them off from direct connection with city streets.

Outstanding sidewalk assessments to the amount of $315.69 and $200 due on the downtown sewer district referred to attorney for collection.

A. H. Matthews granted permit to build a house to cost $800 on lot 18, block 431.

STATE COLLEGE TO HOLD A FARMERS' INSTITUTE THE 31ST

Regular meeting of the Board of Dircetors of the Port Angeles Commercial Club, August 10, 1915 4 o'clock p. m. Present: President Craig, Directors Farmer, Fisher, Grubb, Kirschberg, Levy, Lutz, Phillips, Walton and Ware, total ten directors and the secretary. Manager C. E. Shields of the Port Angeles Marine Band was also present and informed the Board that the band offered its services for the occasion of the public dedication of the Georgian Circuit here on Saturday, August 14. Mr. Shields' statement was received with the thanks of the Board.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE AUGUST 31, 1915.

The secretary reported correspondence with Director J. A. Tormey of the Extension Department of the Washington State College, resulting in obtaining the consent of the Department to hold a one-day and evening Farmers' Institute here on Tuesday, August 31, with demonstrations in Dairying, Livestock and Home Economics, to be followed in the evening by a moving picture demonstration of all the principal lines of work carried on by the college.

NAVAL MILITIA COMPANY

The sceretary read correspondence carried on in an effort to have a Naval Militia company and equipment established here, closing with a letter from Adjutant General Maurice Thompson, stating that neither state nor national funds would likely be available for that purpose within the next two years, but otherwise favoring the application.

ROAD SIGNS FROM GOODRICH RUBBER COMPANY

The receipt of 100 enameled metal road signs from the Goodrich Rubber Company on August 5 was reported and acknowledged. It was stated that the signs were to be posted on special posts on the roads of Clallam county, and also along the Olympic and Pacific highways at least as far as Seattle, as well as on the main Vancouver Island highway between Victoria and Nanaimo. The officers were authorized to act with the county commissioners in the matter.

GEORGIAN CIRCUIT DEDICATION AUGUST 14, 1915.

The secretary reported progress of arrangements for the dedication of the Georgian Circuit here August 14, 1915, at 4:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Victoria and Island Development Association, the Automobile Club of Seattle and the Port Angeles Commercial Club, the bulk of the work and the duties of host falling upon this club.

A conversation with Mayor White relating to the desirability of having Front street sprinkled on Saturday morning as far east as the baseball park entrance, where the exercises are to be held, was reported, the mayor advising that this be done. Director Fisher volunteered to bring the matter urgently to the attention of the city council at this evening's session.

ROAD BLOCKING COMPLAINT

A letter from President Joseph Blethen of the Automobile Club of Seattle, with accompanying affidavit and complaint of Charles F. Cliso charging that W. S. Tussing of this city deliberately blocked the Lake Crescent road to prevent Cliso passing with his machine on July 23, 1915, was read and discussed. On motion of Farmer, seconded by Levy, and carried unanimously, the secretary was directed to place the complaint and affidavit in the hands of Prosecuting Attorney Rose for whatever action he may deem justified.

JOINT-COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE SEPT. 1ST TO 3RD

The joint Jefferson-Clallam County Institute will be held at Port Townsend September 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 1915. The Teachers' contracts, with very few exceptions, are dated September 1st., in accordance with request of county superintendent which gives all teachers an opportunity to attend the institute before the opening of school. Among the instructors engaged for institute work are the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Nash, President of the Bellingham Normal and a number of prominent local educators. All teachers from Clallam county should be in attendance Wednesday morning at 9 a. m.

A communication from the State department reports the following Reading Circle Books adopted for teachers for the coming school year:

The First Year of Science—Hessler. State Manual. The Mind in Its Making—Betts.

Civics for Washington—Chandler. Agricultural Education for Teachers—Brickner. College Entrance Re-

TWO OF COUNTY'S LEADING PIONEERS CALLED HOME

WESLEY CAYS

Mr. Wesley Cays, one of the well known and highly respected old settlers of Dungeness, passed away on Sunday morning at the age of 73. The funeral services were held at the Dungeness church at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Fulmer. Mr. Cays had lived in Dungeness about 30 years and leaves something like sixty or seventy immediate relatives. Mrs. Frank Lotzgasell of Dungeness is a daughter and John Cays of Angeles a son.

HENRY POOLE

Henry Poole, one of the Pioneers of Clallam county, died rather suddenly last Saturday afternoon at the Taylor Hospital. He was a resident of Clallam Bay, where he owned the livery stable and was also owner of land on the Quillayute Prairie. Not being in the best of health he came into town to consult the doctor and look after his business matters. His family reside in New England and he had no relations here.

The funeral was held at Quillayute Tuesday at one o'clock, the body being taken overland by Mr. Fulmer, who conducted the services. Judge Cochran of Angeles and Geo. O'Brien of Sequim were in attendance at the funeral, which was a very large one. Specially impressive were the vocal selections by a fine male quartette.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION SEPT. 4, 5

A Sunday School Convention for Clallam county will be held in Port Angeles Saturday and Sunday, September 4 and 5. Delegates from Sunday schools all over the county will be in attendance. The state secretary and other state workers will be present to conduct the work. An excellent program is being prepared and will be published at an early date.

MARINE HOSPITAL SERVICE ESTABLISHED HERE

The Port Angeles General Hospital has in effect been made a branch of the Marine Hospital service, a contract having been entered into between the federal government and Dr. McGillivray whereby injured and sick seamen coming into this port may be cared for at the hospital. Heretofore all patients had to be taken to Port Townsend or Seattle. This new arrangement will make it much more convenient for the sailors, especially since there are so many ships coming into the harbor to load lumber and shingles.

POSSIBLY CLISE SHOULD BUY SPEEDIER MACHINE?

Charles F. Clise alleges that on the 24th day of July, 1915, when he was in a great haste to catch the ferry for the Sol Duc, one W. S. Tussing blocked the highway and would not let him pass, and he has now complained and had a warrant issued for the offender for violating the law of the road under a statute passed by our last legislature; they are to have the trial Monday, August 16. Mr. Tussing must have been running sideways for his motor vehicle was a Ford.

CAPT. ROBERTS DROPPED DEAD AT SOL DUC SPRINGS

Flags on the boats at the Peoples' wharf were at half mast Thursday out of respect to the memory of Captain Geo. Roberts, who died at the Sol Duc Hot Springs Wednesday and whose remains were shipped to Seattle Thursday for burial. He was suffering from indigestion and had only been at the springs a couple of days. He will be remembered as the man who was captain of the Clallam when she was wrecked in a storm some years ago.

Mr. J. C. Hansen has been confined to his home most of the week with a severe cold.

COMMISSIONERS TO BUILD FERRY FOR QUILLAYULE RIVER

The County Commissioners have decided to still further perfect the West End road by building a ferry to operate on the Quillayute river, across from Mora, and then to make a good road through to La Push.

The ferry will be a small one, designed to carry two cars and will have a five horse power engine. In size it will be about 25x10 or 12 feet, and its estimated cost $800.

To bridge the river would cost approximately $25,000 and in the winter it is said a bridge would often be in danger from the high tides. Captain Treiber, the designer and builder of the lake ferries will probably begin work on this new ferry about February first and it will be ready for use by May.

The Indian village of LaPush, about one and a half miles below the store at Mora and across the river, is one of the most interesting places in the county and has proven a great attraction for residents and tourists alike. The gently sloping curving beach of hard white sand affords exceptional facilities for ocean bathing and the picturesque Quileute Needles on either hand are a source of wonder to all who visit the place. At the present time tourists must make the trip down river in Indian canoes, or in a launch when the tide permits, or when rowed across to the opposite side must walk down over a very crude trail. Hundreds have visited LaPush this year, and the travel will be tripled when the place is made more accessible.

CITY TEACHERS SELECTED FOR NEXT SCHOOL YEAR

The Port Angeles schools will open Tuesday, September 7th, with the following corps of teachers:

HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. D. L. MacNeal, principal;
Miss Sarah Brown;
Miss Edith Meeks;
Miss Helen Redington;
Mr. M. A. Regnier;
Miss Mamie Pazandak;
Miss Dora Rademaker;
Miss Kathryn Reed.

Pine Hill—Miss Mary Rees.

Belleview—Mr. J. W. Lively.

There is one vacancy due to the recent resignation of Miss Palmer, and Miss VanCleave has written that on account of the illness of her mother, she fears she will be unable to attend.

BLIND PIG FINED $50

Gus Hahn, who runs the pool room at Clallam, was brought before Justice of the Peace Severyns last week, by Sheriff Bishop on a charge of selling booze, and was fined $50 and costs.

200 ELKS GOING TO STATE CONVENTION AT BELLINGHAM

The Port Angeles Elk lodge expects to send the largest delegation to the state convention at Bellingham August 19 and 20 of any lodge in the state.

Arrangements have been made for a special excursion to leave here next Thursday at midnight. The Port Angeles Marine Band will accompany them and doubtless will carry off the honors as they have already won an enviable reputation throughout the state. Their new uniforms and instruments will be an added attraction. All the Elks attending will be in uniform also.

The Bellingham lodge is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of its guests and a most successful convention is anticipated.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB PERMANENTLY ORGANIZED

A permanent organization of the Clallam County Automobile Club was effected under the auspices of the Commercial Club at a meeting Monday evening. W. B. Ritchie was elected president and C. L. Babcock secretary and treasurer. Up to Thursday morning fifty members had joined. The fee is the cost of a club emblem plus 50 cents and the dues are 25 cents per month. Next meeting Monday evening, August 16 at 8 p. m.

DOINGS OF THE WEEK AT OLYMPIA

Olympia, Aug. 12.—The industrial insurance commission in a report just issued on first aid methods in the coal mines of the state shows how this sort of precaution by employers and employees is cutting down industrial insurance premiums and saving life. The commission is conducting a campaign of education which it hopes will result in the establishment in all industries of the state of a first aid system such as the coal mines have adopted.

Dr. J. W. Mowell, chief medical advisor to the commission, attended the annual first aid contests between teams of coal miners at Cle Elum, July 31, and acted as one of the judges. The doctor reports that even nurses and doctors could gain pointers by watching the miners apply dressings, tourniquets, splints and bandages.

The coal miners have realized and acted upon what the commission desires every industry of the statee to realize and act upon—that quick and efficient first aid to injured means more rapid recovery and often the saving of life, which cuts down payments to disabled workmen and saves pensions to relatives for those killed. The commission points out that every employer should be interested in doing that, for it means smaller premiums to the state insurance fund.

The state public service commission has issued an order regarding bonds of grain warehouse corporations which will make the bonds give a fuller measure of protection to consignors of grain. It has been the practice in a majority of cases for the officers of the corporation to sign the bonds as sureties. The bonds are to protect those sending grain to warehouses. The new order forbids officers of companies being the company's sureties.

The board of control has decided to perpetuate the name of Governor Lister on the maps of the state by naming the new postoffice at the Port Orchard Veterans' home for him. As there is a town in the state called Lester, the veteran's postoffice will be called "Retsil," the governor's name spelled backwards, which will avoid confusion.

Saturday, August 21, has been fixed by Governor Lister as "Made-in-Washington Day," in pursuance of his annual custom to set aside one day of the year and dedicate it to the development of the industries of the state. The proclamation of the governor says:

"I earnestly recommend that the citizens of the state of Washington, in making their purchases, give special preference on this day to articles manufactured in this state, wherever such articles are equal in price and quality to articles manufactured outside the state and offered in competition, and I also urge that a similar plan be followed throughout the year, to the end that Washington manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers may have every possible assistance in maintaining and increasing their investments and their volume of business, thus materially adding to the development and progress of the state of Washington."

Governor Lister has accepted the invitation of the National Governor's conference to reply to the addresses of welcome on the opening of the meeting, August 24, in Boston, Mass. The welcomes to the visiting governors of the union will be delivered by Governor David I. Walsh of Massachusetts and Mayor Curley of Boston.

Governor Lister will leave Olympia this week for the expositions in California and will proceed east to Boston afterwards, arriving there in time for the opening of the national conference.

State Forester E. W. Ferris reports that, through favorable weather and more thorough patroling, the fire losses in the forests this year so far have been only 5 per cent of the losses to this date last year. The total timber loss this year to date is well under 1,000,000 feet and at its close this season bids fair to almost equal, in fewness of fires, the year 1913, in which the timber loss was exceedingly small.

The forester has 90 fire wardens in the field now and if the dry weather keeps up through August a few more will be put on. Last year 72 was the maximum number of fire wardens in the field.

Mr. Ferris reports that most of the losses this year have been in the low lands of Clallam, Skagit and Whatcom counties, where little rain has fallen, although the season has been a comparatively wet one in the higher areas of the state. Sixty per cent of the losses this year have been in Skagit county alone and a majority of the fires have started in logged off lands, communicating from them to standing timber, with the exception of one of the biggest fires this year, which is attributed by the forester to a spark from a railroad locomotive.

Acting Commissioner of Agriculture H. T. Graves this week started his annual survey of the dairy industry of the state, sending blanks to all milk dealers and butter and cheese manufacturers of the state on which they will make their reports. The survey will be for the year ending June 30, 1915, but will not be published until the regular biennial report for the biennium ending June 30, 1916.

In addition to figures showing the total production of the various branches of the dairy industry of the state, the survey this year will result in the compilation of figures showing the average price of products to consumers and wholesalers in the state, and the average price in various cities and districts, giving valuable data not heretofore available.

Dr. Graves believes the survey will show that during the last year the state, for the first time in its history, has not imported any butter, and in fact no dairy product except cheese. The state, however, is now making more of the cheese consumed within its borders than it ever did before and importations are likely to fall off rapidly.

Arthur A. Lewis, member of the public service commission, hurried to Spokane from Olympia last week on hearing that some apparent irregularities had been discovered in the Spokane City Treasurer's accounts during the period Mr. Lewis was Treasurer.

Mr. Lewis was fully exonerated by the Spokane city council.

Cashier Tabb of the office was suspended by the council pending the investigation. The council has not fixed the guilt on him, as the shortages of about $1,900 occurring in his accounts may have been due to irregularities by others or to bookkeeping mistakes which will clear the matter up.

Mr. Lewis, though treasurer at the time the apparent irregularities occurred, was not responsible for the character of the men under him, as they are under civil service and could not be removed by the treasurer. In fact, the personnel of the office remained the same after and during Mr. Lewis' incumbency as it was before he took office. The office force was bonded direct to the city and not to the treasurer. and when responsibility is fixed bonds of the employees guilty will have to stand the loss. No criminal actions can be brought as the shortages at worst can not be proved definitely to be anything but bookkeeping mistakes.

Washington Harbor was the scene of social festivities Thursday evening at a big dance and supper given by Hans J. Bugge in honor of the start of the salmon canning industry at the harbor. The buildings and main street shone brilliantly with electric lights and decorations. The Sequim brass band was on hand and discoursed good music throughout the evening. Dancing was enjoyed and the folks had an opportunity to see the cannery in operation. About five hundred persons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bugge. Three cars of Angeles people went down to Sequim to partake of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Bugge and they report the affair a most brilliant success. The cars going down were T. T. Aldwell's and J. C. Hansen's and Ray McLaughlin's.

George Nestle returned Sunday from his trip down the Quinault with Grant Humes; they had a few days rainy weather but for the most part the outing was ideal. Many people are camped along the Elwha, some fifty or more this side of Humes' place. Grant found a party of nineteen waiting for him at Elkhorn, about ten miles above his place, and returned to take them on to Mt. Olympus.

The old Elwha river trail, improved and rebuilt by the Mountaineers and the people of Port Angeles and kept open by the Forest Service, has enabled some thousands of people to visit the glaciers and waterfalls in the Heart of the Olympics and has already been worth many times the small investment in the way of advertising the unexcelled outing advantages of this county.

Miss Anna Filion entertained a party of young folks at her home on Pine Hill Monday evening, which turned out to be the leading feature in social events of the week. The party was given as a dancing party in the dancing room of the Filion home. The room was tastefully decorated with fancy lanterns, sweet peas and green ferns. Punch was served during the evening. At 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon of ice cream and cake and candies was served to the party. After the midnight lunch had disappeared the evening was closed with music and singing. The guests are high in their praise at the entertainment given them by their hostess, Miss Anna Filion. The party consisted of Mesdames Constance Hoare, Lucy Bonker, Mable Gherke, Verna Woiverton, Lillian McLeod; Messrs. Ed. Halberg, J. M. Marshal, West Goodwin, Roy Sarf, W. Bishop and A. Severyns.

Complimentary to Miss Marie Broulette, of Seattle, who has been spending a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Broulette, Miss Edna Holt entertained a few friends with an informal musicale at her home last Friday afternoon. Miss Broulette, who is an accomplished pianist, delighted her hearers wth several selections.

Excellent numbers were also rendered by Miss Wolverton, Miss McMillan and the nostess.

Miss Holt is enjoying a vacation and is spending this week in Bellingham, visiting relatives and friends, On returnng, she will resume her musical work in Seattle and continue through the winter.

Prof M. F. Knox, founder and president of the Mental Science College at Bryn Mawr, Washington. closed a successful term of both business and healing lessons yesterday and leaves for his home today. The Olympic Cash Grocery is undergoing a great many improvements this week. A large addition is being built at the rear for a warehouse and the storeroom considerably enlarged by the tearing away of partitions. A new floor is being laid and the whole place is taking on a much more attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Glines and a gentleman and lady friend from New York arrived in Angeles last Sunday and have been spending the week at the lakes and Sol Duc.

Although the collection of out-of-town checks and drafts is considerable of a burden to a bank, liberal arrangements that the Port Angeles Trust & Savings Bank makes with depositors for duties of this nature is creating many firm friends for this progressive Institution.

EVERY DAY ECONOMY

This advertisement is for men who want really fine merchandise and expect "Quality" at "Economy" prices. It's not always "Economy" to buy at "SALE" prices, but it is economy to buy quality at right prices. Price alone is too feeble a medium for expressing the extra economy we offer. When you think of this store we want you to connect it with

QUALITY

Our offering is

HART SHAFFNER & MARX SUITS
WALK OVER SHOES
MALLORY HATS
CLUETT & GREEN HOOD SHIRTS
STEPHENSON'S UNDERWEAR
HOLEPROOF HOSIERY

Which is the most economical merchandise you can buy at regular prices. They're made on narrow margins of profit; we sell them in this same idea of service. We buy carefully along conservative lines, so that we always have a CLEAN and MODERN stock to offer.

Our new and complete line of Fall Goods is beginning to arrive, and which we will be pleased to have you inspect.

We also want you to remember that we carry a complete line of Men's WORK GOODS, with the same consideration.

Price quotations would only take up room; besides they tell you nothing; it's seeing the quality that counts.

A GREAT STORE MAKING RAISE A LOT

BY GEORGE FRANCIS ROWE
WRITTEN AT KIRSCHBERG'S DEPARTMENT STORE, PORT ANGELES

I AM sitting at the desk again in Port Angeles today. I came up last night in response to a long distance message from Mr. Kirschberg· "We have got to raise eight thousand dollars more," said he, "and I want you to write something sensational." "Sensational advertising," I replied, "never did any good—there's only one way to get more money—sell goods cheaper. The whole world is tired to death of words—deeds are what count!" So we have put the prices down again and this is a tragedy.

MAYBE I have seemed flippant in the previous advertisements. The flippancy has all gone in this one! If you're looking for something funny you can stop reading right now—for the store—the finest on the Olympic Peninsula, is putting up the supreme effort of its career.

THIS IS SERIOUS BUSINESS

Its good name, its prestige, its power, as a mercantile institution, all hinge upon the success of this sale· Because Kirschberg is suffering from a very common complaint—he has too many goods and not enough money. So for the last few days of this sale, we have made still deeper price cuts.

A Case of "ACUTE BUSINESS INDIGESTION

For example:

You can buy any man's suit in the store up to $25.00—any one here—and there are no finer anywhere in the country, for eleven dollars and eighty-five cents. All are new, all are fine, fashionable goods. Eleven eighty-five for any suit in the store.

Any Man's SUIT for $11.85 [Up to $25.00]

If you're a small man, or if you have a growing lad, he can get a $15.00 suit for $5.85.

Five eighty-five for an all wool suit.

Boy's hats and caps, straw and cloth, all kinds that were bought to sell at $1.00 to $1.50, we shall sell for a dime.

Kirschberg needs the money! Bear cloth and felt sailor hats for children, that were $1.00 to $2.00, will be sold for 18c.

CHILDREN'S $1.00 to $2.00 HATS 18c

Little boy's Russian Blouse suits, all wool navy serge, worth $5.00, will be sold for $1.95.

Big boy's school suits, all wool, worth $4.50, will go for $2.98, and you can get all sizes up to 16.

Dozens of men's hats, straw and cloth and felt, all good styles, worth from $2.50 to $3.00, will be sold at $1.00.

Last week they were selling for $1.50—another fifty cent cut goes into effect tomorrow.

MEN'S $1.00 to $1.50 SHIRTS 48c

Men's shirts, outing and dress styles, plain and fancy, soft or starched cuffs—all sizes were $1.00 to $1.50—will all go for 48c.

Men's 25c suspenders will be sold for 10c. Men's 50c and 75c neckwear, the finest silk ties made, will all go for 35c. Men's 50c and 75c ribbed underwear will all go for 30c. Boy's fleece-lined cotton union suits up to 75c, will all go for 48c. Men's linen auto dusters up to $3.50, will all go for $2.38. Holeproof sox (silk) worth 50c, are selling for 35c.

Then we made another cut in the women's suits. Last week prices of $12.85 for $25.00 to $35.00 suits and coats are reduced to $10.00. Another group of suits that were cut to $7.85 is cut again to $5.00.

WOMEN'S SUITS and Coats CUT AGAIN

A big lot of girls and misses fall coats that were selling up to $12.50 are cut to 50c.

A lot of about 20 wash dresses for women that were $5.00 to $7.50, are cut again to 59c. They're small sizes and last years styles, but they're cheaper than the cheapest house dress.

WashDresses 59c Were $5.00 (once)

In the shoe store we took a big lot of men's and youth's sandals that were $2.50 and cut 'em again this time to $1.48.

Then a big lot of boy's "Mulehide" shoes that were $1.50 we cut to 75c.

Then a tableful of shoes and oxfords for men, Florsheim and Packard, famous makes, we cut these to $1.48 a pair.

MEN'S $5 OXFORDS now marked $1.48

Many of 'em were five dollars! And men's tan shoes, we cut to $2.85, though most of 'em cost more at the factory today.

But you see it isn't a question of cost at all.

It's a matter of money!

We offer any man' up to $25 for $11.8 for $1.95. Boy's 75 10c. Suits for lads $5 instead of fifteen 25c vests for 10c. G 39c. $3 sweaters f women worth three for one ninety-five. the same price. A fort to get money i climax will be reach deeper price cuts t thought would be

That's why the women's suede and kid shoes, button style, up to $4.00, have been marked down again; this time to $1.95.

WOMEN'S $4.00 SHOES $1.95

And the very fashionable pumps and oxfords up to $3·00 and $3.50 are to go at the same price.

Babies and Children's white "Mary-Jane's" are cut to 69c.. Tho' most merchants pay more than that for 'em at the factory.

BOYS' $2.85 SCHOOL SHOES 1.95

Boy's heavy school shoes up to $2.85 a pair, are also cut again, this time to $1.95.

And every pair of shoes in the store are marked down—not with any lady-like hand.

But cut as a Roosevelt would cut.

COME EARLY TOMORROW PLEASE

Best American prints are 5 cents a yard. Ginghams are the same price. Dress goods and silk are almost half price. Gloves, hosiery and umbrellas are a third and a fourth less.

In short the only things in the store not reduced, are Arrow collars and overalls. And these are not reduced because when he bought 'em, Mr. Kirschberg promised not to cut the prices. And a promise is a promise.

Sale resumed tomorrow· Come early—its going to be the biggest day of the whole sale!

Oh, You Fishermen Look!

All the rubber boots for fishermen and the heavy high top boots for loggers, and for men who work out doors.

All are down to just about factory cost.

$3.00 rubber boots for $1.95; $8.50 gold seal boots are $6.50; loggers $8.00 boots are $5.95.

Babies' and Children's shoes are likewise reduced. 90c shoes for 59c; $1.00 shoes for 75c; $1.50 shoes for $1.18 and all the $2.00 shoes for $1.48.

There's an old saying "that the best time to buy is when the other fellow wants to sell."

And Kirschberg wants to sell.

Genuine Antique Shirts for 55c each

That's why everything in the store has been marked down.

The reductions are real.

No half-way measures about this store.

No child's play.

NOW IS THE TIME

B. V. D· & Porosknit Underwear which sells for 50c the land over will be sold for 35c.

Union suits, same brands, will go for 75c.

Fifty cent open mesh Underwear will be 25c.

Dollar shirts, the finest you ever saw, will be sold for 75c. Monarchs included. "Arrow" and other famous $1.50 shirts will be sold for $1.15. All new too!

Odd lots of soft shirts that sold at $1.50 to $2.00 once upon a time now 75c each. Some "Arrows in the lot·"

On the ground floor there's a rack full of fine dress skirts for women; mostly blues and blacks, made of all-wool fabrics, serges and rich broadcloths. Former prices ranged from $7.50 to $10.00—we'll sell any one for $2.89.

DRESS SKIRTS up to $10.00 for $2.89

And the khaki and white dress skirts are to be sold at one-third off. Figure out the saving when you select the skirt for yourself!

On a big center table you'll find a big lot of merchandise underpriced like this:

Women's 25c wash belts 5c; 75c auto scarfs, 39c; 15c shell combs 5c; 59c center pieces and sideboard scarfs for 39c; children's 75c rompers for 59c; novelty silk and lace waists up to $7.50 for $2.48; another lot up to $5.00 for $1.48.

All the 20c Wash Goods 10c

Hundreds of yards of pretty wash goods up to 20c a yard for half price—a dime. A big lot of $1.00 and $1.25 muslin underwear for women at 69c.

Corset covers, drawers and gowns, corset cover embroideries worth up to 75c for 39c. Two fifty Swiss flouncings are $1.69 a yard· Very wide and very beautiful.

OUTING FLANNEL 4c yd White Too !

Outing flannel mill ends are 4c a yard. Lowest price ever known. Snowy white, too! and Daisy outing flannels, all colors, are 8 1-3c instead of 12 1-2.

Can't Tell the Whole Story

Bedding, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, undermuslins, knit underwear, waists, sweaters. Everything reduced.

But please bear in mind, the sale can't last forever.

No store in the world could sell its merchandise at these prices and stay in business.

The sheriff would get em sure!

So if you've any need to supply—do it now.

Tomorrow won't be a bit too soon.

For the sale is going to end pretty soon, and the laggards—the good folks who say "Tomorrow will do just as well·"

They're going to be "Waiting at the Church."

NEWS OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

LINCOLN HEIGHTS

Mrs. Rogers, who has been on the sick list since Saturday, is some better; her daughter, Mrs. Ida Harding, has been staying with her.

Mesdames Jacobs, McKee, Breckenridge, McMillen and Dorr, all of Pine Hill, composed a merry party which visited at J. B. Fleming's recently.

Mrs. Hattie Harding is nursing a sore arm caused by an injury to the muscles; fortunately it is the lett arm.

Mr. J. J. Bailey is now getting along very well.

Mrs. Anna Ferguson received a telegram last week announcing the death of her father, who was 90 years of age, at Gananoqe, Canada, near Montreal. The last word prior to the telegram he was well and enjoying all his faculties.

Mrs. Godfrey's sister of Victoria visited her a few days—a farewell visit before embarking as nurse in the war zone.

Mr. Charlie Harding certainly loves Lincoln Heights. As after trying four other locations he has bought lots from A. Rogers on 11th, near B street and Wednesday began building a house.

Clare Fleming will try life on the water hereafter. He is now one of the Snohomish crew.

Helen and Olive Fleming went to their Uncle A. H. Hall's at Mt. Pleasant Friday and returned Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. Hall and Eleanor. Mr. Hall will work on Charlie Harding's house.

Mrs. Whitmore and daughter Leona expect to go to Puyallup on Thursday to pick blackberries.

Mrs. Carre Laird is an inmate of the LaFlower home.

FORKS AND WEST END

The Forks Athletic Club smoker was postponed as some of the principals were unable to get there on time.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Terry of Tacoma, returned home Wednesday after a month's visit at Forks and on the Hoh river. Dr. Terry is a nephew of Mr. C. F. Terry. He is as much of an all-round sportsman as his uncle and it did not take him long to get into the spirit of things here. We hope the doctor and Mrs. Terry will visit us again next year.

Billie Whitcomb is building a neat little bungalow on West Palmer street, Forks. He has had eight carpenters at work on it during the past few days. We expect we may have another interesting item of news from Billie soon.

Born, on August 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Manavil, a son. Clyde says it weighs twelve pounds but we haven't weighed it on our scales yet.

Work started on the Quillayute road again this week. There is no money in the treasury to pay for the work but the road had to be put in condition to be made passable for the winter and the workmen agreed not to hand in their time until February. Rather an unsatisfactory arrangement but the best that could be made under the circumstances as the road was all torn up preparatory to making a good road when the work was stopped last month.

As we understood it the mix-up was caused by the inability of the state examiner to detect a mistake of $3,000 made in the auditors report on the J. R. Smith contract, here in 1913. Of course we know mistakes will happen but it hardly looks reasonable for one of this kind to be overlooked for more than three years. This is not the kind of service that we appreciate from our public officials.

Wahlgren's house gave us some extra excitement lately by catching on fire on two different occasions this week. Dr. Koenig, who happened to be near, put out the first one after twenty minutes hard work. When the second one was reported it didn't take more than two minutes for two auto loads of fire fighters to get across the prairie. A defective flue seemed to be the cause.

The Forks Athletes were signally defeated last Sunday by the Clallam Bay Giants with a score of 20 to 13. Clallam is coming in again next Sunday and our boys are telling us they will do better next time.

John Grader has gone out of the dairy business. He sold seventeen of his cows to a purchaser from the town of Sequim.

A large concourse of friends gathered at Quillayute last Tuesday afternoon to pay their last respects to the memory of Henry A. Poole, who died at Port Angeles last Saturday. Mr. Poole has lived in the West End of Clallam county for the past twenty-five years and with his death we have lost a pioneer who has done much in the development of his community. Mr. Fulmer of Pt. Angeles conducted the funeral services.

FAIRVIEW

Friday, 13th.

The Sutter family are spending a few days in the mountains.

Mrs. Charlie Lewis spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. James Jacobs.

The Misses Hazel and May O'Brien are entertaining Miss Georgia Coble and Elmer Jacobs this week.

Mr. Page has bought Mr. Coodwin's auto.

Chester Harbaugh had the misfortune to badly cut his hand one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Nichols went up to Bellingham last Sunday.

Mrs. Lottie Winters spent Sunday with Mrs. Reid of Weaver district.

There are five pianos, five organs, three talking machines, two guitars, three mandolins, three violins, two mouth organs and a jews harp in the city of Fairview. There are also three autos.(?)

For last week.

Mrs. James Buchanan of Port Stanley spent a few days last week in Fairview, visiting the Winters family.

Mrs. Chambers and Esther are spending the week in the hills with a party of friends.

Mrs. Harbaugh was very ill the first of the week, but is very much improved now.

One more family added to our neighborhood, Mr. and Mrs. James Jacobs are building a new home here.

Over one hundred people were present at the dance here last Saturday night and all had an enjoyable time. The next one will be August 28th. All are welcome.

Mrs. Winters, Sr., is making an extended visit at the old home place which her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Winters.

Mr. Goodwin of the Elwah was a visitor at the Page home last Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. O'Brien and children, Mrs. W. P. Nichols and Edwin Champion went overland to Olympia and Port Townsend last week.

MT. PLEASANT

Mrs. Wm. Reis and daughter of Angeles, who were visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Deitsch, a few days, returned home Thursday.

Miss Ethel Goodenough of Seattle arrived Wednesday at the home of her uncle, Milford Eacrett, to visit a few days.

Misses Helen and Olive Fleming of Angeles arrived Friday to visit their cousin, Eleanor Hall.

Mrs. Henry Magure of Angeles visited with Mrs. C. N. McLaughlin Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyke and sons of Seattle visited at the home of Oscar Lee Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Waite and daughter of Angeles visited at the Milford Eacrett home Wednesday.

Miss Margie Draper is home from a summer term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves of Angeles were Sunday visitors to Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. C. E. Taft and children arrived Saturday to visit with relatives in this vicinity.

The young people of this neighborhood enjoyed a dance at the Krajewski home Saturday evening, where they are always assured of a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. McLaughlin took in the excursion to Bellingham Sunday, visiting several hours with their daughter, Mrs. Mullen, at her beautiful new home.

A majority of the neighbors enjoyed a picnic at the Clegg-Dilling ranch Sunday, where the usual good time was had.

Mrs. Henry Boyd and children were visiting in Angeles from Thursday until Sunday.

Miss Sadie Dietsch, who has been employed in the Home bakery in Angeles for several years, arrived home Monday for a vacation.

Lloyd Aldwell returned Thursday morning from a business trip to Seattle and has now gone out to his place on the upper Elwha to do some surveying, so he says. It looks a little suspicious and we thought he acted a little queer when questioned, but mum seems to be the word at present, so we will just have to wait and see.

John Willson had a very unpleasant experience this week when delivering goods on Lincoln Heights. He was severely bitten on the calf of the leg by a bull dog. He would like to see all such dogs wearing muzzles as they are positively dangerous ,especially so this warm weather.

Rumors of the building of a railroad depot on the wharf extension at the west end of Front street have been circulating around this week but nothing definite as to the company's plans could be learned at this time.

Save your eyes! You will be surprised at the benefit you will get from wearing a pair of those Eye Glasses to be had at Brewster's 5, 10 and 25 Cent Store.

RAMSTEAD-BOWN.

(Kent Journal.)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ramstead, on Meeker Avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday evening, August 3rd, when their only daughter, Lena Olga, was married to Mr. Gilbert C. Bown of Honolulu, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The ceremony, which was the impressive ring service of the Episcopal Church, was performed by the Rev. R. J. Arney, and took place under a suspended bell of pink and white roses, which hung in the center of a pretty bower of ferns and sweet peas. This color scheme of pink and white was further carried out in the decorations of the parlor and dining-room.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Eleanor Bown sang "I Love You Truly," and the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mr. Chas. S. Bown, father of the groom.

The bride was very charming in a gown of broad-cloth silk, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas, which were afterward caught by Miss Susie Meadowcroft.

After a delicious luncheon, the bridal party motored to Seattle, and left immediately for Vancouver, B. C., from which place Mr. and Mrs. Bown sailed on the Canadian Pacific S. S. "Niagara" for Honolulu, where they will make their home.

The bride, who has been in training for the past two years, at Providence Hospital, Seattle, is well known, and has a large circle of friends whose good wishes follow her to her new home.

The groom has been for some time past with the Inter-Island Navigation Company, of Honolulu, and at present is First Officer on one of their large steamers.

An examination to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of postmaster at Piedmont will be held at Port Angeles Saturday, August 28th. Compensation of postmaster was $187 for the last fiscal year.

TOOK THE PAPER 'LEVEN YEARS

I've stopped the paper—yes, I have,
I didn't like to do it,
But the editor he got too smart,
And I allow he'll rue it,
I am the man who pays his debts,
And will not be insulted,
So when the editor gets smart
I want to be consulted.

I took the paper 'leven years
And helped him all I could, sir,
But when it comes to dunnin' me,
I didn't think he would, sir,
But that he did, and you can bet
It made me hot as thunder;
Lsays, "I'll stop that sheet, I will,
If the doggone thing goes under."

I hunted up the editor
And for his cunnin' caper
I paid him 'leven years to quit—
Yes, sir, I stopped the paper.

DO YOU WANT MORE MANUFACTORIES?

(J. D. Quillen in Winlock Live Wire)

You say you would like to see more manufacturing plants locate in Winlock—but would you?

Are you right sure you are sincere about it?

Your works will speak louder than your words in this matter, so stand up and answer a few questions.

What kind of butter do you use? Is it made in Winlock? Do you know that the Winlock creamery makes the best butter in the state of Washington?

Do you patronize your home blacksmiths, home shoe and harness makers, or did you send out of town for the last set of harness you bought?

Do you patronize Winlock bakers or do you help to build up out-of-town institutions?

Do you patronize your home paper and print shop or do you allow the paper to show through its columns to the outside world that you are a dead one, while you use mail order stationery to write your letters and dun your customers?

In short, do you properly encourage the manufacturing industries the town already has, including a big mill just outside of town, or do you buy all you can out of town, while you deprive a home man of employment by so doing, destroy a customer for your own business, and stop the sale of a certain amount of home produced material?

Take off your hat and give your brain a chance to work on the problem of the relationship between the home buyer, the home producer, the home manufacturer and the home workman, and see if you can figure out how it is profitable to you in the long run to build up manufacturing institutions in other cities and other states.

Reassessment Resolution No. 2.

Be It Resolved by the City Council of the City of Port Angeles:

(1) That is is the intention of the City Council to reassess the property specially benefitted by the improvement made on Railroad Avenue between the west line of Oak street and the west line of Chase street and the improvement of the alleys between Front and First street from Oak street to Lincoln street in said City, under Ordinance No. 424 of the City of Port Angeles, approved November 19, 1913, and all in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the city clerk and of Local Improvement Resolution No. 11, within Local Improvement No. 11, created by said Ordinance and therein also providing that the said improvement be made at the cost and expense of property specially benefitted and to be secured by special assessments thereon according to law.

The said reassessment is intended to be made for the purpose to make up and pay a deficiency in the original assessments for the payment of the cost and expense of the improvement of said above described alleys and for the deficiencies in the assessments for the improvement of Railroad Avenue from west line of Oak street to west line of Chase street, caused by the cancellation of the assessments made for the improvement of Railroad Avenue from west line of Chase street to Francis street, said cancellation having been ordered by the City Council for the reason that it was discovered that it was impracticable to drive piles or to make the improvement ordered from said Chase street to Francis street.

That the deficiencies are $1106.88 for said alleys and $6427.80 for Railroad Avenue.

(2) That all persons who may desire to object to said reassessments or either of them or for either of the purposes herein mentioned or for any other purpose, are hereby notified to appear and present such objections, at a meeting of the City Council at the Council chamber in the City Hall in the City of Port Angeles, Washington, at 8 o'clock p. m., on the 31st day of August, 1915, which time and place are hereby fixed for hearing all matters relating to proposed reassessment and objections thereto.

(3) That the City Engineer shall submit to the City Council, at or before said day, all data and information required by law to be submitted.

Passed by the City Council and signed by the Mayor on the 10th day of August, 1915.

HORACE WHITE,
Mayor.

Attest: J. L. Beam, City Clerk. 2t

Notice of Hearing

Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll for Local Improvement District No. 22, under Ordinance 507, ordering a new assessment roll be made out for the improvement of Peabody street by the construction of a bridge thereon between Third and Fourth streets, and a culvert thereon, crossing Seventh street, under Ordinance No. 461, is now on file at the office of the City Clerk.

Said roll has been set down for hearing at a meeting of the City Council to be held in the City Hall in the City of Port Angeles at 10 o'clock p. m. on the 23rd day of August, 1915, and all persons who may desire to object to said assessment are notified to make such objections in writing and file the same with the City Clerk at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing. At the time and place fixed and at such other times as hearing may be continued to, the Council will sit as a board of equalization for the purpose of considering such roll and at such hearing, or hearings, will consider such objections made thereto, or any part thereof, and will correct, revise, raise, lower, change or modify such roll, or any part thereof or set aside such roll and order that such assessment be made de novo, as to such body shall appear just and equitable, and then proceed to confirm the same by ordinance.

J. L. BEAM,
City Clerk.

PRINTING

STYLES in job printing have undergone many changes in the past few years. The gaudy type, fancy borders and big ornaments have been replaced with more simple designs. Present-day advertisers realize that the old out-of-date designs have no connection with modern business methods. We are specially equipped to execute simplified designs which attract attention of buyers and reflect the prosperity of the merchant.

All work promptly and carefully attended to.

Wrong Foot.

Sam, who was a great gunner, made arrangements to go on a hunting trip at an early hour in the morning, but having no faith in alarm clocks, he sought the services of the night cop on the corner.

"Jim," said he, instructing the cop, "when I go to bed tonight I am going to tie one end of a cord around my big toe and throw the other end out of the window. At 4 o'clock in the morning I want you to pull on the rope and keep on pulling until I tell you to stop."

"All right, Sam," smiled the policeman, "you will find me on the job."

Late that night Sam crawled in, and, after adjusting the rope according to schedule, he was soon in the land of dreams. Hardly had he slept a minute, he thought, when he was awakened by a frightened cry, and then more cries, and to his horror he saw Mrs. Sam slowly sliding feet first toward the window.

"Gee!" he exclaimed as the truth suddenly dawned upon him. "I must have tied that cord around the wrong toe!"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Till Evening's Hour.

Thou shalt not praise the day till night
is falling,
However fair its dawn and noon may be.
Ofttimes at eventide come storms appalling,
Setting the lightning and the thunder free.

Thou shalt not blame the day till it is ending,
Though it has brought thee flood and hurricane.
Full oft at nightfall comes deep peace descending
In sunset gold and roses, glorious gain.

Praise each fair morn that calls thee up from sleeping,
And through the hot day work with all thy might;
Then leave the evening hour in heaven's keeping,
Which sent both winter cloud and summer light.
—From the German of Gerok.

His Reputation.

A surgeon whose work lies largely among foreigners tells the following, which happened several years ago:

A woman who had very little the matter with her was so interested in her own case that she talked about it every time opportunity afforded. One day she said to the doctor:

"What would happen to me if I did not come when I did?"

"Oh, you would probably have died if you had come any sooner," replied the doctor.

The woman got well, and the doctor dismissed the case from his mind. One day, however, a neighbor of the woman appeared with a bad deformity which was growing rapidly worse as time went on.

"Why didn't you come to me sooner with this?" he demanded.

"Vell, you know Mis' Yohnson?"

"Yes," nodded the doctor.

"Vell, she tell me you say if dey come to you too soon you kael dem."—Indianapolis News.

A Pretty Poor Clan.

An old Scot came down from the highlands to visit his son, a student at Edinburgh university. Together they attended a learned lecture, in the course of which the professor frequently referred to the wonderful part which microbes play in human existence. On their way out the son asked his father how he liked the lecture. "I dinna ken whit mak's him pit sae muckle stress on whit the McRobes hae done," replied the old man. "I've no heard o' them afore, but I ken aye thing—they've never done whit th' McGregors an' th' Macphersons hae accomplisht, an' there lives no siccan a glorious clan as th' Campbells in a' th' warld!"

Juggled the Language.

Dr. Hans Richter, who has resigned the honorary degrees conferred on him by two of the English universities, lived in England ten years, but never became proficient in the English language, says the London Chronicle. Many amusing blunders of his used to be passed around in Manchester.

"She is no better; if she does not lie, she swindles," he told a member of his orchestra who, hearing that Frau Richter had been ill, inquired as to her progress.

"Schwindel" in German means giddiness or faintness.

Subsequently it was decided that Frau Richter should stay by the sea for some weeks, and her husband accompanied her to New Brighton, returning the same day for a concert. A friend overheard him saying at the booking office:

"Give me two tickets, one for me to come back and one for my wife not to come back."

Do Good Now.

If you do not now the good which you can the time will come when you cannot do the good which you would.—Frederic H. Hedge.

An Admission.

A north of Ireland orator in a Scottish county constituency sought to ingratiate himself at the outset thus:

"Gentlemen, I am an Irishman. I am proud to be an Irishman, but I am not ashamed to admit that I have a little Scotch in me."

And for a full minute he could not understand what the uproar was about.

FOOD FOR THE SEINE.

Odd Incident of Whistler's Student Days in Paris.

The early scenes in "Trilby" have shown us the hilarious squalor of the student life in Paris when Whistler joined the studio that Gleyre carried on in succession to Delaroche. It was the Bohemia, barely modernized, of Murger's novel, and the shifts to which these raw recruits in art descended furnished Whistler for life with some of his raciest stories. Once when an American friend unearthed him Whistler was living on the proceeds of a wardrobe. One hot day he pawned his coat for an iced drink. Invited once to the American embassy, he had to borrow Poynter's dress suit.

But the best story of these frolicsome days arises from the eternal copying in the Louvre, either on commission or on "spec," which kept them alive between remittances.

Whistler's chum, Ernest Delannoy, had done a gorgeous replica of Veronese's "Marriage Feast at Cana" that took when framed the pair of them to carry. They started out to sell it and tried it on every dealer up and down both sides of the Seine until the first price of 500 francs had dropped with several thuds to 100, then 20, then 10, then 5. Suddenly the dignity of art asserted itself.

On the Pont des Arts they lifted the huge canvas. "Un," they said, with a great swing, "deux, trois—v'lan!" and over it went into the water with a splash. Then arose a mighty commotion as a great crowd gathered. Sergents de ville came running, omnibuses stopped and boats pushed out on the river. Altogether the excitement was an immense success, and the pair of joyous artists went home enchanted.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Inspiration.

Whene'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoken a noble thought,
Our hearts in glad surprise
To higher levels rise.

The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls
And lifts us unawares
Out of all meaner cares.

Honor to those whose words or deeds
Thus helps us in our daily needs
And by their overflow
Raises us from what is low!
—Longfellow.

A Doubtful Compliment.

Landon Ronald, the noted musician, tells the following story about himself: "I went into my club one day, looked into the reading room and saw a great friend of mine talking to one of the ugliest men I have ever seen in my life. My friend called me over and, much to my regret, as I dislike ugly things in life, introduced me to the man in question. He turned out to be quite a decent fellow and paid me the usual silly compliments which all professionals receive. I conversed with him about five minutes, and when I had had enough he reiterated the statement that he was delighted to have met me, being one of my greatest admirers, and added, 'In any case, Mr. Ronald, I was most anxious to know you because I am always being mistaken for you!'"—London Globe.

Not In His Line.

Sir Donald Mann has no time to spare, as a reporter who went to see him found to his cost. There was some talk of a railroad line to run north from Toronto to a junction with the Grand Trunk at North bay. After Sir Donald had been talking for some little time the reporter said, "By the bye, Sir Donald, where is North bay?" Sir Donald looked at the newspaper man. Then he looked toward the door. "I'm not here to teach reporters geography," he said.—Argonaut.

A Joke on Offenbach.

Offenbach, the famous opera bouffe composer, had an insatiable thirst for success and fame, combined with a vanity that occasionally played him a sorry trick. Once he was going down the Rhine on a steamer, among whose passengers was the Duke of Nassau, a fact of which the composer was in blissful ignorance. As the steamer approached its last stopping place the bank of the river was seen to be covered by a dense throng of people, who were shouting and waving their hats. A band on the pier was playing a march from one of Offenbach's operas. As the boat touched the pier Offenbach stepped to the rail and bowed and waved his hat to the people in acknowledgment of this flattering ovation.

"It is glorious to be received in a foreign land like this!" he remarked to his companions.

But his self complacency received a rude shock the next instant when the duke's adjutant appeared and said in a rough and unfeeling manner:

"Get out of the way, will you, and let his highness show himself!"

Eager to Save.

There is an old north of England miser who is very wealthy and who on rare occasions will make a generous gift to some charity. His stock of linen, it is said, consists of two shirts. He, of course, wears one while the other is being washed. On one occasion he said to the laundress, "I think fourpence is rather too much for washing and ironing my shirt. Can't you charge less?"

"No, sir," replied the laundress. "Fourpence is my charge, and, you see, I have a long way to come for your shirt, and then I deliver it when it is washed."

"Ah, to be sure! Now, how much less would you charge if I changed my shirt at your place?"

SHIVELY SELLS STAKEMILLER'S STOCK

STAKEMILLER'S Stock is too large; that's one reason, and Stakemiller has been notified that he must give up his corner room; that's another reason. In fact that's the main reason; for the bank wants it, and the man who runs the bank owns that corner room. So there's no question but what STAKEMILLER will let the bank have it! The main thing you'll be interested in, though, IS THE FACT THAT THE GOODS ARE GOING TO BE SOLD.

I HAVE BEEN ORDERED TO DO THE SELLING

There's real news for you in this—news of goods that you know are good—and news of prices that you never dreamed would buy these goods. That's about all that interests you—the goods and the prices—so there's no use for me to go on with a great spread of "lingo" in trying to tell you about it. You know STAKEMILLER and the kind of merchandise he sells so when you're informed as to PRICES you'll be ready for action, yet—

I WANT TO EMPHASIZE THIS

That everything in the store goes on sale. Every price has been dealt with; not a price left whole. A large part of this excellent stock is marked 'way below manufacturers' and wholesalers' prices, and in no instance need you be afraid that you're paying a real profit; these prices carry no profits; they're not intended to· This store has been here 21 years. Mr. Stakemiller has been here 21 years, and during this sale the same treatment will be accorded you and the same guarantee of satisfaction or money back that built up this business will be lived up to strictly. The old prices are plainly marked and the new ones are just as plain· If you buy anything and don't want it, bring it back and get your money. BUT ONE THING—No goods will be charged. I'm in charge of the charge department and I won't charge 'em. When you take the merchandise you must leave the CASH.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY MORNING—9:00 a. m.

Mr. Stakemiller's Statement:

This sale does not mean that I am going out of business. In fact I expect to be in business in Port Angeles for years to come; but the above statement explains fully why I must at this time dispose of the merchandise. The interest of this store during this sale will, as in the past, go out with the merchandise in your every purchase. It is you who must be satisfied from start to finish and no matter what the price you pay, the goods bought must render you the same service as though you paid full price. Don't feel that when your goods are wrapped up and handed you our obligation ceases; it don't. We insist on righting anything at all that may be wrong, just as we've always done. I can not urge you too strongly to take advantage of this opportunity to supply yourself and family for months to come, with Clothing, Shoes, etc., that you will need. (Signed) C. S. STAKEMILLER.
